SAME OLD SONG?

Twelve months ago, Soviet Song (Ire) (Marju {Ire}) did the unthinkable in downing Attraction (GB) in the inaugural running of the Falmouth S. as a Group 1

Soviet Song britishhorseracing.com

event. The Elite Racing Club's standardbearer bids for the repeat on opening day of Newmarket's July meeting. The Falmouth marked her first success at the top level since taking the G1 Fillies' Mile as a juvenile, but Soviet Song quickly added to her tally in the G1 Sussex S. at Goodwood in July and the G1 Matron S. at Leopardstown in September. She signed off with an unthreatening sixth in the G1 Queen Elizabeth II S. at Ascot later that month, but showed she retained her ability when third under a penalty in the G2 Windsor Forest S. at Royal Ascot at York June 15. "I have been pleased with her and she seems to have thrived since her first run," James Fanshawe told PA Sport yesterday. "I was very glad to have got her on the track, as she had not had the ideal preparation coming into the race. She has certainly shown a lot more sparkle in her work than she did before York." On the face of it, Cheveley Park Stud's Peeress (GB) (Pivotal {GB}) and Godolphin's Sundrop (Jpn) (Sunday Silence) face a stiff task as they attempt to confirm the form of the Windsor Forest. The pair were getting five pounds from Soviet Song on that occasion, but are at equal weights here. Alexander Goldrun (Ire) (Gold Away {Ire}) makes a quick return just 10 days after beating a competitive line-up in the G1 Pretty Polly S.

ROCKET'S RED GLARE

He was making his first start since Breeders' Cup day, but champion Kitten's Joy (El Prado {Ire}) looked anything but rusty in the GII Firecracker Breeders' Cup H. at Churchill Downs yesterday, rocketing through a final quarter in a shade under :22 flat to win by a handy length. It was the first time the four-year-old had tried a distance as short as a mile on the grass, but he handled the trip with aplomb. "We only wanted to make him work the last quarter of a mile if we could get away with it and that's what happened," trainer Dale Romans said. "We wanted to make sure that he finished running, and that's what he did. I wanted him to finish strong. I thought he was good enough to beat 'em doing whatever we wanted to do and he proved me right. He's just a special horse." Firecracker BC H. cont. p2

The Grass is Greener...

Kitten's Joy tried turf for the first time in a Belmont maiden test in October of 2003 and was right at home. He was unbeaten in his first five grass starts, including three Grade III events, before losing by a head to Prince Arch in the GIII Jefferson Cup last June. He bounced back to take three more, including the GI Secretariat S. in August and the GI Joe Hirsch Turf Classic in October, but couldn't get past Better Talk Now in the GI Breeders' Cup Turf and ended the year with another runner-up finish. The chestnut underwent knee surgery during the off season, but looked every inch a champion in his return. He stalked a slow pace while saving ground, shot through from the rail at the head of the stretch and edged clear. Jockey Edgar Prado, taking over for John Velazquez, said, "I rode him once last year [in the GIII Virginia Derby] and he gave me that good feeling, like he had a couple of gears. He had that again today. When I asked him, he just took off."

