LORD OF THE GAME CLASSIC BOUND?

Multiple graded stakes winner Lord of the Game (Saint Ballado) breezed five-eighths in 1:02 at Hawthorne yesterday morning ahead of a possible start in the $4-million GI Breeders' Cup Classic at Belmont Oct. 29. "Our plan is to run in the Classic, and all we're waiting for now is to see if we get in," explained trainer Tom Tomillo. "If that happens, we'll get there 10 or 11 days away from the race and I'll get a work into him over the track." Claimed for $10,000 out of his winning debut, the four-year-old has won 8 of 12 career starts, including the GII Prairie Meadows Cornhusker Breeders' Cup H. and the GIII Hanshin Cup H. He most recently missed by a head in the 10-furlong GII Hawthorne Gold Cup Sept. 24.

MAKIN KEEN ON CLASSIC BID

Starcraft (NZ) (Soviet Star) looks increasingly likely to tackle the Oct. 29 GI Breeders' Cup Classic at Belmont, with Pat Valenzuela lined up to take the ride. Owner Paul Makin confirmed that he is willing to pay $800,000 to let the five-year-old take his chance on the dirt, while keeping the Mile as an alternative. "I want to head for the Classic if I can," he said yesterday. "I won't get another chance, as he's off to stud soon and I've always wondered how he'll get on the dirt." Starcraft has added to his impressive domestic tally with wins for Luca Cumani in the Sept. 4 G1 Prix du Moulin de Longchamp and G1 Queen Elizabeth II S. at Newmarket last time Sept. 24 and Makin is keen to take in a new challenge. "Luca is more inclined to go for the Classic than the Mile and he's a competitive person," he continued. "It's the last mountain to climb and it's exciting. Pat Valenzuela is a wonderful rider and probably about the best in America, so I'm very pleased to have him and we still have the option of going on the grass."

WHIPPER CAREER FINALE IN BC MILE

Multiple Group 1 winner Whipper (Miesque's Son--Myth to Reality {Fr}, by Sadler's Wells), who is scheduled to make his final career start in the GI Breeders' Cup Mile at Belmont Park Oct. 29, will take up stallion duty at Ballylinch Stud in Co. Kilkenny, Ireland in 2006. His stud fee will be announced at a later date. The elder 3/4-brother to European champion filly Divine Proportions was France's highweighted three-year-old miler last year. He has won at the Group 1 level during all three seasons on the track--the Prix Morny at two, the Prix Jacques le Marois during his sophomore year and this term's Prix Maurice de Gheest.

DIXIE UNION STUD FEE RAISED

The appearance of three new graded stakes winners in the last two weeks for sophomore sire Dixie Union (Dixieland Band) has resulted in his 2006 stud fee being raised to $40,000 at Lane's End Farm. The eight-year-old's fee had previously been announced as $30,000. His three-year-old daughter Nothing But Fun won the GII Cotillion H. Oct. 1, two-year-old filly Sensation captured the GIII Astarita S. Oct. 2 and two-year-old colt Unification landed the GIII Grey Breeders' Cup S. Oct. 10.

(Part 2) in Newmarket, supplying the two top-priced lots. A 90,000gns colt out of Premiere Dance (Ire) (Loup Solitaire), offered and bred by the National Stud, headed business after Willie Browne, of Co. Tipperary breeze-up consignors Mocklershill Stables, came out best in a duel with David Redvers. "He'll be coming back here in April; he has to having cost that money," said Browne. "He was very expensive, I thought I might get him for 60,000gns, but I was mad about him. It was all on a bit of a whim, but I like Sakhee and sometimes you get a feeling about a horse and I had to have him." Local trainer Neville Callaghan will take charge of a 78,000gns Sakhee colt out of Shukran (GB) (Hamam {Ire}), bought by Richard Brown of Blandford Bloodstock. Today's final session begins at 10 a.m. Stats p4

The lone graded stakes winner here, Straight Line captured the GIII Iroquois S. going a mile at Churchill last fall, but was sidelined for much of the spring with a hock infection. After a pair of unplaced efforts going nine furlongs, he won when cutting back to seven panels in the Forward Pass S. at Arlington Aug. 13. He followed with a sixth in the Paradise Creek S. on the turf Sept. 17.

