20 QUESTIONS.....ONE SENSIBLE ANSWER

James Tafel's Street Sense (Street Cry {Ire}), no worse than second favorite for this afternoon's 133rd running of the GI Kentucky Derby, had his game face on during his Friday morning visit to a muddy Churchill Downs main track. Alongside his stable pony and with exercise rider Mark Cutler in the irons, the Eclipse Award winner encountered race rival Nobiz Like Shobiz (Albert the Great) as the Elizabeth Valando homebred was on his way back to Barn 48.

“You see that?” trainer Carl Nafzger said. “As soon as [Street Sense] saw that other horse, he pinned his ears back. He knew that other horse was out there.” Twenty colts and geldings will take their shot at Derby glory, including GII Arkansas Derby hero Curlin (Smart Strike), who is expected to vie for favoritism in the first leg of the Triple Crown. Derby cont. p2-3

THE RICH GET EVEN RICHER

Rags to Riches (A.P. Indy) had a much better go of it in her second start beneath the Twin Spires, turning in a championship-caliber performance to win yesterday's GI Kentucky Oaks. The chestnut debuted in a 5 1/2-furlong event in Louisville last June 10 and was off slowly before staying on late to be fourth. The results were markedly different yesterday. Kentucky Oaks cont. p3

'BEO' READY FOR 1000 TEST

Following the 11th-hour defection of G1 2000 Guineas favorite Teofilo (Ire), dreams of a Classic double died for trainer Jim Bolger, but Michael Ryan's Finsceal Beo (Ire) (Mr. Greeley) can provide some compensation for the yard in tomorrow's G1 1000 Guineas at Newmarket. Last year's G1 Prix Marcel Bousac and G2 Rockfel S. heroine failed to scare off much of the opposition, however, and will face the largest field--23 total--assembled since 1980. “She is very well,” Bolger told PA Sport. “There have been no problems with her and it has all been plain sailing.” 1000 Guineas cont. p9-11

CALL THE RANGER

While the G1 2000 Guineas is a leap into the unknown for most sophomores, this afternoon's renewal of the Newmarket Classic will be a baptism of fire for US Ranger (Danzig). Jean-Claude Rouget's provincial prodigy had not even set foot in Paris until his latest outing in the Listed Prix Djebel, but that Apr. 11 prep proved easy pickings for the regally bred colt, and it was impossible not to be impressed with the way he consumed Maisons-Laffitte's straight course. Although the unbeaten raider looks up to Newmarket's test on paper, his trainer is in the dark as to how he will adapt. “He won as we expected him to in the Djebel, but he has never run against so many horses and it's a very difficult race to win,” Rouget said. “We didn't know how good he was last spring and summer, but he has improved with each month and season and is a very strong horse physically. Of the milers I've trained, he's the best I've had.” Bred in Kentucky by Joseph Allen, the bay is out of a 3/4-sister to leading sire Dynaformer. Allen recently sold an interest in the colt to Michael Tabor, Derrick Smith and Susan Magnier. 2000 Guineas cont. p5-6

Triple Threats

The Live Longshots...

He wouldn't trigger a near $100 upset as did his half-brother Giacomo two years ago, but Tiago (Pleasant Tap) is on the rise and could be the exotics kicker. He shed blinkers in the GI Santa Anita Derby and rallied from second-last to carry Mike Smith to a half-length victory. Those willing to forgive Great Hunter (Aptitude) his subpar run when fifth in the GI Toyota Blue Grass are in for enticing and generous odds today. A return to the form which saw him take the GII Robert B. Lewis S. in March could land him right on the wire. Zanjero (Cherokee Run) has been a model of consistency and enters off a third in the GI Blue Grass S. Handicappers are liable to upgrade that effort based on the fact that he raced on what appeared to be a dead Keeneland rail Apr. 14. Hard Spun (Danzig) was impressive in taking the GII Lane's End S. Mar. 24 and turned in one of the fastest pre-Derby works in recent memory, going five-eighths in :57 3/5 Apr. 30.

Curl the Pearl...

Curlin (Smart Strike), a $57,000 KEESEP yearling, exploded to win his Feb. 3 debut and was sold for $3.5 million to a group including Jess Jackson. He's rolled to a pair of easy subsequent scores, but the waters get noticeably deeper this afternoon. Jockey Robby Albarado, who has the call for Steve Asmussen aboard the possible post-time favorite, consulted with fellow athlete Jake Delhomme this week. "I asked Jake if it's possible to be too confident," the Louisiana native commented. "He said, 'Absolutely not. If you're not confident, you're not successful.' He should know."

