GLORIOUS GOLD

Noel and Miriam O'Callaghan's Alexander Goldrun (Ire) (Gold Away {Ire}), who already had Group 1 victories in three different countries, added a fourth to the roster in yesterday's G1 Vodafone Nassau S. on the final day of Goodwood's Glorious meet. Swooping from the rear in the final quarter under a confident Kevin Manning, the 13-8 pick dismissed Cassydora (GB) (Darshaan {GB}) in a matter of strides to score by 1 1/4 lengths. "She's very reliable, especially at 10 furlongs," trainer Jim Bolger said. "She wasn't too slowly away, but [Kevin] elected to take his time, bearing in mind the going. I was a little worried she might have been in front too soon, but all's well that ends well." Nassau S. cont. p2

ALLEY RALLIES TO JIM DANDY SCORE

For the third year running, trainer Todd Pletcher and his go-to rider John Velazquez have teamed to win the GII Jim Dandy S., this time with Eugene and Laura Melnyk's Flower Alley (Distorted Humor). The chestnut colt progressed quickly over the winter and was hardly disgraced by a midpack ninth-place effort in the GI Kentucky Derby May 7. Rested off that effort, he returned to run Roman Ruler to a half-length in the July 4 GII Dwyer S., setting him up perfectly for this Travers prep. Cont. p3

SAND SPRINGS IS DIANA PRINCESS

The Sangster Family's Sand Springs (Dynaformer) was allowed to dictate moderate fractions on the front end and charged home a convincing winner of yesterday's GI Diana S. at Saratoga. "Once I found there was no speed, I was just going to get her out there and relax her," said winning jockey John Velazquez. "The only concern was the distance, and she proved she could handle that, but I also thought the slow pace helped her here, too." It was the first Grade I victory for the five-year-old, a $625,000 graduate of last year's Keeneland November Breeding Stock Sale. Cont. p2

PROPORTIONS FACES HER ELDERS

Most of the trainers in France have spent the spring and summer pondering ways to beat the Niarchos Family's remarkable filly Divine Proportions (Kingmambo), but they may have to hold that thought a bit longer as she attempts her ninth straight win in today's G1 Prix d'Astarte at Deauville. Alexander Goldrun was on leave at this time last term and showed the benefit of that break when ousting Grey Lilas (Ire) from her pedestal in the G1 Prix de l'Opera de Longchamp in October. She ended the year with a win in the G1 Hong Kong Cup at Sha Tin in December. Off the board for once in the G1 Dubai Sheema Classic at Nad al Sheba Mar. 26, she rebounded with a third in the May 15 G1 Singapore Airlines International Cup at Kranji. Back on home soil, she added a victory in the G1 Pretty Polly S. June 25, but was undone by Soviet Song (Ire) when second in the July 5 G1 Falmouth S. at Newmarket. A further collection of air miles is on the cards according to Jim Bolger. "I'll have a chat with Noel O'Callaghan and I will be pushing for the G1 Prix Vermeille [at Longchamp Sept. 11]," he said. "She might go back to the Far East after that." Cassydora led home the sophomore division to bury the memory of her unplaced effort in the June 3 G1 Epsom Oaks. "Until the winner came along it looked like we were going better than anything," trainer John Dunlop told PA Sport. Click for the racingpost.co.uk chart or the free brisnet.com catalogue-style pedigree.

Trained by Tony Reinstedler to six victories, including this track's GII Lake Placid H. in 2003, Sand Springs has flourished since being turned over to Bill Mott. Sixth in Gulfstream allowance company Feb. 11, the dark bay bounced back to win the GIII Honey Fox H. by a nose Mar. 13 and was second by a length in the GIII Distaff Turf Mile at Churchill May 7. She was coming into the Diana off a 2 1/2-length success in the GIII Just a Game BC H. June 11, defeating a field which included Grade I winners Intercontinental (GB), Wonder Again (Silver Hawk) and Riskaverse. Well rated here beneath John Velazquez, Sand Springs overed the opening six panels in 1:12.23 and sprinted the final three-eighths in :34.68 to post a comfortable score. "She had the lead by the time she hit the first turn and nothing was pressing her very hard," Mott explained. "Pace makes the race and that's what happened today."

