trail after emerging from a workout Sunday with an ankle injury. "He took a bad step," explained trainer Cam Gambolati. "Fortunately, it's not life-threatening or anything like that and he should be able to come back. He could make it back sometime in the fall." Buffalo Man worked five furlongs in

1:00 2/5 at Gulfstream Park Sunday in advance of an expected tilt in Saturday's GII Fountain of Youth S. The three-year-old colt established himself as a Classic contender with three straight wins, including a one-length tally in the six-furlong Spectacular Bid S. at Gulfstream Jan. 9 and a 1 1/2-length victory in the OBS Championship at the Ocala Training Center Feb. 12.

COOLMORE TO BUY BREEDING RIGHTS TO ZAYAT'S E Z WARRIOR

Zayat Stables has reportedly reached an agreement in principle to sell the breeding rights of GIII Hollywood Juvenile Championship S. winner E Z Warrior (Exploit) to Coolmore. "He will continue to race in the stables' colors and be trained by Bob Baffert," Sobhy Sonbol, an associate of Zayat Stables, told The Blood-Horse. "We will retain a breeding interest in the colt." The three-year-old E Z Warrior is perfect in three starts, including his sophomore debut, a smart 1 3/4-length victory in Santa Anita's San Miguel S. Jan. 7. The dark bay colt won the six-furlong event in 1:08 flat. A $1.2 million juvenile buy, E Z Warrior last worked four furlongs in :49 flat at Santa Anita Jan. 28.

Last Saturday and Sunday turned out to be yet another of those Danzig weekends, with produce of Danzig-line stallions taking all three Group 1 contests in Australasia, plus the GI Gulfstream Park Breeders' Cup Turf S.

In fact, the early weeks of 2007 have been pretty kind to the family, with Danzig, Brahms, Exchange Rate, Honor Grades, Langfuhr and Lost Soldier all represented by American graded winners. These graded winners divide evenly between dirt and turf, which underlines the versatility of a male line which is predicted to enjoy even more success as synthetic surfaces proliferate.

Lane's End's Langfuhr

Langfuhr was an exception to the widely held theory that Danzig's offspring were more at home on turf. The Canadian-bred failed to win in five attempts on grass, whereas he was successful in half of his 18 starts on the main track. Thus, it is hardly surprising that as much as 77 percent of Langfuhr's progeny earnings to the end of last year had been earned on dirt. Cont. p2

Don't be misled, though, into thinking that the Lane's End stallion can't also come up with some impressive turf performers. Langfuhr was doubly represented by Jambalaya and Interpatation in the Gulfstream Park Breeders' Cup Turf, and his other good winners on turf include those versatile Canadian colts Wando (Breeders' S.) and Mobil (Cup and Saucer S. and Toronto Cup H.). Then there are such as his graded-winning daughters

Sabellina
Adam Coglianesi

Sabellina and Sister Star, in addition to Langfuhr's Australian crops that have produced eight stakes winners on turf.

The most notable feature of Langfuhr's pedigree is that he is inbred 3x3 to Nearctic, through Nearctic's sons Northern Dancer and Briartic. As Nearctic was conceived in England--by Nearco out of a Hyperion mare--he was essentially bred for racing on turf, but adapted so well to North American conditions that he won 21 times from two to five years and became Canada's Horse of the Year.

Of course, Nearctic was to revolutionize the world of turf racing through Northern Dancer, so it isn't too surprising that several of Langfuhr's better turf runners have an extra line of Northern Dancer, and therefore three lines of Nearctic.