Pletcher's Formidable Five Pack...

Trainer Todd Pletcher will be zig-zagging across the Churchill saddling enclosure as he sends out five well-credentialed runners. Zero-for-14 in the Run for the Roses with runner-up efforts from Invisible Ink in 2001 and Bluegrass Cat last year, the conditioner is represented, from the rail out, by GII Illinois Derby hero Cowtown Cat (Distorted Humor); Sam P. (Cat Thief), third to Tiago in the GI Santa Anita Derby; Scat Daddy (Johannesburg), victorious in the GI Florida Derby; Circular Quay (Thunder Gulch), who showed a swift turn of foot to take the GII Louisiana Derby eight weeks back; and Any Given Saturday (Distorted Humor), runner-up by a nose to Street Sense in the GIII Tampa Bay Derby and never off the board in six career tries.

Margins: 4 1/4, 3HF, 3 1/4. Odds: 1.50, 6.40, 6.20. Also Ran: Dawn After Dawn, Mistical Plan, Dreaming of Anna, Tough Tiz's Sis, Autobahn Girl, Cotton Blossom, Swift Temper, Cash Included, Sealy Hill, High Again, Grace Happens.

A $1.9 million Keeneland September graduate, Rags to Riches was shelved off that debut effort and spent the winter on the West Coast, training over the Cushion Track at Hollywood Park. She returned in a seven-furlong maiden at Santa Anita Jan. 7 and attended the pace before storming home a six-length winner while in hand late (video). Stretched to two turns for the one-mile GI Las Virgenes S. Feb. 10, the blaze-faced filly took much the worst of it, covering all kinds of ground down the backstretch. Still five wide into the stretch, she dug in gamely and caught rail-skimming Baroness Thatcher for a 3/4-length victory (video). Hammered into 2-5 favoritism for the GI Santa Anita Oaks Mar. 11, she made light work of that field as well, rolling home a 3 1/2-length winner (video). Connections gave some thought to trying the GI Santa Anita Derby, but decided to send her straight to the Oaks.

Wide Draw No Hindrance...

Drawn eleven in a full Oaks field, Rags to Riches broke on the bridle and, in a maneuver which effectively won the race, was asked for a burst of speed to take up a spot just behind the pacesetter Dreaming of Anna (Rahy) and longshot Cash Included (Include). Content to track the leaders from about fifth, Gomez began to work on Rags to Riches as they raced around the far turn and loomed a threat turning for home. From there, she put the race to rest in a matter of strides, accelerating effortlessly clear in upper stretch before pouring it on late.

Octave (Unbridled's Song), runner-up to Dreaming of Anna in last year's GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies, rallied near the inside to complete a one-two finish for the Todd Pletcher stable. High Heels (E Dubai), the impressive winner of the GI Fantasy S., stayed on at one pace to finish a distant and well-beaten third. The performance by the winner impressed even her trainer, scoring his second Oaks win in the last four years (Ashado--2004). "Unreal. Just unreal. She's such a special filly," Pletcher commented. "I was worried about the track condition. You hate to think about being beat with the best horse because of the track. I was worried about it all day long. I was worried about the outside post, too. It looked like the inside and the speed had all the edge today, so I was concerned about her situation for sure. But she took care of all of that. There was lots of adversity out there today, but she overcame it all. The really good ones will do that--overcome all adversity."

All in the Strategy...

While Newmarket will be foreign ground for US Ranger, Sultan Ahmad Shah's Strategic Prince (GB) (Dansili {GB}) is quite familiar with the area. Having won the G2 July S. on the other course, he was back to follow home Teofilo (Ire) and Holy Roman Emperor (Ire) in the G1 Dewhurst S. in October. In between, he had Duke of Marmalade (Ire) (Danehill) back in second in Goodwood's G2 Vintage S. and, with his Dewhurst conquerors both absent after the dramatic turn of events of the past two months, his form is arguably the strongest in this line-up. Trainer Paul Cole is hoping the colt can provide him with an elusive first Guineas success. "He put on a lot of weight during the winter--60 kilos--so that had to be worked off gradually," Cole explained. "We haven't had any help from the weather, as the home gallops have been dry, so we've had to take him for two racecourse gallops to take the freshness off him, and that's all worked satisfactorily. It's a long season, so there is a bit of improvement left in him, but for me he's 100 percent. We found at home and at the races that he needed fast ground to show his turn of foot, and let's hope his Group 1 form is as good as it looks. He gives me the feel of a nice horse, and has a tremendous turn of foot which wins races."

