A year ago, Japanese Classic winner Dance in the Mood (Jpn) went off the favorite in the $750,000 GI American Oaks, but could do no better than second as

Cesario Benoit

Ticker Tape (GB) ran off with the victory. Avenging that loss for her compatriot in yesterday's renewal at Hollywood Park, G1 Japanese Oaks heroine Cesario (Jpn) (Special Week {Jpn}), more than a bit rambunctious in the post parade, took charge mid-way through the turn and left the field in her wake with a dazzling turn of foot. The striking dark bay becomes the first Japanese horse to win a Grade I race in America. "This is the first step for us, so this will encourage all Japanese breeders," said winning trainer Katsuhiko Sumii. Favored Melhor Ainda (Pulpit) put in a valiant rally down the lane, but couldn't catch the winner. American Oaks cont. p2

S. at Churchill Downs this afternoon. The four-year-old underwent surgery to remove chips from his left knee after running second in the GI Breeders' Cup Turf last October. Handled patiently by trainer Dale Romans since, he signaled his readiness with a swift turf work between races Monday, going five furlongs in :59.46 around the dogs. Still, Romans feel the colt faces a tough task as he drops back to eight furlongs for the first time since running second in an off-the-turf maiden test at Belmont in September of 2003. "The mile is a concern," he remarked. "It looked like the mile and a half was going to be his best distance. But he has a good turn of foot and, being off that long, I really didn't want to run him any further than that." Cont. p10

DON'T I LOOK SPLENDID!

Staging the mild upset over odds-on Andujar (Quiet American), the three-year-old Splendid Blended (Unbridled's Song) overcame some self-made trouble and handled an accomplished field of older rivals to collect her second Grade I victory in yesterday's Vanity H. at Hollywood Park. She becomes the first sophomore to win the race since fellow Florida-bred It's In the Air did it in 1979. Splendid cont. p4

Land of the Rising Daughter...

Cesario, a granddaughter of the great Sunday Silence, made her debut at Hanshin on Christmas last year, taking a one-mile event over the grass as a 3-1 chance. She was a generous 9-1 moving into allowance company against males at Nakayama two weeks later, but after that hard-fought neck victory, she went off the chalk in her next three. The leggy dark bay romped by daylight in the Mar. 19 G3 Flower Cup, then just missed when a fast-closing second in the Apr. 10 G1 Oka Sho (Japanese 1000 Guineas)--a race won by Dance in the Mood the previous year. Cesario was 1-2 to take the 12-furlong G1 Yushun Himba (Japanese Oaks), four panels longer than the 1000 Guineas, and she didn't let her backers down. She rated in 16th during the early stages of that test, but came flying late and nailed Air Messiah (Jpn) by a neck on the line. The effort earned her an invitation the American Oaks, which her owner, the syndicate Carrot Farm, opted to accept.

How the Race was Won...

Proving her versatility, Cesario sat much closer to the pace than she had in the Japanese Oaks, keeping a wary eye on Isla Cozzene (Cozzene) from third as the latter opened up by four lengths going into the backstretch. When that foe folded heading into the turn, Cesario had no choice but to take the lead as she cruised under Yuichi Fukunaga with a full head of steam. Fukunaga opted to give his charge her head and make the rest of them play catch-up, and the race was over in upper stretch as she sprinted away. "She's always like that in the post parade," said the winning jockey, explaining Cesario's pre-race antics. "I just let her run her own race. Depending on how the race went, I was thinking about what would be the best position and just settled in. I hadn't asked her to go yet, so I was not worried at all. I tried not to get boxed in along the rail. She ran her best race here; I think it was better than her Japanese Oaks." Good Effort from the Favorite...

Melhor Ainda was made the favorite on the basis of an unbeaten four-for-four record, which included wins this term in the Apr. 24 Appalachian S. at Keeneland and the GIII Sands Point S. at Belmont June 5. Here, the Bobby Frankel trainee had just one beaten going into the first turn, but commenced a determined rally three furlongs from home that propelled to her runner-up honors. "My filly came flying, but what happened at the gate cost me the race," said jockey John Velazquez. "She went to break and she kind of grabbed herself and kind of stumbled. She didn't actually stumble, but she grabbed herself and put her toes down. I tried to catch up on the backside, but the other one just got away from us. The break cost us the race."