Gary Tanaka's Rakti may be forced to sidestep his intended last European start after significant rain changed the going to soft. Trainer Michael Jarvis revealed yesterday that the six-year-old was likely to be scratched from the 10-furlong contest he won two years ago. "The ground has gone, I'm afraid," he commented. "The final decision will be with Mr Tanaka and I'll speak to him this evening, but I assume he won't run. It's very unfortunate, as this would have been his last race in Europe." Jarvis also ruled out the Oct. 29 GI Breeders' Cup Mile at Belmont for the six-time Group 1 winner, who may sign off in the G1 Hong Kong Mile at Sha Tin Dec. 12. His likely absence will leave 14 to fight out tomorrow's contest.

T. D. Vance was fourth to English Channel in the May 21 Woodlawn S. at Pimlico, but improved in his next effort to be second by a nose in the June 19 Restoration S. at Monmouth. Sent north of the border, the gelding charged home a 1 1/2-length winner of the July 16 Toronto Cup H. at Woodbine and most recently came from just off the pace to add the GII Hall of Fame S. at Saratoga Aug. 8. Sent to the front from the one-hole, T. D.

Vance set solid fractions while racing out in the middle of the track, still held the call turning for home and withstood a late run from Rey de Cafe. "This horse is pretty fit and he can go any distance," said winning jockey Edgar Prado. "He was the only speed in the race and I took advantage of it. When I asked him, he kicked it in strong." Stonewall to Offer Breeders' Incentives:

Audrey Haisfield's Stonewall Farm will offer an incentive to breeders who support their stallions Medaglia d'Oro and Doneraile Court and future sire Leroïdesanimaux (Brz). Any mating which results in an American stakes winner by any one of those sires will entitle the breeder of that stakes winner to a free, no-guarantee season back to that stallion. Additionally, Stonewall is offering complimentary seasons to the owners of Grade I-winning or producing mares on a limited basis. Applications are currently being accepted and should be forwarded to Stonewall Marketing Director Bert Welker. "These are just two examples of how we plan to reward those who choose to breed their mares at Stonewall Farm," Welker commented.

Fair Grounds Stakes Schedule Announced:

Churchill Downs Inc. has announced the stakes program for the abbreviated Fair Grounds meeting, to be held this year at Louisiana Downs. Racing will begin Nov. 19 with 34 stakes races and purses of over $3.5 million. The richest event on the calendar will be the $400,000 GII New Orleans H., scheduled for Jan. 7. In the temporary absence of the GII Louisiana Derby and the GII Fair Grounds Oaks, the GIII Risen Star S. (Jan. 14) and the GIII Silverbulletday S. (Jan. 14), will serve as the main events for sophomore colts and fillies, respectively. The fourth and final graded stakes on the schedule is the Jan. 14 GIII Bayou Breeders' Cup H. for older fillies and mares on the grass. Racing will not take place at the Fair Grounds for the first time in 92 years, the direct result of the damage caused by Hurricane Katrina.

W AND L (c, 2, Red Ransom--Come Dancing, by Two Punch) never factored when a wide eighth in his Sept. 30 debut over the local turf course and was sent off at 8-1 in his main-track bow. Towards the back of the pack early, the Illinois-bred was steadied off heels into the far turn then advanced along the inside on that bend. Angled out to the five path in the stretch, the bay closed determinedly to nip odds-on Terps (Tiznow) by a nose. Lifetime Record: 2-1-0-0, $14,820.

