'MOJAVE' SPRINGS CLASSIC SURPRISE

Now seven, McCann's Mojave (Memo {Chi}) proved he still has the right stuff with a 33-1 victory in the $1-million Sunshine Millions Classic yesterday at Gulfstream Park. The victory made him a millionaire. "When he's in front...he's not going to let anyone pass," said winning jockey Frank Alvarado. "He keeps going. He's a fighter and has a big heart. At the quarter pole, I knew they had to come and get me." After prompting the pace, the bay assumed command on the far turn, turned back a challenge from favored

STILL THE MAN

Last year's Sunshine Millions Classic hero, Lava Man (Slew City Slew) opted for the Turf this time in order to stay in Southern California. The result was the same, as the six-year-old reported home in convincing fashion. "He's the Lava Man of old," enthused winning rider Corey Nakatani. "There's no question he's the best horse I've been on." Cont. p3

A SUNSHINE DOUBLE FOR JOINT EFFORT

A year ago, Donald Disney's homebred Joint Effort (Runaway Groom) rallied to take the Sunshine Millions Oaks at Gulfstream. Travelling to Santa Anita for yesterday's Sunshine Millions Distaff, the Florida-bred rallied past Take D'Tour (Tour d'Or) to win in fine style. "She always runs well fresh, so we just gave her the time off and pointed her here," said winning trainer Dale Romans. Cont. p3

NO PUSSYFOOTIN' AROUND

Multiple Grade I winner Pussycat Doll (Real Quiet) has been out of action for nearly nine months, but she's still the headline act in today's GI Santa Monica H. at Santa Anita. Both of her top-level wins have come at this seven-furlong distance. After concluding her sophomore campaign with a victory in the GI La Brea S. over track and trip, the Mike Pegram homebred ran fourth in the GI La Canada S., but rebounded to take the GI Humana Distaff H. at Churchill May 6 in her most recent outing. "She's been training good for this," said trainer Bob Baffert. "After the Churchill race, she was knocked out and didn't look right, so I freshened her up. Since we missed the Breeders' Cup races anyway, I decided to give her extra time. She's grown up more and filled out; hopefully she'll get better. We'll get her ready for here and then a summer campaign. They have to have a break sometimes, you know?" Cont. p9

Back in the winter of 2004, McCann's Mojave captured the GII Potrero Grande H.; at the time, it was his fifth win in six career starts. The California-bred made just one more start that year, however, finishing second to subsequent divisional champ Speightstown in the GII Churchill Downs H. May 1. It took him some time to find his form when he returned in 2005, winning the Ack Ack H. at Hollywood and the Cal Cup Classic at Santa Anita from nine starts over the course of his campaign. A homebred for Alix Nikke Hunt and Mike Willman, McCann's Mojave failed to make a dent in his first four starts of 2006 for trainer Paddy Gallagher, and his owners sent him north to Steve Specht's base at Golden Gate. His first Bay Area was an inauspicious seventh in the John Henry H. Nov. 24, but he turned things around with a narrow decision in a Dec. 10 optional claimer at Bay Meadows. He continued the good work with a victory in the Union Square H. at Golden Gate Dec. 26, but that didn't warrant much consideration 3,000 miles away. "Going against softer company, he's been able to get his confidence back," Specht explained.

Mojave on the Move...

The seven-year-old broke alertly from post eight and cleared most of his rivals heading into the first turn, settling just off the flank of Get Funky (Straight Man). After a half in :46.91 and three-quarters in 1:10.99, McCann's Mojave ranged up to poke his head in front on the far turn, and Get Funky faded on the rail. The 9-5 favorite Sweetnorthern saint (Sweetsouthern saint) came up on the outside to challenge, but the classy veteran fought on bravely along the rail and kept on going for his third straight victory. "I guess it was the change of scenery," Specht added. "I don't know that I've done anything special since getting this horse [in November]. He's a good horse to train. He's a tough horse in his stall, but on the racetrack he does everything right." The $1-million purse was a career high for the horseman. "The biggest pot I've ever won before was a $150,000 Cal Cup race, and that horse paid over a $100 [to win--Our Mango in the 2004 Cal Cup Distaff]," he continued. As for the beaten favorite, trainer Michael Trombetta said, "[Jockey] Ramon [Dominguez] positioned him very well, but he just didn't have it today. All that matters now is that he comes back all right and lives to fight another day."