High on Haatef...

Sheikh Hamdan, whose colors were carried to success by Nashwan in 1989 and Haafhd (GB) in 2004, has a live contender in Haatef (Danzig) this time. He was fourth in the Dewhurst off a Curragh maiden win, and connections have every right to feel that the best is yet to come. "He is very much untapped potential at the moment and [trainer] Kevin Prendergast has always loved him," commented Angus Gold, Shadwell's racing manager. "He is a May foal and had sore shins, then coughed and had ringworm last year, so it was a rush to get him to his maiden. He then got mucus and we weren't able to get another run into him before the Dewhurst, so in the circumstances it was a big run on what we felt was unfavorable ground. I'd imagine he's only going to improve and he's almost got in under the radar, but he should be there or thereabouts."

A Gift from the Gods?...

Richard Hannon, no stranger to Guineas success, relies on a duo as he seeks a fourth win. Major Cadeaux (GB) (Cadeaux Genereux {GB}) slammed Dutch Art (GB) (Medicean {GB}) by 3½ lengths in the G3 Greenham S. at Newbury Apr. 21 and carries maximum stable confidence. "He couldn't have done it any better at Newbury and was going away at the end," Hannon said. "He's a very high-class horse who has got gears and a good turn of foot. We are going a mile on Saturday and I suppose it will be taking him to his maximum, but I think he'll get it. The horse looks great and I don't think the watered ground will worry him." Another to impress that day at Newbury was Diamond Tycoon (Johannesburg), who drew away to win a mile maiden by six lengths. He will be bidding to provide trainer Brian Meehan with a first score in this Classic. "He's an inexperienced horse and he's only had two runs, but he was very impressive at Newbury," jockey Jamie Spencer said. "There is going to be a massive amount of runners, so that is going to make things a little bit more difficult, but I wouldn't swap him for anything."

Live Outsiders...

Others bubbling to the surface include G2 Champagne S. winner and G1 Prix Jean-Luc Lagardere third Vital Equine (Ire) (Danetime {Ire}), who has pleased trainer Eoghan O'Neill in his preparation. "He's got every right to be there--he's in great order and I've geared him for this race right through the winter," he said. "Fingers crossed, he'll run a big race...Teofilo's absence has opened it up." Godolphin, who have collected this twice, rely on Truly Royal (GB) (Noverre), winner of a six-furlong maiden here in October before finishing runner-up in a Nad Al Sheba conditions event Mar. 8. "He came back in good form after his last race and since then he has had a trial in Dubai," trainer Saeed bin Suroor commented. "He worked very well on his return to Newmarket on Tuesday, and I am really happy with him. Truly Royal is showing that he is improving all the time, which he needs to if he is going to be a Classic winner. We hope he can run well."

She wired a group of $50,000 optional taggers going this distance at the Hot Springs racetrack Mar. 15, and stayed on for third after setting the early pace last time in the Bayakoa S. Apr. 11. Sent off as the longest shot on the board against this bunch, she was gunned to the early lead by Calvin Borel through :23.77 and :47.84 fractions with 6-5 favorite Indian Vale (A.P. Beaten a neck in his turf debut, a maiden test at Gulfstream in January, Duveen has been perfect on the surface ever since. The dark bay was an easy winner Feb. 21, then jumped into stakes company and bested Soldier's Dance by a nose in the Mar. 24 GIII Palm Beach S. The third choice to make it three in a row, he pressed Jazz Quest through six furlongs in 1:14.98 over the soggy course. Duveen forged to the front when they straightened for home and doggedly held on to keep his streak alive. Jockey Mark Guidry, celebrating his 5,001st win, said, "I told everybody a month ago that he would win this race. He was fresh today and...really pumped up in the post parade. I tried to keep him as relaxed as possible, and when we turned for home, he really exploded. I think he has a great future." Gaff went winless in five attempts after annexing the 2006 GIII Mr. Prospector H. at Gulfstream Park in January, including a fifth-place finish in the G1 Dubai Golden Shaheen in March. The bay got back on track in the off-the-turf Bonapaw S. at the Fair Grounds Dec. 23 and made it two straight in the grassy Taylor's Special H. Feb. 10. Looking to make amends for a fourth-place finish as the 9-5 favorite in the Duncan F. Kenner Breeders' Cup S. at Fair Grounds last time Mar. 24, he was sent off as the second choice here. With John Velazquez in the irons, he was outsprinted in the early stages, but came running in the stretch to take it convincingly. According to the chart, the second-place finisher was vanned off after pulling up lame past the wire. Click for the brisnet.com chart or the Video, sponsored by Taylor Made.

