CURLIN TAKES PREAKNESS IN A STREET FIGHT

The top three finishers from the GI Kentucky Derby completed the trifecta once again in yesterday's

Horsephotos

GI Preakness S., but this time it was Curlin (Smart Strike) who came out on top by a head over Derby hero Street Sense (Street Cry {Ire}). The final time of 1:53.46 tied the stakes record. "He stumbled pretty bad leaving the gates," jockey Robby Albarado said. "My whole focus today was getting him away from the gates in order. I kept focusing on that, making sure he is wound up well enough and he stumbled. Obviously, I had to go to plan B. I had to use him a little more than I needed to under the wire the first time, keeping him in contention. But I was always content where I was. I kept my horns spun and awaited the champ to come on by any time." Cont. p2

How the Race Was Won...

Curlin was taken back early after stumbling slightly at the start. Longshots Xchanger (Exchange Rate) and Flying First Class (Perfect Mandate) exchanged blows through :22.83 and :45.75 splits, before Hard Spun (Danzig) catapulted himself to the lead midway up the backstretch. Curlin and Street Sense both began to rally from the back of the pack entering the far turn, and it was the two-year-old champ who threaded the needle beneath Calvin

Borel to take over from Hard Spun at the top of the lane. The Jim Tafel colorbearer led by 1 1/2 lengths at the furlong marker, but a determined Curlin kept on battling and was able to grind down the Derby hero to win by the narrowest of margins.

VITRUVIUS TESTED FOR CLASS IN PETER PAN

Centennial Farms's Vitruvius (E Dubai), unbeaten in two career attempts, makes his stakes bow in today's GI Peter Pan S. at Belmont Park. The dark bay debuted with a neck tally over Fearless Vision (Vision and Verse) at Gulfstream Park Feb. 17, then was a sharp allowance winner at the Big A Apr. 11. Sightseeing (Pulpit) ran a bang-up second behind Nobiz Like Shobiz in the Apr. 7 GI Wood Memorial S., but skipped the GI Kentucky Derby in favor of this spot. "I think we did the right thing by him by letting him have the time," trainer Shug McGaughey said. "It's really helped his progression. Over the last month he's gotten a lot more professional in what he's been doing. His works have been good and I think he's gotten bigger and stronger." The Peter Pan has produced five GI Belmont S. winners since 1975, including Sightseeing's grandsire, A.P. Indy, in 1992.

You may not know King's Equine...but you definitely know King's Equine graduates like MGSW CARMANDIA, winner of the Grade 2 Bad o' Roses Breeders' Cup H. at Aqueduct on April 21st, and Breeders' Cup Sprint (G1) winner SILVER TRAIN. King's Equine is consigning a stellar group of 2YOs at FT Maryland tomorrow and Tuesday including some outstanding New York and New Jersey-breds. Sires represented include: Forestry, Seeking the Gold, Deputy Minister, Officer, Tiznow, Grand Slam, Phone Trick, Holy Bull, etc.

Money Well-Spent...

Curlin looked like the real deal in his 12 3/4-length winning debut at Gulfstream Park Feb. 3, and was purchased for a reported $3.5 million thereafter. The chestnut had no problem with the transition to stakes company in his next two, annexing the Mar. 17 GIII Rebel S. by 5 1/4 lengths and the Apr. 14 GII Arkansas Derby by 10 1/2 lengths. He went postward as the 5-1 second choice on the first Saturday in May, and rallied from the back of pack to complete the trifecta, eight lengths behind Street Sense. Regarding the June 9 GI Belmont S., trainer Steve Asmussen said, "We hope [the Belmont S.] is possible, but, of course, the horse comes back well. This is the stage this horse was meant for and I think that his races will be used in that caliber of race." Click for the brisnet.com chart or the free brisnet.com catalogue-style pedigree. No Triple Crown Winner...Again...

Street Sense gave it his all, but came up just short of a potential Triple Crown bid. "Heartbreaking, that's what it was," trainer Carl Nafzer said. "We only needed a nose. Curlin ran a hell of a race, but we had Curlin. We should have never let him come back and get us. There's nothing you can do about it until he decide he wants to go on. Or wait a little longer to squeeze the trigger; that's all." As for the Belmont S., Nafzer said, "I'll talk to Mr. Tafel, but if I was a betting man I'd take some bets against it. Winning isn't everything in this game. I don't have any animosity against Curlin beating me. I want to beat him the next time I run against him, but this horse beat us and he beat us fair and square."

Lazy on the home slopes, Terry Neill's Red Evie brings it to the table at the races, and she had to battle to secure an 8-1 upset in yesterday's G1 Juddmonte

Lockinge S. at Newbury. Flying the flag for the distaffers, who had beaten the colts in two of the last three renewals, the four-year-old came out on top after a three-way tussle with Ramonti and Passager that saw two heads separate the trio. "She does nothing at home and struggled to get by her lead horse this week," jockey Jamie Spencer remarked. "She is tough and I knew after two furlongs today I was in business because she was traveling strongly--I probably got there too soon, as she was pulling herself up a bit towards the end."

