Snowdrops (GB) (Gulch) rallied up the center of the course to defeat a strong field in the GIII My Charmer H. at Calder yesterday afternoon. The grey, second in this race last year, is nearing the end of her racing career. "I'll be talking to the owner [G. Howard Sping], but she may run one more time in the [GIII] Bayou [Breeders' Cup] H. at Louisiana Downs before going back to England to be bred next year," said winning trainer Christophe Clement. Snowdrops earned her first win of the year in the GIII Suwanee River H. at Gulfstream Feb. 12. She added Monmouth's Politely S. to her trophy case June 12 and came into this one off a close third in the Navajo Princess S. at the Meadowlands Sept. 30. Cont. p2

BEYER BEWARE

Proving that the 111 Beyer figure he earned when winning the Nov. 6 Cal Cup Starter Sprint H. was no fluke, Bordonaro (Memo {Chi}) led from gate to wire to win the GIII Vernon O. Underwood S. at Hollywood yesterday. The chestnut went on a tear after beating $32,000 maiden claimers in his second start at Santa Anita Apr. 1, capping a four-race winning streak with a 3/4-length tally in an optional claimer on the turf at Del Mar Aug. 24. He finished fourth in the Sept. 7 Pirate's Bounty H., but bounced back after a two-month break to win on Cal Cup Day. The second choice against three rivals in his graded bow, he clicked off a half in :43.96 and just kept going for a handy score. "He's quick; a pretty easy horse to ride," said winning pessenger Pat Valenzuela.

Snowdrops, away in good order, raced along the hedge near the back of the pack in the early stages, but was eased out a couple of paths by jockey Brice Blanc on the backstretch to avoid traffic problems. The five-year-old angled out to the center of the course in the stretch and outfinished La Reina (A.P. Indy) for the win. Odds-on Sand Springs (Dynaformer), typically a front runner, broke a step slowly and was rank behind horses on her way to a fourth-place finish. "I was quite certain Sand Springs would be in front," Clement commented, "but, as it turned out, we got lucky with a good trip and [Snowdrops] was best today." Clement scratched his other entrant Spotlight (GB) (Dr Fong). "She's fine, but I plan on running her in the [GII] La Prevoyante H. [12f] here in two weeks," the conditioner added.

Silver Tree, who had been knocking heads with some of the best in his division, prevailed against slightly easier competition. The Peter Vegso homebred hadn't had his picture taken since winning the 2004 GII Bernard Baruch H. last July, and ran a close second to Host (Chi) in last year's Tropical Turf. After missing by a half-length to Artie Schiller in this year's Bernard Baruch, the chestnut was the runner-up to Leroidesanimaux (Brz) in the GII Fourstardave H. at Saratoga Aug. 27. He was eighth, beaten 4 1/2 lengths, in the GII Kelso BC H. Oct. 2 at Belmont, and came into this one off a second in the Bonnie Heath Turf Classic over course and distance Nov. 12. Never too far from the front, Silver Tree waited for room in the stretch and finished up willingly to get the win. "He's run against a lot of tough horses and ended up second," said winning trainer Bill Mott. "He's eligible for the Sunshine Millions [at Gulfstream Jan. 28], so we'll be looking at that."

Florida-bred promptly won a main-track optional claimer for her new connections Aug. 27 before running fifth on the grass Sept. 10. Third in a Woodbine optional claimer on the dirt Oct. 5, the dark bay took a similar contest Oct. 23, but wasn't given much of a shot here. Miss Concerto sat in fourth through fractions of :22.67 and :44.87 before making her move. She collared Colonial Surprise in the final furlong and pulled away late. Winning owner Lou Tucci credited trainer Sid Attard for this good claim. "Time and time again, we claim horses with Sid that don't win the race we claim them from and what does he do? He improves them," Tucci explained. "Nobody does it better."

Third to Zenno Rob Roy (Jpn) in last year's G1 Japan Cup and fifth to the Japanese Horse of the Year in the Arima Kinen in December, Delta Blues was sidelined with a leg problem thereafter and had just one start to his credit this year, a fifth in the 2500-meter Copa Republica Argentina Nov. 6. Settled in centerfield behind a pace which was slow to develop, the four-year-old colt swept into contention on the turn, surged to the front with 100 meters to run and held off a late bid by Er Nova, ridden by Kent Desormeaux. The winner's dam was purchased by Katsumi Yoshida for $190,000 out of the 1997 Keeneland January sale in foal to Red Ransom. With the victory, Delta Blues took his career earnings to over $3.6 million.

