GESTURE RECOGNITION

Second in five of his first seven stakes starts, Relaxed Gesture (Ire) (Indian Ridge {Ire}) earned a deserved first stakes victory in the GI Canadian International S. at Woodbine yesterday afternoon. The chestnut was runner-up in the G2 Beresford S. and G2 Derrinstown Stud Derby Trial in Ireland. He opened his U.S. career with allowance wins at Keeneland and Belmont Park this spring, but had to settle for second while beaten less than a length in the June 11 GI Manhattan H., July 16 GII Bowling Green H. and Aug. 13 GI Sword Dancer Invitational H. Partnered with jockey Corey Nakatani for the first time in the Sept. 10 GI Man o'War S., he broke that streak by finishing third, 3/4 of a length behind Better Talk Now, but Nakatani blamed himself for that loss. "I believe I made a mistake last time," he said. "I let him run out of there and stuck him into the race. Today, I was not going to make any mistakes." Canadian International cont. p2

SOLID AS A ROCK

Trainer Richard Mandella yesterday proclaimed Rock Hard Ten (Kris S.) good to go for Saturday's GI Breeders' Cup Classic. The colt came up with a bruise in his left front foot after working Thursday, but the problem proved to be minor. "We've pulled the shoes off, he's galloped, we put bandages on it and it looks fine," Mandella said. "We're going to shoe him tomorrow and it looks like what we've done worked, so we'll go to New York thinking we're in good shape." Rock Hard Ten ships Wednesday.

PAMPERED PRINCESS OUT OF DISTAFF

Pampered Princess (Indian Charlie), winner of the Oct. 9 GI Juddmonte Spinster S. at Keeneland, will miss Saturday's GI Breeders' Cup Distaff due to an upper respiratory infection. "I breezed her a little [Sunday] morning and she went a half in :51 and change," trainer Marty Wolfson said. "I always scope her afterward, and she had quite a bit of mucus in there. It doesn't surprise me much, though, because she came out of the cold [in Kentucky] and vanned home [to Florida] to this heat and the weather changes. She would have to be 150 percent to go [to the Breeders' Cup], but she's only about 90 percent."

IT'S RYDER, OR IT'S WRONG

She hasn't done much wrong all year. Honey Ryder (Lasting Approval) ran her 2005 record to five-for-seven at Woodbine yesterday, putting in a strong late run that carried her to a half-length triumph over Lattice (Ire) (Inchiner {GB}) in the GI E.P. Taylor S. The four-year-old added the win to victories in the GIII The Very One H. and GII Orchid H. at Gulfstream over the winter, the R.G. Dick BC H. at Delaware Park in July and the Sept. 5 GIII Glens Falls H. at Saratoga last time out. E.P. Taylor cont. p2

Time to Relax...

Corey Nakatani allowed Relaxed Gesture to settle well off the pace as Sword Dancer winner and Man o'War runner-up King's Drama (King's Theatre {Ire}) led them along through an opening mile in 1:39.25 over the yielding surface. But, while that rival cashed in his chips on the far turn, Nakatani angled Relaxed Gesture to the wide outside and the four-year-old hit high gear, sweeping past Meteor Storm before galloping away to a decisive score. "I wasn't too worried about [the pace], because he was going so well underneath me," Nakatani said. "I was very patient--turning for home, I was still waiting. I went by everybody and I made sure that I put them all away. He was much the best." When asked why he skipped the Breeders' Cup for this spot, trainer Christophe Clement quipped, "I like to be cold and I like to be wet." The real reason? "We decided to come to the International instead of the Breeders Cup just because we thought we had a better chance to win it here and it worked out," he said. Click for the brisnet.com chart or the free brisnet.com catalogue-style pedigree.

No Grey Areas...