Third in his Dec. 18 bow at Calder, Flower Alley stretched out to Gulfstream's one-turn mile to win his maiden by 3/4 of a length Feb. 19. Sent north to dip his toe into stakes competition, the colt was steadied at the quarter pole of the Mar. 26 GII Lane's End S., but rallied to post a half-length score over subsequent Queen's Plate hero Wild Desert and followed that effort with a runner-up finish in Afleet Alex's GII Arkansas Derby Apr. 16. A forward factor in the Derby before tailing off late to be eighth, Flower Alley had the perfect preparation for this test, a second-place result to the likely GI Haskell H. favorite Roman Ruler on Independence Day. Sent off the prohibitive favorite, aided by the late scratching of Noble Causeway (Giant's Causeway), Flower Alley was away alertly from the inside and raced with longshot Mr. Congeniality (Chester House) through even fractions of :23.86 and :47.38. The favorite had had enough of that rival as they raced around the far turn, but was confronted by Reverberate, who loomed a threat at the quarter pole. However, that challenge was repelled with equal ease and Flower Alley remained well clear, despite racing greenly late. "Physically, he's done very well; mentally, he's still getting there," Pletcher added. "You could see once he made the lead, he let up a little bit. When Johnny hit him left-handed, he ducked over onto his left lead. It will come to him. Right now, he is doing this on natural talent." Noble Causeway was scratched on his way to the gate. "[Jerry] Bailey didn't like the horse," trainer Nick Zito explained. "The vet didn't have any problem with him, but Bailey didn't like the way he was warming up. He walked back perfect."

Sitting on a loaded Perfect Drift turning for home but blocked behind a wall of horses, jockey Mark Guidry waited patiently, then punched his way between rivals in upper stretch before guiding the Murray Johnson trainee to his first stakes victory since the GII Hawthorne Gold Cup in September of 2003. A busy runner last year, Perfect Drift collected five seconds in nine starts, including the GI Whitney H. and GI Pacific Classic, but never made it to the winner's circle. He finally got his picture taken with an open-lengths tally in a grassy Keeneland allowance in April, his seasonal bow, but had a rough trip in the May 7 GI Turf Classic and could do no better than ninth. He entered this off a third in the GI Stephen Foster H. June 18 and was the odds-on choice of Arlington's faithful. Forced to steady in upper stretch and crying out for room, Perfect Drift found a seam and pricked his ears as he ran away from an overmatched field. "Today was a big step forward," said Murray. "If all goes well from now and three weeks, we hope to be in Del Mar for the GI Pacific Classic [Aug. 21]." Shining Energy was on the board in three of four European starts, including a second in the Listed Prix des Sablonnets at Nantes Nov. 4. Sent to this country, the chestnut won the Mar. 6 La Habra S. in her second stateside appearance down the Santa Anita hill, but had failed as the favorite in two starts going long--a fifth in the Apr. 9 GIII Providencia S. in Arcadia and a seventh in the May 8 GIII Senorita S. at Hollywood Park. Reserved towards the back of the pack early, Shining Energy raced three wide into and around the far turn. She was angled out another path for the drive and quickened up very nicely before going on to a solid victory. Memorette and Royal Copenhagen arrived home on even terms to share second money.

older mare in Canada for the second straight year. Offered a winter vacation, she came back to be second in Woodbine's GIII George C. Hendrie H. May 15. One For Rose was a determined head victress in the Ontario Matron H. June 18 in her next, but never fired in the July 9 Molly Pitcher and came home fifth. Here, she kept the pace-setting Wake at Noon (Cure the Blues) honest up the backstretch, challenged that rival three furlongs out, opened by daylight soon after and kept on under a drive to hold Honolulu Storm at bay. The win was a bit of redemption for trainer Sid Attard following One For Roses' Molly Pitcher disappointment. "It gets you scared a little bit," explained Attard. "But she recovered very quickly. I never breezed her since the last race and just kept her happy. When I saw her sitting second today and the favourite [Cuba] behind us, I said, 'I think we've got a good shot.' And she kept on going." Cuba, disqualified from third to fifth in the June 11 GII Brooklyn H., failed to make an impact in the final stages.

