WORLD CHAMPION

Sheikh Hamdan's Invasor (Arg) (Candy Stripes) won a thrilling battle in yesterday's G1 Dubai World Cup at Nad al Sheba, but it was Premium Tap (Pleasant Tap) who tested the champion while Discreet Cat (Forestry) was nowhere to be found.

"This is very, very special," said winning rider Fernando Jara. "To come to Dubai and win the world's richest race is just unbelievable. It looked like it would be a tough race and Premium Tap made it difficult for us." DWC cont. p2-3

Trainer Todd Pletcher was across the world in Dubai, but his assistants were more than ready to handle the saddling duties back home. Pletcher trainees captured five graded stakes at three tracks yesterday, topped by a professional performance by Scat Daddy (Johannesburg) in the $1-million G1 Florida Derby at Gulfstream. "It was a little disappointing [for the stable] in Dubai, but

this more than makes up for it," said assistant

Tristan Barry. Scat Daddy, who races for the partnership of James T. Scatuorchio and Michael Tabor, will make his next start on the first Saturday in May. While Scatuorchio made the trip to Dubai, Tabor was on hand in Hallandale Beach. "This is very special because he is a son of Johannesburg [co-owned by Tabor]," Tabor said. "He was very special to us, and this one was obviously very special as well. Now it's on to Kentucky. We know the five weeks leading up to it can work after last year, and we look forward to it." Notional (In Excess {Ire}) was second, while Chelokee (Cherokee Run) was third. Cont. p4

FAR EASTERN FEEL IN DUBAI

Runners from the Pacific Rim swept both of the big turf races last night at Nad al Sheba, with Japan's Admire Moon (Jpn) (End Sweep) kicking clear in the $5-million G1 Dubai Duty Free (p5) and Hong Kong's Vengeance of Rain (NZ) (Zabeel {NZ}) rallying for the $5-million G1 Dubai Sheema Classic (p6). But American speed continued to carry the day in the $2-million G1 Dubai Golden Shaheen, with Kelly's Landing (Patton) leading home Friendly Island (Crafty Friend) for a U.S. exacta (p7).

DUBAI WORLD CUP
Nad al Sheba
Mar. 31, 2007

And They're Off...

Premium Tap, winner of the GI Woodward S. and GI Clark H. last year, proved very reluctant to load and held up the start for a few minutes as his rivals waited patiently in the gate; it took a blindfold to convince the five-year-old to get inside. Jockey Kent Desormeaux barely had time to snatch the blindfold from his mount's eyes when the doors flew open, and the big bay broke a bit flat-footed.

Discreet Cat had been expected to take up the running from his rail post, but, after jumping out alertly, was taken back by jockey Frankie Dettori. Premium Tap recovered quickly from his awkward start and made his way to the lead, with Forty Licks (Arg) (Not for Sale {Arg}) in second and Invasor just behind. Racing three wide, the Shadwell colorbearer drew closer to the leader on the bend, with Fernando Jara taking a peek under his arm as they turned into the long Nad al Sheba straight. Premium Tap, confidently ridden by Desormeaux, maintained his advantage over the Horse of the Year for quite some time before Invasor lengthened his stride in the final furlong for his sixth straight Grade/Group 1 victory. "I thought Discreet Cat would be on the lead, but I did not see him, and just concentrated on my horse," said Jara. "He is such a tough horse and I owe him such a lot." The final time of 1:59.97 was the second-fastest in the 12-year history of the Dubai World Cup, behind only Dubai Millenium (GB)'s 1:59.50 in 2000.

Premium Effort...

Premium Tap made Invasor earn every cent of the $3.6-million winner's share. "The winner was too good," Desormeaux admitted. "He [Premium Tap] was a little spread out [in the gate]; they had him blindfolded. I was like, wait, wait, wait. I pulled the blindfold off and throw in out the back. I no longer get a hold and we're gone. That was the only thing. I enjoyed the ride. Turning for home, I was looking behind me. He set sail. He (Invasor) couldn't get me until at least the 3/16, then ate me up. The winner is a freak."

Word is Out on Discreet Cat...

Previously unbeaten Discreet Cat looked to have the pace at his mercy when he got off to a good start, but the bay colt looked uncomfortable on the rail when encouraged to rate by jockey Frankie Dettori. Dettori steered him several paths out, but the Godolphin colt never factored and wound up last in the seven-horse field, beaten 23 lengths by Invasor. "I don't know what to say," said Dettori. "I don't know if he didn't stay or if there was some other reason. He was beaten a long way, and I can't tell you why." The four-year-old won the nine-furlong G2 UAE Derby a year ago, but the extra ground here had been a concern for his connections. "It doesn't look like Discreet Cat stays the distance and we will drop him back to a mile," said trainer Saeed bin Suroor. "It was a disappointing performance tonight, and we will see how the horse comes out of the race before making firm plans." Godolphin Racing Manager Simon Crisford added, "He was never going a yard--it was a big surprise to us, but that's racing. We will give him some time out now and then get him back to America. It was very disappointing, but all the good champions get beaten at some point, and he will be back."

