IT'S OFFICIAL

It looked simple on paper, and so it proved in reality. Saleh Al Homaizi and Imad Al Sagar's Authorized (Ire) (Montjeu {Ire}) produced a commanding performance to win yesterday's G1 Vodafone Derby at Epsom by five lengths to give jockey Frankie Dettori his first win in the Classic. All of the attention in the lead-up to the Blue Riband centered on the Italian's lack of a win rather than the colt's ability, which was unquestionable after his winning displays in the G1 Racing Post Trophy and G2 Dante S. Dettori need not have worried as the imposing bay landed a colossal gamble at 5-4 with his irresistible stretch run. "I've been in some pressure situations before, but not like this," Dettori said. "In the last 100 yards, I could hear the whole world shouting, and I had to pinch myself to make sure it wasn't a dream." Cont. p2

IRISH INVADE FRANCE

Aidan O'Brien's sophomores have proved right up to the mark so far in 2007 and the Ballydoyle wagon rolls into Chantilly today for the G1 Prix du Jockey-Club. Susan Magnier, Derrick Smith and Michael Tabor's Chinese Whisper (Ire) (Montjeu {Ire}) was runner-up to Herve Morin's Literato (Fr) (Kendor {Fr}) in the G3 Prix La Force at Longchamp Apr. 15 before filling third behind Claudio Marzocco and Enrico Ciampi's Lawman (Fr) (Invincible Spirit {Ire}) in the G3 Prix de Guiche here May 9. The Montjeu colt is backed up by Susan Magnier and Michael Tabor's Alexander of Hales (Danehill), who came on the scene late with a smooth win in Sunday's G3 Gallinule S. at The Curragh. Literato's trainer Jean-Claude Rouget is desperate for a first domestic Classic, and his chances are strengthened by Joseph Allen's Brooklyn Boy (Gone West). While that homebred hasn't tested stakes company, he was a respectable third behind subsequent group winner Chichi Creasy (Fr) and Lawman in a decent Longchamp conditions event last time Mar. 29. The Niarchos family has already enjoyed its share of Classic success this weekend and their Sagara (Sadler's Wells) bids to provide the operation with its fourth renewal after the exploits of Hernando (Fr), Dream Well (Fr) and Sulamani (Ire) if he can improve on his encouraging second in the May 14 G2 Prix Greffulhe at Saint-Cloud.

Raw Talent..

After a debut third in Newbury's Haynes, Hanson & Clark S. in September, Authorized justified trainer Peter Chapple-Hyam's faith with an easy, maiden-breaking success in the following month's G1 Racing Post Trophy. But, like most of his peers, he went into winter quarters in the shadow of Teofilo (Ire). With the news that Jim Bolger's force would be sidelined, a void was created and it was soon filled by the substantial frame of Authorized after a facile success in York's G2 Dante S. May 17. Settled towards the outer in the early stages here, he had more than half the field in front, but stayed free of any trouble towards the rail. Full of run traveling down the hill to Tattenham Corner, he was eased into contention at the top of the straight, and it was soon clear that Dettori only had to press the button to realise his dream. That happened at the quarter pole, where he demonstrated his lethal extra gear, and it was all over by the time Eagle Mountain emerged to lead the vain chase. "Peter said, 'Wherever you are, get him relaxed, and at the top of the hill I had them covered,'" Dettori commented. "He has a tremendous turn of foot and I gave him a couple of smacks for safety, but he didn't deserve them, really. Added Chapple-Hyam, saddling his second Derby winner, "I've always thought he was a very good horse from day one, and he's never let me down. This is better than the last time [in 1992], as that was a haze. I decided to enjoy it and not worry, but I did. He travels, he has a serious turn of foot--Frankie was a bit further back than he wanted to be--but he has so much class. I told him to ride it like he owned it."

Authorized stretches away to win impressively Getty Images

Also-Rans Also Please Connections...

Aidan O'Brien was delighted with Eagle Mountain, who was hampered before staying on into a clear second and faring best of his eight runners. "He ran a blinder and, if everything's well, he'll hopefully go for the G1 Irish Derby [at The Curragh July 1]." Richard Hills was not disappointed to be third on Aqaleem. He said, "I'm extremely pleased, as he's quite an old-fashioned horse who is a galloper and stayer and the winner has a real turn of foot. It can get rough on the rail, but I managed to ease him off and get a bit of air and breathing space, and he ran a cracking race."

