STREET SENSE BYPASSING BELMONT

There won't be a showdown June 9 in the GI Belmont S. The connections of GI Kentucky Derby winner Street Sense (Street Cry {Ire}) have opted to skip the 1 1/2-mile Classic and will instead point the colt for later targets. "I gave [owner] Mr. [James] Tafel all of my reasons for going, and all my reasons for not going," trainer Carl Nafzger said. "The Triple Crown is out--Curlin took us out. We're not going to the Belmont. We have set goals for this horse; we want the Travers [Aug. 25 at Saratoga] and we want the Breeders' Cup Classic [Oct. 27 at Monmouth]. If we can be the first horse to win the [Breeders' Cup] Juvenile, the Derby, the Travers and the Classic, then Mr. Tafel said these are worthy goals, let's go after it." Cont. p7

COMING AROUND AGAIN

Henry Cecil holds a special place in the hearts of Britain's racegoers, due in large part to his lengthy run of success in most of the country's Classics. In Passage of Time (GB) (Dansili {GB}) and Light Shift (Kingmambo) he has two shots at reviving the glory days in today's G1 Vodafone Oaks at Epsom. Khalid Abdullah's Passage of Time has already proven her mettle at the top level, having beaten colts in the G1 Criterium de Saint-Cloud in November and she returned with a cozy score in the May 16 G3 Musidora S. at York. While the abscess on her epiglottis causes concern, it hasn't dampened the enthusiasm. "It's very nice to be back and have a chance in a Classic after a few years," Cecil told PA Sport. "They both seem very well in themselves and I've been very pleased with the two of them. I hope the ground doesn't bother them and I'll be very disappointed if they don't run well." Cont. p2-3

DERBY DREAMING

The stars have aligned for Saturday's G1 Vodafone Derby at Epsom. Frankie Dettori, desperately seeking his dream result, has the ride aboard the hottest favorite to go to post in 10 years in Authorized (Ire) (Montjeu {Ire}); a team of no less than eight contenders from Ballydoyle, all of which have earned their place and will be ridden by an all-star cast of Ireland's finest; plus all of the winners of the recognised trials, including Sheikh Hamdan bin Rashid Al Maktoum's Aqaleem (GB) (Sinndar {Ire}). Trainer Marcus Tregoning tasted victory 12 months ago with Sir Percy (GB), while the famed Shadwell silks have been hoisted to victory by Nashwan in 1989 and Erhaab five years later. Aqaleem had Authorized behind him on their only meeting at two and took the G3 Lingfield Derby Trial, from which four Derby winners have emerged since 1983, by open lengths. Connections have a right to feel some confidence. "It is encouraging that he beat Authorized as a two-year-old, even though it was early in their careers," Tregoning commented. "The trial he ran at Lingfield was very solid and he won easily. I don't think the soft ground will be of concern, he seems in good form and we're very hopeful of a huge run. Like Authorized, it looks like he is going to stay very well, and a Derby on soft ground is going to be about horses who have class and stamina." Derby field, p3-4

Three of Cecil's seven Oaks winners had taken the Musidora en route, and Passage of Time used that familiar York trial on her way to Epsom May 16. Light Shift had already booked her ticket by that time when besting Roisin Henry and Susan Magnier's All My Loving in the Listed Cheshire Oaks at Chester May 9. Her jockey, Ted Durcan, is hopeful she can step out of the shadow of her stable companion.

"She's an absolute star and easy to ride, so she should be okay around Epsom," Durcan commented. "I've always said I wouldn't want firm ground, but now I'm hoping it won't be a bog as she has plenty of speed and wouldn't want it blunted. She seems great, and the boss is happy with her." Light Shift is a half to G1SW Shiva (Jpn), GSW Limnos (Jpn) and SW Burning Sunset (GB).

