ROMAN HOLIDAY

He came to the shore in search of his first Grade I victory and, just as Point Given and War Emblem had before him, wound up providing trainer Bob Baffert with an impressive victory in Monmouth Park's centerpiece, the GI Haskell Invitational H. Roman Ruler (Fusaichi Pegasus), sent off the even-money pick by Monmouth's faithful off his win in the GII Dwyer S. at Belmont, overhauled the pacesetting Sun King (Charismatic) at the furlong grounds and outslugged that rival to the wire. "This was my most gratifying Haskell," said Baffert, who saddled Point Given to victory in 2001 and

War Emblem in 2002. "Roman Ruler had to prove he was that kind of horse--could he step up to win a Grade 1? It was his coming out party, to show that he could do it." Haskell Coverage cont. p2

A Promising Youngster...

Purchased by Fog City Stable for $500,000 at the 2003 Keeneland September sale, Roman Ruler lived up to advanced billing when he won his debut at Hollywood last June by four lengths as the 4-5 chalk. A compelling seven-length winner in Del Mar's Aug. 15 GII Best Pal S. in his second start, he found eventual champion Declan's Moon a neck too good in the GII Del Mar Futurity

Sept. 8, but came back to win his two-turn bow, the Oct. 3 GII Norfolk S. at Santa Anita, by open lengths. That was enough to convince bettors to back him as the favorite for the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile at Lone Star Oct. 30. He failed to fire that day, however, running fifth to Wilko, and was put away for the winter following surgery to remove an undescended testicle.

The Road to Redemption...

Roman Ruler found the Triple Crown trail take a few unwelcome twists in the form of foot bruises, which interrupted the colt's training in the spring and compromised his chances when a badly beaten eighth in his 2005 unveiling, the GII San Felipe S. at Santa Anita Mar. 19. Removed from Kentucky Derby consideration soon after and given time to allow his feet to grow out, Roman Ruler rewarded his connections' patience and returned with smart tally over Flower Alley in the GII Dwyer S. at Belmont on Independence Day.

Grade I Glory...

Confidently ridden by Jerry Bailey, who was aboard for his Dwyer victory, Roman Ruler was coaxed back off the leaders as Sun King was sent out to lead the way through :23 2/5 and :47 3/5 splits.

Bailey and Roman Ruler

Jersey-breds Joey P. (Close Up) and Park Avenue Ball tracked intently leaving the backstretch, and Bailey opted to keep Roman Ruler in the clear racing three wide rounding the turn. Hitting the 3/16ths pole on even terms, Roman Ruler and Sun King both dug deep, but the former began to edge away in the closing stages. "Bob led me to believe he'd be a little keener today," Bailey said afterward. "He broke well and I was able to tuck in around the first turn. He took to the track well. I could have waited and been a little farther back, but he was going so well, there was no reason for that. He tugged me up to the leader, and it was pretty simple from there." Baffert said that the Aug. 27, GI Travers S. at Saratoga was likely next, but added, "We'll wait 10 days or so to see how he comes out of this. He'll go up to Saratoga. But we're going to enjoy him, and not do anything stupid with him. There's no urgency now. The owners let me take my time. Now he's got the Grade I under his belt, and we can think about going for the GI Breeders' Cup Classic [Oct. 29]." PRIX MAURICE DE GHEEST cont.

Christophe Soumillon was at his elaborate best in celebration after the Deauville specialist Whipper outlasted Goodricke to go one better than 12 months ago in this competitive renewal. Having won the G1 Prix Morny here in 2003, he added the G1 Prix Jacques le

Whipper at Lone Star Park last October
Horsephotos

Marois to his record a week after finishing second in this, but endured a subsequent barren spell when off the board in the G1 Prix du Moulin de Longchamp in September and GI Breeders' Cup Mile at Lone Star Park the following month. Despite the promise of his comeback third in the May 1 G2 Prix du Muguet at Saint-Cloud, he looked disappointing last time when only fourth in the June 12 G3 Prix du Chemin de Fer du Nord at Chantilly. Hot beforehand, the favorite settled perfectly for the Belgian supremo in mid-division off the generous fractions carved out by the stable rabbit Tycoon's Hill (Ire) (Danahill). With the main action away from the rail in the center, Whipper was in the right place and his late rush took him past Goodricke and Olivier Peslier in a hard-fought final eighth. With his career firmly back on track, trainer Robert Collet is eyeing a bonus. "I'm proud of what he has achieved as the only horse to win all three Group 1s at Deauville," he commented. "He has disappointed around a turn, but there have been excuses every time and I don't believe he's just a straight-course horse. He will follow the same route as last year and come back next Sunday for the Prix Jacques le Marois and, if he wins that, it will be a super bonus."