Margins: 3HF, NK, 2HF. Odds: 24.90, 7.00, 12.20. Also Ran: Cowtown Cat, Forty Grams, Starbase, Officer Rocket (GB), Danny Sez.

Delightful Kiss employed the turf-to-dirt angle when he posted a 23-1 upset over subsequent GSW & GISP Sightseeing and SW & GISP Chelokee in a two-turn Gulfstream allowance Feb. 11 and followed that effort with a very respectable third-place finish behind Street Sense and Any Given Saturday in the GIII Tampa Bay Derby Mar. 17. Despite finishing fourth in the GII Arkansas Derby Apr. 14, he was still beaten over 11 lengths by Curlin and the gray was coming into this off a ninth-place effort in the grassy Crown Royal American Turf S. at Churchill Downs May 4. Forty Grams (Distorted Humor) was allowed to set a moderate pace as Delightful Kiss and Jeffrey Sanchez bided their time towards the back of the pack. The young rider hit the accelerator leaving the half-mile pole and his mount swept three wide on the turn and past all six rivals ahead of him. He led into the stretch and remained clear under intermittent urging for the victory. The form of the GIII Lone Star Derby was represented well by Moyer's Pond, runner-up that afternoon to the Belmont-bound Slew's Tizzy, who rallied here from midpack to pick up yet another nice check.

TDN ☆ Star of the Week ☆

Brought to you by  FASIG-TIPTON

DON LITTLE, JR.

Corinthian & Little Horsephotos

This week's accomplishment:

Little is the president of Centennial Farms, the operation begun by his father, that enjoyed a victory in the prestigious GI Met Mile with Corinthian (Pulpit) on Memorial Day.

Birthdate: Dec. 13, 1960

Birthplace: Boston, MA

Family: Wife: Holly, Sons: Donald 10, James 7

Current residence: Ipswich, MA

So what did you do to celebrate the big win? Had a Coke and flew our 1947 single engine Navion home.

How long have you been flying? I have had my license for four years. Both my grandfather and father were pilots in the military. Flying is great in good weather. A constantly moving panoramic picture. I still need to get instrument rated to feel comfortable in weather.

Corinthian obviously has a regal pedigree. What did you like about him physically as a yearling? He was a big, athletic colt with the "look of eagles."

Was there any talk of retiring him after he was injured as a three-year-old? That was easy--no. We felt he had not yet shown his true potential and to be an upper echelon stallion he would have to be victorious in Grade I company.

What's your earliest memory of you and your dad at the track? Going to the Aiken trials at the Aiken Training track.

Who is or was your favorite Centennial horse to be around? Rubiano by far. He had such a great personality. He used to throw hay from his hay net over his head all the time.

What's your ideal meal? A good steak on the grill with fresh vegetables from our garden.

Favorite music? Bruce Springsteen.

Last good book you've read? The Log Book, by Crocker Snow, my grandfather.

Favorite vacation spot? Muskeget Island off Nantucket. My grandfather bought it right after World War II. No electricity, no running water, and best of all, no telephone service!

CONGRATULATIONS! from Fasig-Tipton's Own Grade 1-Winning Star of the Week:

CORINTHIAN

Winner of the GI Metropolitan H. at Belmont May 28!
A Fasig-Tipton Saratoga Yearling of 2004.

Also Ran: Boboman, Jack's Wild, Saint Stephen, Wilko, Kip Deville, Hockey the General, Perfect Drift.

Scratched: Grand Point, Porfido (Chi).

Buzzards Bay appeared primed to launch his assault on the 2006 handicap division after storming to a 6 1/2-length triumph in the GII Oaklawn H., but the 2005 GI Santa Anita Derby went wrong following a fourth in the GI Stephen Foster H. in June and went missing for 11 months. Carefully brought along by Ron Ellis, the striking chestnut resurfaced in the May 5 GII Mervyn Leroy H. and ran with credit, rallying from behind to be third to the in-form Molengao (Brz). A bit erratic following the break, Buzzards Bay settled in third as A.P. Xcellent and Kip Deville (Kipling) engaged in hand-to-hand combat up front. Three wide into the stretch, he assumed command north of the eighth pole and dug in gamely as Sun Boat came calling late.