It took Unfurl the Flag 16 starts to earn his first stakes win in the Apr. 24 Tiznow going a half-furlong farther at this track, but he proved more than up to the task in his first try at the Grade I ranks here. The dark bay horse ended an abbreviated 2004 campaign with a second-place finish in the GII Potrero Grande Breeders' Cup H. in March and disappeared for nearly a year. He returned to be third in a Santa Anita allowance test Mar. 20. Sent off at 5-1 against fellow Cal-breds in the Tiznow, he vied for the lead before taking control in the stretch en route to a two-length tally. Unfurl the Flag was sent right to the front this time, but was joined by Forest Grove (Forestry) after an opening half in :43.86. The gelding regained the advantage at the top of the lane and held all challengers at bay for a handy score. Longshot Bear in the Woods and McCann's Mojave shared the place spot. Turtle Bowl was kept to the provinces last term, but made an immediate impact in Paris when winning the Listed Prix Montenica at Maisons-Laffitte Mar. 15 before two flat efforts. Fourth in the G3 Prix de Fontainebleau at Longchamp Apr. 24, he never threatened when eighth in the G1 Poule d'Essai des Poulains May 15, but bounced back to win the G3 Prix de la Jonchere over course and distance June 12. Reserved in rear this time, he delivered his challenge widest of all as Home Affairs (GB) (Dansili {GB}) briefly wrested the lead from Rocamadour. Despite his game rally, Rocamadour had no answer to Turtle Bowl in the final 50 yards and it was Starpix who lunged late to grab the runner's-up spot. "That confirms the form of the Jonchere and he loves that fast ground," conditioner Francois Rohaut said. "He will have a break now, as he has had a hard first part of the season, and may go to Deauville for a vacation. He may return for the G1 Prix du Moulin de Longchamp [Sept. 4] and then go for some nice races abroad." Talk about the Peter Schiergen barn had dominated the build-up to this Classic, but it was the 70-year-old veteran Horst Steinmetz who was celebrating after Nicaron posted the upset. A winner at Krefeld Mar. 19, he was overmatched when fifth behind subsequent G1 Irish Derby winner Hurricane Run (Ire) in a conditions event at Longchamp Apr. 15, but returned home to capture the Listed Behling-Cup at Hannover May 16. The colt was fifth behind Konigstiger (Tiger Hill {Ire}) in his latest, the G2 Oppenheim-Union-Rennen June 12. Off at 10-1 here, Nicaron was four-wide in mid-division before being asked to challenge as the Schiergen trio of Silent Wind (Ger) (Monsun {Ger}), Konigstiger and Arcadio led them into the straight. Taking over at the three-furlong marker, he quickly established a decisive advantage over Arcadio and was safely clear as Night Tango closed late. Steinmetz was enjoying a first Derby triumph just months after undergoing heart surgery. "I did the right thing keeping on working as I'm happy doing what I do," he said. "I was convinced he would run well as he had been working very well and this is something very special." September Storm (Ger) (Monsun {Ger}) stumbled and unseated Andrasch Starke before the final turn; the jockey was taken to hospital. Splendid Blended lived up to her favoritism in her unveiling at Del Mar last September, winning by five, then ran a very credible second to eventual champion Sweet Catomine in the Oct. 2 GII Oak Leaf S. at Santa Anita in her next outing. Trainer Neil Drysdale opted to pass on the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies later that month and went the conservative route, saddling Splendid Blended to an entry-level allowance score in mid-November. She looked the real deal in her return to graded company, winning the Dec. 19 GI Hollywood Starlet, but was shelved for the winter and didn't return for another seven months. Faced with a tough task in her comeback, the June 4 GI Acorn S. at Belmont, she set blistering fractions before hanging on stubbornly for fourth in a race won by Round Pond. The second choice in her second off the break, she went wide into the first turn as Jerry Bailey angled her to the outside of Andujar, forcing I Can Yodele (Swiss Yodeler) out. Settling comfortably off Andujar up the backstretch, Splendid Blended hooked that foe in mid-stretch, put her away soon after and staved off the closing Island Fashion in the dying strides. "She wanted to go on the first turn, and I was trying to ease her back a little bit," explained Bailey. "She didn't negotiate it very well, which wasn't high on my list, and it cost us a couple of lengths. But she recovered very quickly and was very professional from then on." Whilly was good enough to finish second to Elvstroem (Aus) in the G1 Dubai Duty Free in March and, making his second start since, was gutsy enough to notch the win here. Whilly collected back-to-back victories in the Dec. 26 Sir Beaufort S. and Jan. 22 GII San Marcos S.--both at Santa Anita--then traveled to Dubai and ran second in a 14-horse field in the Duty Free. Two months seemed not enough of a rest when he looked flat in a fifth-place effort in the GI Shoemaker Breeders' Cup Mile May 30 over this lawn, but he rebounded this time adding a furlong. Taking his customary spot at the head of affairs shortly after the break, Whilly set honest splits of :23 2/5, :47 1/5 and 1:10 2/5. He gave up the rail turning for home under Felipe Martinez, allowing favored King of Happiness to come through and draw on even terms. Whilly would have none of it, though, and reasserted in the final panel. "Felipe did a good job of getting him to relax early and saving enough late," said winning trainer Doug O'Neill. "And what a heart he showed the way he fought off King of Happiness." Click for the brisnet.com chart or the free brisnet.com catalogue-style pedigree.

