A FAIRY TALE ENDING FOR THE MATRON?

Folklore (Tiznow) came up a length short behind the Todd Pletcher-trained Adieu in the Aug. 26 GII Spinaway S. at Saratoga last time out, but her connections are hoping for a different ending in today's GI Matron S. at Belmont Park. "She's such a gutsy filly," said Peter Hutton, assistant to trainer D. Wayne Lukas. "I thought she could have won the Spinaway if she got outside earlier because she and Folklore Adam Coglianesi Adieu are pretty evenly matched on ability." Folklore was the runner-up to Adieu in the July 3 Astoria S., but returned to win the July 27 GII Adirondack S. with that rival fourth. Overlooked at 7-1 in the Spinaway, the bay was hard held while tucked in at the rail down the backstretch and had to ease back to get to the outside for the stretch run, allowing Adieu to get the jump on her. She will face another Pletcher charge this afternoon. India (Hennessy) was beaten a neck in her June 16 debut at Belmont, but came back to break her maiden by 12 lengths at the Spa July 28. She makes her stakes debut in her third start. "The first time she ran, she was extremely green," jockey John Velazquez said. "She was just hanging on her left lead and looking at everything. The second time she ran, she was very professional and very fast. She's maturing. She's figuring out what she needs to do and, hopefully, she continues like that. If she runs like she did last time, she'll be very tough." In from the West Coast is River's Prayer (Devon Lane), who adds blinkers after running third in the Aug. 27 GI Del Mar Debutante S.

PROMISES, PROMISES

A front-running maiden winner July 30, Private Vow (Broken Vow) followed up with an eye-catching 5 1/2-length allowance score Aug. 29. He looks to make it three in a row in his stakes debut, today's GI Futurity S. at Belmont Park. The dark bay colt lured jockey Jerry Bailey off morning-line chalk Master of Disaster (Dance Master), who finished second in the July 28 GII Saratoga Special S. last time out. But trainer Steve Klesaris revealed that Master of Disaster wasn't at his best for that race. "We were working around a bruised foot going into that race," Klesaris said, adding, "We gave him some time afterward to make sure the foot would be okay. We lost some training time, but everything is fine now." Stablemate Diabolical (Artax), a 9 3/4-length winner over Belmont maidens in July, comes off a second in the Aug. 20 GIII Sapling S. at Monmouth Park. Changing Weather (Storm Boot) has just one start under his girth, but it was a good one. The Darley colorbearer set a quick pace and drew off late to win his Aug. 25 debut at Saratoga by 3 3/4 lengths. "He was good in the post parade, good in the gate and very professional," jockey Edgar Prado remarked. "I kind of eased him up a little bit the last part, so there was something left in the tank."

Saturday, The Curragh, Ireland, post time: 3:40 p.m.

IRISH FIELD ST LEGER-G1, €300,000, 3/up, 1 3/4mT

SC	PP	HORSE	SIRE	TRAINER
1	5	Collier Hill (GB)	Dr Devious (Ire)	Swinbank
2	9	Franklins Gardens (GB)	Halling	Tompkins

8	6	Yeats (Ire)	Sadler's Wells	A O'Brien
9	7	Shalapour (Ire)	Darshaan (GB)	Oxx

All carry 134 pounds bar Shalapour, 124.

Vinnie Roe could be applauded just for getting to post for this contest for the fifth year in a row, but the venerable stayer already has four trophies in his possession. After a fine third in the June 16 Gold Cup at Royal Ascot at York, he enjoyed his customary warm-up when filling the same spot in the Listed Ballyroan S. over a mile and a half at Leopardstown Aug. 14. Despite a scare when cast in his box last week, he was reported ready to rumble by jockey Pat Smullen. "I think he has a real live strong chance of winning his fifth," he said. "If there is one horse who can do it, it's Vinnie Roe and I have been very pleased with everything he has shown this year. I think he is a better horse at The Curragh than anywhere else, as he likes to go right-handed. It will be a smart horse who beats him on the day. While he is getting older he is probably losing a little bit of his pace, but he has got it in his heart and that should be enough to get him by." Shalapour offers a stern threat. He showed his class when third behind Hurricane Run (Ire) and Scorpion (Ire) in the G1 Irish Derby at this track June 26, then split Chelsea Rose (Ire) and Vinnie Roe when runner-up in the Ballyroan on his last start. "He's a tough nut to crack, but I was delighted Shalapour ran as well as he did last time in a good prep race," trainer John Oxx said. "Our fellow seems to have come on nicely from that run and should be in better shape this time." Yeats peaked when beating Alkaased in the June 3 G1 Coronation Cup, but was soundly beaten by that rival in the G1 Grand Prix de Saint-Cloud June 26. He returns after a freshener.