Between them, they have won three Grade I events at Saratoga and today, Ashado and Society Selection meet for the fifth time in their careers. With a three-to-one advantage in their head-to-head matchups, Ashado was off to a disappointing start to the year, with a pair of defeats at short odds, but the four-year-old bounced back to silence her critics with a three-length victory over her rival in the June 18 GI Ogden Phipps H. downstate. "I never lost any confidence in her," trainer Todd Pletcher commented. "I was good to see her run her 'A' race in the Ogden Phipps." Society Selection is a perfect three-for-three at the Spa, including back-to-back victories in the GI Test S. and GI Alabama S. last year. "I hope she continues to do as well as she has here," said her trainer Allen Jerkens.

Areyoutalkintome began getting good about this time last year, winning the restricted Real Good Deal S. here Aug. 6 and the Cal Cup Sprint H. two starts later Oct. 16. A disappointing fifth in the Apr. 24 Tiznow S. at Hollywood Park, the dark bay was second by three-parts of a length in the May 14 GIII L.A. Times H. in Inglewood, but was only sixth in the GI Triple Bend H. July 3. Pico Central looks vulnerable as he makes his first start since finishing fourth in the G1 Dubai Golden Shaheen Mar. 26. The obvious class of the field off his three Grade I victories in 2004, the dark bay will look to do better than his third-place finish as the 2-5 favorite in this event last year.

Divine Proportions has taken everything in stride so far, displaying her superiority over a wide range of trips from Chantilly's furious five furlongs in the G3 Prix du Bois last June to the 10 1/2 panels of the G1 Prix de Diane at that venue the last time she graced the track June 12. That emphatic performance ended all doubts as to her status among the great color-bearers of the Niarchos dynasty and she will be a warm proposition here. "She's in good order and is well within herself," Racing Manager Alan Cooper told PA Sport. "After running her over 10 1/2 furlongs in the Prix de Diane, [trainer] Pascal [Bary] felt dropping her back to a mile would give her the right preparation for the big race [G1 Prix Jacques le Marois] in August." Nothing in racing is certain, however and the Niarchos Family will not want reminding that Six Perfections (Fr) was overturned here two years ago.

Gulf Coast Farms/Martin Cherry

Henny Hughes
A Coglianesse

This week's accomplishment:

Lance Robinson's Gulf Coast Farms, with partners Jerry Bailey, Ken Ellenberg and Jeff Collett, along with outside partner Martin Cherry, sold GII Saratoga Special S. winner Henny Hughes (Hennessy) just prior to the race to Darley Stable for a price reported to be in the $4-million range.

(Questions asked to Gulf Coast's Jerry Bailey)

You bought Henny Hughes at FTKJUL for $180,000 to pinhook him, correct?

I look at a lot of horses with John Moynihan, who selects horses for Martin Cherry. We both landed on this horse, as did our whole team-- my wife, my partner Lance Robinson. So we bought him out of that sale with the purpose of taking him to a two-year-old sale.

He RNA'd for $370,000 at Barretts March. Could you talk about that?

He worked really good out there, in 9.9 [seconds for the furlong]. I thought he was a very attractive horse, and I touted this horse to some of the bigger buyers that had bought from us in the past. For whatever reason, though, we didn't get him sold. In the long run, I guess that was fortunate for us [laughs]. So we went right on with him.

When you went to Barretts, did you have a number in mind?

I thought we were pretty realistic. I thought that horse could potentially bring $700-800,000, but we we're going to take less than that.