Lava Man's singular 2006 campaign earned him a nod as a finalist for an Eclipse Award as champion older male, but a seventh to Invasor (Arg) in the GI Breeders' Cup Classic Nov. 4--his lone loss in eight outings--kept him from actually getting the trophy. In addition to his seasonal debut win in the Sunshine Millions Classic, the dark bay captured the GI Santa Anita H., the GI Hollywood Gold Cup, the GI Pacific Classic and the GII Goodwood BC H. That was just on dirt, though. On grass, the versatile gelding won the GI Charles Whittingham H. and the Khaled S. "I've been riding for 20 years now--I've never seen a horse win all the major races in California including the Goodwood and win a Grade I on the grass and another race on the grass," Corey Nakatani said. "When horses are good, as this horse is, I think he deserves to be a champion."

Joint Effort sustained a pair of losses after kicking 2006 off with her win in the Sunshine Millions Oaks, but rebounded to take the GIII La Troienne S. May 6 and the GIII Dogwood BC S. June 3, both at Churchill. She failed to shine in a pair of New York outings, being well beaten in both the GI Mother Goose S. July 1 and the GI Test S. Aug. 5, and trainer Dale Romans gave her some time to regroup. Second in the GII Chilukki S. on the eve of the Breeders' Cup at Churchill, the chestnut missed by just a head as the runner-up in the GII Falls City H. Nov. 23, her best effort to date going two turns. She settled into an easy rhythm in fifth and moved up to take closer order approaching the far turn as Take D'Tour began to make a break for it. The four-year-old went by the favorite and opened up smartly. "This is a big one because it's her first win around two turns with tested company," Romans said. "I think it opens a whole lot of doors...We don't have anything in mind [for her next race] but I'm sure it will have something to do with Churchill Downs." Click for the brisnet.com chart. Miss Shop was busy in 2006, making 14 starts at seven different racetracks. During the season, she won an allowance on the Gulfstream turf in April, the Beru S. on the Belmont main track in May, the Castle Royale S. on the Belmont turf in July and the GIII Turnback the Alarm H. on the Aqueduct dirt in November. The bay was also third in the GI Coaching Club American Oaks and GI Ruffian H. and earned $285,770, but she nearly matched that total in her first start this year. A troubled third in the Nov. 24 GII Top Flight H., Miss Shop ended '06 with a sixth in the Dec. 30 GIII Francis A. Genter S. on the grass at Calder, and remained on the surface for her 2007 opener. The Hobeau homebred settled off the pace for six panels, circled the field on the far turn and finished well to win going away. Click for the brisnet.com chart. Never worse than second in eight prior appearances, Smokey Stover added to that impressive record against tough company here. The dark bay was runner-up in a pair of optional claimers during the Del Mar meeting before besting The Pharoah in similar company at his Golden Gate home base Oct. 1. He shipped to Turf Paradise and was second in the Nov. 4 Saguaro S., but shook off that loss to post a 10-length allowance score in his own backyard Jan. 7. A respectable 7-1 taking on the likes of G1 Dubai Golden Shaheen winner Proud Tower Too and GI Ancient Title BC S. hero Bordonaro, Smokey Stover tracked his two main rivals from third through a half in :44.02. He rolled past the favorites at the top of the lane and pulled away to win handily. Trainer Greg Gilchrist wasn't surprised that his runner was up to the test. "I told [owner Harry Aleo], 'Your horse is doing really well, this is the right time to go tackle these horses, and let him show us he's worth running against these kind of horses,'" Gilchrist said. Click for the brisnet.com chart. Idiot Proof and Texas Voyager stayed on gamely in the stretch after battling through suicidal fractions, but it was the longshot Storm In May who got the money. Storm in May earned his diploma over the Calder dirt last August, then finished a well-beaten third in that track's Seacliff S. in September. Switched to the grass for his next five attempts, he won two straight in October, then completed the trifecta in his next three against stakes company, including the Dec. 9 Kris S. S. and the Gill Tropical Park Derby Jan. 1. Back on the dirt here, he raced toward the rear through :21.48 and :43.96 splits and came charging down the lane to pull off the upset. "He liked the track and he loved the fractions," trainer Bill Kaplan said. "We can go either way with him. We're aiming for the Hallandale Beach S. [Feb. 24] back on the grass, but this horse might end up on the Derby trail yet. The [GII] Fountain of Youth [S., Mar. 3] is not out of the question." Click for the brisnet.com chart. Mistical Plan won impressively first time out at Santa Rosa last August for owners Carol Anderson and Jerry and Gloria Buckridge and was subsequently purchased privately by J. Paul Reddam. Ambitously placed in the GI Del Mar Debutante in her first start for trainer Doug O'Neill, she crossed the line eighth, beaten 21 1/4 lengths, but rebounded with a smart tally against Calbreds in the Cover Gal S. at Santa Anita Oct. 8. She held her own with a good second when stretched to one mile in the Gill Pocahontas S. Oct. 29 and closed out her juvenile campaign with a disappointing eighth as the 5-2 choice in the GI Hollywood Starlet S. Dec. 17. The bay kicked off the new year with a third-place finish in the Jan. 6 Gill Santa Ysabel S. and was sent off as the favorite while cutting back in distance here. With David Flores aboard, Mistical Plan stayed within striking distance, awaited racing room on the turn for home and rallied while racing greenly in the stretch to take the photo. Click for the brisnet.com chart. Shaggy Mane was nowhere to be found in her first two starts at Del Mar and Santa Anita, but turned into a different animal when moved to Northern California last summer. She broke her maiden at Pleasanton on Independence Day, then was claimed for $12,500 out of an eight-length triumph at Santa Rosa in August. She went on to win her next three starts for trainer Brian Koriner, including the William P. Kyne Breeders' Cup Express H. at Bay Meadows Oct. 21. She was purchased privately following that effort, but faded to finish fifth after setting the early fractions in her first start for trainer Donald Chatlos Jr. in Hollywood's Cat's Cradle H. Nov. 24. Gunned to the lead by jockey Mark Guidry here, the dark bay rattled off :21.66 and :44.24 splits and drew off to win for fun. Margins: 1, NK, HF. Winner's Odds: 21-10. Successful in the Dec. 30 G1 Queen's Plate at this track, Pocket Power wowed a near-capacity crowd with a decisive score in Cape Town's annual highlight as jockey Jeff Lloyd secured a fifth win in the contest. The start was delayed after Badger's Gift (SAf) (Badger Land) broke through the stalls and was scratched, but the winner was settled in midfield once the race was underway. Easing into contention with a quarter mile remaining, Pocket Power cruised to the fore inside the final eighth and claimed victory with plenty in hand.

