ASHADO ROMPS IN GO FOR WAND

After last year's Breeders' Cup Distaff winner Ashado (Saint Ballado) opened her four-year-old campaign with back-to-back defeats, there were whispers that the sophomore champ had lost a step in 2005, but the filly officially put all doubts to rest yesterday with a dominating 9 1/2-length triumph in the GI Go for Wand H. at Saratoga. The victory continued the red-hot streak of trainer Todd Pletcher, who was capturing his third graded stakes of the young Spa meeting. "Today emphasized what kind of filly she is," Pletcher said. "She has accomplished some amazing things." The even-money favorite contested the early pace, but took charge with ease in upper stretch and powered clear. "She was unbelievable," said winning rider John Velazquez.

DIVINE NINE

Persistent rain dampened the spirits of yesterday's crowd at picturesque Deauville, but they were lifted by another supreme performance from the Niarchos family's Divine Proportions (Kingmambo) in the G1 Prix d'Astarte. The hot 1-5 choice simply blew away her rivals with a near-effortless performance over the softened turf, powering clear inside the final furlong to easily turn down the vain effort of Shapira (Ger) (Kornado {GB}) by two lengths, taking her record to a perfect nine-for-nine. "I was slightly worried soon after the start as the plan was to go closer behind the pacemaker, but I never had a doubt her class would make the difference," racing manager Alan Cooper said. "Her rider played it cool and once she saw daylight, she just took off in a couple of strides." Cont. p2

GREG'S GOLD UPSETS BING CROSBY

Greg's Gold (Lake George) had never started in a graded stakes race, but the gray made it look easy with a rail-skimming victory in yesterday's GI Bing Crosby H. at Del Mar. On the board in 10 of 12 lifetime starts, the four-year-old gelding was coming off a three-length allowance victory at Hollywood Park and signaled his readiness for the jump in class with a zippy five-furlong move in :58 4/5 at Del Mar July 25. "I believed that if we got the trip, we'd be right there," commented winning trainer David Hofmans. "I thought he was very sharp off of his Hollywood race. He had a wonderful work and he's peaking right now. These were some fast horses, but I knew Greg's Gold was doing super well. That's why we gave it a shot." Let go at 8-1, the gray was never far back and burst through an opening on the rail at midstretch to win going away by 1 1/4 lengths. Pico Central (Brz) (Spend a Buck), off since finishing fourth in the Mar. 26 GI Dubai Golden Shaheen, never looked comfortable and finished ninth and last as the 5-2 favorite. "He had his head up and never put it down," said Mike Smith, aboard the beaten favorite. "I hope it was a case of him needing a race. I don't know what else to say." Cont p3

Ashado (Saint Ballado) had an inauspicious beginning to the year, finishing fifth in the Apr. 9 GI Apple Blossom H. and second in the May 20 GIII Pimlico Breeders' Cup Distaff H., but the losses didn't discourage trainer Todd Pletcher. "Anytime you bring back a Breeders' Cup champion, there is a lot of pressure because of high expectations," Pletcher admitted. "I take the blame for her race in the Apple Blossom and we caught the wrong type of track at Pimlico. But she came back to train well and has shown it here."

Ashado returned to her winning ways last time out with a three-length victory in the June 18 GI Ogden Phipps H. and added a second straight Grade I triumph yesterday. It was an easy trip for winning jockey John Velazquez, whose biggest concern was the weather. "I was a little worried about the rain; I didn't want it to get sloppy before the race," Velazquez admitted. "She was going so good all the way up the backside, I just sat against her. Today, she hesitated a little bit, and I said, 'No, Mommy, you're going to have to stay busy. These are the big girls.' I kept her busy and she kept running. Hopefully, we can keep her like this."

With just five days of racing in the books, Pletcher has already won 10 races, including Friday's GIII Lake George S. and Saturday's GII Jim Dandy S.