Richard Hannon, who won this race in 1972, 1991 and 2004, saddles Cool Creek. Fourth in the G2 July S. at Newmarket July 6 and runner-up in the G2 Vintage S. at Goodwood three weeks later, he found only one too good in the Aug. 20 Tattersalls Ireland Sale S. at The Curragh before suffering a troubled trip when fourth in last Friday's G2 Champagne S. at Doncaster. John Gosden's unexposed juveniles have always to be feared at this level and the Manton conditioner relies on Racer Forever here. He found the subsequent G3 Sirenia S. winner Prince of Light (Ire) too strong in a decent Goodwood maiden July 26 before opening his account at Salisbury last time Aug. 10. Mick Channon collected with Golden Silca (GB) in 1998 and Zafeen (Fr) three years ago and saddles a duo headed by Ajigolo, who will not find life easy racing under a penalty for his success in the G2 Maurice Lacroix-Trophy at Baden-Baden last time Sept. 2. Sir Xaar, who has been a model of consistency all season, followed a fifth in the Aug. 17 G2 Gimcrack S. at York by defeating the smart Johannes (Ire) in the Listed Ripon Champion Two-Year-Old Trophy last time Aug. 29.

Shaniko opened 2005 with a third-place finish in an optional claimer at Gulfstream Park in April, then captured a Belmont allowance test in May. Freshened after running second in an optional claimer at the Elmont oval in June, the dark bay came back to post an 11-length romp against that company at Saratoga Aug. 8. Trainer Todd Pletcher opted to scratch the four-year-old from last Saturday's GI Woodward S. to await this test. Beaten a head when closing for second in the July 2 GII Cornhusker Breeders' Cup H. at Prairie Meadows, Silver Axe came from the middle of the pack to take the July 30 Prairie Meadows H., then pressed the pace before prevailing by a neck in a handicap in Iowa Aug. 12.

Compton Bolter, who has always had the capacity to shock at his beloved Newbury, had another upset in store here. He won this as a Listed contest two years ago, was third 12 months ago and was not disgraced on his latest visit to Newbury when fifth in the May 14 Listed Aston Park S. Fourth in a conditions event at Goodwood May 28, he failed to beat a rival in the Listed Fred Archer S. at Newmarket last time June 25 and was given a break. The veteran tracked Into the Dark early in his return. Switched off the rail to challenge as Notable Guest started to tread water, he wore down the longtime leader in the final 50 yards and went on to post his first win at Group level. "He had the form to run well, so why he was 25-1 I don't know," trainer Gerard Butler commented. "He loves this action and knows where the winning post is--he's one of a kind and I think we'll have to wait another lifetime for another one like him. We're not in too much of a hurry and he could possibly go hurdling at some stage."

SOFT LANDING

One thing's for sure: Book 1's Titan-driven 25-percent spike in gross to $187 million ensures that the final receipts at 2005 Keeneland September will top last September's all-time horse sale record of $324.9 million. Combined with Fasig's July and Saratoga sales, that meant last year's major North American yearling sales, ending with September, totalled just under $410 million.