Ouija Board (GB). At this stage of her career, the parallels between St Albans Bloodstock's Dalvina and that luminary are striking, as the chestnut mimicked Ouija Board's performance in the Listed Pretty Polly S. Striding clear with distance in that Newmarket trial May 6, she holds strong claims as long as she handles the ground. "She's inexperienced, but looked very good when she won the Pretty Polly," the conditioner's assistant Robin Trevor Jones said yesterday. "The ground is a worry to us and we don't really know how she'll handle this soft ground--Grand Lodges do go on it, but you don't know until we try." While Sir Michael Stoute has collected two renewals, he is winless since Unite (Ire) struck in 1987, and relies on an outsider in Dance of Light here. Gary Middlebrook's filly looked in need of the extra distance when opening her account at Salisbury last time May 17, and the recent wet weather has helped forced the hand of connections. "If rain hadn't been forecast we wouldn't have left her in," Middlebrook told PA Sport. "She was due to run in the Pretty Polly, but was taken out because they didn't water." Aidan O'Brien has enjoyed success in this prize with Shahtoush (Ire), Imagine (Ire) and Alexandrova (Ire). He puts forward Susan Magnier and Michael Tabor's G3 Blue Wind S. runner-up Cherry Hinton; Magnier, Tabor and Derrick Smith's G3 Derrinstown Stud 1000 Guineas Trial second Nell Gwyn; and Tabor and Magnier's G1 Irish 1000 Guineas third Peeping Fawn as well as All My Loving. Neil Callan, who has the ride on Nell Gwyn, told PA Sport, "I think she should improve for the step up in trip if you look at her pedigree. She's a full-sister to Rock of Gibraltar and he always showed a lot of pace, which is why she has been campaigned over shorter trips. This will be her first attempt over further than a mile, and these well-bred animals can improve overnight for the step up in trip."

Salford Mill looked likely to relish this trip when he accounted for Derrick Smith, Susan Magnier and Michael Tabor's Acapulco and Godolphin's Eastern Anthem in the May 5 Listed Newmarket S. Trainer David Elsworth, yet to win the Blue Riband, has expressed doubts about the bay's ability to cope with this easy surface, a view which rider Ted Durcan has echoed. "I rode him at Epsom last week when the ground was on the easy side and he's a big, lovely-moving horse who wouldn't want it really soft," Durcan said. Cont. p5 down Classic Trial, a race which catapulted Troy (GB), Henbit and Shergar (Ire) to Derby success from 1979 to 1981, but which has only thrown one subsequent winner in Shahrastani in 1986. "We are really happy with his condition and feel that we have him in great shape ahead of his big task on Saturday," Bell commented. "He deserves to take his chance, as he has some very solid form to his name and we hope that he can prove himself on the big day. If he handles the track and stays, he has a realistic each-way chance and could run a very big race." Sir Michael Stoute has lifted the Derby trophy four times and relies on Khalid Abdullah's Arabian Gulf, who pushed Magnier, Tabor and Smith's Soldier of Fortune to a short head when second in the May 10 G3 Chester Vase. "He's trained by Sir Michael Stoute, so he'll improve a little bit for his Chester run," jockey Richard Hughes told PA Sport. "He's by Sadler's Wells, so he won't mind the ground."

Following the defection of the likely warm order Dandy Man (Ire) (Mozart {Ire}), this race lost some of its lustre, but it provided a fairytale as the bargain-buy Sierra Vista tore up the Sandown turf. As if nine handicap wins did not already make a mockery of the 500 guineas the chestnut fetched as a yearling, this career high was another example of small money buying the dream. Electric on Saturday in a competitive handicap at Haydock--the track at which she had enjoyed three of her previous four successes--she used her lethal pillar-to-post speed to make the breakthrough at this more exalted level. While the seven-year-old was her usual enthusiastic self on the front end early, Paul Hanagan was keen to hold something back and that paid dividends as she had more in reserve to break Moss Vale inside the final quarter mile. "She's awesome--she just blitzed them," commented trainer David Barker, who was welcoming his second winner of this race after Celtic Mill (GB) showed equally brutal speed two years ago. "They were strung out like washing and keeps amazing me. The plan was to go back to Haydock for a listed race, but that's broken that."

