Beo Heads Guineas 14...

Michael Ryan's Finsceal Beo (Ire) (Mr. Greeley) will face a maximum of 13 rivals when she takes in her third Classic within a month in Sunday's G1 1000 Guineas at The Curragh. Successful in Newmarket's G1

1000 Guineas before a short-head defeat in the G1 Poule d'Essai des Pouliches at Longchamp seven days later, the chestnut was reported on course for the third leg of her Guineas triple by trainer Jim Bolger. "She is very well," Bolger told PA Sport. "In France, she couldn't show her usual speed on the rain-softened ground and, hopefully, conditions will be more in her favour on Sunday. If they stay as they are at present, it would be grand." John Oxx has declared Pat Garvey's Newmarket Guineas runner-up Arch Swing (Arch), while Mick Channon is set to run Highclere Thoroughbred Racing's Treat (GB) (Bareathea {Ire}), and Richard Hannon will ship in Raymond Tooth's Indian Ink (Ire) (Indian Ridge {Ire}), who were fourth and fifth, respectively, in the one-mile Classic. Treat's connections are hoping for a reversal of the Newmarket form. "She's in good form, she'll have a breeze tomorrow morning and, as long as Mick is happy with her, she will head to Ireland," Highclere's Harry Herbert told PA Sport. "She hasn't done a lot since Newmarket. She was in season last week, so she had a easy time of it, but she will have a nice breeze tomorrow and then it will be all systems go. Johnny Murtagh will ride her, and we think the stiff mile of the Curragh will be to her advantage. Obviously, a bit of rain will help her, but it doesn't look as if we are going to get any."

Haatef Shelved...

Sheikh Mohammed bin Rashid Al Maktoum's Haatef (Danzig) has been ruled out of Saturday's G1 Irish 2000 Guineas at The Curragh due to a minor problem in his bloodwork. After finishing 10th in Newmarket's G1 2000 Guineas May 5, the homebred was being prepared for the Irish equivalent, but trainer Kevin Prendergast yesterday revealed that he will miss the gig. "He has had a bit of a setback and will not run for a while," Prendergast told PA Sport. "It is just a blood disorder, but we have no plans yet. We need to get him right."

Peslier Call-Up for Dalvina?

Olivier Peslier has been approached for the ride on St Albans Bloodstock's Dalvina (GB) (Grand Lodge) in next Friday's G1 Epsom Oaks. Following the news that

Dalvina edunlop.com

Jamie Spencer had been unsuccessful in his appeal against a suspension that rules him out of action for the Derby meeting, trainer Ed Dunlop has had to look elsewhere to find a partner for the impressive Listed Pretty Polly S. winner. "I think there are still some T's to cross and some I's to dot regarding some possible commitment in France, but we have approached [Peslier] and we'll see if he's available," Dunlop told PA Sport. "I've used him before; he's won a Derby, he knows his way around Epsom, so hopefully all being well, he will be available."

Perfect Has Oaks Agenda...

Derrick Smith, Michael Tabor and Susan Magnier's Simply Perfect (GB) (Danehill) is being aimed at next Friday's G1 Epsom Oaks. Trainer Jeremy Noseda confirmed the 1 1/2-mile Classic as the target for last year's G1 Fillies' Mile winner, who was third in the G1 1000 Guineas at Newmarket May 6. "We've been happy with her since the 1000 Guineas," Noseda said. "We feel she will stay a mile and a quarter. As for the extra furlongs of the Oaks, only June 1 will answer that question. But she definitely has at least comparable form with anything else in the race."

Dwyer Booked for Regime...

Martin Dwyer will ride Highclere Thoroughbred Racing's Regime (Ire) (Golan {Ire}) in next Saturday's G1 Epsom Derby. Last year's Derby-winning jockey, who received the invitation as a result of Jamie Spencer's suspension, will partner the G3 Sandown Classic Trial winner at the track prior to the blue riband. "Regime will go to Epsom on Thursday with Martin on board to have a spin around Tattenham Corner," Highclere's Harry Herbert told PA Sport. "He knows his way around Epsom very well and he has ridden an Oaks winner and a Derby winner, so he rides the track very well."

