MARCHING ON

Less than an hour after securing a one-two finish in the G2 Railway S., Aidan O'Brien emulated his feat of saddling the first three in the 1999 G1 Irish Derby as Soldier of Fortune (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) led home a Ballydoyle trifecta in the latest renewal. Supported at 5-1 as second favorite, Susan Magnier, Derrick Smith and Michael Tabor's G1 Epsom Derby fifth made light of the testing conditions to blow away his rivals under Seamus Heffernan. Michael Kinane's mount Alexander of Hales (Danehill) was nine lengths back in second, having edged out the 6-4 pick Eagle Mountain (GB) (Rock of Gibraltar {Ire}) and Kieren Fallon. For O'Brien, it was a case of all plaudits to the operation. "This is a credit to everybody and it's a privilege to be involved with the whole team," O'Brien said. "Soldier of Fortune just wasn't smiling on that day at Epsom, but he's been smiling every day since." Irish Derby cont. p2

A STROLL IN THE BEVERLY HILLS

Window shopping on Rodeo Drive would have been more taxing. Citronnade (Lemon Drop Kid) was in front when the gates opened and just cruised around the course to take yesterday's GII Beverly Hills H. at Hollywood Park by 2 1/2 lengths. "She just enjoys running," jockey David Flores said. "She was just galloping...she wasn't even trying. I was sitting chilly--when she feels them getting close, she just goes. After the wire, she felt a horse coming and she wanted to go again. It's been a while since I rode a horse like this one. Sitting on a horse like this is a privilege." Michael Baze, aboard runner-up Andrea (NZ) (Danasinga {Aus}), and Alex Solis, who rode third-place finisher Naughty Rafaela (Brz) (Royal Academy), also praised the winner. "Citronnade is a real tough horse," Baze said. "There was an easy pace and we slowed it down a little bit, but the winner had too much left." Added Solis, "That filly is just too good." It was the fifth straight stakes victory for the four-year-old, who is now five-for-six on the grass. Click for the brisnet.com chart or the free brisnet.com catalogue-style pedigree. Early Enlistment...

Soldier of Fortune took little time to turn into a top-flight performer at two. The colt didn't start his career until early October, but found only Passage of Time (GB) too strong in the G1 Criterium de Saint-Cloud the following month. Returning this year with an impressive success in the G2 Prix Noailles at Longchamp Apr. 8, the imposing bay doubled up when getting the better of Arabian Gulf (GB) under a four-pound penalty in the May 10 G3 Chester Vase. Left in the wake of Authorized (Ire) at Epsom, he showed an admirable attitude when boxing on in fifth that afternoon, but looked an entirely different proposition here as he emulated his sire with a wide-margin victory. Settled behind the early leaders against the fence, Soldier of Fortune was angled out on the final turn and traveled strongly onto the front end before the quarter pole. The winner produced a surge there that gave Seamus Heffernan the time to glance back at the widening gap to his struggling rivals, and he put his stick down for a final-furlong cruise. "He has improved from Epsom and won very easily," said Heffernan. "I was always cruising and he handled the ground because he has physical strength. I ride all the Derby horses at home, but to win on one means a lot."

Bright Future for Ballydoyle...

