LADIES GET THE CALL

Even with the defection of champion three-year-old filly Wait a While from tonight's GII CashCall Mile Invitational S. at Hollywood Park, the $1-million race looks to be a competitive affair with three Group 1/Grade I winners lining up, including Price Tag (GB) (Dansili {GB}), winner of last November's GI Matriarch S. over this course and trip. First across the wire in last May's G1 Poule d'Essai des Pouliches, the Juddmonte homebred was demoted to third for causing interference that day. A handy winner in a Santa Anita allowance Mar. 16, Price Tag was a game runner-up to her stablemate, the bay amazon Citronnade, in her latest start in the nine-furlong GI Gamely H. May 28, and she looms the one to beat here. Also toting Grade I credentials is Dancing Edie (Moscow Ballet), who wired a solid cast in the nine-furlong John C. Mabee H. at Del Mar last July before finishing a game second to Wait a While in the 10-panel GI Yellow Ribbon S. at Santa Anita in September. In her sole start this term, the five-year-old was passed in the final strides and had to settle for second behind Somethinaboutlaura in the restricted Redondo Beach S. June 9. Heading the Japanese contingent is Koiuta (Jpn) (Fuji Kiseki {Jpn}), winner of the G1 Victoria Mile at Tokyo Racecourse May 13, the same race which produced last year's winner Dance in the Mood (Jpn).

GEORGE GETS GREEN LIGHT

Aidan O'Brien yesterday declared a team of four for tomorrow's G1 Coral-Eclipse S. at Sandown including Susan Magnier, Michael Tabor and Derrick Smith's

George Washington (Ire)
Sportinglife.com

George Washington (Ire) (Danehill). Despite fears that last year's G1 2000 Guineas and G1 Queen Elizabeth II S. winner might sidestep the 10-furlong contest if the ground deteriorated further, the four-year-old was confirmed for the clash with Authorized (Ire). In a further twist, Sunday's G1 Irish Derby winning jockey Seamus Heffernan will take the ride, with Mick Kinane switching to Admiralofthefleet (Danehill). Heffernan is making confident noises about George Washington. "They are all really good horses, but the outstanding horse for me would be George Washington," he said. "If he gets it right on the day, he's unbeatable." As expected, O'Brien has scratched Dylan Thomas (Ire) (Danehill) and also ruled out G1 St James's Palace S. runner-up Duke of Marmalade (Ire) (Danehill), while Michael Jarvis withdrew Gary Tanaka's Pressing (Ire) (Soviet Star). The G1 Premio Presidente della Repubblica runner-up may tackle the July 29 G1 Bayerisches Zuchtrennen at Munich. "He was in the Eclipse, but we had a look and if one or two of the principals had dropped out, we may have let him take his chance," the trainer explained. "But the three front horses are there and we probably would have been racing for fourth money at best. He could go to Germany, but his best form has been on good ground so we want this monsoon weather to go away." John Gosden took out George Strawbridge's G1 Epsom Derby fourth and G2 King Edward VII S. runner-up Lucarno (Dynaformer), while Sheikh Hamdan bin Rashid Al Maktoum's Mashaahed (GB) (In the Wings {GB}) was the other withdrawal. Conditions at the Esher venue remain soft, heavy in places, with a drying forecast predicted in the run-up to tomorrow afternoon.

Pussycat Doll, winner of last year's GI La Brea at Santa Anita, closed out the 2006 season with a victory in the GI Humana Distaff H. at Churchill Downs last May. Kicking off her current campaign the same way, the bay came home an easy four-length winner in the seven-furlong GI Santa Monica H. Jan. 28 before finishing second behind Hysterical Lady in her latest start in this year's edition of the Humana Distaff May 5.

Somethinaboutlaura has proven ultra-consistent this season, hitting the board in five of six starts. An easy winner in the Foster City H. at Bay Meadows Feb. 24, the five-year-old was granted the victory via disqualification in the state-bred B. Thoughtful S. over this track and trip Apr. 29. In the winner's circle in her two most recent start on the turf, including the restricted one-mile Redondo Beach S. here June 9, the chestnut returns to the Cushion Track here.

