PROMISING HALF OURS BEGINS COMEBACK

Barry Schwartz and Aaron & Marie Jones's Half Ours (Unbridled's Song), who was so impressive earlier in the spring winning the Three Chimneys Juvenile S. by 4 1/4 lengths, has returned from injury and is preparing for his three-year-old campaign. Undefeated in two starts, the colt suffered a hairline fracture to his right hind cannon bone in late spring and was sent to Schwartz's Stonewall Farm in New York to recuperate. The gray had his first listed move Sunday at Palm Meadows Training Center in Florida, breezing a relaxed three panels in :39 2/5 for trainer Todd Pletcher. Buzz Chace, bloodstock advisor for both Schwartz and the Joneses, said the work was actually his second since resuming training. "The first one, he just went a quarter mile in :25," said Chace, adding, "He came back from [Sunday's] work nice and easy." Asked about a timetable for Half Ours' return to the races, Chace said, "We'll let him tell us, but hopefully by the end of January or the first couple weeks in February, if everything goes right, he'll be on his way." Half Ours opened his account with a debut 10 3/4-length romp at Keeneland in mid-April before his tally in the May 7 Three Chimneys Juvenile (video).

Folklore Back to Work...

In other news, Folklore (Tiznow) breezed for the first time since winning the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies. The Bob and Beverly Lewis colorbearer worked five furlongs in 1:00 3/5 at Santa Anita Monday, the 18th fastest of 50 moves at the distance. Trainer D. Wayne Lukas told TVG Sunday that the filly was doing well and that she had put on weight since her Breeders' Cup victory. Lukas told the network that he was eyeing a mid-January return for the daughter of two-time GI Breeders' Cup Classic winner Tiznow.

By a nice coincidence, Hollywood's Grade I juvenile races both fell to youngsters with a pedigree featuring Alydar, the outstanding son of Raise A Native who will always be remembered more for his gallant Triple Crown defeats by Affirmed than for his six Grade I victories.

Of course there is nothing unusual about Alydar's name appearing in the pedigree of a major winner. It is far more unusual, though, to see his name in the male line of a Grade I winner, such as the Hollywood Futurity winner Brother Derek, than in the broodmare sire line, as in the pedigree of the Hollywood Starlet heroine Diplomat Lady.

The unpalatable truth is that Alydar--for all his achievements and excellent bloodlines--was a fairly disastrous sire of sires. Although he had over 50 sons at stud in the early 1990s, his male line is now hanging by a thread and I think there is only one grandson--Easy Goer's son Will's Way--with graded winners to his credit. Perhaps Benchmark, the sire of Brother Derek, still has time to remedy this situation, as he comes from Alydar's final crop, sired before the Calumet star's controversial death at the age of 15 in 1990.

Even in his prime, Alydar had a reputation for being more of a filly sire, thanks largely to the magnificent start he made with his outstanding first-crop daughters Althea and Miss Oceana. Although he soon added further Grade I-winning fillies to his tally in the form of Alydar's Best, Endear, Clabber Girl, I'm Sweets and Cadillacing, he wasn't long in showing that he could also get top-class sons. His second crop was headed by Saratoga Six and Turkoman, with Turkoman becoming the first of three sons of Alydar to take the title of champion older horse. The other two, Alysheba and Criminal Type, also took the Horse of the Year title, while Easy Goer was the champion of his division at two. With a Kentucky Derby winner, Strike the Gold, also among his nine American Grade I-winning sons, Alydar could have been expected to found a dynasty in much the same way as Mr. Prospector, another son of Raise A Native, has done.

Alydar & Affirmed

It wasn't to be. Turkoman, who stood the 2005 season at a fee of $3,000 in California, proved much less effective as a stallion, even though he supplied the Grade I winners Man From Wicklow and Turk Passer; Criminal Type, who got caught up in Calumet's problems, was soon sold to Japan, leaving Grade II and Grade III winners behind; and Saratoga Six, although still plying his trade at the age of 23, has sired only one Grade I winner.

Alysheba--the sire of one Grade I winner--is now resident in Saudi Arabia, while Strike the Gold headed for Turkey after failing to sire a single graded winner. Perhaps Easy Goer would have set the record straight had he lived, as his legacy included the Grade I winners My Flag, Furlough and Will's Way, but it could be argued that he should have done even better with the exceptional mares he received.

Bearing in mind some of the features of Benchmark's racing career, he didn't look a prime candidate to salvage Alydar's record as a sire of sires. Unraced at two, he was unplaced on his only appearance at three. By the time he turned six in 1997, he had managed only seven starts for three minor victories, but he then made a successful stakes debut in the GII San Bernadino H. The winning trainer, Ron Ellis, commented that "He should have been named 'Patience' for all we've been through with him."