Roman Ruler showed promise as a juvenile, winning the GII Best Pal S. by seven lengths in August and taking the GII Norfolk S. by 4 1/2 lengths. The dark bay failed to fire in the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile, however, finishing fifth, and was a soundly beaten eighth in the Mar. 19 GII San Felipe S. Trainer Bob Baffert opted to stop on the colt after that race, but had him primed for his return. Roman Ruler was last of the tightly bunched pack as they zipped through six panels in 1:09.53, drove to the front at the top of the lane and held Flowered Alley at bay for the narrow score. "I got to them quick, but I couldn't draw away," said winning jockey Jerry Bailey. "Maybe he idles a bit when he makes the lead. He probably got a little tired." The colt will stay on the East Coast this summer, but his next start has not yet been decided. The runner-up will be pointed for the July 30 GII Jim Dandy S. Just six days ago, undefeated Joey P. was sent off the odds-on favorite in a Monmouth allowance test and romped under the wire a 5 1/2-length winner. Apparently, the victory didn't take much out of him. The Jersey-bred was back in the starting gate yesterday and made it five in a row. The final time for the race was 1:08.30, a stakes record for the 14-year-old event and just two ticks off the track record. "Wow," jockey Joe Bravo said. "This is a really special colt. I worked him before I ever rode him in a race, and he was so impressive. I didn't know how good, but I knew he was a good horse even then, and he really opened my eyes today." Joey P. started twice as a two-year-old, beating a field of Jersey-bred maidens in August and adding an open-company allowance score in September. He was sidelined for nine months after that performance, but returned to run his record to three-for-three against state-bred allowance foes June 12. The dark bay stopped the clock in 1:09.40 last time out, and trainer Frank Costa decided to wheel him right back in the Jersey Shore. Making his stakes debut, Joey P. settled in third as 4-5 More Smoke (Smoke Glacken) and Razor duked it out through a sizzling half in :43.83. Bravo had his mount poised to attack as the pacesetters weakened, sending him to the lead as they hit the eighth pole. "I felt good about my chances an eighth of a mile out of the gate," Bravo said. "I was very, very confident. The two in front only had a couple of lengths on me and they were both running. Joey P. was just watching them and waiting." The Jersey Shore marked the first graded-stakes success for 71-year-old Costa, a native of Italy who started his career in racing as a jockey in the 1950s. Click for the brisnet.com chart.

Sunday Silence may be dead, but it is going to be a very long time before we hear the last of this great Japanese stallion.

The scope of his influence has been underlined by this year's classics in Japan, with the 2000 Guineas (Satsuki Sho) and Derby (Tokyo Yushun) going to his exciting son Deep Impact. Deep Impact led home a clean sweep of three Sunday Silence colts in the 2000 Guineas, while he was followed home in the Derby by Inti Raimi, a colt by Sunday Silence's son Special Week, and Six Sense, another Sunday Silence colt.

It has been a similar story in Japan's fillies' classics. In a tight finish to the 1000 Guineas (Oka Sho), victory went to Rhein Kraft, a highly talented End Sweep filly produced by Sunday Silence's daughter Must Be Loved.

The runner's-up spot went to Special Week's daughter Cesario and third to Sunday Silence's daughter Daring Heart. The Oaks (Yushun Himba) produced another thrilling finish in which Sunday Silence's daughters Air Messiah and Dia De La Novia were caught close home by Cesario.

In other words, the first three places in Japan's first four Classics were all filled by horses with Sunday Silence in either the first or second generation of their pedigree.

The closeness of the finishes to the fillies' Classics might have been an indication that the fillies involved are unexceptional, but subsequent events suggest that the opposite is true. Rhein Kraft and Daring Heart took on a large field of colts in the G1 NHK Mile Cup and filled the first two places. Even more compelling evidence that these fillies are very good came when Cesario travelled to California to tackle opposition from the U.S., Ireland and Italy in the American Oaks. She proved more than a match for them, quickening right away to become the first Japanese horse to win an American Grade I. I'm sure she won't be the last.

As Special Week will be unknown to most Westerners, I should attempt to fill in some of the gaps. If I tell you that he was Japan's leading earner by a sizeable margin in 1999, you will start to get the general idea.

After winning his only start at two, Special Week quickly stepped up to group company, winning the G3 Kisaragi Sho and the G2 Japanese 2000 Guineas Trial. Although he could finish only third in the 2000 Guineas itself, Special Week remedied the situation in the Derby, winning by five lengths, and later finished second in the St Leger and third in the Japan Cup. Cont., p5

He did even better at four in 1999, when his six victories from eight starts included the spring and autumn versions of the Tenno Sho (the first over two miles and the second over a mile and a quarter) and the Japan Cup. As the horses which filled third and fourth places behind him in the Japan Cup were High-Rise, winner of the previous year's Epsom Derby, and Montjeu, winner earlier in the year of the French and Irish Derbys and the Arc, he was clearly very good. He was also pretty tough, as he raced eight times both in 1998 and 1999.

Special Week was easily the best winner produced by Campaign Girl, a daughter of Maruzensky. This very well-bred horse was by Nijinsky out of Shill, a daughter of Buckpasser and that fine mare Quill, which made Maruzensky a close relative of the Irish St Leger and San Luis Rey S. winner Caucasus. No wonder Special Week coped well with two miles.

