BALLYDOYLE FIELD GUINEAS TRIO

The G1 Irish 2000 Guineas has gone the way of Ballydoyle four times since 1997. Looking to make it five, Aidan O'Brien saddles three in tomorrow's renewal at The Curragh. Susan Magnier and Michael Tabor's Duke of Marmalade (Ire) (Danehill), fourth in the May 5 G1 2000 Guineas, bids to extend a strong recent trend of colts finishing off the board at Newmarket before stepping forward to make amends at The Curragh. Of the last four winners of the Irish Classic, not one has run better than fourth in Britain, and that was the position occupied by Duke of Marmalade. He will be aided and abetted by stable companion Excellent Art (GB) (Pivotal {GB}). Owned in partnership by Magnier, Tabor, Smith and Matthew Green, Excellent Art was fourth in the G1 Poule d'Essai des Poulains at Longchamp 13 days ago. He suffered a troubled trip before running on strongly at the finish, and bids to emulate Bachir (Ire), Desert Prince (Ire) and Spinning World in using that Classic as a stepping stone to success here. Bolstering the home defence against Phil Cunningham's Cockney Rebel (Ire) (Val Royal {Fr}) and Premspace Ltd's Vital Equine (Ire) (Danetime {Ire}), who were one-two at Newmarket, is Dr Ronan Lambe's Fleeting Shadow (Ire) (Danehill). He has to improve on his fourth in the Listed Loughbrown S. Apr. 15 if he is to provide trainer Dermot Weld with a second renewal, following the exploits of Flash of Steel (Ire) back in 1986. "I was very pleased and satisfied with his comeback race," Weld told PA Sport. "He'll come on a lot for it; he is in very good form and I expect him to run a very nice race in the Guineas. He is a very adaptable and very sound colt who goes on any ground." Field, p2

SHOWING UP SIDELINED BY TORN TENDON

MGISW Showing Up (Strategic Mission) has suffered a torn tendon in his left front leg and will be out indefinitely, the Daily Racing Form reports. The four-year-old, winner of the G1 Secretariat S. and G1 Hollywood Derby last year, made his 2007 bow in the GII Maker's Mark Mile Apr. 13 and finished second by a neck. He had worked three times since, most recently going five-eighths in 1:00 2/5 on the turf at Belmont May 6. Trainer Barclay Tagg estimated the colt would be out of action at least until the end of the summer. "I'm not going to run him for three months," Tagg told DRF. "I'm going to see if I can get it better. It's pretty minor right now, and if I can get it better I'd like to get it better." He added, "I'm not even going to think about the Breeders' Cup; I'm not going to think about his year. I just want to get it better first. A lot of those things can heal up in three months. Maybe it will, maybe it won't, I don't know. We're going to give it every chance." Showing Up has compiled a record of 10-7-1-1, with his lone off-the-board effort a sixth-place finish in the G1 Kentucky Derby. He has earned $1,660,500 to date.

HONEY RYDER RETURNS TOMORROW

MGISW Honey Ryder (Lasting Approval), who was unsuccessful in her bid to beat the boys in the Mar. 31 G1 Dubai Sheema Classic, makes her first start since that overseas trek in the GII Sheepshead Bay H. at Belmont Park tomorrow. The six-year-old mare captured four of seven starts last season, including a nose decision in the Oct. 7 G1 Flower Bowl Invitational H. She capped the year with a third-place finish in the G1 Breeders' Cup F/M Turf, and was beaten just a neck when second in her 2007 opener, the Feb. 24 G1 Gulfstream Park BC H. Connections opted to take on colts again at Nad al Sheba, but the gray mare failed to fire, finishing 11th behind Vengeance of Rain (NZ). "She never really got on track last time," trainer Todd Pletcher explained, adding, "She's trained very well since coming back." Field, p4

Ink Won't Run...

Raymond Tooth's Indian Ink (Ire) (Indian Ridge {Ire}) will miss Sunday's G1 Irish 1000 Guineas at The Curragh after returning a dirty scope, connections announced yesterday. Last year's G1 Cheveley Park S. winner was bidding to improve on her fifth in the G1 1000 Guineas at Newmarket May 6, but will wait for Royal Ascot now. "Richard [Hughes] rode her in work the other day and said she wasn't feeling as good as she normally does," trainer Richard Hannon told PA Sport. "So we scoped her and it came back dirty. There was no infection in there, but we are not going to run."

O'Brien to Be Mob-Handed in Derby...

