BUILD IT AND THEY WILL COME

With the sale season for juveniles in training in full swing, Barretts hopes the depth of the catalog will translate into money in the coffers at today's March Selected Two-Year-Olds in Training sale held at Fairplex in Pomona, California. Barretts officials are cautiously optimistic that the March fixture will hold its own against other two-year-old sales earlier on the calendar based on the re-appearance of many of the principal figures well known on the sales scene. Buying teams representing titans Coolmore and Darley were

Last year's $1.5 million
topper Cowtown Cat

spotted viewing horses earlier in the week, joining a bevy of domestic buyers that included trainers Ron McAnally, Craig Dollase and Todd Pletcher. A number of international buying interests have been rumored to be present while looking for talent to race locally and abroad, and Barretts has been busy marketing themselves to Eastern buyers, hoping to further expand the two-year-old market. "Most of the regular buyers are accounted for," said Barretts President and General Manager Gerald McMahon. "I was hoping we could also get a few more Eastern buyers than we've had in the past, so we have marketed pretty intensely in that area. I think we've done a good job getting us on the radar, and now, I just hope we've been able to convey that to more people." And the key to getting buyers to come out to Barretts? "This is a deeper catalog than we've had in the past," said McMahon. "Buyers have to pay attention to this sale because it's been so productive given that the quality consignors are supportive of this sale." One of those supporters is Wavertree Stable's Ciaran Dunne, who first attended the sale shortly after its inception in 1990. "This is probably as good a group as I've seen since I've been coming here," said Dunne. "I'm very supportive of others, because in the end, it helps us increase our visibility. The stronger the catalog is, the better for all, because it makes people want to travel out and attend the sale." With 200 horses catalogued, the single-session sale begins at 2:00 p.m. Barretts Coverage cont. p2

STORMELLO AIMS FOR REMATCH IN FL DERBY

Connections of Derby hopeful Stormello (Stormy Atlantic), a tough-as-nails second to Scat Daddy (Johannesburg) in the Mar. 3 Gil Fountain of Youth, have decided to have another go at that foe in the Mar. 31 GI Florida Derby at Gulfstream Park.

Horsephotos

"We've decided to come back there and settle the score with Scat Daddy," trainer and co-owner Bill Currin said yesterday morning from his Hollywood Park headquarters. "I'm convinced he never saw [Scat Daddy] coming. His ears were pricked. However, he ran a great race and I think we accomplished everything we set out to, giving him exposure in the east." Currin has tabbed Victor Espinoza to ride, as the colt's regular jockey, Kent Desormeaux, is slated to ride Premium Tap in the G1 Dubai World Cup on the same day. "The purse is $6 million, so I can hardly blame him," said Currin. "But we'll be fine. [Espinoza] rides for me out here and I'm very comfortable with that." Currin added that Stormello's latest effort sparked "inquiries from five major farms in Kentucky about his stud career."

Breeders' Cup Limited yesterday released the official event logo for the 24th Breeders' Cup World Championships, which will be held Oct. 26-27 at Monmouth Park in Oceanport, N.J., as well as the Breeders' Cup Challenge logo, which will be used in conjunction with 25 sanctioned major stakes races, whose winners automatically qualify for the Cup.

Been There, Dunne That...

