A HOST OF CHALLENGERS FOR PLETCHER

Trainer Todd Pletcher, fresh off his record-setting day on Friday (see story ATW p1), has taken two of the last four runnings of the GI Hill 'n' Dale Cigar Mile H. and sends out a trio of runners in this year's event, the final Grade I on the New York calendar. Despite the 11th-

Host Horsephotos

hour scratch of defending champion Lion Tamer, the conditioner is represented by Host (Chi) (Hussonet), the GI Shadwell Turf Mile hero; dual Grade II winner Purge (Pulpit); and Value Plus (Unbridled's Song), runner-up in the 2004 GI Florida Derby. Although the former has displayed his best form on the grass, the chestnut won the G1 Chilean 2000 Guineas by 6 1/4 lengths in 2003. He has every chance to improve on his lone start on the dirt in this country, a third to Funny Cide in last year's nine-furlong GIII Excelsior Breeders' Cup H. over this surface. "We've learned how he wants to run since that race," Pletcher commented. "He made the lead in the Excelsior and he is a much better horse coming from off the pace. A mile is better for him, too." Badge of Silver (Silver Deputy) has won half of his 12 career starts and upwards of $700,000, but there is one glaring omission from his resume--a victory at this highest level. Second in this 12 months ago, the Ken and Sarah Ramsey runner won the GIII Hal's Hope H. and the GII New Orleans H. this past winter, but was defeated by Pollard's Vision in the GIII National Jockey Club H. in April. No better than sixth to Saint Liam in the GI Stephen Foster H. in June, the five-year-old has not raced since, but has trained forwardly for the return. "He's ready," trainer Bobby Frankel told Daily Racing Form. "He might be over-ready. He's breezing very good." Silver Wagon (Wagon Limit) earned a career-best 110 Beyer for his runner-up effort behind Ghostzapper in the GI Met Mile in May and stretches back out off a very troubled fourth in the seven-furlong GIII Sport Page H. on the Breeders' Cup undercard Oct. 29. Richard Dutrow Jr. handles the saddling duties this afternoon for Ralph Ziadie.

Steady Progression...

Trained through the first 10 starts of his career by Pat Byrne, Magna Graduate sandwiched a pair of victories around a second to Greater Good in the GIII Kentucky Cup Juvenile S., but closed the season with a fifth to the latter in this track's GII Kentucky Jockey Club S. Third to High Fly in the Jan. 8 Aventura S. in his sophomore bow, the dark bay took the John Battaglia Memorial S. Mar. 5, but had his Triple Crown dreams derailed when fourth to Flower Alley in the GII Lane's End S. three weeks later. Third in the GII Illinois Derby in April and fourth in the GIII Lone Star Derby the following month, Magna Graduate switched to this barn and posted back-to-back runner-up finishes in the July 2 GII Ohio Derby and in the GIII West Virginia Derby Aug. 14, but has since turned the corner. The 1 1/4-length winner of the GIII Pegasus S. at The Meadowlands Sept. 30, he was most recently a 3/4-length victor of the GIII Discovery H. on Breeders' Cup Day Oct. 29.

Tactical Advantage...

Having shown versatility in the past, Magna Graduate used his tactical speed to attend a soft pace cut out by 98-1 outsider Go Now (Go for Gin) before poking a head in front as the field raced midway on the far turn. About that time, Rafael Bejarano had Suave in high gear and the duo went up to challenge and briefly overhauled Magna Graduate at the quarter pole, but the latter regained the advantage an eighth of a mile from home and simply would not be denied. Second choice Perfect Drift (Dynaformer), coming off his third-place effort in the Breeders' Cup Classic, loomed a brief threat at midstretch, but flattened out late and stayed on for third.

