WASHINGTON'S NATIONAL MONUMENT

George Washington (Ire) (Danehill) was only given the green light to run in yesterday's G1 Laing O'Rourke National S. at The Curragh after a blood sample, taken Saturday, pleased trainer Aidan O'Brien. However, the decision to run him, instead of stablemate Horatio Nelson (Ire) (Danehill), proved the right one when the bay colt overcame a stumbling start to beat Golden Arrow (Ire) (Danehill) by a decisive two lengths, cementing his position at the head of the betting for the 2006 G1 2000 Guineas at Newmarket. "When he stumbled, he had a lot of ground to make up," trainer Aidan O'Brien told Racing Post, adding, "He got the seven furlongs no problem and it was very easy for him." Cont. p2

KING OF THE TURF

Leroidesanimaux (Brz) (Candy Stripes) turned in another dominating performance to take yesterday's GI Atto Mile at Woodbine and extend his win streak to eight. The handsome chestnut, already victorious in last year's GI Citation H. and this season's GI Frank E. Kilroe Mile and GI Fourstardave H., was sent off the 6-5 favorite yesterday and never gave his fans an anxious moment. He opened a clear lead on the turn and accelerated away when asked in upper stretch, sailing home a 7 3/4-length winner over a yielding turf course. "He has to rank up there with the better horses I have ever trained," said winning trainer Bobby Frankel. "He never gets beat. So when you have a horse like that, you have to consider him one of the best you have ever trained." Cont. p2 Click for brisnet.com chart or brisnet.com catalogue-style pedigree. George Washington Takes National (cont. from p1)

George Washington was taken across the Irish Sea to make his debut at Newmarket May 1--finishing third in a five furlong-maiden--and opened his account over an extra panel at The Curragh May 22. He took the G2 Railway S. over course and distance June 26, then firmly established his reputation when he annihilated his rivals in the G1 Phoenix S. on his last outing Aug. 7. The bay was untidy from the boxes this time and stumbled soon after the break, finding himself racing keenly in rear as stablemate Amigoni (Danehill) set a strong gallop. The heavy favorite made steady progress through the field from halfway and, niggled along at the three-furlong marker, reeled in Amigoni to take the lead before the eighth pole. Edging left throughout the final furlong, he was pushed out to repel the late challenge of Golden Arrow, the only realistic danger. "It didn't suit him--coming up the middle of the track--as there was nothing to run with," commented winning rider Kieren Fallon. "He got there and had to wait for them." The manner of his victory was workmanlike, in contrast to his spectacular display of six weeks ago, but Fallon, who rode four winners on the card, was more than satisfied. "Amigoni is not a bad little horse, he's a Group-3 winner, and to be able to brush him aside like that goes to show how good my fellow is," he commented. "All you can do is beat what you're up against and he's done it impressively. Hopefully, he's got a big future and will go on to be something special." George Washington, who could have another start this term, remains 4-1 clear favorite for next year's 2000 Guineas with most British bookmakers. Leroidesanimaux Wins Atto Mile (cont. from p1)

Leroidesanimaux has lost only once since coming to North America, finishing fourth in his U.S. bow in a January '04 allowance effort. But the Brazilian-bred has not put a hoof wrong since then, reeling off eight straight wins. He ended 2004 with a win in the GI Citation H. and returned to take the Mar. 5 GI Kilroe Mile. Leroidesanimaux resurfaced with a course-record setting win in the Aug. 27 GII Fourstardave H.

Jockey John Velazquez enjoyed an easy trip aboard Leroidesanimaux yesterday. "Once I got in a good position, I knew he was comfortable and after that I just kind of sat against him. Coming to the quarter pole, I just kind of shook him up and he responded right away. I shook the whip at him one time and he kept opening up on the field. He did it pretty easily."

Trainer Bobby Frankel's major concern was the yielding turf and he was doubly pleased to see his charge handle the conditions. "[My] early concern today, which will be at the Breeders' Cup, too, at Belmont, was the soft ground," Frankel said. "It's eligible at Belmont in the fall. At least that's one good thing we got out of the way, that we know he can handle soft ground."