Also Ran: Elle Runaway, Be Envied, Virginia Plain, Murani, Fiery Dancer.

Strike Softly did not miss the exacta in four turf tries last term, posting victories in the Ontario Damsel S. in July and in the Carotene S. in October. Fourth in the off-the-turf River Memories S. Oct. 28, she bounced back to take the Jammed Lovely S. over the Polytrack Nov. 12. Rested thereafter, the homebred filly had one start to her credit in 2007, a four-length victory in the May 13 GIII Hendrie S. on the local synthetic surface. Well rated just off the pace by Todd Kabel, Strike Softly was checked a bit when in tight on the turn. Steered out three wide for the drive, she was roused to the front outside the eighth pole and stayed on dourly as May Night closed well to snatch second money from Essential Edge.

Fabulous Strike generally flies underneath the radar, doing the bulk of his training at Penn National and the lion's share of his racing in the Midlantic region. In recording his fourth straight win yesterday afternoon and just missing the track record set in this event last year by Kelly's Landing, the four-year-old is no longer a secret. Runner-up to Diabolical as the favorite in the Gallant Bob H. at Philly Park Oct. 7, he torched the competition in a pair of starts at Mountaineer Park, taking the Nov. 21 Sophomore Sprint Championship S. and the Dec. 26 Christmas S. by a combined 19 lengths. Shelved off that effort, the dark bay returned in the May 5 Panhandle H. in West Virginia and never took a deep breath, clocking a swift :57 flat and posting a 118 Beyer Speed Figure, one point lower than his career best in the Christmas S. With Ramon Dominguez a mere passenger in just his second try in graded-stakes company, Fabulous Strike's first quarter was a moderate :22.31, but he was even faster through the middle of the race, getting his next two panels in :22.24. With Dominguez looking left at the infield screen and behind for the competition, the gelding came home in :23.09 and looked to save something for the GII Smile Sprint H. on the Summit of Speed program at Calder July 7. "He actually feels like he's got gears," Dominguez said. "He runs very easy, but even when I just ask him a little bit, he goes like he's breaking out of the gate again. He's an awesome horse."

Calvin Borel and Carl Nafzger teamed to score on the first Saturday in May and the duo teamed up on the first weekend in June to take the Dogwood with Lady Joanne. But they had to overcome a good bit of trouble to do so. Awkwardly into stride from the one hole, the Bentley Smith homebred received a patented rail-skimming ride from Borel, but the waters failed to part this time around and the filly was stuck behind a wall of horses as High Again led them into the stretch. But the Cajun rider skillfully extricated his mount from that predicament passing midstretch, switching out four wide before finishing powerfully for the victory. Nafzger had hopes that Lady Joanne could give him a real threat for the Kentucky Oaks, but it just didn't pan out. "We got started later on this filly because we had to back off of her," he said. "Then we got started, and everything went good, and ever since it's went good it's been great. She wasn't doing good before; she was growing. She's a three year old and she's a big mare, and she's still growing. She was doing okay, but let's put it this way--you weren't going to outrun any Oaks filly with her. Now we can go up and try the Mother Goose and see what we can do there. She's ran great races, and she's tough, but she's still got to beat the hammers--and there are some hammers out there." With the win, Lady Joanne has won three straight and is three-for-four beneath the Twin Spires. Third to Change Up in last year's GIII Pocahontas S. going this trip Oct. 29, she turned the tables on that foe with a 1 1/4-length success in the Nov. 25 GII Golden Rod S. Given plenty of time ahead of her sophomore bow, the bay rode the rails to a 1 1/4-length allowance victory going six furlongs at this track May 1. Click for the brisnet.com chart. Ruthierienne came with a barnstorming run down the center of the track to arrive on even terms with Bit of Whimsy, who put away a game Classy Neel late before sharing the spoils. Ruthierienne won both of her 2006 outings, including the Cherokee Frolic S. over the Calder turf in December. She returned to be fourth in Keeneland's Appalachian S. Apr. 22, but made amends in her latest, taking the Sugar Plum Time S. over the Belmont green May 12. Bit of Whimsy had faced the starter just twice in her career, finishing an excellent runner-up on her Apr. 1 bow over the Gulfstream turf prior to breaking through with a 2 3/4-length success on the Aqueduct lawn Apr. 29. Bit of Whimsy raced in close attendance to tepid early fractions and held a tactical advantage over Ruthierienne, who was allowed to lope along in last for the opening half-mile. Classic Neel took a short lead in upper stretch and was headed by Bit of Whimsy, but Ruthierienne came with her flying finish to earn the split decision. "I thought I won it," stated Edgar Prado, rider of Bit of Whimsy. "I'll take a dead heat over a nose loss. We were galloping along nice and easy. That horse was really coming on the outside. Both fillies were very game and professional." Added Christophe Clement, trainer of Ruthierienne, "You've got to be nice to Barclay [Tagg, trainer of Bit of Whimsy]. I like to share. Not many three-year-old fillies have won three stakes by June 2," he said, comparing her to Clement's outstanding turf mare of recent years, Voodoo Dancer.