Wavertree Stable's Ciaran Dunne first attended Barretts in the mid '90s, and has been sending out a consistent string of stakes performers ever since. Despite a brief hiatus earlier this decade, the witty Irishman came back in full force, selling the likes of Barretts catalog cover boys Point Determined, a $750,000 Bob and Beverly Lewis purchase in 2005 who won the Gill Affirmed H. last year; and Liquidity, purchased for $240,000 by Dennis O'Neill at last year's sale and subsequently runner-up in the GI Hollywood Futurity and Gill Sham S. Ready to roll with a strong consignment this year, the Florida-based horseman comes armed with Hip 52, an impressive colt by freshman sire Whywhywhy. Purchased by Dapple Bloodstock at Keeneland September for $400,000, the colt impressed connections with a crisp :10 second work Mar. 12. Also representing Wavertree is Hip 121, a colt by Indian Charlie out of the Twining mare Misty Weave. An $80,000 Keeneland September yearling purchase, the bay was the co-third fastest worker Mar. 12, covering an eighth of a mile in :10 1/5. "He's a big honest horse," said Dunne. "He's got a great shoulder on him and moves awesome." Brought back for another swing was Hip 135, a filly by Came Home. Out of the Deputy Minister mare Picabo Street, the Mar. 8 foal breezed a quarter mile in :22 flat during the first breeze and returned with a furlong move in :10 2/5 Sunday. "She had a little trouble last week handling the turn, but she fared much better Sunday," said Dunne. Well-reputed for bringing out some of his best two-year-olds to Barretts, Dunne was equally pleased with many of the juveniles brought over by his peers. "It gets better and better every year," he said. "If you look at the horse at the end of the shank and you then look at the end product--which is what they're doing on the racetrack--they really go forward. They are the best-performing horses in the country."

A Knight in Shining Armor...

Mary Knight has been a regular on the Barretts scene since the March sale's first run in 1990. The California-based horsewoman is back this year with yet another solid contingent. Knight admits that her operation, which she runs with her husband Jay, focuses primarily on pinhooking weanlings to yearlings, but the pair remains very supportive of the two-year-old sales. This year, Knight brings a number of fillies to the show, including Hip 33, a filly by first-crop sire Kafwain. The filly improved of a :10 2/5 breeze recorded during the first show, shaving off a fifth of a second the next time out Sunday. Also representing Knight is Hip 109, a colt by Bertrando, purchased for $30,000 at Barretts in October. The son of Magical Maze (Deputy Minister) hasn't been with Knight long, but has flourished during his time with the operation. "He's very athletic and a very attractive colt," said Knight. The bay, who galloped during the first session, stopped the clock at :10 2/5 during the second breeze show. While the sales are keeping the husband and wife team busy, the pair has added on another responsibility to their daily routine in the form of Pegasus Equine Rehabilitation Center. The operation--the brainchild of heart surgeon Mark Dedomenico--is located on a 100-acre tract of land in Redmond, Washington. Knight was named director of horse operations, while her husband Jay has assumed the duties of general manager. "Our goal is to bring back injured performance horses without taking them completely out of training, if we don't have to," explained Knight. "Some minor injuries can be addressed while keeping the horse active without having to start from square one."

Launched last October, the facility at Pegasus Equine Rehabilitation Center--with a capacity for approximately 110 horses-- is equipped with 44 stalls for rehabilitation, 65 training stalls and a number of isolation boxes. Among services offered by the state-of-the-art facility is Hyperbaric Oxygen, Stem Cell and Aqua therapies, while the center also offers an equine swimming pool, Aquatred (under water treadmill), Eurocisers (equine treadmill), and Polytrack racetrack and indoor arena. "Dr. Dedomenico has a tremendous attention to detail," explained Knight, who indicated that a surgery teletheater was also on the horizon for the center. "This center is designed to offer every cutting edge service and to be at the forefront of rehabilitation recovery." In an arena that pushes young horses to speed, Knight emphasized the need for a rehabilitation center of this scale. "The times get faster and faster," said Knight. "Those of us who sell horses don't always like that we have to push them, but the market place drives that. In light of that, the center provides an extremely necessary service for horsepeople."

B.C.3 Thoroughbreds Well-Armed at Barretts...

