A CLEAN TRIP PROVES TO BE 'QUAY'

Following a disastrous trip in the Feb. 10 GIII Risen Star S., Circular Quay (Thunder Gulch) rebounded smartly to post a last-to-first victory over Ketchikan (Mr. Greeley) in yesterday's GII Louisiana Derby. "He didn't redeem himself as much as the fact that he got a good trip today," trainer Todd Pletcher said. "He was probably the best horse last time [in the Risen Star]. Thank goodness he came out of it in one piece. Today, this was his natural running style--to run in the back of the pack and come with a late run. Early speed helps. I think he's shown from day one that he's among the best of his generation. He's never disappointed us." Pletcher said that the GI Wood Memorial at Aqueduct Apr. 7 may be next. cont. p2

'COWTOWN' RULES THE GOTHAM

You can add another GI Kentucky Derby contender to Todd Pletcher's stacked hand. Cowtown Cat (Distorted Humor), a $1.5-million BARMAR juvenile purchase, rallied to a 2 1/2-length victory over Wafi City (E Dubai) in yesterday's GIII Gotham S. at the Big A. Even-money favorite Summer Doldrums (Street Cry {Ire}) had to settle for third. cont. p6

NEW ORLEANS NOT THE SAME MINUS 'LIQUOR'

There wasn't much competition for Master Command (A.P. Indy) in yesterday's GII New Orleans H. at Fair Grounds following the scratch of morning-line second choice Liquor Cabinet (Ire) (Hennessy), and he took full advantage as the 1-5 favorite, cruising to a 3 1/2-length victory after stalking the early pace. "I let the other horse [Good and Lucky (Wild Rush)] go for a while," jockey John Velazquez said. "It was just me and him. The first quarter was pretty comfortable. He grabbed a hold of the track right out of the gate. Not much else you can say--it was pretty easy." cont. p3

Master Command

THE MAN WITH A 'PLAN'

Trainer Doug O'Neill has plenty of nice sophomore colts in his barn and looks to have a pretty nice filly as well with Mistical Plan (Game Plan) following a sharp wire-to-wire victory over GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies runner-up Octave (Unbridled's Song) in yesterday's GII Fair Grounds Oaks. "The last two times going two turns, we didn't draw the greatest of posts and she got hung out wide," O'Neill commented. "The fractions seemed very quick. That worried me, but she's a filly you can't take back on. Corey just rode her beautifully." cont. p5

Circular Quay Rebounds...

Circular Quay broke last of eight from the one hole with John Velazquez aboard. Allowed to settle toward the back as Ketchikan set :23.61 and :46.53 fractions, he made a strong middle move down the back stretch, picked off horses turning for home and had the race decided in deep stretch while showing some signs of immaturity. "He really ran well," Velazquez said. "The last time, when he got going, everything happened in front of him. You can't get stopped at the quarter pole and start running again. But today, he did it without any trouble. Finally, we got a good trip and we got it done. That's all I can say. We got a good trip and we got it done."

Solid Foundation...

Circular Quay began his career with three straight victories, including the GIII Bashford Manor S. July 8 and the Sept. 1 GI Hopeful S. Making his two-turn debut in the Oct. 7 GI Lane's End Breeders' Futurity, he found only Great Hunter too tough, finishing second by 1 3/4 lengths. Sent off as the 3-1 favorite in the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile, he placed a distant second behind subsequent champion Street Sense. Backed as the 6-5 favorite in the GIII Risen Star S., the chestnut was checked out of contention on the turn for home trying to avoid a fallen runner, and re-rallied to finish fifth, beaten 8 3/4 lengths.

Balance, heroine of the GI Las Virgenes S. and the GI Santa Anita Oaks at three, hit the sidelines following an 11th-place finish in the GI Kentucky Oaks. She resurfaced with a third-place finish in the GI La Brea S. Dec. 30, then rebounded with a strong 4 1/4-length victory in the Feb. 11 GI La Canada S. last time. Favored to make it two straight here, the bay sat patiently in fourth as Witch Woman (Awesome Again) set the early pace. With Victor Espinoza aboard, Balance awaited racing room in the stretch as Ermine took command, but got the best of that one after a long drive. "Every time I tried to go somewhere, somebody covered me up," Espinoza said. "At the top of the stretch I was able to swing out and I had a ton of horse. I had no doubt then that I was going to catch [her], but I was a little concerned in the middle of the turn."

