BELLAMY OUT TO PROVE HE'S THE BOSS

In the 136-year history of the Travers S., only five trainers can boast of having won back-to-back renewals of the Grade I event. Nick Zito can become the first since Shug McGaughey won with Easy Goer (1989) and Rhythm (1990) as he saddles morning-line favorite

Bellamy Road Horsephotos

Bellamy Road (Concerto) and Andromeda's Hero (Fusaichi Pegasus) in Saturday's feature. Zito pulled a rabbit out of his hat last year, saddling Belmont S. winner Birdstone to victory off a 10-week hiatus. Should Bellamy Road get the job done, Zito may consider giving up his day job in exchange for his own magic show on the Las Vegas strip. The imposing dark bay colt will be making his first start since finishing seventh as the 5-2 favorite in the GI Kentucky Derby May 1, a stretch of 118 days. Fully recovered from a splint injury, Bellamy Road has drawn the rail, but Zito is not overly concerned. "[He's] a big horse, but he's pretty good at the gate," he commented. "You always want a horse like that in the clear. But I'm happy with the draw. You know, we're still going to have to come out of there and one thing about Bellamy Road, he's got such a high octane." The conditioner did not hesitate to telegraph his race strategy. "Once he gets going, I don't think there will be much of a speed duel." The Kinsman runner will have to tackle the improving

Roman Ruler (Fusaichi Pegasus), who returned from a 3 1/2-month absence to win the 8 1/2-furlong GII Dwyer S. in July. He proved he stayed nine furlongs with his victory in the GI Haskell Invitational H. Aug. 7 and retains the full confidence of his jockey as he tries the mile and a quarter for the first time. "The progression from the mile and a sixteenth to a mile and an eighth proves he is capable of [getting the distance]," said Jerry Bailey, looking for his fourth Travers. Field p3

NEW FORMAT SAVES DEAUVILLE

Agence Francaise were relieved yesterday by the upturn on the fourth and final day of their August Yearling Sale, which officials put down to the decision last year to stretch the quality more evenly over the whole auction. With four yearlings breaking the €100,000 barrier and the average up by over three percent, the company's international representative Jocelyn de Moubray said, "We sold four animals for €100 000 or more against none on the same day last year, all to the international buyers who stayed. This proves to us again that the four-day format is a success." Top honors in the final session went to Anthony Stroud, who went to €150,000 to secure Haras des Capucines's hip 338, a Kyllachy (GB) filly from a family developed by the late Jean-Luc Lagardère. Fillies were in demand yesterday, with the second-highest priced yearling consigned by Haras de Bernesq. Hip 442, a Marchand de Sable full sister to the unbeaten juvenile filly Sirene Doloise (Fr), was knocked down to her sibling's trainer Alain Bonin for €140,000. Lady O'Reilly's Haras de la Louviere supplied the top colt when hip 358, a son of Galileo (Ire) from the family of G1 Prix de Diane (French Oaks) winner Lattice (Ire), was purchased by trainer Nic Clement for €115,000. Despite the reversal of fortunes yesterday, the overall average was down along with the gross and clearance rate. "The reduced number of horses didn't bring what we expected," de Moubray admitted. "The market has become more and more selective, but the positive point is the international demand. The negative is the significant drop of the domestic buys. There are big efforts to be made to develop a new French clientèle interested in ownership."

