ASMUSSEN DUO DRILL AT CHURCHILL

Trainer Steve Asmussen sent out a pair of Kentucky Derby aspirants over Churchill Down's main track Monday. GII Arkansas Derby winner Curlin (Smart Strike)

breezed a half mile in :48.40, with internal splits of :12.40, :24.20, :36.60 and :48.40, galloping out five furlongs in 1:01.40. "He breezed real nicely," Asmussen said. "I feel comfortable about the way he got over the racetrack." The colt went to the track at 6:30 a.m. with little fanfare, but by the time he came off just over a quarter of an hour later, the usual Derby week paparazzi had swarmed. "The horse exudes confidence and has a presence about him," added Asmussen. The midwest trainer also sent out stablemate Zanjero (Cherokee Run) in preparation for Saturday's classic. Caught in :48.40 for a half mile--the co-seventh fastest of 29 at the distance yesterday--the colt galloped out five furlongs in 1:02.40. "As David Fiske, the manager for [owner Winchell] said, 'Side Show Bob' is doing really well," quipped Asmussen. "I think everybody's getting the same feel about him that the barn always has had--he's hard to eliminate when you look at him and watch him train. You don't see anybody picking him, but you can't find anyone eliminating him. He shows up, his state of mind is good, he's great in flesh and he's very sound. From watching previous runnings of the Derby, he's a good horse to have in the race."

HARD SPUN BLAZES IN WORK

Hard Spun (Danzig) turned more than a few heads Monday with a sharp five-furlong work :57.60 over Churchill's main track. Accompanied by Mario Pino, the Pennsylvania-bred recorded the fastest of 27 moves at the distance. The colt, who worked in tandem with stablemate Wildcat Bettie B., carved out internal splits of :11, :22, :33.40 and :45 flat for a half mile, galloping out six panels in 1:12.60. "He did it easy," said Pino. "I was pushing on him a little bit--to keep his attention. He can get to looking around." Although not quite as planned, the colt's trainer Larry Jones thought the work was effective. "He wasn't supposed to beat [Wildcat Bettie B.] that far," Jones explained. "She isn't chump change, you know. But Mario was happy with the way he did it, so that means I'm happy. The move was faster than I told him to go, but he was within himself. We know he likes this track; that's for sure."

'MARCHAND' TAKES ON NINE

Making his second start of the year in today's G2 Prix du Muguet at Saint-Cloud, Marchand d'Or (Fr) (Marchand de Sable) steps up to a mile following a try on Nad Al Sheba's dirt when eighth in the Mar. 31 G1 Dubai Golden Shaheen. The four-year-old may find life hard, however, under a penalty earned when winning the G1 Prix Maurice de Gheest at Deauville in August. He meets a host of proven milers, including Kentucky Dynamite (Kingmambo), who annexed the G3 Prix Paul de Moussac at Chantilly in June before finding only Stormy River (Fr) too strong in the G1 Prix Jean Prat back there the following month. Sixth in the G1 Prix du Moulin de Longchamp on his only subsequent start in September, he should appreciate the quicker conditions prevalent here. Lateral (GB) (Singspiel {Ire}) carved out a position as one of Germany's top milers when winning the G3 Hamburger Meile in July, G3 Oppenheim Pramerica Meile at Cologne in August and G2 Grosse Europa-Meile back at Cologne the following month and adds more weight to this contest. field p.3

Triple Threats

Sedgefield On Course...

Sedgefield (Smart Strike) put in a workmanlike half-mile breeze in :48.40 with jockey Julien Laparoux aboard. The work was the 11th fastest of 52 at the distance Monday. "I'm happy with the way he's covering the racetrack," said trainer Darrin Miller, who was aboard Sedgefield's workmate, Bacetto. "We wanted to get him to relax, so Julien kept him on a loose rein, and then took him up along the rail." Sedgefield started the drill several lengths behind his stablemate. "We wanted him to get sandblasted a little, so we started him off behind the other horse. He handled that really well, and then he handled running along the rail just fine." Runner up in the Hallandale Beach S. on the grass and in the GII Lanes End S. over the Turfway Polytrack, the colt finished fourth last time out in the GIII Transylvania S. on the grass at Keeneland Apr 6.

Flying High...

High Again (High Yield) breezed a strong half-mile in :47.80 Monday after the renovation break with jockey Larry Melancon deputizing for Cornelio Velasquez in the saddle. "It looked like she broke off very well and galloped out very well," said trainer Bill Mott, who took in the action aboard his pony on the racetrack. "Here on Derby Week, you can't see both sides of the track unless you're riding in the Goodyear Blimp." Mott said that his GII Bonnie Miss S. winner likely would walk the shedrow this morning, but cautioned, "Let's see how she acts. If she's high, we may take her out and gallop her."

