GHOSTZAPPER RETIRED

Reigning Horse of the Year Ghostzapper (Awesome Again--Baby Zip, by Relaunch) has been retired after being diagnosed with a hairline fracture to his left front sesamoid. The five-year-old suffered the injury during his 6 1/4-length victory in the May 30 GI Met Mile at Belmont Park. "After the race, he had some filling in his ankle," trainer Bobby Frankel told The Blood-Horse. "We X-rayed it and didn't find anything, but I wasn't comfortable with it and wanted to make sure everything was all right. I didn't want to take any chances, so I sent him to New Bolton [Medical Center] on Wednesday [June 8]. They did a nuclear scan and found a hot spot. Then they took an X-ray of the spot and discovered a small crack." Although Ghostzapper was only able to compete once this year, Adena Springs' Jack Brothers believes that his performance in his career finale was reward enough for bringing him back to the races at five. "That fact that we missed this breeding season for the Met Mile, I feel it was well worth it," Brothers said. "It defined him as a racehorse. It showed his brilliance and his ability. You don't see horses do that so within themselves. To draw off after going three-quarters in 1:08 and change. He just did things so effortlessly." Does his name belong with the greats of the game? "He was nine for 11 and, with a little racing luck, could have been 10 for 11," said Brothers. "I certainly think he ranks among the all-time greats in terms of sheer brilliance." Bred by Adena in Kentucky, Ghostzapper was overlooked at 11-1 in his career debut at Hollywood Park in November of 2002, but it was the last time his odds would reach double digits. The bay was sent off the 3-10 chalk in his next outing, a Santa Anita allowance test in December, but was never in the hunt and finished fourth behind Scrimshaw. He was sidelined through the Triple Crown season, but came back to take a Belmont allowance in June and a Saratoga allowance in July.

MOVING THE MAGIC

Local folk always referred to York as the "Ascot of the North" and that claim becomes reality today as the Royal meeting switches venues for the first time in its nearly 300-year history. As a result of the £185-million redevelopment of the Berkshire track, the five glorious days of Royal Ascot will take place on the Knavesmire at York, which itself boasts a rich tradition. Despite having to make the haul from the South, the fixture will maintain its regular array of pomp and pageantry against a backdrop of vogue and custom. On the track, the equine fair will be as fertile as ever and is woven today by such stars as Gary Tanaka's Rakti (GB) (Polish Precedent), who bids to underline his dominance of the older miling scene in the G1 Queen Anne S., and Godolphin's Dubawi (Ire) (Dubai Millennium {GB}), who bids for the sophomore crown in the G1 St James's Palace S. "Royal Ascot at York will be run along similar lines to the way in which the Breeders' Cup organisers stage their event with a host racecourse in the United States every year," Ascot's Chief Executive Douglas Erskine-Crum said. "Ascot will run the event, with both organisations working together to make this unique Royal Meeting a success. Capacity has been set at 50,000 each day, there will be a Royal Enclosure at York and the Royal Procession is planned to open proceedings as is traditional."

PALACE QUANDRY

It is testament to the strength of the Godolphin team this year that they have the choice of two Classic winners, Dubawi (Ire) (Dubai Millennium {GB}) and Shamardal (Giant's Causeway), in today's G1 St James' Palace S. at Royal Ascot at York. While the indications on Sunday were that the former would line up, the operation are leaving the decision late. "We are waiting to see what conditions will be like on the day before making a final decision about running plans," Racing Manager Simon Crisford explained yesterday. "Both Dubawi and Shamardal have come out of their latest races fine and we are looking forward to the St James's Palace S." Cont. p4&5

Making the Grade...

Ghostzapper made his stakes debut as a 6-1 chance in the GI King's Bishop S. and closed from the back of the pack to be third, beaten a half length by Valid Video and Great Notion. It was the last time any horse would finish in front of him. Off at 3-1 for the GI Vosburgh S. at Belmont--the last time he did not start favorite--he was again unhurried early, then charged to the front and galloped away to a 6 1/2-length score. "I was really surprised how fast he caught these horses," Frankel said after that race. "He was 12 [lengths] out of it, and the next thing you know, that's him on the outside." The Stronach Stables colorbearer was benched once again after that start, and kicked off his Horse of the Year campaign after a nine-month lay-off. Displaying a lot more speed during his four-year-old season, he sat just off a fast pace before rolling to a 4 1/4-length victory in the July 4 GII Tom Fool H. Bobby Frankel then began shopping for a spot to try his budding superstar around two turns, settling on the GII Philip H. Iselin Breeders' Cup H. at Monmouth Park. Facing three seriously over-matched rivals at a mile and an eighth, Ghostzapper was up close early, took command in the stretch and stormed home a 10 3/4-length winner, earning himself a career high 128 Beyer speed figure.