Ballydoyle have an embarrassment of riches this season, and it has not yet been decided where Soldier of Fortune will go next. "The G1 King George VI and Queen Elizabeth Diamond S. [at Ascot July 28] is a possibility, but we have Dylan Thomas (Ire) and Scorpion (Ire) for that, so we'll have to sit down and have a meeting during the week," said Aidan O'Brien, who was celebrating his fifth Irish Derby victory. "Soldier of Fortune is a very exciting horse and very special and I think he'll come on for this. This is really special for Seamus, who is getting better and better every year--he really deserved this." Jockey Kieren Fallon, looking to make make history as the first rider to win this Classic three years in a row, knew favored Eagle Mountain was up against it turning for home. "It was that bit too testing for him, as I feared it might be if they got more rain," Fallon told Racing Post. "He's only a small horse and he gave his all. But you have to be travelling into the straight to win a Derby here. He wasn't and I knew I was in trouble." Adlerflug handled the desperate conditions to record an emphatic success for powerhouse owner-breeder Gestut Schlenderhan and rookie trainer Jens Hirschberger. The chestnut was sixth in Mulheim's Listed Derby-Trial run on good ground May 1, but rebounded with an impressive five-length success in the mud in the May 28 Listed Grosser Preis des Hannover Airport. Relishing the rain-soaked turf here, he broke well from his wide draw before settling off the strong pace set by his barnmate Persian Storm (Ger) (Monsun {Ger}). Angled off the rail on the final turn, he swooped to the lead passing the quarter pole and drew away in authoritative style. Adlerflug is the 18th individual Deutches Derby winner for Gestut Schlenderhan as breeder and 17th as owner-breeder, and is also the long-awaited first Derby winner for Baroness Karin von Ullmann, who took over the stud from her mother in the late '80s. Hirschberger's private training establishment on the stud, unveiled this year, already boasts two Classic winners following the exploits of G2 Mehl-Mulhens-Rennen winner Aviso (Ger). Citronnade moved to trainer Bobby Frankel's barn after a romp against maidens at Woodbine last June and made it two in a row in an optional claimer at Belmont in July. Second in an off-the-turf allowance test at Saratoga in August, she made her grass bow in the Sept. 21 Graceful Darby S. going seven panels at Belmont and rallied to take it by a neck. The bay filly was also rated off the pace in the Oct. 14 GI Queen Elizabeth II Challenge Cup at Keeneland, but didn't take to the tactics that day and finished ninth. Her connections opted to change strategy for the Nov. 12 Audrey Skirball-Kenis S. at Hollywood, and Citronnade came from just off the leaders to win by 3/4 of a length. That race marked the last time she was anything but first at any call. The Stronach homebred led every step in the Jan. 7 GII San Gorgonio H., Mar. 25 GII Santa Ana H. and May 28 GI Gamely S. Allowed to set glacial fractions of :50.17 and 1:14.20 yesterday, she had plenty left for the final drive and powered home an easy winner. Citronnade will make her next start in the Aug. 11 GI Beverly D. S.