At this point in proceedings in 2004, Fasig's two sales plus September Books 1 and 2 had seen 1,386 yearlings sell for $316,068,000, an average of $228,043. Though 8 percent more yearlings have been catalogued this year, only two more have sold than last year: at the corresponding 2005 sales, 1,388 yearlings have sold for $342,336,000, which is an average of $246,640. All told so far this year at these major sales, the gross is up 7 percent and the average is up 8 percent. But the separate market tiers have behaved so differently that it looks very risky to predict that the rest of Keeneland September will follow suit. It could work out quite neatly if it did. Last year, the 2,472 yearlings sold in Book 3 and beyond grossed $93 million, so if the gross for the rest of this year's sale would cooperate and be up 7 percent, it would round the rest of proceedings off at a neat $100 million more in yearling sales. At this stage of last year's sales, though, 64 percent of the yearlings who would be sold at the major sales by the end of Keeneland September, had yet to sell. There's still a long way to go, starting today.

This year's two Fasig sales were down nearly $14 million in gross. September Book 1 (there is a groundswell of support reported to rename Book 1 'July-in-September') was up $37 million. Wednesday (with the jets still on the runway) was up another $6 million, but Thursday (jets gone) was down $3 million.

The summary reads like this: jets on runway, sales up $43 million; no jets, sales down $17 million, which is 14 percent below the corresponding sales last year.

Assuming the two Fasig sales' 16-percent drop in gross is less reliable a pointer (due to big changes in the catalogues--150 more in July, one day less at Saratoga) than Thursday's 8-percent drop, let's split the difference and predict a 10 to 11-percent drop in gross from here on out. It's a shaky prediction, but here goes: $83 million for Book 3 to the end of the sale, so a new record total of around $350 million ($325 million in 2004) and a new record North American major yearling sales series total of $425 million ($410 million in '04).

Note to data miners, however: closing day (Monday, Sept. 26) is also the opening day of Goffs, so by the time you discover how far off my predictions really have been, the European yearling market will be coming back under the microscope. In the immediate future, my forecast is that today will gross around $21 million and average $77,000; tomorrow will gross around $15 million and average $57,500. So I'm predicting a Book 3 gross of around $36 million and a Book 3 average of $67,500. Last year, Book 3 grossed $39.8 million and averaged $74,985. So check me Monday; if I'm too far off, I'll leave town.

Just the four first-year sires with $25,000+ stud fees (Came Home, Street Cry, Johannesburg and Orientate) had more than five yearlings sell in Books 1 and 2, but there has been plenty of action among first-year sires already, and going into today's session, no fewer than eight of them with 10+ sold at the major sales have six-figure averages (number catalogued in Keeneland Books 3-7 in parentheses) so far.

Came Home (21) has established himself as the overall group leader, with 20 yearlings sold at the major sales so far averaging $227,250, including six in Books 1-2 which brought $300,000+. Street Cry (31) is not far behind, with an average of $188,000 for 15 sold, including five for $300,000+ in Books 1-2.

The other six, all with averages between $124,000-$140,000, include: Officer (35 catalogued in Books 3-7); Johannesburg (43); Buddha (56); E Dubai (24); and Include (46).

CLOSING ARGUMENT RETIRED Closing Argument (Successful Appeal--Mrs. Greeley, by Mr. Greeley), the runner-up in this year's GI Kentucky

Derby, has been retired and will stand at Becky Thomas's Sequel Stallions in Ocala, Florida in 2006. On the board in eight of his nine career starts for trainer Kieran McLaughlin, the three-year-old won the NATC Futurity at Delaware Park as a juvenile and opened 2005 with a victory in the GIII Holy Bull S. at Gulfstream Park. He prepped for the Derby with a third-place finish in the GI Toyota Blue Grass S., then just missed on the first Saturday in May, finishing a half-length behind Giacomo at Churchill Downs. Overall, the Florida-bred bay notched three wins, three seconds and two thirds, earning $986,984. He will stand as the partnership of JMJ Racing, Becky Thomas and Lewis Lakin and Phillip and Marcia Cohen. "Closing Argument is such a beautiful, well-balanced and well-conformed horse with the very rare combination of early two-year-old speed and Classic ability," Thomas said. "Also, to be able to fill the void Successful Appeal left with Florida breeders when he was moved to Kentucky is a great opportunity. We were so fond of Successful Appeal and we feel the same way about his leading money earner." Closing Argument will stand for a fee of $10,000 live foal.