Resuming Aidan O'Brien's run of glory in this race which started in 1998 and was interrupted only last year, George Washington sat in rear and opened up from stable companion Amadeus Mozart (Ire) when asked by Kieren Fallon inside the final quarter. If he was less than impressive when taking the course-and-distance G2 Railway S. on his last outing June 26, the laurels were applied after this emphatic display. "He's very special and some racehorse," his conditioner said of the colt, who took a half-second less to run these six furlongs than older sprinter Osterhase (Ire) did in the G3 Phoenix Sprint S. a half-hour later. "Although he's a horse with a lot of natural speed, he'll appreciate further." George Washington occupies the head of the betting for the 2006 2000 Guineas and aptly, it was on the day of the mile Classic that he shipped in to start out in a five-furlong maiden Apr. 30. He was baulked at a crucial stage before finishing third there, but graduated with no fuss over a panel further here May 22 before completing the Railway-Phoenix double. "All options are open to him and there's a long way to go, but he's had four runs and has traveled, so if he doesn't run again he has enough experience for next year," his trainer added. Trainer Steve Asmussen kicked off his weekend at the Spa with Forest Music's victory in the GII Honorable Miss H. and ended it with upsetter Santana Strings, who won this stepping stone to the Aug. 27 GI King's Bishop S. Asmussen took over the training of Santana Springs from Thomas Tomillo around New Year's and saddled him to a good second-place effort to Lost in the Fog in the restricted Sunshine Millions Dash Jan. 29. Fourth to that rival in the GII Swale S. in early March, Santana Strings was second in the Lost Code BC S. Apr. 9, sixth in the Derby Trial S. Apr. 30, then notched his first win for Asmussen in the July 2 Alysheba BC S. at Lone Star after a freshening. Away alertly from post seven, he scrimmaged for the lead from the outside as Storm Surge (Storm Cat) led a host of pursuers through a quick quarter in :21 4/5. He forged to the front as they got to the half in :45, shook free of Storm Surge in mid-stretch and had enough to fend off the hard-charging Social Probation late. "This is a very nice horse," said Asmussen. "I just really made some wrong moves with him early. I have put him in his last two races, races that he was prepared for. The King's Bishop is the hope." Favored Silver Train loomed a threat turning for home, but flattened out in the final panel.