☆ NEWS TODAY ☆

DUBAI EXCELLENCE MYSTERY SOLVED The mystery over the stallion mistakenly sent from the UK to Australia as Dubai Excellence (GB) (Highest Honor {GB}) has been solved. AAP Racing reports that the Australian Stud Book has identified the sire in question as Samood (Ire) (Caerleon), an unplaced half brother to English champion miler Cape Cross (Ire). The controversy began when Evergreen Lodge in Western Australia purchased Dubai Excellence (GB)--a half brother to champion Dubai Millennium (GB)--from Darley for a reported A$400,000 to stand at stud. Upon his arrival from England, however, DNA testing proved the horse was not Dubai Excellence. The Australian Equine Genetics Research Centre later confirmed that the mystery stallion was Samood, an eight-year-old horse out of Park Appeal (Ire) (Ahonoora {GB}), champion juvenile filly in England and Ireland in 1984. "It seems that the mix-up occurred when both stallions shared a paddock near Newmarket in England," Michael Ford, Keeper of the Australian Stud Book, told AAP Racing. "The wrong stallion left for Europe instead of going into quarantine for his trip to Australia." With a total of 80 mares booked to Dubai Excellence this year, the mystery could have proved a costly embarrassment for Australian breeding. "The role of the Australian Stud Book is to ensure the integrity of Thoroughbred breeding in Australia," added Ford. "We have succeeded in preventing the 'mystery' stallion from covering mares and producing foals. Breeders can be confident in our systems and the processes of the Australian Equine Genetics Research Centre."

Favorite Trick Filly Tops Wednesday Session...

A filly by 1997 Horse of the Year Favorite Trick was brought a final bid of $100,000 from West Coast-based trainer Lonnie Arterburn to top Wednesday's second open session. Consigned to the sale by Tara Stables, Inc. as agent, the Apr. 21 foal is a daughter of Marshua Mella (Marshua's Dancer), the dam of five winners from six to race. Her best runner to date has been Mello But Bold (Nasty and Bold), who produced Gill Azeri Breeders' Cup S. winner Injustice to the cover of Lit de Justice. Catalogued as hip 799, the dark bay represented an excellent pinhooking success, having been purchased for just $5,000 by Red Roof Farms at the Keeneland January sale. During yesterday's activity, a total of 188 horses were reported as sold for gross receipts of $2,087,100. The average of $11,102 was off by 11.4 percent versus last year's $12,537. The session median price of $6,250 was off by 21.9 percent versus 2004. The sale continues this morning at 11 a.m.

After romping in the Damon Runyon S. by 8 1/2 lengths in December, Naughty New Yorker found himself on the Triple Crown trail. He was placed third via disqualification in the Gill Gotham S. Mar. 19, but was a distant fifth in the GI Wood Memorial Apr. 9 and followed that with a fourth in the Gill Withers S. Apr. 30. The bay then ventured on to the turf in a state-bred allowance May 21 and wound up sixth, beaten just 1 3/4 lengths. After rebounding with a victory in the Mike Lee S. June 26, he was third to AccountfortheGold (Successful Appeal) in the New York Derby July 16 at Finger Lakes. The Fox Ridge colorbearer loped along at the back of the pack, swung wide into the lane and prevailed after a prolonged battle with the game Carminooch to give jockey Jean-Luc Samyn his first win of the meet. "I'm riding a horse that we all know has one style, and you've got to hope that the speed backs up in front," Samyn said. Naughty New Yorker will be based at Belmont this fall. "We're going to stick with the New York-bred races," said winning trainer Patrick Kelly. "We will have to run against older horses because there are no more three-year-old races, but we will also look at New York Showcase Day [Oct. 22, Belmont]."

Laurel Opens Turf Course:

Officials at Laurel Park in Maryland held a ribbon-cutting ceremony yesterday to officially open the new turf course. Approximately 20 horses exercised over the surface, which was widened from 75 to 142 feet. It will accommodate six different track configurations. "It's got some cushion, it's got some bounce. Overall, it's very even and in great shape," said jockey Steve Hamilton, first to try out the track. Added Lou Raffetto, chief operating officer for the Maryland Jockey Club, "Obviously I'm ecstatic with the way the course seems to be and the riders' action," he commented. "They know better than we do. We had over 20 horses working and it looked great. We couldn't be happier right now." Raffetto expects to card four turf races a day through November. Live racing returns to Laurel Park Sept. 7.