It seemed as if the world was at Red Bloom's feet when she won the G1 Fillies' Mile at Ascot in September of her juvenile season, but her sophomore campaign yielded only one victory: the G3 Strensall S. at York, again in September. Her 2005 campaign started in low-key fashion with a fifth in the G3 Dahlia S. at Newmarket May 1, but she got that winning feeling again when taking the Listed Pipalong S. at Pontefract June 6. Stepped back up to the highest level for her next two starts, she was runner-up in the G1 Pretty Polly S. at this venue June 25 and third in the G1 Nassau S. at Goodwood July 30, then only found Pride (Fr) too good in the G2 Prix Jean Romanet at Deauville last time out Aug. 21. Stalking the early pace on the rail in third here, she was asked for her effort turning for home. She seized the lead with 2 1/2 furlongs remaining and was pushed into an advantage which she never relinquished, responding to a couple of backhanders in the final eighth to record a straightforward success. Kieren Fallon, teaming up with his old boss for this success, opined, "She's a very good filly and I get on well with her. She's won well, but deserved it as she's run some fine races in defeat." Reflecting on his ideal passage through the race, the rider added, "We were able to get the box seat. I was worried for a while, but the gap opened and she was able to quicken away." She was coming off a narrow loss to Ambitious Cat over this course in an Aug. 27 allowance. Allowed to settle just off the pace early, the dark bay mare moved into contention turning for home, collared the leaders at midstretch and inched clear to the wire. "As we came around the turn, I was worried about the speed backing up on us," commented Emma-Jayne Wilson, Woodbine's leading rider. "She's a big strong, powerful filly. I knew if there was a hole and I pointed her in the right direction, she'd get us there." The victory was Wilson's first in stakes company. Winning trainer Darwin Banach added, "She's a pleasure to train. We're going to aim for the [Oct. 23 G1] E.P. Taylor. It's here and she loves this course." Bear's Kid, a maiden winner on the dirt at Northlands Park in July for trainer Dale Greenwood, switched to the turf for his local debut and was a narrowly beaten runner-up Sept. 1. Trying stakes company for the first time, the bay colt dueled with favored Baur Au Lac (Tiznow) through fractions of :23.03 and :47.00 before taking charge just after the quarter pole. Bear's Kid turned back the upper stretch challenge of Smoke Em Again (Two Punch) and then held off Badge of Truth for the 1 3/4-length victory. "We were going too slow and this horse didn't want to go that easy," explained winning rider Jim McAleney. "So I let him stretch it out a little bit and pick up the tempo. We actually had really easy splits around the turn. It was like a gallop for him. I was able to get him running again before the head of the stretch. He finished tremendous." Winning trainer Reade Baker added, "He was galloping and they started struggling around the turn. Jimmy was really cute here. He got the lead out of it. They just couldn't catch up. You can't beat what you can't catch." Click for the brisnet.com chart or the free brisnet.com catalogue-style pedigree. Video, sponsored by Taylor Made.

Fight Club finished second to Soldier Hollow (GB) in this contest last year, but came back from an enforced break to go one better as he recorded a career-best. The four-year-old had not been out since finishing 10th in the GI Hollywood Derby Nov. 28 and, before embarking on his Hollywood dream, he ran below form when fourth in the G3 Grosser Preis der Landeshauptstadt Dusseldorf Oct. 10 and fifth in the G3 Baden-Wurttemberg-Trophy two weeks later. The colt had endured a catalogue of minor setbacks since returning to Europe, but showed no signs of those problems in his belated return. Settled behind the steady pace in a tightly packed field, he took closer order rounding the home turn before bounding away from toiling rivals inside the final quarter for an easy win. Click for the Racing Post chart or the free brisnet.com catalogue-style pedigree.