The six-year-old continued to reward that patience, adding further Grade II successes in the Del Mar H. and Goodwood Breeders' Cup H. Ankle surgery then put Benchmark back on the sidelines in 1998, but his debut at stud coincided with the emergence of his very talented half sister Tranquility Lake. This daughter of Rahy became a Grade I winner in the Gamely Breeders' Cup H. and later took the Yellow Ribbon S. Tranquility Lake hit the headlines again this year when her second foal, by Storm Cat, fetched a jaw-dropping $9.7 million at Keeneland. Cont. p3

That colt was obviously bought with a view to eventually becoming a major stallion, so his buyers must be encouraged by Benchmark's achievement of siring two Grade I winners. Brother Derek's predecessor is Silent Signs, who inflicted the first defeat on Halfbridled in winning the Santa Anita Oaks. Benchmark has also sired the Grade II scorer A to the Z and the Grade III winner Standard Setter, with his four graded winners coming from a total of little over 200 named foals in his first four crops--all sired at modest fees in California. His achievements have been rewarded with books of 91, 121 and 108 mares in the last three years, so he is going to have enough ammunition to continue hitting the target.

Perhaps he is benefitting from being out of a Danzig mare. Danzig sired nine stakes winners from Alydar mares, including Lure and this year's successful freshman sire Bertolini. Alydar's five foals out of Danzig mares included the graded winners Lotta Dancing and Benchmark. Benchmark is also out of a half sister to the Belmont S. winner Caveat, who sired nearly 10 percent stakes winners.

Two of Benchmark's graded winners are out of daughters of Siyah Kalem, another California stallion. As Siyah Kalem--a talented miler--is a son of Mr. Prospector, these two are inbred 3x4 to Raise A Native.

In this Week's Pedigree Perspectives...

Alan Porter takes a look at Bernstein's son Storm Mayor (Arg), winner of the G1 Carlos Pellegrini. Check out the Columnists Archive on our website to read the article Inbreeding to Raise A Native through Mr. Prospector and Alydar has been fairly extensive, its finest advertisements probably being Horse of the Year Point Given (inbred 4x4), the champion juvenile Anees (4x3) and the Jockey Club Gold Cup winner Wagon Limit (3x4). Mention of Point Given reminds me that his first two dams are by Turkoman and Relaunch, the latter also being the sire of Brother Derek's second dam, the stakes-winning Solamente Un Vez. Brother Derek's third dam, Gavel Gertie, is also the fourth dam of another of this year's graded-winning juveniles, namely Deputy G, winner of the GIII Bashford Manor S. It was a son of Relaunch who sired Deputy G's second dam.

With his earnings now in excess of $500,000 (including $90,000 earned from his fourth in the Breeders' Cup Juvenile), Brother Derek has proved a very shrewd buy at the $275,000 he cost at Barretts in March--that price reflecting the fact that his brother Don'tsellmeshort has notched up earnings of over $400,000.

Midway Road
www.lanesend.com

Lane's End Farm in Kentucky in September, will instead take up duties at Lane's End's Texas division in his initial year at stud. A fee will be announced at a later date. Second to Funny Cide in the 2003 GI Preakness S., the now-five-year-old Midway Road set a new course record at Keeneland when he won last year's renewal of the nine-furlong GIII Ben Ali

S. in 1:46.78. Midway Road also won the GIII Fayette S. at Keeneland and ran second to Southern Image in the GI Pimlico Special H. in 2004. Midway Road was owned and bred by Will Farish in Kentucky.

Major Success improved his batting average to an even .500 with this score. The Bobby Frankel-trained four-year-old, a juvenile winner over this course back in 2003, raced just twice last year. Returning from an extended break, he ran third in a Del Mar allowance in September, won a Santa Anita event in October, then went to the shelf once again. In his 2005 bow, Major Success was off the board in a Del Mar NW2X in late July and, 2 1/2 months later, ran fifth at the Oak Tree meet Oct. 10. Tightened off those efforts, the dark bay sprinted to a 1 1/4-length success over trip and track Nov. 26 and made it two straight this time. Second choice on the board to veteran Hasty Kris, who was in for a tag, he blazed the way through :22 1/5, :44 4/5, and 1:08 3/5 splits and kept on well late to win under a moderate drive. The favorite stalked in second most of the way but couldn't match strides down the lane.

DISTORTED (c, 3, Distorted Humor--Alma's Motel, by Bates Motel) won on debut at Santa Anita last December and took a February starter allowance three starts later for trainer Ruben Cardenas before being shelved. After seven months on the sidelines, he returned under Paddy Gallagher's care and hit the board in three straight allowance efforts before clearing the NW1X hurdle over trip and track last time Nov. 13. Here, the $47,000 KEENOV weanling and $75,000 OBSFEB two-year-old, a 3-1 shot, turned back Molengao (Brz) and Primerica in the stretch, besting the latter by 2 1/2 lengths.
