pole en route to an easy 3 1/4-length victory over Tiger Heart (Scatmandu) in the Grade I Frank J. DeFrancis Memorial Dash S. at Laurel Park. Instructions? Not necessary for Hall of Fame rider Jerry Bailey, whose charge was quickest off the line and left the field in his dust. "I just told him [Jerry Bailey] that he's very good leaving the gate," said Bobby Frankel, who assumed training duties of the gelding earlier this summer. "I left the rest up to him." Cont. p2

CAMPING OUT

The least seasoned member of the quintet which went postward in yesterday's GIII Hollywood Prevue S., Your Tent Or Mine (Forest Camp) belied his inexperience to win the prep for the GI Hollywood Futurity by an impressive 2 1/2 lengths. Trainer Neil Drysdale has a reputation of bringing along his horses slowly and this is no exception. The bay had just one previous start to his credit, a half-length victory in a Del Mar maiden Sept. 4, but missed a prep for this race when an entry-level allowance at the Oak Tree meeting did not fill. The longest shot in the field at 6-1, Your Tent Or Mine tracked from off the pace before moving into contention at the quarter pole. Sent through between rivals by jockey Pat Valenzuela, the colt hit the front at the eighth pole and leveled off nicely while drifting a bit inside the final half furlong. The winner goes next in the GI Hollywood Futurity S. Dec. 17. Click for the brisnet.com chart. Video, sponsored by Taylor Made.

Promise Fulfilled...

Talented enough to run subsequent Canadian Triple Crown winner Wando to a neck in the 2003 Woodstock S. in Canada, I'm The Tiger made a favorable South Florida impression in 2004, finishing a close second to that year's G1 Dubai Golden Shaheen runner-up Alke in Gulfstream allowance company before winning a similar event in his next start. Sidelined off a victory in the Bold Venture H. at Woodbine last July 11, he posted an Oct. 3 allowance success in what would be his final start for trainer Danny Vella. Shelved off that effort, he resurfaced for this stable with a runner-up finish in a July 13 allowance in Canada followed by a second-place effort to Pomeroy in the GII A.G. Vanderbilt H. at Saratoga Aug. 13. Not nominated to the Breeders' Cup, the bay used the Oct. 1 GI Vosburgh S. at Belmont as a springboard to this event, finishing fifth, three lengths behind Taste of Paradise.

Eye of the Tiger...

With Bailey in the saddle for the first time, I'm The Tiger broke alertly and set solid fractions of :22.67 and :45.46 while pursued closest by Hudson H. winner Friendly Island (Crafty Friend). He began to shake loose from that rival once heads were turned for home, opened up three lengths past the eighth pole and easily held favored Tiger Heart, who was briefly in tight past midstretch before coming on again for second. "I had not seen him until he came down from Canada and when I did see him, I knew he was a very nice horse," Frankel added. "He is definitely one of the top five sprinters in the country. I will take him to California to see how he does there."