Bolstering the form of Saturday's GI Futurity S. winner Private Vow, whom he beat at first asking at Churchill in July, trainer Patrick Byrne's Sorcerer's Stone improved his record to a perfect three-for-three with an eye-catching romp. The dark bay had a half length on Private Vow in a 4 1/2-furlong sprint under the Twin Spires July 3 and came back to take the Honest Pleasure S. going 5 1/2 panels over this course July 31. Let go at generous 5-1 odds moving into graded company, he kept close tabs on the pacesetter Red Raymond, powered up to collar that foe leaving the quarter pole and was full of run down the lane. The winning time of 1:35 flat for the mile established a new stakes record. "He's a very gutsy little horse," said winning jockey Mark Guidry. "He relaxed real well...and when I pressed on him, he went." Added Byrne, "I couldn't be any happier. It sets up perfectly this year with the GI Breeders' Cup [Juvenile Oct. 29] at Belmont, where it's a one-turn mile and a sixteenth." Click for the brisnet.com chart. Original Spin took a six-length lead into the stretch of her Aug. 13 debut over this track and held sway late to win by one length. Making the jump to graded stakes company off that lone effort, the bay filly was never far back while in behind horses. She rallied four wide into the lane and drew clear for an easy victory in stakes-record time. "Since this filly won the first time, our concern was stretching her out and trying to get her to relax," explained winning rider Jesse Campbell. "Going down the backside today, there were two sitting in front of me and I'm right behind them. That was the key to this race." Winning trainer Tony Mitchell added, "I've had a little luck with Illinois-bred horses in open company. [The Alcibiades] at Keeneland certainly has to be a consideration and, if she does well there, who knows, maybe [the Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies at] Belmont." ☆ KEENELAND SEPTEMBER ☆

IN COMMAND AT KEENELAND San Francisco-area businessman Angelo Ferro outdueled fellow Northern Californian Jess Jackson to secure the top lot at yesterday's sixth session of the Keeneland September Yearling Sale in Lexington. Advised by trainer Jeff Bonde, Ferro went to $420,000 to acquire hip 1988, a colt by Deputy Commander consigned by Taylor Made Sales Agency for Gulf Coast Farms Bloodstock. The Apr. 22 foal is a son of Clever Squaw (Rahy), a half sister to MSW Tricky Six and to the dam of MGSW Stanley Park. "I thought he was the best-walking horse here the whole time we've been here," Bonde commented. "He's a total athlete. He's totally balanced, has a keen eye and head to him and he stood out over the rest, we thought." Septogenarian Ferro, a resident of Marin County, California, has a multitude of business interests, including ownership of the San Francisco Flower Mart and the Fountain Grove Inn and Hotel in nearby Santa Rosa. He also owns a Bay Area car dealership as well as Genoa Racing, which races Indy-cars in the Menards Infinity Pro Series. Ferro maintains a horse racing stable with Bonde and campaigned the popular California-bred horse Green Team, a $32,000 claim in 2003 who went on to win the that year's running of the Cal Cup Sprint. The gelding added a pair of additional stakes wins in 2004 and was third in defense of his Cal Cup Sprint title. The colt, which Bonde describes as Ferro's "most expensive purchase," will be broken and a decision will be made at a later date whether to race or resell the colt next year.

A Total Sense of Humor...

Distorted Humor, represented yesterday by Gill Arlington-Washington Lassie winner Original Spin, continued his magical run at Keeneland, with a pair of his sons selling for over $300,000. Mike Ryan, acting as agent for an undisclosed client, went to $310,000 for a hip 1972, an Irish-bred half brother to Vangelis (Fr) (Highest Honor {Fr}), a multiple group winner in France and multiple Grade I placed in this country. The chestnut was consigned by Dave C. Parrish's Indian Creek agency. "This horse is very nice and he grew up very naturally," commented Jean-Marie Callier, director of bloodstock and sales for Indian Creek. "He's got a lot going for him. He's a very strong horse and he's by the right stallion. We're delighted with the price and we were happy to be in book three. We think he made more than he would have in book one or two." The colt, produced by the Gate Dancer mare Capades Dancer, was foaled and weaned in Ireland before being sent to Indian Creek in December to be prepped especially for this sale. Capades Dancer was not bred in 2004, but is now carrying a foal by Rock of Gibraltar (Ire). Hip 2018 elicited a final bid of $300,000 from WinStar Farm, home to Distorted Humor. The dark bay was produced by Dixie Honey (Dixieland Band), making him a half brother to SW Dixie's Home (Home at Last) and to SP Bee My Honey (Southern Halo). The Apr. 16 colt was bred and consigned by Charles Nuckols Jr. and Sons' Nuckols Farm, which also bred Distorted Humor.