Back on the Beam...

Red Evie's winning streak was extended to seven in the G1 Matron S. at Leopardstown in September, a step up from her easy wins in Royal Ascot's Listed Sandringham S. in June and Goodwood's G3 Oak Tree S. in August. Her run came to a grinding halt when she was unsighted behind Spinning Queen (GB) in the G1 Sun Chariot S. at Newmarket at the end of September, but the bay was back in her favorite spot here to emulate her sire, who dominated the 1998 renewal. Restrained early in rear as Speciosa cut out generous fractions, she arrived with her challenge to swoop past Passager inside the final eighth and was game as Ramonti lunged late. "She won a Group 1 last year and beat Peeress (GB) and it is unusual to get these fillies to win two Group 1s," trainer Michael Bell told PA Sport. "There was a big temptation to retire her last year, but these good fillies don't come around too often so we kept her in training. We will have a lot of fun with her this season and the G1 Queen Anne S. [at Royal Ascot June 19] will be her next race." Godolphin's Racing Manager Simon Crisford was happy with the runner-up, who is also bound for the Royal meeting. "That was a good run and was a very strong effort," he said. "He will go to the Queen Anne now. We weren't sure if he would fit into that, but we know he does now." Last year's winner and 11-8 favorite Peeress (Pivotal {GB}) could find no extra when asked inside the final quarter and trailed in sixth.

Teammate captured the GII Bonnie Miss S. and was runner-up in the GI Alabama S. and GI Gazelle H. last season. She faced older mares in her last two outings of 2006 and, after lunging at the start both times, ended up with a pair of fourth-place finishes in the Oct. 7 GI Beldame S. at Belmont and Nov. 4 GIII Turnback the Alarm H. at Aqueduct. Given the winter off, the gray made her return in an optional claimer at this track May 3, winning by a determined neck. She had to prove her tenacity once again here. Teammate pressed odds-on Sugar Shake through a half in :46.80 and six panels in 1:11.75. The two were head-and-head as they raced down the stretch, and Sugar Shake dug in gamely at the rail, but Teammate found that little something extra that carried her under the wire on top. "This is a nice filly," winning jockey Cornelio Velasquez said. "I didn't want to let [Sugar Shake] get away. We chased her most of the race and, at the three-sixteenths pole, we finally started getting to her. It was a big effort from both horses." Added Hall of Fame trainer Allen Jerkens, "She was quiet today and I was a little scared because last year when she was quiet, she didn't run any good. She's better this year, I think." He added that the filly likely would be pointed for the June 16 GI Ogden Phipps H. at Belmont. "It would be nice for her and her mother to get a Grade I," Jerkens said. Click for the brisnet.com chart or the free brisnet.com catalogue-style pedigree. Exactly one year following Barbaro's tragic injury in the GI Preakness S., tragedy struck again at Old Hilltop with the breakdown of Mending Fences (Forestry) while leading on the turn for home here. Remarkable News, winner of last term's GIII Connaught Cup S. at Woodbine and GII Fourstardave H. at Saratoga, took over from that one after sitting a stalking second through fractions of :24.01 and :46.65. He led by five lengths through six furlongs and had enough left in the tank to hold off favored Cosmonaut. Einstein (Brz) (Spend a Buck), the 5-2 second choice, tossed rider Robby Albarado when trying to avoid the spill. Winning rider Ramon Dominguez witnessed the incident. "He really didn't stumble, he just fell to the ground," he expalined. Mending Fences was euthanized after suffering a condylar fracture in his right front ankle. "I couldn't even avoid him, even if I wanted to," Dominguez continued. "I was very close to him, but he didn't interfere with me. I just hate to see that happen. My horse just ran a very good race. He ran nicely. I was in very good position. He got it done going a mile and an eighth, because that was a concern for a lot of people. He proved that he has a lot of class." Following his victory in the Fourstardave, Remarkable News finished a respectable fifth in the GI Woodbine Mile Sept. 17 and closed out the year with a second-place finish in the Oct. 7 GI Shadwell Turf Mile S. He returned to the races with a neck victory in a $150,000 optional claimer at Gulfstream Mar. 14, but could only manage a sixth-place finish behind Kip Deville and Showing Up in the GII Maker's Mark Mile S. Apr. 13 last time.