May 19 and champion three-year-old Bernardini in the GI Jockey Club Gold Cup S. Oct. 7. The Arthur Hancock homebred skipped the Breeders' Cup and finished sixth in Churchill's GI Clark H. last out Nov. 24. Second choice in the wagering here for his return, the chestnut took his usual spot on the early lead and turned back a challenge from the lukewarm favorite to win going away.

THINK ABOUT IT

Lost Magic...

Finsceal Beo will face one less rival of significance after Tony Ryan's Listed Prix Imprudence heroine Magic America (High Yield) suffered a fracture during routine exercise. "She's fractured her front fetlock cantering this morning," trainer Criquette Head-Maarek told PA Sport. "It wasn't even serious work, but that's racing--you always have to be prepared for such things. She's going to be okay and will not have to be put down, but just cannot run. She was so well. It's been a long time since I had one as good as her for a big race in England." The field could be diminished further if Sir Robert Ogden's Sander Camillo (Dixie Union) is forced to sidestep the contest. Having reportedly tied up when runner-up in the G3 Nell Gwyn S. at this track Apr. 18, last year's G2 Cherry Hinton S. winner has not pleased her connections at home. "[Trainer] Jeremy [Noseda] was disappointed [with her latest workout]," the owner's Racing Manager Barry Simpson told Racing Post. "Although Frankie Dettori was quite upbeat afterwards, he hadn't ridden her on Saturday, when she was very good indeed. As a result, Jeremy and his team will continue to run tests, and if no problem comes to light the intention is to run. However, she'll do so only if we are 100-percent happy with her, and a final decision may not be taken until Sunday."

A Perfect Treat...

Noseda also has Simply Perfect (GB) (Danehill), who bids to become the first since Bosra Sham to follow up success in the G1 Fillies' Mile with glory here. She has to confirm Ascot placings with Highclere's Treat (GB) (Barathea {Ire}), who has 1 1/2 lengths to make up on that rival. Highclere's Managing Director Harry Herbert is hopeful the runner-up can close the gap. "I think she has improved a lot," he commented. "She was a big, weak, rangy filly last year...She has really thrived over the winter and looks really magnificent."

Owned and bred by former U.S. Treasury Secretary James Brady, Brilliant sports a record of four wins from seven starts on the grass and a perfect three-for-three mark over the Matt Winn turf course. A half-length

winner of the GII Jefferson Cup S. against his peers last June, the dark bay turned in his best effort in the GIII Kent Breeders' Cup S., earning a triple-digit speed figure over a yielding Delaware turf course. Sidelined off a sixth in the GIII Hawthorne Derby in October, he returned to be a competitive third to next-out GIII Elkhorn S. winner Ascertain (Ire) in an Apr. 7 allowance over the Keeneland turf. A close fourth in this last year, Einstein was third in the GI Gulfstream Park Breeders' Cup H. in his second start of the season Feb. 24 and turned in a heroic effort in his latest. Carried out on the first turn of the GII Mervin Muniz Jr. H. at the Fair Grounds Mar. 10, he was still trapped deep on the run up the backstretch. He stayed on dourly in the stretch and battled gamely for a half-length victory. He's been given ample time to recuperate from that effort and earned a bullet for a four-furlong breeze on this turf course May 1. Eight-year-old Better Talk Now is the most accomplished horse in the field with career earnings in excess of $3.5 million. He took the GII Dixie S. in his first outing of 2006 and added the GII Sky Classic S. in September prior to a runner-up effort to Red Rocks (GB) in the GI Breeders' Cup Turf at this venue Nov. 4. He is first-up today as well and will be aided by his rabbit Shake the Bank.

