RAGS TO RICHES DOMINATES SA OAKS

Capping an outstanding weekend for the Todd Pletcher barn, the regally bred Rags to Riches (A.P. Indy) staked her claim as the best three-year-old filly in the country with an overpowering performance in the GI Santa Anita Oaks in Arcadia yesterday. The chestnut, who is owned by Michael Tabor and Derrick Smith, powered to the lead with a quick move leaving the far turn and leveled out nicely as she cruised home 5 1/2 lengths clear of Silver Swallow (Alphabet Soup). The win was impressive enough to raise the possibility of running against the boys in the near future, perhaps in the Apr. 7 GI Santa Anita Derby. "Well, when we first started out, the plan was the Las Virgenes, the Santa Anita Oaks, and the Kentucky Oaks, but when you get a filly that's bred like this, that obviously, the further they go, the better she's supposed to get, it makes you think about other possibilities," said Pletcher. "She's had a pretty easy race today, so it opens up the possibility of maybe trying something in between this and the Kentucky Oaks. It maybe opens up the option of running her against colts. That might make a decision on whether or not she actually runs in the Oaks." SA Oaks cont. p2

ROUND POND OFF THE BOARD IN RAMPART

Making her first start since upsetting last November's GI Breeders' Cup Distaff, Round Pound (Awesome Again) was sent off the heavy 2-5 favorite in yesterday's GI Rampart H. at Gulfstream, but failed to fire as 'Giant Killer' Allen Jerkens's Miss Shop (Deputy Minister) romped to an easy win. Round Pound tired to be fourth after racing near the pace. Her trainer, Michael Matz, indicated that a "little problem" last week might have contributed to the five-year-old's lackluster effort. "She tied up, but seemed okay to go ahead," said Matz. "Still, we got a race into her and hopefully can go on from here with the GI Apple Blossom [Apr. 7 at Oaklawn Park] next if she's okay." Rampart cont. p2

Rich Vein of Talent...

Bred to be a superstar, Rags to Riches is by champion sire A.P. Indy out of graded stakes winner Better Than Honour, making her a half-sister to last year's GI Belmont S. hero Jazil. Knocked down for $1.9 million as a KEESEP yearling to the connections of Saturday's GII Louisiana Derby winner Circular Quay, she debuted with a fourth-place finish at Churchill last June. Off for the next seven months, she returned on the West Coast with a smart six-length maiden victory at Santa Anita Jan. 7. Stepping right into Grade I company in the Feb. 10 Las Virgenes S., she raced wide every step of the way, but overhauled a game Baroness Thatcher (Johannesburg) for the 3/4-length win. Looking to go three-for-three this year, Rags to Riches was again kept wide by Garrett Gomez around the first turn as she tracked the pace of Baroness Thatcher and Silver Swallow. Given her cue nearing the quarter pole, Rags to Riches blew past the leaders and never left the outcome in doubt despite running a bit greenly down the stretch. Not only was Rags to Riches bred to be a superstar, she was bred to win this race; her grandam, Blush With Pride, won it back in 1982 when it was known as the Santa Susana S. That could bode well for Rags to Riches's chances in the Kentucky Oaks, should she go. Blush with Pride won that race, too. Miss Shop was a busy girl in 2006. The Hobeau Farm homebred raced 14 times last term, with her biggest efforts coming by way of thirds in the GI CCA Oaks and GI Ruffian H. and a victory in the GIII Turnback the Alarm H. in November. On the sod in her last three, she registered a win in the Jan. 27 Sunshine Millions F/M Turf and came home fifth to Wait a While in the GIII Honey Fox H. Mar. 4. Wheeling back a week later for this, Miss Shop was pinched back going into the first turn, raced along in fourth, then powered clear with a wide move in the stretch. Trainer Allen Jerkens also saddled the third-place finisher Swap Fliparoo, another Hobeau homebred. "I decided just this morning at 11 o'clock that we had take the turf shoes that [Miss Shop] had on from last week off and put on her flat-running shoes," said Jerkens. "I got to thinking that in case [Swap Fliparoo] couldn't go a mile and an eighth, that this one could. I probably wasn't going to race her [Miss Shop] again before Belmont, so she was going to have plenty of rest after coming back after a week. This filly's just good--period." Favored Round Pound made a bid for the lead in upper stretch, but tired down the lane and finished fourth. So-called bridgejumpers took a hit with her off-the-board effort: show prices for the top three finishers were, respectively, $14.80, $24.00 and $11.20. First or second in all nine of his career starts coming into this, Smokey Stover, who hails from the same connections as Lost in the Fog, concluded his sophomore campaign with a second in the Nov. 4 Saguaro S. at Turf Paradise. He seemed to turn a corner two back, romping by 10 lengths in a Golden Gate allowance Jan. 7. He confirmed that effort with a smart 3 1/4-length win over Proud Tower Too and Bordonaro in the Sunshine Millions Sprint at Santa Anita Jan. 27. Here, the four-year-old was looking to confirm his status as one of the top sprinters on the West Coast and did so with ease. The dark bay kept the pacesetter honest up the backstretch through :22 3/5 and :44 2/5 splits and pulled clear when asked. Britt's Jules put in a game run to complete the exacta while never seriously threatening the winner. "He did what he had to do today and he did it the right way," said winning jockey Aaron Gryder. "It looks like he's getting stronger and better with every race. He's a big horse with a long, fluid stride. I just hope to be able to keep having some fun with him."

