GETTING READY FOR ROYAL ASCOT

Royal Ascot gets underway tomorrow, with the fields for an explosive first day drawn yesterday. Much focus has been placed on the quartet of Australian sprinters heading for the G2 King's Stand S. at five furlongs. The Royal Ascot media guide emphasizes the meeting's place in the Global Sprint Challenge. It played a pivotal role in the Challenge 12 months ago when the eventual champion Takeover

Target (Aus) (Celtic Swing {GB}) collected the King's Stand en route. Ex-cabbie Joe Janiak's star veteran is back, with three high-class compatriots in tow. They are Miss Andretti (Aus) (Ihtiram {Ire}), Bentley Biscuit (Aus) (Peintre Celebre) and Magnus (Aus) (Flying Spur {Aus}). Janiak spoke of the importance of being back in familiar territory. "We know England a lot better now and are better prepared than last year," he said. "We've got the four best sprinters over and just between them it's going to be one hell of a race." Miss Andretti's trainer Lee Freedman echoed those sentiments. "These horses are all very competitive and there is not a lot between them," he commented. "Takeover Target is the benchmark, the world champion, so you've got to be respectful of him. Magnus is an up-and-comer and Bentley Biscuit has really improved out of sight. They are all strong finishers, so the [stiff] track won't be a drama."

For new Chief Executive Charles Barnett, the overseas presence confirms the new status of the oldest race meeting in the world. "I don't feel there is anything elitist about this place at all," he said. "Quite the reverse, it is a very open and embracing environment. The Royal meeting is all about a huge party, with racing there. The international runners have been an important part of our marketing strategy and [Head of PR] Nick Smith has been doing sterling work around the world. This year, with the four Australian sprinters and maybe a couple from the States, it is quite a triumph. It's very exciting and attracts more international flavor to the event." Royal Ascot cont.2

WINNING WITH FLARE

Indian Flare (Cherokee Run) showed her determination and versatility to hold off classy challenger Oprah Winney (Royal Academy) in the GII Vagrancy H. at Belmont Park Sunday. Installed the lukewarm 5-2 favorite in her first start in over two months, the five-year-old broke well and settled in a stalking third, tucked in along the rail behind early leaders Any Limit (Limit Out) and Mary Delaney (Hennessy). Oprah Winney found her stride turning into the stretch and made it to the front for a brief moment, but Indian Flare—who was pinned along the rail—proved unrelenting and battled back late to forge ahead and win by a half length. "At the sixteenth-pole, I thought I was going to get beat," explained Javier Castellano. "The other horse [Oprah Winney], I think, hung. My filly never took off, but she was very steady. She ran great because on that move, she gave me everything." According to trainer Bobby Frankel, who watched the race from his Southern California base, Indian Flare may make her next start in the GI Ballerina BC H. at Saratoga Aug. 26.

Back in the winner's circle in her turf debut in the restricted Flower Girl H. Mar. 3, Indian Flare found herself only a half length behind Rivers Prayer in her most recent start--also on the grass--in the GIII Las Cinegas H. Apr. 15.

Palace S. His conditioner Geoff Huffer captured this prize back in 1988 with Persian Heights (GB) and makes no secret of what this meeting means to him.

"Royal Ascot is a wonderful meeting and a great spectacle--it's magic for everybody, win or lose and I love the place," Huffer said. Aidan O'Brien is quoted odds-on to be the leading trainer at the five-day meeting, while Mick Kinane is expected to follow suit in the riders' category. Among the horses they will team up with tomorrow is Susan Magnier, Michael Tabor and Derrick Smith's four-year-old George Washington (Ire) (Danehill), who makes his comeback in the G1 Queen Anne S. Last year's impressive G1 2000 Guineas and G1 Queen Elizabeth II S. winner was renowned for his ego at three, but his conditioner feels he is a different proposition after a failed spell at stud. "He seems to be behaving himself well and we think he's matured," O'Brien commented. "We've been very happy with him."