She hadn't posted a victory since last summer at Del Mar in the grassy Solona Beach H. versus state bred, going winless in her next eight attempts. The dark bay did collect checks in her last three starts sprinting on the Hollywood dirt, finishing third in the B. Thoughtful S. Apr. 24, second in the Gill Desert Stormer H. June 5 and second in the Valkyr S. July 16. Overlooked on the stretch out here, she settled in sixth as Alphabet Kisses set quick fractions of :22.87, :45.95 and 1:09.90. Swung out three wide by Alex Solis for the stretch run, Tucked Away made it to the front in deep stretch and outgamed the favorite to the wire. Tyler Baze, aboard Muir Beach, claimed foul against the winner for an alleged interference in upper stretch, but stewards let the order of finish stand. It is not just the colts who are making waves for Team Ballydoyle and Rumpelstiltskin stole some of her own thunder with a smooth success here. Despite having the pace to win over the straight six furlongs of Naas in a maiden on debut May 14 and the June 6 Swordlestown Stud Sprint S., she looked to need further than that trip when third in the G3 Albany S. at Royal Ascot at York last time June 17. Traveling easily in fourth throughout the early stages, she was short of room when full of run passing the quarter pole as Modeeroch tried to steal away. With the extra distance to organise her finish, Rumpelstiltskin got going when in the clear and bossed that rival in the final 150 yards to notch up another high-profile score for the Magnier-O'Brien-Fallon axis. "We were a little bit disappointed with her at York, so we gave her a little break," commented her trainer, who was winning his third straight Debutante. "If everything goes well, she'll come back here for the G1 Moyglare Stud S. [Sept. 4]." This race consisted of the usual suspects on the Irish stakes scene and it was the admirably predictable Tropical Lady who clinched the latest heat in the ongoing saga. She enjoyed the hazy summer of the Emerald Isle last term when bagging the G3 Brownstown S. at Leopardstown and Listed Kilboy Estate S. here, but didn't fare as well in the fall and winter, failing to add to her resume. As the weather warmed up, so did Jim Bolger's mare and she suggested a seasonal revival was imminent when third over an inadequate seven-furlong trip here in the July 17 G3 Minstrel S. Bounced out six days later, she ran down Cairdeas in the G3 Meld S. at Leopardstown and it was that foe who had to endure a repeat here. Swooping from her customary early seat in rear under Kevin Manning, she loomed large in that rival's wing mirrors approaching the eighth pole before showing him her heels in a spirited drive to the line. "I want to try a mile-and-a-half with her," Bolger said. "She will go for the G2 Prix de Royallieu [at Longchamp Oct. 1] and maybe the G2 Blandford S. [at The Curragh Sept. 18] beforehand." Christophe Soumillon was in the groove by the time he partnered Diamond Tango and he turned another major race-day into his own, providing conditioner Andre Fabre his seventh renewal since 1989. Diamond Tango had taken time to reach her potential last season, but showed ability when fifth in the G1 Prix Vermeille and fourth in the G2 Prix de Royallieu in the fall. After a second in the G3 Prix Allez France at Chantilly May 2, she backtracked four weeks later when only third in the G2 Prix Corrida at Saint-Cloud and was again third in the Listed Grand Prix de Lyon at Lyon Parilly June 25. Turning that around here, she had things her own way up front and gained first run on the fast-finishing Guadalajara in the straight. "She's been knocking on the door in group races for quite a while and has not yet fully matured," said Fabre. "Hopefully, she'll run in the G1 Prix Vermeille [at Longchamp Sept. 11]." For Guadalajara's owner Eric Puerari, it was a bittersweet moment. "She had a bad trip and was very unlucky, but I'm not too unlucky as I bought the winner's dam and have a nice yearling by Sagacity (Fr) due to sell at Deauville next week." Ay Caramba made a successful return to stakes company after racing exclusively in the allowance ranks in 2005. The five-year-old, third in the GIII River City H. for conditioner Eduardo Caramori last fall, was moved to Bobby Frankel's barn for the new year. After two fourth-place efforts at Santa Anita in January and March, Ay Caramba came east and finished third in a Keeneland allowance in April, then won as the choice in a Churchill allowance May 30. He knocked off a high-priced optional claimer in his next over that course July 10 and was looking for his third straight here making his Monmouth debut. Partnered by Gary Stevens, who rode with plenty of confidence, Ay Caramba rated in mid-pack, took aim at Hotstufanthensome turning for home and was up in plenty of time while under a hand ride. "I got great instructions from Pat Day, who was on him the last two times," said Stevens of the recently retired Hall of Famer. "He told me to sit off the pace and be very patient with him. At the sixteenth pole, I let him go and he really responded." Click for the brisnet.com chart.