A Golden Purchase...

Bloodstock agent Buzz Chace signed the winning ticket on hip 2073, a colt by the late Carson City and the first foal out of General Jeanne (Honour and Glory), a half sister to four stakes winners, including GII Prioress S. heroine Penny's Reshoot. The Feb. 11 foal was bred and consigned by Carl Pollard's Hermitage Farm. "We're delighted," an understated Pollard commented. "We thought he'd do well. He had a lot of scopes and a lot of hits at the repository. He was a beautiful colt." Chace indicated that he bought the horse for Al Gold, a new client who resides in Ocean Township, New Jersey. He admitted he was well beyond his initial appraisal for the colt. "I thought he'd go for about 250 [thousand]," he said. "He looked like he was very precocious and light on his feet," he added. "He looked like a racehorse, looked like his father. When a nice horse goes through the ring, you have to pay for it." Mike Ryan was the immediate underbidder.

Book Three a Resounding Success...

Beginning with the introduction of the dark day three years ago, officials at Keeneland have made a concerted effort to enhance the quality of horses in book three, and, by all accounts, the plan has worked exceedingly well. This year's sessions five and six resulted in gross receipts over $50 million, a 27-percent improvement over 2004 and the average of nearly $90,000 was up by an impressive 19 percent from last year. Additionally, the clearance rate for book three was a very healthy 79.2 percent. "For this book to gross over $50 million is exactly what we hoped to do," commented Keeneland Director of Sales Geoffrey Russell. "The idea was to get a group of top physical horses in here matched with maybe a little less pedigree. That way it rolls over and helps the middle market for the rest of the sale." Russell is looking forward to book four and beyond. "The repository is already busy for [today]. There's already a lot of people in the barns," he commented. The sale will reach a milestone this afternoon when last year's record gross receipts of $324.9 million is supplanted. Asked if he would have expected that ahead of the sale, Russell admitted, "It is beyond our wildest dreams."

Sent off the lukewarm choice this time, he overcame an awkward start to settle in a tracking third. Up to take command after three quarters in 1:11.74, the five-year-old continued to dominate late, winning by 4 1/4 lengths. According to trainer Richard Schosberg, Certifiably Crazy will make his next start on New York Showcase Day in the nine-furlong Mohawk H. Oct. 22.

S. June 4 and West Long Branch S. June 25--both at Monmouth--and was most recently third at that track in the Aug. 7 Regret S. Facing New York bred for the first time since March, the bay was hustled along to keep up with the free-wheeling High Peaks, who nailed a half in :44.90. Digging in to catch that foe, who had spurred clear by five in upper stretch, Travelator just got up in the final jump under a stiff Rafael Bejarano drive. "I had my doubts at the eighth pole," admitted winning trainer Stanley Hough. "I was hoping that she would get second. Then when she got second, I was hoping she would go on. She's a hard-trying filly. She'll probably run in the race going seven-eighths [Oct. 22 Iroquois H. at Belmont]. She might go to the sales this fall, so we may only get a few more starts with her."

Comacina turned more than a few heads when an eight-length winner at the Spa last summer, but the promise of bigger and better things failed to materialize when she finished out of the money in two subsequent starts later that fall; the one-mile GII Futurity S. against colts and the 1 1/16-mile GI Frizette S. Back in 2005 with a nice allowance score over track and trip July 20, the bay failed to fire and had to settle for seventh in her latest going an extra furlong against Spa allowance foes Aug. 24. Sent off the second choice here, the filly settled behind horses early, but was soon up to lead after a half mile in :45.60. Narrowly in front turning for home, she remained tough in the stretch to eke out the narrow score. The victory was the sixth on the card for jockey Joe Bravo, equaling for the most victories by a rider on a single card at Monmouth.