Awelmarduk to Hamburg?

Scuderia Effevis G1 Derby Italiano hero Awelmarduk (Ire) (Almutawakel {GB}) could be supplemented for the G1 Deutsches Derby, connections revealed yesterday. After his charge defeated German challenger Shrek (Ger) by a half-length in Classic at Rome this past Sunday, trainer Alduino Botti is eyeing the weather forecast. "He took the race well and we are thinking about the German Derby, which is a valuable race this year," Botti said. "We have to supplement him and will make a definite plan closer to the race." Despite the loss of 30 percent of its value in the last two years, the Derby Italiano still brought Awelmarduk's owner and breeder Felice Villa €718,000.

NATALMA ELECTED TO CANADIAN HALL
 Windfield Farm's Natalma, dam of the vastly influential sire Northern Dancer, has been elected into the Canadian Horse Racing Hall of Fame. The regally bred daughter of Native Dancer and Almamoud joins three Queen's Plate winners--L'Enjoleur, Jammed Lovely, and Quiet Resolve--as this year's equine representatives. The 16-member Thoroughbred election committee also inducted Russ and Lois Bennett of Flying Horse Farm and publicist/writer Bruce Walker in the Builders' category, as well as trainer Andy Smithers and jockey Chris Loseth. To make the Hall, nominees must receive at least 75 percent (12 of 16) of the votes cast by the electors. Natalma gained international acclaim when she gave birth to a stocky, muscular colt by Nearctic: Northern Dancer. He'd go on to win the Kentucky Derby, Preakness S. and Queen's Plate and become one of the preeminent sires of the 20th century. In addition to Northern Dancer, Natalma produced four other stakes winners. A gala dinner and induction ceremony will be held Thursday, Aug. 23 at the Mississauga Convention Centre. The guest speaker will be former professional goalie and comic Jim Ralph.

We would have to admit that we were fairly cautious about the prospects of Include when he first retired to stud. Despite having a very solid racerecord and pedigree, it had to be noted that he was a later maturing individual and that he was a son of Broad Brush, a stallion whose best previous son, Concern, proved a very disappointing sire.

It didn't take long for Include to prove the doubts groundless, however. In his first crop of two-year-olds in 2006, he came up with three stakes winners, headed by the GI Oak Leaf Breeders' Cup S. winner, Cash Included. He was also represented by She's Included, who didn't win a stakes, but took third in the GI Del Mar Debutante S. Include has more than maintained the momentum this term with his first three-year-olds: in March, Etude became his fourth stakes winner with a score in the Private Terms S., and over the weekend, his daughter Panty Raid captured the GII Black Eyed Susan S. while his son, Prom Shoes, was beaten inches in the GII Peter Pan S. So, Include now has five first-crop stakes winners and four other stakes performers--two graded--an accomplishment which places him among the most promising of the current crop of sophomore sires. cont. p4

What is particularly encouraging is that all of these horses have earned their black-type at a point where, in his career, Include had yet to take his maiden. He started twice at two, his best finish being a third. The following year he scored his first win at Laurel Park in June before going on to take four of five sophomore outings, including the Vincent A. Moscarelli Memorial S. at Delaware Park. Include went on to enjoy his best season at four, capturing five of nine starts, including the GII Massachusetts H., GII New Orleans H. and GI Pimlico Special. He wasn't quite the same force at five, but he did take the Jennings H. for a second consecutive year, tallying by nine lengths.

