BAY MEADOWS CONTENDER FOR H'WOOD

With a bid of about $275 million, the owner of Bay Meadows has emerged as a leading candidate to acquire Hollywood Park, according to the Los Angeles Business Journal. The publication, which cites 'numerous sources,' said that Stockbridge Capital Partners, through its Bay Meadows Land Co. unit, came storming into contention for the 240-acre property with a late bid that surprised Inglewood city officials and rival developers alike. The $275-million bid is reported to be some 10 percent higher than the next closest bid. Stockbridge has also agreed to hire Hollywood's current owner, Churchill Downs Inc., to manage the track for three years while Stockbridge goes through the entitlement process. Horse racing would continue during that period.

COOLMORE ACQUIRES HURRICANE RUN

Coolmore Stud and Michael Tabor have purchased the G1 Prix du Jockey-Club (French Derby) runner-up Hurricane Run (Ire) (Montjeu {Ire}) ahead of his outing in Sunday's G1 Irish Derby at The Curragh. Beaten a neck by Shamardal in the Chantilly Classic June 5, the sophomore will remain in training with Andre Fabre and will be partnered by Kieren Fallon in the mile-and-a-half contest. Ammerland's Dietrich von Boetticher, the colt will be leased back to his breeder for the race. "Hurricane Run has been sold to Michael Tabor and Coolmore Stud," confirmed Coolmore's Richard Henry. "He has been leased back to Dietrich von Botticher and runs for him Sunday in the colors of Gestut Ammerland. He looks to be a really, really good horse and we are always on the lookout for top prospects." Hurricane Run recorded an impressive success in the G2 Prix Hocquart at Longchamp May 9 before his near-miss in the Jockey-Club, where he ran greenly before finishing fast late.

When Giant's Causeway's first yearlings reached the sales ring in 2003, this remarkable racehorse appeared to have virtually everything going for him, with one possible exception: the record of his father Storm Cat as a sire of sires.

Although Storm Cat had 90 stallion sons listed in the 2003 Blood-Horse Stallion Register, he had yet to come up with a son anywhere near as effective as himself.

It might have been different had Harlan lived longer, but the likes of Tabasco Cat and Mountain Cat hadn't made the hoped-for impact, while Catrail had also done little to advertise Storm Cat's eldest stallion sons during his stay in Ireland. Even though Hennessy, Forest Wildcat, Storm Boot and Tale of the Cat had all given hints that they might take higher rank, the overall mass of evidence wasn't convincing. Andrew Caulfield cont. p2

Perhaps that's why Giant's Causeway's yearlings met with mixed fortunes at the sales, bearing in mind that they had been conceived at a fee of Ir100,000gns during his only season in Ireland.

When I assessed the first-crop sires for TDN in the spring of 2004, my comments on Giant's Causeway included:

"The universal admiration he generated on the track didn't extend to all of his first yearlings, with some judges complaining that he hadn't stamped his stock. I recall similar complaints about two other stallions. One, Caerleon, became champion sire in 1988 with only two crops on the track, and the other, Warning, headed a strong team of new sires in 1993!

"I expect Giant's Causeway to silence his critics in the best possible way. With over 130 youngsters, he has numbers very much on his side and he has every right to sire quick-maturing individuals, having won all three of his juvenile starts, beginning in July."

It makes an interesting exercise to look at the record of some of these sales yearlings. At the top end of the scale were Mona Lisa, a 1,250,000-guinea purchase, who was third in the G1 Coronation S. last week; and Noble Causeway, the $1,150,000 colt who was second in the GI Florida Derby. My Typhoon, a stakes-winning turf filly, was another very high-priced purchase, at 1,800,000 guineas as a weanling.

But it was the yearlings down at the other end of the scale which helped Giant's Causeway complete another magnificent Group-1 double at last week's Royal York meeting. Shamardal, who was so impressive in adding the St James's Palace S. to his pair of French classic successes, had been the cheapest of the Giant's Causeway yearlings which found a buyer at the Houghton Sale, selling for only 50,000 guineas. And Maids Causeway, who showed such courage in grabbing victory in the Coronation S., was ignored at Tattersalls' December Yearling Sale to the extent that this Marston Stud filly was knocked down unsold at 25,000 guineas.

Just why Maids Causeway attracted so little attention is hard to tell. Perhaps she hadn't fully recovered from whatever prevented her meeting her engagement in the October Yearling sale. Or perhaps buyers were deterred by some flaw in her conformation. But if she has a flaw, it hasn't been serious enough to prevent her racing regularly at a high level, on all types of ground, from soft to firm. As a veteran of nine races, she was the most experienced filly in the Coronation S. field and she embodies all the toughness and fighting qualities which made her sire such a favorite.

