ANY LIMIT TAKES FIRST LADY

Any Limit (Limit Out) got back on track with a sharp effort in the GIII First Lady H. at Gulfstream Park. It was the first graded victory for the Joseph Shields homebred, whose initial black-type score came in Aqueduct's My Flag S. going a mile Oct. 26. After breaking a bit slowly here, the bay entered the turn just off the flank of Contrast (Unbridled), a daughter of champion Safely Kept who hadn't been out since June. Any Limit switched gears in the stretch and forged clear in the final furlong. Contrast stayed on gamely for second, while favored Malibu Mint (Malibu Moon) wound up fifth after putting in a wide rally. Any Limit hadn't raced since November, and trainer Allen Jerkens nearly didn't enter her after the four-year-old drilled a bullet :57 3/5 for five furlongs Tuesday at Gulfstream. "Her workout was too fast," said the Hall of Fame trainer. "I considered not even running her, but it didn't stop her from eating every oat after that, so we went ahead." Cont. p2

WHO'S THE MAN?

The Wertheimers' homebred Boboman (Kingmambo) is looking for his fourth straight victory in today's GII San Marcos H. With just 10 starts under his belt, the six-year-old comes here off a victory in the GI Hollywood Turf Cup Dec. 9, but he'll have to see off a trio of runners from the barn of Bobby Frankel, who already has five stakes wins at this meet. Two of Frankel's runners, four-year-old Hello Sunday (Fr) (Poliglote {GB}) and six-year-old Notable Guest (Kingmambo)--both Group 3 winners--will be making their U.S. bows, while their stablemate, Heroi Do Bafra (Brz) (Royal Academy), is a multiple Group 1 winner in Brazil who ran second in a local one-mile optional claimer in his first U.S. outing Jan. 1. "On paper, Notable Guest is the best of the three," Frankel told Daily Racing Form. "But [Heroi Do Bafra] has already run, and he ran good." Those sentiments were echoed by jockey Aaron Gryder, who was aboard the Brazilian-bred. "When I rode him that day, he was going a mile and, on form, it showed his best races were a mile and a quarter and a mile and a half," Gryder said. "But he settled in and made a good run. We had to weave through some traffic, but I was real happy the way he finished up going a mile. He made up a lot of ground and it was a good stepping stone...Now, going a mile and a quarter, even though it's a step up in class, he's going to move in the right direction."

Any Limit put it all together in her fourth start, graduating by 9 1/4 lengths last May at Belmont. She promptly paired up optional-claiming victories in June at the same track, but her first forays into stakes races didn't go so well. Sixth in the GI Test S.--won by her stablemate, Swap Fliparoo--Aug. 5 at Saratoga, she was eighth in the GIII Victory Ride S. Aug. 24 at the Spa. Any Limit ran third against her elders in an optional claimer at Belmont Sept. 22, then was beaten a length when fourth in the License Fee S. on the grass at Belmont Sept. 30. She rebounded with a front-running tally in the My Flag and followed that with a third in the Top Secret S. Nov. 12 at Aqueduct in her 2006 finale. After yesterday's good-looking success, Any Limit will probably try her luck in Gulfstream's next option for older female sprinters. "Probably the 6 1/2 [furlongs] will be next [GIII Hurricane Bertie, Feb. 17]," Jerkens said. Any Limit's second dam is GISW Personal Business (Private Account), who hails from the family of Secretariat. Click for the brisnet.com chart. The New York-bred Friendly Island had enjoyed his most successful season at age five in 2006, winning the GIII Maryland Breeders' Cup H., finishing second in the GIII Count Fleet Sprint H. and posting thirds in both the GI Forego H. and GIII Mr. Prospector H. He saved his best for last, though, finishing the year with a runner-up effort at 58-1 in the GI Breeders' Cup Sprint at Churchill Nov. 4. Odds-on in this four-horse field to start his season the right way, the chestnut raced in second through a relatively tepid opening quarter of :22.57. The Anstu colorbearer took over on the turn and was never seriously threatened down the lane, coming home in workmanlike fashion. "He had a little freshener [after the Breeders' Cup]," said winning trainer Michael McCarthy, subbing for the suspended Todd Pletcher. "That was the plan all along. There was a little bit of concern [about lack of pace], to be honest with you." Friendly Island will likely head overseas next. "I think Dubai [G1 Golden Shaheen, Mar. 31] is definitely in the cards," McCarthy continued. "I do not believe he'll start before then." Click for the brisnet.com chart or the free brisnet.com catalogue-style pedigree. Though Liquor Cabinet missed most of 2005, he went through his conditions quickly last winter for former trainer Mark Hennig. Second in the Stymie H. Mar. 4, the chestnut ran fourth in the GIII Excelsior Breeders' Cup H. Apr. 1 over Aqueduct's main track, but was sidelined thereafter. He resurfaced for Rick Dutrow Nov. 29 in a local optional claimer and responded with a game victory. Breaking from the outside here, the six-year-old disputed the early lead before assuming command after a half in :47.25. He began to open up on the far turn and cruised down the lane while under wraps for his first stakes victory. "I've been really liking this horse over the last month," Dutrow said via telephone. "Over the last few weeks, he's changed into a different horse. To be honest, I really thought he could win like that. His feet have been bugging him a little, but he really brought his game. His next race will either be the Santa Anita H. [GI, Mar. 3] or the Gulfstream Park H. [GII, Mar. 3]" Click for the brisnet.com chart. Video, sponsored by Taylor Made. by Steve Haskin, courtesy of www.bloodhorse.com.