Grey Swallow (Daylami {Ire}) finished third, but was demoted to fourth because jockey Patrick Smullen had hit 6-5 favorite Electrocutionist in the face with his whip. But jockey Michael Kinane did not believe the incident cost Electrocutionist the race. "He likes a quicker surface," Kinane explained. "He struggled a bit with the ground. He didn't travel the way I'd like or the way he would on a quicker surface. I was disappointed with him going down the backstretch. They had gone a really good pace and I should have been arriving on better than I was. The winner was laying on me a bit in the straight, but he was going too good for me."

Honey Ryder beat GISW Film Maker by a neck in the GIII Glens Falls H., then awaited this race as that rival finished a solid third in the Oct. 1 GI Flower Bowl Invitational H. at Belmont. She found herself uncharacteristically far out of it early, with just one horse behind her after the opening mile. Jockey John Velazquez swung the gray filly wide into the stretch and the pair emerged from the pack on the far outside, getting up in the final yards for the victory. "She always seems to find a little more and fight on," Velazquez said, adding, "She's beaten a lot of good horses. She beat a whole lot of tougher horses today. She deserves it." G1 Yorkshire Oaks heroine Punctilious (Danehill), the 8-5 favorite, was battling for the lead at the quarter pole, but tired to be 10th. Godolphin's fortunes have been mixed this season, but they possess strength in depth, and Dubai Surprise became the latest to add to the ever-growing international Group 1 tally. Trained by David Loder as a two-year-old, she took the G3 Prestige S. at Goodwood last August before disappointing when eighth in the G1 Fillies' Mile at Ascot in September. She rebounded to finish runner-up to Helios Quercus (Fr) in the G1 Criterium International at Saint-Cloud the following month, then did not reappear for 12 months, but made a winning return in a conditions event at Leicester Oct. 11. Tracking the pace in fourth under Ted Durcan, Dubai Surprise made smooth progress to challenge approaching the quarter pole and ground her way to the front soon after before tenaciously holding Rave Reviews in the closing stages. "We were always traveling well and she did it nicely," Durcan commented. "She idled after going into the lead, but picked up well when challenged." As the old man of the party, anyone could have forgiven Alcazar for ducking a fight, but that's not his style. The 10-year-old was second behind Westerner (GB) in this in 2003 and third to that rival 12 months ago. He has racked up a series of consistent efforts in stakes company over marathon trips since returning from an extended layoff at eight. Wins this term came in the Apr. 27 G3 Sagaro S. at Lingfield and, when getting the better of Reefscape, in the G2 Prix Kegerlay at Deauville Aug. 21. A slow pace proved Alcazar's undoing when he shared second spot behind that rival in the G1 Prix du Cadran on Arc day, but soft early fractions were not an issue this time--the rabbits set a strong gallop as the 7-1 chance sat in mid-pack. Taking closer order as the field bunched in the false straight, the evergreen gelding got to the lead with 100 yards remaining and, after a prolonged tussle with Reefscape, answered every call to prevail. "He'll be around again next season, but that's it for this," trainer Hughie Morrison said. Click for the free brisnet.com catalogue-style pedigree or for the Racing Post race chart.

chestnut had his U.S. unveiling at Gulfstream, running second in an allowance in April, then shipped north and won a Monmouth allowance test June 15. Beaten a neck when third in the slop at Belmont in July, he was sent off a 24-1 outsider in the Aug. 27 GII Fourstardave H. at Saratoga, but outran his odds to fill the show spot once again, just 2 1/4 lengths behind Leroidesanimaux (Brz). The Moyglare homebred was coming off a victory in an optional claimer going seven panels at Belmont Sept. 24. The slight choice to make it two in a row, Steel Light rated off the pace while tucked in at the rail, worked his way outside as they neared the top of the lane and fought it out with Sophia's Prince in the final furlong, prevailing in a photo while never feeling the whip. "Chris [Clement] did a great job with him," said jockey Corey Nakatani. "He told me to make sure I got him into the race, got a clean break, and we got away so good. He was finding his way perfectly. I just angled out and gave him just a little bit to do and he showed that he was much the best." Saldentigerin earned her place among the best last term with a third in the G1 Preis der Diana (German Oaks) at Hamburg in June and second in the G1 Preis Von Europa at Cologne in September, but had taken time to find her form in 2005. There were signs of a renaissance when third in the Sept. 18 G2 Euro-Cup at Frankfurt, and she was beaten only a neck by Wurfscheibe (Ger) when second in the G3 Frankfurter Stutenpreis last time Oct. 9. Making her final career start before retiring to the paddocks of owner Gestut Bona, she was initially restrained in a diversion from her usual front-running tactics, but was soon forced to make her own pace by reluctant rivals. Quickly establishing a clear lead, she dug in gamely late on to withstand the threat of Birkspiel for an honorable finale.