Margins: 3HF, HD, 5HF. Odds: 0.30, 4.70, 6.60.

Also Ran: Good and Lucky, Sandburr, More Than Regal. Scratched: Liquor Cabinet (Ire).

Master Command began his career with three straight victories, then tasted his first defeat when fourth in the GII Oaklawn H. last April. He got back on track with a victory in the GIII William Donald Schaefer H. on the Preakness undercard, but disappointed with a sixth-place finish as the 2-1 favorite in the July 1 GII Cornhusker Breeders' Cup H. The chestnut rebounded with a third-place finish in the GIII Iselin Breeders' Cup Aug. 19 and followed with a wire-to-wire victory in the GII Meadowlands Breeders' Cup S. Oct. 13. Master Command closed out his four-year-old campaign with a fourth-place finish in the Nov. 24 GI Clark H., but started off the new year on the right foot with a six-length tally in the GIII Mineshaft H. over this strip Feb. 10. "Obviously, he is at his best at a mile and an eighth," Pletcher said. "He is a big colt by A.P. Indy and they usually get better as they get older."

While most of the focus was on GII Demoiselle S. victress' Boca Grande (A.P. Indy) seasonal debut, it was Forever Together who stole the show. The gray debuted at Delaware Nov. 5 with a 3 1/4-length wire-to-wire victory, then rallied from off the pace to post the Ocala Breeders' Sales Sprint S. by 2 1/2 lengths last time Feb. 12. Trying an extra furlong here, the Augustin Stable colorbearer stalked Changeisgonnacome (Cherokee Run) through :22.39 and :45.22 fractions and powered clear in the stretch to post her first graded stakes victory. "She ran well to break her maiden at Delaware and she was eligible for the OBS race, which is a restricted race and essentially amount to a 'non-winners' of two," trainer Jonathan Sheppard said. "That was a step up and today was another big step." Favored Boca Grande failed to make an impact after bobbling at the start.

 Margins: HF, 1HF, HD. Odds: 3.40, 22.40, 6.30.
 Also Ran: Transduction Gold, Sweet Return (GB), Heat of the Night (SAf), Hendrix, Macduff (GB), Desert Wheat, The Carbon Unit, King's Drama (Ire).

Three-for-five last season with a victory in the GI Gulfstream Park BC Turf H., Einstein was fourth in both the Apr. 1 GIII Pan American H. at Gulfstream and the May 6 GI Woodford Reserve Turf Classic at Churchill Downs before taking nearly nine months off. The dark bay returned to run fourth yet again in an optional claimer at Gulfstream Jan. 31, and just missed in his latest. The five-year-old grabbed the lead in deep stretch while trying to defend his title in the Gulfstream Park BC Turf Feb. 24, but was caught by Jambalaya and Honey Ryder in the dying strides and had to settle for third. Rated in midpack as 64-1 Transduction Gold (Formal Gold) cut out the early pace, Einstein took the longest way around the course and was carried wider still when King's Drama (King's Theatre {Ire}) was pulled up before the second turn. But he overcame the troubled trip, rallying to gain the lead inside the eighth pole and holding off the late charge of Cloudy's Knight for the narrow score. own with a second-place finish when stretched to one mile in the Gill Pocahontas S. at Churchill Downs Oct. 29, then closed out the year with an eighth-place finish as the 5-2 favorite in the GI Hollywood Startlet S. Dec. 17. Mistical Plan tired to finish third after dueling for the lead in the Gill Santa Ysabel S. Jan. 6, but responded well to a cut back in distance for the six-furlong Jan. 27 Sunshine Millions Oaks, scoring by a nose. Sent on the engine from the one hole by jockey Corey Nakatani, she rattled off :23.57 and :46.99 fractions, was pressed by Appealing Zophie (Successful Appeal) at the top of the stretch, but turned that one back and drew away smartly in the stretch. "She's been a handful before," Nakatani said. "Today, I just let her run her best race. What more can you say about Doug O'Neill and young horses, and Mr. Reddam putting up the money to get these young horses? She was getting some pressure, but my main goal was to let her be comfortable. We were loaded for bear. She's run some clunkers going two turns, but we're not done yet."