ASMUSSEN'S DERBY DREAMS SHATTERED BY TIZ WONDERFUL'S INJURY

You could hear the pain in trainer Steve Asmussen's voice as he discussed his lost opportunity to win this year's GI Kentucky Derby Presented by Yum! Brands!

following Tiz Wonderful's injury suffered Friday, Jan. 19 at Fair Grounds. The son of Tiznow, owned by Jess Jackson's Stonestreet Stables, rapped his right front tendon, which will keep him out of action indefinitely. "Hopefully, it won't amount to a whole lot, but right now we're going to monitor it," Asmussen said. "We can't take a shot with someone like him. We were going to work him for the first time [Saturday], and instead he's walking the shed. It's very unfortunate, because I've had horses fast enough for the Derby, but never one that could go that far; he was the first one. It just wasn't meant to be. What's so disappointing is that it had worked out so well. Everything had fallen together so beautifully. He had a two-turn win, he was undefeated, two of the best riders in the country [Garrett Gomez and John Velazquez] rode him, and he had plenty of graded earnings. We had so many bases covered. If you haven't felt what this horse is capable of there's no way to explain it. When I got back after being away for six months, the first thing I thought was, 'I'm going to win the Derby this year. There's no way they're going to beat him.' There isn't a pimple on this horse. It's unbelievable how sound he is. If there's one thing the last year has taught me, it's that you're not supposed to understand everything that happens." Tiz Wonderful, who was bred in Kentucky by Dale Kalmar, is undefeated in three starts, winning the GII Kentucky Jockey Club S. and GIII Iroquois S.

DOWN OUT FOR NOW Michael Bello's three-year-old filly Down (Mr. Greeley) was scheduled to have minor surgery Friday and will miss the big spring races for her division, according to Daily Racing Form. A flake was to be removed from her ankle. "She was 100-percent sound, but she had a little filling," trainer Bobby Frankel told DRF. "She'll be out six weeks, and back running by the middle of May." After missing by a nose in her Oct. 22 debut at Belmont, the grey filly went west for the GI Hollywood Starlet S. Dec. 17. Down broke poorly, but rallied eight wide, only to finish third by 1 1/2 lengths (video).

CORRECTION: Champion Sunline (NZ) (Desert Sun {GB}) did not win the G2 Dubai Duty Free in 2001, as reported in yesterday's TDN, but finished third behind Jim and Tonic (Fr) and Fairy King Prawn (Aus).