Kept in training this year after being purchased for $3.6 million at the 2004 Keeneland November Sale, Stellar Jayne made a belated, but successful return to action with a 6 3/4-length victory in the July 2 Misty Galore S. at her favored Belmont Park. Forced to miss the Saratoga meeting, the gray posted a front-running victory over Society Selection in the GI Ruffian H. in Elmont Sept. 11, but was coming into this final start of her career off a fourth in the GI Breeders' Cup Distaff up the Cross Island Oct. 29. Bohemian Lady was sent for the lead and cut out swift fractions as Stellar Jayne was under a busy ride trapped four paths off the rail. The odds-on chalk made steady progress after a wide move on the turn, but still had the pacesetter to catch after six furlongs in 1:09.43. But Stellar Jayne would not cave, as she dug in determinedly on the outside and wore down Bohemian Lady for a swan-song victory. "This was a nice way to go out," said Richard Mettee, assistant to trainer Saeed bin Suroor. "We knew with [7-2 second choice Ender's Sister] drawing outside of us we would probably let her go. I really thought Ender's Sister might soften up Bohemian Lady a little more." Mettee indicated that Stellar Jayne is bound for Jonabell Farm on Sunday.

8	Flashy Bull	Holy Bull	McLaughlin	12-1

Congo King defeated next-out maiden winner Flanders Fields in a six-furlong event at Saratoga Aug. 13, but was sidelined off that half-length victory. The bay could hardly have picked a saltier comebacker, but acquitted himself well when fourth to Bluegrass Cat in the GIII Nashua S. over Belmont's one-turn mile Oct. 28. A local three-quarter mile work in 1:12 jumps off the page and he could prove the upsetter. Bluegrass Cat, eighth in his 4 1/2-furlong bow at Churchill in June, bounced back to graduate by 6 1/2 lengths Sept. 24 followed by his Nashua success. Immersed in Gold, a half brother to Stephen Got Even, was third to subsequent GSW Stream Cat in the grassy With Anticipation S. at Saratoga Sept. 3 and was most recently a rallying sixth in the one-mile Sleepy Hollow S. for New York-breds in the Belmont slop Oct. 22.

All carry 119 pounds bar Wonder Lady Anne L, 115.

The only filly in the race with two-turn experience, Love Locket broke her maiden at Monmouth Sept. 2 in her first try at a route. The bay came back to take the one-mile Irish Sonnet S. at Delaware Park 22 days later and made it three in a row in the Blue Hen S. at a mile and a sixteenth Oct. 22. One of three Pletcher trainees in the Demoiselle, she looks to keep the streak alive in her graded bow. New York-bred Cinderella's Dream, also trained by the reigning Eclipse winner, followed an 11-length maiden score that earned her a field-high 97 Beyer figure with a gallant 3/4-length tally in the restricted Maid o' the Mist S. going a mile at Belmont Oct. 22. Better Now finished fourth in the GI Frizette S. in the slop at Belmont Oct. 8, then caught a fast track for the GIII Tempted S. at that track Oct. 30 and cruised to a 3 1/2-length victory.

8	Carse	Wekiva Springs	Romans	20-1

Private Vow capped a three-race winning streak with a nine-length triumph in the Sept. 17 GII Futurity S. at Belmont. A 10-1 chance in the Oct. 29 GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile, he had a rein snap on the backstretch and finished last. He has been training sharply since that experience. Catcominatcha followed a second in the Oct. 8 GI Breeders' Futurity with a neck tally over High Cotton in the Nov. 5 GIII Iroquois S. going a mile over this track. Carse broke his maiden over this track and trip in his latest start Nov. 11.

Undefeated French Park broke her maiden by 12 1/4 lengths as a 12-1 shot at Keeneland Oct. 20. Sent off the 7-10 favorite in her next outing, the Nov. 5 GIII Pocahontas S. going a flat mile at this track, she lived up to the odds with a 1 3/4-length score. Beau Dare earned her first victory on the grass at Arlington Park in August, then proved she could handle the synthetic surface at Turfway with a 6 1/4-length score in the Sept. 17 Kentucky Cup Juvenile Fillies S. Back on the grass for her latest, the bay held a daylight lead early, but was caught in the stretch and finished second in the Oct. 27 Jessamine S. at Keeneland. The winner, J'Ray, came back to take the Nov. 19 Selima S. on the turf at Laurel. She Says It Best has won four of her seven career starts, including the Oct. 7 GII Alcibiades S. at Keeneland, but was most recently ninth in the Oct. 29 GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies.