The lack of interest in the young Maids Causeway is all the more surprising in view of the quality of her female line. She is the third foal of Vallee des Reves, an unraced mare whose bloodlines were sufficiently impressive for her to fetch 320,000 guineas as an in-foal three-year-old. That price placed her joint-fifth on the list of high-priced mares at the 1999 December Sales.

Being in foal to Danehill no doubt contributed to Vallee des Reves' popularity, but she also had several other factors in her favor. For a start, she is by the accomplished Kingmambo, and two of her half sisters, the high-class Nureyev filly Verveine and the minor winner Vanishing Prairie, had produced group winners.

This female line has served the Wildenstein family extremely well over the years, Vallee des Reves being out of a half sister to the very good French colts Vacarme and Vin de France. Her second dam, the Classic-placed Virunga, was a half sister to Vitiges, who numbered the Prix Morny and the Champion S. among his successes.

The family has continued to flourish since Vallee des Reves' sale in 1999. Verveine and Vanishing Prairie now have a total of five group winners to their credit, including the Grade/Group-1 winners Volga, Vallee Enchantee and Vespone.

Vallee Enchantee, together with her talented brother Vassilievsky, is by Peintre Celebre, which means that she has the distinction of being inbred 2x3 to Nureyev. Vallee des Reves is also closely inbred to this magnificent stallion, the inbreeding being 3x2 in her instance, through Nureyev's daughters Miesque and Venise. Inbreeding to Nureyev can't have been done all that often, but it has also produced the German Oaks winner Silvester Lady (3x3).

Maids Causeway's emergence as a first-rate performer is yet another reason for hoping that Kingmambo is able to cope with the arthritic condition which has been so troublesome this year.

Kingmambo is also the broodmare sire of Suzuka Mambo, winner of the very important Tenno Sho this spring, and of Indigo Cat, another stakes winner at the Royal meeting last week. Kingmambo is also attracting attention as a sire of sires, thanks to the efforts of King's Best and the French-based first-crop sire Kingsalsa. Dubai Destination, his winner of the 2003 Queen Anne S., is going to be one to keep an eye on.

To get back to Giant's Causeway, European breeders will no doubt regret his move to Kentucky. However, his record so far suggests that he is probably in the right place, as Shamardal, Maids Causeway, My Typhoon, Noble Causeway and the Group-placed French filly Naissance Royale are all out of mares by sons of Mr. Prospector. There is also a black-type earner out of a mare by Mr. Prospector. We mustn't forget, though, that the classic-winning Footstepsinthesand is inbred 4x3 to Blushing Groom and 4x5 to Northern Dancer, while Shamardal has several lines to Almahmoud.

My TDN colleague Bill Oppenheim is probably right to say that we should forget about Giant's Causeway's winners-to-foals percentage now that he is established as a prolific source of Group 1 performers. I still feel it is an aspect of Giant's Causeway's record which needs to be kept under close scrutiny, as there may be lessons to be learned. Although his number of winners from his first crop is now heading towards 40, that means there are still nearly a hundred which haven't won (I should quickly point out that British- and Irish-based stallions usually have considerably lower percentages of winners than their American counterparts).

Perhaps part of the explanation is that stallions like Giant's Causeway, with good conformation and a well-earned reputation for durability, often receive more than their fare share of mares which are lacking in those departments. No matter how good a stallion is, he can't reasonably be expected to right all the wrongs.

Delaware Cancels Again, Names New Superintendent:

Delaware Park, which called off its card after the sixth race Sunday, cancelled its entire program Monday and announced the hiring of new track superintendent Ken Brown. Brown served as track superintendent for the Maryland Jockey Club for 18 years. "We are confident that Ken's proven track record in maintaining a quality racetrack surface will result in optimum track conditions and restore the confidence of our racing fans, horsemen and jockeys," Delaware COO Bill Fasy said in a statement. According to the Wilmington News-Journal, jockeys refused to finish Sunday's race card, citing unsafe track conditions. Monday's card was canceled to give Brown additional time to work on the track surface, according to the Delaware Park release. The track will be requesting four additional racing days in August from the Delaware Thoroughbred Racing Commission.

LEGER TO THE KNAVESMIRE? York could be hosting another first next year if Doncaster's redevelopment program prompts a temporary switch of the G1 St Leger in September. Hot on the heels of its staging of the Royal Ascot meeting, York is being touted as the favored venue for the oldest Classic if the Arena Leisure-owned track is forced to close for the works. Explaining to the Daily Telegraph that plans were in the process of being agreed, Arena's Director of Racing Ian Renton said, "If we decide that it is best to race elsewhere, we will be drawing up a list and York would certainly be on that list."