PLETCHER OUTLINES PLANS AFTER BIG DAY

A day after a dominating display by his barn, trainer Todd Pletcher yesterday outlined future plans for his runners. Pletcher's big winners on Saturday included Cowtown Cat (Distorted Humor) in the GIII Gotham S., Circular Quay (Thunder Gulch) in the GII Louisiana Derby, Master Command (A.P. Indy) in the GII New Orleans H. and India (Hennessy) in the GIII Azeri Breeders' Cup S. Pletcher also won the GIII Razorback H. at Oaklawn on Friday with Magna Graduate (Honor Grades). Pletcher said that Cowtown Cat exited the Gotham in good order and could join Circular Quay in the nine-furlong GI Wood Memorial S. at Aqueduct Apr. 7. "[Assistant] Seth [Benzel] said the colt looked good [yesterday morning]," said Pletcher. "I spoke with Elliot Walden [of co-owner WinStar Farm], and I'll also get the Gulf Coast people together to figure out what we're going to do next. The Wood is certainly a possibility." Wood Memorial day could be a big one for Pletcher. Magna Graduate is scheduled to make his next start in the GIII Excelsior Breeders' Cup S. on the undercard, while Keyed Entry (Honour and Glory) and Half Ours (Unbridled's Song) are both on target for the GI Carter H. Pletcher's three-year-old filly Octave (Unbridled's Song), second as the favorite in the GII Fair Grounds Oaks Saturday, is slated to have just one more start before the May 4 GI Kentucky Oaks. "I think we're going to [Keeneland's Apr. 7] GI Ashland S., then the Kentucky Oaks with her," said Pletcher.

Why

N

"I travel hundreds of thousands of miles every year. Just knowing that wherever I am, anywhere in the world, I'm never out of touch with thoroughbred racing around the planet, and I'm staying days ahead of stakes stats and breeder stats in my weekly thoroughbred magazines. TDN is the first thing I read in the morning, and the last thing I do before sleep. You're simply the best!"

- David Cassidy

SUMMER DOLDRUMS SCOPES DIRTY Klaravich Stable's Summer Doldrums (Street Cry {Ire}), a disappointing third as the favorite in Saturday's GIII Gotham S. at Aqueduct, scoped dirty after the race, according to trainer Rick Violette, Jr. "It was like cottage cheese crud in his lungs," said Violette yesterday morning. "Other than that, he's fine." In the Gotham, the impressive Whirlaway S. winner raced near the pace, then couldn't match strides with eventual winner Cowtown Cat down the lane. "I figured he would bounce off the Whirlaway, and when you combine that with the crud in his lungs, he ran the way he should." Violette added that the colt will make his next start in the Apr. 7 GI Wood Memorial S. at the Big A. Meanwhile, Violette's promising three-year-old filly Dream Rush (Wild Rush) is back in training after a minor illness following her defeat of champion Dreaming of Anna in the GIII Old Hat S. at Gulfstream Park in February. "She had a bit of a temperature, but she's fine now and back on the racetrack," said Violette. "She's still in Florida and we haven't decided what to do with her yet."

WAFI CITY ANOTHER WOOD POSSIBLE Darley Stable's Wafi City (E Dubai) looked a winner in mid-stretch in Saturday's GIII Gotham S. and ran on gamely to be runner-up to Cowtown Cat, and could meet that foe again in the GI Wood Memorial S.

"He ran very well," said trainer Kieran McLaughlin, who ran second in last year's Wood with Jazil. "He came out of the race great. Maybe it was a touch far for him and maybe he was a touch outrun late. Cowtown Cat had some trouble and I thought he looked really good when he got clear, but I like that my horse stayed on the way he did. I wouldn't be opposed to running back in the Wood."

Handle Record on Louisiana Derby:

Saturday's Louisiana Derby card at Fair Grounds produced records for on-track and all-sources handle. The on-track crowd of 6,321 wagered $901,941, the highest on-track wagering total in the 10-year history of Fair Grounds' grandstand/clubhouse facility. The previous record of $866,466 was on Louisiana Derby Day in 2005. The all-sources handle of $12,400,747 bettered the 2005 record by nine percent. "This was the richest day of racing in Louisiana history and the quality of the racing lived up to it," said Fair Grounds President Randy Soth. "It's one of the best days of racing I've ever seen."

Yesterday's Results:

7th-FGX, $47,500, Alw, NW1X, 4yo/up, f/m, a1 1/16mT, 1:45 2/5, fm.

HER EXCELLENCY (f, 4, Deputy Minister--Go Classic {SP}, by Gone West) graduated over track and trip Jan. 26 before finishing a close second against allowance foes Feb. 12. Reserved off the early pace, the chestnut swung wide for the drive and drew clear to win by 1 3/4 lengths over Final Melody (Unbridled's Song).

King's Drama Apparently OK After Muniz:

Gary Tanaka's California-based King's Drama (King's Theatre {Ire}), who was pulled up midway through the GII Mervyn H. Muniz Jr. Memorial H. Saturday at Fair Grounds, is reportedly fine. Jockey Edgar Prado opted to pull up the seven-year-old after the veteran took a bad step on the backstretch, but the track veterinarian could find no injury. "He looks good," Scott Hansen, assistant to trainer Bobby Frankel, said yesterday morning. "He walked off the track fine, he cooled out fine, and we checked him out again [Sunday] morning. He jogged [yesterday] morning and he seems to be all right."

Raise the Bluff, winner of the Emerald Downs BC Derby last year, most recently was fifth beaten 3 1/2 lengths in the San Carlos H. at Santa Anita Feb. 17 for trainer Junior Coffey. Moved to Doug O'Neill's stable soon after, the bay was given a 6-1 chance to succeed at first asking for his new connections. Never far back, he rallied to lead in the stretch and outfought odds-on C'Mon Tiger to the wire, exchanging bumps with that foe in the process.