It had been nearly a year since Silver Ticket had tasted victory, but he took advantage of a small five-horse field and gave Sam-Son Farm two-thirds of the trifecta, with barnmate Colorful Judgement coming home third. Winner of the GIII Trontock S. last July over Woodbine's sod, the gelding notched thirds in the final leg of Canada's Triple Crown, the Breeders' S. in August, and in the Oct. 10 Storm Cat S., before concluding his three-year-old year with a runner-up effort in the November's Labeeb S. Off for five months, Silver Ticket was bested by just a length when fourth in a grassy Keeneland allowance Apr. 17, then failed as the favorite in a third-place effort in the GIII Connaught Cup in his return to Woodbine May 29. Let go as the fourth-longest shot on the board as Silver Tree (Hennessy) took the lion's share of the public's money, Silver Ticket rallied from a stalking perch and drove clear late. The favorite loomed a threat, but tired to finish last.

Intercontinental returned to the site of her victory in November's GI Matriarch S. and ran her record on the Hollywood turf to two-for-two. The bay mare enjoyed a 4 1/2-month vacation after the Matriarch, returning to defend her title in the GIII Jenny Wiley S. at Keeneland Apr. 17. She couldn't quite get it done when trying to take a second straight GIII Just a Game Breeders' Cup H. at Belmont, running second in the 2005 edition of the race June 11. Restless at the back of the pack as they emptied onto the backstretch here, Intercontinental was finally given her cue by rider Jerry Bailey at the quarter pole and was never really threatened on her way to wire. Click for the brisnet.com chart.

winner's circle again after the June 11 Battlefield S. at Monmouth Park last out. Looking for his first graded stakes win, the gray gelding stalked a slow early pace in second, moved to the front in upper stretch and inched clear. "Everything went according to plan," said winning rider Brice Blanc. "It didn't look like much speed on paper. The leader went on and I sat off and relaxed. We got to the second turn and they pressured me a bit and I pressured them back. I asked him to pick it up at the half-mile pole and he really responded." Chris Emigh, aboard runner-up Cloudy's Knight, added, "The other horse just got a little jump on us and we couldn't catch him." Click for the brisnet.com chart. She held the lead for every stride but the one that counted most. Lentil went to the front at the start, set slow fractions and looked like she'd last to the wire, but Smart N Classy caught her in the final jump to win it by a nose. Winning trainer John Tammaro III was not surprised by the outcome. "I know she keeps coming," Tammaro said of Smart N Classy. "She never quits. She's game and she runs as hard as she can to the end of the race." The New Jersey-bred mare parlayed that determined attitude into three allowance victories last year, winning at Monmouth in July and capturing two at the Meadowlands in the fall before taking the winter off. She couldn't quite get there after a wide trip in her latest, finishing third in the Politely S. at Monmouth June 12, but the bay was not about to lose another. Settled in fourth by jockey Jose Velez Jr. as Lentil galloped along at the head of the pack, she edged closer after six furlongs in a pedestrian 1:16.73 and had only the pacesetter to beat as they hit the eighth pole. Lentil gave it everything she had, but Smart N Classy had just a little more in the tank and got up to take the photo. "She was a little closer than I wanted her to be when they came past the stands the first time, but when I saw that they'd gone the first quarter in :25 and change, I knew there wasn't much else Jose could do," Tammaro said. Added Velez, "I had a perfect trip today. Everything worked out perfectly. I knew it was going to be a sprint in the last three-eighths, but my mare was very game and had enough left to get up in the last jump." Click for the brisnet.com chart.