Love Match kicked off her five-year-old campaign with a fourth-place finish at Pimlico versus $32,000 optional claimers May 27, then ran third at that level June 11. Making her first start for trainer John Kimmel at Monmouth Park last out, she crossed the line 2 3/4 lengths clear July 22. Stepping way up in class for this, she broke on top, set easy fractions of :24.19 and :50.30 and had enough left in the tank to pull off the upset. "She was a longshot, but I knew she had run good over this course before," jockey Javier Castellano said. "She broke on top and I didn't want to take back after that. She did it all pretty easily and finished up nicely." Spotlight (GB) (Dr Fong), favored at even-money, finished an even fourth. Osterhase built his reputation at this venue last summer when breaking the five-furlong track record in the Listed Richard H Fraught Memorial S. in June and defying top weight in the Rockingham H. the following month. Only fourth when stretched out for this race 12 months ago, he filled third spot in the G3 Flying Five back here in September and was fourth in the G1 Prix de l'Abbaye de Longchamp on Arc day. Left trailing in the G1 Hong Kong Cup at Sha Tin in December, he returned from a break to win the six-furlong May 11 Listed Cork S. run at Fairyhouse. Disappointing when only third attempting to win back-to-back renewals of the Listed Naas Sprint S. June 6, he rebounded to finish second to Benbaun (Ire) in this year's renewal of the Richard H Faught Memorial last time June 26. Quickest away, he grabbed the rail advantage and refused to relinquish his lead despite the late threat of Balmont, who was shaded out in the photo verdict. "Over six furlongs I thought he might struggle, but he jumped very quickly and I was able to get a breather into him," jockey Fran Berry explained. "Just in the last ten days he's come to himself and the good level five of the G1 Nunthorpe S. [at York Aug. 18] will suit and, now that he's won over six, he should be there at the end." Trainer John Mulhern is hoping that the six-year-old will travel back to Longchamp for the G1 Prix de l'Abbaye Oct. 2 before receiving an invitation for another crack at the G1 Hong Kong Sprint at Sha Tin Dec. 12. Lucky Strike is writing himself into the annals of German sprinting and produced another star-studded display to win his fourth straight stakes this term. For the last two years, he has won the Listed Sprintpreis at Cologne, G3 Benazet-Rennen at Baden-Baden and G3 Lotto-Trophy at Hamburg and he looked better than ever when extending his streak here. Breaking sharply under regular pilot Adrie de Vries, he was reined back to stalk Lamargue before picking off that rival at the quarter pole and drawing away in the closing stages. Next stop for Lucky Strike is the G2 Goldene Peitsche at Baden-Baden Aug. 28, in which he could only manage third last season.

Despite the presence of some smart older performers, the sophomores ruled here and it was Proudance who wired this contest to break through on his stakes debut. Having started off in the right manner at Krefeld Apr. 17, he followed up at Mulheim May 15 before tasting defeat for the first time when runner-up at Hamburg June 5. Getting back to winning ways in a conditions event at Hamburg last time July 3, he established a clear advantage from the gate here and never looked likely to fold as Konig Turf rallied to fill the exacta. Proudance becomes the first stakes victor for his sire Tannenkonig and his dam is a close relative of the globe-trotting G2 Falmouth S. and G2 Prix du Muguet winner Proudwins (Ger).

Emerging grass star had just maiden and allowance wins to his credit, but came through as the crowd's choice and ran off to win the third leg of the Canadian Triple Crown. The gelding, conditioned by Catherine Day-Phillips, was well-beaten in two special weight contests on the dirt at Woodbine Apr. 23 and May 7, then responded to the surface switch with a rousing victory over the grass June 12. He aired by 2 1/2 lengths in a 11-furlong NW1X July 14 and was 6-5 here taking the plunge into stakes company. Never far back, he rallied to take command in upper stretch and strolled home a much-the-best winner. Area Limits, a maiden from Roger Attfield's barn, completed the exacta. "I knew that somebody would have to be coming really fast to beat me," said winning jockey Jono Jones. "Obviously, they didn't. The whole barn did a great job with this horse." It was the second straight year the Breeders' S. went to a Day-Phillips runner, with A Bit O'Gold taking last year's renewal. It also marks the second Breeders' S. for breeder Gustav Schickedanz, whose homebred Wando, another son of Langfuhr, won the race in 2003.

MONA LISA TO BEVERLEY D. Michael Tabor and Susan Magnier's Mona Lisa (GB) (Giant's Causeway), third behind Shawanda (Ire) in the G1 Irish Oaks July 17, will be conditioner Aidan O'Brien's lone representative in Saturday's G1 Beverly D. S. at Arlington Park. Tabor and Magnier's G1 2000 Guineas heroine Virginia Waters (Kingmambo) had been considered a possibility, but is not expected to run in the sister race to the G1 Arlington Million. Mona Lisa was widely regarded as Europe's most accomplished maiden, having collected a pair of Group-1 placings before getting off the mark in her latest with a win in the Listed Give Thanks Fillies S. at Cork Aug. 1. It will be the second stateside effort for Mona Lisa, who is expected to arrive at O'Hare International Airport today. The chestnut was shipped over for the G1 Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies last October, but never got going over the main track and was a well-beaten 11th.