STUD FEE SET FOR POLLARD'S VISION MGSW Pollard's Vision (Carson City--Etats Unis, by Dixieland Band), who will stand at John and Beau Greely's Wintergreen Stallion Station in 2006, has had his stud fee set at $10,000 live foal, it has been announced. "Although we originally planned on waiting to set a stud fee until October, the overwhelming response for seasons and shares for Pollard's Vision has forced us to go ahead and set the fee," said John Greely IV. "Pollard's Vision's consistency, heart and determination captured the attention of the racing public and those qualities are exactly what the breeders are looking for as well."

NORTH LIGHT TO ADENA SPRINGS The 2004 G1 Epsom Derby hero North Light (Ire) (Danehill--Sought Out {Ire}, by Rainbow Quest) has been sold by breeder Ballymacoll Stud to the partnership of Adena Springs and Michael Daly, according to a press release. The bay will begin his stud career in 2006 at Adena Springs in Midway, Kentucky. A stud fee will be announced at a later date.

"Danehill is one of the most remarkable successes in Thoroughbred history, and we are delighted to be standing one of his best racing sons," said Adena Springs' Frank Stronach. "Every time you pick up the results, you see young sons of Danehill siring top winners all over the world. North Light is the only champion and Group 1 winner by Danehill standing in the U.S., and his dam is a multiple stakes producer and international champion who beat colts winning a Group 1 race. We expect him to be very popular." North Light was produced by Sought Out, heroine of the G1 Prix du Cadran. Trained by Sir Michael Stoute, he won at two and landed the G2 Dante S. in his three-year-old bow before capturing the G1 Derby. Second in the G1 Irish Derby, he closed out 2004 with a fifth in the G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe. He made one start this season, finishing second by a half-length in the G3 Brigadier Gerard S. in May, before being retired in June with a pelvic stress fracture. North Light is a full brother to the stakes winner Researched (Ire) and a half brother to the multiple Group 3-placed Cover Up (Ire) (Machiavellian).

KEEP SUPPORTS CASINOS AT LICENSED TRACKS

By Tom Lamarra, courtesy of www.bloodhorse.com.

The Kentucky Equine Education Project announced its support Sept. 16 for a referendum to amend the state constitution to allow for casino gambling at licensed racetracks. But details of the plan won't be in the form of legislation until Jan. 1, 2006, and officials admitted the final document will be subject to revision.

The KEEP board of directors unanimously adopted the position at a Sept. 7 meeting. The organization now has more than three months to line up support, and also plans an awareness campaign beginning in early November. KEEP, a multi-breed grass roots organization formed to educate the public and legislators on the importance of the horse industry to the state's economy, wants any legislation to earmark "significant and quantified gaming tax revenues for education, health care, local development funding, and preserving the environment," executive director Jim Navolio said during a press conference on the lower steps of the state Capitol in Frankfort. He said KEEP's position on expanded gambling is based on three guiding principles: It must be good for Kentucky, it must be good for the horse industry, and it must take a "non-proliferation stance" on gambling. When asked about specifics such as revenue splits, the number of racetrack casinos, and whether non-track locations would be in the mix as the legislative process moves forward, Naviolo said: "The actual details of the plan are still to be worked out, and they will be announced when finalized, (but) we do not want to see Kentucky become another Las Vegas."

PARRISH HILL FOUNDER DIES Dr. Ben Roach, the founder of Midway's Parrish Hill Farm, died yesterday morning at the Markey Cancer Center in Lexington. He was 86. Roach had enjoyed good health, but fell and hit his head at his home Sept. 2 and never recovered from his injuries. Born in Midway in 1918, the native Kentuckian was a family physician for more than 50 years. Among his many patients was William S. Farish. Together with his son, Tom II, and Farish, Roach bred 1999 Horse of the Year Charismatic, who narrowly missed winning the Triple Crown that year. The Roaches also bred Eclipse winner Princess Rooney, who won the first running of the GI Kentucky Oaks and also took GI Breeders' Cup Distaff by seven lengths; Grade I winners Cormorant, Millennium Wind and Storm Tower; and Grade II winner Queen of Song. Roach is survived by his wife, Linda; sons Tom and Jim; and daughters Helen and Judy. Funeral arrangements have not yet been finalized, but, in lieu of flowers, contributions can be made to the Markey Cancer Center, 800 Rose St., Lexington, Kentucky, 40536; or the Homeplace Nursing Home Task Force, P.O. Box 3964, Midway, Ky, 40347.