☆ SALES NEWS ☆

DEAUVILLE OFF TO FAST START After the fireworks of Tattersalls' December Sales, Agence Francaise's equivalent continued in a similar vein at Deauville yesterday. Crispin de Moubray secured the stakes-winning Lady Vettori (GB) (Vettori {Ire}) on behalf of Dietrich von Boetticher's Gestut Ammerland for a session high €500,000. Offered by Haras du Berlais as hip 114, the eight-year-old's residual value was enhanced by a Montjeu (Ire) cover. "She was a very good race filly, winning her first five starts as a juvenile, including the [G3] Prix du Calvados, and she was also third in the [G1] Prix Marcel Boussac," de Moubray commented. "She's a lovely looking young mare whose first foal is a winner. Mr. von Boetticher wants to upgrade the quality of his broodmare band and this is the right kind of mare to buy. She is in foal to a top stallion, but I don't know who she will go to next, probably something from the Danzig line." Russian Muse (Fr) (Machiavellian), a four-year-old stakes-placed mare, realized the second-highest price of the day when knocked down to Emerald Bloodstock for €140,000. Consigned by Haras de Fresnay-le-Buffard as hip 209, she was sold in foal to Danehill Dancer (Ire). Selling continues at 10 a.m. today, and there are several highlights. Heading them is the second draft from His Highness the Aga Khan, including hip 345, the six-year-old mare Kalana (Fr) (Rainbow Quest). From the family of Kahyasi (Ire), she is carrying a foal by Daylami (Ire).

Lilah won three in a row for owner Hobeau Farm and trainer Allen Jerkens at Gulfstream Park last winter, capping the streak with a three-length victory in the GIII Hurricane Bertie H. in March. The dark bay finished a disappointing ninth in the May 14 GII Genuine Risk H., however, and was dropped in for a $100,000 tag. Claimed after posting a 3 1/2-length tally at Belmont June 29, she was sixth in an optional claimer at Saratoga in August in her one start for new trainer Bruce Levine, then found herself back with "The Chief." Lilah was off the board in both the Sept. 17 GIII Floral Park H. and the Oct. 30 GII First Flight H., but improved to be third in her latest, the Nov. 13 House Party S. on the main track at Aqueduct. Looking to turn the tables on House Party heroine Bank Audit this time, she bided her time in midpack to the quarter pole, rolled to the front in the stretch and was tested by rank outsider Secret Forest in the final yards to earn a hard-fought decision.

She could only manage a second-place finish as the 4-5 chalk in a $35,000 optional claimer at the Jersey Shore Sept. 24, but returned to finish a good second at this level at the Big A last out Nov. 10. Backed confidently at even money with apprentice Channing Hill in the irons, she pressed the early leader through :22 1/5 and :46 1/5 fractions and blew 'em away in the stretch to win by 4 3/4 lengths. Navaeh (Honor Grades), a 20-1 outsider, rallied to finish second. Genuine True is a half to Shotgun Fire (Out of Place), GSP, $145,057; and Shotgun Favorite (Eltish), MSW & GSP, $202,126. What a Pleasure S. cont.

Off the board in a maiden race at Saratoga in August and the NATC Futurity at Monmouth Park in September, Saint Augustus turned it around in his two-turn debut at the Meadowlands Oct. 19. The chestnut colt scored by 8 1/2 lengths in that maiden event and came back to be third in the Nov. 5 Storm Cat S. going a mile and a sixteenth at the Big M. Overlooked by the Calder crowd despite his affinity for a route, he rated off the early fractions, hit his best stride at the top of the lane and motored past Big Lover to win going away. "We were disappointed in this horse's last race," said Anthony Sciametta, assistant to trainer Todd Pletcher. "He just got too keyed up in the post parade and early in the race, and didn't finish. He's settled down and trained great since we got [to Florida]."