Before Divine Proportions (Kingmambo)'s fifth Group 1 success here, the early summer had already been blessed with performances which have stretched superlatives to the limit. Burdened this year with expectation after emerging from wins in last season's G1 Prix Morny here in August and G1 Prix Marcel Boussac at Longchamp on Arc day, Divine Proportions has carried that extra weight with conviction. She hoovered up the Apr. 24 G3 Prix de la Grotte at Longchamp, before astounding fans with facile victories in the G1 Poule d'Essai des Pouliches (French 1000 Guineas) back there May 15 and the June 12 G1 Prix de Diane (French Oaks) at Chantilly last time. Concerns for the inner draw here proved unfounded as Christophe Lemaire established personal space in rear, waiting patiently off the fractions. Order was maintained until Toupie (Fr) (Intikhab) made a dash for glory when seizing the initiative at the quarter-mile marker, but the move merely provided Divine Proportions with an eager quarry and she negated arrears with consummate ease. On terms at the distance, she accelerated powerfully clear of that fading rival as Shapira (Ger) (Kornado {GB}) and Gorella (Fr) (Grape Tree Road {GB}) moved by nearing the wire. The homebred filly will now point to the G1 Prix Jacques le Marois Haras de Fresnay-le-Buffard back over this straight mile Aug. 14, where she will clash with Godolphin's G1 Irish 2000 Guineas winner Dubawi (Ire). "As always, she was terrific," exclaimed conditioner Pascal Bary. "She will not travel back to Chantilly, as I will train her for the Jacques Le Marois from here." Of future plans, Cooper added, "The plan is to do the same as we did with Six Perfections (Fr), which is to run in the Prix Jacques Le Marois in two weeks' time and then wait for the [Oct. 29] GI Breeders' Cup Mile [at Belmont]." Trainer Jean de Roualle was not downcast in defeat and praised his third place-getter Gorella. "She ran a great race, but there were no excuses," he commented. "I will just ask Pascal Bary where he runs Divine Proportions so we don't go for the same race." David Flores was confident Greg's Gold was up to the task against this field of veteran runners. "I breezed him here last week and he went so good," Flores explained. "He was nice and quiet in the gate and he broke sharp and let me put him in a good position. I knew if I could get a good spot I could count on his late acceleration. He's really got a strong kick. When I made the lead and saw his ears go up, I knew I was in good shape. He took care of it from there." Battle Won, winner of the Gil Churchill Downs H. May 7, set a pressured pace through fractions of :21.46, :43.65 and :55.70, but couldn't withstand the late surge of Greg's Gold. "He ran a good race," jockey Pat Valenzuela said of the runner-up. "He had pressure from both sides all the way, but he still ran hard."

Soldier Hollow was disqualified after winning the G2 Hansa-Preis at Hamburg last time June 26, but settled scores with a robust performance here to seize a second Group 1 medal. With home wins in last seasons' G3 Hessen Pokal, G3 Preis der Sparkassen-Finanzgruppe and G2 Euro-Cup followed by an international success in the G1 Premio Roma, he rendered Germany's Horse of the Year Awards a no-brainer. He could be forgiven a below-par 11th-place finish in the G1 Hong Kong Cup at Sha Tin last December and fifth on his seasonal return in the May 15 G1 Premio Presidente della Repubblica at the Capannelle May 15 before his errant effort at Hamburg, but was sent off the undisputed star here despite the scratching of British challenger New Morning (Ire) (Sadler's Wells) on account of the rain-soaked ground. Settled one off the rail in fourth early by William Mongil, the partnership eased to the front passing the quarter pole and were immediately tackled by the sophomore Arcadio, but the danger died beyond the eighth pole as Soldier Hollow asserted his superiority. Soldier Hollow's second dam Lake Isle is a granddaughter of prolific producer Lisadell who, in turn, is a sister to Special, the dam of Nureyev and granddam of Sadler's Wells. Click for the racingpost.co.uk chart or the free brisnet.com catalogue-style pedigree.

Also Ran: Thamarat (GB), Attima (GB), Overshadow (Ire).

Mauralakana served a provincial apprenticeship and knew what was required for this stakes debut, dominating her rivals in the closing stages to retain her unbeaten record. Successful over five furlongs on debut at Bordeaux-le Bouscat May 21, she was upped one panel after a five-week break and doubled her tally with an impressive win at Lyon Parilly June 25. Breaking on terms here, she was positioned in a tracking fourth as Attima (GB) (Zafonic) led and she closed under encouragement inside the final quarter mile. Taking control at the eighth pole, Frederic Spanu was confident enough to resist using the whip as she drew clear from Atlantic High, who claimed second nearing the line. "This is a nice filly who won both her starts very well in the provinces," explained trainer Jean-Claude Rouget. "She has very good acceleration which she showed again today. We will now take our chance in the G1 Prix Morny back here [Aug. 21], which is the next logical step after winning this so nicely."