Aidan O'Brien suggested that he will have a handful of runners in next Saturday's G1 Epsom Derby after ruling out just one of his remaining nine contenders yesterday. Pointing Susan Magnier, Derrick Smith and Michael Tabor's Chinese Whisper (Ire) (Montjeu {Ire}) at the following day's G1 Prix du Jockey-Club at Chantilly, the Ballydoyle conditioner stated that he is likely to head to the blue riband with a numerically strong team. "They all have to do their work still and I am not sure how their work is going to go and how they are going to come out of their work, but there is a chance we will run a number of them," O'Brien confirmed. "They have all ran satisfactory trials and we have been happy with them all." Included in the squad at present are the G2 Derrinstown Stud Derby Trial winner Archipenko (Kingmambo), G3 Chester Vase winner Soldier of Fortune (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}), G3 Dee S. scorer Admiral of the Fleet (Danehill) and G2 Prix Hocquart winner Anton Chekhov (Ire) (Montjeu {Ire}). "It is hard to know which ones will improve and how they are going to improve for their trials," he added. "We will know which one is good enough on the day, but if you had any one of them and you had them win their trials as they have done, you would have to be happy and they would be entitled to run in the Derby."

Derby Contenders Take in Epsom...

A. J. Thompson's Salford Mill (Ire) (Peintre Celebre) and Highclere Thoroughbred Racing's Regime (Ire) (Golan {Ire}) had spins around Epsom yesterday as the track hosted its annual Breakfast with the Stars morning. Ted Durcan partnered the former, who booked his ticket to the June 2 G1 Derby with success in the May 5 Listed Newmarket S.; Martin Dwyer was aboard the G3 Sandown Classic Trial winner Regime. While David Elsworth was pleased that Salford Mill put a below-par work at

Regime www.highclere.co.uk

Newmarket behind him, the trainer warned that Epsom might not suit the imposing bay. "We thought it was a good idea to show him the course," Elsworth commented. "This morning he showed us he was in good form, but the ground was a concern. I don't think he copes with cut in the ground. If it were soft, I would be very worried about the race. I would be less than honest if I didn't say this may not be his ideal course." Trainer Michael Bell reported himself pleased with Regime after his gallop. "Basically, today was just to familiarise him with Epsom, and particularly Tattenham Corner, so we were not finding out about his ability," Bell said. "We were just giving him a chance to get used to the place and I was very happy with him." Epsom's Clerk of the Course Andrew Cooper is watching the weather keenly in the build-up to the meeting, which starts a week from today. "It is good ground and it probably looked slightly softer than it will on raceday," he commented. "We have mixed reports on the forecast, but will sit tight for the next few days." Classic Corner cont. p4

Sins 50-50 for Oaks...

His Highness the Aga Khan's Four Sins (Ger) (Sinndar {Ire}) was yesterday described as "50-50" for Friday's G1 Epsom Oaks. The owner's Racing Manager Pat Downes revealed that the G3 Blue Wind S. winner's attendance in the mile-and-a-half Classic depends on her final serious work Tuesday. "I wouldn't call her a definite runner at the moment," Downes said. "We'll make a decision after her last work before Epsom on Tuesday and see what's likely to be taking part. You never know how any horse is going to act at Epsom until they go there, but she does like fast ground and we were surprised that she won on rain-softened ground at Naas."

HKJC, BREEDERS' CUP GIVEN RACING TRUST MARK

Three new betting operators have received the Racing Trust Mark from the International Federation of Horseracing Authorities. The Hong Kong Jockey Club, Breeders' Cup and The Jockey Club of Turkey have been recognized by the label, which "distinguishes authorized businesses from all those mainly off-shore operations that cause unfair competition by operating outside the law and without agreement of the tracks or economic return to the horsemen," according to a release from the IFHA. Maurits Bruggink, IFHA's Executive Director, said in the statement, "With the development and roll-out of new technologies like digital and interactive TV, global satellite broadcasting, broadband communications, webstreaming and so forth, the racing product will become further globalised. We aim to do everything we can to promote rule-based trade in the racing and betting product, and stand up against pirating business. The Racing Trust Mark is the community for those who support this idea." The IFHA was established in 1993; its members include racing authorities in over 50 countries.