With just 11 starts in her four seasons at the track, Pussycat Doll has her issues, but her .545 strike rate attests to her talent. The bay mare posted a 5 3/4-length victory in the GI La Brea S. going seven furlongs in December of 2005, then stretched out to nine panels and tired to be fourth in the GII La Canada S. She made her next appearance in the 2006 edition of the Humana Distaff, winning by a length, before disappearing for the rest of the year. An even-money chalk in her return, the Jan. 28 GI Santa Monica H., the Pegram homebred cruised home four lengths to the good and she has been working sharply in preparation of her title defense. Shaggy Mane has picked off four of her five starts since being claimed for $12,500 at Santa Rosa last August. The Cal-bred was an eight-length winner in her first two starts under new management, both at Golden Gate, and made it three in a row in the Oct. 21 W.P. Kyne BC H. at Bay Meadows. She changed barns after that effort and tired to be fifth in the Nov. 24 Cat's Cradle H. on the Hollywood all-weather, but rebounded with a 7 3/4-length triumph in her latest, the Jan. 27 Sunshine Millions F/M Sprint S. Bushfire, winner of the GI Ashland S., GI Acorn S. and GI Mother Goose S. last season, ended the season with off-the-board performances in the Sept. 9 GI Gazelle H. and Nov. 4 GI Breeders' Cup Distaff. She makes her four-year-old bow off a bullet half in :45 3/5 at Keeneland Apr. 30.

The scratches of the two morning-line favorites, who ran in yesterday's GIII Alysheba S., gives a new face to this event. Ah Day ships in from his Maryland base off a solid third-place finish to Silver Wagon in the GI Carter H. at Aqueduct Apr. 7. The gelding has never missed the top three in four starts at today's specialist distance, including a runner-up effort to his Carter conqueror in the GII General George H. at Laurel Feb. 19. Will He Shine also exits the General George, where he tried to rally into only a moderate pace and finished fourth, beaten three lengths. He previously showed a touch of class when he was third by just a length to GISW Bishop Court Hill in the GIII Gravesend H. at Aqueduct Dec. 17 and can factor here.

Beaten just once in four career starts, Dream Rush was caught in all kinds of traffic when taken off the pace in an optional claimer at Gulfstream Park Jan. 20 and finished second. She came back to capture the Feb. 10 GIII Old Hat S. by a front-running 3 1/2 lengths, but subsequently missed a few days of training with a minor illness and has not been out since. Trainer Rick Violette Jr. is hoping to see the filly show the ability to rate if necessary in her return. "We don't have to be on the lead," said Violette. "We schooled her for that reason two starts back." Lia's Luck closed out her juvenile campaign with a second in the Hot Milk S. at Belmont in October. Third in an entry-level allowance at Gulfstream Jan. 18 and in the OBS Sprint S. in Ocala Feb. 12, she posted a 5 1/4-length allowance score over Cash's Girl in Hallandale Mar. 14. The bay was freshened after that effort and makes her graded-stakes bow after the break.

TWIN TOPPERS AT FIRST GUINEAS SALE

Tattersalls' inaugural Guineas Breeze-Up Sale yesterday in Newmarket saw 76 lots sell for 2,129,000gns at an average of 28,0123gns. The median was 23,000gns.

Lot 38 - Clodovil (Ire) filly

Business was headed by two juveniles at 90,000gns, a filly from the first crop of the Danehill stallion Clodovil (Ire) and a son of last year's top freshman sire Invincible Spirit (Ire). Both will join local trainer Ed Dunlop. The filly, a €15,000 purchase from Tattersalls Ireland in September, was bought by Dunlop from John Cullinan's Horse Park Stud. Bill Gredley was underbidder on the grey, who sold as lot 63. "She was an attractive, athletic filly who looked a real two-year-old type," said Dunlop. The colt, lot 38, is a half-brother to GII San Luis Obispo H. Shanawi (Ire). Offered from Mark Dwyer's Oaks Farm Stables, the bay was bought through agent Anthony Stroud, with Oliver St Lawrence coming off second best. "He had size, scope and balance and passed the vet and he's by a very good stallion as well," Stroud explained. Peter and Michelle Morgan's Somerset-based Carmel Stud acquired a long-term breeding prospect when spending 72,000gns on a Cape Cross (Ire) half-sister to the Listed-placed Hovering (Ire). The filly, offered from Jim Ryan's Milltown Stables, will go into training with Clive Cox. The market was selective, with a 60.8 percent clearance rate, typical of this year's breeze-up sales. Tattersalls Chairman Edmond Mahony commented, "In the context of this year's European breeze-up market, we would have to be satisfied with today's sale. The first time that the Tattersalls Craven Breeze-Up Sale, which is Europe's premier two-year-olds-in-training sale, achieved an average in excess of 30,000gns was 2002, and today's inaugural Guineas Breeze-Up has produced returns at a similar level, with an average of 28,013gns and a top price of 90,000gns." He added, "In common with the earlier breeze-up sales, the market has again been selective, but, as usual, two-year-olds that breezed well found a good cross-section of buyers at all levels. We were encouraged to see new faces from throughout Europe, in particular a good number from Greece and Spain." Complete results are available on www.tattersalls.com.