A Close Call...

Ghostzapper did look a little vulnerable in his final prep for the GI Breeders' Cup Classic, fighting off Saint Liam to win the GI Woodward S. by a neck at level weights. The effort led handicappers to believe he might be beatable on Breeders' Cup Day. Sent off the lukewarm 5-2 favorite, he went right to the front and never looked back, easily holding Roses in May at bay for a three-length triumph. Ghostzapper's five-year-old debut was delayed by a severe sinus infection, but the wait was more than worth it. The Horse of the Year was reluctant to load into the gate for the Met Mile, but was all business once the doors opened. He carried a motionless Javier Castellano to the front as they exited the backstretch and powered away to what would be a fitting exclamation point to a remarkable career. "I'm very emotional right now," said a normally stoic Bobby Frankel after the performance. "He's a great horse, let's just put it that way." Ghostzapper retires with nine wins from 11 starts and earnings of $3,446,120.

The Height of Greatness...

According to his connections, the champion had nothing left to prove. "With a horse like Ghostzapper, he's not leaving behind any question marks. He proved himself at every distance--sprinting, middle distances, and at a Classic distance," Jack Brothers said. "It's not like you're walking away, wondering what could have been. He achieved greatness at the highest level." As for when he will head to Adena Springs Kentucky to get ready for his stud career, Brothers said. "Bobby [Frankel] has a load coming to Kentucky in a week or so, and he'll be on that van." His stud fee has not yet been announced. "Frank will make a decision sometime between now and the breeding season," Brothers revealed. "There's not any rush. With the way Awesome Again's stock is going up, there's no sense rushing into a decision now." No matter the price, it is unlikely that there will be trouble filling Ghostzapper's book. "We've been getting inquires since the Breeders' Cup about seasons and availability," Brothers said. "There's a lot of buzz about the horse, and I think breeders recognize, with his pedigree and his race record, his potential."

History Transferred...

Royal Ascot has existed in some form since 1711, but it was only at the end of the 18th century and the start of the next that the meeting took shape. With the introduction of the Gold Cup in 1807 started the evolution of the dress code, which remains vital to this day, as the ladies find expression via their hats and the men conform with the customary morning suit. With the Royal Procession added in 1825 and a stand built for the general public 14 years later, the meeting was firmly established. York was a fitting choice for the transfer.

Royal Procession
www.royalascot.co.uk

The venue of racing in the Roman era, York staged its first race meeting just 20 years after Queen Anne introduced the Royal meeting.

Royal Ascot Opens at York...

For Chief Executive William Derby, Royal Ascot's move to York is the ultimate privilege. "We're delighted and honored by this decision, which promises a unique spectacle for people in the York region," he said. "There has been a lot of excitement and positive comment in the area since the move became a possibility. We'll provide help and technical support to the Ascot team whenever required--before, during or after Royal Ascot at York." Alterations to the Northern track have been required to accommodate the long-distance events, but everything is now in place to host the Crown Jewels of the five-day meeting. "Work to link the current horse-shoe track to accommodate a two-mile round course was completed earlier this year. This will enable the Gold Cup and other long distance races to be staged without alteration to the distances of the races," Derby added. "We're very excited about that and it should be a great spectacle. They will be very competitive races and it's a significant step towards what is set to be a marvelous occasion for the racecourse and the wider city."

The State of Play...