McLaughlin Makes it Happen...

After serving as an assistant to Hall of Famer D. Wayne Lukas, Kiaran McLaughlin left that operation in 1992 to become an agent for now-deceased jockey Chris Antley. In November 1993, he accepted an offer from Sheikh Mohammed to train in Dubai. McLaughlin spent 10 years dividing his time between Dubai and New York, winning the UAE champion trainer title four times in that time span. He began to train for Sheikh Hamdan's Shadwell operation as well, sending Dumaani to win the $1.5-million Keio Hai Spring Cup in Japan in 1995. "Sheikh Mohammed hired me in 1993, but it was Sheikh Hamdan who adopted me," said McLaughlin. "He's been like family to me." In addition to Invasor, the 46-year-old trainer also saddled Shadwell's Jazil to take the GI Belmont S. last June. McLaughlin added, "I've seen Dubai grow and grow. I remember when the Sheikh Zayed Road was just a two-lane road! It was such a tough decision to leave here, but I was missing my family too much, and moved back in 2003. That's why coming back here and winning the Dubai World Cup for Sheikh Hamdan is something I won't be able to beat. We might look at the [GI] Suburban H. at Belmont on June 30 next, but this was the real aim."

Southern Invader...

Bred in Argentina, Invasor was purchased privately by the partnership of Pablo Hernandez and brothers Juan Luis and Luis Alberto Vio Bado and sent to trainer Anibal San Martin at Maronas Racetrack and Uruguay. The rangy bay swept through his five starts there, including the Uruguayan Triple Crown, culminating in the Gran Premio Nacional in November 2005. His exploits attracted Shadwell's attention, and Invasor was purchased for a reported $1.5 million and sent to McLaughlin in Florida.

Invasor & McLaughlin Horsephotos

Still eligible to compete in the 2006 G2 UAE Derby, the August-born colt lost his unbeaten record when fourth that day, beaten seven lengths by Discreet Cat. McLaughlin regrouped with Invasor and brought him back to the U.S., where he captured the GI Pimlico Special May 19 under Ramon Dominguez. The 18-year-old Fernando Jara took over the reins aboard the colt in the GI Suburban H. July 1 at Belmont, and the pair scored by 4 1/4 lengths. After a thrilling victory in the GI Whitney H. Aug. 5 at Saratoga, Invasor came up with slight fever and was forced to miss the GI Jockey Club Gold Cup, his intended prep for the GI Breeders' Cup Classic at Churchill Nov. 4. It turned out to be not that big a deal, however, as the Shadwell star powered past favored Bernardini to win the $5-million Classic with his ears pricked. That quartet of victories earned him Eclipse Awards as Horse of the Year and champion older horse, and he picked up where he left off by overcoming traffic trouble to take the GI Donn H. at Gulfstream Feb. 3.

Trainer Todd Pletcher may have come up empty in Dubai, but things proceeded apace back in the States, and the highlight of the afternoon was Scat Daddy's triumph in this $1-million affair. After taking his first two outings, the dark bay ran second to stablemate Circular Quay in the GI Hopeful S. at Saratoga, then knocked off Nobiz Like Shobiz in the GI Champagne S. A distant fourth in the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Nov. 4, he weakened to be third to 'Nobiz' in the GIII Holy Bull S. Feb. 3 over this surface in his seasonal opener. He turned the tables on that rival when he nipped Stormello (Stormy Atlantic) at the wire in the GI Fountain of Youth S. over track and trip Mar. 3. With Edgar Prado deputizing for regular rider John Velazquez, Scat Daddy stalked the honest pace set by Stormello. The favorite moved up to challenge after six furlongs in 1:10.82, hit the front at quarter pole and drove clear. "It really went exactly as we planned," said assistant trainer Tristan Barry. "When they broke from the gate, Edgar was able to hold him off the speed, and from there, the race was his." Third choice Stormello wound up a tired fourth, but will press on to Louisville along with the winner for the May 5 GI Kentucky Derby. "We had talked about this and, and Victor's [Espinoza] as good a rider as you can have, but this is the kind of horse that you've got to let him go," explained co-owner/breeder and trainer Bill Currin. "He's hot-blooded, and you don't go teaching things at this point, but we're going on [to the Derby]." Runner-up Notional will also go for the Kentucky Derby, while third-place finisher Chelokee is on the fence. "I don't think third will be good enough to qualify on the graded earnings," said trainer Michael Matz. "We know we're right on the bubble...If we don't happen to make it into the Derby, he will be heard from again." Admire Moon kicked clear in the final furlong to defeat a top-class field as the American runners finished near the back of the pack. After failing to hit the board in two Japanese Classics last spring, the bay colt rebounded to land the G2-JRA Sapporo Kinen Aug. 20. He ran third to Daiwa Major in the G1 Tenno Sho (Autumn) Oct. 29 at Tokyo before taking his show on the road. His strong rally came up a nose short to Pride (Fr) in the G1 Hong Kong Cup Dec. 10, with Vengeance of Rain (NZ) back in third. Admire Moon made a successful return in the G2-JRA Kyoto Kinen Feb. 17 and was one of the favorites here. Breaking from post 10, the four-year-old settled into an easy rhythm in midpack as Irridescence (Caesour) and Lava Man (Slew City Slew) showed the way, with English Channel (Smart Strike) on the flank of that pair. Admire Moon was angled to the outside by Yutaka Take once in the straight and quickened past his rivals, with Linngari running on to claim the runner-up spot. "He performed quite brilliantly," Take said. "[He] is getting better with every race and is definitely one of the best horses in the world. I would like to race him in Europe." As for Lava Man--unbeatable in California, but a non-factor elsewhere--he faded to finish last. "With about 3 1/2 furlongs left to run, he said, 'I've had enough,' and that is just not him," said rider Corey Nakatani. "It is disappointing."