TRADE DECISION CALLED BOOST FOR PARI-MUTUEL INDUSTRY

The United States will no longer have to open itself to foreign providers of betting services, a move the National Thoroughbred Racing Association said will strengthen the online pari-mutuel industry. The World Trade Organization Dispute Settlement Body on May 22 adopted the decision of a WTO arbitration panel after the U.S. government said it had taken steps to formally withdraw its global trade commitment to open the U.S. market to foreign providers of gambling services. The commitment was made to the WTO during the Clinton administration as part of the General Agreement on Trade in Services. "This is a great day for the pari-mutuel industry," said Alex Waldrop, NTRA president and CEO. "As a result of the withdrawal by the United States of its GATS commitment, the WTO will no longer play a role in the global debate on U.S. regulation of gambling services over the Internet. The NTRA has monitored this case for over two years, and we have argued from the outset that the GATS commitment should be withdrawn. The decision validates our long-held position." The WTO issue surfaced two years ago in the form of a complaint by Antigua, which was seeking access to U.S. Internet gaming markets. In reviewing Antigua's case, the WTO determined the U.S. wasn't in compliance with WTO standards calling for consistent applications of trade guidelines, and that the U.S. had discriminated between offshore and onshore Internet wagering operators to the detriment of Antigua. U.S. pari-mutuel officials have said the industry is losing money to offshore operators who take bets on U.S. racing and don't return revenue. Antigua has procedural rights to secure permission from the WTO to retaliate against the U.S., but it appears the U.S. decision to withdraw its WTO market access commitments on gambling services will neutralize the value of those rights. The U.S. withdrawal of its WTO market access commitments doesn't require the U.S. to make any changes in current laws or practice, nor is it anticipated the government will make any changes as a result.

Great Hunter Sharp at Hollywood...

Great Hunter (Aptitude), looking to bounce back from his 13th-place finish in the GI Kentucky Derby, worked five furlongs in 1:00 4/5 at Hollywood Park yesterday morning. Exercise rider Tony Romero was aboard for the move. "He worked great," trainer Doug O'Neill said. "I got him galloping out in 1:13 and 1:27." O'Neill added, "His coat and weight look as good as they did going into the Derby." The three-year-old, getting ready for the June 9 GI Belmont S., is scheduled to ship to New York June 4 or June 5. "That will give us a couple of chances to school him in the paddock there," the conditioner remarked. It has not yet been decided who will ride the colt in the Belmont.

No Belmont for Nobiz...

Nobiz Like Showbiz (Albert the Great) breezed five-eighths in 1:00 1/5 at Belmont Park yesterday morning, but trainer Barclay Tagg said he is not in the mix for the 1 1/2-mile Belmont S. "He worked great...but I'm not planning on running him in the Belmont," Tagg said, but did admit that unlikely circumstances might change his mind. "If it were a walkover or a two-horse race, I would run," he said. "A $1-million race is a $1-million race. [But] right now I'm planning on races like the [GII] Dwyer [July 4], [GII] Jim Dandy [July 29] and [GI] Travers [Aug. 25]." Trainer Todd Pletcher indicated yesterday that Circular Quay (Thunder Gulch) and the filly Rags to Riches (A.P. Indy) are training well, but it will be at least a week before it is decided if they'll run.

EXCHANGE RATE TO THREE CHIMNEYS Three Chimneys Farm in Midway, Kentucky, has purchased a minority interest in leading juvenile sire Exchange Rate (Danzig--Sterling Pound, by Seeking the Gold) from Padua Stables, and will stand the 10-year-old in 2008. A graded-stakes winner of $479,803, Exchange Rate produced Grade I winners Ermine and Swap Fliparoo

from his first crop, which are four-year-olds this season. His third crop, two-year-olds of 2007, has had three winners from three starters, including the filly Rated Feisty, who beat colts in the GIII Kentucky Breeders' Cup S. at Churchill Downs. "Exchange Rate's average earnings index [AEI] is 2.29 against a comparable index for his mares of 1.32--meaning he moves his mares up an amazing 73 percent, almost doubling the quality of their foals," said Padua owner Satish Sanan. "He's been good to the Florida breeders who have supported him with their mares. We're delighted to once again partner with Three Chimneys to now make Exchange Rate available to Kentucky-based mares." Padua sent Yes It's True to Three Chimneys in 2005. Three Chimneys owner Robert Clay commented, "This horse is a son of Danzig and has a beautiful pedigree. But, more importantly, he already has an outstanding record as a sire. With six stakes winners from 68 starters in his first two crops, Exchange Rate has 8.82-percent stakes winners from starters and 6.97-percent stakes winners from the 86 total foals in those crops. Those are major league numbers."