DERBY HORSES TESTED FOR EPO

by Leslie Deckard, courtesy of www.bloodhorse.com.

The 20 starters for the May 5 GI Kentucky Derby Presented by Yum! Brands were tested for the performance-enhancing drug erythropoietin (EPO) May 2. John Veitch, chief steward for the Kentucky Horse Racing Authority, said the tests were administrated between 10 a.m. and noon on all the horses with the exception of Nobiz Like Showbiz, who had yet to reach Churchill Downs from his New York base. Nobiz Like Shobiz was tested around 6 p.m. Veitch said the samples were sent to Iowa State University May 4 and should return the first part of next week. "If the samples had been mailed as planned on Wednesday, they would have been back today," Veitch said. "But, because the sample on Nobiz Like Shobiz was taken late they will not be back in time." If any sample is deemed suspicious, another sample will be sent to the University of Pennsylvania, who developed the test for the substance, for further testing. A positive blood test for EPO could result in a disqualification and a redistribution of purse money, but wagering results wouldn't be affected. "There can be a disqualification, a fine, and a suspension," Veitch said. "If any horse tests positive, there will be a hearing and an investigation into how the drug got into the horses' system." Veitch said the orders for the test came from KHRA Executive Director Lisa Underwood, who was acting under the auspices of the authority.

"Finally I've convinced her, quality time together includes reading the TDN at the breakfast table."

John Stuart,
President,
Bluegrass Thoroughbred Services Inc.

"There was no suspicion of wrongdoing that prompted the testing," Veitch said. "This is just another way to strengthen our drug testing program." Veitch confirmed that Kentucky has had a standing policy of EPO testing the winner and a randomly selected horse after each race in the state. A blood doping agent, EPO or Epogen, its brand name, is believed to increase the number of red blood cells by allowing more oxygen to be carried to muscles and making them tire less quickly. EPO is also believed to be commonly used in human athletes. The drug can only be detected for three to five days in horses, but the effects last longer.

SMOOTH PASSAGE Khalid Abdullah's Passage of Time (GB) (Dansili {GB}) is on course to make her seasonal return in the May 16 G3 Musidora S. at York. Last year's G1 Criterium de Saint-Cloud winner has pleased trainer Henry Cecil despite being ing a bit indolent recently. "Passage of Time seems fine and is working nicely," Cecil commented. "Like last year, however, she can be a little lazy. Hopefully, though, she will go to York for the Musidora on May 16." The daughter of Clepsydra (GB) (Sadler's Wells) captured the Listed Montrose Fillies' S. Oct. 28 at Newmarket before crossing the Channel and defeating Soldier of Fortune (Ire) in the 2000-meter contest at Saint-Cloud.

‘THE GUID’ WINS HIS 5000TH Just months before his planned retirement, veteran jockey Mark Guidry reached a milestone, scoring the 5,000th victory of his career aboard Chippewa Trail in yesterday’s first race at Churchill Downs. The six-year-old gelding made most of the running, then was passed briefly in the stretch. But Chippewa Trail, under Guidry’s urgings, would not be denied. “Five thousand is a huge milestone,” said the rider who plans to hang up his tack in August. “I’m sure they’re going to have other riders that will get to that milestone as well. But, as of today, to be up there with the all-time leading riders is great. I’m very blessed to be here.” The native of Lafayette, Louisiana, becomes the 21st jockey to reach the 5,000-win plateau in the United States. He added a victory aboard Duveen in the GIII Crown Royal American Turf S. and has the call aboard Imawildandcrazyguy in this afternoon’s GI Kentucky Derby.