Aidan O'Brien's record in this contest beggars belief and he was in the spotlight again here as the maiden Lizard Island led home a one-two for a ninth edition for Ballydoyle since 1997. Beaten 1 1/4 lengths by Allicansayis Wow when ruining his chances with a sluggish start at Leopardstown on debut just 11 days previously, the bay showed the benefit of that experience by breaking best of all this time. Ploughing through the driving rain and deep ground, he had carved out a safe margin as South Dakota made hard work of closing the gap. "There is not much between the two, but my fellow handled the ground a bit better and that was in his favor," jockey Seamus Heffernan explained. "I wasn't keen to make it, just set an honest-run race so the best horse won, as that's our policy. He'd been working nicely at home and come to himself, but ran green at Leopardstown and had improved a bit since. He's sure to get further and although these Danehill Dancers handle soft ground better than most, they do go on good ground too and he is improving." Trainer Aidan O'Brien added, "South Dakota ran a solid race, but the ground didn't suit and Lizard Island handled it better. He was green and raw the first day, but he came home well there and he'll have to step up now." Add was purchased for $380,000 at the 1998 KEEJAN sale as part of the dispersal of Claiborne Farm and Nicole Perry Gorman. Her second foal, Multiply, is the dam of GI Met Mile winner Corinthian. The winner of the Gill Premier S. at Hastings in October and the Gill Woodbine Slots Cup going a mile and a sixteenth on this track last November, True Metropolitan ended the year with a third in the Dec. 10 Valedictory S. and was named Canada's champion older male. The dark bay gelding enjoyed a five-month vacation before returning to win the May 5 George Royal S. at Hastings Park. He was wheeled right back in the May 21 Gill Eclipse S., finishing third, then wired the field in a nine-panel allowance test June 8. Sent right to the front from his inside post here, True Metropolitan was joined by Mustanfar after an opening mile in 1:37.44, but refused to let that rival pass, earning a well-deserved victory. Spaghetti Mouse was 17-1 when he captured this race last year, but he was the crowd's choice yesterday. The bay gelding followed up with a restricted stakes score at Hastings Aug. 7 and added a straight third victory in open company Sept. 4. Second to True Metropolitan in the Winston Churchill H. Sept. 24 and the Gill Premier H. Oct. 15, he returned after an extended break to be third behind that rival in the May 5 George Royal S. The British Columbia-bred couldn't catch Forceful Intention when was odds-on in the May 27 Johnny Longden H. at a mile and a sixteenth, finishing second, but he proved best here. Content to settle in third as the Johnny Longden winner set a pressured pace, Spaghetti Mouse went after the lead on the final bend and was kept to the task late to prevail. Dry Martini put together a three-race winning streak at Calder last year, beating up on maidens in July and adding an easy allowance score in August, then returning after a break to pick up his third straight Oct. 1. The grey was off the board trying turf Oct. 28, but picked up checks in his next four starts, including a third in the Dec. 16 GIII Fred Hooper H. and a fourth in the Jan. 27 Sunshine Millions Classic. Facing softer in an optional claimer at Gulfstream Mar. 2, he romped to an 8 3/4-length victory, and made it two in a row in the May 28 GIII Memorial Day H. at Calder. The slight second choice after a trip away from the Sunshine State, Dry Martini had to weave his way through traffic after settling off the early pace, but found all the necessary openings and outfinished Silent Pleasure for a decisive tally. "We're just little people," said Carol Nyren, who co-owns the winner with her husband George. "We've been hard-working farmers all our lives. Watching this horse develop has been wonderful for us. My husband is a civil engineer and I'm...an interior decorator and I have a landscaping business." Defending champ Sky Conqueror had to be scratched from the June 9 GI Manhattan H. after tying up following training the day before the race, but he has posted a pair of solid works since. The five-year-old followed a 1 1/4-length score in this test last year with wins in the July 23 GII Northern Dancer S. and, after a break, a Woodbine allowance Oct. 8. The chestnut took the winter off after finishing third in the Oct. 22 GI Canadian International S., returning to be fifth in the Apr. 14 GII Maker's Mark S. at Keeneland. Sent off at 8-1 in the May 5 GI Woodford Reserve Turf Classic at Churchill, he came from out of the clouds to get up for a nose score, and is a deserving favorite here. Jambalaya was ninth in the 2006 Canadian International, but is a much-improved player this year. Beaten less than a length when third in the Feb. 3 GIII Canadian Turf H. at Gulfstream, the dark bay gelding beat Honey Ryder a neck when taking the Feb. 24 GI Gulfstream Park BC S. and made it two in a row in the Mar. 31 GII Pan American H. The five-year-old was freshened after that effort, but has been working sharply for his return. Four-for-six this season, Stay Close followed a Tampa allowance tally in March with a win in the Henry Clark S. at Pimlico Apr. 28. The bay lost all chance when he had to jump over a fallen rival in the May 19 GII Dixie S., finishing eighth, but came back to post a neck victory in a Delaware allowance June 2 and he gets 11 pounds from the favorites here.

TARGETS SET FOR ROYAL FILLIES Princess Zahra Aga Khan's Mandesha (Fr) (Desert Style {Ire}) and Darjina (Fr) (Zamindar) are being aimed at the G1 Nassau S. at Goodwood Aug. 4 and G1 Prix d'Astarte at Deauville July 29, respectively, the Racing Post revealed. Following her second to Mountain High (Ire) in last Sunday's G1 Grand Prix de Saint-Cloud, four-year-old Mandesha will step back to 10 furlongs for the Goodwood race, while G1 Poule d'Essai des Pouliches winner and G1 Coronation S. runner-up Darjina will stay at a mile for the event her stable companion won last year. "Darjina will now go for the Prix d'Astarte at Deauville, but we won't hesitate to withdraw her at the last minute if the ground turns out to be testing," trainer Alain de Royer-Dupre told the Post. "The plan now is to go for the Nassau S. at Goodwood with Mandesha. We are now pretty certain that the filly prefers a right-hand track. Mandesha also finds her true form during the second part of the season."