Wando--who in 2003 became the first Canadian Triple Crown winner since Peteski in 1993--has a Vice-regal mare as his second dam and is therefore inbred 3x4 to Northern Dancer and 4x4x5 to Nearctic. For his part, Jambalaya is out of a mare by Viceregal's brother Vice Regent and his second dam is a granddaughter of Nijinsky. He is consequently inbred 3x3x5 to Northern Dancer and 4x4x4x6 to Nearctic. Caulfield cont. p3

My faith in the powers of inbreeding would have been strengthened had I been able to report that Jambalaya, with his four lines of Nearctic, shows some of the same characteristics for which Nearctic became famous, such as his high head carriage, his headstrong tendencies and his speed. However, Jambalaya doesn't have the high head carriage (which surfaced in Nearctic's grandson Sadler's Wells and in some of Sadler's Wells's good winners). Headstrong speed isn't his game either, as his most notable previous victory came when he won the last leg of the Canadian Triple Crown, the Breeders' S., over a mile and a half.

Jambalaya catches Honey Ryder on the line
Equi-Photo

Jambalaya, Wando, Mobil and Langfuhr share the same breeder, Gustav Schickedanz, but unlike the others Jambalaya was sold as a yearling. There can't be many Grade I winners which cost as little as he did: $2,500 at Keeneland's September Sale. Jambalaya's dam Muskrat Suzie also sold very cheaply when again in foal to Langfuhr in 2003, even though she was a winner with stakes-winning mares as her first two dams.

Muskrat Suzie has now become the latest daughter of Vice Regent to be represented by a Grade I winner, following the dams of such as Boston Harbor, Captain Steve, Marquetry and Victory Gallop.

Muskrat Suzie's broodmare sire, Muscovite, was only a Group 3 winner over a mile and an eighth for Vincent O'Brien in Ireland, but he had a stallion's pedigree.

In addition to being by the great Nijinsky, he was out of a three-parts sister to the champion sire Exclusive Native. Unfortunately, Muscovite made little impact, even though he was based at no less a farm than Spendthrift.

Of course, Jambalaya is by no means the first good winner with a pedigree featuring Danzig and Nijinsky in the first four generations. Those celebrated siblings Dansili, Banks Hill, Heat Haze, Intercontinental and Cacique also have Danzig in the second generation and Nijinsky in the fourth, and so did the champion European juvenile Minardi.

JAZIL QUESTIONABLE FOR GULFSTREAM

PARK H. Shadwell's 2006 GI Belmont S. winner Jazil (Seeking the Gold), who breezed a half mile in :49 2/5 at Palm Meadows yesterday, is questionable for Saturday's GII Gulfstream Park H., according to trainer Kiaran McLaughlin. "He worked well and is doing great," said McLaughlin "[But] coming back in 23 days is a negative. Corinthian is a negative for us. I'd say I'm about 60/40 against running right now. If we had another week, we'd go for sure, but we need to talk it over." Jazil has been second in both of his 2007 starts, most recently running 9 1/2 lengths adrift of Corinthian (Pulpit) in a Gulfstream allowance Feb. 8. Corinthian is expected to be one of the favorites in Saturday's 1 3/16-mile event. McLaughlin also reported that Shadwell's 2006 Horse of

CANCER

Bob O'Malley
1937-2007
suffolkdowns.com

Robert M. O'Malley, a long-time executive at Suffolk Downs, died Sunday at his home in Milton, Massachusetts, after battling cancer for several years. He was 69. O'Malley began working at the track parking cars part-time as a student in 1962. He joined Suffolk full-time in 1974 as assistant general manager, and was promoted to general manager in 1979. He later served as vice president of planning and development and executive vice president of operations. "We will miss Bob O'Malley's character and leadership," said John Hall, Suffolk Downs president.