 with a determined effort in this return. Reserved off the pace from the get-go, he made his move in early stretch before taking over at the eighth pole and held enough in reserve to withstand the late rally of Pick Six by the minimum margin. The win provided rider Jeff Lloyd with the fifth of six winners on the card and a sweep of the day's Group 1 events.

This week's accomplishment:

Saylor, co-owner of dual champion and $9-million broodmare Ashado, owns Fleet Indian, who last Monday was named champion older mare after a season that saw her win six of her seven starts, including two Grade Is. She suffered a career-ending injury in the GI Breeders' Cup Distaff.

Birthdate: May 23, 1942

Birthplace: NJ; raised in Hartford, CT

Principal business: Founder and CEO, Chadwick, Saylor & Co., Inc

Current residence: Atlanta, GA

Family: Wife Leda, a native of Cuba; three sons, Paul, Sebastian and Florian; two daughters, Sara and Olivia.

How many horses do you have in training right now?

Sixteen. I've got, all told, 10 two-year-olds. I'm equally excited about all of them, although I probably shouldn't be.

Favorite track? Saratoga, hands down.

Growing up, did you have an idol in racing? Yeah--they were all horses though. I didn't know the trainers or jockeys as much as I knew the horses. This goes back to the days of Native Dancer and Dark Star.

Plans for Fleet Indian? Every time I talk about selling her I get really nasty e-mails from addresses you can't trace [laughs]. But I am not in the broodmare business and the plan right now is to sell.

Favorite type of music? Blues. My favorite is Percy Sledge.

Drink of choice? I've always been a beer guy.

If you could have dinner with one historical figure, who would it be? Yogi Berra. He reminds me of a partner I have with the horses. I would take him to Siro's.