DRC/Andrew Watkins

Vengeance of Rain secured the first World Cup meet-

Winner of the 2005 G1 Hong Kong Cup, the gelding was ticketed for last year's meeting, but a heart arrhythmia earned him a spell at Cambridge Stud in New Zealand. A good third to Pride (Fr) in his defense of the

Hong Kong Cup Dec. 10, he began this preparation with a fifth to top miler Armada

(NZ) in the Stewards' Cup Jan.

28. He took a step forward to win the Mar. 4 Hong Kong Gold

Cup by a nose and was trying 2400 meters for just the second time in his career. A bit rank early, Vengeance of Rain settled nicely once covered up as Best

Alibi (Ire) (King's Best) was allowed an uncontested lead up front. Patiently handled approaching the stretch, the seven-year-old punched through between Quijano (Ger) (Acatenango {Ger}) and

Sir Percy (GB) (Mark of Esteem {Ire}) at the 300-meter

mark and showed a good turn of foot to win decisively.

"That was fantastic taking on such good horses," said winning rider Anthony Delpech. "We were confident after he travelled so well from Hong Kong. This is the biggest moment of my career." The American trio of Honey Ryder (Lasting Approval), Host (Hussonet) and

Keeneland in October. He failed to make an impact in the Nov. 4 GI Breeders' Cup Sprint beneath the Twin

Spires, finishing 10th behind subsequent sprint champion Thor's Echo (Swiss Yodeler), but kicked off the new year with a victory in Gulfstream Park's GIII Mr.

Prospector H. Jan. 6. Sent off at 3-1 in the GIII Deputy Minister H. Feb. 3 last out, the six-year-old disappointed with a fifth-place finish.

Placed close to the lead by jockey Frankie Dettori as Bishop Court Hill (Holy Bull) set the pace, Kelly's Landing rallied along the inside of that one to take over

nearing the 400-meter

marker and had enough

left in the tank to hold off

a late rally from Friendly

Island. "American horses

always handle the straight," jockey Frankie Dettori commented. "What a ride he gave me! The trainer told me to get the rail and the plan worked out, he was getting a little leg weary at the end, but the winning post came in time." Friendly Island, second in last year's Breeders' Cup Sprint, entered this off a win in Santa Anita's Jan. 20 GII Palos Verdes H. "He was making up ground on the winner," jockey Garrett Gomez said of Friendly Island. "My horse missed the break a little bit. He is not used to not having anybody in the gate with him. So overall he ran a really good race." Salaam Dubai, a disappointing seventh in the

Mar. 1 G3 Mahab al Shimaal, rounded out the trifecta

at blockbuster odds. "He has run well, travelled well and stayed well to be third," jockey John Murtagh said.

Asiatic Boy may have left connections thinking they should have tried the night's main event after he stormed to a comprehensive success in the UAE Derby. Second in Group 1 company in his native land, the bay bested Traffic Guard (More Than Ready) in a Jan. 18 conditions race over 1400 meters and defeated that foe again in the G3 UAE 2000 Guineas over the metric mile Feb. 9. He stretched to nine furlongs for his latest and proved equally dominant, streaking to a seven-length victory from Victory Tetsuni (Gone West) in the Mar. 1 Al Bastakiya conditions race. The odds-on favorite to complete the UAE Triple Crown, Asiatic Boy jumped alertly and forced the pace three wide outside of the Godolphin duo of Rallying Cry (War Chant) and Day Pass (Five Star Day). Still traveling on the bridle turning into the three-furlong straight, he put the race to rest in a matter of strides, opening an unassailable margin before being ridden out to the wire. "It was awesome," commented winning jockey Weichong Marwing. "It was a competitive field and he has come out on top and he is the best horse I have ridden." Trainer Mike de Kock indicated following the race that Asiatic Boy would be part of the string of horses stabled this summer at Newmarket. He did not specify a next start.