High Again, who graduated in her 2006 finale at Aqueduct last November, returned to take a Jan. 20 Gulfstream allowance before running second behind Christmas Kid in the Feb. 10 GII Davona Dale S. last time out. The chestnut filly tracked the early pacesetter and was content to maintain her position as favored Christmas Kid darted to the lead leaving the backstretch. High Again kept the favorite in her sights and reeled her in down the stretch to win going away. "I was a little concerned with the way Christmas Kid went by her on the turn, but it was encouraging with the way she got going again and went after it," admitted winning trainer Bill Mott. "It looked today like she was really suited to the 1 1/8-mile distance. After today, we surely have to be thinking about [races like the GI Kentucky Oaks]. Way back here in the back of my head I've been thinking about it, but they have to show you a race like this before you get serious about it."

Cowtown Cat defeated Summer Doldrums by 4 1/2 lengths in a Belmont maiden last September, but wasn't quite ready for the next level in the GIII Nashua S., finishing a distant sixth after stumbling at the start. The chestnut got back on track in his sophomore bow at Gulfstream Jan. 14 with a 4 1/4-length allowance tally and followed with a third-place finish as the 3-2 favorite in the GII Swale S. Feb. 3. Making his two-turn debut here, he saved ground while sitting close to the leaders, awaited racing room in the lane and rallied smartly between horses in deep stretch to win going away. "He was very willing to go through that hole," jockey Ramon Dominguez said. "He was very brave." Summer Doldrums, a 5 1/4-length winner of the Feb. 10 Whirlaway S., had no excuse while third.

S. at Monmouth Park by 5 1/2 lengths before a 1 1/4-length triumph in the Oct. 7 GII Cotillion Breeders' Cup H. Unraced since that effort, the chestnut filly was on or near the lead throughout. She opened a three-length advantage in upper stretch and then gamely outbattled Kettleoneup for a narrow victory.

"This filly has good cruising speed, then when you ask her, she really takes off," jockey Chris DeCarlo said. "That is a mark of a good one. My filly really dug in there near the end."

Attila's Storm captured the Fall Highweight H. at Aqueduct in November of 2005, but hadn't visited the winner's circle since. The bay ended his three-year-old campaign with a runner-up finish behind Proud Tower Too in the GI Malibu S. in December, then went 0-for-four last year. Sidelined after running third in the Jan. 21 GII Palos Verdes H. at Santa Anita, he returned to fill the show spot in the Oct. 7 GI Vosburgh S. at Belmont Park. Attila's Storm was not disgraced when fifth to Eclipse winner Thor's Echo as a 42-1 outsider in the Nov. 4 GI Breeders' Cup Sprint, but faded after flashing early speed in the GI DeFrancis Memorial Dash three weeks later and finished seventh behind the champ. Freshened for a couple of months after that performance, he was coming off a second-place effort in the Jan. 27 Paumonok H. at this track and trip. The crowd's choice put the pressure on Kelp (Sea of Secrets) through an opening quarter in :21 4/5 and drew on even terms before they hit the quarter pole. The five-year-old was clear after a half in :44 1/5 and held Wild Jam at bay to the wire. "I knew the fractions were suicidal," admitted jockey Ramon Dominguez. "I was definitely nervous the last sixteenth. He had run so fast and was getting tired, but he showed his class." Added trainer Rick Schosberg, "It's about time we got back into the winners' circle with him. We've had some rough luck with him." The winner will point for the Apr. 7 GI Carter H. Desert Code started his career at Belmont, finishing second in his second start for trainer Dale Romans last October. He shipped west after that outing to join the David Hofmans barn and broke his maiden in his first appearance under new management, taking a sprint on the Hollywood all-weather Dec. 17. Fourth in E Z Warrior's Jan. 7 San Miguel S., the chestnut switched to the grass for an allowance test down the hill at Santa Anita Feb. 18 and posted a two-length tally. Odds-on to make it two-for-two on the lawn, he rated just off the leaders through a half in :43 flat, swept to the front just inside the eighth pole and drew clear. Jockey Richie Migliore said the margin could have been bigger. "When he hits the front, he idles a bit and he did it again today about 70 yards from the wire," Migliore remarked. "When I put my stick down, his head came up and he wanted to wait on horses." Hofmans was more than pleased. "He's the coolest horse, nothing seems to bother him," he said. "The dirt course here is a little hard for him, but the Cushion Track at Hollywood Park really helped this horse develop, and I think he found a home on this turf course." Click for the Making his graded stakes debut here, the chestnut was sixth following a :22.61 opening quarter, rallied three wide on the turn for home and wore down Freesgood to get the victory.