Also Ran: L'Oiseau D'argent, Gulch Approval, Ecclesiastic, Seeking the Glory. Scratched: Aggadan, Trade Fair (GB).

Mr. Light proved himself as a top turf miler at Gulfstream earlier in the spring and he reaffirmed that here with a sharp effort. The six-year-old Argentine found the winner's circle just twice in eight starts last year, and both of those victories came in allowance company. But the chestnut turned the corner this term, establishing a new world record for eight furlongs when he blitzed a NW3X field in a blistering 1:31 2/5 at Gulfstream Jan. 3. He followed that up with another impressive tally in the Feb. 12 Gill Appleton H., won in 1:32 4/5. He couldn't overcome a rough trip in his next, running fourth, beaten 3 1/4 lengths by Artie Schiller, in the GII Maker's Mark S. at Keeneland in mid-April and was given time to regroup. Making his first start since, he sat well off the front-running L'Oiseau d'Argent (Silver Hawk), who bowled along through rapid :22 1/5, :44 45 and 1:08 fractions. Softened up by the quick pace, L'Oiseau d'Argent began to fade as Mr. Light came rallying down the middle of the track, outfinishing a game Willard Straight. As for what's next, trainer Angel Penna, Jr. said the Aug. 1, nine furlong GII Bernard Baruch H. at Saratoga was a possible, adding, "The extra eighth might bother him a bit, but we've got to face the music now. The only problem with the GI Breeders' Cup [Mile, at Belmont], is that at time of the year, the chances for a hard turf course are small. He's not nominated, but the money wouldn't be a problem." Gwenseb scored at the first time of asking at Longchamp May 19 before finishing runner-up in a course-and-distance conditions event eight days later. She returned to Longchamp to take the Listed Prix la Fleche last time June 16 and duly justified heavy support to follow up here. Reined back off the fast fractions by Olivier Peslier, she was pushed along to keep tabs before halfway, but continued to respond to her rider's urgings to close inside the final quarter. Sweeping by Mister Chocolate with 100 yards remaining, she was allowed to cruise to the line for a comfortable score. "At halfway she looked outpaced, but she's got heart as well as ability," her trainer Carlos Laffon-Parias said. "Five is probably too short for her now, so there will many more opportunities for her and the logical next step is the G2 Prix Robert Papin [at Maisons-Laffitte July 24]." Needlecraft had finished sixth on her sole previous try at stakes level in the Listed Prix Aymeri de Mauleon at Toulouse May 3, but returned to winning ways in a conditions event at Saint-Cloud last time May 30. Rushed up to stalk the fierce early pace set by 55-1 outsider Live Life, she was in the right spot as that rival refused to crumble, finally reeling her in at the eighth pole before asserting in the drive to the line. "I liked her last year and thought she could be a Guineas filly," conditioner Henri-Alex Pantall explained. "She disappointed me because she was too nervous and much too keen, but she wore earplugs in her last race and settled really nicely. She showed her true ability today and I'll discuss with her owner where she goes next."

Lord of the Game has come a long way since debuting a 22 3/4-length winner on New Year's Eve last year--against $10,000 maiden claimers at Hawthorne. The dark bay was haltered away from owner WinStar Farm out of that one, and he quickly rattled off four consecutive allowance wins for his new connections. Lord of the Game ran a solid, if unthreatening, third to Pollard's Vision and Badge of Silver in the GIII National Jockey Club H. Apr. 23, then took his sixth win in seven starts with a tally in the May 28 GIII Hanshin H. at Arlington. The four-year-old, produced by a full sister to graded winners Daydreaming and Accelerator, raced just off the pace, bid between foes down the lane and extended a narrow nose superiority over longshots Silver Axe and Mambo Train. Dunford sprang a 20-1 surprise before a capacity crowd in a dramatic renewal of South Africa's biggest race, which was marred by the injury to the favorite Rabiya (SAf) (Jallad). Successful in the G3 Peninsula S. at Kenilworth Jan. 8, he was seventh in the G1 J&B Met at that track three weeks later before winning a handicap Apr. 9. He finished second in a Clairwood conditions race May 18 and fifth in the G2 Greyville 1900 at this track last time June 3. Fitted with blinkers for the first time here, he was settled in mid-division throughout the early stages by Anton Marcus, known as "Superman" in jockey's circles and looking for his third success here. Finding the gaps in the straight, he was driven out to deny the game Silverpoint in the final 50 yards of a blanket finish. Rabiya, who broke down and unseated jockey Robbie Fradd with a mile remaining, was reported to have fractured his hind leg and was euthanized.