Take a Bow has been a paragon of consistency and persistence, finishing no worse than fourth in all of the tough assignments he has been handed since finishing fifth in last year's G2 Sandown Mile. Third behind Jeremy in the latest renewal of that contest Apr. 28, the bay found only Army of Angels (Ire) too strong in Windsor's Listed Royal Windsor S. on his latest outing May 14. Finally gaining his due reward, he drew on every inch of his tenacity to get the better of Mighty and Mashaahed after a dour uphill battle here. Staying close to the pace throughout the early stages, he moved up to tackle Mighty approaching the final quarter and ground his way past that determined rival before the eighth pole. Digging deep as Mashaahed drove into his advantage and Mighty found his second wind, he had his nose in front where it mattered as the photo was taken. "He's only been out of the prizemoney once in his life and he trains himself," Patrick Chamings said. "He has pure guts and determination--last year he had a spiral fracture of his near-fore, and he has bounced back stronger and better. He's had a hard race there and so will have a break now." Sixties Icon has undergone a radical transition from a 66-1 outsider that ran seventh in the 2006 G1 Epsom Derby, becoming one of his country's finest middle-distance performers. Off a third in Royal Ascot's G2 King Edward VII S. the following month, the bay gave notice of his burgeoning talent with an easy win in Goodwood's G3 Gordon S. in August before a career peak in the G1 St Leger at York in September. After a disappointing sign-off when failing to land a blow in the G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe at Longchamp in October, he was back in the winner's spot despite a penalty after the G2 Jockey Club S. at Newmarket May 6. Both Warrsan (Ire) and Shirocco (Ger) have completed the Jockey Club-Coronation Cup double since 2003, while Leger hero Mutafaweq returned two years after his win in the Doncaster Classic to triumph here in 2001. "This race has been his main target for the early part of the season," trainer Jeremy Nosedata commented. "We are happy with his progress. However, I am unsure he will act on the very soft ground." Last year's G1 Epsom Derby winner Sir Percy is back with a point to prove, as he has not enjoyed the forward momentum of Sixties Icon since his day in the sun 12 months ago. He only beat one rival in the G1 Champion S. at Newmarket on his sole subsequent outing last year, but looked back to near his best when fourth in the G1 Dubai Sheema Classic at Nad Al Sheba last time Mar. 31. Cont. p7

"I think [Sir Percy]'s in better form than last autumn and is in good shape," trainer Marcus Tregoning said. "The Dubai experience did him an awful lot of good and he's grown up a lot since last year. He's taking his work well and it was a good run in Dubai, as he was a shade short due to the coughing around." Aidan O'Brien, who has yet to win this race, saddles Septimus and Scorpion, both of whom are proven on testing ground. Following an impressive win in the G2 Dante S. on a soft surface at York last May, Septimus jarred himself when down the field in the Epsom Derby. In his first start since, the bay took the G3 Mooresbridge S. at The Curragh last time May 7. Scorpion has also endured a stop-start campaign since his success in desperate conditions in the 2005 G1 St Leger at Doncaster and needs to improve off his second in Chester's G3 Ormonde S. May 11.

Street Sense's narrow defeat in the GI Preakness S. took the wind of out his connections' sails, and while he won't get a chance to take on his conqueror Curlin in the Belmont, the confrontation should happen down the road. "Let's don't chase spilled water," said trainer Carl Nafzger said. "We spilled water in the Preakness-- we spilled it. We got beat and we got outran. So that's behind us, and our decision now is to regroup." Jim Tafel's homebred colt will remain in light training at Churchill Downs. He could gear up for the Travers in either the $500,000 GII Jim Dandy S. at Saratoga July 29 or the $1-million GI Haskell Invitational at Monmouth Aug. 5. The latter would give him an opportunity to race over the track where the Breeders' Cup Classic will be contested Oct. 27.

Race Tactics? Asmussen's 'Sense' Is...

There is little doubt that Street Sense's defection from the GI Belmont S. makes the task of trainer Steve Asmussen's Curlin (Smart Strike) considerably easier, but the absence of the Street Sense doesn't affect a looming problem for the GI Preakness S. winner: Hard Spun on a loose lead. Both Curlin and Street Sense have done their running from the back of the pack of late, while Hard Spun was on the pace in the Derby and near the lead in the Preakness. It's likely that Hard Spun will have his way up front in the Belmont, much like he did in the Derby, leaving Curlin to reel in a foe whose only pressure figures to come from Slew's Tizzy (Tiznow). The connections of that mild longshot, however, might be more than happy to sit in Hard Spun's slipstream and hope for place honors. With that a distinct possibility, Asmussen said yesterday during a national teleconference that he'd prefer to a more proactive Curlin in next Saturday's Belmont. "In his last two races, he didn't get away from the gate real cleanly, and I thought he's been off the bridle awfully early," admitted Asmussen. "I would like to see him break cleanly, be on the bridle, and be carrying [jockey] Robby [Albarado], rather than Robby having to ride him the whole way. I like to see him on his feet and run the race he ran in the GII Arkansas Derby. To me, it looked like he could have been on the lead in the Arkansas Derby. The Derby is the Derby and there are a lot of variables there, but his stumbling in the Preakness put him back a little farther than he would have been. I think a clean break in the Belmont puts him as close [to the pace] as you would want to be in a mile-and-a-half race." As an interesting bit of trivia, Curlin will be Steve Asmussen's first Belmont starter, though he isn't the first Asmussen to launch an assault on the third jewel of the Triple Crown. Brother Cash Asmussen, a top international jockey, rode Screen King in the 1979 Classic, running fourth to winner Coastal and third-place finisher Spectacular Bid. "I was in the grandstand that day," laughed Steve Asmussen.