Ready's Image won by 3 1/4 lengths at first asking at Keeneland Apr. 20 before running third, beaten 7 1/2 lengths by Rated Feisty, in the May 3 GIII Kentucky Breeders' Cup S. The heavy favorite, wearing blinkers for the first time here, attended the pace through fractions of :21.81, :44.72 and :56.60, stormed clear turning for home and extended his advantage down the lane for an easy victory. "It's scary how much he reminds me of [1999 Tremont winner] More Than Ready," winning trainer Todd Pletcher said. "And that's why we bought him. I have to give my dad a lot of credit for both him and [yesterday's Astoria S. winner] Glacken's Gal because he picked them both out, broke them and had them ready for us." John Velazquez enjoyed yesterday's race. "He made it easy today," Velazquez said. "He broke good and that's all he needed today. The first two times, he was not breaking good. Today, with blinkers on, he broke good and it was all him." Pletcher said Ready's Image would start next in either the July 26 GII Sanford S. or the Aug. 15 GII Saratoga Special S. Glacken's Gal set the pace and drew off to a 3 1/2-length victory in a five-furlong maiden at Belmont May 31. Looking to go two-for-two in her career, the bay filly was ridden to the front, zipped through fractions of :21.94, :45.26 and :57.37 while pressed by longshot Pure and Simple (Trippi). As that rival tired to last, Glacken's Gal drew clear to the wire. "She broke well and kept going," said winning rider John Velazquez. "She really fought hard. She had someone next to her the whole time." Winning trainer Todd Pletcher admitted, "I wasn't sure about her at the top of the stretch. It looked like the favorite was loaded for bear, and once she found a place to go, I thought she'd be hard to beat." Favored Dubit was never far back in fourth. She rallied around the turn despite being in tight along the rail, but couldn't overtake the winner. Glacken's Gal will now be aimed at the July 25 GIII Schuylerville S. at Saratoga, according to Pletcher. Video, sponsored by Taylor Made.

Lear's Princess overcame a mistimed ride to land her debut by a nose going seven panels over Keeneland's Polytrack Apr. 26. She tried the turf next out in an allowance over this course and distance May 24 and came away with a 3 3/4-length score. Odds on to maintain her perfect record, the bay was unhurried early as she caboosed the field through the opening six furlongs. Garrett Gomez tipped her to the outside turning for home and Lear's Princess put in a strong late run to claim her first black-type score.

Sidelined after that effort, the gray filly returned to run third June 17. Making her turf bow, the 3-1 was allowed to settle well off the pace early. Bumped while rallying around the turn, the filly closed determinedly when straightened out in the lane and overtook favored Tuckahoe Road (Quiet American) late to win by a neck. Mountaineer Gets OK To Be Full-Scale Casino:

by Tom LaMarra, courtesy of www.bloodhorse.com

Voters in a local referendum June 30 approved the addition of table games at Mountaineer Race Track & Gaming Resort, giving management and horsemen hope the new offerings will boost business at the West Virginia facility and perhaps increase interest in the live racing product. With 100 percent of the precincts in Hancock County reporting, the vote was 5,022 in favor and 3,503 against. On June 9, voters in Ohio County approved table games for Wheeling Island Racetrack & Gaming Center, which is located about 45 minutes south of Mountaineer. Both tracks are on the Ohio River on the eastern Ohio border. A crowd gathered in the convention center at Mountaineer, which already has video lottery terminals, to track the results throughout the evening. Track officials were busy fielding phone calls from representatives compiling results at all 28 precincts in the county. A state law passed earlier this year allowed for local-option votes in the four counties with racetracks. Table games were defeated June 9 in Jefferson County, home of Charles Town Races & Slots; the final vote comes Aug. 9 in Kanawha County, where Tri-State Racetrack & Gaming Center, a Greyhound track, is located. "I think it's a big night for Hancock County and our employees," said Edson "Ted" Arneault, chief executive officer of Mountaineer owner MTR Gaming Group. "Now we have to get to work. People will find out this really is about jobs. People will see everything we said is going to be real."