Third to McCann's Mojave (Memo {Chi}) in this track's Union Square S. Dec. 26, My Creed dipped into allowance company Jan. 20 and nearly got the job done, finishing second by a nose. He bounced back to take the Presidents' Day H. at Bay Meadows by three-parts of a length Feb. 19 and was last seen finishing a distant third to Hystericalady in a one-mile optional claimer in San Mateo Apr. 5. Let go at double-digit odds on the class hike, My Creed was taken in hand shortly after the start and had two beat early as Guiding Hand (Helmsman) showed the way. He took off on the far turn, picking off horses one by one, struck the front approaching the final furlong and pulled away late. Visa Parade, making his first American start, held sway for second, but things did not go well for favored McCann's Mojave. The blaze-faced bay stalked the pace outside and edged to the front at the quarter pole. But he gave way suddenly in upper stretch and was eased under the line. He was seen to be bleeding from the nostrils and was subsequently vanned off the track.

Blythe Knight got his new connections of to a flyer when winning the prestigious Lincoln H. at Redcar last March, but a lot of water had flowed under the bridge subsequently and he had even undergone a spell over hurdles this winter. That kept the chestnut on the move, and he followed a high-profile success over the obstacles at Aintree with a third on his return to the flat at Chester May 9. Building on that effort, he relished the softer surface when winning the Listed Hambleton S. at York eight days later and he stepped up again for a career best here. The seven-year-old was positioned in a stalking third throughout the early stages here, found a seam between rivals passing the quarter pole and led soon after. Strongly pressed by Blue Ksar on the outside, he dug in under a drive to deny that rival. "He travels well and the gap opened in time," jockey Graham Gibbons commented. "Usually, he half pulls up in front, but today he kept galloping and, once he got his head in front, he was never going to get passed. Jumping has made a man of him; he's a real good horse." Progressing from a first-up third at Deauville last August, Legerete stepped up from a maiden score at Longchamp the following month to finish third behind Finsceal Beo (Ire) in the Oct. 1 G1 Prix Marcel Bousac back at the Bois de Boulogne track. The bay filly returned with a fourth to Darjina (Fr) in the Apr. 15 Prix de la Grotte back at Longchamp, and exhibited a willing attitude in the long straight here to claim a career high after a thrilling battle. Legerete, rated in fourth until urged into second at the 400-meter pole, would not be denied under a forceful drive to deprive the game La Hernanda on the line. With this victory, she becomes the first pattern winner to be trained by Andre Fabre for the Wertheimer brothers, and will now point to the June 24 G2 Prix de Malleret at Saint-Cloud.

For the first time, the German Oaks will be staged at Dusseldorf, a notoriously tricky track with its unforgiving turns. Scoubidou sets the standard on proven form, having won last year's G3 Premio Dormello at the San Siro in October before returning to annex the Listed Jean Harzheim-Rennen at Cologne Apr. 9. She found only Scatina (Ger) too strong in the G2 Schwarzgold-Rennen back at that venue last time May 6, and holds Meridia and the Listed Festa-Rennen winner Naomia on her previous runnings. Jens Hirschberger, who has made an instant impact this term, saddles Miramare, a half-sister to Macleya (Ger) who created a striking impression on debut at Krefeld May 5. Dominante, another intriguing contender, is handed her shot at the big time after recording a wide-margin success in a Hannover maiden on Monday.