CAUSEWAY OK AFTER DANDY SCRATCH Noble Causeway (Giant's Causeway), scratched just minutes before Saturday's GII Jim Dandy S., looks fine to trainer Nick Zito. Noble Causeway was declared from the race by New York Racing Association Acting Chief Examining Veterinarian Dr. Anthony Verderosa when jockey Jerry Bailey reported the three-year-old colt was not warming up well before the race. "Jerry said something wasn't quite feeling right with the horse and he didn't want to take that chance to run him," Zito reported yesterday. "I have to take Jerry's word. The horse appears to be fine. All we can do now is regroup and try to figure out what to do from here." Zito added that he would likely work Noble Causeway this week to make sure the colt is sound before determining a race schedule for him. Noble Causeway has not run since finishing sixth in the GI Preakness S.

Artie Schiller, who has never been worse than second in five tries at the Baruch distance, is a deserving morning-line favorite. The four-year-old won five times last year, including a 4 1/4-length score in the GII National Museum of Racing and Hall of Fame H. at the Spa. He ran into all kinds of trouble when 12th in the GI Breeders' Cup Mile at the end of the season, but returned to take the Apr. 15 GII Maker's Mark H. at Keeneland. The bay was beaten a nose by Cool Conductor when second in the May 21 GII Dixie H. and missed by a half length when third to Good Reward and Relaxed Gesture (Ire) in the June 11 GI Manhattan H. America Alive upset the field at 17-1 in the May 7 GI Woodford Reserve Turf Classic at Churchill Downs, then stretched out to 10 panels for the Manhattan and finished eighth. The bay dropped back to a mile for the July 4 Firecracker Breeders' Cup H. and ran a respectable third behind champion Kitten's Joy. Defending Baruch champion Silver Tree is winless in six starts since his neck triumph over Nothing to Lose over a yielding course last year. A close-up fifth in the Breeders' Cup Mile, he ended 2004 with a narrow loss to Host in the Dec. 4 GIII Tropical Turf H. at Calder. Silver Tree has made only two starts this term, running third in the Jan. 29 Sunshine Millions turf before a fifth-place effort in the July 3 GII King Edward Breeders' Cup H. at this trip at Woodbine last time out.

Willard Straight, who captured the restricted Troy S. in his lone prior effort over Saratoga's lawn, returned from a seven-month break with a second in a contentious Belmont allowance June 10, then nearly caught Mr. Light (Arg) when runner-up in the one-mile GIII Poker H. July 3rd, won in a swift 1:32 flat. The second choice here behind Old Forester (Forestry), the Goichman homebred contentedly tracked the early pace of GSW Mass Media, who was making his turf debut. Willard Straight found his best stride turning for home, hit the front with a strong rally in mid-stretch and maintained a nose superiority over the game Control Tower. Old Forester was never in the mix and uncharacteristically trailed home last at 4-5 odds, marking the first time in his career he has failed to hit the board.

SECRET FOREST (f, 4, Forestry--Half Secret, by Upper Nile), on the board in both Saratoga starts last year, was let go at 20-1 to get her first win at the Spa while making her turf debut here. The bay came back after a 6 1/2-month layoff to win a Gulfstream allowance at seven furlongs Apr. 21, but tired badly to be fifth going a mile and a sixteenth at Belmont May 27 and was given a short break. Switching surfaces for her return, the John Peace homebred was dogged by 9-10 Asti (Ire) (Sadler's Wells) as she cut out the pace, but refused to relent, hanging on gamely for a head score. The winner is a 1/2 to Top Secret (Afleet), MGSW & MGISP, $997,647; Tate (Afleet), MSW & GSP, $199,787; and West's Secret (West By West), SW, $176,381. On paper it looked like a wide-open maiden race of a dozen mostly unraced juveniles, but Halo Humor ran away and hid from an overmatched field. The Steve Asmussen trainee, making her bow with Lasix as the public's 3-1 second pick, dueled a rival into submission through a half in :46 2/5 and kept on motoring as jockey Jerry Bailey kept her busy, sailing under the wire 7 1/4 lengths clear. A 13-1 shot, Better Now (Thunder Gulch), was last early, but ran on to complete the exacta. Favored firster Unbridled Tale (Tale of the Cat), who was scratched out of last week's GII Adirondack S., was sixth. Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, $27,000.