As a yearling, what attracted you to him? Hennessy is a nice sire, a 'sale-able' sire. [Henny Hughes] is out of a Meadowlake mare, so we expected he would mature early, which is advantageous when you're going to a two-year-old sale. What attracted him to us most was his physical. He's got a lot of bulk to him, lots of bone, some length. We don't see any reason why he couldn't go on to be one of the undefeated two-year-olds. We really believe in this horse.

CONGRATULATIONS!

Germany's Horse of 2004 Soldier Hollow bids to return to winning ways in this tough renewal. Almost unbeatable in his native country last term, he rattled off scores in the G3 Hessen Pokal at Frankfurt July 18, the G3 Preis der Sparkassen-Finanzgruppe at Baden-Baden the following month and the G2 Euro-Cup back at Frankfurt in September. He maintained his tally in the G1 Premio Roma in November, but the wheels came off when trailing in the G1 Hong Kong Cup at Sha Tin before Christmas. He may have needed his comeback when fifth in the G1 Premio Presidente della Repubblica at the Capannelle May 15, but he beat Simonas (Ire)--then was disqualified--in the June 26 G2 Hansa-Preis at Hamburg last time. He sets the standard as Peter Schiergen chases an overdue follow-up to the success of Tiger Hill (Ire) in this six years ago. New Morning represents top European form, having beaten North Light (Ire) in the May 31 G3 Brigadier Gerard S. at Sandown before filling fourth spot behind Alexander Goldrun (Ire) in the G1 Pretty Polly at The Curragh June 25. Andreas Schutz won this with Elle Danzig (Ger) in 1998 and saddles a duo in Arcadio and the July 17 G3 Hessen-Pokal scorer Tarlac. The former drops back in trip after his fine third latest in the G1 Deutsches Derby at Hamburg July 3 and looked outstanding on his previous 15-length romp in the May 26 G3 Bavarian Classic over course and distance.

ALEX TO SHIP TO SARATOGA Cash Is King LLC's dual Classic winner Afleet Alex (Northern Afleet) is likely to accompany nine other stablemates to Saratoga, where the group is expected to arrive as early as next weekend. "Since I'm bringing nine horses to Saratoga, I wanted Afleet Alex to come along," trainer Tim Ritchey explained. "I really don't want to leave him alone at Belmont. I want him to be here with me so I can monitor his progress every day." The bay colt, stabled at Belmont since his victory in the final leg of the Triple Crown June 11, was diagnosed with a hairline condylar fracture in his left-front leg earlier this week. Ritchey added that, after a period of seven to 10 days of stall confinement, Afleet Alex would begin walking the shedrow. "About a week after that, I'm hoping to have someone on his back and walk around the barn." The conditioner is pleased with the post-surgical progress. "He's doing really well," he commented. "I'm really looking forward to having him back in training."

SARATOGA COUNTY EUTHANIZED Saratoga County (Valid Expectations--Grub's Dancer, by Grub) was put down late Friday night after developing a case of laminitis, Daily Racing Form reports. The four-year-old colt had been hospitalized in a Saratoga area equine clinic for approximately the last month after having a reaction following treatment by a veterinarian. Owner Evelyn Pollard told the Form that the colt first developed colitis which later turned into laminitis. The winner of the 2004 GIII Gotham S. at Aqueduct, Saratoga County went off form over the summer, but got back on track with a Churchill allowance victory in November. He was perfect in three starts this season, the GIII Mr. Prospector H., the GII General George H. and the $2-million G1 Dubai Golden Shaheen Mar. 26. Saratoga County was to enter stud next year at Vinery.

WONDER AGAIN REROUTED Defending champion Wonder Again (Silver Hawk), who would have been one of the favorites in yesterday's GI Diana S. at Saratoga, was scratched and will instead be pointed at the GI Beverly D. S. at Arlington Park Aug. 13. "She's fine," her trainer James Toner commented. "I wanted to give her an extra couple of weeks until she ran. Considering her post position [post 10], the firm course and the fact she was carrying top weight [120 pounds], we thought she would have a big challenge."

