ROCKING THE HOUSE

Sitting in a folding chair behind a large steel beam--not under her fig tree as is her custom--trainer Gai Waterhouse struck late on with one bid to secure the much-admired Rock of Gibraltar (Ire) 3/4-brother to dual Group 1 winner and newly retired sire Holy Roman

Lot 270 inglis.com.au

Emperor (Ire) for A$3 million during Wednesday's second session of the Inglis Easter Yearling Sale in Sydney. The price equaled an Australasian yearling record, established last year by a Redoute's Choice (Aus) colt. "I identified him as the top horse in the sale. You just can't get pedigrees like that...he is exactly what one seeks in a stallion prospect," said Waterhouse, adding that the colt had genuinely universal appeal. "He has been purchased on behalf of a group and it really only came together today, although there had been much talk about it. We thought it was an opportunity too good to pass by. They are a great group of like-minded people who want success on the racetrack and in the breeding barn," Waterhouse continued. Coolmore, which consigned the colt, will retain a share in the bay. Waterhouse said her investors were a different group from the one which purchased the A$2-million Sadler's Wells colt at Magic Millions earlier this year. "They realise it is better to buy at the top of the market, they can't lose at the top of the market and this is the best horse in the Easter catalogue," Waterhouse offered.

POST FOUR MAKES 'SENSE' IN BLUE GRASS

Jim Tafel's champion Street Sense (Street Cry {Ire}) has drawn post four in Saturday's GI Toyota Blue Grass S. at Keeneland, heading a cast of seven that also features the California invader Great Hunter (Aptitude). Street Sense has been installed as the 4-5 choice by handicapper Mike Battaglia, while Great Hunter, who breaks from post seven, is 9-5 on the morning line. Trainer Carl Nafzger described Street Sense's draw as "perfect." Doug O'Neill, who conditions Great Hunter, was also pleased. "Not bad to draw lucky number seven," he said. "And to be able to load last is always positive. [But] with his running style, neither [owner] Paul [Reddam] nor I were too worried about the post position." The only other horse in the field set at odds lower than 10-1 is the Steve Asmussen-trained Zanjero (Cherokee Run), who is 8-1 and will break from the rail. Blue Grass field, see p2

Great Hunter

PROUD 'MARY' ROLLS IN MADISON

Eleven days after saddling Kelly's Landing to a win in the G1 Dubai Golden Shaheen, trainer Eddie Kenneally was at it again, sending out Mary Delaney (Hennessy) to victory in yesterday's GII Vinery Madison S. at Keeneland. It was the first graded win for the four-year-old, who clearly has an affinity for the Polytrack. Beginning her career in England, she broke her maiden over Lingfield's synthetic surface in April of 2006, then added allowance victories at Keeneland in October and Turfway in December after coming to the States. She followed that one up with a victory in the Jan. 13 Wishing Well S. and another in the Mar. 24 Queen S., both a Turfway. Looking to go six-for-eight on the Polytrack here, the bay was allowed sensible :23 2/5 and :46 3/5 on the front end and dug in down the lane to best Ginger Punch (Awesome Again) by 1 1/2 lengths. "Today she broke running out of the gate and relaxed beautifully," said winning jockey Edgar Prado. "She gave me extra the last eighth of a mile. She did a good job." Madison chart, p3. Augustin Stable's Forever Together enters this with an unblemished three-for-three record, having won the restricted OBS Sprint S. Feb. 12 and the GII Forward Gal S. at Gulfstream Mar. 10. The gray has tactical speed, which should help her in her first foray on Polytrack. She worked five days ago over the Keeneland surface, breezing four furlongs in :47 3/5 Apr. 7, the 16th fastest of 47 at the distance.

Stonerside Stable's Sutra is the lone Grade I winner in the field. The Michael Stidham-trained filly won the GI Frizette S. last October, then was shelved off a dismal ninth-place showing in the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies. She opened her 2007 season with a second in an Oaklawn allowance race Mar. 2 and should improve in her second try of the year. Baroness Thatcher has been keeping good company out in California. She ran Rags to Riches to 3/4 lengths in the GI Las Virgenes S. at Santa Anita Feb. 10, but was a well-beaten fourth to that foe in the Santa Anita Oaks Mar. 11. The Zayat colorbearer has made one start over the Polytrack, a five-length maiden win at Keeneland last October.