Frankie Dettori's bandwagon rolled into Milan yesterday and the whirlwind rolled on as Sudan gained a narrow first success at the highest level. Running in the silks of his breeder Ecurie Wildenstein last term, he was runner-up on the first of three encounters with subsequent Arc hero Rail Link (GB) in the G3 Prix du Lys at Longchamp in June. Third behind the Juddmonte star in the G1 Grand Prix de Paris at Longchamp the following month, the chestnut trailed in last in Deauville's mud in the G2 Prix Guillaume d'Ornano in August before returning to Longchamp to again chase home Rail Link when third in the G2 Prix Niel in early September. Fourth in the G2 Prix Dollar later that month, he returned to that venue to begin his four-year-old campaign with a fifth in the May 8 G3 Prix d'Hedouville. Keen under restraint behind the tepid early pace here, he was full of run on the turn into the home stretch. Sudan led with two furlongs remaining and had first run on Hattan, who had run into traffic. That advantage proved decisive as Hattan ran out of real estate and Sudan got his nose on the wire first. Trainer Elie Lellouche revealed that Sudan will join Michael Jarvis in Newmarket before being shipped to the States later. Click for the racingpost.co.uk chart or the free brisnet.com catalogue-style pedigree.

Fashion Statement had to battle to earn her Classic laurels, but when stamina was called into play she stamped her authority on this prestigious contest. Having graduated in a maiden at Ayr in early October, the homebred ran third to Empire Day (UAE) in the Listed Zetland S. at Newmarket later that month. Returning in the May 9 Listed Cheshire Oaks, she was involved in a three-way battle with Light Shift and All My Loving (Ire) before coming out third best with the subsequent G1 Epsom Oaks first and third. Breaking well under Neil Callan this time, she raced wide off the steady early gallop before making her move passing the three-furlong marker. Fashion Statement worked her way to the front with 1 1/2 furlongs remaining and was driven out to assert from Moi Non Plus, denyign Frankie Dettori another major race success. Connections announced that Fashion Statement would be aimed at the Aug. 22 G1 Yorkshire Oaks at York.

Sent off a generous 6-1 shot, Desert Code--ridden to perfection by Richard Migliore--lulled rivals into submission behind leisurely early spilt of :24.69, :48.79, and 1:12.26. Still full of run and with 3 1/2 lengths to spare a sixteenth of a mile from home, the Kentucky-bred had plenty in reserve to fend off the late-running Albertus Maximus. Desert Code debuted for David Hofmans with an impressive 5 3/4-length score sprinting over the Cushion Track last December, but failed to translate that form when bumped up to stakes company for the San Miguel S. Jan. 7. Fourth behind E Z Warrior that day, the chestnut won his next two starts on the turf, including the GIII Baldwin S. at Santa Anita Mar. 10. A nose back in second in the one-mile LaPuente S. Soldier Hollow enjoys celebrity status in his native country and the globetrotter graced the home crowd with an ultimately cozy win here. Already a three-time Group 1 winner, with two renewals of the Premio Roma to his credit before last term, he excelled in 2006 with a fine third in the GI Arlington Million in August before besting Manduro (Ger) in Longchamp's G2 Prix Dollar the following month. Only fourth on his attempt to win a third Premio Roma at the Capannelle in November, he showed he retained his ability when fourth under a penalty in the Apr. 1 G2 Prix d'Harcourt at Longchamp and third in Rome's G1 Premio Presidente della Repubblica last time May 13. Sticking close to the moderate early fractions, the bay was caught temporarily flat-footed as the pace suddenly quickened at the top of the stretch. Finding top gear to grind down Banknote approaching the final eighth, the veteran was firmly in command at the close.