A granddaughter of Hall of Famer Serena's Song (Rahy), Serena's Cat swept through her first three turf sprints for former trainer Bill Mott, but faltered to finish 11th in Woodbine's Alywow S. last June and went to the sidelines. The dark bay, now with Kiaran McLaughlin, took her time getting back on track this year, running seventh to Vacara in the Magna Distaff H. at Gulfstream Apr. 1 before fading to 12th in the 5 1/2-furlong Giant's Causeway S. over the Keeneland lawn Apr. 21. The third choice in this five-horse affair, she shadowed Pure Disco from the start, was shaken up by Eddie Castro in the lane and surged late to score by a nose.

Street Sounds ended her juvenile campaign with a win over the Laurel turf in the Nov. 25 Selima S. and began 2007 with a victory over the main track in the Apr. 12 Gil Beaumont S. at Keeneland. She added a 5 1/4-length win over the Pimlico lawn in the May 12 Hilltop S. before a third-place effort behind Sealy Hill at this track's Woodbine Oaks June 10 last time out. Heavily favored Sealy Hill drove to the lead in upper stretch, but lugged in and impeded Quiet Jungle. Street Sounds angled to the outside for the drive and finished well to be second, but could not catch Sealy Hill. Sealy Hill was disqualified for interference and placed third, giving Street Sounds the victory. "She rated better today," said winning trainer Michael Matz. "Ramon [Dominguez] had a bit of trouble with her the day of the Oaks, but today she did everything the right way." Dominguez admitted there was a learning curve for Woodbine's all-weather track. "Unfortunately, in the Oaks, she had a very bad ride," Dominguez said. "I'm still learning about this surface and the fractions, I realize, were way too fast. Today, I was a little more self-conscious about it. I took a hold of her and let her relax--more like a grass race. She finished up nicely. I was pleased with the way she ran." Matz said Street Sounds will switch surfaces for her next start. "The next time we will definitely try her on the turf, whether it's the [July 28] Wonder Where or a race up at Saratoga," the trainer added.

Curlin Set to Work Today:

GI Preakness winner Curlin (Smart Strike), runner-up in the June 9 GI Belmont S. last time out, is scheduled to return to the work tab at Churchill Downs today. "I could have worked him last week, but he gets so much out of his gallops that we decided to wait another week," said Scott Blasi, assistant to trainer Steve Asmussen. "He'll have one more work at Churchill Downs before he moves on to Saratoga." The three-year-old is scheduled to make his next start in the Aug. 5 GI Haskell Invitational S. at Monmouth Park.

Severe Weather KOs Lone Star Card:

The last six races at Lone Star Park yesterday had to be canceled after a severe thunderstorm passed through the area. The horses were in the paddock for the fourth race when the storm hit, dumping nearly an inch of rain on the track in 15 minutes. The field headed to the starting gate when the skies cleared, but the riders determined that the deluge had caused problems with the track. "We had so much rain in such a short period of time," said Lone Star President Drew Shubeck. "When our riders came back from the race-track...they felt there were areas of the surface that were washed out. The safety of our horses and our jockeys are a top priority."

Illinois Jockeys File Suit Over Fees:

Leading Arlington rider Earlie Fires and the Jockeys' Guild filed a class-action lawsuit Friday in Cook County, Illinois against the Illinois Thoroughbred Horsemen's Association, its president Frank Kirby, and all of the owners and trainers who have raced at Arlington in 2007 in an effort to raise losing mount fees for riders at the state's tracks, according to The Chicago Tribune. The lawsuit focuses on fees for jockeys who finished fourth or worse. The current scale in use has six purse categories, ranging from $45 in races with purses from $5,000 to $9,999 to $105 in races worth over $100,000. The fees have been raised once since 1985; in 2000, there was a $5 increase. The jockeys are asking that the fees be doubled in each of the six categories, and that the increase would be retroactive to May 1. The Jockeys Guild had reached a tentative agreement with the ITHA to increase the fees by a minimum of $30 earlier this month, but the ITHA Board did not approve the hike. Chicago attorney Thomas Allison, representing the jockeys, said that the defendants' actions "constitute a restraint of trade and unlawful conspiracy." When contacted by the Tribune Friday, Kirby said that he was unaware that a lawsuit had been filed. "We'll meet with our attorneys," he told the publication "Certainly, we hope there will be a compromise. That's for sure."