Sedgefield Sidelined...

Sedgefield (Smart Strike), fifth in the GI Kentucky Derby, has been sidelined by an ankle injury. Trainer Darrin Miller reported the chestnut colt came out of a Monday workout at Churchill Downs with a chip in his left front ankle. Surgery is scheduled for Monday at Rood & Riddle Equine Clinic in Lexington. "The prognosis is good," Miller said. "It's unfortunate, but I think he'll be all right." Sedgefield worked four furlongs Monday in :48.20 and was being considered for either Saturday's GII Ohio Derby or the June 9 GI Belmont S.

Hard Spun Doing Well...

Trainer Larry Jones gave an update on Hard Spun (Danzig) during a NTRA national teleconference yesterday, telling reporters that the Foxhill Farms colorbearer is in fine fettle after a pair of tough efforts, a runner-up try in the GI Kentucky Derby and a third in the GI Preakness S. "Remarkably, he's coming out of these races very well," said Jones. "He's had two strenuous races in 14 days of each other, but he's doing well. I'm not saying he's getting better, but it's going to be hard for any of these horses that have been in both legs of the Triple Crown to improve coming into the Belmont. But, hopefully, you can hold your form, and it seems like we can count on him to do that. He's eating well and, quite frankly, I don't know how he could have come out of those races better." Jones also acknowledged that trainer Carl Nafzger's decision to skip the Belmont with Street Sense wasn't the worst news he's ever heard. "I thought it was very kind of Carl to take it easy on us," laughed Jones. "I hate it for him--I didn't hear why he wasn't going, so I hope everything is all right with Street Sense--but I can do without him." Jones also talked about how the decision will affect race tactics. "Hopefully, we won't have to worry about riding as close to the rail, and having to worry about getting a new coat of aluminum on Belmont's rail when all this is said and done," he said, alluding to the rail-skimming rides given to Street Sense by jockey Calvin Borel. "But really, it's not going to affect [Hard Spun] or his style, because he's generally forwardly placed and Street Sense has been giving him a head start. But we'll still have to hold off Curlin and all the rest."

Liquidity Sustains Tendon Injury...

J. Paul Reddam's Liquidity (Tiznow), 14th in the GI Kentucky Derby May 5 in his most recent start, has a tendon injury that will keep him out of action for at least six months, according to Daily Racing Form. The bay colt will undergo stem-cell treatment in order to speed up the recovery process. It was the second blow in a week for Reddam, whose Grade I winner Great Hunter (Aptitude) had surgery Sunday to remove an ankle chip. The three-year-old will be out for at least 90 days. "It was pretty minor, but we felt it was enough to take it out," trainer Doug O'Neill told DRF. "It's been a pretty rough week."

Quote of the Day

Trainer Larry Jones, on having to tell Hard Spun's regular rider, Mario Pino, that he was being replaced with Garrett Gomez for the Belmont S.:

"I did the manly thing. I told his agent and said, 'You go tell him.'"

DARJINA AIMS FOR ASCOT CROWN Princess Zahra Aga Khan's homebred G1 Poule d'Essai des Pouliches victress Darjina (Fr) (Zamindar) will sidestep the June 10 G1 Prix de Diane Hermes at Chantilly in favor of the June 22 G1 Coronation S. at Royal Ascot. Among the bay sophomore's likely opponents at the Berkshire venue is dual Classic heroine Finsceal Beo (Ire) (Mr. Greeley), who was denied the second leg of a historic treble after a thrilling duel at Longchamp May 13. "We've decided Darjina will go to Royal Ascot for the Coronation S.," Princess Zahra confirmed. She added, "We have several good three-year-old fillies in the stable, and it is a matter of pointing each for the right race taking into account their respective abilities. We have others for the Prix de Diane, so Darjina goes to Ascot."