SADLER'S WELLS FILLY TOPS TATTS FRIDAY

The only Sadler's Wells catalogued topped a furious day's trading at Tattersalls' December Foal Sale in Newmarket yesterday when selling for 470,000gns to Demi O'Byrne on behalf of the Coolmore team. The filly--a full sister in blood to multiple Group 1 winner Falbrav (Ire) (Fairy King)--was consigned from Luca and Sara CUMANI's Fittocks Stud for breeder Luciano Salice. Agent Charlie Gordon-Watson was underbidder. "She'll go back to Ireland and has been bought to race," said O'Byrne. "She was a lovely filly and we had to have her. Trade seems very strong but she was really the one I was interested in today." While the CUMANI bid farewell to one blue-blooded foal, another will be heading their way. A Galileo (Ire) colt out of Vanishing River (Southern Halo), offered by Laurel Dean from Paddy Kelly's Ballybin Stud, was purchased for 300,000gns by Paul Makin, owner of this year's G1 Queen Elizabeth II S. winner Starcraft (NZ). Luca CUMANI will eventually train the colt and Makin, who purchased the youngster through agent Grant Pritchard-Gordon's Badgers Bloodstock, said, "Luca won the Derby in 1988, 1998 and I hope this horse is going to be his 2008 winner. I haven't spoken to Luca and Sara, but I hope he'll go to their stud to grow and he may not run much until he's a three-year-old. Mr. Pritchard-Gordon thought he was the nicest horse in the sale and that will do for me." G1 July Cup winner Oasis Dream (GB) (Green Desert) was the first-season sire on everyone's shopping list. Paul Shanahan paid 240,000gns for a colt by the sire to pinhook, while John Ferguson spent the same amount to acquire another of the sire's offering for Sheikh Mohammed. The Foal Sale concludes today with a final session beginning at 9:30 a.m.

Hip 1048 Tattersalls

TATTERSALLS FOALS--SATURDAY

Hip 1279, f, Rock of Gibraltar (Ire)--Sniffle (Ire), by Shernazar (Ire)

Consigned by River Downs Stud

This March foal's half sister was the smart stakes winner Snippets and the family includes the G1 Prix Vermeille scorer Pearly Shells (GB), GI Hollywood Turf H. hero Frenchpark (GB) and this year's G1 Moyglare Stud S. runner-up Ugo Fire (Ire).

Hip 1433, c, Royal Applause (GB)--Jessica's Dream (Ire), by Desert Style (Ire)

Consigned by Crimbourne Stud

This colt has speed running through his veins, being out of the dual group scorer Jessica's Dream from the family of Hot Tin Roof (Ire) and Majors Cast (Ire).

Hip 1439, f, Dalakhani (Ire)--Delilah (Ire), by Bluebird

Consigned by Swettenham Stud

From the first crop of Dalakhani, this filly is out of the multiple group winner Delilah from a family that includes King's Drama (Ire) and this year's smart French juveniles New Girlfriend (Ire) and Headache (Fr).

Hip 1454, c, Danehill Dancer (Ire)--Mala Mala (Ire), by Brief Truce

Consigned by Churchtown House Stud

Danehill Dancer has taken off at the sales this fall and this March foal is out of the G1 Cheveley Park S. and G1 Moyglare Stud S. place-getter Mala Mala, who is a half to the G1 Irish 1000 Guineas heroine Tarascon (Ire) and smart group winner Mister Monet (Ire).