Diabolical finished eighth, beaten 28 1/4 lengths, in last year's GI Preakness S., but has really turned things around since cutting back to sprints. After winning two of three starts on the turf last summer, including Delaware Park's Aug. 12 Nick Shuk Memorial S., the handsome chestnut recorded a 111 Beyer Speed Figure in a 2 1/2-length triumph in Philly Park's Oct. 7 six-furlong Gallant Bob H. Sent off at 6-1 in the Nov. 25 GI De Francis Dash S., he found only subsequent sprint champion Thor's Echo too tough, and was given the rest of the term off. Diabolical kicked off his four-year-old season with a third-place finish in Gulfstream's GII Richter Scale Breeders' Cup H. Mar. 3 and was most recently seen completing the exacta in the GI Carter H. on the GI Wood Memorial S. undercard. With Pimlico specialist Mario Pino in the irons here, he raced right with Talent Search through :22.58 and :44.65 fractions and fought his way past that stubborn foe in the stretch to record his first graded-stakes victory. "He broke well, like a Quarter horse, and relaxed nicely down the backstretch," Pino commented. "I wanted to keep the heat on. The inside horse kept shaking free a little at a time, so I wanted to continue putting the pressure on him. I kept putting pressure on him, and he responded nicely." Trainer Steve Klesaris was injured in a car accident Friday and wasn't on hand at Pimlico.

Who are the other members of Indizguys? Twin brother Doug; Buck Rodgers, former major league catcher and former manager of the Angels, Brewers and Expos; Ross Newhan, retired Hall of Fame baseball writer for Los Angeles Times; insurance executive Fred Krueger, and former pro football player (49ers, Eagles) Paul Salata, founder of Irrelevant Week that honors last player chosen in NFL draft with week-long party in Newport Beach, including banquet highlighted by presentation of Lowsman Trophy.

What did the team do to celebrate the Jim Murray? Pinched ourselves.

You were friends with the late Jim Murray, a sportswriter. Any good anecdotes? Our friendship dated back to early 1960s, when we traveled together with Los Angeles Lakers, me as a beat writer for the Los Angeles Herald-Examiner and he as a columnist for the Los Angeles Times. One night after a game in Boston, I went out with Jim before writing my story and got my priorities mixed. At some point, Jim deemed I was not in condition to function behind a typewriter (remember those?). He wrote a story under my byline and dispatched it to the Herald-Examiner. When the newspaper eventually folded in 1989, little did its management realize that it once had a Pulitzer Prize-winning sports journalist write a story for them.

Favorite music? Sinatra/Jazz.
Hobbies outside of racing? Minding my wife.
If you could name a stakes after anybody, it would be...Eddie Delahoussaye, for sheer class.

Street Magician stamped himself a horse to watch with an eye-catching eight-length triumph in a Gulfstream maiden Feb. 10, earning himself a 99 Beyer in the process. He handled the steep step up to stakes company with aplomb, annexing the seven-panel Aventura S. Mar. 31, but failed to see out the one-mile distance of Aqueduct's GIII Withers S. Apr. 28, running a tiring fifth to Divine Park. Scaling back here as the crowd's choice, the Larry Johnson homebred sat well off the rapid :22 3/5 and :45 fractions of Southwestern Heat. It looked as if the latter might stay on to score the upset, but Street Magician, angled to the rail, came rallying hard in the final panel and, despite being caught in extremely tight quarters and bumping the rail in the final sixteenth, surged clear for the win. "It really wasn't planned to be that far off the early pace, but we just didn't get the best of breaks," said winning rider Rafael Bejarano. "Once this colt got going, he ran his race." Added trainer Michael Trombetta, "I'm not sure if he's a two-turn horse yet, but this was something encouraging." Click for the brisnet.com chart. Video, sponsored by Taylor Made.

Precious Kitten finished a good second in the GIII Valley View S. at Keeneland Oct. 20, then closed out her sophomore campaign with a neck victory in the Nov. 18 GII Mrs. Revere S. She kicked off the new year with a runner-up effort behind champion Wait a While in the Mar. 4 GIII Honey Fox H. and followed with a game second in the GII Jenny Wiley S. at Keeneland Apr. 14. Looking to notch her first victory of the season here, the Ramsey homebred kept the early leaders within her scope, revved up three wide on the turn for home and held A True Pussycat safe after drawing clear in midstretch. "I had the best horse in the race," quipped winning rider Rafael Bejarano. "She had a very nice trip to the quarter pole. Once I let her go, she gave me everything."

Flashy Bull, 14th in last year's GI Kentucky Derby, ran a creditable third in the July 15 GII Ohio Derby before closing out his three-year-old campaign with a well-beaten seventh in the GI Haskell Invitational H. Aug. 6. The gray was a distant second in a Jan. 26 Gulfstream allowance, but returned Mar. 4 to clear his first condition at that track by 1 1/2 lengths. The West Point colorbearer made it two straight with a $50,000 optional-claiming victory at the Big A Apr. 18 and was backed as the second choice for his return to stakes company here. Placed in a close second by Alan Garcia as Take the Bluff (Pine Bluff) rattled off :23.31 and :47.34 splits, Flashy Bull took over from that one in the stretch, then survived a stretch duel with the chalk to narrowly prevail. "From the quarter pole on, my horse just gave everything to the finish," Garcia said. "I'm very proud of him. This is one of my biggest wins. It's been a good year with some really good horses. What a race."