IRISH DERBY PURSE BOOSTED Officials at The Curragh have announced that next year's G1 Budweiser Irish Derby will be worth €1.5 million after extending a sponsorship deal with Anheuser-Busch. "We are delighted to be able to increase the prize fund by €200,000 which will ensure the race maintains its status as one of Europe's most sought after prizes," Paul Hensey, the track's general manager, said.

AZAMOUR ARC BID IN BALANCE His Highness the Aga Khan's Azamour (Ire) (Night Shift) could run in the Oct. 2 G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe at Longchamp after making a quick recovery from a muscle problem. The four-year-old disappointed when only fifth as favorite in last Saturday's G1 Irish Champion S. at Leopardstown, but was found to have suffered a strained muscle in his quarters afterwards. Trainer John Oxx said, "He's okay and has responded well in the last couple of days. He's been ridden out and had a quiet canter in the last couple of days and he's perfectly sound. We just have to keep treating the problem area and hope we can get him into fast work by the end of next week." Azamour, who had won the June 15 G1 Prince of Wales's S. at Royal Ascot at York and G1 King George VI and Queen Elizabeth Diamond S. at Newbury July 23, could join the same owner's Shawanda (Ire) in the Longchamp event if he continues to please. "It could be touch and go, but the horse is sound so it's not a muscle rupture or a tear, it's just a strain so that's a different ball game and he could, with appropriate treatment, recover fairly quickly," Oxx added. "We still have our eye on the Arc, but until we get him back into fast work we can't be 100 percent." Oxx also revealed that the Oct. 29 GI Breeders' Cup Turf at Belmont is the main objective, with the Oct. 15 G1 Champion S. at Newmarket as an alternative.

Curtail took a Chester nursery July 31 before finishing off the board in better events at York Aug. 16 and Newmarket 11 days later. Subsequently purchased privately, he offered an instant payback for his new connections here. Reserved in rear early off the fast early fractions, he still had most rivals in front at half-way, but sliced through the pack to lead inside the final eighth and outgamed Campbeltown. "I've only had the horse five weeks and we haven't done much with him," trainer Ian Semple commented. "We bought him with this race in mind and we were just hopeful."

New Seeker had been in unstoppable form in the major handicaps this summer, winning the June 15 Royal Hunt Cup at Royal Ascot at York before adding a second running of the International H. to his resume here July 23. He performed with credit pitched back into elevated company when third behind Layman in the G3 Sovereign S. at Salisbury on his last start Aug. 11. The five-year-old adopted his customary lethal front-running tactics here, turning the screw in the final quarter and drawing away for a hard-earned first stakes score. "I'm so full of admiration for him," trainer Clive Cox told PA Sport. "He's overcome two injury scares and is in such great form, you would never know he'd been running since March. Today he's given me every confidence that we should step him up to Group 3 company. The race I'm looking at is [the Oct. 2 G3 Concorde S.] over 7 1/2 furlongs at Tipperary."

Ayr, 2.30, Hcp, £30,000, 3yo/up, 6fT, 1:11.95, gd/fm. MACHINIST (IRE) (g, 5, Machiavellian--Athene {Ire}, by Rousillon) started life with Sir Michael Stoute before being transformed into a sprint handicapper by Dandy Nicholls. Seventh 12 months ago in this consolation for those balloted out of tomorrow's Ayr Gold Cup, he was let go at 12-1 off the back of a disappointing effort in a Doncaster handicap last Thursday. Showing early speed to hold his position stalking the leaders on the far side, he ground his way to the front before the eighth pole and responded to driving to hold Roman Maze (GB) (Lycius) by a length. "He's done it well as he was in front plenty long enough and could have done with more of a lead," jockey David McCabe said. The half brother to Side Saddle (Ire) (Saddler's Hall {Ire}), GSW-Fr, $129,245, was a 18,500 TATAUT horse in training purchase. Lifetime Record: 21-4-1-1, £51,504. O-Berry & Gould Partnership; B-Ballymacoll Stud Farm Ltd; T-David Nicholls.