Hip 1469, c, Singspiel (Ire)--Salde (Ger), by Alkalde (Ger)

Consigned by Trickle-down Stud

This colt hails from a solid German family and is a close relative of the dual group scorer Saldenschwinge (Ger) and a half to the recent G3 Wurttemberg Trophy winner Saldentigerin (Ger).

Hip 1492, f, Dubai Destination--Sweet Revival (GB), by Claude Monet

Consigned by Brookfield Stud, agent

Dubai Destination's first progeny have made their expected bright start at the foal sales and this half sister to the top-class performer Sweet Return (GB) is one of the picks of this week's offerings.

FANTASTIC LIGHT COLT TOPS THURSDAY

Trading stepped up a gear as the better lots appeared on day two of Tattersalls' December Foal Sale in Newmarket Thursday with John Ferguson buying three of the four six-figure lots on behalf of Sheikh Mohammed. Heading his purchases was a 120,000gns Fantastic Light colt out of Karsiyaka (Ire) (Kahyasi) consigned from Richard and Sally Aston's Goldford Stud, which bred the February foal in partnership with Peter Clinton. "He'll go to our place in Ireland now and has been bought as a long-term racing prospect," said Ferguson. Ferguson also paid 105,000gns for both a full brother to German Group 1 winner Ransom O'War (Red Ransom) and the same sum for a first-crop Dubai Destination colt out of Lloc (GB) (Absalom {GB}) consigned for John Turner by Trickle-down Stud. Paul McCartan, manager of Denis Brosnan's Croom House Stud in Limerick, purchased the other six-figure lot when going to 105,000gns for a Medicean (GB) colt who had been bought 'in utero' for just 35,000gns at last year's December Sale. Croom House will re consign the colt next year.

Lot 927 Tattersalls

FOOTSTEPSINTHESAND RE-ROUTED TO IRELAND

Footstepsinthesand (GB) (Giant's Causeway--Glatissant {GB}, by Rainbow Quest), originally scheduled to take up stud duties at Ashford Stud in Kentucky, will instead stand the 2006 breeding season at Coolmore Stud in Ireland. "A legion of breeders approached me and the team at the sales expressing their disappointment that Footstepsinthesand was going to America, so we've decided to re-route him to Ireland," explained Coolmore's Christy Grassick. "He was an extremely talented racehorse, he's by the hottest young sire in the world and he's a great-looking individual from a quality family, so I have no doubt that he'll prove to be a very successful stallion." The three-year-old, unbeaten winner of the English 2000 Guineas, began his stud career at Coolmore Australia in the Hunter Valley this past summer. Footstepsinthesand will stand for €25,000.

GARY STEVENS JOINS TVG Hall of Fame jockey Gary Stevens, who officially announced his retirement yesterday, will join TVG Network in January as a race analyst. Stevens, 42, has ridden more than 5,000 winners and earned more than $221 million in purses during his 26-year career. He will go postward for the last time this afternoon, riding Sabatini in the GI Golden Rod S. and Louve Royale (Ire) in the 12th and final race at Churchill Downs. "There is a piece of my heart that would love to continue riding, but my body can't take it anymore," said Stevens during a press conference in Louisville yesterday. "Between weight concerns and the limited number of mounts I am riding, the reward is just not there anymore. The injuries I have sustained over the years have caught up with me." Stevens will begin his new career after the first of the year. "Gary's main role will be to give our viewers the perspective of a Hall of Fame jockey, but we're not going to limit him to the analyst's chair," said Tony Allevato, TVG senior vice president and executive producer. "We'll look for opportunities to utilize him in a variety of roles and on special programming." Added Stevens, "I've enjoyed an incredible riding career and I'm very blessed to walk away from a demanding sport in one piece. It is time to move on to the next chapter in my life."