A well-judged ride by Michael Rodd enabled 20-1 outsider Rena's Lady to land the G1 AJC Australian Oaks by a half-length from Perfect Drop (Aus) with favored Tuesday Joy back in third. Allowed to dictate a modest pace as the field strung out, Rena's Lady swept to a two-length lead at the 600-meter mark before skipping away further when it seemed the more fancied runners behind her were reluctant to make their moves. "She had not done anything wrong and I had to work her yesterday morning to stop her hurting herself she was so well. She did a good job," said trainer Gary Portelli, celebrating his first Group 1 win. "I was a bit worried that the track would be upgraded today, but she is a tough filly. We wanted to make this a true test of stamina as she is a bit of a grinder." On Saturday, she was sent out at 25-1, but relished the sodden track and step up in distance to win the G3 Adrian Knox S. over 2000 meters, denying Perfect Drop by 2 1/2 lengths.

More Seven-Figure Fun...

Another highlight on the evening was a colt by Redoute's Choice colt from La Bamba (Aus) (Last Tycoon {Ire}), which fetched a final bid of A$1.6 million. Catalogued as hip 271 from the consignment of Belle-rive Stud, agent, the winning ticket was signed by Renata Coleman, a good friend of Arrowfield chief John Messara, who has tasted Group 1 success as the part owner of G1 Golden Slipper winner Flying Spur (Aus), AJC Oaks winner Kenbelle (Aus) and Australian Guineas hero Baryshnikov (Aus). The Aug. 21 foal is a full brother to a pair of stakes winners in Lucky Unicorn (Aus) and Provence (Aus). La Bamba is a half-sister to Group 1 Galaxy winner Masked Party (Aus) and from the family of G1 AJC Champagne S. winner and sire Dracula (Aus). The much talked about Redoute's Choice--Milliyet (NZ) (Zabeel {NZ}) filly offered by Willow Park Stud was sold to astute Newcastle trainer Kris Lees for A$1.5 million. The bay was produced by a full sister to G1SW Cronus (Aus) and MGSW Pravda (Aus).

Encosta Flavour...

Encosta de Lago (Aus), the leading sire by average for the first session, continued to record sparkling results after fireworks in the sale ring yesterday. Trainer Leon

Lot 344 inglis.com.au

McDonald went to A$775,000 for a colt from the Zabeel (NZ) mare Mohave Dancer (NZ) offered by Coolmore. The colt is a half-brother to SW Natural Blitz (Aus). Adrian Nicoll of BBA Ireland secured an Encosta de Lago filly from the stakes-winning Danehill mare La Lagune (Aus)--herself a A$335,000 purchase for Nicoll at Easter in 2000. The hammer price was A$725,000. "She was a lovely filly, very athletic and a lot of quality and I think most people liked her," Nicoll commented. "Encosta de Lago is a top-class sire and he will be a good sire anywhere. He gets great-looking horses. More and more people are ringing me up [in Europe] saying they think they should use this horse," said Nicoll. The bloodstock agent added good fillies are hard to come by. "We bought an Anabaa filly for A$650,000 and she was probably a bit too expensive, but we were lucky as I think Woodlands bid again as the hammer dropped," he added. "Both fillies are for the Serenade Rose (NZ) group basically: Lord Vestey, Tim Hughes, Keith Biggs and Michael Sullivan."

Unrealistic Reserves...