brought a high bid of A$370,000 to top the second session. Magic Millions, agent, was listed as the buyer of the weanling, and trainer Gerald Ryan will train the colt for a 'good stable client.' Consigned by Glastonbury Farm, agent, lot 809 is out of the unraced Scenic (Ire) mare Bumps (Aus). "His dam has done the job by producing two stakes horses and he's by the sire that many are tipping to be the start of the first seasoners," said Ryan, explaining the colt's immediate appeal. The weanling was a member of the quality supplementary draft which included Wednesday's record-setting Redoute's Choice (Aus) colt, who sold for A$1.15 million. "He was the best horse in the sale in my opinion," said Ryan. "He's strong, sound, mature, correct and is a great type." At the conclusion of the second day of selling, statistics were well over 2006 figures, and the good ones continued to bring top dollar, with a record 42 weanlings realizing over six figures. "There's no doubt you'd be paying a lot more for him as a yearling," he said. "On the market, we are delighted to be able to buy him." The final session offering weanlings--the general portion--commences today at 10 a.m. Complete results are available on www.magicmillions.com.au.

BREEDERS' CUP Q AND A

Last December, Breeders' Cup stallion and foal nominators voted to select 13 candidates to stand for election to the Breeders' Cup Limited Board of Members and Trustees. Those candidates are joined by 12 existing trustees who have chosen to stand for re-election. Thirteen will ultimately be chosen. The voting opened on May 1 and will conclude June 18. While bios of the 25 candidates are contained in documents circulated to nominators, the TDN is responding to reader suggestions that we provide more information on the candidates' viewpoints. To that end, we posed the following question to each of the 25 candidates and have given them 300 words or fewer in which to respond. Their responses will be published over the next few days, beginning with those found here:

CHARLOTTE WEBER:

Q: What do you think is the biggest issue facing the Breeders' Cup today and, if voted to the Breeders' Cup board, how would you propose this issue be solved?

A: The biggest issue is a level playing field and that the Breeders' Cup remains a USA racing challenge. I believe that they both speak for themselves and the answers are obvious. Make the punishment fit the crime and have a uniform ruling that is mandated at all tracks. Racing a series in the USA should be a majority of the vote.

ROY JACKSON

Q: What do you think is the biggest issue facing the Breeders' Cup today and, if voted to the Breeders' Cup board, how would you propose this issue be solved?

A: The biggest issue I see facing the Breeders' Cup is to convert the casual racing fan and family into permanent fans of Breeders' Cup Day. This entails making sure that it remains the preeminent day of racing in this country, attracting the best horses possible from around the world and offering a sound purse structure. More importantly, it involves working with ESPN and all sponsors in innovative ways to create a unique championship day of racing. I was lucky to be involved in various aspects of professional minor league baseball when many of the promotions were developed that are used in minor league baseball today (bat day, cap day, helmet day, batting glove day, fireworks, mascots, etc.) Everyone laughed at Bill Veeck when he hired some people from the minor leagues to develop these ideas to use with his major league team. As it turned out, his ideas were adopted with success by all. The lesson here is that racing could examine what has been successful in other sports and try to adapt some of the best ideas to promote with ESPN and their sponsoring partners a championship day of racing. (A few ideas from the Barbaro experience: guest of honor from each country participating, each year choose vet school to be honored, get pony clubs around the world involved, contest {writing or art} in local schools with winner honored, tickets at gate for kids to take part in drawing to win jockey's goggles of winner of each race, honor one official from all state breeding organizations each year.) Just as there were in minor league baseball, there are some bright young minds that, given the opportunity, can make inroads with the general public and casual racing fans to promote the horses, jockeys, owners, trainers (tell their stories) who come together for the Breeders' Cup. In the future, there may be challenges to the Breeders' Cup Day from some other racing venues in the world. I feel we must expand the interest of fans now to ensure the Breeders' Cup Days of the future.

$3,300,000 yearling—Now a top-10 first-crop sire

AUTHENTICATE has wasted no time validating his status as a sire. With two winners in seven days in May, he is the #1 freshman sire in the Southwest.