SETTLEMENT TERMS REACHED IN MCINGVALE LAWSUIT

by Ryan Conley, courtesy of www.bloodhorse.com.

A settlement has been reached in Jim McIngvale’s lawsuit against multiple parties, according to a document filed in a Texas federal court May 3, paving the way for an end to the high-profile legal dispute involving alleged sales commission fraud. U.S. District Court Judge Samuel B. Kent closed the case for 30 days, a period where it is believed settlement particulars can be finalized, according to an order filed in the Southern District of Texas court located in Galveston. “On the 30th day of April, 2007, the parties announced a complete settlement of all controversies herein existing,” the order reads. “Either side may move to re-open within such time, for good cause.” Attorney Dan Pipitone, who is part of McIngvale’s legal team, said terms of the settlement were confidential, but they met with the Texas furniture tycoon’s approval. A settlement conference was held in Texas Apr. 27. “The settlement is satisfactory to Jim,” Pipitone said. “It involved a settlement of all of the parties on all of the claims.” For the complete story, click here.

Papi Chullo made quite a first impression on his new connections here, winning off the screen. The well-traveled gray made six attempts against graded stakes company in 2006, finishing second, beaten a neck, in the GIII Longacres Mile H. at Emerald Downs Aug. 20 and completing the exacta in the GIII Queens County H. at the Big A Dec. 9. Papi Chullo crossed the line sixth in the Sunshine Millions Classic at Gulfstream Jan. 27 prior to a well-beaten seventh in the GII Oaklawn H. last time Apr. 7. Purchased privately following that 29 1/2-length defeat, the five-year-old o was sent off as the 9-5 second choice here. Mar. 4. Stretched to one mile in her first attempt against open company Apr. 6, the $65,000 FTNAUG yearling cleared her first allowance condition in style by 3 1/2 lengths. Looking for her second in a row here, the 9-5 second choice broke on top and never looked back. Rinella Storm (Storm Broker) was second, beaten 6 3/4 lengths at odds of 12-1. Keeneland Oct. 26. The bay rallied from far back to place third in the Bedanken S. at the Fair Grounds in her sophomore debut Mar. 25, then finished sixth, beaten three lengths, in the Appalachian S. at Keeneland Apr. 22. Last of eight through :23.82 and :48.70 fractions here, Swingit began to rally on the final turn, entered the home stretch in the eight path and outkicked Luna Dorada to the wire. Favored Moonee Ponds (Mizzen Mast) had no excuse, running fourth.

The gray finished a well-beaten fifth versus allowance company last time Feb. 26 and was let go at 12-1 in his return. Last of 11 at the half-mile marker, Don't Fret began to rally on the turn for home under a text book rail-skimming ride by Calvin Borel, was taken out two deep in mid-stretch and powered clear to win by 2 3/4 lengths. True Competitor (Point Given) was second at 9-2. Pavarotti (A.P. Indy), favored at 2-1, took the overland route after breaking from the 11 hole and finished a non-threatening fifth. IRISH DERBY SPONSORSHIP UP FOR GRABS

Brewing company Anheuser-Busch will not renew their sponsorship of the G1 Irish Derby from 2008. The Curragh's General Manager Paul Hensey announced that the racecourse is on the lookout for new sponsors for the mile-and-a-half Classic for the first time since 1985. "We are very grateful for the enormous contribution and commitment made by Anheuser-Busch during the past 22 years," Hensey said. "Their support of the Irish Derby has assisted us to develop the event into one of the major sporting and social events in the Irish calendar. We are already in discussions with a number of potential sponsors who are keen to be associated with this world-famous event at an exciting period in the history of the racecourse, as we embark on a major redevelopment of our facilities which will see The Curragh transformed into one of the Europe's premier sporting and leisure complexes."