Newbury, 4.25, Hcp, £10,884, 3yo/up, 11f 5ydsT, 2:18.22, gd/fm. WHIRLY BIRD (GB) (f, 4, Nashwan--Inchyre {GB}, by Shirley Heights {GB}) stepped up off three Lingfield polytrack scores to win on the turf there on her last start May 25. Sent off the 9-2 punters' choice, she was held up in mid-division early before making smooth progress to head Spear Thistle (GB) (Selkirk) passing the quarter pole. Driven out to assert in the closing stages, she responded gamely to hold that rival by a half-length. The winner is a half sister to Inchiri (GB) (Sadler's Wells), SW-GB. Lifetime Record: 6-5-0-1, £21,536. O/B-Woodcote Stud Ltd; T-Amanda Perrett.

WINGED CUPID (IRE), c, 2, by In the Wings (GB)

1st Dam: Sweet Emotion (Ire) (SP-GB), by Bering (GB)

2nd Dam: Hiwaayati (GB), by Shadeed

3rd Dam: Alathea (Ire), by Lorenzaccio (GB)

Winged Cupid exhibited the bold method of front-running typical of his stable's performers when successful at first asking at Sandown Aug. 11. Sent off the 3-1 crowd's choice in this race won by Shergar (GB), Shahrastani, Rainbow Quest, Unfuwain, King's Theatre (Ire) and Nayef, he steadily rolled his way to the fore throughout the early stages and got to the front before halfway. He was firmly in command in the closing stages and was kept up to his work to beat Shahin (Kingmambo) by a comfortable two-length margin. "I was very impressed with him and he's a laid-back character," jockey Kevin Darley said. "He lobbed down like he'd done it 50 times before, but when the gates opened he was very competitive. It was nice to get a lead and at halfway he took it up and was just doing enough and kept finding every time I asked him. He's a galloper and a grinder, and he's still got to furnish and grow. There were one or two fancied horses there and he's done it well--he's a nice prospect for the future." Winged Cupid was a 9,000gns TATDEC weanling purchase. MOSTAQELEH (f, 2, Rahy--Istiqlal, by Diesis {GB}) finished third behind subsequent G1 Prix Morny heroine Silca's Sister (GB) here on debut July 22 before returning to the track to win last time Aug. 12. Always in the vanguard, the 1-2 pick cruised to the head of affairs with 2 1/2 furlongs remaining before stretching to a two-length defeat of I'm in Love (Zafonic). "She did it very nicely," jockey Richard Hills commented about the half sister to Muqbil (Swain {Ire}), GSW-GB & GSP-US, $270,305. "She travels well and picked up well, and if she keeps on improving, she could be a Guineas filly." Lifetime Record: 3-2-0-1, £17,730. O-Sheikh Hamdan bin Rashid al Maktoum; B-Shadwell Farm LLC; T-John Dunlop.

+ SOUTH CAPE (GB) (c, 2, Cape Cross {Ire}--Aunt Ruby, by Rubiano), delayed by a split pastern in the spring, was well-supported into 9-2 second favoritism. Quickening on the approach to the eighth pole, he grabbed the lead soon after before asserting to beat Beauchamp Utopia (GB) (Compton Admiral {GB}) by 1 1/4 lengths. "He's a lovely little horse and was a little pro today," jockey Ted Durcan said. "He won well today and is small, but strong and will stay seven furlongs--there's improvement in him and he has a lovely attitude." Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, £6,532. O-Heart of the South Racing; B-John & Caroline Penny; T-Mick Channon.