HASKELL LIKELY TO ATTRACT FULL FIELD With the withdrawal of Afleet Alex from next Sunday's GI Haskell Invitational H., the $1-million event will likely attract a field as large as 13. John Petri's Joey P. (Close Up), winner of the GIII Jersey Shore Breeders' Cup S. July 4, was pronounced on track for the nine-furlong race yesterday after breezing five furlongs in 1:03 over the Monmouth main track. "He went nice and easy," trainer Frank Costa said. "He galloped out three-quarters in 1:15. It looks like we're probably going to run in the Haskell, like 99 percent probable." From California, trainer Bruce Headley reported yesterday that he is considering a run in the Haskell for Surf Cat (Sir Cat), winner in his most recent appearance of the GII Swaps Breeders' Cup S. Headley is also mulling over the possibility of remaining at Del Mar for the GI Pacific Classic Aug. 21, a race in which Surf Cat would carry 117 pounds and would receive weight from his older rivals. Surf Cat was assigned 119 pounds for the Haskell, the same as Roman Ruler (Fusaichi Pegasus), and would have the advantage of facing his peers.

Diana H.-GI Sand Springs (Dynaformer) leads them from gate to wire.

Jim Dandy S.-GII Flower Alley (Distorted Humor) continues to bloom in this Travers prep.

Washington Park H.-GII Perfect Drift (Dynaformer) overcomes adversity to win going away.

San Clemente H.-GII Shining Energy (Rahy) displays a quick turn of foot to win impressively.

Seagram Cup H.-GIII One For Rose (Tejano Run) successfully defends her title.

BETTER THAN BONDS (c, 3, Sweetsouthernstaint--Jabesh, by Vanlandingham) ran third to Rockport Harbor in the Gill Nashua S. before concluding his two-year-old campaign with a win in Calder's What a Pleasure S. Dec. 4. The bay didn't race again until May 15, when he ran third against his elders in a Belmont allowance test. He failed to do much in his turf debut, finishing seventh in the Gill Hill Prince S. June 10, but rebounded with a good third in a one-mile allowance at Belmont July 2. Sent off at 5-1 here, the Florida-bred settled near the back of this five-horse field, came through on the rail and opened up to defeat Awesome Twist (Awesome Again) by four lengths. More Naggng Problems at the Spa:

Saturday's first race, scheduled to be run over the Mellon Turf Course, was switched to the Inner Turf Course after an irrigation pipe burst between the two courses about 200 feet from the finish line. "There's some water on the Mellon Turf Course where the pipe broke," said NYRA Track Superintendent John Passero. "We want to give it a day or so to let the area dry out. Also, for the horses and riders, we would rather be safe than sorry by moving the races to the Inner Turf Course." Three races were carded for the Mellon for today. The status of those races was pending as of Saturday afternoon.

Zito Breezes the Barn:

Trainer Nick Zito had a busy Saratoga morning yesterday, sending out several stakes-caliber horses for workouts. Bellamy Road (Concerto), unraced since a splint injury sustained in his seventh-place finish in the GI Kentucky Derby May 7, went five-eighths of a mile over the training track in 1:04 2/5. The GI Wood Memorial winner remains on track to make his return in the GI King's Bishop S. Aug. 27. "I talked to the Steinbrenner family and they're happy with the King's Bishop," Zito commented. "I know the King's Bishop is a tough race, but when Bellamy Road is right, he can run with any horse in America." The $250,000 event is also expected to attract undefeated Lost in the Fog (Lost Soldier). Sun King (Charismatic) and Pinpoint (Peaks and Valleys) worked five furlongs in company over the training track. The former, winner in his most recent start of the GIII Leonard Richards S., was credited with a final time of 1:03 2/5, while Sir Barton S. hero Pinpoint went in 1:03 4/5. "I don't know what I'm doing with them next," the conditioner explained. "Sun King worked well enough to think about the Haskell, but I'm going to do a lot of thinking Monday and Tuesday." Also representing the stable were Commentator (Distorted Humor), who breezed five furlongs over the main track in :59 flat, while Royal Assault (Kris S.) covered the same distance in 1:03 1/5.