PLETCHER SETS EARNINGS MARK Trainer Todd Pletcher broke the North American single-season earnings record yesterday when Anstu Stable's Spin Factor won the second race at Aqueduct. Pletcher trailed the record set by trainer Bobby Frankel by just under $30,000 following Thursday's racing, but his charge Acadiano earned $9,000 when winning the opening race at Calder Race Course yesterday, and Spin Factor added $24,600 for his victory in New York to put Pletcher over the top. "It's been a great year; everything's clicked," Pletcher explained. "We did it without any bonuses, without any Dubai. We won a lot of good races along the way with the Travers [Flower Alley] and the Blue Grass [Bandini]." The 38-year-old trainer admitted the record has been in the back of his mind. "I kind of thought about it a couple of months ago, but I thought we might have to win a Breeders' Cup race or two to make it happen," he said. While winless on Championship Day, Pletcher saddled Ashado to a third in the GI Breeders' Cup Distaff and Flower Alley to a runner-up finish in the GI Breeders' Cup Classic. "[It's] like winning one or two other ones," he added.

Jockeys Injured in Spill:

Jockeys Channing Hill and Pablo Morales were taken to Jamaica Hospital yesterday afternoon after they were involved in a three-horse spill in the third race at Aqueduct. Journeyman jockey C. C. Lopez opted to take off the rest of his mounts on the program and was treated by his personal doctor for injuries to his ribs and left thumb. Lopez mount's, Happy Face, suffered a broken ankle and had to be euthanized. Pavlina, ridden by Morales, and Allen Blessing, ridden by Hill, were uninjured.

ELUSIVE AIR (f, 2, Elusive Quality--Flylightly, by Capote), a $400,000 KEESEP yearling, rallied from far back for the runner-up spot in her Oct. 22 career bow and was bet down to 3-5 here. Never too far from the lead, the dark bay hit the front in the stretch and pulled away to win by two lengths over Back Door Girl (Charismatic). Lifetime Record: 2-1-1-0, $25,800.

Evensong flopped when down the field in the May 8 G2 Henkel-Rennen (German 1000 Guineas) at Dusseldorf. It took her time to find her feet in France before she rattled up a brace of wins in conditions company at Lyon-Parilly Sept. 23 and Toulouse last time Oct. 26. Settled in mid-division early, she was taken over to the far side at the top of the straight and grabbed the rail advantage soon after. Asserting steadily inside the final quarter, she was driven out to hold Louve des Reves in the closing stages.

SHADWELL STALLIONS ON PARADE

Shadwell Estate Company Ltd. stallions Haafhd (GB), Nayef, Sakhee, Act One (GB), Storming Home (GB) and Mujahid will be on parade at noon at Beech House Stud, Newmarket Nov. 29. All interested in seeing the stallions are welcome.

PASSING GLANCE TO PITCHALL FARM

Passing Glance (GB) (Polar Falcon--Spurned, by Robellino), who spent his first season at the National Stud in Newmarket, is relocating to Pitchall Farm in Warwickshire. "It is important to remember that the National Stud is exactly that, and the opportunity for mare owners in our part of the country to have convenient access to this superb stallion, who represents a proven and successful bloodline, is very exciting for us," said Pitchall Farm owner David Holmes. Germany's 2003 highweight older horse from 7-9 1/2 furlongs, Passing Glance won the 2003 G2 Oettingen-Rennen and the 2004 G3 Diomed S.

PARKER JOINS NATIONAL STUD BOARD

Sir Eric Parker has been appointed to the Board of the National Stud as a non-executive director. Parker was chief executive and deputy chairman of Trafalgar House Group until his retirement in 1993. Currently a member of the Tote Board and ROA Council, he has also served on the boards of the BHB and HBLB. He is the owner of Crimbourne Stud in West Sussex.

★ IRELAND ★

HOGAN JOINS GOFFS

Bloodstock agent Gerry Hogan will join the bloodstock team at Goffs in January. The former jockey will be responsible for liaising with vendors in Munster and will be involved in attracting buyers from the UK to Goffs. Goffs has also added Niamh O'Hehir to its marketing and public relations division.