Funny Cide Sharp in Work:

Funny Cide (Distorted Humor) breezed four furlongs in :47 4/5 over the Saratoga main track Sunday with exercise rider Simon Harris aboard. "Simon is breezing him because he's light and strong," said assistant trainer Robin Smullen. "He went well and there's no doubt he likes it cooler, like it was this morning. It used to be that he could handle high 70's, but I'm not sure he can do that anymore." There are no immediate plans for the dual classic winner's next start.

Non-Travers Day Record Set Saturday:

The crowd of 32,287 that packed in to witness Commentator stave off Saint Liam in Saturday's GI Whitney S. set a non-Travers Day record for on-track handle at Saratoga Race Course, wagering $5,573,304.54 on the 10-race card. The record eclipsed the non-Travers Day standard of $5,338,929.48, set on Whitney Day last year. Saturday's card also featured the GI Test S.

SILVER CHARADES (f, 3, Broad Brush--Don't Read My Lips {MSW & GISP, $231,322}, by Turkoman), a Woodbine maiden winner two back, was third in the Charley Barley S. last time out June 26 for trainer Malcolm Pierce. Sent off the 4-5 favorite, the bay filly pressed the pace, took charge when asked for run nearing the stretch and pulled clear to score by 1 1/4 lengths. Flawless Treasure (War Chant) completed the exacta. The winner is a half sister to Hotstufanthensome (Awesome Again, SW, $218,220). Lifetime Record: SP, 4-2-0-1, $71,578.

Ballet de France Euthanized:

Former Virginia Broodmare of the Year Ballet de France (Northern Dancer--Fabulous Native, by *Le Fabuleux) was euthanized at Dinwiddie Farm in Middleburg, Va. Aug. 5. She produced MG1SW Muhtarram as well as GSW Profit Column. "It was an honor to have been associated with Ballet de France all these years, being the first person she saw when she came into the world in 1981 when I foaled her when manager at Robert Sangster's Creek View Farm and being the last person she saw when she was put to sleep," Dinwiddie Farm's general manager Bud Paul said.

BALLYDOYLE JUVENILES ROLLING Aidan O'Brien yesterday outlined plans for some of his best juveniles, revealing that Ivan Denisovich (Ire) (Danehill) would line up in the G1 Prix Morny at Deauville Aug. 21. Susan Magnier's impressive G2 July S. winner will bid to emulate stable companion George Washington (Ire) in adding to the Group 1 roster in the six-furlong contest. O'Brien also revealed that the G3 Superlative S. scorer Horatio Nelson (Ire) (Danehill) would run in the G2 Futurity S. at The Curragh the previous afternoon. The trainer indicated that there was a chance that the stable would not be represented in next Wednesday's G2 Gimcrack S. at York.

ACE FOR INTERNATIONAL Susan Magnier's Ace (Ire) (Danehill) will return to York for next Tuesday's G1 Juddmonte International S. according to Aidan O'Brien. The Ballydoyle conditioner revealed that the four-year-old was likely to run at the track at which he finished runner-up to Azamour (Ire) in the June 15 G1 Prince of Wales's S. before his fifth in the G1 King George VI and Queen Elizabeth Diamond S. at Newbury last time July 23. "I thought he ran well at Newbury last time and dropping back in distance won't be a problem," said O'Brien.