Castellano Gets a Feel for Bwana Bull...

The Jerry Hollendorfer-trained Bwana Bull (Holy Bull) breezed six furlongs in 1:14.40 Monday morning at Churchill Downs to the complete satisfaction of jockey Javier Castellano. "It was a nice and easy work. He went nice and slow the first part of it and picked it up late," said Castellano after getting up on the GII El Camino Real Derby winner for the first time. "He galloped out great. He worked like he needed, nice and slow. I didn't want to squeeze him, because we've got a few days before the Derby. I wanted to check out what kind of horse he is. I really liked the way he went." Castellano, who rode his 2000th winner at Calder Race Course on Saturday, was impressed with Bwana Bull. "He's a nice horse to ride," said Castellano, who finished seventh aboard Bellamy Road in 2005 in his only Derby appearance. "He's an easy horse to ride. He's a big horse, a strong horse." Bwana Bull showed no ill effects from a cut suffered in the fleshy area near his left hip joint during shipping. "It was a good work," said Hollendorfer's assistant Galen May. "You don't need any speed for this race."

A # will distinguish first-time stakes-winners, a @ will indicate first-time graded stakes-winners, a ▲ will denote a first-time Grade/Group 1 winner, a + will indicate first-time starters, an (S) will be used for state-bred races, a (C) will be used for maiden-claiming races and an (R) will be used for other restricted races.

US Ranger Added to 2000 Guineas...

There were no surprise defections at yesterday's confirmation stage for the May 5 G1 2000 Guineas, where Michael Tabor and Joseph Allen's exciting sophomore US Ranger (Danzig) was added, as expected, to Britain's first Classic at a cost of £25,000. "He is in top form and went nicely in his piece of work on Saturday," commented trainer Jean-Claude Rouget. "The trip has been arranged and he will fly from Pau to Stansted on the eve of the race." Allen's representative Andy Smith was also impressed by the Listed Prix Djebel victor's latest workout. "The work he did at Pau at the weekend was certainly a great catalyst to supplementing him, although it had always been a goal to run in the Guineas and he was only not entered originally because of a clerical error," Smith told PA Sport. "A 50 percent share was sold to Michael Tabor and partners during the winter and it was a joint decision and also a business decision for his future. It's a big step, but he won three races over a mile in the Provinces as a two-year-old without being extended and he won so easily at Maisons-Laffitte that he deserves to take his chance. He has a nice daisy-cutting action and Christophe Lemaire, who went down to Pau to ride him, was suitably impressed and has been booked to ride."

Guineas Fields Take Shape...

Europe's champion juvenile Teofilo (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) and G3 Craven S. winner Adagio (GB) (Grand Lodge) head a cast of the 30 possibles, which includes impressive Newbury maiden winner Diamond Tycoon (Johannesburg), who represents the 250-strong Racegoers Club syndicate. "He's on course for the race; he worked this morning and it went okay," Club Secretary Paul Smith told PA Sport. "As long as he remains fine, he'll run. It's fantastic--this is our first Classic runner and we have a real chance of a first winner. Jamie Spencer rode him before he went to Newbury and committed to ride him as long as he ran a nice race." Plans for Aidan O'Brien's Ballydoyle team have yet to be finalized and the trainer, who will bid for a third straight renewal, still has Duke of Marmalade (Ire) (Danehill), Eagle Mountain (GB) (Rock of Gibraltar {Ire}), Mount Nelson (GB) (Rock of Gibraltar {Ire}) and Yellowstone (Ire) (Rock of Gibraltar {Ire}) engaged. Jim Bolger's grip on the ante-post books is further strengthened in the G1 1000 Guineas where Finsceal Beo (Ire) (Mr. Greeley) tops the list of 25 contenders which remain in Sunday's feature. The Coolcullen trainer will bid to emulate Aidan O'Brien's 2005 feat of landing both Newmarket Classics. French raider Magic America (High Yield) will seek a fourth renewal for Criquelette Head-Maarek and Johnny Murtagh retains the ride on the Listed Prix Imprudence heroine. "Magic America is fine and goes over to Newmarket on Saturday," Head-Maarek told PA Sport. "She has never run over a mile, but that will not be a problem as she has a lot of stamina. I am happy to have a jockey like Johnny too. He liked her very much last time and gave her a beautiful ride. I hope they can go well again on Sunday."

Watering Continues at HQ...

With meteorologists forecasting a week of warm weather ahead, Newmarket officials expect to continue a policy of watering the Rowley Mile course in the lead up to this weekend's Guineas Festival. "The ground will inevitably be quick at the weekend, but we will ensure that it is safe with no jar," commented Director of Racing Michael Prosser. "We started watering again today and the whole track will get 10 millimetres. The likelihood is that, at the very least, we'll be watering again at the end of the week, but amounts will be dictated by the daily evapo-transpiration rates which we will be monitoring very carefully."