Spring at Last made the first five starts of his career on the East Coast for trainer Todd Pletcher and WinStar Farm, including a 7 1/2-length allowance victory going one mile at Aqueduct Nov. 11. Purchased for $675,000 at Keeneland November following that effort, Spring at Last provided instant dividends, finishing second behind Latent Heat in the GI Malibu S. Dec. 26. He threw in a clunker when sixth in the GII San Fernando Breeders' Cup S. Jan. 13, but bounced back with a good second in the Feb. 3 GII Strub S. Stretched out to 1 1/4-miles for the Mar. 3 GI Santa Anita H., he held his own to finish fifth after dueling for most of the way. Looking for his first victory of the year here, he raced with the leaders, looked beaten as Parole Board took over in the stretch, but found another gear in the lane to take it going away. "He ran a wonderful race today," jockey Garrett Gomez said. "A mile is right up his alley and he showed it. We were really confident going into the race and the race went absolutely perfectly for him. This victory will hopefully take him to the Breeders' Cup."

THE SLIPPER FITS FORENSICS The pre-race discussion centered on two premises: that the Melbourne juveniles were superior this season and the G1 Golden Slipper S. winner would ultimately emerge from among the early spring juvenile winners. But Forensics (Aus)

Forensics as a yearling inglis.com.au

(Flying Spur {Aus}) doused all the theories. The lightly raced Sydney filly did not make her debut until Feb. 9, when she won a modest mid-week race at Canterbury by three lengths. Winner of the G3 Kindergarten S. over 1100 meters Mar. 3, she was an unlucky fourth in the Mar. 17 G2 Reising S., and was fortunate just to make yesterday's field based on her last effort. Trainer John Hawkes opted to put Blue Diamond Prelude winner Camarilla (Aus) aside to secure a berth for Forensics, and the decision paid dividends yesterday. Jockey Damien Oliver settled Forensics in fifth position behind Zizou (Aus) (Fusaichi Pegasus) as Husson Lightning (Aus) (Hussonet) and Murtajill (Aus) (Rock of Gibraltar {Ire}) tussled for the lead. That pair skipped three lengths clear rounding the turn with Meurice (Aus) (Strategic {Aus}) in their slipstream. As Zizou began to accelerate on her outside, Forensics surged to the front and held off a tenacious challenge from the runner-up. "From gate one, I had a beautiful run, a gap came in the straight and I pushed through. There was a bit of a battle with Zizou but I got there in the end," said Oliver.

Just Rewards...

Forensics was the most expensive yearling by Flying Spur (Aus) to go under the hammer to date when knocked down for A$900,000 to Bob Ingham's Woodlands Stud last Easter. She is the seventh Slipper winner for the Ingham family. "I'm 75, and this just gets better," Bob Ingham commented. She is from the Dehere mare Prove It, whose second dam True Blonde is a closely related to Zizou's dam Natural is My Name.

Oliver Tingling All Over...

Jockey Damien Oliver has not been embraced as readily as he might have hoped after making a comeback from serious spinal injuries suffered in 2005, and for this reason his first Slipper win was perhaps especially sweet. "This really caps my comeback; I just can't believe a year ago I was out injured, I'm just so happy to be back amongst it and winning the big ones," said the elated rider. "I'm tingling all over I can't believe it, it's the best feeling. I wish anyone could feel what I'm feeling now. I've finally won this race; I never thought it would happen." Oliver rarely rides for the Hawkes stable, but he jumped at the chance to join the stand-by squad. His previous best from six Slipper rides was Alinghi (Aus), third to Dance Hero (Aus) in 2004. Forensics gave Damien Oliver his first Golden Slipper win on a day in which he also secured the G1 BMW S. on outsider Blutigeroo (Aus) (Encounter {Aus}).

Bluetigeroo, winner in his last start of the G3 Hobart Cup, surprised even trainer Col Little when, ingeniously ridden by Damien Oliver, he caused an upset in the G1 BMW S. Settled off the pace as Desert War (Aus) (Desert King) took the field along, Damien Oliver sent Bluetigeroo along the fence in a ground-saving run to win the weight-for-age feature. The winner cost just $10,000 as a yearling at the Inglis Premier Yearling Sale in Melbourne. "It was money well spent!" exclaimed Little. "I must admit I didn't really think he could win; we were just hoping he might run a place, but he keeps on improving. It was a great ride by Damien, he never went around one horse. We also thought he was a wet tracker and we were praying for rain. We really thought he might be outclassed but they went pretty hard early and that worked for him," he added.

Divine Madonna swept down the outside to notch her second win at the highest level. A last start third behind Tuesday Joy (Aus) and Doubting (Redoute's Choice {Aus}) in the G1 Coolmore Classic over the same trip and venue Mar. 17, Divine Madonna was sent out the lukewarm favourite and scored by a length. Boss had Divine Madonna positioned perfectly on the rails just worse than midfield until turning for home. In the straight Boss was able to ease the four-year-old off the fence and switch across the heels of other runners to make his winning move. "She has got such brilliant acceleration, [but] she couldn't use it in the Coolmore, and she got the right breaks today--she has amazing turn of foot and will be a very worthy Doncaster ride," said Boss.