Sundrop had been off the board in all three prior U.S. starts and had to be vanned back to the barn after a dismal 14th-place effort in the Oct. 29 GI Breeders' Cup F/M Turf, but returned to form here. The bay was a half-length runner-up to Attraction (GB) in the G1 1000 Guineas at Newmarket at three and ended her sophomore campaign with a Listed stakes win at that course in September. She opened 2005 with a victory in the G3 Princess Elizabeth S. at Epsom in May and was a solid second in the G2 Windsor Forest S. in June, but tired to be seventh in the G1 Falmouth S. in July before heading across the Atlantic. Fifth in the Aug. 13 GI Beverly D. S. and in the Oct. 1 GI Flower Bowl Invitational S. prior to her Breeders' Cup bid, the Japanese-bred faced a much softer field here and had them at her mercy. Sundrop settled in sixth through the opening half, moved to challenge as they raced out of the turn and motored to the front in the stretch to win handily. It had been 10 starts and 15 months since Evening Attire last had his picture taken after the 2004 GII Saratoga Breeders' Cup H., but he showed yesterday that he retains some of his old magic, winning for the fifth time in seven starts at the Big A. The venerable gelding had been a non-factor in five appearances this season and came into this off a pair of fourth-place efforts, first in his title defense in the Aug. 21 GII Saratoga BC H., then to Shakespeare in the GII Belmont Breeders' Cup H. over the turf Sept. 11. Off a beat slowly, the grey gelding secured a ground-saving position while never far from West Virginia and Aggadan, who raced in tandem on a slow pace. Still hugging the rail into the stretch, Evening Attire came out three wide and closed determinedly for the win. "[Trainer] Pat [Kelly] told me the horse would run if he took me up close to the pace," said winning jockey Jose Santos. "I knew he was going to win at the quarter pole. He just took off." Cryptograph had hit the board in several graded stakes during his tenure with Donnie K. Von Hemel, finishing second in both the GIII Lone Star Derby and the GIII Lone Star Park H. and running third in the GIII Oklahoma Derby. In his final outing for Von Hemel, the bay ran seventh to Perfect Drift in the GII Washington Park H. at Arlington July 30. After missing by neck in his first start for trainer Malcolm Pierce in a Woodbine allowance Aug. 26, Cryptograph broke through with a victory in the GIII Durham Cup H. over this surface Oct. 15. The favorite settled into stride under Todd Kabel while Bull Ranch (Real Quiet) set a moderate pace. Kabel swung the four-year-old five wide entering the stretch and his mount responded by pulling away in the final furlong. Niigon, last year's Queen's Plate hero, came on to get second. Dance in the Mood is looking for her first win since taking the 2004 G1 Japanese Oaks, but hinted at a return to best form with a third-place finish in the 2000-meter G1 Tenno Sho at Tokyo Oct. 30. Mountain Mambo was dropped into the high-priced claiming ranks after running sixth in a Belmont allowance test June 29 and put together back-to-back victories. The chestnut filly beat $85,000 company at the Spa Aug. 8 and came back three weeks later to get the better of $100,000 claimers. Third after an eventful trip in the Oct. 30 Gaviola S. at Belmont last time out, she was overlooked at double-digit odds here. Mountain Mambo pressed the pace from second and took over after six furlongs. She had five on the field at midstretch, but had to dig down deep as Half Heaven closed late to secure the win. Oonagh Maccool (Ire) (Giant's Causeway), sent off the 3-2 favorite after going two-for-two in Britain, made a bid on the far turn, but tired down the lane to finish sixth.

War Marshall was dropped in for a $35,000 tag Sept. 16, but found no takers after his 14-length victory. Third in an Oct. 5 optional claimer at Belmont, the chestnut led every step in a similar contest Oct. 21 and was favored in this competitive affair. The Joseph Allen homebred assumed his customary spot in front and never relinquished his advantage despite a valiant bid by Tinseltown.

Barbaro romped by 8 1/2 lengths in his career opener at Delaware Oct. 4 and was the second choice in his stakes debut here. The dark bay bounded out of the gate to race in second as longshot Capo dei Capi (Event of the Year) showed the way. Barbaro ranged up on the far turn and the race was over as the homebred drew off with authority. "We thought he was a good horse from day one," said winning trainer Michael Matz. "He's living up to that expectation. I think we have to try him on the dirt at some time. My assistant has told me all along this is one of the best horses he's ever sat on. GOFFS NOVEMBER
SATURDAY - TOP 10 LOTS