DISAPPOINTMENT FOR DECLAN'S MOON

Trainer Ron Ellis had hoped that a trip to Golden Gate for an allowance race yesterday would prove the tonic for Declan's Moon (Malibu Moon), who had struggled to find the winner's circle since coming back to the races last summer. But that was not the case. The five-year-old gelding, equipped with blinkers for the first time, pressed the pace set by Dr. Einstein (Albert the Great) in the one-mile contest. Asked for a bit more by jockey Jose Valdivia Jr., the 4-5 chalk failed to respond and wound up last of five as Dr. Einstein wired the race. "That's the way he's been running," Ellis explained. "He hits the quarter pole and is not interested in fighting at all. When he's galloping he's fine, but when you ask, he doesn't want to do anything. It just appears he doesn't want to put out. As soon as Jose went to ask him, he resisted. He told me the same thing that [jockey] Victor [Espinoza] said last time." Ellis indicated that the 2004 champion juvenile would undergo a series of physical tests. "We scope him all the time," Ellis continued. "We'll probably give him a nuclear scan to see if there's anything we're missing. First, I want to make sure there's nothing physical." Valdivia added, "What a shame. He just won't go when the real running begins. Ron said, with this being his first time with blinkers, to let him go if he was keen to run. He said, 'Just be a good passenger.' This horse was just loping along and not fighting me a bit. He felt great under me and, I was thinking if the real Declan's Moon shows up these people are going to see a show because he'll win by 10 [lengths]. But at the 5/16-pole, he started to come off the bit and I didn't like my chances at all. When the real running started he didn't want to do it...You wish horses could talk so they could tell you if something inside is bothering them."

session of the Ocala Breeders' Sales Company's Winter Mixed Sale yesterday. Consigned by Kim Harrison, agent for the Thomas-Lakin Dispersal, the New York-bred was purchased by Alton "Bud" Ison, who also bought the top yearling Friday. She sold as hip 1063. The gray's dam is a half-sister to MGSW Surf Cat. The last horse through the ring, hip 1154, was the day's second-best seller. The yearling colt, by Red Bullet out of Symphonious (Hennessy), was hammered down to Rip Curl Acres for $40,000. From the family of MGSW Chapel of Dreams, herself a half-sister to Storm Cat, the bay was consigned by Summerfield (Francis and Barbara Vanlangendonck), Agent CLXXXII. The sale, which was comprised of three consignor-preferred sessions and one open session last year, was split equally this year. The two days offering consignor-preferred stock were plagued by RNAs, with 60.4 percent going unsold, but the average rose nearly 80 percent to $31,855. The two open sessions realized a more modest 8.1 percent gain in average, to $5,761. For complete results, go to www.obssales.com.

HIGH AGAIN (f, 3, High Yield--Miss Belle O {SP}, by Olympio) finished third going this trip at Belmont Sept. 10, and tried the turf in her next, but could muster just a fourth-place finish. Returned to the main track for her seasonal finale, the $140,000 FTKJUL yearling purchase splashed through the Aqueduct slop to post a 3 1/2-length victory Nov. 12. The slight second favorite at odds of 4-1, she set a reasonable pace in advance of favored Striking Tomisue (Smart Strike), disposed of that one turning for home and drew off to win by 3 1/2 lengths. Splendid In Spring (Best of Luck) rounded out the exacta while the favorite checked in a distant third. Lifetime Record: 5-2-0-1, $59,350.

CHIEF TALLEETNA (c, 3, Chief Seattle--Distinctual, by Distinctive Pro) drew the outside post and was wide every step in his career opener at Aqueduct Dec. 2, but still managed to get up for third. The dark bay broke from post 12 in this 12-horse field, but overcame that disadvantage as the 2-1 chalk. First away from the gate, he settled just off front-running Open Sleigh (Touch Gold) for a half, drove to the lead as they straightened for home and pulled away to beat the pacesetter by 5 1/2 lengths. She dropped in to dominate a Dec. 27 optional claimer back at Laurel and was a warm item in this prep for the GII Barbara Fritchie H. Feb. 17. Never far from the front, Silmaril angled out at the 5/16-pole, took over a furlong from home and proved easily best. "I think when she beat Ashado that the best she's ever been," said winning conditioner Chris Grove. "But right now she's good and she's consistent." He confirmed Silmaril to be on track for the Barbara Fritchie.

The 2 1/4-length winner of the Sonny Hine S. over a sloppy Laurel main Oct. 7, the bay took the off-the-turf Japan Racing S. by four lengths Oct. 28, but was eased out of the Northern Dancer S. Nov. 18 in his most recent appearance. Settled off the early pace, he saved ground into the stretch, came three wide for home and pulled clear late, despite drifting in at the eighth pole. "That was a super, super race. That might be the best race of his life." winning trainer King Leatherbury commented. He is also looking forward to his next test. "I consider that his best distance," he said, referring to the seven furlongs of the General George.