Off the board in two starts at two, Sahara Heat has put it all together this season and picked up his third consecutive victory here. The dark bay started the year on the turf, finishing second by 3/4 of a length at Gulfstream Jan. 31, and came back to break his maiden by a nose on the main track Mar. 3. After adding a hard-fought allowance score on the Keeneland Polytrack Apr. 14, the $3.4 million KEESEP yearling was the crowd's choice to keep streaking in his stakes bow. Sahara Heat broke well from his inside post and was in hand as he carved out easy fractions of :24.77 and :49.12. He turned back one challenge on the far turn, then was joined by Approval Rating as they straightened for home and, after a brief tussle, put that one away and edged clear.

(Mancini) set an uncontested lead, he rallied four wide on the turn for home and outkicked Silent Soul to the wire. "He has shown a lot in the mornings and I was pretty confident today," trainer Ben Cecil said. "In his workouts he gets out in front and messes around; he is still a big baby with a lot of talent. Once he understands what this is all about I think he has a pretty bright future. He was nice and relaxed and was much better in the paddock this time. He got quite stirred up last time at Santa Anita, so I was pretty happy the way everything went today."

Tears were flowing following Cinque Cento's win in the Doomben Cup. It was a bittersweet moment for owner Stuart Ramsey, whose 18-year-old daughter Sherilee recently died in her sleep. "This is very emotional. Sherilee was as fit as a mallee bull, but she died suddenly in her sleep," Ramsey told Australian Associated Press. "The doctors still don't know what caused her death. It's a mystery." cont. p10

Winning trainer Peter Moody paid tribute to the Ramseys. "What I've seen this family go through the last two weeks...to come out and win this race today for them, it's the greatest moment of my life in racing," Moody said. Cinque Cento was scheduled to be sent to the paddocks after her victory in the G2 Queen of the South S. Apr. 21, but those plans were aborted when the five-year-old blossomed in the days following that success. The mare stalked the pace, took over in the stretch and held on to earn her first Group 1 success.

Oracle West, the latest frequent flyer for trainer Mike de Kock, had a successful Dubai Racing Carnival, finishing third in the G3 Al Rashidiya S. Feb. 1 and second in the G3 City of Gold S. Mar. 1 prior to his runner-up effort in the G1 Dubai Sheema Classic Mar. 31. He was sixth in the G1 Queen Elizabeth II Cup at Sha Tin Apr. 29, but was wide throughout that afternoon and the pace was only moderate. Cosmo Bulk is the defending race champion and merits respect despite going winless since. He prepped for this with an eighth in the G2 Sankei Osaka Hai Apr. 1, a race in which Shadow Gate finished second. Doctor Dino, last year's G3 Prix Andre Baboin winner, returned from a six-month absence to be third in the G1 Prix Ganay Apr. 29.

Rakti (GB) ended the overseas domination of this Classic in 2002 when he became the first domestically trained colt to win since Tisserand (Ity) in 1988, and the Italians have celebrated after three of the subsequent five renewals. But this year, Mark Johnston ships in a live threat in the form of Zar Solitario, who beat Rob's Love in convincing fashion in the Listed Premio Botticelli at this track Apr. 29. Sopran Promo took Milan's trial, the May 1 Listed Premio Emanuele Filiberto, and bids to provide Bruno Grizzetti with his first Derby. Last year's G3 Premio Guido Berardelli winner Il Cadetto returned to take a conditions event at this track May 1 and rates as a serious challenger, while Clive Brittain will bid to win this for the third time with Habalwatan. Third behind Admiralofthefleet in last Thursday's G3 Dee S. at Chester, he is open to improvement despite having run four times already this year.

All carry 128 pounds.

Manduro is in pole position to provide Andre Fabre with his sixth renewal and go one better than his second to Laverock (Ire) 12 months ago. Despite failing to win at the highest level, he was third in the G1 Prince of Wales's S. at Royal Ascot in June, second in the G1 Prix Jacques le Marois at Deauville in August and third again in the G1 Prix du Moulin at this track the following month. His four-length defeat of Speciosa (Ire) in Newmarket's Apr. 19 G3 Earl of Sefton S. on his five-year-old debut was excellent, but he would not want the ground to deteriorate too much. "Mr. Fabre seems to be very pleased with him," owner Baron Georg von Ullmann's Racing Manager Paul Harley told PA Sport. "It was a good performance at Newmarket and he deserves to win a Group 1. The plan after this is Royal Ascot, but for which race has yet to be decided. He's very versatile and all ground comes alike to him." Stormy River was third in the G1 Poule d'Essai des Poulains here last May before finishing in the runner's-up spot in Royal Ascot's G1 St James's Palace S. the next month. He got his picture taken in Chantilly's G1 Prix Jean Prat in July before running fourth in the Jacques le Marois and second in the Moulin. cont. p12