When the leaves are falling, Soave comes good and he proved he is a horse for the season with a deserved success here. The old-timer had taken the G3 Grosser Buchmacher Springer Sprint Preis at Munich in October 2002 and the G3 Prix de Seine-et-Oise and Listed Prix Contessina at Maisons-Laffitte the following fall, but had been in the wilderness subsequently. Warming up with a fourth in the Listed Prix de Bonneval at Chantilly last time Oct. 7, he stalked the early pace before taking over with 1 1/2 furlongs remaining and drawing away. This race had been postponed for a week due to copious rain in the area, but it was all systems go Saturday night despite the arrival of yet more precipitation. Hotstufanthensome won five of 10 starts last year without making an impact at the stakes level, but had progressed in 2005. After taking Monmouth's Elkwood S. over yielding ground July 16, he ran second by 3/4 of a length in the GIII Oceanport H. at the Jersey Shore Aug. 7. He wound up sixth behind GI Breeders' Cup Mile contender Leroidesanimaux (Brz) in the Aug. 27 GII Fourstardave H. at Saratoga, but there were no foes of that caliber here. The bay got off to an awkward start before settling into tracking fifth through soft fractions. Moving closer on the far turn, the five-year-old hit the front in the stretch and relished the give in the ground as he left his rivals far behind. "He really loves the soft turf," said trainer Norman Pointer, adding that the GII W.L. McKnight H. at Calder Dec. 17 could be next for the winner.

No stranger to the graded stakes scene, Briviesca missed by a neck to GI E.P. Taylor heroine Honey Ryder in the 11-furlong GIII The Very One H. at Gulfstream Mar. 6 before running fourth to that rival in the GII Orchid H. Apr. 2. Back in the runner-up spot in the GIII Gallorette H. at Pimlico May 21, she was well-beaten in her next two tries at Colonial and Monmouth, but re-grouped to take the Goldfinch H. over nine furlongs at the Jersey Shore Sept. 4. Again the bridesmaid in her latest, the Navajo Princess H. at the Meadowlands Sept. 20, the English-bred went off the third choice stretching out to a mile and a half. Settled in a tracking fourth early, the chestnut powered to the fore two furlongs from home and, despite drifting out in the lane, held it together to win her first at Keeneland. "My filly was very sharp and wanted to go all the way," said jockey John Jacinto. "I just tried to get her on the best part of the course." Video, sponsored by Taylor Made.

A lackluster 11th when bumped up in class back for the GIII Pucker Up S., the grey was 4-1 against allowance foes. Content to track the early pace, she made a three-wide move to take command heading into the stretch and drew clear to record a two-length win over 25-1 shot Phill's Pill (Cozzene). The $70,000 FTKOCT yearling is a half to Cuando Puede (Lord At War {Arg}), SW, $199,973; Cuando (Lord at War {Arg}), MSW & MGSP, $329,967 and Cuanto Es (Exbourne), GSP, $255,239. Numerous-Bolshoi Comedy, by Sovereign Dancer
$7,500 LF, due 9/1

"He fits the profile we look for in a Margaux stallion...an honest, talented, tough horse capable of campaigning over a number of seasons in Graded company...He's a big, strong, correct horse with imposing presence and a great disposition. We believe he will sire the type of runner that will flourish in the speed/dirt biased American racing market. We think his foals will be very popular in the sales ring."