Favorite vacation spot? Lowcountry, South Carolina. It's on the coast; we own a house there.

Funniest movie you've ever seen? Borat. I have a daughter in law school who thinks I'm basically crazy. She went and saw this movie and said, 'Dad, I think you can relate.' I don't know if that's good or bad news.

Childhood ambition? To be a vet. Now I can't stand them [laughs].

Last thing you purchased? A Proud Citizen yearling filly.

Sun Classique took out the Dec. 2 G1 Cape Fillies Guineas over course and distance, but connections blamed a muddling pace for her defeat in the Jan. 1 Paddock S. back here last time. Untroubled by a wide draw in this distaffers heat, the Australian import rebounded in style to record a second top-level victory. Restrained in rear until the straight, she swooped wide for the lead at the distance and kept on strongly for a comfortable win.

INVASOR BREEZES TOWARDS DONN Recently crowned Horse of the Year Invasor (Arg) (Candy Stripes) tuned up for Saturday's GI Donn H. with a five-furlong breeze in 1:00 4/5 at Palm Meadows yesterday morning. It was the co-second fastest move of 32 workouts. The bay had been stabled at Belmont, but shipped back to Florida early last week. The Donn will mark his first race since capturing the GI Breeders' Cup Classic Nov. 4; it was his fourth Grade I win in as many U.S. starts. He is expected to face Premium Tap (Pleasant Tap), third in the Classic and a multiple Grade I winner, in the $500,000 contest. Other possible Donn entrants are Chatain (Forest Wildcat), Magna Graduate (Honor Grades) and Strong Contender (Maria's Mon).

TOP TURF MARES RETIRED GISW Singhalese (GB)

(Singspiel {Ire}--Baize {GB}, by Efisio {GB}) and GSW

Cambiocorsa (Avenue of Flags--Ultrafleet, by Afleet) have both been retired, the Daily Racing Form reports. A handicap winner in her native Britain, five-year-old Singhalese was third in the GI American Oaks and won the GI Del Mar Oaks in 2005. She was sidelined for nearly a year after finishing seventh in the GI Queen Elizabeth II Challenge Cup, returning to be fifth in the Oct. 4 Swingtime S. at Oak Tree. The chestnut had worked twice since that effort, but suffered a slight tear in a tendon, and trainer Jim Cassidy decided it was time to send her to the breeding shed. Campaigned by Gould Family Trust and Paul Dixon, Singhalese compiled a record of 12-3-1-3 and bankrolled $398,912.

Cambiocorsa made a name for herself when, sporting her signature earmuffs, she captured eight straight over Santa Anita's downhill course. Raced by Ran-Jan Racing and Ty and Lee Leatherman, the gray notched five stakes wins, including the GIII Las Cienegas H. and GIII Sen. Ken Maddy H., and earned $522,055. Seventh in her final outing, the Jan. 1 GIII Monrovia H., she retires with nine victories and three thirds from 18 career starts.

 NORTH AMERICA

THREEWITT THIRD IN CAREER FINALE Trainer Noble Threewitt, who will officially retire on Feb. 24, his 96th birthday, sent out his last runner in the fifth race at Santa Anita Friday. Off at 17-1, Threewitt finished third to cap off a career that spanned 75 years.

Threewitt finally decided to hang up his stopwatch because of an eye ailment that has required several surgeries. "I've been [under treatment] for at least a year now," he said. "I'm half-crazy fooling with it, but Beryl [his wife of 73 years] wants me to retire. I told her, 'What am I going to do?,' but she's set on it." A native of Illinois, Threewitt was the youngest trainer in North America when he took out his license at Caliente in Mexico at age 21. He saddled his first winner, Crackerjack, at that track the same year, and went on to condition stakes winners such as Cerise Reine, Debonair Junior, Devoted Brass, Honey's Gem, King of Cricket, Old Topper, Perizade and Theresa's Tizzy. His most accomplished runner was Correlation, winner of the Florida Derby and Wood Memorial in 1954. The colt was favored in the Kentucky Derby, but finished sixth, then was runner-up to Hasty Road in the Preakness S. The president of the California Thoroughbred Horsemen's Foundation, Threewitt was the catalyst behind the establishment of Santa Anita's backstretch clinic named in his honor. Santa Anita will host a ceremony for Threewitt in the winner's circle Feb. 24.