Panty Raid's dam, the Private Account mare Adventurous Di, who earned black-type with a third in the listed Begonia S. She had previously produced French listed winner Franc, a son of Woodman, who had the sisters Playmate and Numbered Account 2x3. Adventurous Di was herself a half-sister to the GIII Thomas D. Nash Memorial H. winner Danc'n Jake. Her dam, Tamaral, was by Seattle Slew out of Summer Legend, a Raise a Native mare who produced three stakes winners, including Canadian champion two year old filly Legarto. She is the ancestress of several others, including GISW Shadow Cast, last year's GIII Kentucky Cup Juvenile winner U D Ghetto and other graded scorers Dream About, Dream Impact and Cryptoquip. The fourth dam is Scotch Verdict, who is better known as the granddam of champion Desert Vixen and stand-out Florida sire Valid Appeal.

It's a little early to start finding trends in Include's best offspring, at least as far as male-line crosses are concerned, but we can note that Broad Brush and his sons have done well with Damascus-line mares in general, and Panty Raid's broodmare sire, Private Account, in particular.

Broad Brush himself sired seven stakes winners out of Damascus-line mares, three of which including Grade

Damascus Equineinfo.com

I winner Pompeii, are out of mares by Private Account. Two other sons of Broad Brush, Best of Luck and Concern, also have stakes winners out of Damascus-line mares. Private Account is by Damascus out of a mare by that horse's sometime rival, Buckpasser, and Buckpasser appears in four of Include's stakes horses.

Some months ago, when we wrote up the pedigree of Include's daughter Cash Included, we noted that the tenuous surviving branch of the Domino sire line which comes down to Include has prevailed due to some intense inbreeding and linebreeding patterns. Include himself is no exception, having Turn-to 4x4x4 and the notable mare Hidden Talent 4x5. His dam combines Tom Fool and Nijinsky II's dam, Flaming Page (a reverse cross to Tom Fool). This might explain why Buckpasser is appearing significant here, as he is a son of Tom Fool from the family of La Troienne, the most important daughter of Teddy (Broad Brush and Include have a considerable build-up of two of Teddy's important sons, Bull Dog and Sir Gallahad III).

Panty Raid's pedigree has another unusual feature. One of the links in the male-line chain from Domino to Include is champion two- and three-year-old Alsab. Panty Raid not only has Alsab in her male line, but her fourth dam is also by that horse (giving her top and bottom linebreeding to Alsab), and she also has a third strain of Alsab via Seattle Slew, sire of her second dam. This rather brings the Domino line breeding story full circle, as Alsab, was inbred 3x3 to Domino's unbeaten grandson, Colin, and his 3/4-sister, Verdure.

SMART STRIKES

The group of North American sires whose first foals arrived in 1998 looked a very promising bunch, headed by a trio which had dominated the 1995 two-year-old scene: that year Unbridled's Song bested Hennessy in an epic renewal of the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile, but GI Champagne S. winner Maria's Mon, who missed the Breeders' Cup, got the division's Eclipse Award. By the time the group's first crop had finished racing as four year olds at the end of 2002, two new names had appeared on our screens. Our year-end APEX ratings ranked the unheralded British sire Pivotal as the group's top sire (4.85 A Runner Index then), followed by Unbridled's Song (4.19), and the little-known Smart Strike (3.63), a Mr. Prospector half-brother to the superstar Canadian filly Dance Smartly (Danzig). He had won six of his eight starts, mostly in Canada, but culminating with a Grade I win 'down south' in the 1996 GI Iselin H. Maria's Mon, though he had Derby winner Monarchos in his first crop (resulting in his stud fee about tripling, attracting a much better group of mares for his 2003 crop, and resulting in a number five ranking on the 2006 General Sire List), had a 1.65 A Runner Index at the end of 2002. Hennessy, who had 2002 world champion two-year-old Johannesburg in his second crop, has proven rather hit and miss, though obviously capable of siring speedball superstars. He had a 1.57 rating at the end of 2002.

Interestingly, there hadn't been all that much change, in their relative APEX A Runner ratings anyway, four years later, at the end of 2006. There were three 'F1998' sires among the world top 20, ranked by APEX 'A Runner' indices. Though they had changed places, they were still: world number eight, Smart Strike (3.85); world number 12, Pivotal (3.31); and world number 16, Unbridled's Song (3.02). Maria's Mon had a 1.51 rating, though that is likely on its way up, due to his improved commercial stature from 2002 on; Hennessy was also still in the same range, at 1.53.