Stolen Prayer was shipped to Belmont Park after a 15-length debut score at Calder in April, but found the New York company just a little too tough, returning to Florida after finishing fifth in the June 9 Fashion S. Given time off to recover from bucked shins, she came back to post a front-running allowance score Sept. 24. The chestnut filly was stretched out to a mile and a sixteenth for the Oct. 15 My Dear Girl S. and ran a respectable second, then dropped back to seven panels for the Joe O'Farrell Juvenile Fillies S. and was the runner-up again. Back at a route here, she pressed a slow pace, took over after six furlongs in 1:14.90 and held favored Capozzene at bay to the wire. "Of all the races [named for horses], this is naturally the one I wanted to win the most," said trainer Eddie Plesa Jr., who trained ill-fated GI Acorn S. winner Three Ring. Cherokee's Boy came one step closer to becoming a millionaire with a decisive victory here. The Gill Salvator Mile H. winner earned a 108 Beyer Speed Figure in a Charles Town allowance score last out Nov. 26 and entered the starting gate in this one as the heavy favorite. Right with the leaders from the get-go, the five-year-old gained command on the far turn and came home a much-the-best winner. "Sure we'd love to reach the million-dollar mark now, but he's earned [a] break," said co-owner Dave Picarello. "We are such small owners and to have a horse like this is a dream come true. Maybe he isn't going against the top level horses each race, but pretty close and he is always right there."

The pacesetter Champ Safi (Louis Quatorze) stayed on for second. Wicked B. Havior (Unbridled's Song), who sold for $1.5 million at FTSAUG as a yearling, had to settle for fourth as the 8-5 favorite. TDN ☆ Star of the Week ☆

Brought to you by  FASIG-TIPTON

GARY STEVENS

Horsephotos

This week's accomplishment:

After 26 years in the saddle, the Hall of Fame rider retired last week with over 5,000 wins to his credit and earnings in excess of $221 million. Stevens' distinguished career included three Kentucky Derby wins (Winning Colors, 1989; Thunder Gulch, '95; Silver Charm, '97), eight Breeders' Cup victories and a role as George Woolf in the hit movie Seabiscuit.

Birthdate: March 6, 1963

Birthplace: Caldwell, ID Current Residence: Louisville, KY

First thing you did to celebrate your retirement? Eat!

We had a party that night at our house and I was staring at the shrimp. I said to my buddy Mark Guidry, 'Man, I really want to eat.' And he said 'You can now.' It was so second nature that I couldn't eat a lot. I started running around telling my wife and parents, 'I can eat!' It sounds silly to most, but it's true.

Point Given, Candy Ride and Rock Hard Ten are entered in a hypothetical race. Who do you ride? This question I refuse to answer. That is the agent's job to pick my horse, so I would tell my agent to pick for me for sure on this one.

If you had the opportunity, would you bungee jump? No!!

Have you ever sung karaoke in a bar in front of people? Yes, too many times to count. And I am usually singing 'Born to be Wild.'

What's playing in your CD player right now? Jackson Brown. The song I keep playing is 'The Load Out.' (lyrics) It is so similar to the racing industry.

Where and how did you propose to your wife Angie? She was sick on the couch at our house...As soon as I got down on one knee the doorbell rang. It was Mike Smith and his friend. They came in and we played pool, sat at my bar, and Mike asked her how she liked the ring. She said 'I haven't seen it yet.' So they left, I got down on my knee again, and the doorbell rang again. It was my older kids. They asked if she liked the ring, and she was like 'I haven't seen it yet, but everyone keeps telling me it looks great!' So then they left and I asked her.

CONGRATULATIONS!

from Fasig-Tipton's own Star of the Week FRENCH PARK, a $75,000 Fasig-Tipton Kentucky July yearling. The undefeated 2yo filly won the GII Golden Rod S. at Churchill Downs 11/26 and has earned $243,761 to date.

Lonnie Meche Suspended for Six Months:

Jockey Lonnie Meche has been suspended for a minimum of six months by Sam Houston Race Park stewards after he tested positive for amphetamines, according to Daily Racing Form. The 32-year-old rider had previously been suspended in April for 45 days after another positive for amphetamines, and was subject to random testing in compliance with that penalty. Meche's twin brother Donnie, also a jockey, was suspended in March for seven months by Oaklawn Park stewards for failing to submit to a drug test and attempting to bribe a track security official.