As usual with this showpiece, the horses will race on summer ground despite the prospect of scattered showers at the start of the week. "[The going is] currently good to firm and the three millimetres of rain we had last night just freshened it up a bit," Derby explained yesterday. "Its not raining, but is overcast and cloudy and we should get light rain this afternoon before showers tomorrow morning and brightening up tomorrow afternoon. We'll try to keep it good to firm for the week." There will be no Frankie Dettori this year, as the Italian's six-day ban picked up for careless riding rules him out of a tilt at a sixth jockey's title in the last eight years. Instead, Godolphin's Kerrin McEvoy steps into the fray for the London Clubs Trophy, which goes to the leading rider over the five days of the meet. He rides Dubawi today and has last year's G1 King George VI and Queen Elizabeth Diamond S. hero Doyen (Ire) (Sadler's Wells) in Saturday's G2 Hardwicke S. to look forward to. Aidan O'Brien's number one Kieren Fallon, with a host of Ballydoyle mounts on tap, will challenge for the main honors. International flavor is added this year by the presence of runners from Hong Kong, Australia, Japan and the States, all drawn by Ascot's Public Relations team. Today's G2 King's Stand S. and Saturday's G1 Golden Jubilee S. form a pivotal part of the new Global Sprint Challenge, prompted in no small part by the exploits of Choisir (Aus), who completed the double two years ago. "I think that in Britain we have developed a rather cynical attitude towards racing series, but there is no doubt that the Global Sprint Challenge has been a real success in Australia and Japan," Ascot's PR Chief Nick Smith told PA Sport. "The first question the winners of the two Australian races were asked was whether they would be coming to Ascot, and the Royal aspect of it is really important--people like to think they are coming to England by Royal invitation. We want the races at Ascot to attract the very best horses in the world."

Gary Tanaka's Rakti will complete his metamorphosis into Europe's Champion Miler if he justifies odds-on favoritism in today's G1 Queen Anne S. An accomplished middle-distance runner, it was not until the head-strong performer was dropped back to a mile that his brilliance was fully exploited in the G1 Queen Elizabeth II S. at Ascot in September. He is coming off a scintillating five-length success in the G1 Lockinge S. at Newbury last time May 14, breaking the track record in the process. "He's an outstanding horse and I would think he's the best I've trained," trainer Michael Jarvis told PA Sport. "When he's on his best behaviour he's very, very good."

Rakti, hero of the the 2002 G1 Derby Italiano, demonstrated high-class pace over shorter trips when cementing his reputation on these shores in winning Newmarket's G1 Champion S. and the G1 Prince of Wales's S. at this meeting 12 months ago. "[Jockey] Philip [Robinson] said when he was racing over 10 furlongs, he thought he would be the best miler he had sat on," Jarvis said. "Everything has gone right and I just hope that the horse that turns up at York is the same one that turned up at Newbury." Luca Cumani, who has won this contest three times, saddles the Australian Syndicate's Starcraft. He has also shown versatility over a variety of trips when winning the G1 Chipping Norton S. over a mile at Warwick Farm last March and G1 Australian Derby at Randwick over a mile and a half the following month. Remarkably, he showed enough speed to win the seven-furlong G1 Partsworld S. at Hastings in August and is a fascinating contender returning off an eight-month layoff since filling third spot in the G1 Cox Plate at Moonee Valley in October. Andre Fabre likes to fire a live round at this meeting. He saddles last year's G1 Prix du Jockey-Club (French Derby) third Valixir, who is stepping back in trip after winning the G1 Prix d'Ispahan at Longchamp last time May 22.

Godolphin have yet to win this race, which was inaugurated at the Royal meeting in 1925, but in Dubawi and Shamardal they have a live chance, whichever steps up to the plate. Dubawi showed flashes of the brilliance that characterised his sire's demolition job in the G1 Prince of Wales's S. here five years ago when winning the G1 Irish 2000 Guineas at The Curragh May 21, just three weeks after coming unstuck on fast ground when fifth in Newmarket's 2000 Guineas. After a fine third in the G1 Epsom Derby 10 days ago, he bids to emulate the 1991 winner Marju (Ire), who chased home Generous (Ire) in the blue riband before bouncing back at Ascot. Last year's champion two-year-old Shamardal looks to have inherited a fair share of the grit that saw his sire battle to success in this contest five years ago. Aside from an aberration on Nad al Sheba's dirt track in the G2 UAE Derby Mar. 26, Shamardal has never been headed on the turf, including in the G1 Poule d'Essai des Poulains (French 2000 Guineas) at Longchamp May 15 and the G1 Prix du Jockey-Club (French Derby) at Chantilly last time June 5.

The Challengers...

Michael Nolan's Indesatchel (Ire) a head behind Shamardal in the Poulains, was previously successful over testing ground in the G3 Greenham S. at Newbury Apr. 16 and G3 Tetrarch S. at The Curragh May 2. Indesatchel proved himself a versatile performer in the mile Classic and jockey Jamie Spencer is hoping he can build on that effort. "He's a really nice horse and hopefully he'll run a big race," he said. "[Trainer] David Wachman has been pleased with his progress since the French Guineas, but it's going to be a tough race." Aidan O'Brien has captured three of the last five renewals and relies on Susan Magnier and Michael Tabor's Oratorio (Ire) and unbeaten Ad Valorem. The former, who finished fourth in the 2000 Guineas at Newmarket and second in the Irish equivalent, will sport a visor after his disappointing show when down the field in the Epsom Derby. Ad Valorem has been off the track since winning the G1 Middle Park S. at Newmarket in October.