Haradasun was a controversial fourth in the Australian Guineas on March 10, won by Miss Finland (Aus), and trainer Tony Vasil was subsequently reprimanded by Racing Victoria stewards for not advising them his colt had a minor hoof problem. "Everyone has been bagging the horse because of his last two starts, [but] he has had issues and it has been a really hard job trying to get him right. Going into today's race I thought he would be in good order. He is still learning, he is still green," said Vasil. "He lost about three quarters of an inch of foot, he has soft soles, his hoof walls are thin, so we have remodelled things. We got rid of the glue-on shoes and we've used a fair bit of Equilox to change the shape of his foot." Equilox is a flexible resin which can be used for anything from repairing quarter cracks to reconstructing an entire hoof wall. Stealthily ridden by regular rider Craig Williams, Miss Finland won this contest from the progressive Banc de Fortune as archrival Tuesday Joy (Carnegie {Ire}) could do no better than fourth. Craig Williams aboard the odds-on choice slotted in behind Tuesday Joy as the field strung out a little off a moderate tempo. As that filly began to accelerate, Miss Finland cruised alongside, and, after appearing to hesitate for a moment, accelerated clear for an emphatic fifth win at the highest level. Asked whether Miss Finland would target the G1 AJC Derby at Randwick Apr. 7, managing part-owner John Messara grinned and replied: "No guts, no glory! It's the Derby for Miss Finland". He added, "It is never easy in these Group 1 races, but I knew she had it in her to finish it off." Trainer David Hayes has big plans for the coming months. "She hasn't won at weight-for-age yet but that is only a matter of time. We would love to go back to the Cox Plate and win that, it would be a dream." The win ensured that Miss Finland, a A$450,000 Inglis Easter Yearling, became Australian racing's all-time record three-year-old prizemoney earner with the A$260,000 first-prize purse talking her beyond Octagonal's previous mark of A$3,989,571. Progressing from a seven-furlong handicap here Jan. 20, Ravishing attempted to wire the field when coming back to finish second in the Feb. 3 G2 Gauteng Guineas. Fifth in the Mar. 3 G1 SA Classic last time, he allayed stamina doubts and continued his liking for these surroundings to bag a career high in impressive style. Reserved off the solid pace until arriving on the scene at the quarter-mile marker, the eventual winner quickened to the fore passing the eighth pole and drew off late for an easy score.

Successful in last term's G1 Daily News 2200, Elusive Fort's current campaign has been hindered by a training setback, but he came back this year to finish ninth in the G1 J&B Met at Kenilworth Jan. 27. Securing a last-out victory in the G2 Indian Hawaii S. going seven furlongs here Mar. 3, he gave a battling display in this to provide the Woodruff-Khan combination with a stakes sweep on the card. Rated off the tempo until taking over with a quarter-mile remaining, the popular four-year-old kicked into a decisive advantage soon after and held on gamely as the pack closed late.

Safari Queen capped off her South American stint with a pair of Group 1 wins, taking the Gran Premio Jorge de Atucha and Estrellas Juvenile Fillies in the spring of 2005. She made her U.S. bow after an eight-month absence and has proved more than capable of holding her own on this side of the Equator. Four-for-eight last year with turf victories in the Aug. 28 Rumpipumpy S. at Saratoga and the Nov. 4 GII Long Island H. at Aqueduct, she demonstrated her versatility when the Dec. 16 GII La Prevoyante H. was moved to the main track, romping by 5 1/2 lengths over the sloppy Calder strip. The chestnut mare was coming off a second-place effort in the Feb. 25 GIII The Very One H. going 11 furlongs on the Gulfstream lawn. The crowd's choice to add to her resume with the extra furlong here, Safari Queen enjoyed a ground-saving trip while racing just off the unhurried leaders. She eased to the outside for the stretch run and motored home a decisive winner. Her record at a mile and a half is now a perfect three-for-three. "She was training awfully good," said Anthony Sciametta Jr., assistant to trainer Todd Pletcher. "It looks like [Todd] has this filly right--you could see it in her last three races. We were expecting a big effort and we got it." Second choice Time On, a Group 2 winner in France, had not been out since finishing fourth in the Oct. 22 G1 Premio Lydia Tesio. The four-year-old pressed the pace, but weakened late to be fourth. Click for the brisnet.com chart. Video, sponsored by Taylor Made.

If he keeps this up, Jambalaya might just take up residence south of the border. In 14 tries over his hometown turf course at Woodbine, the five-year-old has but four wins to his credit, but following yesterday's victory in the Pan American H., the striking dark bay has three scores in four starts over the American turf. Following his success in the Singspiel S. in Toronto June 25, Jambalaya posted third-place finishes in the GII Northern Dancer S. July 23 and in the GII Nijinsky S. Aug. 27. Second by a head in the Sept. 24 GII Sky Classic S., he failed to handle the soft going at Woodbine and struggled home ninth in the GI Canadian International S. Oct. 22. Following a well-deserved rest, the Ontario-bred resurfaced to be third in this track's GIII Canadian Turf H. over an insufficient 8 1/2 panels Feb. 3 and overcame a world of trouble to post a narrow success in the GI Gulfstream Park Breeders' Cup H. Feb. 24. Jambalaya settled in fourth while scraping the paint as longshot Fri Guy cut out moderate fractions of :49.52 for the half and 1:14.36. Where he was blocked for a run in his last outing, he had a clear path into the stretch, challenged past the eighth pole and held the late bid of Hotstufanthensome. "He loves it down here and thrives," commented winning trainer Catherine Day Phillips. "It's obvious he gets along beautifully with [jockey] Javier [Castellano]. He'll run on just about any type of turf, but we just had some ridiculously soft turf last year in Canada." Day Phillips indicated that Jambalaya would return to Ocala for a brief time before heading back to Canada.