Jean-Claude Rouget, who took this in 2004 with Ask For The Moon (Fr) and 12 months ago with Germance, puts forward Coquerelle. She is pitched straight to the top level after a series of maiden and conditions wins, the latest of which came at this track Apr. 15. Alain de Royer-Dupre relies on Anabaa's Creation, who looked to have a bright future when taking the Listed Prix Isonomy at Saint-Cloud in November and may have needed further than the mile of the Apr. 15 G3 Prix de la Grotte, in which she was fifth. Last year's G3 Prix des Reservoirs winner Chinandega has failed to make the breakthrough so far this term, finishing third, in the Prix de la Grotte and fourth, before being promoted to third in the G3 Prix Vanteaux at this track last time Apr. 29.

Daramsar and Lord du Sud are saddled with penalties here courtesy of the former's success in the G2 Prix du Conseil de Paris here in October and the latter's romp in Deauville's G2 Prix Kergorlay in August.

Like that duo, the mare Montare has to contend with a six-pound penalty for winning the G1 Prix Royal-Oak here in October. That form looks rock-solid, as she had the smart Bellamy Cay (GB) and G1 Prix du Cadran winner Sergeant Cecil (GB) back in second and third, respectively, while Lord du Sud filled the fourth spot. Montare returned with a seventh over an inadequate 10 furlongs in the G3 Prix Exbury at Saint-Cloud Mar. 10 and will be back in her comfort zone in this race, in which she was second last year.

This is a tantalizing contest, which includes last year's G1 Deutsches Derby hero Schiaparelli and G1 Grosser Preis von Baden winner Prince Flori. Schiaparelli, who finished runner-up to Donaldson in the G1 Deutschland-Preis at Dusseldorf in June prior to his success in the Hamburg Classic the next month, was only sixth behind Prince Flori in this track's feature before collecting the G3 Deutsches St Leger at Dortmund in October. He needs to rebound from a comeback eighth in the G2 Gerling-Preis at Cologne Apr. 22, in which Prince Flori shaped with more conviction in third. Last year's winner Arcadio, who also posted a success in the G2 Pferdewetten.de-Trophy at Cologne in June, finished up with a fifth in the G1 Premio Vittorio di Capua at the San Siro in October and warrants respect.

GULFSTREAM TO HOST GP LATINO

AMERICANO Gulfstream Park has been named the host of the 2008 G1 Gran Premio Latino Americano, a $300,000 event that annually attracts the top horses in South America. The 10-furlong test for three-year-olds and up will be run Mar. 15. Four invitees each from Argentina, Brazil and Chile, and two each from Peru, Panama and Uruguay, will compete. "As evidenced by our efforts with Racing World in the UK and the Latin American Racing Channel, Magna Entertainment Corp. is committed to bringing our great sport to a worldwide audience," said Joe De Francis, executive vice president of MEC. "I believe that Gulfstream Park will be the perfect host for this exciting event." The quarantine arrangements for the race are subject to the approval of the U.S. Department of Agriculture. Bruno Quintana, president of the Latin American Racing Association, remarked, "This is an important step to strengthen the relationship between the racing industries of North and South America. I appreciate the commitment of the state of Florida, Gulfstream Park and LARC to allow the American audience to be in direct contact with the Latin American racing industry to illustrate once more the potential of the region."

SPRING AT LAST INJURED G2 Godolphin Mile winner Spring At Last (Silver Deputy) suffered a chip in his ankle and will be forced to miss the May 28 GI Met Mile H., the Daily Racing Form reports. The four-year-old is scheduled to undergo surgery tomorrow. An allowance winner and runner-up in the GI Malibu S. at three, the dark bay colt finished second in the GII Strub S. and fifth in the GI Santa Anita H. before heading to Dubai. Owned by J. Paul Reddam and WinStar Farm and trained by Doug O'Neill, he has compiled a record of 10-3-2-2 for earnings of $795,650.