Round 3 of the Global Sprint Challenge sees last year's King's Stand runner-up Cape Of Good Hope bid to extend his 28-point lead in the standings for Hong Kong. He gained the lion's share of that tally when winning the G1 Australia S. at Moonee Valley Feb. 19. Third to Silent Witness (Aus) in the G1 Chairman's Sprint Prize at Sha Tin last time Apr. 3, he re-opposes last year's conqueror The Tatling in the form of his life. The Tatling is another admirably consistent veteran and went close to bagging his first Group 1 when runner-up in the G1 Nunthorpe S. over course and distance last August. He beat Var in the G3 Dubai World Trophy at Newbury in September before finishing a half-length runner-up to that rival in the G1 Prix de l'Abbaye de Longchamp the following month. There have been excuses for finishing off the board in three subsequent efforts, and he showed signs of a timely return when fifth behind Celtic Mill in the G2 Temple S. at Sandown last time May 31. "We've been aiming him for this race and he's just coming right at the right time," conditioner Milton Bradley told PA Sport.

☆ ROYAL ASCOT ☆

PIUS ADDED TO JUBILEE Michael Tabor and Susan Magnier's Antonius Pius (Danzig) has been supplemented for Saturday's G1 Golden Jubilee S., which forms the fourth leg of the Global Sprint Challenge at Royal Ascot at York. Last year's G1 Breeders' Cup Mile runner-up disappointed on his return when last of eight in the G1 Lockinge S. at Newbury May 14. He faces a drop back to six furlongs for the contest, for which 36 stood their ground at yesterday's stage. They include a host of runners in today's G2 King's Stand S. headed by Dab Hand Racing's The Tatling (Ire) (Perugino) and Guy Carstairs's Cape of Good Hope (GB) (Inchior {GB}), first and second in the five-furlong race last year. Trainer Tim Easterby has reported Lady Legard's multiple Group 1-winning gelding Somnus (GB) (Pivotal {GB}) in fine form ahead of Saturday's race. "Somnus has been working tremendously well at home," he told PA Sport. "He's been going faster than I have seen him for ages and he looks terrific. We are very hopeful of his chances." One sprinter who will miss the gig is last year's G2 Diadem S. scorer Pivotal Point (GB) (Pivotal {GB}). Trainer Peter Makin stated he needs more time.

Winter Solstice showed the kind of fight that will stand him in fine stead in the G1 Durban July S. at Greyville July 2 when coming out best in a driving finish here. After setting moderate early fractions, the G1 Queen's Plate and G2 Drill Hall S. winner was headed by Night Watch approaching the quarter pole. Wrestling back the lead with 1 1/2 furlongs remaining, the 6-5 favorite was all out under a drive as Toreador finished with a late flourish.

It was a very good weekend for unbeaten three-year-olds, thanks to the magnificent Divine Proportions and that exciting speedster Lost in the Fog. Divine Proportions extended her winning sequence to eight in the G1 Prix de Diane--a victory which means that this extraordinary daughter of Kingmambo has now won seven group races over distances ranging from five to 10½ furlongs.

Over at Belmont Park, Lost in the Fog had to work a bit harder to improve his record to seven straight victories, on five different tracks, in the GII Riva Ridge Breeders' Cup S. This race acted as another reminder of the legacy of speed left by Danzig. Although Survivalist, a son of this great stallion, couldn't land a serious blow as a running-on fourth, both Lost in the Fog and the runner-up Egg Head are sons of stallions sired by Danzig from Secretariat mares. Incidentally, Egg Head's sire, Honor Grades, failed to win a stakes race in a 24-race career, while Lost in the Fog's sire, Lost Soldier, won nothing more important than a Grade III contest during a career which stretched to 45 starts.

Lost in the Fog shows that when one door closes, another sometimes opens. Buck Pond Farm may have lost the promising Bernstein to another farm last fall, but his departure was balanced by the arrival of several new stallions, including Lost Soldier, who had been plying his trade at Franks Farms in Ocala.

Lost Soldier's fee had been only $4,000 at the time of Lost in the Fog's conception in 2001, but it quickly jumped to nearly double that amount--$7,500--on the strength of some eye-catching performers in his first crop, born in 1999.