Apparently more than 50 of Sunday Silence's sons have been retired as stallions, so this male line has every chance of flourishing. Special Week ranks among the best of them, along with Dance in the Dark, Fuji Kiseki, Bubble Gum Fellow, Genuine and Marvelous Sunday, and there will be further illustrious names to add to the list, such as last year's star Zenno Rob Roy and Deep Impact.

Perhaps the premature death of Sunday Silence will prove to benefit his sons at the Yoshidas' Shadai Farm, as they tended to be in the shadow of this very prolific stallion while he was alive.

Cesario is out of Kirov Premiere, who was purchased by Katsumi Yoshida for $280,000 at Keeneland's 1994 November Sale.

Kirov Premiere represented good value at that price, as she had won four times at up to 1 1/2 miles in Ireland before being transferred to the USA, where she won the Gill Rutgers H. over 1 3/8 miles on turf. That Rutgers win made Kirov Premiere one of the long line of stakes winners sired by Sadler's Wells from Habitat mares, others being the Group 1 winners Barathea, Dance Design, Gossamer and King of Kings. This cross produces 5x4 inbreeding to Turn-to through his top sons Hail To Reason and Sir Gaylord.

Cesario would do well in Europe. Her second dam Querida was a half-sister to Chief Singer, an outstanding performer who numbered the G1 July Cup and G1 Sussex S. among his wins, and her fourth dam is Pia. This very tough and versatile performer shone over sprint distances at two and at up to 1 ¼ miles at three, when she won the Oaks and the Park Hill S.

Another branch of this female line, descending from Pia's sister Promessa, has produced the Prix Morny winners Seven Springs and Regal State. They respectively produced Distant View and Pleasantly Perfect, so this versatile family has excelled in Europe, the U.S., the UAE and Japan.

RAKTI TO HUMA PARK Huma Park Stud in Co. Kildare, Ireland, has reached an agreement with owner Gary Tanaka to acquire a 100-percent interest in champion Rakti (GB) (Polish Precedent--Ragera {Ire}, by Rainbow Quest) at the end of his racing career. The six-year-old will carry Tanaka's colors for the rest of the season, then will be syndicated and retire to Huma Park for the 2006 breeding season. A six-time Group 1 winner, Rakti was named the highweighted miler in Britain last year after winning the G1

Queen Elizabeth II S. and the G1 Prince of Wales's S. He ended the season with off-the-board finishes in the G1 Mile Championship at Kyoto and the G1 Hong Kong Cup at Sha Tin, but opened 2005 with a five-length victory in the G1 Juddmonte Lockinge S. Last time out, he was rank in the post parade, but still managed to get second in the June 14 G1 Queen Anne S. at Royal Ascot at York. He will now target the G1 Sussex S. at Goodwood July 27, G1 Breeders' Cup Mile at Belmont Park Oct. 29 and G1 Hong Kong Mile at Sha Tin Dec. 11. To date, the bay has won 11 of 23 starts for earnings of $2,886,644. "We are absolutely delighted to be standing Rakti," said Huma Park Stud joint-owner Hubie de Burgh. "It is not often you get an opportunity to stand a horse who has won six Group 1 races [to date] and was the joint highest-rated miler in the world from the stallion-producing Danzig line. He is a truly outstanding racehorse with looks to match."

She faces a proven stakes performer in Salut d'Amour, who followed success in the Listed National S. at Sandown May 30 with an erratic run when three-lengths second to Flashy Wings (GB) in the G2 Queen Mary S. at Royal Ascot at York last time June 15. That filly represents the stable responsible for the 1998 heroine Wannabe Grand (Ire). Spinning Queen was fourth and Dhekraa fifth in the G3 Albany S. at the Royal meeting June 18. The latter's trainer, Michael Jarvis, believes that form could be reversed here. "[Dhekraa] had a slightly unlucky run at York," he told PA Sport yesterday. "She did well to finish fifth, although she could never win as her chances were gone at the start. We thought she deserved another chance at this level as she is a nice filly, but it is another top-class race."