Barretts has been kind to B.C. 3 Thoroughbreds' John Brocklebank and Shane Chipman. In 2005, the duo brought a colt by Benchmark and let him go for $275,000 to trainer Dan Hendricks, acting on behalf of

L Marquardt

Cecil Peacock. The bay, named Brother Derek, went on to win the GII Norfolk S. and GI Hollywood Futurity at two, then annexed the GII San Rafael S., GII Santa Catalina S. and GI Santa Anita Derby the following season. Does B.C. 3 have any jewels this year? "They were not diamonds in the rough, they were diamonds," said

Brocklebank, referring to B.C. 3's stars of the first breeze session, Hip 60 and Hip 147. "They've just been dream horses. They jumped through every fiery hoop we pointed them at. They have trained all week and they have come out of that in just super shape. The two colts are shining." In a somewhat unusual move, the B.C. 3 colts were brought back the day following their respective breezes to register another work. "We wanted to show everybody how sound they both were which is why we worked them the day after the breeze," said Brocklebank, explaining the move. "They are sound horses." Another member of the team, Hip 51, a filly by Bernstein, posted the fastest time of the initial breeze when she stopped the timer at :9 4/5 for an eighth of a mile. "If you ever see the statue of Ruffian, it reminds me of this filly," enthused Brocklebank. "She's just gorgeous." The filly, who brought $200,000 at Keeneland in September, is out of the stakes-placed Pentelicus mare Comeusaibella. Should she go on to make a name for herself at two, she would follow in the hoofsteps of last year's B.C. 3 grad Zada Belle. That daughter of Indian Charlie made $95,000 at the 2006 Barretts sale, a price tag that likely reflected a sore tibia she was nursing at the time. While that may have turned off some buyers, it didn't dismay Bill Peeples, who paid $110,000 for the filly. "Bill is a good friend of mine and I told him not to worry and buy this filly," said Brocklebank. Peeples took the advice and looked smart doing so when Zada Belle charged home a nine-length winner in a Santa Anita maiden last October. The bay turned into a financial windfall for her new connections when Darley purchased her privately for $3 million. "We were happy she could do well, regardless who it's for," said Brocklebank. "Our reputation is the most important thing."

☆ HIP HAPPENINGS ☆

Hip 35, f, Cape Town--Charming Gal, by Slew Royalty
Consigned By B. C. 3 Thoroughbreds, agent

This Mar. 31 was only a tick off the fastest time posted for a quarter mile at the first breeze session, going in :20 flat. The dark bay is a full sister to stakes winner Race For Glory. "She was just a slam dunk, a very easy read," said Brocklebank of the $240,000 Barretts October yearling purchase. "She has a ton of swagger. She walks that way and she trains that way. I like to say that she has a 17-hand shoulder sitting on a 15 hand horse."

Hip 38, c, Storm Cat--Christmas at Aiken, by Affirmed
Consigned by Jerry Bailey Sales Agency, agent

A sale just wouldn't be a sale without a well-bred son of Storm Cat on the grounds. The May 14 is a 3/4 brother to Harlan's Holiday, winner of five graded stakes--a trio at the Grade I level--including the Florida Derby and Blue Grass S. "He caught the worst part of the racetrack, which I would have guessed would have been the best to begin with," said Bailey following a :10 4/5 move during the first breeze show Mar. 12. "It was quite slow to begin with and then picked up, so I don't think his time reflected what he is capable. He is a nice colt and he will show himself well." The chestnut, who is also a half to stakes-placed Dr. Holiday and Boxcar Cat, stopped the clock going an eighth in the identical time during the second preview.

Sold at Keeneland January for a bargain basement price of $35,000, the chestnut flourished into a

Jim Firios

$400,000 buy for Mike Aker's Dapple Bloodstock in September. The colt justified that price with an impressive :10 flat work during the first breeze show Mar. 12. "He's correct and he moves super," said Ciaran Dunne, who consigns the colt for Dap-

ple. "He's big and strong, and he was the same way as a yearling. He worked like a horse that should cost $400,000. Hopefully, everyone else likes him nearly as much as we do."