As Bob Dylan reminded us back in 1964, times have a habit of a-changin.' For example, today's star male line could be something of an also-ran in 20 or 30 years time. When Dylan penned his famous anthem, the exceptional Claiborne stallion Bold Ruler was easily the most dominant force in American racing. Indeed, Bold Ruler's impact was to become so profound that the his male line supplied seven winners of the Kentucky Derby during the 1970s. Even so, the survival of this male line has come to depend pretty much on one horse--Bold Ruler's great-grandson Seattle Slew--as the other branches have largely faded away.

The lesson to be learned is that stallion stations must always be on the lookout for a horse with different bloodlines which could develop into the next dominant force. The Hancocks have always been well aware of this, as the 1969 Claiborne roster showed. Standing alongside Bold Ruler were imports from France (Ambiorix and Herbager), Argentina (Forli), Ireland (Tulyar) and Australia (Pago Pago and Sky High II). Of course not all of the Claiborne imports were successful, but it is fair to say that some of them, such as Nasrullah, helped shape the breed in America. cont. p6

The Coolmore partners haven't cast their net as wide internationally, but they too have regularly tried to add new blood to their team, as an alternative to Northern Dancer. Several of Forli's sons were given their chance, while Indian Ridge's son Ahonoora was recruited, along with some of his own sons. High Estate and Law Society, sons respectively of Shirley Heights and Alleged, were other examples of Coolmore trying to widen breeders' options, and the late 1990s saw the addition of two horses--Sri Pekan and Spectrum--whose pedigrees were totally free of Northern Dancer.

I wish I were able to say that these two stallions rewarded Coolmore for their vision, but the fact that Sri Pekan moved to Turkey and Spectrum to South Africa tells its own tale. Although Spectrum was disappointing on the whole, this classic-winning son of Rainbow Quest did sire a pair of European Group 1 winners before his departure, namely Golan and the Grand Prix de Saint-Cloud winner Gamut. Golan was a very talented performer on his day, as he showed with his victories in the 2000 Guineas at three and the King George at four. Golan was also second in the Derby--a race won by the sires of each of his first three dams--and, with little Northern Dancer blood in his pedigree, this good-looking horse looked a potentially shrewd addition to the Coolmore team.

It didn't take long for Coolmore to discover that Golan was a hard sell. Although his status as a first-season sire was enough to bring him 110 mares at a fee of €20,000 in 2003, his book fell to 80 mares at €15,000 in 2004 and then to 69 at €10,000 in 2005. No doubt he wasn't helped by Spectrum's failure to live up to expectations.

Although Golan rallied numerically in 2006, his first two-year-olds had collected little more than £20,000 in win money in Britain and Ireland by the end of the year. At this point Coolmore appear to have raised their hands in surrender. Although included in their 2007 Breeders' Handbook, Golan has now been switched to the jumping sector of the industry (a sector which already includes Spectrum's other Group 1 winner Gamut). His fee is now €4,000.

One has to wonder whether Golan would have suffered the same fate but for the quirks of the draw at The Curragh last September. With 29 runners declared for the highly valuable Goffs Million, Golan's son Regime had the misfortune to be drawn 11 in a race largely dominated by the horses with high draws. The winner Miss Beatrix--already successful at Group 1 level--was drawn 29 of 29 and third, fourth and fifth places went to the animals drawn 19, 20 and 23. The only two able to land a blow against the highly-drawn horses on the far side were Regime, in second place, and that excellent filly Finsceal Beo in sixth. In beating Finsceal Beo by two and a half lengths, Regime did well enough to suggest that he might have landed the major prize had he been able to race on the far side.

Although he disappointed on heavy ground next time out, Regime bounced back to his best in the G3 Betfredpoker Classic Trial at Sandown three days ago, coming from last to first to win by two lengths. It is worth pointing out that this trial has been won by such excellent performers as Sakhee, Fantastic Light, Pentire, Old Vic, Shahrastani, Shergar, Henbit and Troy, so Regime could easily develop into a Group 1 winner.

Regime's pedigree acts as a reminder of why Golan appealed to Coolmore as an outcross stallion. The colt's dam Juno Madonna is by Coolmore's exceptional stallion Sadler's Wells, who has built up a very solid record as a broodmare sire, to the extent that he topped the Anglo-Irish table in each of the last two years.