PREAKNESS TOP SPORTS PROGRAM OF WEEKEND NBC Sports has announced the coverage of the May 19 GI Preakness S. was the highest-rated sports broadcast of last weekend, garnering a 4.9 national rating, 13 share for the total program. Those ratings bested the NBA playoff game between San Antonio and Utah, which did a 3.0/7. In all, the Preakness had 7.2-million viewers, compared to the four million who tuned into the Yankees--Mets game on Fox. The numbers were down slightly from the 2006 Preakness, which earned 5.4/14. Each rating point is approximately 1.1-million viewers, while the share is equivalent to the percentage of televisions tuned into the broadcast. Pimlico reported that 121,263 fans attended the 132nd Preakness, a record for a sporting event in Maryland. The all-sources handle for the day was $87,194,161, the fourth-highest in history and virtually equally with 2006, when the handle was $87.5 million. The record was set in 2005 with a handle of $91 million.

MASS CAP TO RETURN The Massachusetts H. will be back on the Suffolk Downs stakes calendar this fall, the Daily Racing Form reports. The nine-furlong race, which had to be scrapped three of the last four years, is tentatively scheduled to be run in late September. The purse has not yet been announced, but, according to DRF, it will be six figures. Suffolk will also offer bonuses tied to major stakes in the division, hoping to encourage Breeders' Cup Classic candidates to prep in the race. The Mass Cap was last contested in 2004, when Offlee Wild beat Funny Cide by a head, and will not be eligible for graded status this year.

Harlington looked like he might be headed for the Triple Crown trail with a nice victory at Gulfstream in January of 2005, but a poor showing in the GIII Risen Star S. in February quickly derailed that notion. On the sidelines after that start, the dark bay returned with a five-length score in an Aqueduct allowance in December. A winner of his next two at Gulfstream, including last winter's GII Gulfstream Park H., Harlington's season ended prematurely with a fourth in the GI Pimlico Special H. last May. Well-supported to kick off the current season with a good effort here, the five-year-old stalked the early pace in fourth, found plenty of room along the rail to take command in the stretch and had enough left to remain clear of Art Master at the wire. LEAR'S PRINCESS (f, 3, Lear Fan--Pretty City, by Carson City) was involved in the most bizarre race at the Keeneland meeting when her rider and that of a rival racing to her inside misjudged the finish line. The two fillies essentially were galloping out when they crossed the actual finish and this filly got her nose down first. Trying the turf and a distance of ground as the 11-10 chalk, the $60,000 KEESEP yearling and $110,000 OBSMAR juvenile had one beat for the opening three-quarters, but charged ominously off the far turn, swept to the front past midstretch and drew clear for a very impressive 3 3/4-length victory. Pacesetting Miracle Moment (Chester House) was left in the winner's wake. Lifetime Record: 2-2-0-0, $58,780. Video, sponsored by Taylor Made.

Stretching out for this as a 3-1 chance, the $350,000 KEESEP yearling acquisition jumped best of all and set even fractions on the front end. Claimer Takes Hollywood Feature:

He was in for a $62,500 tag and was let go at 25-1, but Big Booster (Accelerator) outfinished the favorites to take the featured eighth race at Hollywood Park yesterday afternoon. The six-year-old gelding had been claimed twice at Gulfstream this winter, and was coming off a lackluster eighth-place finish against $62,500 claimers on the Hollywood turf May 6. Overlooked in his Cushion Track bow, Big Booster trailed the field early after getting squeezed back at the start. GI Blue Grass S. winner Sinister Minister (Old Trieste), the 2-1 chalk, set a moderate pace, then relinquished the lead to 5-2 Heatseeker (Ire) (Giant's Causeway) inside the eighth pole. But jockey David Flores had Big Booster motoring in the final furlong, and the longshot got up to take it by 3/4 of a length over Heatseeker, with Sinister Minister another 1 1/4 lengths back in third.

1.50 Compiegne, Debutantes, €21,000, 3yo, f, 1mT
AMA (Storm Cat) is the latest progeny of the great Miesque, the brilliant miler who is the dam of none other than Kingmambo, as well as East of the Moon and Mingun. Jonathan Pease introduces the Niarchos homebred in a fascinating affair, which has also drawn His Highness the Aga Khan's Clodovina (Ire) (Rock of Gibraltar {Ire}), a close relative of the 2003 G1 Poule d'Essai des Poulains (French 2000 Guineas) winner Clodovil (Ire) from the Andre Fabre stable.