TIZ WONDERFUL POINTING FOR JIM DANDY

Unbeaten Tiz Wonderful (Tiznow), off since annexing the Nov. 25 GII Kentucky Jockey Club S. at Churchill Downs over Any Given Saturday and Dominican, is aiming for a return in Saratoga's GII Jim Dandy S. July 29, according to Daily Racing Form. Tiz Wonderful has posted five workouts since suffering a minor tendon injury in January. He most recently recorded a six-furlong move in 1:18.80 at Churchill July 3.

HASKELL NEXT FOR CABLE BOY

Undefeated June 24 Coronado's Quest S. winner Cable Boy (Jump Start) will bypass the July 14 Long Branch Breeders' Cup S. at Monmouth Park and make his next start in the Aug. 5 GI Haskell Invitational H., according to Daily Racing Form. "It's early in his career and he's had three races over a 43-day span," trainer John Forbes told DRF. "He's had three super races. If we run in the Long Branch, it will be four races in 64 days, and to come back for the Haskell would be asking too much." Cable Boy races under the name of long-time Forbes assistant Pat McBurney.

SIGHTSEEING TO DANDY, 'SATURDAY' POSSIBLE

Sightseeing (Pulpit), a distant third to Any Given Saturday (Distorted Humor) in Wednesday's GII Dwyer S., exited the race in good shape and will now point toward the GII Jim Dandy S. at Saratoga July 29. "He just didn't run very good," said trainer Shug McGaughey of the GII Peter Pan S. winner. "He wasn't going to beat [Any Given Saturday] and I'm just disappointed he wasn't more competitive." According to Todd Pletcher, Any Given Saturday came out of the race in fine form and will make his next start in either the GI Haskell Invitational S. Aug. 5 at Monmouth Park or the Jim Dandy. "I think he's a Travers horse [Saratoga, Aug. 25]," said Pletcher. "We'll take a look at the two and see which one looks good."

☆ NEWS TODAY ☆

FINSCEAL HEADS FALMOUTH 17 Michael Ryan's dual Classic heroine Finsceal Beo (Ire) (Mr. Greeley) yesterday featured amongst the 17 declarations for Wednesday's G1 UAE Equestrian and Racing Federation Falmouth S. at Newmarket. Trainer Jim Bolger will be watching the weather ahead of the mile contest, as the G1 English and Irish 1000 Guineas heroine will require the ground to dry out on the July Course. That also applies to Pat Garvey's Newmarket Guineas runner-up Arch Swing (Arch) and Cheveley Park Stud's G2 Windsor Forest S. winner Nannina (GB) (Medicean {GB}), who could sidestep the race if the recent wet spell continues. Trainer Michael Jarvis is hoping for a livelier surface for Sheikh Hamdan bin Rashid Al Maktoum's Yaqeen (GB) (Green Desert), who found the soft ground against her when ninth in Royal Ascot's G1 Coronation S. on her last start. "She had the worst of the ground at Ascot and just didn't get competitive and run her race," he said yesterday. "I think there's a decent race in her on normal summer ground, as she has plenty of toe, but is just not able to accelerate on soft ground. I'd say she's 50-50 for the Falmouth, as the July Course is very soft at the moment." Other notables remaining are Team Valor's globetrotter Irridescence (SAf) (Caesour), Terry Neill's G1 Lockinge S. winner Red Evie (Ire) (Intikhab) and Pam Sly's Speciosa (Ire) (Danehill Dancer {Ire}).

BACK ON THE RAILS Connections of Khalid Abdullah's Rail Link (GB) (Dansili {GB}) yesterday announced that he is nearing a return to the races. Last year's G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe winner has fully recovered from surgery earlier in the year and has a range of targets before an attempt to win back-to-back renewals of the Oct. 7 Longchamp feature. "He had a chip at the front of his joint which was removed and it just took a while for him to come back," the owner-breeder's Racing Manager Teddy Grimthorpe explained. "With a horse like this, [trainer] Andre [Fabre] just wanted to give him time, but he is back now and he's pleased with him. He's just beginning to move on now really, so we are more hopeful and I think the Arc is his most logical target. Andre put him in the G1 Juddmonte International S. [at York Aug. 21], but I would think that if he's rolling in August, we will end up in the G2 Prix Foy [at Longchamp Sept. 16] and then go on to the Arc after that."