Juno Madonna showed little sign of ability on the track, but she is a sister-in-blood to Title Roll, a very speedy filly by Sadler's Wells' brother Tate Gallery. Speed has been the main asset of this family, thanks no doubt to the influence of the champion sprinter Bay Express, sire of Regime's second dam Tough Lady. Juno Madonna was also a half-sister to Northern Express, a very useful Irish sprinter, and to the dam of My-o-My, a Listed winner over five furlongs.

Click for the Racing Post chart.

Juno Madonna's best previous winner, group-placed Danehill Dancer filly Salut d'Amour, also possessed plenty of speed. However, there is every reason to think that Regime will stay the Derby distance. In addition to being by the stamina-packed Golan, his broodmare sire Sadler's Wells will have revived some of the stamina which exists further back in Juno Madonna's pedigree. Juno Madonna's third dam, Lametta, was a staying half-sister to Golden Fire, a winner of two of England's most competitive handicaps over 2 1/4 miles. It is therefore no surprise that Juno Madonna's other winners include a mile-and-a-quarter winner by Spectrum and a winning stayer by Croco Rouge (like Spectrum a son of Rainbow Quest).

ANY GIVEN SATURDAY AND COWTOWN CAT

"We at WinStar are looking to optimize our investments in the horse business every year, not only on the racetrack, but also in the sales ring. When we sold our Storm Cat colt out of Awesome Humor for $8.2 million last September with Taylor Made, it was the culmination of a lot of hard work by our Team and that of Taylor Made's Team. This is business and if you stick to strong business principles, positive results will follow."

Yum Offers Derby 'Yumfecta':

Kentucky Derby sponsor Yum Brands, Inc. will offer a new $1-million bonus to any horse that wins this year's Kentucky Derby by more than Barbaro's 6 1/2-length winning margin last year. Dubbed the Yumfecta, the bonus will be split evenly between the horse's owner, trainer, jockey and the NTRA Charities Barbaro Memorial Fund. Barbaro's winning margin was the largest since Assault won the Run for the Roses in 1946. "We're really excited about our second year as presenting sponsor of the Kentucky Derby," said David Novak, chairman and CEO of Yum Brands Inc. "It's the greatest two minutes in sports and a perfect way to create awareness among individual investors. Barbaro was such a hero, winning the hearts of Americans and those around the world, we wanted to celebrate that victory. You've heard of the Perfecta, Trifecta and Superfecta-- now there's the ultimate million-dollar Yumfecta."

1--SCANDALOUS, 117, c, 3, Memo (Chi)--Wallis of Windsor, by Wavering Monarch. O/B-Charlotte Wrather (CA); T-Darrell Vienna; J-Martin Pedroza; $36,000. Lifetime Record: 3-1-1-1, $45,520.

2--Vice Admiral, 117, g, 3, Bertrando--Whimsical Goddess, by Mountain Cat. ($55,000 yrl '05 BESOCT). O-Halo Farms & P Magerman. $12,000.

3--Abandoneer, 117, g, 3, Skimming--Hasty and Happy, by Seattle Slew. O-Fred N Sahadi. $7,200. Margins: 1HF, 3/4, 1HF Odds: 14.00, 2.10, 65.80.

Scandalous was offered up for a $32,000 tag at first asking, but went unclaimed out of a runner-up effort in an open maiden claimer at Santa Anita Jan. 31. In his second outing, he ran third, beaten seven lengths, in a maiden special weight for Cal-breds Mar. 9 and was making his afternoon debut here over a track on which he trains in the mornings. A 14-1 outsider, the Charlotte Wrather homebred saved ground while racing off the pace. In tight on the far turn, Scandalous found room to run along the rail in upper stretch and finished well to defeat the late-rallying Vice Admiral.

AUSTRALASIA

NUMBERS UP AT AUTUMN SALE The two-day William Inglis & Son Autumn Yearling Sale drew to a close yesterday with across-the-board gains. A strong local contingent, joined by representatives from Hong Kong and New Zealand, helped establish new marks for average and gross, with 307 horses sold for A$3,221,350, an average of A$10,493. The median of A$7,000 was a substantial improvement over last year's corresponding figure. The buy-back rate was 24.9 percent. In 2006, a considerably smaller sale was held over one session. Then, 111 lots sold for A$422,000, an average of A$3,802 and a median of A$1,600. Only six lots were passed in last year for a buy-back rate of 5.1 percent. Monday's topper was a Belong to Me yearling colt who was knocked down for A$32,000 to B. McCarthy. Lot 363, hailing from the draft of Yallabee Stud, was produced by Sedbury (NZ) (Prized), a daughter of Group 1 winner Ramyah (Aus). Sale officials were pleased at the end of trading yesterday. "Demand for these horses can be diluted across earlier sales, especially in the sub-median market, whereas Autumn is where the buyers come to acquire a genuine racing prospect that is affordable," said Inglis Director Peter Heagney.