Some vendors are likely to revise their reserves after 57 yearlings--just over one in four offered--failed to find new homes when offered at the first session of the Inglis Easter Yearling Sale. While there was ferocious demand at the top end, there were also several notable pass-ins, including a Redoute's Choice half-brother to Hong Kong Derby winner Elegant Fashion (Aus) passed in at A$950,000 off a A$1 million reserve. Tyreel Stud opted to keep a Redoute's Choice half-brother to AJC Oaks contender Just Dancing, a filly also retained by the Fleming family, when bidding stalled A$25,000 short of his A$425,000 reserve. Yarraman Park offered an Encosta de Lago half brother to Flying Pegasus (Aus), but he was passed in at A$585,000 on a A$600,000 reserve, as was an Encosta de Lago son of champion mare Dane Ripper (Aus) offered by Coolmore and passed in at A$470,000 off a $A500,000 reserve. There was also a considerable number of youngsters with reserves of under A$100,000 passed in.

You can also pick up a copy of the TDN today at the Inglis Australian Easter Yearling Sale.

Litt Taken By Easter Market...

One who was impressed with the progeny of leading Australian sires was Three Chimney's bloodstock services director Jason Litt, making his first foray to the Easter sale. "The horses here have great quality and there is a similarity in type with what the market is looking for in the U.S.--strong-bodied, good-boned, well-balanced types. You could put the top 100 horses here in a U.S. sale and people would be all over them," he commented. "Australian horses are strong, muscular, athletic, quick types and the market here expects a very correct horse. Horses here don't race on medication and they are tough, sound, durable horses. It would not be a bad thing to infuse that to our breed," he added. "There are stallions here you could ship to the U.S. and they'd go well, but it is a matter of exposure. When Alinghi (Aus) campaigned, everyone took notice, and she was such an impressive horse everyone was floored," he said.

Why

TDN

"I am a great admirer of the TDN and learn something from it every morning. There is no better way to find out what is happening in the bloodstock and racing worlds as it provides clear, concise information, and is compiled by people who know what they are talking about."

-Jocelyn deMoubray, International representative, ARQANA

John Messara, Arrowfield Stud

"It has been reasonably good tonight. There is still a reasonably high pass-in rate; breeders' expectations are pretty high, given state of the economy. Good horses are fetching more than their value, but it is difficult to sell a horse in the middle or lower ranges. There have been a few [Redoute's Choice yearlings] passed-in, but people are expecting to get big numbers for them. Where we can, we have met the market. If the catalogue was smaller this year it might have been more propitious, but what can you do? This will show that there are bargains to be had at Easter and it might draw extra people next year."

Adrian Nicoll, BBA Ireland

"The good horses sell extremely well and the ones that fall between the cracks--then vendors are disappointed. It is no different in America, Europe or here. I would prefer to see 100 less horses at the sale. I don't think there has been any advantage having the extras. It dilutes the bottom end, which is the tricky end. It's all about the individual."

Hasna Filly Has Joint Owners...

Newhaven Park Stud's John Kelly revealed that Tuesday's hip 232, a A$1.5-million Encosta de Lago filly from champion two-year-old Hasna (Aus) had been purchased in conjunction with Nick and Angela Curtis. The couple have experienced success at Easter previously as breeders of youngsters such as the A$1.8 million colt Dubai Choice (Aus). "We are very hopeful she might make a good racehorse," said Kelly. "She has a lovely pedigree; she is the first foal of an outstanding racemare [and] we had to pay a premium for her. But in our opinion, she was the best filly on the ground."

Jenny McAlpine, marketing manager, David Hayes Racing Stable

"This sale has become extremely international, there are more internationals here than I have ever seen, especially from Europe, which proves that the world is getting smaller and the racing and breeding industry in Australia is exerting its force into the Northern Hemisphere. As we see all over the world, top-quality horses attract big money."

Mark Player, Hong Kong Jockey Club

"As a club, since September last year we will end up buying 60 colts: three from England, three from Ireland and three from the U.S., and the rest from Australasia. So we have a pretty big Southern Hemisphere bias at the moment. We get a lot of pressure from Northern Hemisphere sale companies and breeder organisations and 51 to nine is a pretty big bias. I am happy with that balance at the moment, but whether it stays that way I am not sure."

What They're Saying At The Sales...