GIII Turnback the Alarm H. by 9 1/2 lengths Nov. 5 and the GII Falls City H. by 6 1/2 lengths Nov. 24. Freshened up following her effort at Churchill Downs, Indian Vale resurfaced with a disappointing fifth as the 4-5 choice in the GII Shuvee H. at Belmont May 21 and was put away for the rest of the year. Making her first start since here, she rattled off fractions of :23.99 and :48.36 and drew off in the stretch to win for fun.

"Coming back off a layoff, when you have high regards for a filly like this, you would like her to come back and show what she's done in the past," said Seth Benzel, assistant to trainer Todd Pletcher. "According to Mike [Luzzi], he didn't think she was getting out, but she switched to her left lead. She's done that in the past, it's not something that is new for her. Mike's take on the race was that he had more in the tank. Any time they come in off a layoff, you don't want to squeeze them all the way. It will be interesting to see what Todd will do with her." Heavily favored to post his first stakes victory here, he sat a stalking third through :23.33 and :46.86 fractions and was all-out to post a narrow decision. "He broke really good, but I knew the inside horse [Political Force] had speed, so I just wanted to stay within striking distance," jockey Edgar Prado offered. "He is like riding a bike—you have to keep pedaling the whole time. They told me to ride him with confidence, and I did, and he got the job done." Owner Michael Paulson added, "We've known all along he's a quality horse, but to be a closer on the dirt on certain tracks can be tough. He can run all day, and he's got some good speed, but he's a grinder and a closer. We'll talk to Todd [Pletcher] and look at either the [GI] Stephen Foster H. The topper at Fasig-Tipton's Saratoga Selected Yearling sale in 2004, Fairbanks broke his maiden at Belmont last June and came back to best optional-claiming company by nine lengths at Saratoga Aug. 6. He made his stakes bow in his next appearance, the Oct. 6 GIII Pegasus S. at the Meadowlands, but ran out of gas down the lane and finished seventh. Given the rest of the year off, he overcame traffic trouble to capture a Gulfstream allowance test Jan. 3. The bay shipped west after that effort, but took a bad step soon after the start of the Feb. 4 GII San Antonio H. and crossed the line in sixth. Fairbanks was the fourth choice to get back on track this time. Sent right to the front by jockey Richie Migliore, he was never challenged and added to his advantage in the final furlong, winning handily. "Going into the race, I felt like [Yes He's a Pistol {Yes It's True}] and [Preachinatthebar {Silver Charm}] would have more speed," Migliore said, but added, "My horse broke cleanly and I liked the way he was doing it. I just decided to go with the flow and he ran a great race. I decided to set him down going to the quarter pole because the gate was on the outside rail and there were tire tracks. I wanted to keep him focused on running at that point and not get distracted. From the eighth pole to the wire, he did it easily. I'm glad I got to ride him. I've always been lucky with Team Valor." The winner will head to Keeneland for his next start. Neko Bay, the crowd's choice after running his record to three-for-four in a Santa Anita allowance race Feb. 2, couldn't close on the winner, but held well for second to give his sire the one-two finish. Top trainer Andre Fabre, who won his eighth renewal of this contest last year with Manduro (Ger), saddles the duo of Runaway and the Listed Prix le Fabuleux winner Nordic Thunder here. While the former needs to improve on the bare form of his third behind Pearl Sky in the Mar. 10 G3 Prix Exbury at Saint-Cloud, he may have played a bigger part in the finish there had he not jinked against the rail and lost balance in the closing stages. Last year's G2 Grand Prix de Deauville hero Irish Wells represents the form of the G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe, having finished sixth in that contest on his latest start before later being promoted to fifth. Germany has a strong hand in last year's G2 Oppenheim-Union-Rennen winner Aspectus and the veteran war-horse Soldier Hollow. The latter was third in the G1 Arlington Million in August before taking the G2 Prix Dollar here the following month and finishing fourth when attempting to win a third renewal of the G1 Premio Roma at the Capannelle in November.

