VASE FOR OUIJA BOARD

Lord Derby's Ouija Board (GB) (Cape Cross {Ire}) will run in next Sunday's G1 Cathay Pacific Hong Kong Vase at Sha Tin, conditioner Ed Dunlop confirmed yesterday. The four-year-old, who was fifth behind Alkaased in the Nov. 27 G1 Japan Cup in Tokyo, will take in the mile-and-a-half contest rather than the Cup over a 1 1/4 miles.

Ouija Board

Horsephotos

"Ouija Board had been 75 percent certain to run in the Vase, but now Alkaased doesn't go, that is the race we'll go for," Dunlop said. "Ouija Board lost very little weight as a result of her good run in Japan and has retained her form well. I think she would have finished closer if she hadn't got a little bump inside the final furlong. On reflection it is possible she went too soon. Kieren [Fallon] felt he kicked on too early, but I am not complaining with her effort in finishing fifth." Dunlop revealed that he feared the surface would be too firm for the filly in Tokyo. "I had no idea how she would stand up to it after her trouble with a fractured splint and then a quarter crack this year, but she came out of it with no problem," he said. "She is such a good mover. She will prefer the ground at Sha Tin, which will be more forgiving. She takes her travelling around the world so well, she just eats and sleeps, so she's taking the simple hop from Japan to Hong Kong in her stride."

AGA KHAN MARES DOMINATE DEAUVILLE

As in the past fortnight at Kildare and Newmarket, it was His Highness the Aga Khan's offerings that once again lit up the market, with Suprina Bloodstock snapping up the session topper Darasa (Fr) (Barathea {Ire}) at the Deauville December Mixed Sale yesterday. Consigned as hip 286, the five-year-old mare is in foal to G1 Breeders' Cup Mile winner Domedriver (Ire) and was knocked down to Patricia Boutin's agency for €160,000. Later in the afternoon, Gilles Forien's FIPS stepped in to secure hip 330, the four-year-old Haleema (Ire) (College Chapel {GB}). The half sister to the stakes-placed Halawanda (Ire) is carrying a foal by Barathea (Ire) and was purchased for €130,000. Carlos Laffon-Parias also bought two from the draft, headed by hip 349, Keraka (Storm Bird). The 14-year-old, from the family of Kalanisi (Ire), has produced two stakes performers in Kermiyana (Ire) and Keramani (Fr) and was knocked down for €80,000. Laffon-Parias added Kentucky Kaper (The Prime Minister) later for €60,000. Consigned as hip 452, the 11-year-old graded scorer is in foal to Linamix (Fr). Despite the average being down on the equivalent session in 2004, the aggregate figure stayed up by over three percent due to the buoyant first day's trade. Tomorrow's final session includes yearlings and starts at 10 a.m. Full results can be found on www.deauville-sales.com.

JAPANESE FINISH 1-2 IN SUPER JOCK SERIES

Japanese jockey Yasunari Iwata picked up 41 points to win the 19th World Super Jockey Series, held Saturday at Hanshin Racecourse. Iwata won the finale in the four-race series, the Golden Boots Trophy, aboard 9-5 Osumi Grass One (Jpn) to beat out Norihiro Yokoyama by a single point. Iwata was also second in the Golden Whip Trophy, but finished off the board in the other two events. Yokoyama captured the Golden Saddle Trophy with 7-2 Nishino Due (Jpn) and was third in the Golden Spur Trophy. Irishman Michael Kinane finished third with 39 points after winning the Golden Spur with 9-5 Super Chance (Jpn), while U.S. representative Rafael Bejarano was fourth with 36 points. Australia's Darren Beadman posted the upset with 14-1 Lord Majesty (Jpn) in the Golden Whip Trophy and ended up fifth with 33 points. Ireland's Kieren Fallon and France's Stephane Pasquier tied for ninth. Also carrying the flag for the U.S., Edgar Prado accumulated 20 points to finish 12th in the 14-rider field.

‘OUT’ IS IN AT FASIG-TIPTON DECEMBER The seven-year-old mare Your Out (Allen’s Prospect) was one of two mares to bring six figures at yesterday’s opening session of the Fasig-Tipton Midlantic December Mixed Sale in Timonium, Maryland, topping the day on John T. Crane, Jr.’s $140,000 bid. Consigned by Country Life Farm, agent for Eugene Ford, Your Out (hip 18) was a six-time stakes winner on the track who banked over $500,000. She sold in foal to Lion Hearted. Your Out’s dam Our Friend Hidayet (Fast Play) (hip 225) was also offered by Ford through Country Life, eliciting the third-highest price of the session. Dark Hollow Farm, agent, paid $75,000 for the 13-year-old, who sold in foal to Not for Love. Hip 33, the 11-year-old Deputy Minister mare Approve, was the other six-figure horse. The Walnut Green, agent, consignee was knocked down to Green Willow Farms for $100,000. Approve is in foal to Two Punch. The second and final session of the sale gets underway today at 10 a.m. For complete results and catalog, visit www.fasigtipton.com.

Day Trader, winner of the 2002 Gill Kentucky Cup Sprint, was coming off back-to-back optional claimer wins at Remington Park on Aug. 23 and Sept. 6. The gray veteran set the pace and carried a 3 1/2-length advantage into the lane before going lame in deep stretch. He narrowly held on for the win, but had to be vanned off the track.