★ ITALY ★

VARGIU SIGNS FOR BLUEBERRY

Jockey Dario Vargiu has joined forces with the Milan-based Scuderia Blueberry, whose horses are trained by Bruno Grizzetti, for the 2006 season. Vargiu will replace former champion jockey Mirco Demuro, who has signed a new contract with the Rome-based Scuderia la Nuova Sbarra for next year. He will ride predominantly for Grizzetti, who has also announced that Pat Valenzuela will take a few rides for him in Italy next season.

VITTADINI TO TRAIN

Top Italian owner and breeder Franca Vittadini, whose colors were made famous by the exploits of Grundy (Ire) in the 1970s, has decided to take up the training of a handful of horses next season. Vittadini's horses have been spread among Pascal Bary in France and Mill Borromeo and Bruno Grizzetti in her native country. The owner is currently assisting Luciano d'Auria at his private training center near Milan and is looking to confirm her licence after taking a Unire Area Galoppo course.

DAYANO REINSTALLED

Gestut Fahrhof's Dayano (Ger) (Lomitas {GB}), who was disqualified on a technicality from second place in last year's G1 Derby Italiano, has been reinstated after a successful appeal on Wednesday. The colt was demoted because it was believed that he had spent more than 30 consecutive days in Italy before the Rome Classic last May. That length of stay is not permitted without the transfer to a licensed Italian trainer. However, the Unire panel ruled that Dayano was not in violation. It is expected that the same day's G2 Premio Carlo d'Alessio winner Simonas (Ire) (Sternkonig {Ire}), who was disqualified under the same grounds, will also be restored after a separate appeal.

FUSAICHI PEGASUS COLT LIGHTS UP GOLD

COAST An unraced two-year-old son of Kentucky Derby winner Fusaichi Pegasus attracted a sale-topping final bid of A$220,000 at Wednesday's Magic Millions November Monthly Sale on the Gold Coast. The juvenile, a half brother to Golden Slipper winner Ha Ha (Aus) (Danehill), is out of Very Droll (Aus) (Crown Jester {Aus}) and was consigned by Queensland-based Wadham Park. Local buyer Bill Murray made the winning bid. A total of 161 horses were sold Wednesday for a gross of A$1,205,550 and an average of A$7,488. "The sale proved a great success," Magic Millions Managing Director David Chester said. "There was some great buying to be had and we are especially pleased with the clearance rate of over 80 percent."

DIVA JOINS SPORT HALL OF FAME Triple Melbourne Cup winner Makybe Diva (GB) (Desert King {Ire}) became the inaugural winner of the Sport Australia Hall of Fame's new Spirit of Sport Award Thursday. The award is intended to acknowledge "an extraordinary sporting achievement that captures the heart of the nation and which is destined to become part of Australian sporting history," according to Sport Australia Hall of Fame Chairman John Bertrand. Trainer Lee Freedman, who accepted the honor with owner Tony Santic, joked the award would be nailed to Makybe Diva's stall door at Rye.

PERFECT PROMISE TOPS INGLIS SALE Offerings from the first draft of the dispersal of the Written Bloodstock Syndicate dominated yesterday's William Inglis Christmas Thoroughbred Sale, with the Group 1-winning mare Perfect Promise (SAf) (Caesour) leading the way with a price tag of A$725,000. Victorian-based Ultra Thoroughbreds made the final bid on the six-year-old winner of the G1 Kenilworth Cape Fillies Guineas. Inglis sold 144 horses yesterday for A$3,046,436. Just four horses were passed in. "We are exceptionally pleased with the results of this sale, and we believe that this indicates an overall strength in the Australian bloodstock market right now," said Inglis Managing Director Reg Inglis. "We were confident that buyers would recognize the merit of the international pedigrees offered particularly as part of the Written Bloodstock dispersal and our confidence was not misplaced."