given a 45-day suspension and fined $3,000 by the New York State Racing and Wagering Board for a drug positive at Saratoga last August, according to published reports. Pletcher's Tales of Glory, winner of the third race at Saratoga Aug. 14, was found to have Mepivacaine in his system from post-race samples, according to the NYSRWB ruling, and has been disqualified.

Pletcher is appealing the ruling, and the fine, suspension and disqualification have been stayed. Mepivacaine, a local anesthetic that is injected to dull pain, is classified as Class 2 medication by the Racing Commissioners International.

If Eclipse winner Kitten's Joy is going to be vulnerable this year, it could be in his first start following the eight-month layoff at a distance shorter than his best. Old Forester could be poised to capitalize on the situation. On the board in all 11 career outings, he has won every other start since taking an allowance test at Belmont last October. Freshened after a victory in the Mar. 13 Canadian Turf H., the chestnut returned to be second by a head in the May 29 GIII Jaipur H. at Belmont and is on track to visit the winner's circle again. Senor Swinger is at his best under the Twin Spires. The gray crossed the finish line second in this event last year, but was DQ'd and placed third for drifting out in the stretch. A troubled eighth behind America Alive in his first start of the season, the May 7 GI Woodford Reserve Turf Classic, he came back to be second by a neck in an allowance May 29 before taking the June 18 Opening Verse S. last time out. Overall, he has won five of eighth Churchill turf tries.

Flower Alley earned his way into the GI Kentucky Derby with a win in the Mar. 26 GII Lane's End S. at Turfway Park and a second-place finish in the Apr. 16 GII Arkansas Derby. Eight lengths behind Afleet Alex that afternoon, the chestnut colt actually finished closer on the first Saturday in May, hitting the line 7 1/2 lengths behind winner Giacomo in ninth. He has been freshened since his Classic experience. "We felt like we kind of rushed things a little bit and the right thing to do was back off," trainer Todd Pletcher said. "We circled the Dwyer on the calendar a while back. I think he showed signs he could be one of the better three-year-olds out there. Now he's got to step up and prove it." Pletcher also saddles Proud Accolade here. The winner of the GI Champagne S. at two, the dark bay was off the board in the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile and GI Hollywood Futurity, but rebounded to take the Feb. 5 GII Hutcheson S. at Gulfstream in his sophomore bow. He has been unable to run back to his best efforts since, however, finishing off the board in the Mar. 26 Rushaway S., Apr. 30 GIII Withers S. and June 11 GII Riva Ridge Breeders' Cup S. The GII Norfolk S. winner Roman Ruler makes his first start since finishing eighth in the Mar. 19 GII San Felipe S. Mr. Congeniality steps up after winning a NW1x allowance by 5 1/2 lengths over track and trip June 5.

Adieu bid farewell to her rivals in the stretch of her debut, scoring by an easy 4 1/4 lengths at Keeneland Apr. 22 and was installed the 3-2 choice for her stakes bow. Sharp off the mark and eager to challenge the D. Wayne Lukas trainee Folklore for the early lead, the bay forged past the foe at the top of the stretch and drew clear late to gain her first stakes victory. "They didn't hand it to her," said winning trainer Todd Pletcher.

"From the inside post, she had to establish position.

She worked hard the whole way, fought it out and was good enough to get it done." Video, sponsored by

Henny Hughes overcame an awkward start to break his maiden by an easy six lengths at Monmouth June 17. Caleb Pond held on to win by a neck over Stormatic at Pimlico June 11; both the runner-up and third-place finisher Sendmodow came back to win in their next starts.