House of Fortune hadn't tasted victory since winning the GII Hollywood Breeders' Cup Oaks over this strip in June of 2004, but got back on track here. The dark bay, who also won the GII Fantasy S. at three, had completed the exacta in three of her last four, including the restricted Swingtime S. on the grass at Santa Anita Oct. 7 and that track's California Cup Matron H. Nov. 6. Tackling a sprint for the first time in nearly two years, House of Fortune showed plenty of gas from the break and was up by a half length through a half in :44 4/5. Given a bit more rein under Pat Valenzuela, she inched clear two furlongs out and was under moderate urging late to hand crowd choice Western Hemisphere the defeat.

After missing by a neck in an open allowance at Santa Anita Sept. 28, Proud Tower Too overwhelmed state-bred foes by eight lengths in a seven-furlong contest at the Arcadia track Oct. 12. He followed that with a fourth-place finish in the Cal Cup Sprint Nov. 6 at Santa Anita and was the fourth choice in this seven-horse affair. The bay colt broke alertly and went to the lead, where he was pressed through fractions of :21 2/5 and :43 2/5. He shook loose at the top of the stretch, but had to summon his reserves to fend off the late bid of Jack's Wild.

The $25,000 FTCSEP yearling was away from the gate a step slowly but was soon in contention as chalk Lucera (Ire) (Fasliyev) dueled through a rapid half in :44 2/5. Sent up to take control as they turned the corner, Domestic Dispersal soon put a bit of daylight between her and the field and had 1 1/4 lengths on Sunrise Summer (Summer Squall) at the wire. Michael Byrne Honored With E.P. Taylor Award:

Michael C. Byrne, the chairman of The Jockey Club of Canada from 1995 to 2005, has been selected as the recipient of the 2005 E.P. Taylor Award of Merit. Established in 1994, the award is given annually to an individual who has made "extraordinary contributions to Canadian Thoroughbred horse racing." Byrne was first elected to The Jockey Club of Canada in 1987, and was a catalyst behind the formation of the Canadian Graded Stakes Committee. He will be honored during the Sovereign Awards ceremony, to be held Dec. 16 at the Wyndham Bristol Place Hotel in Toronto.

WINSTON BACK AT LINGFIELD

Robert Winston, who was seriously injured in a fall in August when heading the race for the jockeys' championship, will make his return at Lingfield today. Winston broke his jaw when his mount, Pearl's a Singer (Ire), slipped on the bend at Ayr, and he was sidelined for nearly four months. The 26-year-old has three rides on this afternoon's card, kicking off with Scroll (GB) in the Nursery.

NEW ASSOCIATIONS FOR ABDULLAH

Khalid Abdullah will send horses to trainers Dermot Weld and Pat Eddery next season, the Racing Post has revealed. Weld's consignment of four yearlings will be the first Juddmonte representatives to be conditioned in Ireland; Eddery will also receive four in his first year as a licensed trainer in Britain. "There is no particular reason why the Prince has not had any horses in Ireland before," Juddmonte Racing Manager Teddy Grimthorpe told the Post. "Racehorse strength is expected to be at fairly normal levels next year. Four yearlings will be going to Dermot Weld and four to Pat Eddery, but otherwise there will not be a significant change of policy and we will continue to support those we have regularly used."

SANGSTER TAKES CONTROL OF COLLINGROVE

Adam Sangster has acquired the interests of David Hayes and his family in Collingrove Stud. The property, located at Nagambie in northeast Victoria, is now wholly owned by the Sangster Group, as is Collingrove Stud in the Hunter Valley of New South Wales. It was formerly operated as a joint venture with the Hayes family, who own Lindsay Park Stud and its training complex in South Australia. Sangster, based in Australia since 1991, was the managing partner of Collingrove, while Hayes spent a decade training in Hong Kong before making his return in August. The move coincided with a desire by Hayes to focus on training, Sangster said in a statement. He plans to expand the Collingrove operation and stand stallions at Nagambie while continuing to manage the racing and breeding operations for the Sangster family in Australia. The stud's policy of offering all yearlings for sale will remain.

LEADING TRAINER AL KURDI SUSPENDED

Leading Dubai conditioner Mazin Al Kurdi, atop the Emirates Racing Association's trainer standings the last two years, has been suspended after four of his seven winners this season tested positive for the steroid boldenone, reports The Blood-Horse. The duration of the suspension, four months, means Al Kurdi will miss the majority of Dubai's winter/spring meet, which concludes in early April. Al Kurdi is appealing the suspension. Al Kurdi's four winners, Burgundian, Northern Rock (Jpn), Delude (Ire) and Blazing Ability, were disqualified from their respective victories.

BREEZE-UP BODES WELL FOR HKIS While the turf course at Sha Tin is being readied for next Sunday's International Races, there was activity yesterday morning as the 29 horses bound for Saturday's Hong Kong International Sale were on the track for their pre-sale breeze-ups. Despite a forecast of colder temperatures and high winds, the weather ultimately cooperated and some 300 horse people and bloodstock agents were on hand. Winfried Engelbrecht-Bresges, director of racing for the Hong Kong Jockey Club, has been pleased with the progress made by the colts and geldings, hand-selected from the world's leading sales venues. "We have an extremely even bunch of horses with more depth this time around," he commented. "I am quite satisfied with how they breezed [yesterday] morning. We had a change in their preparation. Instead of rushing them, they were steadily brought along and, as such, they looked more balanced in their action today." Saturday's sale, to be conducted by Magic Millions in the state-of-the-art enclosed Sha Tin walking ring, will feature two geldings and one colt by the immortal Danehill and a pair of offerings from the final crop of the late Snippets (Aus). Bidding begins at 5:30 p.m.