"His knowledge and expertise have been invaluable and, through the years, he has been a wonderful mentor. He earned the respect of everyone in racing in New England and of everyone who worked with him." Born in Boston in 1937, O'Malley served a two-year stint in Vietnam. Following his discharge from the Marines, he graduated from Boston State College before earning a graduate degree in history from the University of Pennsylvania as a Woodrow Wilson Fellow. In 2002, O'Malley received the Sam McCracken Memorial Award for lifetime contributions to New England racing from the New England Turf Writers Association. In addition to working at the track, O'Malley was an enthusiastic racing fan, attending every Kentucky Derby for 23 years from 1980 to 2003. He missed the race in 2004 and was in the Churchill stands for the last time in 2005. A wake will be held Wednesday, Feb. 28 at the Alfred Thomas Funeral Home in Milton from 4-8 p.m. A funeral service will be held Thursday, Mar. 1 at 10:30 a.m. at St. Agatha Parish in Milton. Burial will follow in Milton Cemetery.

LES GRAND TROIS MAY RETURN IN HUTCH

Live Oak Plantation's Les Grand Trois (Officer), an impressive nine-length winner in his lone start at Belmont last July, may return to action in Saturday's GII Hutcheson S. at Gulfstream. "We had to take a chip out of his ankle after his win," trainer Bobby Frankel said of the $220,000 KEESEP yearling purchase. "He's back and he's ready to run, but he's in California and we'd have to work out some things to get him here." On Sunday, Les Grand Trois worked six panels in 1:12 4/5 at Hollywood Park.

INDIANA HOUSE PASSES SLOTS BILL

The Indiana House of Representatives last Friday passed a bill that would allow up to 5,000 slot machines at Indiana horse racing tracks. The bill would allow the state's two beleaguered Thoroughbred tracks, Hoosier Downs and Indiana Downs, to each pay a $100 million fee to install up to 2,500 slot machines. Revenue generated by the machines would be taxed at a rate of 37.5 percent. If the bill is enacted, the tracks and the horse racing industry, starting in 2009, would forego the subsidies they currently share from riverboat gambling revenue, currently about $27 million a year. The bill now moves to the Senate for consideration.

OWNER, BREEDERS MAX HUGEL DEAD AT 81

Max Hugel, a prominent owner and breeder, has died at his farm in Ocala, Florida. He was 81. Hugel was active in breeding in New York, standing the stallion Manlove at Foggy Bottom Farm, and breeding and racing some of that stallion's best offspring, including multiple-graded stakes winner and millionaire Proud Man, and graded winner Gal O Gal. Born in the Bronx on May 23, 1925, Hugel enlisted in the Army during World War II and later attended the Military Intelligence School in Michigan. He went on to hold several different positions in business and government, and once served as the deputy director of the Central Intelligence Agency. Since 1983, Hugel was board chairman of Rockingham Venture Inc., the parent company that revived the formerly fire-devastated Rockingham Park. He also was involved in Empire Racing, one of three major bidders for the New York racing franchise. Hugel is survived by his wife Diane, four children and 10 grandchildren.

FILLY SETS RECORD AT TASMANIAN SELECT

A filly from the first crop of Swettenham Stud's Hold That Tiger brought a high bid of A$78,000 to top Monday's opening session of the Magic Million Tasmanian Select Yearling Sale, held at the Iveresk Showgrounds in Launceston, Tasmania. Consigned by Camoquhill Stud, Lot 70, was purchased by Tasmania's Aceland Stud. Out of the winning mare Framed (Aus) (Tate Gallery), the Sept. 10 foal is a half-brother to Meridian Star (HK) (Dolphin Street {Fr}), Group 1 placed in Hong Kong and an earner of over HK$15 million. Among the buyers present at Monday's opening session were Gai Waterhouse, Star Thoroughbreds, Prime Thoroughbreds, John Ledger, Terry O'Sullivan, Ken Keys, Romi Karam, David Bourne, Ken Sweeney and Richard Jolly. "We had a great buying bench on hand," said Magic Millions Managing Director David Chester. "A number were from the mainland and they were impressed by the quality of the yearlings." A total of 110 lots drew A$1,707,000, up from A$1,523,500 for 111 head a year ago. The average rose from A$13,725 in 2006 to A$15,518 this term. The two-day sale concludes Thursday, with bidding beginning at 12 noon.