TERRY FINLEY

Horsephotos

This week's accomplishment: Finley, a former Airborne Ranger in the U.S. Army, formed West Point Thoroughbreds in 1991. The racing syndicate won the Jan. 13 GII San Fernando BC H. with Awesome Gem (Awesome Again).

Birthdate: Jan. 3, 1964

Family: Wife Debbie, son Ryan, daughter Erin

Current Residence: Lumberton, NJ

What's been West Point's biggest accomplishment in racing? We've got a couple. Seattle Fitz winning the [GII] Brooklyn H. [in 2004] was special. Getting to the [Kentucky] Derby [last year with Flashy Bull] was obviously a neat thing for everybody, and I'm also real proud of the things that the Breeders' Cup board, of which I'm a member, has accomplished in the last year or so.

Were you in support of the three new Breeders' Cup races, the F/M Sprint, Dirt Mile and Juvenile Turf? I'm very supportive of it; I think it'll turn out to be a great thing. But nobody knows exactly how it will go. I know some people that have opposing views--and a lot of times it's very valid--but at least we're trying something. And we're flexible. If the current plan needs tweaking, we'll do it.

Favorite racetrack? It's gotta be Saratoga. We spend all month up there.

Favorite movie? I really liked "Seabiscuit."

What's on your CD player right now? I like jazz a lot, and I like to listen to books on tape--business books, history books. I like the theory of business. Right now, I'm listening to a series on Vietnam.

You have a connection with the commander of the multinational force in Iraq, correct? When I was a lieutenant, I served in the same unit as General [David] Petraeus, who just took over as the head of the forces in Iraq. He was a major at that point, and now he's a three-star general. I was friends with him--he was an absolute star even then, and that was 20 years ago.

Have you, or would you ever, sing karaoke? I have not, but I probably would. I'd have to get one of my trainers up there first [laughs]. If Kieran McLaughlin goes up, then I'll follow him.

Equine Sports Medicine Facility for Ocala:

Kentucky Equine Sports Medicine and Rehabilitation Center (KESMARC) and Main Street Management Services, Inc. announced Friday that they have formed a joint venture to establish an equine sports medicine facility in Ocala, Florida. The clinic, which will be part of the redevelopment of Farnsworth Farm, will provide post-surgical care and training for horses of all disciplines. Construction is set to begin in the second quarter of 2007, and the facility is scheduled to open at the beginning of 2008. In addition to a hyperbaric center, it will feature an equine swimming pool, two euocizers, a waterciser, an aqua treadmill and an indoor polytrack. KESMARC founders Hub and Kirsten Johnson, who opened a state-of-the-art facility outside Lexington in 2002, will serve as technical advisers during construction, and will operate the facility when it is completed.

The dark bay forced the pace in the Dec. 30 New Year's Eve S. in West Virginia, finishing eighth, and was lightly regarded in her Oaklawn debut. Baffert Appointed To TOC Board:

Trainer Bob Baffert has been appointed to the board of directors of the Thoroughbred Owners of California. An owner/trainer member, Baffert will fill a vacancy that expires June 30. "We are all extremely delighted to have him on board," said TOC Vice Chairman Marsha Naify. "Bob will be a tremendous asset to the board. It seems like he will be a real team player, and he is interested in the issues that face our industry. Among his main concerns are track surfaces and the safety of the horses. In addition, he wants to see the industry much less divided and much more unified."

Abbott Named NSA President:

Francis Abbott Jr., who runs the bloodstock consulting firm Abbott Bloodstock, has been named the president of the National Steeplechase Association. Abbott, an NSA board member since 2003 and the association's secretary from 2004-06, takes the reins from trainer Jonathan Sheppard. "If I can do anything it will be to bridge the gap between steeplechase racing and flat racing," he said. "It is critical that everyone understands we are all part of the same exciting game. Steeplechasing brings a very important and different product to the Thoroughbred experience. I'm looking forward to working with people in the racing industry in hopes that we can increase our exposure and position both nationally and internationally." The 53-year-old directed the Radnor Hunt Races in Pennsylvania for 25 years and has served as a steward on the steeplechase circuit. The NSA's executive committee, in addition to Abbott, will include Guy Torsilieri, vice president; Sam Slater, treasurer; and Doug Fout, secretary. Sheppard will stay on as chairman of the board.