Nick's Nikita has put together a series of consistent efforts since being elevated into stakes races after a win in the valuable Autumn Fillies' H. at Leopardstown last September. Fourth in the Listed Alleged S. at The Curragh on her seasonal bow Apr. 15, she was fifth in the Listed Victor McCalmont Memorial S. at Gowran Park May 6 before recording a career best last time when third in the G3 Blue Wind S. at Naas May 16. Racing in mid-division early, she was asked for her effort at the top of the stretch and rolled to the front before the eighth pole. The filly was kept to her work late on and responded to every call to comfortably hold Athenian Way. Click for the racingpost.co.uk chart.

☆ CHURCHILL WRAP-UP ☆

Excuses, Plans Following Big Day at Churchill...

After the dust had settled following Saturday's Stephen Foster Day card at Churchill Downs, connections of a number of participants offered excuses on some of the contestants' unexpected performances, while looking ahead to what lay around the corner for others. Among them, Todd Pletcher—trainer of Magna Graduate and Master Command, second and sixth, respectively, in the Stephen Foster—indicated that both horses would likely be targeted toward the GI Whitney H. July 28. "[Master Command] pulled a shoe in the paddock and we had to fix that, and that's never a positive thing," said Pletcher of Master Command's first loss in four starts in 2007. "Then we had some traffic issues going into the first turn and got shuffled about. He just never really was able to find his groove." Also encountering a few difficulties in the nine-furlong event, Wanderin Boy (Seeking the Gold) exited the race with a few cuts, according to Heather Stark, assistant to Nick Zito. "He got cut up a little on his right hind, but it's just superficial," explained Stark. "He's okay this morning."

Delaware or Saratoga for Indian Vale?...

Indian Vale (A.P. Indy), winner of GII Fleur de Lis H., exited Saturday's race in good order and will make her next start in either the 10-furlong GII Delaware H. July 15 or the nine-furlong GI Go For Wand H. at Saratoga July 28. "I don't think a mile and a quarter is any problem," said trainer Todd Pletcher. "She obviously likes a mile and an eighth—she's six-for-six at that distance—but a mile and a quarter might even be better." A little worse for wear following her Fleur de Lis effort is Rolling Sea (Sefapiano), who finished fifth. "She entrapped her epiglottis," said Scott Blasi, assistant to Steve Asmussen. "You could see an ulcer on her soft palate. I'm not saying that she was going to win from where she was, but it definitely compromised her chances to finish in the money."

☆ SO. CALIFORNIA ☆

Gomez to Ride Bob and John in Gold Cup...

Garrett Gomez will ride Bob and John (Seeking the Gold) in the GI Hollywood Gold Cup June 30, according to agent Ron Anderson yesterday. Gomez, who was on the colt for a score in last spring's GI Wood Memorial, guided Bob and John to victory in his latest start in the May 28 GIII Lone Star Park H. Gomez seeks his first victory in the 10-furlong event following second-place finishes in all four previous starts; Budroyale (1999), Skimming (2001), Momentum (2002) and Borrego (2005). Two-time defending champion Lava Man (Slew City Slew) and GII Mervyn LeRoy H. winner Molengao (Brz) (Royal Academy) are expected to head the lineup. Not likely for the Gold Cup is Buzzards Bay (Marco Bay), winner of the GII Californian S. June 2. "He came out of the Californian a little stiff in his back, and I haven't worked him since," said Ron Ellis. "I don't want to push him right now. We'll point him to the GII San Diego H. at Del Mar [July 21]. That gives us a little more time and shortens him up a little bit." Also unlikely for the race is last year's GI Belmont S. winner Jazil (Seeking the Gold). According to Kiaran McLaughlin, connections prefer to keep the four-year-old on the dirt rather than run him over a synthetic surface.

Good Mood Invited to American Oaks...

Trainer Patrick Biancone received a call from Hollywood Park officials just minutes after a victory by Good Mood (Ire) (Daneshill Dancer {Ire}) in Saturday's GIII Regret S., inviting the filly to run in the GI American Oaks Invitational July 7. The filly, who finished third in Churchill's Edgewood S. on May 4, was steadied behind horses with three-sixteenths of a mile remaining, but recovered to skim the hedge and win going away. A final decision has yet to be made.