Henny Hughes dominated a field of maidens at Monmouth Park, winning by six lengths in his June 17 debut. Heavily favored against five rivals here, the chestnut colt stumbled at the break, but recovered and rushed up to contest the pace. Asked to assert turning for home, he stormed clear of the field and drew off under a hand ride. "Last time, he did it from behind," commented winning trainer Patrick

Of his troubled break, winning rider Gary Stevens explained, "He was a little tight, and I didn't like the way he was standing [in the gate]. But we couldn't move him because it was too tight. He outbroke himself and stumbled a little bit." As for what is next for the precocious youngster, Biancone said, "We'll see how he comes back and look at the [July 28 GII] Saratoga Special." The dark bay romped by 6 1/2 lengths in another event that was washed off the turf, a June 4 nine-panel Belmont maiden, and was a 3-1 chance here facing winners for the first time. The Shug McGaughey charge saved ground just off a quick early pace and shot through a hole along the rail in mid-stretch on his way to a smart 2 3/4-length tally. Deputy Indy (A.P. Lost in the Fog On the Move Again:

The well-traveled Lost in the Fog (Lost Soldier) arrived at Calder Race Course from his Golden Gate base Saturday evening. The unbeaten speedster is expected to make his next start in Saturday's GII Carry Back S. "He settled in fine," reported the sophomore's trainer Greg Gilchrist. "Shipping hasn't been a problem for him and he's had plenty of experience this year. I guess this is his fifth trip East. He came twice to Florida for the Sunshine Millions, and then back again for the Swale, and twice back and forth to New York for the Bay Shore and the Riva Ridge." Russell Baze, who missed Lost in the Fog's victory in the June 11 GII Riva Ridge due to injury, will be back aboard in the Carry Back. As for future plans for Lost in the Fog, Gilchrist said, "If things go well Saturday, we'll stick with the plan for him to run in the [Aug. 27 GI] King's Bishop S. at Saratoga and maybe only once more this year, maybe the Breeders' Cup [Sprint], but not necessarily. We'll get through these next two and then decide. At some time, he'll obviously need a long rest because we plan to race him as a four-year-old."

Trainer Michael Pino has been conservative with Forest Park, but the four-year-old came through with flying colors in his stakes debut yesterday. Forest Park began his career with three straight Midlantic wins last fall, then, after a fourth-place hiccup in December, rattled off three more, most recently taking an open allowance at Delaware June 12. Given a 5-1 chance testing the stakes waters, he shadowed the leaders, hit the front in upper stretch and rebuffed the game Dale's Prospect for the win. Post-time favorite Shake You Down (Montbrook) faded badly after setting the early pace and finished last.

She finally settled for a second-place finish in her latest, beaten 3/4 of a length, in Old Hilltop's Caesars Wish S. against statebreds Apr. 24. Content to track the early pace, the roan made up ground after five furlongs, inched into the lead soon after and continued to plug away in the final strides, edging a game effort by Dance Fee.

He hit the board only once in his next three, however, and was a well-beaten fifth in his seasonal debut in the Frisk Me Now S. at Monmouth May 28.  Twice placed in Listed stakes in France, Louvain opened her U.S. account with a two-length tally over Royal Copenhagen in a division of the Gill Miesque S. over this course and distance Nov. 26. The bay had been out just once since, but never got into the hunt in the June 5 Gil Honeymoon Breeders' Cup H. and finished sixth. Shortening up a furlong for her second start off the layoff, the Irish-bred settled off the pace as Heavenly Lily (Top Account) (last) took them along through honest fractions. Louvain was steadied behind horses as they raced down the backstretch, but recovered to close on the leaders on the far turn. Angled wide for the final drive, she swept past Island Escapade in the final sixteenth and drew clear. Royal Copenhagen rallied from last to take the photo for second.

TATTERSALLS JULY GETS UNDERWAY This year's Tattersalls July Sale, beginning in Newmarket this morning at 9:30 a.m., is the largest ever renewal by far, with 707 lots catalogued, a significant increase on the previous record of 590 set last year. This morning's session is made up of breeding stock and includes 16 lots consigned from the locally based Cheveley Park Stud, who have topped the day for the last three years. A pair of mares in foal to the stud's flagship stallion Pivotal (GB), whose 2005 cover fee was £65,000, will likely be in demand. Selling as lot 74 is the 10-year-old Minstrel's Dance (Pleasant Colony), who comes from a family full of stakes performers and has already produced a winner. Lot 78, Red Tulle (A.P. Indy), is another 10-year-old and also the dam of a single winner to date. She is a half sister to the Group 3 winner and sire Namaqualand (Mr. Prospector). Several mares are offered in a package with their 2005 foal, and the standout in this sphere looks to be lot 62, Amizette (Forty Niner), who is consigned with her Apr. 8 colt by sire of the moment Montjeu (Ire). The 13-year-old, who was bred back to One Cool Cat, is likely to show a significant advance on the 35,000gns she cost her partnership at Tattersalls in December 2003.