Hip 60, c, Johannesburg--Decadent Designer, by Well Decorated

Consigned By B. C. 3 Thoroughbreds, agent

This attractive colt already looked the part as a yearling and, consequently, agent John Brocklebank had to go up to $525,000 to secure the Mar. 26 foal at the Keeneland September sale. From the family of Bonapaw, the bay added to his appeal with a sparkling :9 4/5 move during the first breeze session. "He could rattle your chain," said Brocklebank. "There were 26 scopes on him when we bought him at Keeneland. He was an easy horse to land on."

The first foal out of seven-year-old Feminine, the bay looked professional during a :22 1/5 move for a quarter of a mile Mar. 12 and followed that effort with a one-furlong breeze in :10 2/5 Mar. 18. A $75,000 Keeneland January yearling, the Mar. 15 foal blossomed in subsequent months and was purchased by Excel Bloodstock for $400,000 at that venue in September. The youngster is a great grandson of Bali Babe, the dam of Kentucky Derby and Preakness hero Charismatic; GII Mervyn LeRoy H. winner Tossofthecoin and Millennium Wind, victorious in the GI Blue Grass S.

Hip 108, c, Forest Camp--Magical Flash, by Miswaki
Consigned by Niall Brennan Stables, Agent III

A $47,000 KEENOV weanling became a $140,000 purchase for agent Mike Ryan in September. The chestnut is out of Magical Flash (Miswaki), dam of three stakes winners, including Bright Magic, an earner of $212,393. During the first breeze, the colt covered an eighth of a mile in :10 2/5 and came back Sunday to post the fastest work at a quarter mile, going in :21 2/5. His time for the opening eighth was :10 flat. "He is such an honest horse," said Brennan. "He's so competitive and is the kind that gives you 110 percent."

Hip 147, c, Officer--Rovie Wade, by Silver Ghost
Consigned by B.C. 3. Thoroughbreds, agent

This strapping son of Officer produced the fastest work of the first breeze show, stopping the clock in a flashy :20 4/5 for a quarter of a mile. Out of the young mare Rovie Wade, who is a half sister to graded stakes winner Minor Wisdom, the colt will try and do what his sire did, and that is post a graded stakes success after recording a sub-:21 breeze at the March sale. Hip 147 is only the sixth horse to accomplish that feat in the sale's history; the first four--including Grade I winners Officer and Brother Derek--all went on to graded stakes success. "He looks like a clone of his sire," said agent John Brocklebank, who bought the colt for $190,000 at Keeneland September last year. "It looks like they've just added a few ingredients in the mix."

Take a look at Smart Strike's statistics and you can hardly fail to notice that this Lane's End resident made a seemingly sensational start with his first runners, born in 1998. From only 56 named foals, he came up with 10 stakes winners, which represented a strike rate of nearly 18 percent. Even his phenomenal sire Mr. Prospector would have been proud to achieve such excellent figures.

So how come Smart Strike's fee for 2003--set when his oldest runners were nearing the end of their four-year-old season--was only $20,000? This represented a $10,000 reduction from the fee he had commanded in his six previous years at stud.

The explanation for this apparent contradiction is that Smart Strike's success had been more of a slow burn than an instant explosion. Of those 10 first-crop stakes winners, two had gained their first stakes success at two and another three had done so as sophomores. The other four, which included Tenpins, a Grade II winner in 2002, and Fleetstreet Dancer, winner of the G1 Japan Cup Dirt in 2003, took longer to reach their prime. At the same time, these last four demonstrated Smart Strike's ability to sire durable, hard-knocking horses with the ability to build up sizeable earnings.

Smart Strike himself had taken time to fulfil the potential of his excellent bloodlines. Unraced at two, he didn't tackle stakes company in four starts at three, winning a maiden and two allowances. A torn tendon kept him out of action for a long time, but he returned at four to earn an International Classification rating of 119. He again won three of his four starts, his main success coming in the GI Philip H. Iselin H. over 8.5 furlongs.