WORK FOR 'MILL' FLAT A. J. Thompson's Salford Mill (Ire) (Peintre Celebre) failed to impress connections in a racecourse gallop at Newmarket Friday and will undergo tests ahead of next Saturday's G1 Epsom Derby. Trainer David Elsworth was unhappy with the gallop of the Listed Newmarket S. winner, who side-stepped Thursday's G1 Dante S. at York. "I was disappointed with the way Salford Mill worked, which was not consistent with the sparkle he usually shows us in the mornings," Elsworth told the Racing Post. "We are scratching our heads a little, but [his exercise rider] said he was a little quiet before the gallop and he may have not been himself. We will run all the usual tests, but he seemed brighter when he was having a pick of grass back at the yard and I don't believe there is much in it."

winner at Gulfstream Mar. 3, finished a troubled third, beaten two lengths by Scat Daddy and Notional, in his most recent, the GI Florida Derby at Gulfstream Mar. 31. Matz ruled out a tilt in the Kentucky Derby for Chelokee, who was on the bubble on the earnings list, after some minor problems came up, but it was all smooth sailing in Chelokee's return to racing here. Smartly placed just off the pacesetting Stonehouse (Chester House), the handsome dark bay took command on the second turn, opened up a clear lead under urging and was kept to task down the lane. "Right now, I'm elated," said Matz, who saddled Barbaro to a win in last year's Kentucky Derby. "I couldn't be happier. I have a promising horse. To win the first Barbaro S., it's a great feeling." Barbaro's owners, Roy and Gretchen, made the winner's circle presentation to Matz. "Michael was tearing up," Gretchen Jackson said. "We've got such a wonderful relationship with him that I felt it just underlines it all: You deserve it; you're it."

Talking of the decision to skip the Preakness, Matz said, "I'm glad we decided to run in [this] race. He hadn't run in a while. He had a couple of little problems. This should straighten him up a little bit and make him all the better for it." The Barbaro was previously run as the Sir Barton S. Video, sponsored by Taylor Made.

The well-traveled Maizelle, visiting the sixth different racetrack of her career, fought back gamely along the inside to post a second consecutive stakes success. Winner of a Jan. 13 Gulfstream allowance going a mile, the chestnut came home second best in a similar event Feb. 25. Away for two months thereafter, she was coming into this off a half-length victory in the restricted Chieftan's Command S. at Aqueduct Apr. 25. Maizelle sprinted away from the gate and was always prominent beneath Chris De Carlo. She was tackled and passed by favored Prop Me Up at the eighth pole, but dug in tenaciously and got home first. "Down the lane I was riding her," De Carlo commented. "But she seemed to respond more to the filly on my outside than to my urging. She was very game. She knew where the wire was."

Melnyk Going for the Cup:

Thoroughbred racing took a back seat yesterday for prominent owner Eugene Melnyk, but the Canadian businessman had plenty of reason to celebrate nonetheless. On an overtime goal by Daniel Alfredsson, the National Hockey League's Ottawa Senators, which Melnyk serves as sole owner, governor and chairman, punched their first-ever ticket to the Stanley Cup finals. "I believed in these guys from Day 1," Melnyk told the Ottawa Citizen. "I believe that these guys will go all the way." In defeating the top-seeded Buffalo Sabres four games to one, Melnyk's Sens will face either the Anaheim Mighty Ducks or the Detroit Red Wings in the finals.

Spin Master broke his maiden at first asking over the Turfway Polytrack Dec. 31, then proved he could handle major league racing when he bested Soaring By in a Feb. 3 allowance at Gulfstream Park. But the wheels came off in his latest, when the colt stopped badly in the Gil Hutcheson S. Mar. 3 and trailed home last. Trying to regroup here as the narrow second choice, Spin Master went up to dispute the pace three abreast, edged to the front approaching the quarter pole and pulled clear. The final time easily bested the previous stakes record of 1:09.43 held jointly by Day Trader and Posse. Video, sponsored by Taylor Made.

Selvatica went through an ownership change over the winter, selling to Marsha Naify for $560,000 at the Barretts January sale, but has continued to be the same game performer who went three-for-three last term. The lightly raced dark bay capped off a five-race winning streak with a victory in the restricted Manta S. on the Hollywood lawn Nov. 17. She got off to an inauspicious start this year, finishing up the track in the grassy GIII Monrovia S. at Santa Anita on New Year's Day, her final start for trainer Jeff Mullins. Moved to Julio Canani's barn after her sale to Naify, Selvatica nearly knocked off the first graded win of her career when a good second in the GIII Las Flores H. at Santa Anita Feb. 24, and was returning off the break in a slightly easier spot here. The heavy favorite cut out the running through :22 1/5 and :44 4/5 splits and was under only a mild hand ride to win by daylight. Video, sponsored by Taylor Made.