Likely favorite Daiwa Major makes his first start since finishing third in the G1 Dubai Duty Free in March. The six-year-old, who is at his best at a mile, won the 2004 Satsuki Sho (Japanese 2000 Guineas). He was victorious in last season's Tenno Sho Autumn and G1 Mile Championship before being named Japan's champion sprinter and champion miler of 2006. Hong Kong invader Joyful Winner, second in last year's Yasuda Kinen, won the Silver Jubilee Cup at Sha Tin and was a last-out runner-up in the G1 Champions Mile in April. Suzuka Phoenix earned a two-month break after winning the G1 Takamatsunomiya Kinen in March, but looks to add to that late-running 2 1/2-length victory in his return today.

Balance has won both of her 2007 outings. The bay filly easily took the Feb. 11 GII La Canada S. before a determined half-length victory in the Mar. 10 GI Santa Margarita H. last time out. The Milady will be Balance's first start over the cushion track, but trainer David Hofmans doesn't think that will bother his star filly. "I don't see her not getting a hold of it," Hofmans said. "She's trained on it since its inception [last September] and seems to handle it well." Hystericalady was a front-running 7 1/2-length winner over this track and trip in last year's GII Hollywood Breeders' Cup Oaks. The chestnut comes into this contest off a four-length triumph in the seven-furlong GI Humana Distaff H. at Churchill May 5. Nashoba's Key, unbeaten in three career starts, will try to transfer her turf success against state-bred foes to main-track graded stakes company.

Moss Vale, who returns to the scene of his impressive triumph 12 months ago, bids to defy a penalty racing just three days after finishing second in the G2 Temple S. at Sandown. That followed a fine second in the G3 Greenlands S. at The Curragh five days prior to the Temple and an off-the-board run in York's G2 Duke of York S. 10 days before that. If his constitution stands up to a fourth outing in three separate countries in less than three weeks, he is worthy of respect in a race which has gone to Britain for the last three years. His stable companion Peace Offering was denied by a short head when second in Newmarket's G3 Palace House S. May 6. He bested Beauty is Truth in the G3 Prix de Saint-Georges at Longchamp a week later and boosts the hand of Dandy Nicholls.

'Tizzy' Sharp in Final Pre-Belmont Move...

Joseph Lacombe's Slew's Tizzy (Tiznow) turned in his final workout prior to next Saturday's GI Belmont S., breezing a half-mile over the dirt training track at The Thoroughbred Center in Lexington. "I got him in :49 flat," commented trainer Greg Fox. "I worked him from the mile pole to the half-mile pole at the end of a two-mile gallop." The winner in succession of the GII Coolmore Lexington S. and the GIII Lone Star Derby, Slew's Tizzy will have jockey John Velazquez in the irons for the 12-furlong event. As far as the colt's training, Fox has left well enough alone. "We've pretty much done the same thing with him," he explained. "His work today, that's what we did before Texas."

Hard Spun in the House...

Fox Hill Farm's Hard Spun (Danzig), runner-up to Street Sense in the GI Kentucky Derby and third to Curlin (Smart Strike) in the May 19 GI Preakness S., arrived yesterday at Belmont Park following an uneventful van ride up Interstate 95 from Delaware Park. "He galloped about a mile and a half down here [Delaware]," said trainer Larry Jones, who was scheduled to arrive late last night. "I plan to breeze him on Monday, but I'm looking at the weather forecast and it looks a little unsettled. I'll make up my mind [Sunday] morning."

Hard Spun A Coglianese

All's Well With Curlin...

Curlin remains squarely on track for the Belmont and continued his preparations by galloping a mile and a half over the Churchill Downs main track yesterday morning. "Everything has gone perfectly since the Preakness," commented Steve Asmussen, who trains the chestnut on behalf of Stonestreet Stables, Padua Stables, George Bolton and Midnight Cry Stable. "He'll work Monday morning and ship to New York on Tuesday."

BREEDERS' CUP Q AND A

Last December, Breeders' Cup stallion and foal nominators voted to select 13 candidates to stand for election to the Breeders' Cup Limited Board of Members and Trustees.

Those candidates are joined by 12 existing trustees who have chosen to stand for re-election. Thirteen will ultimately be chosen. The voting opened on May 1 and will conclude June 18. While bios of the 25 candidates are contained in documents circulated to nominators, the TDN is responding to reader suggestions that we provide more information on the candidates' viewpoints. To that end, we posed the following question to each of the 25 candidates and have given them 300 words or fewer in which to respond. Their responses have been running in the TDN for the past few days and continue here.