PHILLY PARK PULLS PETITION FOR CHANGE IN SLOTS PLAN

by Linda Dougherty

Two months after it petitioned the Pennsylvania Gaming Control Board to reclassify its grandstand as a permanent slots casino--a move that fueled speculation it was trying to renege on plans to build a $300-million, stand-alone casino on track property--Philadelphia Park Casino & Racetrack has asked that the petition be ignored. That means the grandstand, which houses slot machines on its first two floors, will remain a temporary structure for the one-armed bandits. Greenwood Racing, which owns Philly Park, has also asked state regulators to give it more time to complete construction of a new facility. The stand-alone casino originally was scheduled to be completed in 2008. On June 14, Greenwood issued a statement from Chief Executive Officer Bob Green, who said there were "certain misconceptions and, in some cases, misrepresentation about the classification issue and our future intentions." Green also said, "We are requesting a few extra months to further redefine the first phases of our proposed master plan for the whole of the Philadelphia Park property." Greenwood's attempt to reclassify the Bensalem Township grandstand as a permanent slots parlor and delay or abandon plans for the stand-alone casino and elevated parking garages was met with outrage by some elected officials, the public and horsemen. The Pennsylvania Thoroughbred Horsemen's Association had filed a letter of protest with the gaming control board seeking to force Greenwood to follow through on its initial expansion plans, which were the basis for the conditional Category 1 slots license it received from the state last year. The Pennsylvania THA said the current set-up for slots in the grandstand has led to a sharp decline in on-track pari-mutuel handle. Patrons currently can wager on live and simulcast races on the fifth floor, a small area on the first floor near the paddock, and at the outdoor picnic area. The gaming control board in early June granted a petition by the horsemen's group to intervene in the Philly Park slots plan and present evidence at a hearing. Regulators hadn't formally heard Greenwood's "change in status plan" before the company pulled the request June 14.

Minister's Bid showed plenty of promise as a three-year-old, including a second-place effort to Bernardini in the GII Jim Dandy S., and looked to build on that promise when he returned from a 10-month absence to capture a seven-furlong NW2X over this strip May 13. Taking another step forward here while adding a panel, the John Oxley colorbearer was well-situated in third in the early going, set his sights on Bully for You in the lane and, despite being drifted wide by that foe in the final furlong, asserted for the victory. The bay disappointed in her 2007 unveiling, finishing up the track in the Apr. 22 Appalachian S. at Keeneland, and was looking to get back on track here as 9-2 chance. After pressing the pace, the Iron County Farms homebred was roused to a clear lead in upper stretch and finished up strong to win by three. Katerbug (Pulpit) settled for place honors. Trainer Peter Chapple-Hyam yesterday confirmed Authorized (Ire) (Montjeu {Ire}) firmly on course for the July 7 G1 Eclipse S. at Sandown. Saleh Al Homaizi and Imad Al Sagar's impressive G1 Epsom Derby hero has enjoyed an easy spell following his exploits in the June 2 blue riband and is being prepared for a return to fast work ahead of the 10-furlong contest. "Authorized is very well," his conditioner commented. "We've given him a bit of time off since the Derby, but we will start his build-up towards the Eclipse next week. We are all looking forward to running him at Sandown."

Racing in midfield on the rail here, the chestnut was switched off the fence to find daylight 1 1/2 furlongs from home. The homebred was asked to stretch when in the clear and produced a scintillating turn of foot to hit the front 150 yards out, powering away from his field for a facile victory. "There aren't many sprinters with a turn of foot like he has," winning jockey Steve Drowne commented. "We've purposefully brought him along very steadily and he has a big future. He stacks right up there with the best of those I've ridden and he could go right to the top."