GO GO DANCER (ARG) (h, 5, Southern Halo--Dancerine {Arg}, by Ringaro) followed a handicap score on the dirt at San Isidro last August with a sixth in Group 2 company on the turf the following month. Exported after that effort, he opened his U.S. campaign with a third in a Santa Anita allowance test on the dirt Feb. 4. The gray regrouped after finishing ninth in an optional claimer Mar. 3, returning to be fourth on the grass Apr. 22. Trying out the Cushion Track as a 6-1 chance, Go Go Dancer went right to the front and held off Papanonie (Broken Vow) for a 3/4-length tally. Lifetime Record: 15-5-1-2, $66,291. Most recently a nose runner-up over this track and trip Apr. 27, the $70,000 KEESEP yearling was the 2-1 second choice to break through this time around. Sent along to prompt the pace from the outside, the chestnut took command turning for home and was three lengths better than Legate (Deputy Minister) at the wire. Lifetime Record: 4-1-1-1, $47,040.

Paramar Day was first or second in five of seven Australian outings last term, taking a handicap at Flemington in June and, after a break, returning to make it two in a row at Cranbourne in October. The bay had not been out since running sixth in Group 3 company Nov. 4, but had worked very well on the Polytrack and was second choice in this five-horse field. Rated in third after a slow start, he came with his run at the top of the lane and fought his way past favored Scottsbluff to begin his U.S. career in the winner's circle.

MASTERLY (ARG) (h, 5, Southern Halo--Merry Sweet {Arg} {G1SW-Arg}, by Gold Trojan) raced with some success last year in the handicap ranks in his native Argentina, winning on the main track in March and, after running out of the money twice, finishing second at San Isidro in August. He was shipped north after that effort, and was making his U.S. bow here as a 16-1 outsider. Up close early while tucked in at the rail, the dark bay changed lanes in the stretch and finished well to best Queen's Image (Halo's Image) by 3/4 of a length. Third on this surface in her career opener last November, Follow the Clues was off the board in two main-track outings at Santa Anita, but improved to fill the show spot when switched to the turf in a sprint Mar. 3. She tired to be fifth after setting the pace in her route bow Apr. 12, but was sitting on ready here. Oakhill Girl was also going turf to all-weather after running second Feb. 18 and fourth in her latest appearance Mar. 18. Follow the Clues once again went to the front when the gates opened and had a daylight lead as they raced around the far turn, but Oakhill Girl ranged up to join her in the stretch and the two went stride-for-stride to the wire.

Appeals Judge Upholds Ruling in Funny Cide Case:
by Claire Novak, courtesy of www.bloodhorse.com

The Florida District Court of Appeals has ruled in favor of the Miami Herald in a defamation case filed by the owners of Funny Cide, winner of the 2003 GI Kentucky Derby. The case centered around the Herald's false allegations--later retracted by the paper--that jockey Jose Santos used an electronic device to prod Sackatoga Stable's gelding during the running of the race at Churchill Downs. Following Funny Cide's victory in the GI Preakness S. and third-place finish in the GI Belmont S., Sackatoga sued the Herald, claiming pressure from the paper's false assertions had caused the jockey to over-ride the horse and lose the Triple Crown. The appellate court May 16 upheld a lower court's ruling that there were no provable damages in the case. "We need not labor in this case...where damages become too speculative for trial," wrote Judge Gary M. Farmer. "Here it is enough for us to say the theory behind the loss of a Belmont win may be this side of possible, but it is a long way from being directly and immediately caused by the Herald's articles, or from being the foreseeable and normal consequences of disparagement." For the complete story, click here.

QUINN NEARS COMEBACK

Richard Quinn will return to the saddle after a brief retirement, the Racing Post revealed yesterday. Forced to quit a career which spawned over 2,000 winners last June due to persistent back problems, the Scot has been granted a license by the Horseracing Regulatory Authority and will be back after a spell as assistant to John Hills. "I was continually having physio at the racecourse, but I still felt uncomfortable in the lumbar area," he told the Post. "I was told it was just general wear and tear and accepted it, but as the year went on it got no better. Going racing was no fun anymore so after Royal Ascot I decided to retire. After a month of not riding it was still no better, so I went to see the specialist Michael Foy who recommended an MRI scan, and that showed that I had two slipped discs. They devised an exercise regime which has fixed the problem."

This was supposed to be all about Day Flight, but the granite-tough Peppertree Lane had other ideas and ripped up the script with a game front-running tour de force. The chestnut got off the mark for the season in a Ripon conditions event Apr. 28, but had been unable to land a serious blow against Ask (GB) and Scorpion (Ire) in Chester's G3 Ormonde S. eight days ago. Taking a lead until the half-mile marker here, he dug in when challenged by Group Captain late on and had grafted a safe margin by the time Day Flight had built enough momentum. "Chester probably wasn't his track--he loves a big, galloping track," jockey Kevin Darley commented.

Zaham scored in a Lingfield maiden Mar. 9 and a Kempton handicap Apr. 7 before showing he was not just a polytrack specialist when fourth in Sandown's Esher Cup H. last time Apr. 27. Richard Hills blamed his own blazing tactics for that reversal, and there was no such error this time as the chestnut was settled behind the early leaders to conserve energy. Moving up to the long-time leader Duke of Tuscany at the furlong pole, he dug in to assert from that rallying rival. "I didn't give him a very good ride at Sandown, as I went too quick and burnt him out," his rider said. "I used his stamina today and knew he'd have a bit of a kick when I wanted him."