Bet down to even-money here, the dark bay broke alertly from his outside post, sped through fractions of :21.46 and :44.87 and had enough left to hold off the valiant Confront. Why did his connections run the colt against claiming company at Churchill? "We thought we'd take a chance," owner/breeder Curtis Green admitted. "We didn't really think anyone would claim him. At that point, we didn't really know how good he was.

He had worked well, but that doesn't always mean they will run well. We decided to go for the win first time out and see what happened." Miss Terrible Breezes for 'D':

Prepping for the GI Beverly D. S. at Arlington Park Aug. 13, Carol and Charles Hammersmith's Miss Terrible (Arg) (Numerous) went a mile over the local turf course in 1:47.40. "It was a really good work for her," commented Illinois State clocker Bobby Belpedio. "The dogs were well out from the rail and she went real easy. Razo hardly asked her." The six-year-old mare has displayed her versatility this year, winning the GIII Las Flores H. over the Santa Anita main track Feb. 27 before switching to the grass to take the GIII Distaff Turf Mile at Churchill May 7. She will be making her first appearance since finishing fifth in the GI Gamely Breeders' Cup H. at Hollywood May 30.

Southern Africa Off to West Virginia:

Southern Africa (Cape Town), winner earlier this year of the GIII Lone Star Derby, breezed six furlongs yesterday morning at Arlington Park in 1:15 and is slated to make his next start in the GIII West Virginia Derby at Mountaineer Park Aug. 14. Following his 1 1/4-length victory in Texas, the dark bay found the 12 furlongs of the GI Belmont S. too tough, finishing eighth to Afleet Alex. In his most recent effort, the Mike Puhich-trainee was seventh in the grassy GIII Arlington Classic July 2. "He's been doing well," the conditioner commented. "Hopefully we can get things turned around for him in West Virginia."

Fortunately had raced nine times in the U.S. since making her stateside debut in February of 2004, but failed to find the winner's circle before capturing Friday night's feature at Del Mar. The bay finished fourth in a trio of Southern California second-level allowance races this spring, then traveled north to be third sprinting over Golden Gate's sod June 19. Moved into stakes company in her latest, she ran an improved second in the restricted Curious Clover S. at Hollywood July 8 and was looking to do one better in her first foray on the grass at Del Mar. The Tim Yakteen trainee was never far off Bella Banissa's pace and pulled clear in mid-stretch for the victory.

DATTICUS (g, 5, Atticus--Devil's Banner, by Devil's Bag), a $75,000 FTKJUL yearling, finished third in his belated debut at Del Mar last August, then went missing for 10 months before an impressive wire-to-wire score at Hollywood June 11. The five-year-old knocked off his first allowance condition here, setting all the pace through very solid fractions and powering away to the 5 1/2-length win as the 6-5 chalk. Tsigane, who had some tough luck last year in one-mile grass races, found himself on the dirt for the G2 Godolphin Mile and came away with a close third in that Nad al Sheba race Mar. 26. Upon his return to the U.S., the bay ran fourth in the GIII Los Angeles Times H. May 14, but he was a dismal ninth in the GI Triple Bend H. July 3 at Hollywood, and his connections opted to revert to his previous metier. Never too far from the front, the favorite overcame a rough trip to prevail in a blanket finish.