On the upgrade at the end of last term, Pearl Sky continued where she left off by denting some notable reputations with an emphatic success in these testing conditions. Tried at the highest level when 11th in the G1 Prix de Diane (French Oaks) at Chantilly in June, she took until the winter to find her feet in stakes company, rounding off her sophomore campaign with success in the Listed Prix Petite Etoile at this circuit in December. Never far from the pace, she was committed inside the final quarter and dominated the last eighth, drawing away from the tiring Runaway and staying on Elasos. Last year's G1 Prix Royal-Oak first and second Montare (Ire) and Bellamy Cay (GB) failed to land a blow, while the GI Joe Hirsch Turf Classic Invitational runner-up Freedonia (GB) weakened tamely to finish last. "She finished last season on a high note and although she looked a little under-rated coming here, I knew I had to go for it as she was doing very well," winning trainer Yves de Nicolay commented. "That was a fine effort and we'll take our time to decide where to go next."

The career of Pompeii Ruler, who grew up on a nurse mare after his dam died while foaling, then failed to meet his A$10,000 reserve at auction, came full circle yesterday at Caulfield, as the four-year-old registered his first Group 1 success with a minimum of fuss. Third in last year's G1 Cox Plate, the chestnut was spelled, returning to be seventh to El Segundo (NZ) (Pins {Aus}) when in need of a run in the G1 C.F. Orr S. Feb. 10. He put it all together in his latest, getting up for a narrow victory over Marasco in the G2 St. Georges S. Feb. 24. Taken off a lethargic pace by birthday boy Craig Newitt, Pompeii Ruler rallied three wide into the stretch and opened up an unassailable advantage, despite drifting in late. The winner could make his next start in the G1 BMW S. Mar. 31 or the G1 Dubai Sheema Classic on the same afternoon. Shadwell's Tawqeeet is reportedly also bidding for an invitation to the Sheema Classic.

Miss Andretti is squarely on target for an assault on Royal Ascot after smashing the Caulfield track record en route to her third Group 1 in succession. Lee Freedman did not hesitate to put the five-year-old mare in the same company with Makybe Diva (GB) after she became the first horse to complete a sweep of the G1 Lightning S., the G1 Australia S. and this event. "She didn't surprise me but the time did," Freedman told Australia Associated Press. Always prominent yesterday, Miss Andretti responded to the urgings of Craig Newitt and got up late as three-year-old filly Gold Edition came calling late. Freedman reports that Miss Andretti will get a breather prior to being readied for her overseas journey for the G2 King's Stand S. June 19 and the G1 Golden Jubilee S. June 23. "She'll be a great representative," Freedman added.

Miss Finland became just the second filly to defeat her male counterparts in this event, taking her career earnings to nearly A$4 million in the process. Last year's G1 Golden Slipper S. victress bounced back from a sixth in the G1 Cox Plate with a victory in the G1 Crown Oaks Nov. 9. Rested off that effort, she began this preparation with a fourth to El Segundo (NZ) in the Feb. 10 G1 C.F. Orr S. over 1400 meters, but easily defeated a group of females by 3 1/4 lengths in the G2 Angus Armanasco S. at this track Feb. 24. Rated along in midfield, Miss Finland was asked for her effort turning into the straight and finished strongly down the center of the track for the win. "She's probably looking for further and had to sprint with good horses today but was able to beat them," trainer David Hayes told Australia Associated Press. The winner is likely to make her next appearance in the G1 Arrowfield Stud S. against fillies and mares Mar. 31.