DETTORI TO MISS JULY FESTIVAL Frankie Dettori will be on the sidelines during Newmarket's July Festival next week after being handed a 14-day suspension by the Horseracing Regulatory Authority yesterday. Found guilty of excessive use of the whip on Ramonti (Ity) in the G1 Queen Anne S. at Royal Ascot last month, he will also miss the G1 Darley Irish Oaks, but will be able to return for the possible ride on Authorized (Ire) in the G1 King George VI and Queen Elizabeth Diamond S. at Ascot July 28.

TIME NEARS RETURN Khalid Abdullah's Passage of Time (GB) (Dansili {GB}) has fully recovered from the abscess on her epiglottis and is close to a comeback, connections revealed yesterday. Last year's G1 Criterium de Saint-Cloud winner was down the field as the 9-4 favorite for the June 1 G1 Epsom Oaks and the owner-breeder's Racing Manager Teddy Grimthorpe is hopeful she can leave that running behind. "She's progressing nicely," he said. "I talked to [trainer] Henry [Cecil] this morning and he's pleased with her. She came off the antibiotics and the abscess has cleared up. She traveled very well to the top of Tattenham Hill in the Oaks and then suddenly her head went up as they were coming round the bend and that was that. She scoped afterwards and the abscess had certainly got worse, so we don't think she gave her true running that day." Passage of Time will be aimed at either the Aug. 4 G1 Nassau S. at Goodwood, G1 Juddmonte International S. at York Aug. 21 or G1 Darley Yorkshire Oaks at that track the following day. "We have talked about the Nassau and the Yorkshire Oaks and she is in the Juddmonte International too," Grimthorpe added. "We are looking along those lines, as she is a Group 1 filly and we have to try and get her back up to that standard again."

Sports Town Euthanized:

Sovereign Stable's Sports Town (Belong to Me--Answer to Me, by Peteski), who was forced to miss the June 9 Gil Woody Stephens Breeders' Cup S. due to a severe staph infection, was euthanized at New Bolton Center in Pennsylvania last week after developing laminitis, according to Daily Racing Form. "He was the best horse I ever trained, probably the one with the most ability," trainer John Terranova told DRF. "I never saw a horse train like he trained. We were just starting to scratch the surface with him. Nobody saw how great he could have been." Sports Town, winner of Belmont's Ogygian S. in May, won three of six career starts and posted $104,007 in earnings.

MAMA THERESA (f, 4, Carson City--Nothing Special {SW & GSP, $266,589}, by Tejabo), a winner of three straight over the Big A inner earlier this season, finished fourth against allowance company at Belmont May 25, then crossed the wire a well-beaten fifth in the Wendy Walker S. against state bred last out June 2. Backed at 3-1 here, the $27,000 KEESEP yearling and $65,000 OBSAPR two-year-old pressed the early pace from second, took over after six furlongs and ran away to a 3 1/4-length decision. Lost Etiquette (Lost Soldier) finished second as the 9-5 favorite. Lifetime Record: 21-6-5-1, $202,947.

Belmont Carryover Tops $300K:

After the pick-six was not hit Wednesday and Thursday, there is a carryover of $303,367 entering Friday's card at Belmont Park. Going into the last race there was one live ticket to the favorite, Lhotse Quality, who could only manage to be second. Friday's pick-six sequence includes three turf sprints--all at seven furlongs--two dirt races at one mile and one at 1 1/16 miles. Post time for Belmont's Friday card is 3 p.m. Eastern. The pick six begins with race 4, which is scheduled to go off at 4:30.