Smart Strike's larger second crop, numbering 70 named foals, also took some time to hit full stride. This no doubt contributed to the fact that his 2002 yearlings averaged less than $57,000, with his median of $30,000 prompting the reduction in fee for 2003.

The drop in fee had the desired effect, with Smart Strike's book rising from 80 mares in 2002 to 119 mares in 2003. By the end of 2003 Smart Strike had risen to seventh place on the domestic sires list, with 10 stakes winners in the USA or Canada, and it is fair to say that he has never looked back.

His fee and his popularity have generally continued to climb. His book rose to 134 mares in 2004, when his fee was $25,000, then to 147 mares at a fee of $35,000 in 2005. A further rise to $50,000 in 2006 put the brakes on only slightly, with 133 mares visiting Smart Strike last year, and you can be sure that he is just as busy at the moment, when his fee is $75,000.

In other words, we are talking about a stallion who, despite being 15 years old, almost certainly has his best years ahead of him--and he has already given us performers of the calibre of English Channel, Shadow Cast and Soaring Free. With 35 percent of his progeny earnings to the end of last year having come on turf, Smart Strike also holds plenty of appeal to Europeans, especially as he has enjoyed group success with Saranac Lake in Ireland and Tungsten Strike in Britain, from a limited number of runners.

Smart Strike's son
Equi-Photo

The foals from his 2003 coverings at $20,000 are now three-year-olds. The lower fee certainly isn't being reflected in their achievements, either in the sales ring or on the track. Fifty-one of them averaged $92,335 as yearlings and Smart Strike notched up 20 winners from 37 juvenile runners in 2006. Among them were Bel Air Beauty (GII Alcibiades S., with a 117 rating on the Experimental Free Handicap), Featherbed (a narrow second in the GI Matron S., 114 Experimental), Strike a Deal (Laurel Futurity on turf, 112 Experimental), Super Freaky (109 Experimental) and Twilight Meteor (Woodford Reserve Bourbon S., 108 Experimental). They also included Suzy Smart (Donna Freyer S.), Hope'n'charity (a listed winner at Newmarket) and Smart Instinct (stakes placed after winning his first two starts in England).

Needless to say, this crop has been keeping up the good work in the early months of 2007. Super Freaky became a stakes winner in the La Habra S. on turf, while Twilight Meteor--a Polytrack stakes winner at two--has won the Hallandale Beach S. on turf.

But it has been the dirt exploits of Curlin which have really caught the eye. He went some way towards justifying his recent sale price of $3.5 million with a decisive victory in the GIII Rebel S. Cont. p8

Although this unbeaten colt had cost only $57,000 from Book 4 at the September Sales, he is a well-connected colt. His third dam, War Exchange, was responsible for the graded winners Barbarika and Lucky Lady Lauren, plus the influential producer Count On Kathy. The stakes-placed Count On Kathy had only three daughters--T. V. Countess, Count On Change and Tangled Up In Blue--but all three did well. T.V. Countess in turn produced Countess Diana, winner of the Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies and an Eclipse Award, while Tangled Up In Blue became the dam of Exogenous, who completed a Grade I double in the Beldame S. and Gazelle H. before suffering such an unfortunate accident on Breeders' Cup day.

War Exchange won the Conniver H. for Maryland-breds, over 1 1/16 miles. It was her mating with Bates Motel, 1983's champion handicap horse, which resulted in Curlin's second dam Barbarika, a winner at Grade II and Grade III levels over 1 1/16 miles. As a winner of the Santa Anita H., Bates Motel was suited by 1 1/4 miles, which should help Curlin as the distances lengthen.

Barbarika was initially given every chance as a broodmare, visiting such stallions as Deputy Minister (twice), Storm Cat, Silver Hawk and Woodman, but bred nothing of note (and was sold, rather regrettably, for as little as $3,000 at the advanced age of 21 at the start of 2006).