Training Day...

There are a large number of horses in training and among those are Lot 360, Magic Instinct (GB) (Entrepreneur {GB}), who sprang a 50-1 surprise in Salisbury's Bibury Cup, a prestigious handicap June 22. A pair consigned from Jim Bolger's Irish stable tomorrow morning, Lots 264 and 265, Napper Tandy (Ire) (Spectrum {Ire}) and Clash of the Ash (King of Kings {Ire}), are expected to attract significant attention. The high-class Napper Tandy finished fourth in last year's G1 Tattersalls Gold Cup, while Clash of the Ash was third in this season's G3 Ballysax S. at Leopardstown. The fillies in training include Lot 642, Doohulla (Stravinsky), a four-year-old who won her latest outing in a Pontefract June 27. "The Tattersalls July Sale has gone from strength to strength in recent years and this is the largest catalogue ever assembled for this auction," said Jimmy George, marketing director at Tattersalls. "It's a catalogue with great international appeal, with some high-class horses in training and well-bred mares and fillies. Consignments from the likes of Cheveley Park Stud, Darley, Shadwell and Juddmonte have created significant pre-sale interest and we look forward to building on the recent success of the sale." The sale runs today through Thursday with morning sessions starting at 9:30 a.m. and post-racing selling beginning at 5 p.m. each day. Catalogues are available online at www.tattersalls.com.

KING GEORGE WITHIN REACH Winterbeck Manor Stud's Phoenix Reach (Ire) (Alhaarth {Ire}) is reported to be on course for the G1 King George VI and Queen Elizabeth Diamond S. at Newbury July 23. Despite having picked up an eye infection during his spell in Singapore when second in the G1 Singapore Airlines International Cup at Kranji May 15, the five-year-old looks set to take on Azamour (Ire) in the mile-and-a-half contest. "It's his big summer target and we're really looking forward to it," conditioner Andrew Balding said yesterday. "He had an eye infection in Singapore, but like the true warrior he is, it has not knocked him back one little bit. It was a horrible injury and he has still probably got only about 80 percent of his vision in that off-side eye, but it doesn't seem to have affected his work. His appetite is fantastic and he looks very well." Phoenix Reach will be looking for his first domestic Group 1 victory to add to his overseas successes in the G1 Canadian International, G1 Hong Kong Vase and G1 Dubai Sheema Classic.

COOLMORE OFFERS STALLION NOMS FOR CHARITY The fourth JP McManus Invitational Pro-Am golf tournament, held in Adare Manor Co., Limerick, concludes today with a charity auction, which will feature nominations to Coolmore Stud stallions Giant's Causeway, sire of Footstepsinthesand (GB), Shamardal and Maids Causeway (Ire); and Montjeu (Ire), responsible for Motivator (GB), Walk in the Park (Ire) and Hurricane Run (Ire). The event, which this year featured champions and Ryder Cup players Tiger Woods, Darren Clarke, Ernie Els and Pdraig Harrington, generates funds for many voluntary organizations in mid-west Ireland.

RIDER KILLED IN SUNDAY FALL

Racing has been coming to terms with the shock death of conditional jumps rider Tom Halliday after a fall on Sunday. The 20-year-old sustained fatal injuries when his mount landed on him after veering sharply and losing its footing during a hurdle race at Market Rasen. The Jockey Club will be holding a review into Halliday's death, which is the first on a racecourse in Britain or Ireland since Sean Cleary died after a fall at Galway in October 2003. "The awful events of Sunday bring home the risks that jockeys take every day, but that does not make the death of a highly regarded young man at the start of his career any less shocking," British Horseracing Board Chief Executive Greg Nichols said yesterday. "Whatever loss we feel as a sport is nothing compared to the loss for his family and friends, and our hearts go out to them. The Jockey Club has announced that there will be a full investigation, and we will play a role as appropriate."