Fagan's Legacy debuted with a runner-up effort going a mile and 70 yards at Monmouth Sept. 10. He graduated by five lengths in a similar contest at the Jersey oval Sept. 25 and was the third choice in his stakes bow. The grey colt galloped along comfortably several lengths from the front, ranged up to take command and proceeded to win under wraps. "[Trainer] Kelly Breen had him ready to run today," said winning rider Joe Bravo. "I was just a passenger. This colt has done little wrong and I think he's pretty exciting." That sentiment was echoed by Breen. "A six-furlong workout for him is almost like a gallop," explained the conditioner. "He's got this extremely long stride. He really doesn't know what he's doing, which is the crazy part of it. He has to improve. We were talking about putting blinkers on him, but he was doing so good we didn't want to change anything."

Wait a While, fifth going six panels on the main at Saratoga Aug. 29, came home five lengths on top when switched to the grass in a mile maiden here Sept. 28. The well-supported choice this time, the grey jumped out to take the early lead, extended that advantage to seven turning for home and kept the tempo up late to win by daylight. "This was a small field and she had speed," said winning jockey Jerry Bailey. "She basically just galloped around there." According to trainer Todd Pletcher, the filly will be pointed toward the GII Demoiselle S. Nov. 26.

Taming the Tiger started off the year with a pair of unplaced efforts going 8 1/2 furlongs at Delaware before benefitting from an increase in trip and a drop into $50,000 claiming company to win by five Sept. 6. He made it two straight with a neck victory Sept. 21, but was given little consideration for this step up in class. Up to take an early lead, the Florida bred was briefly headed by Angliana after three quarters of a mile, but regained the advantage soon after and drew clear for the win. "He broke sharp and I let him go on," explained Ramon Dominguez. "I was able to slow him down. [Angliana] came to me like he was going to do something. As soon as he got to my horse, my horse just took off again."

As a three-year-old in 2004, Last Song landed the GII Bonnie Miss S. and finished third in the GI Ashland S., but her season ended with a fourth in the Dream Supreme H. at Churchill Nov. 26. The second choice in her belated return to action, she settled into third as even-money Traci Girl (Quiet American) showed the way. Jerry Bailey guided the bay to the outside in the lane and she responded with a sharp effort. The favorite tired in the final furlong to finish fourth.

She went winless in her next five outings, however, and came into this contest off a fifth to older New York-breds in the Schenectady H. at Belmont Sept. 18. Private World closed from the back of the pack to break her maiden in her Del Mar debut Sept. 5. A 6-1 shot while taking on stakes foes in her second start, the chestnut filly broke from the rail and contested the pace from the inside. Favored Bettarun Fast had a head in front at midstretch, but Private World fought back gallantly to take over in the shadow of the wire and remain unbeaten. "One of the biggest concerns was that I was just three-quarters of a length behind that leader, and with a two-year-old I didn't want...to have her get dirt in her face, so I had to keep the pressure going down the backside," jockey Kent Desormeaux said. "She was able to stay there within herself, but I never knew if I would win until the end."

Le Giare finished runner-up to Ramonti (Ity) in the G2 Premio Parioli (Italian 2000 Guineas) over course and distance Apr. 24 and was not disgraced when sixth in the May 22 G1 Derby Italiano back at this track. After a third in the Listed Gran Premio d'Italia at the San Siro June 18, he had failed to score in three conditions events and was second over 10 furlongs here last time out Oct. 11. Buried in mid-division throughout the early stages, he moved smoothly up the pack in the straight and led at the eighth pole before turning down the challenge of Ambohitra in the drive to the line.