MSW Winner at Churchill Downs

On May 19, trainer Dale Romans unleashed one to watch in two-year-old DR. NICK. Out of a mare by Affirmed, the colt came five wide to take a $48,000 maiden special, going 5 furlongs in :58.43. Bred in Kentucky by Aaron and Marie Jones, DR. NICK was a $120,000 Keeneland September yearling and $160,000 OBS March juvenile.

Covered the most mares in Texas the last three years:

2006 – 72 2005 – 102 2004 - 86

Corinthian Eyes Suburban:

Corinthian (Pulpit) exited his GI Metropolitan H. win Monday in fine shape and will now be aimed at the June 30 GI Suburban H. "Nothing is etched in stone, but I would think the Suburban would be his next start," trainer Jimmy Jerkens said. "He came out of [the Met Mile] good. Everything worked out, which hasn't always been the story with this horse." Things are going less smoothly for Corinthian's three-year-old half-brother Vitruvius (E Dubai), who is battling a severe skin rash that caused him to miss the GII Peter Pan S. "He's been on antibiotics and he's missed about 10 days of training now," Jerkens said. "We're trying to get it cleared up. We might send him to the farm."

Discreet Cat Back at Belmont:

Godolphin's speedy Discreet Cat (Forestry), off since a disappointing effort in the G1 Dubai World Cup in March, has returned to Belmont Park. "He came out of the Dubai race with a throat abscess," explained Rick Mettee, who oversees Godolphin's New York operation for trainer Saeed bin Suroor. "He arrived in New York about two weeks ago and right now he's just walking under tack. It'll be about two weeks before he hits the track." Discreet Cat won last year's GI Cigar Mile H.

Tiz Wonderful On Comeback Trail:

Stonestreet Stable's undefeated Tiz Wonderful (Tiznow), winner of last year's GIII Iroquois S. and GII Kentucky Jockey Club S., is nearing his first official workout since being knocked off the Derby trail with a tendon injury in January. "He's got several miles in him," said trainer Steve Asmussen. "He's had two nice two-minute licks. We expect his first recorded workout to come this Monday, June 4. We're expecting him to work a half-mile in :52, :54. He's coming around extremely nicely." Asmussen said he was eyeing the GII Jim Dandy S. at Saratoga July 29 as a comeback race for the son of Tiznow. "From a long ways out, that would be a possibility," he said. "But obviously, a lot can change between now and then."

SCORPIUS (c, 4, Five Star Day--Grand Betty {SP}, by Copelan), a debut winner at Gulfstream Feb. 9, had been off since running a dull 11th over the all-weather track at Keeneland Apr. 12. The 4-5 favorite pressed the pace through fractions of :21.71, :44.92 and :56.77, took charge turning for home and sailed home to win by 4 3/4 lengths. Art and Soul (Artax) was second. The $400,000 KEESEP yearling is a half brother to Positive Energy (Rubiano, SW & GSP, $138,617) and to Betty's Star (Pentelicus, GSP). Video, sponsored by Taylor Made. Nakaba, winner of a Santa Anita allowance in her first U.S. outing last October, was third over this course in a one-mile allowance contest May 4. Last in the early going, the bay mare forged to the lead at midstretch and gamely held off favored Dancing General for a narrow victory. Dancing General had an eventful trip, jumping into the fence at the three-quarters pole and falling back to last. She rallied four wide into the lane and nearly caught Nakaba while the winner was drifting out and carrying her wide.

SAFWA (IRE) (Green Desert) is a half to Maraahel (Ire), a six-time group winner who represents this team in today's G1 Coronation S. at Epsom. Sir Michael Stoute starts Sheikh Hamdan bin Rashid Al Maktoum's homebred out over a mile, which is shorter than her half-sibling has excelled over, but the sire's speed influence may have influenced that decision.

Sweepstake showed all the toughness she will need for Royal Ascot when being threaded through the eye of a needle to win this contest. Having beaten colts on debut at Salisbury a fortnight earlier, the bay would have been unlucky not to have done so again and gave the impression of being much the best at the winning line. Despite breaking well and racing prominently early, she was waited with as the heat was turned up and ran into trouble behind a wall of rivals. Taken back to the inner by Richard Hughes, she squeezed through a gap against the far rail to reward his daring with a decisive final burst. Connections will point the winner at either the June 20 G2 Queen Mary S. or June 22 G3 Albany S. at the Royal meeting.