MITCHELL RETIRES FROM GOFFS Matt Mitchell has resigned as managing director of Goffs after a seven-year spell in the post. In a statement issued by Robert J. Goff and Co., the man behind the Goffs Million initiative said, "The past seven years has seen Goffs Bloodstock Sales turnover grow from €78,000,000 to the current record turnover of €127,000,000. The company has experienced significant growth in every sector, therefore it is opportune for me to pursue new challenges. I would like to thank my colleagues in Goffs and all the clients for their support during my period at the helm. I leave Goffs during a period of change and opportunities, and I wish the company continued success in the years ahead." During Mitchell's time in office, the County Kildare-based sales company turned around the fortunes of their flagship yearling sale, known previously as the Orby, as well as initiating a new breeze-up auction staged at Kempton Park. In recent days, the announcement of a bonus for winners of the Million races going on to success in the next year's G1 Irish 2000 and 1000 Guineas as well as the possibility of a merger with Doncaster Bloodstock Sales have added to the sense of new dynamism within Goffs. Chairman Eimear Mulhern paid tribute to Mitchell's work. "Matt's contribution to the success of Goffs in the market place has been considerable," she said. "Goffs has benefited greatly from Matt's knowledge, dedication and management ability. We are fortunate that we will continue to have access to Matt's advice and I speak for everybody at Goffs when I wish Matt every success and personal happiness."

2--Nolhac (Fr), 123, c, 3, Smadoun (Fr)--One Way (Fr), by Exit to Nowhere. (€62,000 yrl '05 DEAOCT). €10,400.

3--Val d'Ham (Fr), 123, c, 3, Hamas (Ire)--Vallee d'Aube (Fr), by Baillamont. €7,800.

Margins: 2, 1HF, NK. Odds: 6.40, 5.50, 26.00.

Also ran: Staraco (Fr), Alcime (Fr), Silverlord (Fr), Karesuando (Fr). Scratched: Peremptory (Fr).

All is Vanity, third in the Listed Prix Delahante at the end of a busy juvenile campaign last November, opened this year with a conditions score at Lyon Parilly Mar. 18 and followed up at this track last time Apr. 11. Asserting for the early lead here, the lone filly in the field maintained control throughout and was ridden clear from the eighth pole to secure an easy first stakes success.

Saint-Cloud, 3.20, Cond, €34,000, 3yo, c/g, 1 1/2mT, 2:32.30, gd/sf.

ASHKAZAR (FR) (c, 3, Sadler's Wells--Asharna {Ire}, by Darshaan {GB}), sixth on debut at Fontainebleau Nov. 13, was a last-out second at Longchamp Apr. 8. Taking a slender advantage into the backstretch here, the 5-2 chance came under pressure approaching the final quarter mile and was ridden clear inside the closing panel to safely account for Helgoland (Ger) (Boreal {Ger}) by two lengths. Lifetime Record: 3 starts, 1 win, 1 place, €23,800.

O-H H The Aga Khan; B-H H The Aga Khan's Studs SC; T-Alain de Royer-Dupre.

Saint-Cloud, 2.50, Cond, €34,000, 3yo, f, 1 1/2mT, 2:33.00, gd/sf.

ARTISTICA (IRE) (f, 3, Spectrum {Ire}--Artistique {Ire} {GSW-Fr}, by Linamix {Fr}) went postward as the 9-5 pick coming back from a debut score at Lyon Parilly Apr. 3. Positioned in fourth until angled off the rail with 300 meters remaining, the grey was pushed out, without recourse to the whip, to deny Distant Echo (Fr) (Linamix {Fr}) by a short neck in the final strides. Lifetime Record: 2 starts, 2 wins, €23,500.

O-H H The Aga Khan; B-SNC Lagardere Elevage; T-Andre Fabre.

Absolutelyfabulous was on the fringes of breaking through in this class last term after winning two handicaps at Naas in June and July. After a positive start to her four-year-old campaign when third behind Dandy Man (Ire) in the Listed Woodlands S. at that track Apr. 21, she finally garnered the stakes success her consistency demanded. Keen early under restraint, she tracked Facchetti until driven to pass the long-time leader with 150 yards remaining and had enough in reserve to hold the late threat of That's Hot.

 + REMIND ME MONDAY (IRE) (c, 2, Spartacus {Ire}--Phoenix Venture {Ire}, by Thatching {Ire}), a €38,000 GOFNOV weanling and 110,000gns DONSEP yearling, attracted support into 5-4 favoritism. The bay colt recovered from a sluggish start to tag on to the back of the pack early. Taken wide for his challenge at halfway, he hit the front with 1½ furlongs remaining before stretching out to best Indiana Gal (Ire) (Intikhab) by 2 1/2 lengths. His success marked the first winner for his freshman sire (by Danehill). Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, €13,020.