Oliver Tait, manager, Darley Australia

"It is a strong sale at the top end. Buyers are obviously very selective, which is the same at any sale. It is interesting what the effect of the extra 80 horses has been on the sale. In terms of our stallions we have had a great run: Elusive Quality sold very well, Exceed and Excel (Aus) has been fantastic for his first crop and Dubai Destination and Reset (Aus) have had some lovely lots go through as well, so we are delighted."

HOLLYWOOD FUTURITY RENAMED FOR NEW SPONSOR CASHCALL

Hollywood Park officials announced yesterday that its premier race for two-year-old males, the GI Hollywood Futurity, will be sponsored by CashCall and will be renamed the CashCall Futurity. The purse for the 1 1/16-mile event will be boosted to $750,000. Last year's Futurity, won by Triple Crown hopeful Stormello, was worth $441,500. CashCall, a commercial lending company founded by prominent horse owner J. Paul Reddam, is already the sponsor of Hollywood's GII CashCall Mile, a turf event for fillies and mares that will be worth $1 million in 2007. "It seemed to me we should have a big two-year-old race here to end the year with a bang," said Reddam, who ran third in the race with Wilko in 2004 and second with Liquidity last year. "It has a great tradition, and sometimes it decides the championship." The 2007 CashCall Futurity will be moved back one week on the calendar and will serve as the feature as the 32-day Autumn Meet concludes Saturday, Dec. 22.

J. Paul Reddam

GORELLA TO GIANT'S CAUSEWAY Gorella (Fr), (Grape Tree Road {GB}--Exciting Times {Fr}, by Jeune Homme), retired March 5 due to an ankle chip, will visit Giant's Causeway this season, it was announced yesterday. A 2006 Eclipse Award finalist in the female turf division, Gorella began her career in France, where she won the G2 Prix de Sandringham and was multiple Group 1-placed at three. Purchased privately by owner Martin Schwartz, she came to America that fall, finishing third in the both the GI Queen Elizabeth II Cup and the Breeders' Cup Mile. Last year, at four, Gorella established herself as one of the best turf fillies in the U.S. when, from only six starts, she captured the GI Beverley D S. and two G2 events, the First Lady S. and the Just A Game H. among her four victories. Gorella retired with earnings of $1,456,168.

'Birdbird' Has Flown the Derby Coop....

In a move that will have implications on the graded-earnings list that dictates who gets into the May 5 GI Kentucky Derby, trainer Ken McPeck announced yesterday that Birdbirdistheword (Pure Prize) has been re-

Birdbirdistheword

removed from consideration for the Classic. "I'm probably going to make him into a grass horse, and we're just kind of regrouping right now," said the trainer. As the winner of last December's $1-million GIII Delta Jackpot S., Birdbirdistheword has $637,000 in graded-stakes earnings, which at seventh on the earnings list would easily ensure him a spot in the gate on Derby day. Birdbirdistheword has made two starts since capturing the Jackpot, finishing fifth to Circular Quay in the GII Louisiana Derby Mar. 10 and seventh to Scat Daddy in the GI Florida Derby Mar. 31. Owned by Raymond Cottrell, Sr., Birdbirdistheword is two-for-two on the grass. He broke his maiden on the Arlington sod last August and followed that up with a win in Louisiana Downs's Harrah's Juvenile S. Wagering in Pool 3 of the Kentucky Derby Future Wager on Birdbirdistheword has been suspended.

Work Will Decide Derby Plan for Hard Spun...

We should know sometime around 9:00 EDT this morning whether Fox Hill Farm's Hard Spun (Danzig),

Coady Photography

an impressive winner of the GII Lane's End S. at Turfway, will be aimed toward the GI Kentucky Derby or not. A half hour before that, trainer J. Larry Jones plans to work Hard Spun under the Twin Spires of Churchill Downs, and Jones says that the colt's Derby future hinges on how he handles the surface at the Louisville oval. "I'd say within 30 to 45 minutes after he finishes his work, I ought to know," Jones said. "Hopefully, before any of the future wagering starts on the Derby, we're going to know." Pool 3 of the Derby Future Wager opens at noon today. Hard Spun lost his unbeaten record in the Southwest S. at Oaklawn Park Feb. 19, a lackluster fourth-place effort that connections chalked up to his inability to handle the track. If Hard Spun does not like the surface at Churchill, plans call for him to use the Apr. 21 GII Coolmore Lexington S. as a prep for the GI Preakness S. May 19.