Q: What do you think is the biggest issue facing the Breeders' Cup and, if voted to the Breeders' Cup board, how would you propose this issue be solved?

JOHN T. L. JONES III

A: With the advent of this year of the Breeders' Cup Challenge and the Win and Your In provision of the 24 challenge races held on five post Triple Crown Saturdays and the Hong Kong Mile Championship prior to the penultimate Breeders' Cup World Championships, the current board and management has effectively concentrated the marketing power and branding necessary to be competitive in a U.S. entertainment/sports environment rife with viewing and patronage options. This is a positive step in addressing the most profound challenge facing our board. How do we secure and advance our standing in the competition for the U.S. and world entertainment dollar? Cont. p13

It is my firm belief that creating new major event days on the U.S. Thoroughbred racing calendar which the general public can anticipate and which then participate, has to be our #1 goal. This can be accomplished many ways, but I think the primary focus should be, 1) optimal control of venue and the live produced product and, 2) proliferation and enhancement of domestic and international digitally delivered products emitted from event days. The best live events in an electronic world drive the most public interest and have the most value because they are not easily replicated but to optimize breadth of interest and revenue, only the wired world will suffice. I also think that this approach can be used to devise an even more international scheme for competition similar to what occurs in professional soccer today. We have the financial resources to accomplish these goals in a way which short term profit driven private enterprise cannot. This is the major challenge facing the Breeders' Cup board. The industry as all human endeavors uses an unnecessary amount of its resources focusing on "issues" instead of opportunities. I think the current Board of Trustees has gone a long way toward eliminating the negativity around the BC prior to its restructuring in 2005 and would welcome election as a Member with progressive attitude.

REYNOLDS BELL JR.

A: Simply put, I think the biggest challenge for the Breeders' Cup today is "the brand and the fan." As an industry we are still struggling with branding our product in a way that can attract and develop new and permanent fans. We have seen it done in other major league sports such as the NFL, NBA, PGA, MLB, NASCAR, USTA, NHL, etc. Some have been more successful than others and we should learn from them. The only "major league" sport that horse racing competed against 50 years ago was baseball. Times have changed and it's time to embrace change for our sport.

 Hundreds of stallions are represented!

The founders of the Breeders' Cup had a great vision in creating a "Thoroughbred Championship Day" where all of our equine stars could be showcased. In many ways it has been very successful. However, we have to do more. I think that process began 18 months ago at the Breeders' Cup. The restructuring of the larger member board which elects a 13 member working board has already created many efficiencies that are leading to decisions that will begin to address "the brand and the fan" issue. The Breeders' Cup Challenge and the expansion of 2 championship days are very exciting ideas. It is the logical step to create more awareness of our equine stars and stimulate the fan interest associated with those stars. I am also excited about the Breeders' Cup affiliation with ESPN. I believe this is a tremendous opportunity to reach a fan demographic that our sport desperately needs. However, we have to help ESPN understand our needs so we can use their experience to help shape our brand.

☆ NEWS TODAY ☆

BREEDING RIGHTS TO STREET SENSE SOLD
 The breeding rights to GI Kentucky Derby winner Street Sense (Street Cry {Ire}) have reportedly been sold to Sheikh Mohammed's Darley Stud, according to Daily Racing Form. Trainer Carl Nafzger told the publication that it was a "done deal" while the colt's owner and breeder James Tafel, reached at his home in Boynton Beach, Florida, also confirmed the story, while refusing to reveal any details. Darley President Jim Bell also refused any comment to DRF. An official announcement of the deal was to come at some point today. Street Sense is a member of the first crop of Street Cry, the G1 Dubai World Cup winner campaigned by Sheikh Mohammed's Godolphin. The ruler of Dubai also owns Bedazzle (Dixieland Band), the dam of Street Sense, which he acquired privately late last year from a partnership including Nafzger, Randy Bloch, Bob Manfuso and John Seiler. Most recently runner-up to Curlin in the May 19 GI Preakness S., Street Sense will pass on next weekend's GI Belmont S. He will continue to be trained by Nafzger and will aim for a summer/fall campaign to include the GII Jim Dandy S. or the GI Haskell Invitational H; the the GI Travers S. and then the GI Breeders' Cup Classic.