Violette Runner Cleared of Blood Gas Positive:

Worth See'n (Straight Man), who failed a blood gas test after running eighth in an allowance race at Belmont Park June 18, underwent a second battery of tests that have cleared trainer Rick Violette Jr. of any wrongdoing. The three-year-old colt was found to have blood gas levels exceeding the limit of 37 millimoles, but the New York Racing Association provides horsemen with a "quarantine challenge," whereby the horse in question undergoes three days of testing to check the initial results. "Worth See'n underwent a quarantine challenge and demonstrated an exaggerated physiological response to Lasix administration, elevating his blood gas level over the permitted threshold," said Dr. Celeste Kunz, NYRA's chief examining veterinarian. The "quarantine challenge" was completed Friday, and all fines and penalties that had been assessed against Violette were dismissed.

Pretty Wild had crossed the line second in his only previous try over the Monmouth main track, but was moved up to first by the stewards in the Frisk Me Now S. last May. The bay came back to take a Belmont allowance test in July and made it three in a row in a money allowance at Saratoga in August, but had not been out since. The even-money chalk despite the lengthy layoff, he stalked the pace, put a head in front at midstretch and outgamed Trueamericanspirit and Kazoo to the wire.

MOTIVATOR TARGET UNDECIDED Connections of the Royal Ascot Racing Club's Motivator (GB) (Montjeu {Ire}) were mulling the colt's next race yesterday after his defeat in Saturday's G1 Eclipse S. Having lost his unbeaten tag when going down by a half length to Oratorio (Ire) in the Sandown contest, the G1 Epsom Derby hero was reported to be "in good health" by trainer Michael Bell yesterday. "He's fine--he's just had a lead out and looks in good health," he told PA Sport. "He ate up last night and he's none the worse for his exertions." While jockey Johnny Murtagh blamed the good-to-firm ground for the 2-5 favorite's defeat on Saturday, Bell believes the slow early pace may have been the major factor. "It's deeply disappointing he got beaten, but I think it was the muddling pace as much as anything that accounted for his defeat," he added. "For a championship race it was a very slow time, so it just goes to show it was a muddling pace. The ground was possibly a factor as well, but he could have been going two strides faster from a long way out and I think we might have had it in the bag. Hopefully he's only temporarily dethroned." One of the immediate options is the G1 King George VI and Queen Elizabeth Diamond S. at Newbury July 23, but no decision has been made. "Realistically the King George might come a bit too soon for him, but looking at him this morning just standing in his box, he doesn't look as though he's had a tough race, he looks completely fine," he continued.

STARCRAFT ON THE COUCH The Australian Syndicate's Starcraft (NZ) (Soviet Star) is set to undergo "psychological training" after his pre-race antics led to his flop in Saturday's G1 Eclipse S. at Sandown. Despite being sent off the 5-1 second choice, the five-year-old faded in the closing stages to finish sixth, having become fractious in the paddock beforehand. "He lost it in the preliminaries," trainer Luca Cumani told PA Sport yesterday. "When the jockey got up he started throwing himself about and started sweating and was too keen on the way to post. He's been fine at home. He's done it once before in Australia, but it is something we can put right. We'll just observe him and give him a little bit of psychological training to make sure that next time he behaves better and then we'll decide where to run him next."

Archange d'Or was pitched into the G1 Prix du Jockey-Club (French Derby) after a course-and-distance conditions success May 11 and was not disgraced when eighth in that Classic back here June 5. Settled in third, stalking the front-running Plein d'Estime, he was pulled wide for his challenge in the straight and, when straightened up, delivered a telling late burst to overwhelm the long-time leader in the shade of the post.

Ridden along inside the final quarter, the homebred was pushed out in the closing stages to maintain a two-length control over Mariol (Fr) (Munir {GB}). Lifetime Record: 3 starts, 2 wins, 1 place, €27,800.

Easing into second at the top of the stretch, the 6-1 chance challenged with 1 1/2 furlongs remaining and had to work inside the last 100 meters to withstand the rallying bid of Paramount (Fr) (Octagonal {NZ}) by a short neck. The winner is a 1/2 to Vol de Nuit (GB) (Linamix {Fr}), SW & MG1SP-Ity, $408,879. Lifetime Record: 3 starts, 1 win, 2 places, €16,020.