As his consistently high APEX ratings suggest, Smart Strike has never been out of the top 15 on the General Sire list since 2002, the year his first foals were four year olds. He has been a consistently good sire of quality racehorses. By the end of 2006 he was the sire of 45 stakes winners, including five Canadian champions, in seven crops, though he had only three North American Grade I winners. Now he's very likely made himself the newest member of the 'six-figure' ($100,000+) stud-fee club, with Curlin's tremendous victory in last Saturday's GI Preakness S. (Beyer 111) over Street Sense (Street Cry).

Ironically, Street Sense's equally terrific GI Kentucky Derby win should have promoted his sire, Street Cry, to the six-figure club two weeks ago. Let's spare a thought, too, for Kentucky Derby second and Preakness third Hard Spun (Danzig): he has also run two terrific races. When the first three in the Derby come back and run one-two-three in the Preakness, that tells you they are the elite three-year-olds of their crop.

Curlin's $600,000 Preakness payday elevated Smart Strike to third spot on the 2007 general sire list, according to yesterday's bloodhorse.com., just $100,000 behind second-place Royal Academy. Two-time champion sire (including in 2006) A.P. Indy is still number one, already over $4 million for the year, with eight graded/group winners among his 10 stakes winners this year. Distorted Humor, in fourth, also has 10 2007 stakes winners, of which six have won graded/group stakes. Royal Academy has nine 2007 stakes winners, Smart Strike has eight; both have four graded/group winners. Street Cry is in fifth place on the current general sire list; the leading second-crop sire has only 14 winners this year, but seven of them are stakes winners, and five of those have won graded/group stakes. cont. p6

Twentysomethings Pleasant Tap and Silver Deputy occupy sixth and seventh spots, but 13 of the next 14 places are filled by relatively younger sires, all of whose first foals were born in 1997 or later; the exception is Danzig, not surprisingly currently ranked 19th, considering the quality of his 2007 three-year-olds. The F1997 (first foals 1997) sire crop is represented by Mr. Greeley (eighth) and Thunder Gulch (17). Smart Strike's F1998 contemporaries Maria's Mon (14) and Unbridled's Song (18) join him among the current General Sire List's top 20. Among F1999 sires, the perennial crop leaders

Smart Strike Tony Leonard

Langfuhr (11) and Pulpit (20) hit the board again. Joining F2000 Distorted Humor on the list, from this powerful sire crop, are Stormy Atlantic (12), and the Coolmore F2000 twins, Tale of the Cat (ranked 13, and with 57 winners from 168 runners this year), and Grand Slam (ranked 16, and with 58 winners from 169 runners). Though their 'profiles' are somewhat different, their actual statistics have always been incredibly similar. There are no representatives from the F2001 or F2003 sire crops among the current top 20, but another powerful sire crop, F2002, has three among the top 21: Giant's Causeway (ninth), Lemon Drop Kid (10), and More Than Ready (21). And the number two second-crop sire, Johannesburg, ranks 15th; he has four stakes winners so far this year, three of them graded/group winners.

Dateline Europe...

The Irish Guineas races are this weekend's Classics. In Saturday's G1 Irish 2000 Guineas, the one-two-four from Newmarket are set to renew rivalry. The G1 English 2000 winner Cockney Rebel, from GI Breeders' Cup Mile winner Val Royal's first crop, reportedly did a mindblowing piece of work last weekend, but connections of the Newmarket second, Vital Equine (Danetime), seemingly aren't dazed and are anxious to take the winner on again. Duke of Marmalade (Danehill) will head a multi-pronged Ballydoyle challenge, which could also include unlucky G1 Poule d'Essai des Poulains fourth Excellent Art (Pivotal), while Creachadoir (King's Best), second in France, could also be in the mix.