IRISH INTEREST BUYS PLANTATION STUD

The Late Lord Howard de Walden's Plantation Stud has been purchased by an unnamed Irish family for an undisclosed sum, the Racing Post has revealed. The Newmarket farm, which stands over 187 acres, had been under the care of the de Walden family since 1958 and served as the base for such stars as Diesis (GB), Grand Lodge, Kris (GB), Pursuit of Love (GB) and Slip Anchor (GB). According to the Post, Bloodstock Agent Peter Doyle acted for the anonymous buyers, while James Wigan of London Thoroughbred Services advised the trustees on the sale of the breeding stock, including more than 20 mares and their foals and more than 15 yearlings. The sale did not include the 1985 Epsom Derby hero Slip Anchor, and Lady Howard de Walden retained a handful of mares to be kept at her home at Avington Manor. Plantation's other stallion Olden Times (GB) (Darshaan {GB}–Garah {GB}, by Ajdal), owned in partnership by Lady de Walden and Prince Faisal, will be relocated.

GLORIOUS INDEED

Officials at Goodwood yesterday celebrated record attendances for their five-day Glorious meet. Managing Director Rod Fabricius hailed the festival, which saw a post-war crowd high of 106,484, and championed the staff. "Everyone has played their part, from the police to the car park attendants, from the electricians to the plumbers, from the caterers to the stall handlers," he said. "The wet weather early in the week has made it particularly challenging over the five days."

The final day of the Goodwood meet saw a Royal winner as The Queen's former Classic hopeful Forward Move produced a sustained run to garner a determined first stakes prize. He contested trials, but bypassed the Classics. Seventh in the June 16 Listed Hampton Court S. at Royal Ascot at York, he returned to form last time when second to David Junior in the Listed Gala S. at Sandown July 1. Settled fourth behind the strong early pace here, Forward Move was sent in pursuit of Museeb inside the final quarter, took control approaching the eighth pole and responded to driving as Oude closed late from rear. "It was pretty smooth," claimed rider Ryan Moore. "He wasn't traveling great early, although they were going pretty quick. He stayed well and liked this ground. He's always worked well and we've always thought plenty of the horse."

Gift Horse lashed out in the paddock beforehand and narrowly missed putting Kieren Fallon into the ether, but his mind was on the job at hand in this downhill sprint to secure a last gasp win. Third behind Soldier's Tale in a hot six-furlong handicap at York May 13, the chestnut gained compensation in a similar contest at Epsom June 4 prior to this career high. Positioned in rear off the lightning early fractions, he was guided closer inside the final quarter. Fonthill Road looked set fair for victory, but Fallon urged every last ounce of effort from his mount, collaring that rival on the line. "I was stuck behind and couldn't get out, but when I did he absolutely flew," the former champion jockey explained. "It worked out in the finish, but I got lucky."

BRIDGE LOAN (GB) (c, 3, Giant's Causeway--Credit-a-Plenty {GB} {GSP-GB}, by Generous {Ire}) looked a smart prospect on Lingfield's polytrack when doubling up in a maiden and handicap in February, but let the side down when trailing in the Apr. 22 G3 Sandown Classic Trial. Racing keenly early in rear after a 99-day absence, the 16-1 chance took all of the 10 furlongs to get on top, but reeled in Hadrian (Ire) (King's Best) in the final strides and was a cozy 3/4-of-a-length winner in the end. ROHAANI (c, 3, High Yield--Strawberry's Charm, by Strawberry Road {Aus}) broke his maiden on debut at Pontefract Apr. 27 and followed up at Sandown last time June 11. The $160,000 KEESEP yearling went postward as the 8-11 choice to retain the unbeaten record in this. Tracking the leaders while trapped wide, he was ridden to the front with 1 1/2 furlongs remaining and rallied once headed inside the final eighth to regain a short-head initiative from Top Dirham (GB) (Night Shift) on the line. The winner is a half to Strawberry Morn (Travelling Victor), MSW, $501,720. Lifetime Record: 3-3-0-0, £24,642. O-Sheikh Hamdan bin Rashid al Maktoum; B-North Wales LLC; T-Sir Michael Stoute.