US Ranger capped an unbeaten freshman season in the provinces with a facile five-length score at Toulouse Dec. 10 which prompted Michael Tabor to acquire a 50-percent stake in the three-time winner. Justifying the outlay in this G1 2000 Guineas trial, he entered the Classic equation with another hugely impressive performance. Missing a beat as the gates opened, the powerfully built bay quickly recovered and was soon in command to lead at a solid pace. Quickening clear of the pack approaching the final eighth, he was in a different league in the closing stages and scored as he pleased under a near-motionless Christophe Lemaire. "This is a really good horse who quickened brilliantly and I couldn't be more pleased with that performance," enthused trainer Jean-Claude Rouget. "Obviously we have some decisions to make, as he's not in the G1 2000 Guineas, but supplementing him could be under consideration. He has never had to fight and pitching him into the Guineas might be a little tough so I would prefer the G1 Poule d'Essai des Poulains and then the G1 St James's Palace S., but I shall not be the only one to decide. I have another good three-year-old, Battle Paint, who runs in the G3 Prix de Fontainebleau [Longchamp Apr. 15] and he could also enter considerations when deciding what to do." The winner is out of a 3/4-sister to prominent sire Dynaformer.

Third in the July 23 G2 Prix Robert Papin here, Magic America improved one place in the Aug. 20 G1 Prix Morny at Deauville before dropping to sixth in the Sept. 29 G1 Cheveley Park S. at Newmarket. Closing her juvenile campaign with victory in the Oct. 28 G3 Prix Miesque over course and distance, she came back to beat a large field in this Classic trial with a degree of panache. Settled in midfield through the early fractions, the crowd's choice was ridden to close on the front rank inside the final quarter mile. She seized the initiative with a decisive surge 150 meters from the line and drew off late to comfortably assert superiority. "She has changed over the winter in so much as she has learned how to settle and I really liked the way she quickened," explained conditioner Criquette Head-Maarek. "She definitely goes for the G1 1000 Guineas [Newmarket May 6] next and we can dream that she can win it for me for the fourth time." The homebred filly was produced by a full sister to champion Delilah (Ire).

Maisons-Laffitte, 2.35, Cond, €34,000, 3yo, c/g, 1mT, 1:37.80, gd.

CLASSIC PORT (FR) (c, 3, Slickly {Fr}--Portella {Ger} {GSW-Ger, $144,600}, by Protektor {Ger}), a €90,000

DEAUG yearling, broke through first up at provincial Le Mans Oct. 22 and finished third on his metropolitan debut at Saint-Cloud last time Mar. 2. Settled third until easing into second with three furlongs remaining here, the 17-10 favorite responded to urging inside the final quarter mile to best Maitre de Jeu (Ire) (Rock of Gibraltar {Ire}) by 3/4 of a length nearing the line. Lifetime Record: 3 starts, 2 wins, 1 place, €25,200.

O-Sheikh Mohammed bin Rashid Al Maktoum; B-Tevara Ltd; T-Andre Fabre.

Maisons-Laffitte, 3.05, Cond, €34,000, 3yo, f, 1mT, 1:40.10, gd.

TANGUISTA (FR) (f, 3, War Chant--Tango Queen, by Kingmambo) closed a three-race juvenile campaign with a course-and-distance victory last time Oct. 13. Leading after the opening exchanges in this seasonal return, the 47-10 chance was ridden along when pressed by Brofalya (Fr) (Fasliyev) at the quarter-mile marker and found extra inside the closing panel to comfortably hold that rival by 3/4 of a length. Lifetime Record: 4 starts, 2 wins, 1 place, €29,350.

O/B-Ecurie des Monceaux; T-Pascal Bary.