STREET SENSE BACK AT CHURCHILL James Tafel's Street Sense (Street Cry {Ire}), the reigning Eclipse Award two-year-old colt, has returned to Churchill Downs where he will continue his preparations for the GI Kentucky Derby May 5. The handsome dark bay colt was flown yesterday morning from South Florida and arrived at the barn of Carl Nafzger following a van ride from nearby Standiford Field in Louisville. The conditioner was in transit from Florida, so former Nafzger assistant Ian Wilkes oversaw the proceedings and likes what he sees. "He shipped in good," Wilkes commented. "He's confident and wanting to take it in. He's really starting to take notice of people around him. He's thinking he's the big boy on the block. He's got taller and stronger." Rested off his 10-length victory in the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile beneath the Twin Spires Nov. 4, Street Sense made a successful return to action Mar. 17, decisioning Any Given Saturday (Distorted Humor) by a nose in the GIII Tampa Bay Derby. He is scheduled to have his final Derby prep in the GI Toyota Blue Grass S. at Keeneland Apr. 14.

ATTENTION:

"If you can handle the truth, start your day with the TDN."

'DOLDRUMS' LIKELY FOR WOOD Summer Dol-drums (Street Cry {Ire}), who worked five furlongs in a snappy :59 4/5 at the Big A Friday, appears to be headed to Saturday's GI Wood Memorial S., according to trainer Rick Violette. The conditioner is also considering the GII Illinois Derby for the Whirlaway S. winner, which is run the same day as the Wood. "He's definitely going to run a week from today," Violette said. "We're more likely to run in the Wood. It's going to be a tougher race with Circular Quay and Nobiz Like Shobiz, but it's in our backyard." Summer Dol-drums was last seen finishing third in the GIII Gotham S. Mar. 10.

THE ONE TO 'KETCH' IN THE ARK DERBY? Ketchikan (Mr. Greeley), who finished a good second behind Circular Quay (Thunder Gulch) after setting the early pace in the GII Louisiana Derby Mar. 10, is GII Arkansas Derby bound, according to Daily Racing Form. GII Rebel S. runaway winner Curlin (Smart Strike) is likely to be favored in the Apr. 14 GI Kentucky Derby prep. "I wanted to run him on [Apr.] 14th," trainer Albert Stall told DRF. "And there were only two [preps] on the 14th, the [GI] Blue Grass S. and the Arkansas Derby.

Most likely, he's second or third choice in the Arkansas Derby, whereas in the Blue Grass, he'd be fourth or fifth choice. Simple math there."

'COWTOWN' ILLINOIS DERBY BOUND WinStar Farm and Gulf Coast Farms' Cowtown Cat (Distorted Humor), last seen winning the Mar. 10 GIII Gotham S. in his two-turn debut, will likely bypass the GI Wood Memorial S. in favor of Saturday's GII Illinois Derby at Hawthorne, according to Daily Racing Form. He worked five furlongs in :59.46 over the Belmont Park training track yesterday. GII San Felipe S. victor Cobalt Blue (Golden Missile) and GII Hutcheson S. runner-up Bold Start (Jump Start) are also expected for the Illinois Derby.

FLEET INDIAN IN FOAL Last season's champion older female Fleet Indian (Indian Charlie) has recovered from her injuries suffered in the GI Breeders' Cup Distaff and is in foal to Storm Cat, reports Daily Racing Form. "She settled right in," Taylor Made broodmare manager Scott Kintz told DRF. "She's done everything just like she was supposed to. She was a great patient. She ate well. She laid down and took care of herself when she needed to. When it came to hand-walking her, we were worried because she had been in a stall for almost 90 days right off a race, and we thought she'd be tough. But she went right out in that paddock and walked like a champ." Taylor Made's Mark Taylor told DRF that the GI Personal Ensign S. and GI Beldame S. heroine will be entered in the 2007 Keeneland November sale.

HRTV ANGEL CRAFT (A.P. Indy) was runner-up on the Hollywood all-weather in November and again on the Santa Anita main track in January. She tries the turf in her third start. Her dam and 1/2 sister were stakes winners on turf in Britain; her second dam is champion It's In the Air. It is also the family of French Classic winner and GISW Musical Chimes and G1SW and MGISW Storming Home (GB). Giant Canal (Giant's Causeway), a $600K KEESEP yearling, adds blinkers after running 7th in her career opener, a turf sprint at Santa Anita Feb. 14. brisnet.com pps Mohegan Sky went to the bench after besting state-bred allowance foes on the turf at Saratoga Aug. 18. She got off to a rough start in her return, an optional claimer for New York-breds on the Belmont Park lawn Oct. 8, and finished seventh, then headed south. Beaten a nose when second in a Gulfstream allowance Jan. 24, she was looking to make it two in a row after getting up to win against optional-claiming foes over course and distance Mar. 4. The grey filly tucked in behind the leaders through an opening quarter in :21.65, edged closer as they dashed around the bend and hit the gas in the lane to get to the wire just in front of the rallying favorite, Flying Circle.