Finsceal Beo (Mr. Greeley) of course heads the field for Sunday's GI Irish 1000 Guineas. Looking further ahead, last year's GI Racing Post Trophy winner, Authorized, will be even-money to give his sire, Montjeu, his second winner of the GI Epsom Derby from three crops. His imperious win in last week's GI Dante S. at York makes him the favorite for the June 2 Classic. Enhancing his chance is that Sheikh Mohammed has sportingly let Frankie Dettori off whatever longshot Godolphin runs so that Britain's best rider can finally add the Derby to his long list of achievements. It would be ironic if Frankie finally gets his Derby winner for another outfit, but the racing public would love it if Frankie can finally break his Derby duck. Authorized will be carrying some extra weight that day. Finally, looking even farther down the line--into the future--two young European freshman sires are cranking out winners, seemingly almost daily: these are top sprinters Acclamation (Royal Applause) and Choisir (Danehill Dancer). And we're just four weeks away from the best race meeting on the planet, Royal Ascot.

BROKEN VOW COLT TOPS MIDLANTIC FI-

NALE In what would be the third-to-last offering of the night, hip 652--a colt by Broken Vow--realized a sale topping $575,000 final bid at the Fasig-Tipton Midlantic Preferred Two-year-olds in Training Sale in Timonium, Maryland. Purchased by New Jersey-based agent Buzz Chace, the $140,000 FTKJUL yearling purchase is the second foal out of the French Deputy mare French Grand, already the dam of a stakes winner in Kat Nan Do (Formal Gold). The colt worked a quarter mile in :21 2/5 during the breeze show. The top filly of the day was hip 606, a daughter of Kafwain out of Dotsie's Doll (Allen's Prospect). Purchased for $335,000 by the partnership of DJ Stable and Harold Lerner, the dark bay was consigned by Florida horsewoman Murray Smith. The New York-bred filly recorded the co-fastest eighth of a mile during the breeze session, covering the distance in :10.1. The two-day sale concluded yesterday with gross expenditure for the session down from $11,409,500 to $10,340,000, with average also dipping 2.6 percent. Median rose by 20 percent, increasing from $30,000 to $36,000. Complete results can be found at www.fasig-tipton.com.

CAUTHEN JOINS CAPITAL PLAY IN FRANCHISE BID

by Claire Novak, courtesy of Blood-Horse.com

Former jockey and Hall of Fame member Steve Cauthen, who became the youngest rider to win the Triple Crown when he rode Affirmed to sweep the three classic races as an 18-year-old in 1978, has joined the team of Capital Play, one of four bidders engaged in competition for the franchise rights to Aqueduct, Belmont Park, and Saratoga in New York.

“Steve has come on to endorse and support our bid; he cares about New York racing and he feels we’ve got the right plan to take racing here in the right direction,” said Karl O’Farrell, founder of Capital Play and chief executive officer of the Australia-based international wagering company Capital Play Party Ltd. “Even though Kentucky is obviously Steve’s home, New York was his career home while he was racing in the U.S., and he cares about the condition of racing here. He’ll be involved in various presentations and as a spokesman for us about our plan.”

Capital Play announced Cauthen’s endorsement during a May 22 press conference in which the company presented a vision of how it would promote the upcoming GI Belmont S. to draw maximum exposure without the added attraction of a potential Triple Crown contender. The current franchise-holder, the New York Racing Association, is facing that task for the third year in a row as the June 9 Belmont, final leg of the Triple Crown, approaches.

“In Australia, for example, when the Melbourne Cup is coming up, you cannot get flights to Melbourne--they’re booked months out,” O’Farrell said. “The cooperation there between the racing industry and the tourism industry is something we can learn from, the way they work together to generate excitement around racing events.”

Cauthen said his endorsement of Capital Play stems from a personal concern over the state of the racing industry in New York. Click for complete story.

Leading after the opening exchanges of this seasonal bow, the 11-10 chalk came under pressure when tackled by Siamese Cat (Ire) (Rock of Gibraltar {Ire}) in early stretch and was driven out from the quarter-mile pole to assert by 1 3/4 lengths from that rival.