ST ANDREWS (IRE) (h, 5, Celtic Swing {GB}--Viola Royale {Ire} {SP-Ire}, by Royal Academy) has been knocking his head against a brick wall in major handicaps, but showed he could compete in stakes class when fourth in the G3 Huxley S. on his penultimate start at Chester May 5. Coming into this off a sixth in a Sandown handicap July 2, the 9-2 shot raced in rear early before grinding his way to the front in the final 100 yards and holding Polar Ben (GB) (Polar Falcon) by a head. The winner was a 45,000gns TATDEC weanling and a 42,000gns TATOCT yearling. Lifetime Record: 17-4-4-1, £96,565. O-Team Havana; B-Peter Savill; T-Michael Jarvis.

STETCHWORTH PRINCE (GB) (c, 3, Cadeaux Genereux {GB}--Elfin Laughter {GB}, by Alzao), a 1/2 to Smirk (GB) (Selkirk), SW & GSP, $243,888, had managed a fourth behind subsequent G1 Sussex S. victor Proclamation (Ire) in the May 28 Listed Heron S. at Goodwood before placing in competitive handicaps at Royal Ascot at York June 16 and at this course July 5. Contesting the early pace, the 120,000gns TATOCT yearling lengthened clear passing halfway and showed courage to hold Peace Offering (Ire) (Victory Note) by 1 1/4 lengths at 3-1 odds. Allowed to drift to 11-4, the second choice broke well and raced freely while stalking the early pace before striding to the front with 2½ furlongs remaining. Jamie Spencer waved the stick as Global Genius threatened briefly and Emirates Skyline opened up to record an authoritative 2½-length success. "He has done it very nicely," Godolphin's representative Diana Cooper told PA Sport. "He has a lovely action and is a straightforward type who has hopefully got a good future. I don't know what he will be entered in, but he is from a lovely family and will have a nice progressive path." Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, £5,109.

2nd Dam: Spectacular Bev, by Spectacular Bid

3rd Dam: Bev Bev, by Nijinsky II

Cross Channel took part in a hot Newmarket maiden on debut July 15, winding up a gallant third to Star Cluster (GB) after cutting out the early fractions. Sent off the even-money favorite to become the third winner to have emerged from that race, she took command early before being wound up approaching the final quarter. Relentless on the uphill climb, she was hand-ridden to score by 2½ lengths from Shortest Day (GB) (Zafonic), who was eighth OPERA CAPE (GB) (c, 2, Baratheia {Ire}--Optaria {GB} {SP-GB}, by Song {GB}), who had hit the board in Salisbury maidens June 23 and July 9, stalked the leaders from fifth for most of this effort. Coaxed to the front at the quarter-mile marker, the 6-1 chance was ridden clear from there before holding the late surge of True Cause (Storm Cat) by 1 1/2 lengths. The winner is a half to Grey Shot (GB) (Sharrood), MGSW-GB, GSW-Fr, $278,940; and Night Shot (GB) (Night Shift), GSP-Ger, MSP-GB, $169,170. Lifetime Record: 3-1-1-1, £13,359.

SLIGHT SETBACK FOR GREY SWALLOW

Murry Rose Bloodstock's Grey Swallow (Ire) (Daylami {Ire}) was reported somewhat the worse for the wear after Saturday's G1 King George VI and Queen Elizabeth Diamond S., but the four-year-old is set for a potentially busy remainder to his campaign. Sent off the 10-3 second choice in the Newbury showpiece, the G1 Irish Derby and G1 Tattersalls Gold Cup hero trailed home in seventh and trainer Dermot Weld yesterday revealed that he had suffered a cut in the gate. "He is a little bit stiff and sore on a hind leg that he cut in the stalls," he explained. "It was quite a gash, but it was not a reason for his run and he's perfect this morning and back cantering. We'll look at the G1 Juddmonte International S. [at York Aug. 16] and then decide whether he goes to America for the races his sire won, such as the GI Man O'War S. [at Belmont Sept. 10], or G1 Irish Champion S. [at Leopardstown Sept. 10], before ending up at the Breeders' Cup."