HORROR FALL CLAIMS WINSTON'S TITLE

HOPES Robert Winston, who looked favorite to win his first British jockey's championship, suffered a broken jaw in a dramatic fall at Ayr Saturday evening and will be out of action for at least two months. On the 98-winner mark and leading the chase for the title, the 25-year-old was sent through the rails after his mount Pearl's a Singer (Ire) slipped on the home bend and fell in the maiden handicap on the card. The incident led to the abandonment of the remainder of the card due to unsafe ground and Winston was due to undergo an operation at Crosshouse Hospital in Kilmarnock yesterday. His agent Richard Hale revealed that the jockey is not considering rushing back. "His face is all swollen up with the impact," Hale explained. "I think you are looking at anywhere between two and three months at the quickest to get back and Robert is taking the view that he will take the rest of the year off and try and come back at the turn of the year. Whether he rides in Dubai or on the all-weather over here, he's not going to rush back. He's very chirpy and never even mentioned the championship--I think he's just relieved he's still talking to us, because it was a hell of a fall and he got a real bash in the face. It could have been a lot worse and you've got to look on the bright side--he will be back for next season and have a go."

SEA HUNTER (GB) (c, 3, Lend A Hand {GB}--Ocean Grove {Ire}, by Fairy King), successful in a similar event at Chester last time June 25, was positioned prominently early and took control approaching the final quarter mile. Ridden along once in front, the 12-1 chance was driven out inside the final furlong to turn down the persistent Sky Crusader (GB) (Mujahid) by a neck. The winner was a 110,000gns TATOCT yearling purchase. Lifetime Record: 16-4-1-4, £45,720. O-Sheikh Mohammed bin Rashid Al Maktoum; B-Bearstone Stud; T-Mark Johnston.

Lingfield, 3.30, Cond, £7,625, 2yo, 6f(AWT), 1:13.67, st.

HOT (IRE) (c, 2, Xaar {GB}--Solar Display, by Diesis {GB}), a respectable fourth as the highweight in a Newmarket nursery last Saturday, shadowed the early leader before kicking into the lead on the turn into the straight. Always in control from there, the 15-8 pick had a comfortable two-length margin back to Past Tender (Ire) (Indian Danehill {Ire}) at the line. The winner is a 12,000gns DONSEP yearling purchase. Lifetime Record: 7-3-0-0, £13,857. O-Mrs J Wood; B-Mrs J Costelloe; T-Richard Hannon.

Leicester, 2.20, Mdn, £8,060, 2yo, 7f 9ydsT, 1:26.00, gd. DAHAALIEZ (c, 2, Red Ransom--Raajiya, by Gulch), fifth at Ayr last time July 18, raced in a prominent second after the opening exchanges and was coaxed to the front approaching the final quarter mile. Ridden along soon after, the home-bred 12-1 chance was pushed out in the closing stages to hold off the late surge of Montjeu Man (GB) (Montjeu {Ire}) by a neck. Lifetime Record: 4-1-0-0, £5,239. O-Sheikh Hamdan bin Rashid Al Maktoum; B-Shadwell Farm LLC; T-Marcus Tregoning.

Leicester, 4.20, Mdn, £8,060, 2yo, 7f 9ydsT, 1:25.39, gd. + ATLANTIC WAVES (IRE) (c, 2, Sadler's Wells--Highest Accolade {GB}, by Shirley Heights {GB}), a 55,000gns TATOCT yearling, soon raced in a share of the lead until pushed into an outright advantage inside the final quarter mile. The 11-2 chance was soon in command and was ridden clear inside the final furlong to easily account for Bold And Free (Giant's Causeway) by five lengths. Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, £5,239. O-Jaber Abdullah; B-Premier Bloodstock; T-M Johnston.

Redcar, 2.40, Mdn, £6,750, 2yo, 7fT, 1:27.93, gd/fm. SUNDAY SMILE (GB) (f, 2, Sunday Silence--Sensation {GB}, by Soviet Star), third behind subsequent G3 Princess Margaret S. third Nannina (GB) over a panel shorter at Pontefract last time June 19, was reserved in rear of the tightly-bunched field early. Making smooth progress to lead with 1½ furlongs remaining, the 7-1 chance was made to battle by Souvenance (GB) (Hernando {Fr}) in the closing stages, but dug in to prevail by a half-length. Lifetime Record: 3-1-0-1, £5,149. O-Sheikh Maktoum bin Rashid Al Maktoum; B-Gainsborough Stud Management Ltd; T-M Johnston.