The Franks-bred Lush Soldier won Canada's GIII Natalma S. at two and then trained on so well that she finished third to Riskaverse and Zenda in the GI Queen Elizabeth II Challenge Cup S. Then Lost At Sea, another Franks-bred, collected three stakes successes in 2002, including the GIII Singapore Plate S., to become one of five stakes winners in Lost Soldier's first crop of 55 named foals.

Although his subsequent crops haven't managed to match that impressive proportion of stakes winners, his third crop produced Chatter Chatter, who took the My Dear Girl division of the Florida Stallion S. by nearly 20 lengths, and Lost in the Fog is a member of his fourth crop.

It isn't surprising that Lost Soldier has made a bright start, despite his cheap fee, because he is a very well-bred individual--so well-bred, in fact, that he cost $500,000 as a weanling in 1990. His price reflected the fact that his dam Lady Winborne had already been very ably represented by her Believe It colt Al Mamoon, who numbered the GI John Henry H. among his nine victories. Lady Winborne later added another Grade I winner to her tally when her Lord At War filly, La Gueriere, won the 1991 Queen Elizabeth II Challenge Cup S.

Perhaps even more attractive was the fact that Lady Winborne was a half-sister to that legendary French mare Allez France, winner of the Arc. Their dam, Priceless Gem, was a highly qualified member of the La Troienne family, this being the branch which also produced Affectionately, Personality, Glowing Tribute, the Kentucky Derby winner Sea Hero and the champion sprinter Mozart. Significantly, both Sea Hero and Mozart were sired by sons of Danzig, so Lost Soldier represents a tried-and-tested cross.

Although he didn't scale such great heights as either Sea Hero or Mozart, Lost Soldier consistently showed above-average ability over a lengthy career divided between England, the United Arab Emirates and the U.S. Precocious enough to win his first two starts at two, he was still winning at the age of seven, so lacked nothing on the score of toughness.

Lost Soldier's three graded winners were produced by daughters of Nikoli, Reef Searcher and Dr. Carter--none of them exactly a household name in the world of Thoroughbred breeding. However, Dr. Carter was a better racehorse than he was a sire, winning the GI Remsen S. at two and the GI Gulfstream Park H. over 1 ¼ miles at four. Lost in the Fog is the second good performer by a son of Danzig out of a Dr. Carter mare, his predecessor being the GII Top Flight H. winner Belle Cherie.

Belle Cherie, who collected a total of four graded stakes at two and three, possibly provided the inspiration for sending Lost in the Fog's dam, the unraced Cloud Break, to Lost Soldier. Cloud Break shares with Belle Cherie's dam Belle Nuit the fact that they were sired by Dr. Carter from mares by sons of Ribot. And Lost Soldier has more in common with Belong to Me than just being by Danzig; their second dams, Priceless Gem and Straight Deal, were both sired by Hail to Reason from daughters of Big Hurry. Put another way, Lost in the Fog and Belle Cherie have 10 of their 16 great-great-grandparents in common.

Cloud Break sold for only $3,500 as a yearling, even though she comes from a very successful family. Her dam Wistful was good enough to win the GII Hempstead H. over a mile and an eighth and Wistful had two distinguished half sisters. One, the AI Hattab mare Luminaire, was a dual Grade II winner over 1 3/16 miles and the other, the Secretariat mare Listen Well, bred the GI Hollywood Oaks winner Listening and the GII Santa Ana H. winner Beautiful Noise.

Add in the fact that Lost in the Fog's third dam, Margaret's Number, was a winner of two Grade III races on turf, and it isn't such a surprise that this inexpensively produced colt is proving so difficult to beat. Although his stakes victories have so far been gained in the region of six and seven furlongs, there is no reason on pedigree why he shouldn't be just as effective over a mile.

More for Me hadn't been on the grass before, but clearly showed an affinity for the surface with a driving gate-to-wire score. From the same connections as her sire--sophomore More Than Ready--More for Me splashed home a solid fourth after a poor start in her debut at Gulfstream Mar. 9, but couldn't get the job done when third as the 7-5 choice in a Keeneland maiden Apr. 21. She was odds-on stretching to two turns for the first time at Belmont May 26 and came through for her backers, prevailing by a length and a half on the line. Testing stakes waters against a much more experienced field, the bay controlled the pace through soft :24.57, :49.82, and 1:14.17 fractions, then rebuffed the bid of even-money Defensa and was going away late.