Always traveling smoothly near the front end, the 30,000gns TATDEC weanling and 38,000gns TATOCT yearling quickened up the rail to lead with a furlong remaining before holding Masaalek (GB) (Green Desert) by a half length. "He's always worked nicely at home, but they went very quick at Windsor and got him into trouble," trainer Amanda Perrett's husband Mark explained. "[Jockey] Mick [Kinane] said he wouldn't worry about going back to five at Royal Ascot, so it will be either the [June 19] G2 Coventry S. over six or [June 21] G2 Norfolk S. next. 3--Green Lyons (Ire), 123, f, 3, Green Desert--Spinnette (Ire), by Spinning World. €7,800.

Margins: 3, HD, ¾. Odds: 1.50, 6.50, 6.40.

Also Ran: Air Bag (Fr), Highest Height (Fr), Tanguista (Fr), Moquette, Nini de Paris (Fr), Lady of Swain.
 Scratched: Nunez (Fr), Nolas Lolly (Ire).

Victorious over course and distance on her seasonal return last time Apr. 24, Cinnamon Bay justified favoritism in this stakes debut to record a career high. Trapped wide in fourth until moving into second at the top of the stretch, she took over with 300 meters remaining and was ridden clear from the eighth pole for an easy success.

Chantilly, 2.15, Cond, €34,000, 2yo, 5 1/2fT, 1:06.20, sf.

NATAGORA (FR) (f, 2, Divine Light {Jpn}--Reinamixa {Fr}, by Linamix {Fr}) enjoyed even-money favoritism coming back from a debut second at Saint-Cloud May 1. Leading from the outset, she was last off the bridle and was pushed out inside the final furlong to easily dispose of Fleurina (Fr) (Le Triton) by 2 1/2 lengths. She is the second winner for her freshman sire (by Sunday Silence). Lifetime Record: 2 starts, 1 win, 1 place, €21,200.

GARDA (c, 3, Lemon Drop Kid--Gilded Leaf, by Lyphard), fifth at Longchamp last time Apr. 23, occupied a handy berth in third from the outset of this one. Making smooth headway along the rail in the straight, the 11-2 chance scooted clear approaching the final furlong and coasted to the wire three lengths in advance of Darestan (Ire) (Sinndar {Ire}). Lifetime Record: 4 starts, 1 win, 3 places, €21,300. O-Robin Scully; B-Clovelly Farms; T-Criquette Head-Maarek.

Chantilly, 4.25, Mdn, €21,000, unraced 3yo, f, 1 5/16mT, 2:14.20, sf.

+ TAKANIYA (IRE) (f, 3, Rainbow Quest--Takarouna {GSW-Ire}, by Green Dancer) broke smartly from an outside box to lead 19 rivals after the opening exchanges of this debut. Pushed along to maintain her advantage with 450 meters remaining, the 21-10 chalk was ridden out in the latter stages to hold Sarouka (Fr) (King's Best) by a length. The homebred filly is a half-sister to Takarian (Ire) (Doyoun {Ire}), MGSW-US, GSW-Ire, $601,494; and Takali (Ire) (Kris {GB}), MGSW-Ire, $105,271. Lifetime Record: 1 start, 1 win, €10,500. O-H H The Aga Khan; B-H H The Aga Khan's Studs SC; T-Andre Fabre.

Chantilly, 3.55, Mdn, €21,000, unraced 3yo, c/g, 1 5/16mT, 2:13.80, sf.

+ ROCK SOLEIL (GB) (c, 3, Rock of Gibraltar {Ire}--Hunt the Sun {GB}, by Rainbow Quest) overcame a lengthy delay and one false start to justify 27-10 favoritism in this first go. Reserved off the pace in sixth until turning for home, the half to Polish Summer (Polish Precedent), MGSW & MG1SP-Fr, G1SW-UAE, G1SP-HK, $2,277,871; Winter Solstice (GB) (Unfuwain), GSP-Fr; Meteor Storm (GB) (Bigstone {Ire}), GISW-US, MSP-Fr, $1,448,284; Morning Eclipse (GB) (Zafonic), SW-Fr; and Host Nation (GB) (Grand Lodge), GSW-Fr, responded to stretch-long urging to deny Wild Party (GB) (Fantastic Light) by a short head on the line. With this success, Rock Soleil maintained his dam's 100 percent record as a winner producer. Lifetime Record: 1 start, 1 win, €10,500. O-Khalid Abudullah; B-Juddmonte Farms; T-Andre Fabre.