Starlet Not a 'Fit' For Juvenile Fillies Runner-Up:

Wild Fit (Wild Wonder), who was purchased for $3 million by John Magnier, Derrick Smith and Michael Tabor at the Fasig-Tipton November Sale, will not start in the Dec. 18 GI Hollywood Starlet S., according to Daily Racing Form. Instead, the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies S. runner-up will point for the Mar. 12 GI Santa Anita Oaks. "We sent her to the farm for a month," trainer Patrick Biancone told the publication. "The goal is the for the big races next year and the first goal is the Santa Anita Oaks." Previously trained by Jeff Mullins, the gray filly notched the GI Del Mar Debutante S. and placed second in the GI Oak Leaf S. prior to her troubled run in the Breeders' Cup.

Peace Chant attracted a final bid of $900,000 as a KEESOP yearling and trained for his debut like a horse with a future. The dark bay prepped for his first start with a six-furlong move in 1:12 1/5 Nov. 18, came back five days later to go three-eighths in :35 3/5 and had his final trial five days after that, cruising through five furlongs in 1:01 flat. Sent off the lukewarm 4-1 choice, he pressed the pace, put a head in front in the stretch, then drew away to win by a handy 3 1/4 lengths. Diamond Sucker (Siphon {Brz}) completed the exacta. TEEMING (f, 4, Storm Cat--Better Than Honour {GSW & MGISP, $250,920}, by Deputy Minister), a $1.5-million KEENOV weanling, finished eighth in her first start at Woodbine Apr. 24, but has been unbeatable since. The bay came back to break her maiden by 11 lengths May 19 and added a front-running allowance score going two turns June 5. Off at 2-1 to continue her winning ways in her first appearance in the U.S., she settled in third for a half, moved to the front in the stretch and opened up a two-length advantage at the wire. Lifetime Record: 4-3-0-0, $67,424.

HIGH YIELD TO FRANCE Sophomore sire High Yield (Storm Cat--Scoop the Gold, by Forty Niner) will head to Haras de la Haie Neuve in France for the 2006 breeding season. A stud fee has not yet been announced. The multiple Grade I winner, who began his stud career at Ashford Stud in Kentucky, had previously been scheduled to stand the upcoming season at Hill 'n' Dale Farm for $7,500. High Yield's top performer from his first crop is the multiple stakes winning three-year-old filly Amazing Buy.

MAJORS CAST MISSES FLIGHT Susan Roy's Majors Cast (Ire) (Victory Note) failed to board his flight which was to carry him to the Far East for next Sunday's G1 Hong Kong Mile at Sha Tin. The four-year-old was scheduled to be aboard the same plane which brought Rakti (GB) (Polish Precedent) and Benbaun (Ire) (Stravinsky), but trainer Jeremy Nosedo erred on the side of caution when Majors Cast pulled up a bit lame following a recent workout. "Jeremy told us that it wasn't the sort of lameness he would withdraw a horse over if it was 10 days out from a race at home, but with the travel involved, he felt it was the best approach not to put him on the plane," Mark Player, the manager of international racing for the Hong Kong Jockey Club told South China Morning Post. He added that Nosedo was to monitor the horse and that the HKJC was tentatively arranging a flight for the colt Sunday or Monday. Third, beaten two lengths to Starcraft (NZ) in the G1 Prix du Moulin Sept. 4, the bay was most recently fifth by two lengths in the G1 NetJets Breeders' Cup Mile Oct. 29.

SAMANDO ADDED TO VASE FIELD Trainer Francois Doumen is no stranger to the International meeting, having saddled Jim and Tonic (Fr) to victory in the 1998 Hong Kong Bowl (now Hong Kong Mile) and the following year's Hong Kong Cup. The conditioner will be represented at this year's event after it was announced yesterday that Samando (Fr) (Hernando {Fr}) has been added to the field for next Sunday's G1 Hong Kong Vase. Successful in the G3 Prix Exbury this past March, the five-year-old mare is winless in her last six starts, despite some positive efforts, including close fourth-place finishes to Warrsan (Ire) (Caerleon) and Westerner (GB) (Danehill) in the G1 Grosser Preis von Baden and to Alcazar (Ire) in the G1 Prix Royal Oak in her most recent start Oct. 23.