RESCUE PARTY (c, 3, Monarchos--Search Party {GSP, $258,254}, by Seeking the Gold) was off slowly and raced very greenly in his six-furlong bow at Aqueduct Nov. 25, finishing a distant fourth. One of a trio of horses at 2-1, the homebred broke poorly, was rank and checked on the backstretch to avoid running up on heels. Angled out three wide on the turn, the dark bay caught Great Honor (Albert the Great) and edged by that stubborn foe for a one-length success. Lifetime Record: 2-1-0-0, $24,950. Bishop Court Hill kicked off his 2006 campaign with a one-length win in this event. Second in the GIII Toboggan H., he came back to take the GI Carter H. by a neck, then finished third in the GIII Bold Ruler H. and took a short break. The veteran gelding returned to be second in the July 1 Iowa Sprint H., but finished off the board in his next two outings before rebounding with a front-running score in the Dec. 17 GIII Gravesend H. Sent off the second choice to successfully defend his Paumonok title, Bishop Court Hill dashed to a clear lead right out of the gate, set speedy fractions and maintained his advantage all the way to the wire. Commenting on the final time, jockey Jose Santos said, "1:09 1/5 is good for an old man. He ran awesome today. After the break, I took a peek to my inside and was surprised to see the favorite two lengths behind me. He was getting tired at the end, but his fractions were really fast." The winner goes next in the Mar. 10 GIII Toboggan H. Video, sponsored by Taylor Made.

+ STORYBOOK (UAE) (f, 3, Halling--Blixen {SP-Ire}, by Gone West) was roused along to take an early lead in this first at-bat and maintained a slender advantage throughout. Ridden along approaching the final furlong, the 10-3 second choice was pushed out in the closing stages to deny Blue Monkey (Ire) (Orpen) by a cozy 1 1/2 lengths. Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, £2,915.

PRINCE ARCH TO STAND IN IRELAND

GISW Prince Arch (Arch--Princess Kris {GB}, by Kris {GB}), who was purchased for $300,000 by bloodstock agent Brian Grassick at the 2006 Fasig-Tipton November sale, will start his breeding career at Bridge House Stud in Ireland in 2007. The six-year-old, a $37,000 KEESEP yearling from the family of GISW Luas Line (Ire), won four of his nine starts at three. Second to champion Kitten's Joy in the GIII Palm Beach S. and to Shakespeare in the Caltech S., the bay beat Brass Hat in the Forerunner S. at Keeneland before finishing runner-up to Kitten's Joy in the GIII American Turf S. He turned the tables on the Eclipse winner in the GIII Jefferson Cup, but was once again victim to that rival when third in the GIII Virginia Derby. Prince Arch ended 2004 with a win in the GIII Saranac S. and opened 2005 with a nose score in the GI Gulfstream Park BC H., but would make just one more start, finishing sixth in the G1 Dubai Sheema Classic. After an unsuccessful comeback attempt last year, the Kentucky-bred retired with a record of 15-6-4-1 and earnings of $609,186. He will stand for €3,000.

TOP MILERS SIGNED ON FOR STEWARDS CUP

Hong Kong's best milers assemble for this afternoon's G1-HK Stewards Cup at Sha Tin, and revenge is on the mind of trainer John Size. The veteran horseman has saddled the runner-up in the G1 Hong Kong Mile three times in the past six years, including Armada (NZ) (Towkay {Aus}), who was extremely unlucky to lose this year's Mile Dec. 12. While the eventual winner, The Duke (Aus) (Danehill), was enjoying an inside run, Armada found himself uncomfortably placed between horses and flew home, but the winning post came first. Despite his poor luck in the HK Mile, Size has won this race three times from five tries, and Armada, seven for nine in Hong Kong, can add to that total. Adding to the depth of the Stewards Cup is reigning Asian Mile Challenge hero Bullish Luck (Royal Academy); Viva Pataca (GB) (Marju {Ire}), last year's Hong Kong Derby hero; and Vengeance of Rain (NZ) (Zabeel {NZ}), who is using this race as a first stepping stone to a possible appearance in the $5 million G1 Dubai Sheema Classic Mar. 31.