Silver Highlight had been racing exclusively in Britain, finishing second in two of her three starts versus maiden foes last season. The gray filly had not been out since missing by a neck in a mile test at Bath last September, but was well backed after shipping across the Atlantic despite taking on stakes foes and 10 furlongs after the 10 1/2-month absence. Never far from the front, she went after See the Wind at the quarter pole, took command in the stretch and easily held Invitational at bay to break her maiden in the final leg of the Canadian Triple Tiara. Punctilious was the clear form choice for this, but not so with punters who were bruised when she posted off-the-board efforts in her first two starts this term, the May 31 G3 Brigadier Gerard S. at Sandown and G2 Lancashire Oaks at Haydock July 2. But she rewarded the faithful with a withering stretch run to claim her first win since taking the G2 Ribblesdale S. at Royal Ascot last June. That tally was sandwiched between a third and second, respectively, behind eventual female turf champion Ouija Board (GB) in the G1 Epsom Oaks and G1 Irish Oaks. After a fourth to Quiff (GB) in the G1 Yorkshire Oaks in August, she closed her campaign with a runner-up finish to Commercante (Fr) in the GI E P Taylor S. at Woodbine in October. Restrained off the pace in rear for most of this, she edged ever closer once in the straight and was pushed clear of Natalie Jane inside the final furlong to secure the prize.

Indian Maiden has found consistent form this term, with two of her season's five wins coming at this level and proved she did not lack for bravery here by surging through a late gap to record a Listed hat-trick. Successful in the Lansdown Fillies' S. at Bath Apr. 26 and the June 4 Cecil Frail S. at Haydock, the five-year-old came home a disappointing eighth in Thursday's G3 King George S. at Goodwood. Back on just three day's rest, she was trapped behind the leaders in fifth for most of this tight dash and was short of room as the field rounded the final turn, but, once balanced, squeezed between Eisteddfod and Fayr Jag inside the last 100 yards to land the spoils.

Newbury, 2.00, Mdn, £8,650, 2yo, 6f 8ydsT, 1:15.30, gd.

+ BONNIE PRINCE BLUE (GB) (c, 2, Topsy Creek--Heart So Blue {GB}, by Dilum) raced under cover behind the leaders in midfield, but came under pressure to maintain his position soon after the halfway marker. Ridden into fifth at the eighth pole, the 25-1 longshot found extra inside the last 100 yards to deny Loyal Royal (Ire) (King Charlemagne) by a length. Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, £5,623.

O/B-George Joseph Hicks; T-Barry Hills.

Newbury, 4.15, Hcp, £6,764, 3yo, f, 10f 6ydsT, 2:08.99, gd.

DANCE PARTNER (GB) (f, 3, Danzero {Aus}--Dancing Debut {GB}, by Polar Falcon), successful on Lingfield's polytrack last time June 25, tracked the leaders in fourth until taking closer order in the straight. Making her challenge with a quarter mile remaining, the 7-1 chance was ridden out in the closing stages to assert by two lengths from House Martin (GB) (Spectrum {Ire}). Lifetime Record: 4-2-1-0, £8,969.

O/B-Cheveley Park Stud; T-John Gosden.

Newbury, 5.15, Mdn, £5,940, 3yo, 1 1/8mT, 1:55.55, gd/sf.

ADMIRAL'S CRUISE (c, 3, A.P. Indy--Ladies Cruise {SW, $122,364}, by Fappiano), fourth at Windsor on debut June 13, was sent to the front from the outset here. With plenty of fuel left in the tank late, the 8-1 chance held off his nearest pursuer, Kintbury Cross (GB) (Kylia), by a length at the wire. The winner is a half to Transcendental (Mt. Livermore), MGISP, $381,976. Lifetime Record: 2-1-0-0, £4,194.