Rags to Riches was off the board in her one start as a juvenile last season, but has catapulted herself to the head of her division with only two attempts this year. The $1.9-million KEESSEP graduate began the year with a six-length maiden tally at Santa Anita Jan. 7, then defeated Baroness Thatcher, Runway Rosie and Cash Included in the GI Las Virgenes last time Feb. 10. "I don't know if she's mature for her age, but she is talented," jockey Garrett Gomez said of Rags to Riches. "Still, she's got a lot of room for improvement. She doesn't have a lot of seasoning. She's only run three times. She's come along and she's starting to understand her program." Cash Included, heroine of the GI Oak Leaf Breeders' Cup S. over track and trip last term, was making her first start since finishing fifth in the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies when fourth in the Las Virgenes.

Winner of last season's G1 Phoenix S. and G1 Grand Criterium, Holy Roman Emperor was expected to be trainer Aidan O'Brien's best prospect for the 2000 Guineas in May. "We were shell shocked about it here because Holy Roman Emperor was our best horse," said Aidan O'Brien, explaining his thoughts on the three-year-old's sudden retirement. "The more I tried to persuade him not to retire him, the more he was convinced he had to retire him. The boss has his clients there and has to take care of them. It's a big shock to everyone here. We are a racing stable and everyone here does their best every day to make it happen. We have been very happy with him and we were looking forward to the Guineas. What can I say?"

Holy Roman Emperor

Star in the Making..

From four victories in 2006, the three-year-old also won the G2 Railway S. and concluded his two-year-old campaign with a head defeat by Teofilo over the rain-softened ground at Newmarket in the G1 Dewhurst S. Oct. 14. "He handled all types of ground, he ran in the Dewhurst on soft when we were nearly not going to run him," said O'Brien. "He got into traffic trouble on soft ground and still only just got beat and looked very unlucky." Still obviously surprised by the decision, O'Brien was pragmatic. "It's a sickener, but it's a business decision," he said. "The lads have been in business a long time and have a lot of very important clients. He is a Danehill with a super physique, he has everything. With all the mares booked to George they felt they had to pull out all the stops for the people. He had speed, he had everything. He was well forward, we were going along lovely. Hopefully, some of the others will improve--we'll keep trying."

'EMPEROR' RETIRED; 'GEORGE' STUD

FUTURE IN QUESTION Dual Group 1 winner Holy Roman Emperor (Danehill--L'on Vite, Secretariat) has been retired from racing and will take up stud duty at Coolmore Ireland in an effort to cover mares initially booked to juvenile champion George Washington (Danehill--Bordighera, by Alysheba). George Washington has been experiencing fertility issues since his retirement late last fall and the decision was recently taken to suspend his breeding duties until further examination of the four-year-old's condition. "We are fortunate to have a horse of Holy Roman Emperor's caliber to take over in order to facilitate our clients with mares booked to George Washington," said Coolmore's Christy Grassick, explaining the decision for Holy Roman Emperor's early retirement.

FRANKEL SETS RECORD AT SANTA ANITA

Heading into yesterday's card, trainer Bobby Frankel needed just one victory to surpass the all-time record of 870 wins at Santa Anita set by Charlie Whittingham, and the Hall of Famer got the job done with a three-year-old In the Woods. The 4-5 choice in the field of seven, the colt drove to an impressive 5 1/4-length tally in the third race of the card, a 6 1/2-furlong maiden special weight event. Frankel tied Whittingham with Les Grand Trois, who won a 6 1/2-furlong allowance Wednesday. "It's a big deal," Frankel said following Wednesday's victory. "Charlie is a legend." The five-time Eclipse Award winner, who saddled his first winner in 1966, has won 3,429 races to date. The 65-year-old has ranked among the nation's top 20 trainers in money earned since 1971.

Speedball Smitty's Sunshine remained perfect in four turf sprint starts with another comprehensive success. The front-running winner of a one-mile turf allowance at Louisiana Downs Oct. 7, the Louisiana-bred shortened up to five panels to upset the Nov. 12 Pent Up Kiss H. at Churchill Downs at odds of 7-1. The bay made it three on the bounce with a gate-to-wire score in the A.B. Leggio Memorial S. over course and trip Jan. 13. Heads apart with Miss Penny Fortune through splits of :21.60 and :44.39, Smitty's Sunshine put that rival away approaching the eighth pole and scooted home an easy winner. "I knew she was going that fast. That's her deal," said winning rider Robby Albarado. "If she slows it up, she can outspurt them from the eighth pole."