DALARA GOES FOR A MILLION Those attending Goffs' November Sale had a chance to buy into royalty yesterday and David Nagle did not pass up the opportunity when going to €1,000,000 for the prized mare Dalara (Ire) (Doyoun {Ire}). Hip 1248 was consigned as part of the limited dispersal of mares from His Highness the Aga Khan's Studs, and the 14-year-old half-sister to Darshaan (GB) and Darara (Ire) predictably sparked a fearsome round of bidding. When the magic seven-figure mark was reached, it was the owner of Barronstown Stud who took home the dam of G1 Coronation Cup and G1 Hong Kong Vase hero Daliapour (Ire) and G3 Queen's Vase winner Dalampour (Ire), who is in foal to Alhaarth (Ire). "She is a queen," Nagle commented. "She was a Group 2 winner herself and has produced a Group 1 winner. Sadler's Wells would be the obvious choice for her, but there is also Oratorio (Ire), who is going to make one hell of a sire." In all, the response to the Aga Khan's draft was nothing less than sensational, being responsible for six of the top seven lots. Hip 1250, the five-year-old Darabela (Ire) (Desert King {Ire}), was the subject of widespread attention, but it was Crispin de Moubray who had the final say. Also from the family of Darshaan, which includes G1 Queen Elizabeth II Cup winner Diaghilev (Ire) and G1 Ranvet S. scorer Darazari (Ire), she is in foal to Xaar (GB). She was knocked down to a representative of Dietrich von Boeticher of Gestut Ammerland fame for €320,000. Breaking the Aga Khan domination was one of Juddmonte's prime offerings, the two-year-old Tilbury (GB) (Peintre Celebre). Selling as hip 1335, she is a half sister to G3 July S. winner Wharf as well as the dams of Chelsea Manor (GB) and two-year-old Linda's Lad (GB), who provided a significant update when annexing the G1 Criterium de Saint-Cloud last week. Bob Lanigan of Tullamaine Castle Stud made the purchase for €220,000. Another esteemed breeder dipping into the Aga Khan waters was Kirsten Rausing, whose representative Julian Lloyd went to €200,000 for hip 1245, the 11-year-old mare Akdariya (Ire) (Shirley Heights {GB}). The granddaughter of G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe heroine Akiyda (GB) is in foal to Darley freshman Refuse to Bend (Ire). "Miss Rausing has always wanted a Shirley Heights mare and is an admirer of the Aga Khan's achievements as a breeder," Lloyd explained. "One of her best families, which contains Alborada (GB), stems from a filly of the Aga Khan's." There is another session still to come, but last year's total aggregate of €7,894,200 has already been eclipsed by over €1 million, and the average is up by a staggering 92 percent with the median also up by 84 percent. The final session begins today at 9:30 a.m. Full results can be found on www.goffsireland.com.

After two handicap successes on turf at Kempton Mar. 26 and Newmarket May 7, he was soundly beaten in two subsequent starts, including the Cambridgeshire H. at the latter venue on his latest outing Oct. 1. Always close up in this contest, he delivered a telling run to grab Boule d'Or in the final strides for a career best.

Krataois was considered talented enough to contest the G1 Poule d'Essai des Poulains (French 2000 Guineas) at Longchamp on only his fourth start in May 2003 and justified the decision when finishing third. After injury intervened, he managed a fourth in the G2 Prix du Muguet at Saint-Cloud last May. He was gelded and had his sights lowered after a disappointing unplaced effort in the G1 Lockinge S. at Newbury. He had won three conditions events this term, scoring at Nantes last time Nov. 3, and handled this rise in class. Krataois closed with a late flourish from rear to overhaul Helike in the final 100 yards.

STARS EMERGE FOR HK CUP TRIALS With the notable exception of Silent Witness (Aus), a cache of local hopefuls for the Dec. 11 Hong Kong International Races head to the post in a pair of domestic Group 2 trials this afternoon at Sha Tin. In the absence of the world's highest-rated turf sprinter, scratched earlier this week with the remnants of a virus, the International Sprint Trial figures to be a more competitive affair, but Able Prince (Aus) (Hurricane Sky {Aus}) rates a solid favorite. The five-year-old enters off back-to-back victories this fall, including a 3/4-length success over Our Jet (NZ) (Jetball {NZ}) in the G3-HK Sha Tin Sprint Trophy H. Oct. 9. The International Mile Trial has drawn Bullish Luck (Royal Academy), second in last year's G1 Hong Kong Cup and the first to defeat Silent Witness in the Champions Mile last May. Also in the field are The Duke (Aus) (Danehill) and Scintillation (Aus) (Danehill), third and fourth, respectively, in last year's G1 Hong Kong Mile.