2.20 Compiegne, Debutantes, €21,000, 3yo, c/g, 1mT
ELECTRONIC (GB) (Danehill) represents the all-powerful combination of Khalid Abdullah and Andre Fabre and this rare Juddmonte purchase is out of a sister to the 1998 G1 Racing Post Trophy winner Commander Collins (Ire) and half to the top-class Colonel Collins and Lit de Justice. He takes on Ecurie Wildenstein's Arbitre (Fr) (Sadler's Wells), an Elie Lellouche-trained full-sibling to the smart stakes winner Asti (Ire) and a descendant of Allez France.

2.20 Newmarket, Mdn, £7,000, 2yo, f, 6fT
DEA CAELESTIS (FR) (Dream Well {Fr}) makes her debut a week after her intended first start and bids to continue the renaissance of Henry Cecil's Warren Place. The three-parts sister to Enrique (GB) carries the Niarchos silks against Sheikh Marwan Al Maktoum's Dresden Doll (Elusive Quality), a half to the top-class Crimplene (Ire) from the Michael Bell stable.

5.25 Tipperary, Mdn, €17,000, 2yo, 7f 100ydsT
HISTORICAL GIANT (Giant's Causeway) starts out for Derrick Smith, Susan Magnier and Michael Tabor a stone's throw from his Ballydoyle base. Out of a sister to the smart stakes winner Vinista, he hails from the family of Hernando (Fr) and Johann Quatz (Fr).

5.55 Tipperary, Mdn, €13,000, 3yo/up, c/g, 7f 100ydsT
SINNTARAN (IRE) (Machiavellian) makes his belated debut for Highness the Aga Khan and John Oxx, who teamed up to great effect with this colt's half-brother Sinndar (Ire). This is a pedigree enriched with abundant stamina, so it may be significant that the homebred tackles this trip against Michael Tabor, Susan Magnier and Derrick Smith's Arcadius (Giant's Causeway), whose immediate relatives include Bernstein, Della Francesca and Sky Mesa.

GROUND KEY TO DANAK BID Connections of the unbeaten Danak (Ire) (Pivotal {GB}) are keeping an eye on the weather ahead of the four-year-old's tilt at Sunday's G1 Tattersalls Gold Cup at The Curragh. His Highness the Aga Khan's homebred earned his place in the line-up for the extended 10-furlong contest with an impressive success in the Listed Amethyst S. over a mile at Leopardstown May 13, but Racing Manager Pat Downes warned that soft ground could rule him out of a clash with Dylan Thomas (Ire). "At the moment, he's an intended runner, but the forecast suggests we are going to get some significant rain on Saturday night, so it depends on how much we get," he explained. "On fast ground, we would expect the trip not to be a problem, as we think he'll appreciate the step up, but if the rain effects the ground it would put extra demands on his stamina, which we're not sure will suit him."

DARJINA FOR CORONATION? Princess Zahra Aga Khan's G1 Poule d'Essai des Pouliches heroine Darjina (Fr) (Zamindar) could be targeted at Royal Ascot's G1 Coronation S., connections announced yesterday. Despite holding an entry in Chantilly's G1 Prix de Diane (French Oaks), the homebred could stay at a mile for the June 22 contest. "A decision hasn't been taken yet, but there is a chance she could go for the Coronation," Racing Manager Pat Downes said. He also added that last year's triple Group 1 winner Mandesha (Fr) (Desert Style {Ire}) would run in the June 20 G1 Prince of Wales's S.

Stepping up from a maiden score to land the G2 Superlative S. at Newmarket last July, Halicarnassus closed his juvenile campaign with an off-the-radar effort in the G1 Dewhurst S. at Newmarket's other track in October. Back this year to finish third in the Apr. 21 G3 Greenham S. at Newbury, he was again off the board at Newmarket's Rowley Mile when trailing in 17th in the May 5 G1 2000 Guineas last time, but regained winning ways, under a five-pound penalty, to lift this former Classic trial. Positioned third of the three runners, Halicarnassus was pushed along with three furlongs remaining and ran on strongly inside the final furlong for the upset. "He is in the Irish Derby [at The Curragh July 1], but I didn't enter him at Epsom as he was in so many mile races, you might call it trainer error," trainer Mick Channon told PA Sport. "He has a lot of speed but staying may be his game. He had very solid form as a two-year-old and he loves decent ground, so it will be interesting to see how he goes."