Colonial Colony to Buck Pond:

Grade I winner Colonial Colony (Pleasant Colony--Jen's Fashion, by Northern Fashion) has been retired from racing and will enter stud at Douglas S. Arnold's Buck Pond Farm in Versailles, Kentucky. Bred in Kentucky by Chris Nolan, the seven-year-old turned in several high-class performances in the handicap division in 2004, highlighted by a thrilling victory over Southern Image and Peace Rules in the GI Stephen Foster H. at Churchill Downs. Twice the runner-up in the GIII National Jockey Club H., Colonial Colony hails from the female family of champion Tempted. "We are very excited to have our first Grade I winner to stand at Buck Pond Farm and feel he is a great addition to our stallion roster," Arnold commented. "He has everything we desire in a stallion prospect...extremely good looking, a great stallion family and he retired completely sound." A stud fee will be announced at a later date.

The bay didn't face the starter again until Mar. 26, when he was a distant eighth in the G2 UAE Derby at Nad al Sheba, and was given plenty of time to acclimate to this country. New Jockey Club Rule Regarding Horse Inspection:

Stewards at the Jockey Club have amended the "Principal Rules and Requirements of The American Stud Book" to include a provision regarding the inspection of foals by The Jockey Club's Registry Department. According to Rick Bailey, registrar of The Jockey Club, the change applies directly to increasing number of Thoroughbreds reported as born in the first few days of the New Year. "With these rule revisions, we are reminding North American breeders that Jan. 1 of the year of foaling is the official date of birth of Thoroughbreds," Bailey explained. "Those who choose to breed mares early may risk having foals born before Jan. 1. To protect the integrity of "The American Stud Book," the enacted rules provide that The Jockey Club may require horses be made for inspection." The Jockey Club reminds owners and breeders that "any person or entity engaging in deceptive practices may be denied any and all privileges of "The American Stud Book."

A graded-stakes winner on the main in 2002 and third in the G1 Dubai Golden Shaheen the following year, Captain Squire made his last four appearances on the turf. A two-length winner against $80,000 claimers at Santa Anita in March 2004, the bay was second to Singletary in the GII San Francisco Breeders' Cup Mile the next month. Second to King of Happiness in a Hollywood turf allowance in May, the gelding had been missing since a third in an Inglewood allowance nearly 15 months back. Sent immediately to the front here, he always travelled easily beneath Alex Solis and won with something to spare. Siphonizer crossed the line second, but was demoted to third for interfering with Zanzibar at the start.

Favored in his turf bow, the homebred chased from between horses, edged to the front in upper stretch and held late for a 3/4-length score from Trail Mix (Trail City). With much water under the bridge since that career-best, he had returned to form for his new connections this term with a fifth beaten 4 1/4 lengths in the June 15 Royal Hunt Cup at Royal Ascot at York and the fast ground was to blame for his tame unplaced latest in Galway's prestigious McDonogh H. July 26. Slowly away, he raced in rear early before grinding his way to the front end on the turn into the straight. Chased by Queen Titi from there, he dug in to maintain his advantage and garner a well-earned first stakes score.

AVONBRIDGE FLOP EXPLAINED

Roger Charlton yesterday revealed that John Deer's Avonbridge (GB) (Averti {Ire}) returned from Thursday's G1 Nunthorpe S. with a dirty scope. Having finished runner-up in the July 7 G1 July Cup at Newmarket, the five-year-old disappointed when only seventh in the York sprint and will sidestep next Saturday's G1 Haydock Sprint Cup. "Avonbridge had been working so well prior to York that I thought he'd a very serious chance of winning his first Group 1, so in a way it was a relief to find a reason for his disappointing run," the trainer told the Racing Post. "He scoped dirty and unfortunately will have to miss Haydock. Our plan will be to aim for the G2 Diadem S. [at Newmarket Sept. 25], followed by the G1 Prix de l'Abbaye [at Longchamp Oct. 2]." Charlton also revealed that Deer's Patavellian (Ire) (Machiavellian) will run at Haydock, where he will bid to go one better than 12 months ago.