Straight Man Colt, 3 Mares Share Honors at OBS:

A weanling colt by Straight Man and three broodmares each brought bids of $20,000 to share highest-priced honors at Thursday's open session of the Ocala Breeders Sales Company's Fall Mixed Sale. Selling as hip 1179, the weanling was purchased by M & N Stables from the consignment of Janie Roper as agent. The South Korean entity Triple Crown Trading purchased the session-topping broodmares. Hip 1060, the five-year-old Dactique's Quest (Coronado's Quest), in foal to Eltish, was consigned by Live Oak Stud. Hip 1191, five-year-old Bridlingbride (Unbridled's Song), was offered by Summerfield (Francis and Barbara Vanlangendonck) in foal to Favorite Trick. The trio was completed by Hip 1212, Goldmakesmesmile (Mining), a nine-year-old in foal to Essence of Dubai from the consignment of Tara Stables as agent. The top yearling at the session was hip 976, a Lost Solder colt consigned by Casse Sales as agent. Mike Anderson signed the ticket for the son of Fumar (Sword Dance {Ire}). Dance With Ravens, Deputy Storm to Northview:

Northview Stallion Station has announced the addition of two new stallions for 2006, Dance With Ravens (A.P. Indy--Dance Smartly, by Danzig) and Deputy Storm (Forestry--Deputy Jane West, by Silver Deputy). Dance With Ravens, a son of multiple champion and top broodmare Dance Smartly, broke his maiden as a two-year-old in the GII Grey Breeders' Cup S. and also ran second in the GII Summer S. that season. As a three-year-old this year, the bay captured a Woodbine allowance before taking the Plate Trial S. in June, but was unplaced after finishing seventh in the Queen's Plate June 26. A chip was discovered in his right front ankle afterwards and the Sam-Son colorbearer was retired with a record of 7-3-1-2 and $340,600. He is a half brother to Queen's Plate winners Dancethruthedawn and Scatter the Gold, both by Mr. Prospector. "Horses like Dance With Ravens don't come along very often," said Northview's managing partner Richard Golden. "Once these stallion prospects leave the racetrack for their next career, the business of genetics becomes a huge factor in their chance of succeeding. Dance With Ravens not only has an excellent race record, but his female family ranks up there with any in the world. That coupled with A.P. Indy as his sire leaves very little doubt that he should do all of his mares justice." Deputy Storm, a son of multiple Canadian champion Deputy Jane West, captured the Tyro S. and ran second in the GIII Sapling S. at two. Runner-up in the GII Hutcheson S. at three, he returned this year to land the King Cotton S. at Oaklawn in February, but didn't race again after May 6, when he ran seventh in the GIII Turf Sprint at Churchill. Deputy Storm's career record stands at 11-4-2-0 with earnings of $183,465. His stud fee will be $3,500, stands and nurses.

The Meadowlands has announced that racing will be cancelled for Friday due to continuing heavy rain in the New York/New Jersey metropolitan area. The track had previously cancelled Thursday's card and rescheduled the GIII Cliff Hanger H. for next Saturday. It will remain open for day and night simulcasting.

MAIN EXECUTIVE (c, 3, Bold Executive--Dream Smartly, by Smarten), a full brother to Blonde Executive, Ch. Sprinter-Can, GSW, $610,591, was second in his Aug. 5 bow at this track, but was a stylish 7 1/2-length maiden winner Aug. 20 and went back-to-back with a 2 1/2-length allowance victory Sept. 18. Favored at 2-5 to complete the hat-trick, the homebred led soon after the start, opened it up to six lengths at the eighth pole and was ridden out to a 1 3/4-length success from Irish Gambit (War Deputy). Lifetime Record: 4-3-1-0, $105,638.

Peaks and Valleys to Gardiner Farms:

Peaks and Valleys (Mt. Livermore), who previously stood at Pin Oak Stud in Kentucky, will move to Gardiner Farms in Caledon East, Ontario. The 13-year-old stallion will remain the property of Pin Oak. A multiple Grade I winner at three, the Pin Oak homebred earned Sovereign Awards as Horse of the Year and champion three-year-old colt in 1995. From his first five crops, the dark bay has sired graded stakes winners Chamrousse, Dollar Bill, Happy Trails and Higher World. "Considering the success Peaks and Valleys has enjoyed in Canada, both as a racehorse and a sire, it's a natural fit," said Clifford Barry, Pin Oak Stud's manager. "He's having another great year, so he brings excitement and momentum to Canadian breeders."