Noted as a TDN "Rising Star" when justifying 4-5 favoritism in a course-and-distance maiden on debut Sept. 4, Art Museum doubled up in pleasing fashion to remain on course for the G1 Middle Park S. at Newmarket Sept. 30. Racing in midfield on the rail early, he was nudged along at halfway and responded to Kieren Fallon's call to collar the trail-blazing Leitra 100 yards from the post, coasting home from there for a cozy score. "The plan before today was to go for the Middle Park and that remains the plan," trainer Aidan O'Brien explained.

Kings Point had not won since taking the G3 Superlative S. at Newmarket in July of his juvenile season. Consistency is not his strong point, as he proved when sandwiching two subpar efforts in top handicap company between a decent fifth in the Aug. 18 Listed City of York S. at that track and a second to Caradak (Ire) in the June 26 Listed Celebration S. over this course and distance. But the return to Listed company on the Emerald Isle sparked a return to winning ways. The bay colt led after the first furlong, was shaken up before the quarter pole and ridden out by Paul Hanagan in the closing stages for an uncomplicated score.

Curragh, 3.10, Hcp, €69,890, 3yo/up, 2mT, 3:26.00, gd.

HOLY ORDERS (IRE) (h, 8, Unblest {GB}--Shadowglow {GB}, by Shaadi), an Ir11,000gns TATIRE yearling, was coming off a sixth-place finish in the Listed Ballycullen S. at Fairyhouse Aug. 28. After racing in rear early, the 12-1 shot was pushed along half a mile out, then was pulled wide at the quarter pole to make his challenge. Taking the lead just inside the final furlong under a sympathetic ride, he scored by a comfortable two lengths from Athlumney Lad (Ire) (Mujadi). Lifetime Record: MSW-Ire, MSW-Ire (stp), 40-9-4-3, €290,340. O-A McLuckie; B-Dunderry Stud; T-Willie Mullins.

Slip Dance was a consistent juvenile last year, scoring at Ballinrobe and The Curragh, finishing second in the G3 Sweet Solera S. at Newmarket in August and a creditable fifth in the G1 Cheveley Park S. at the same track the following month. She came back to win an extended-mile conditions event at Cork Mar. 27, but had failed to make an impression against tough company following that victory until second home in the Listed Cecil Frail S. at Haydock June 4. Her latest effort was fourth in the Listed Henry Gee Fillies' S at Chester Sept. 10. Dropped to the minimum trip for the first time in her career, she raced towards the rear of the field. Nudged along at the quarter pole, she took advantage of a gap inside the final furlong to put her head in front with 20 yards remaining without recourse to the whip.

Looming up to the pacesetting Fire Two (GB) (Cape Cross {Ire}) at the three-furlong marker while still on the bridle, he took the lead at the quarter pole, but ran greenly and needed to be ridden out to score by a half length from that tenacious rival. Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, £3,640. O-Sheikh Hamdan bin Rashid al Maktoum; B-Shadwell Estate Company Ltd; T-Mark Johnston.

Stalking the lead from the outset here, she was driven to the front approaching the final furlong and kept on well from there to hold Illustrious Blue (GB) (Dansili {GB}) by a head. Lifetime Record: 3-1-1-0, £4,173. O/B-Cheveley Park Stud; T-Michael Jarvis.

Successful on stakes debut in the Listed Premio Vittorio Crespi here June 12, Dionisia bounced back from off-the-board efforts in the Listed Premio Mantovani and Listed Criterium Varesino to garner the Listed Premio Repubbliche Marinare at Rome two weeks ago. She brought that form here and completed the hatrick by defying odds-on favorite Sabana Perdida with something in hand. Reserved in rear early, she was brought wide for her stretch run and took command inside the final furlong before comfortably holding the rallying cry of the crowd's choice in the drive to the line.