Curlin's dam Sheriff's Deputy didn't race and is a daughter of a disappointing producer. However, she is also a daughter of a champion sire of broodmares in Deputy Minister, and this appears to be more relevant than Barbarika's failings.

Deputy Minister mares have produced graded winners to several sons and grandsons of Mr. Prospector, including the Grade I winners Jazil and Bob and John to Seeking The Gold. Smart Strike seems well suited by them, siring Curlins, the Grade II winner Tenpins, the stakes-winning Deputy Strike and Super Freaky from his first 17 foals out of Deputy Minister mare.

Smart Strike also sired the Canadian champion Eye of the Sphynx from a mare by Deputy Minister's sire, Vice Regent, plus some good winners out of mares by Regal Classic, another son of Vice Regent.

As he's a half-brother to the outstanding Danzig filly Dance Smartly, it is hardly surprising that Smart Strike has also been doing well with daughters and grand-daughters of Danzig, siring the likes of Soaring Free, High Strike Zone, Shadow Cast and Bel Air Beauty.

No doubt there will be plenty more Smart Strike winners of a similar calibre emerging over the next few years.

HARD SPUN WORKS FOR LANE'S END After losing his unbeaten record last out in the Southwest S. at Oaklawn Park Feb. 19, Fox Hill Farm's Hard Spun (Danzig) has given every indication that he is sitting on a big effort as he prepares for Saturday's GII Lane's End S. at Turfway Park. The well-bred youngster posted a sharp 1:00 3/5 breeze at the Florence, Kentucky track yesterday, the fastest work of four at the distance. It was Hard Spun's second straight bullet after breezing a half mile in :47 3/5 at Turfway last Wednesday, the best of 23 at the distance. Sent off the chalk in the Southwest, Hard Spun failed to make a serious impact that day, coming home a non-threatening fourth to Teuflesberg, who returned to be third in Saturday's GIII Rebel S. "He actually had a better Ragozin number than the winner in the Southwest," said Cindy Jones, assistant and wife to trainer Larry Jones. "He was really laboring over the Oaklawn track. The work [yesterday] was beautiful. He's really doing great here. He's the old Hard Spun." Regular rider Mario Pino was aboard for Monday's breeze. Prior to the Southwest, Hard Spun won three straight stakes events, including a 6 1/2-length winning effort in the Jan. 13 GIII Lecomte S. at Fair Grounds.

☆ NEWS TODAY ☆

CRADLE MOVED TO THE LAWN River Downs track officials, aiming to attract hopefuls for the newly inaugurated $1-million GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Turf, announced yesterday that the track's signature race, the Miller Lite Cradle S., will now be run on the grass.

The $200,000 race will still be contested at its 1 1/16-mile distance and will be held this year on Sept. 3. "When the Breeders' Cup announced the creation of the Juvenile Turf, we looked at our race as an opportunity to become a major prep race," said track publicist John Engelhardt. "The chance to test a two-year-old on the turf at a distance will be few and far between and only one other race in North America will offer a $200,000 purse on the grass prior to the Juvenile Turf. The Miller Lite Cradle has always attracted top horsemen from around the country, this element should appeal to even more. The European runners have many more opportunities to test their heels on the turf and this should benefit the American-based outfits to see if their youngsters have ability on the greensward." The Breeders Cup Juvenile Turf is a one-mile event on grass open to two-year-old colts, geldings, and fillies. The Cradle was first run in 1977 and has been won by such top horses at Spend a Buck, Peaks and Valleys and Harlan's Holiday. River Downs also announced that Coca-Cola had been named as a sponsor of the traditional filly counterpart of that race, the $100,000 Bassinet S.