AMERICAN ALL STAR (g, 5, American Day--Cover Letter, by Kingmambo) was haltered by shrewd claiming trainer Ted West for $40,000 out of a second-place finish going a mile over the Del Mar turf Aug. 7 and earned back a big part of that investment in his latest, taking a state-bred optional claimer at the Fairplex Sept 18. Switching to the downhill turf course for this, the bay gelding pulled his way to the front nearing the quarter pole and stayed on gamely for a two-length victory as the 5-2 second choice. CHRB to Take Over TCO2 Testing Program:

The California Horse Racing Board will be responsible for testing for high bicarbonate levels in racehorses will begin Oct. 19. Licensees whose horses test over the limit for alkalizing substances could face fines and suspensions, and any purse money earned in those races would be automatically forfeited. Trainers will have the option of having a duplicate sample collected at the same time the primary sample is collected, but tested by a different laboratory at their own expense. The $165 cost for the collection and testing of a duplicate sample must be paid in advance.

★ INDUSTRY INFO ★

New Ad Campaign for NTRA:

The National Thoroughbred Racing Association has announced a new advertising campaign for 2006 entitled "Who Do You Like Today?" The campaign, developed by Conover Tuttle Pace, will include television spots featuring celebrities such as Dennis Hopper, Matthew Fox, Jerry O'Connell, Michael Imperioli, Wayne Gretzky, Rick Pitino and Sir Richard Branson. All are racing fans who volunteered their time. "There is a hidden horseplayer in all of us," said Grant Pace, CTP's creative director and the campaign's creator. "By using a mix of celebrities and everyday fans, the ads reinforce the fact that racing attracts a young, diverse and energized audience, and makes you want to join the fun. This campaign is as much about horse players as about horse racing."

WARREN BUYS INTO TRADE FAIR

John Warren has purchased a stake in Tweenhills Farm and Stud's five-year-old Trade Fair (GB) (Zafonic--Danefair {GB}, by Danehill), who will begin his breeding career in 2006. Trained by Roger Charlton, he was the second highest-rated three-year-old miler in the 2003 International Classifications by virtue of his successes in the G3 Criterion S. and Listed King Charles II S. at Newmarket and Newbury's Listed Dubai Duty Free Cup. The Stud's owner David Redvers commented, "We have been overwhelmed by the interest in Trade Fair since it was announced that he would be coming to Tweenhills and we are delighted that such a respected figure as John Warren has shown his faith in the horse by taking a major share. The horse has now been fully syndicated." Warren added, "Having always admired the horse, I will be supporting Trade Fair because he is an outstanding looker who was a very good two-year-old. I also like the idea of Zafonic and Danehill for a sire of precocious two-year-olds." Trade Fair stands at the Gloucestershire base for a fee of £4,000, October 1st terms.

Coconut Squeak offered the most effective advertisement for the National Stud's decision to sell shares in Bahamian Bounty with a gutsy surprise score in the Rowley Mile gloom. Ultra-consistent in sprint handicaps, she had performed with credit when fourth in the Listed October S. at this track last time Sept. 25. Unseen since finishing fifth in the G1 Prix Marcel Boussac at Longchamp 12 months ago, she was buried in rear early before slicing through the pack inside the final quarter. In front passing the furlong marker, she was pushed out up the rising ground to comfortably account for Royal Alchemist. "She had a lot of little problems in the winter and then some more in the spring," Racing Manager Simon Crisford explained. "We've been waiting for this sort of ground and Frankie gave her a very sympathetic ride. I think we'll recommend keeping her in training next season."