FROSTY SECRET (c, 3, Put It Back--Secret From Above, by Great Above) was beaten a nose when second in the Feb. 12 OBS Sprint S. in Ocala, but hit the gate at the start of an entry-level allowance over this track and trip Mar. 3 and ended up a distant third. A 5-1 shot to improve with a better start, he pressed the pace from third early and grabbed the advantage as they raced around the turn. The $18,000 OBSAUG yearling and $17,000 OBSMAR two-year-old had daylight on 3-5 C P West (Came Home) at the eighth pole, but had to fight off the favorite to take it by a nose. The 4-5 favorite to get back on track against softer company, he tracked a slow pace from second, drove to the front in deep stretch and pulled away to best Fearless Vision (Vision and Verse) by 3 1/2 lengths. He was caught by Mountain Wolf (El Prado {Ire}) in the final yards and hit the line a neck back in second, but Mountain Wolf had bumped Dr Googles Boogles (Richter Scale) while fighting his way through traffic in the stretch. Stormin Away had tried nine furlongs on the turf just once before, winning a Hollywood allowance event last June. The grey gelding followed up with a second in the July 29 Wickerr H. at Del Mar before taking the Aug. 17 Harry F. Brubaker H. over that course. Beaten a head when second in a stakes at Fairplex Sept. 9, he was fifth at that track 15 days later and earned himself a two-month break. The Florida-bred was overmatched in his return, finishing eighth in the Nov. 24 GI Citation H., but capped off the season with a victory in the Dec. 16 Val Royal S. at Hollywood. Making his 2007 debut here, Stormin Away hounded Sound Breeze as that one set a moderate pace. He collared the front-runner in the stretch, but had to give it everything he had to keep his nose in front to the wire.

Rising Shadow capped a busy campaign when taking the Nov. 4 Listed Wentworth S. at Windsor on the final day of the British turf season and picked up where he left off by doubling his stakes tally in this year's turf opener. Angled to the rail from his middle draw, racing with only two rivals behind him, he was shaken up inside the final quarter and closed with a strong run up the fence under a drive to collar Sierra Vista 40 yards from home, securing first and third-place money for his veteran handler.

Dubai's Touch posted a third in the July 13 G2 July S. at Newmarket and another in the Aug. 4 G2 Richmond S. at Goodwood before capping his summer with victory in the Aug. 18 Listed Washington Singer S. at Newbury. Closing last year with a 10th in the Oct. 21 G3 Horris Hill S. back at Newbury, he doubled his stakes tally with a powerful display in this opening foray. Leading at a uniform pace after the initial strides, he came under pressure inside the final quarter mile and was driven out late to resist the attention of crowd choice Prime Defender.

Exhibiting a useful level of form when collecting minor prizes in the July 27 Listed Star S. at Sandown and Aug. 12 G3 Sweet Solera S. at Newmarket, Precocious Star was found wanting after a break, posting off-the-board efforts at Nad Al Sheba Jan. 25 and Feb. 15. Back on familiar shores for this trial, she displayed an ample courage to secure a first stakes score in gritty fashion here. Restrained in fourth after an alert break, she answered every call once driven to the front at the eighth pole and kept on bravely in the dying embers to win the bobber.

Very Wise has enjoyed good form on the all-weather circuit this winter, taking a handicap over an extended mile at Wolverhampton Dec. 8 and a 10-furlong handicap at Lingfield Jan. 27. Pulled up after getting hooked up in the stalls on his penultimate start back at Wolverhampton Mar. 10, he completed preparation for this with a handicap second at Lingfield Mar. 17. The homebred bay led the field against the favored stands-side rail early. He was pushed into a clear lead at the quarter pole and cruised to the line in the closing stages for a cozy success from the staying-on Rio Riva. "He was a little keen early on, but he traveled so well in the race," opined jockey Joe Fanning. "It was easy, really."

+ MISTER HARDY (GB) (c, 2, Kyllachy {GB}--Balladonia {GB} {MSP-Eng}), by Primo Dominie {GB}) was made an 11-2 co-favorite for this debut and broke well to track the leader of the far-side group. Pushed along at the quarter pole, the 30,000gns DONSEP yearling hit the front 100 yards from the line and was ridden out to score by 1 3/4 lengths from Fol Hollow (Ire) (Monashee Mountain). Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, £7,748.

Pushed into the lead before the furlong marker, his pilot had no use for the whip as he won stylishly by 3 1/2 lengths from Eradicate (Ire) (Montjeu {Ire}). Lifetime Record: 2-1-0-0, £3,886.

DYLAN TO RETURN AT THE CURRAGH?

Although last term's G1 Irish Derby winner Dylan Thomas (Ire) (Danehill) boasts an entry for the Apr. 29 G1 Champions Mile at Sha Tin, he is likely to return in the more familiar environment of The Curragh, according to Racing Post. "He has an entry in Hong Kong and, while I'm not ruling him out of that race, it's much more likely that he will start off in either the [Listed] Alleged S. Apr. 15 or [G1] Tattersalls Gold Cup May 27," trainer Aidan O'Brien told the trade daily. "A lot will depend on the ground and the weather. If we decide to wait with Dylan Thomas, then Septimus might start off his season in the Alleged S." MGSW Septimus (Ire) (Sadler's Wells) took the G2 Dante S. last May, but has not been out since finishing 12th in the June 3 G1 Epsom Derby.