Dreaming of Anna capped an unbeaten juvenile campaign with a victory in the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies and was rewarded with an Eclipse Award, but things haven't gone quite so smoothly for the filly this term. Third in the Feb. 10 GIII Old Hat S. at Gulfstream in her 2006 debut, Dreaming of Anna returned to the turf for a runner-up effort in the Feb. 25 Gaily Gaily S., but tired to sixth last time out in the May 4 GI Kentucky Oaks. Back on the turf for this confidence booster, the chestnut filly pressed a moderate pace, took over turning for home, opened a clear lead in upper stretch and maintained her advantage over the late-closing Nice Inheritance.

Having notched an Ayr maiden from two juvenile starts, Hogmaneigh looked a horse on the way up last term, particularly with cut in the ground. He took a decent six-furlong handicap at Nottingham in May and finished third in the valuable Coral Sprint H. at Newmarket later that month. Back on target in a Sandown handicap over the minimum trip in August on his next outing, he suffered a troubled passage when third in the Portland H. at York in September. His form tailed off in his two final starts in top handicap company last term, but he suggested he was on the improve with an eye-catching third in a five-furlong handicap at York on his seasonal bow May 17. Settled in midfield as usual, the bay was nudged along at halfway before being pushed through a split before the eighth pole. He responded gamely to a drive when in the clear, took it up from Moorhouse Lad 75 yards out and ran on well to deny that rival's renewed challenge.

Zaham got off the mark in his second start when he wired a Lingfield maiden Mar. 9, and he doubled up in a Kempton handicap Apr. 7. He went too quick before fading to finish third in a competitive heat at Sandown 20 days later before successfully stepping up in distance for the valuable London Gold Cup H. at Newbury May 19. Rounding the field early to race in a close-up second here, the chestnut hit the front at the quarter pole before being headed by Fever 100 yards from home. That rival's roll down the Epsom camber and subsequent bump cost him crucial momentum and allowed Zaham to regain the lead for a gritty score. The winner's connections are looking at the Listed Hampton Court S. at Royal Ascot June 21 for his next outing.

Off the mark despite negative vibes in the market on debut at Newmarket May 19, Declaration of War took the next step up the ladder with a last-gasp win in this competitive contest. Chasing the furious early fractions, the bay stayed in the game and made up ground to collar Bespoke Boy in the final strides. "He's a useful horse and he'll improve again, because he's always been a bit slow on the uptake," trainer Peter Chapple-Hyam commented. "Now the owner has hired a suit, we should go to Royal Ascot."

NOSFERATU (IRE) (g, 4, In the Wings {GB}--Gothic Dream {Ire} {G1SP-Ire, GSP-GB & Ger, $195,847}, by Nashwan), a game winner of a Windsor handicap last time May 7, broke well from his wide draw to sit in the second rank. Pushed along turning for home, the 9-2 chance hit the front under a drive 1 1/2 furlongs out and held on bravely to record a 1 1/4-length verdict over Misty Dancer (GB) (Vettori {Ire}). Nosferatu is a half-brother to Pugin (Ire) (Darshaan {GB}), MSW & G1SP-Ire, GSP-UAE, $230,903; and Chartres (Ire) (Danehill), SW-Ire. Lifetime Record: 5-3-0-2, £35,785. SECRET TUNE (GB) (c, 3, Generous {Ire}--Sing for Fame, by Quest for Fame {GB}) was successful in a 10-furlong Newcastle maiden May 15. The bay colt pulled for his head in a close-up third through the modest early fractions. Asked for his effort at the top of the stretch, the 4-1 chance dug deep to hit the front 20 yards out and best the fast-finishing Gull Wing (Ire) (In the Wings {GB}) by a half-length. Lifetime Record: 3-2-1-0, £15,371. O-Khalid Abdullah; B-Juddmonte Farms; T-Pat Eddery.

RUFF DIAMOND (c, 2, Stormin Fever--Whalah, by Dixieland Band), a promising fourth in a five-furlong Ascot maiden on debut May 12, shared the early pacesetting duties here. Shaken up at the quarter pole, the $70,000 KEESEP yearling soon took over and was ridden out to defy greenness and score by 1 3/4 lengths from Archived (Ire) (Millkom {GB}) as the 7-2 second favorite. Lifetime Record: 2-1-0-0, £4,367. O-John Griffin & Owen Mullen; B-W B Harrigan; T-John Best.