TATTERSALLS UNLEASH MILLIONS CONCEPT

Tattersalls have announced the creation of three new sales races, worth a total of £2.2 million, to be run at Newmarket beginning next year. Open to graduates of Part One of the 2007 Tattersalls October Yearling Sale, the races will be known collectively as the “Tattersalls Millions” and will be spearheaded by a £1-million race open to two-year-olds that passed through the ring at that sale. The seven-furlong event, to be run at the Cambridgeshire meet in October, will be the richest juvenile race in Britain, and second in prize money only to the G1 Epson Derby. There will also be a seven-furlong race restricted to fillies, worth £800,000, at that meet. A third sales race, boasting a purse of £400,000, will be the first event of its kind for three-year-olds. Staged over 10 furlongs, the “Tattersalls £400,000 3YO Classic” will take place at the Craven Meeting in Apr. 2009.

A New Twist...

The “Tattersalls Millions” concept is an extension of the Tattersalls Tiffany Highflyer S., inaugurated 17 years ago, and the Tattersalls Houghton Sales S., staged for the first time in 2001. “Tattersalls has staged sales races at Newmarket since 1990, but these three new races will raise the bar to unprecedented heights,” Tattersalls Chairman Edmond Mahony said yesterday. “Prize money is the life blood of racing and, in association with Newmarket Racecourses, our October Yearling Sale vendors and, of course, the owners, we are delighted to be staging the two most valuable two-year-old races ever run in Britain, as well as breaking new ground with the unique ‘Tattersalls £400,000 3YO Classic.’”

He continued, “Never before will a European yearling sale have offered buyers so many opportunities for such spectacular rewards, with 80 colts and fillies from Book One of the 2007 Tattersalls October Yearling Sale competing in three races worth £2,200,000 in prize money.” Michael Prosser, Newmarket Racecourses’ director of racing, added, “This is fantastic news for Newmarket and will take the overall value of next year’s Cambridgeshire Meeting to nigh on £3 million. If we run both races on the same day, it will create the richest day’s racing in Europe.”

Three Cheers for Tattersalls...

Newmarket-based trainer William Haggas spoke in favor of the concept. “This is great news for owners and I would like to congratulate both Tattersalls and Newmarket Racecourses on this initiative,” Haggas said. “I am already looking forward to the 2007 Tattersalls October Yearling Sale.” Further approval came from Highclere Thoroughbred Racing’s Managing Director Harry Herbert, whose operation are regular buyers at the October Sale. “Sales Races have always been a major attraction when we are looking to find new owners for the Highclere syndicates, and the ‘Tattersalls Millions’ will, without doubt, prove to be a huge selling point,” he commented. “Watership Down Stud are one of the major consignors at the auction, and the farm’s Simon Marsh said, “The ‘Tattersalls Millions’ will provide wonderful incentives for owners at all levels of the market and the ‘Tattersalls £400,000 3YO Classic’ is a particularly exciting innovation. It adds a new dimension to the Sales Race concept, allowing the later-maturing horses to have a shot at the massive prize money.” Part One of the 2007 Tattersalls October Yearling Sale will take place from Tuesday Oct. 9 to Friday Oct. 12 and is expected to number approximately 750 yearlings.

Philadelphia Park yesterday announced its 2007 stakes schedule, with the $1-million GII Pennsylvania Derby highlighting a program that includes 34 stakes races worth a total of $4.295 million. The Pennsylvania Derby, which returns after a year hiatus, will remain in its Labor Day slot, while the track's biggest race for fillies, the GII Fitz Dixon Cotillion H., has been moved to Sept. 22 and will carry a purse of $500,000. Other notable changes include the addition of two new $100,000 stakes and the addition of 11 new stakes for Pennsylvania-breds. The two new $100,000 stakes are the Turf Amazon H., a five-furlong turf sprint for fillies and mares to be run May 28; and the Jostle S., a 6 1/2-furlong main-track event for three-year-old fillies slated for June 16. The new races for state-breds include the $125,000 Smarty Jones Classic, for three-year-olds on the dirt at 1 1/16 miles July 28.