Brass Hat Faces Perfect Drift in Sunday Allowance:

Grade I winners Brass Hat (Prized) and Perfect Drift (Dynaformer) have been entered to run in Sunday's sixth race at Churchill Downs, an 8 1/2-furlong optional claiming allowance event on the dirt. Brass Hat, winner of last year's GI Donn H., has been on the sidelines since sustaining a fractured sesamoid in his right fore shortly after a lackluster fifth in the GI Stephen Foster H. last June. "It should be a good race," said trainer Buff Bradley. "I'm excited to get to run him, basically. As I told my dad [owner Fred Bradley], we're hoping for a good effort and let him come out of it healthy and ready to go for the next one. I think he'll run big." The six-year-old faces another star from the past in Perfect Drift. Winner of the 2003 Stephen Foster H., the eight-year-old is winless in three starts this term, including a fourth in the GIII Alysheba S. over this track May 4 followed by a 10th-place finish in his latest start in the GII Californian at Hollywood June 2. "It looks like a tough spot, but he's doing well," said trainer Murray Johnson. "He's at home and happy on the track and everything should go right. We gave him a little bit of an easy time since California and he's come back good. He seems to be as eager and keen as ever."

Making his first start over a dirt course here, the 8-1 chance was kept at the back of the back while 7-2 Mister Fusaichi (Fusaichi Pegasus) showed the early way. With Calvin Borel aboard, Honor Guard rallied on the turn for home, challenged the pace-setter for the lead in deep stretch, but failed to overtake that one after getting bumped into. Following a stewards inquiry, Mister Fusaichi was disqualified and placed second for the infraction in the stretch. Honor Guard is a half to Gold History (Seeking the Gold), SW & GSP-Eng, $125,313. ### Shetron Wins Dogwood Dominion Award:

Trainer Phyllis Shetron was named the 2007 winner of the Dogwood Dominion Award, it was announced yesterday. In its 15th year, the award honors the 'unsung heroes' of racing. An advocate for backstretch workers and a founding member of the Finger Lakes Thoroughbred Adoption Program, Shetron will receive $5,000 and a bronze statue of Dominion at a luncheon at the Reading Rooms in Saratoga Springs, New York Aug. 1. "Phyllis Shetron is the perfect definition of an unsung hero," said Cot Campbell, president of Dogwood Stable. "Here is a lady who actually scrounged in dumpsters for mattresses for destitute grooms to sleep on at Finger Lakes Racetrack. Her kind heart certainly extends to horses, and she demonstrated that when she drove into Pennsylvania to rescue 14 horses that were headed for the slaughterhouse." Shetron was instrumental in rescuing more than a dozen horses consigned to a livestock auction in Pennsylvania. Shetron and a friend went to Pennsylvania, where they tracked down the Finger Lakes horses. One had already been lost to the slaughterhouse, but over the course of three weeks and several trips to the state, all the other horses were found and purchased. From that, the Finger Lakes Thoroughbred Adoption Program was born. Both the track and the local HBPA help fund the program. The Dogwood Dominion Award was inspired by the multiple stakes winner Dominion, who was campaigned by Dogwood in the 1970s and went on to become five-time champion sire in England. It was created upon his death in 1993.

Jockey Club Round Table Conference Schedule Set:

Medication, equine health, and the impact advance deposit wagering has on the economics of racing will share the spotlight when The Jockey Club hosts its 55th annual Round Table Conference on Matters Pertaining to Racing Aug. 19 at the Gideon Putnam Resort and Spa in Saratoga Springs. The conference will open with a report on the activities of The Jockey Club by James Gagliano, the organization's executive vice president and chief administrative officer. That will be followed by a segment focusing on advance deposit wagering and the economics of racing. Sharing the business philosophies of their respective organizations will be Robert Evans, president and chief executive officer of Churchill Downs Inc.; Joe Santanna, president and chairman of the board of the National Horsemen's Benevolent and Protective Association; and David Nathanson, senior vice president and general manager of TVG. Ed Bowen, president of the Grayson-Jockey Club Research Foundation, and Dr. Rick Arthur, the California Horse Racing Board's equine medical director, will then provide a report on recent activities emanating from the Welfare and Safety of the Racehorse Summit held last October. That segment will conclude with remarks from Roy Jackson, co-owner of Barbaro who will focus on the importance of equine research. Dr. Scot Waterman, executive director of the Racing Medication and Testing Consortium, will follow with an update on the progress of the RMTTC, and Nick Nicholson, president and CEO of Keeneland, will update attendees on the ongoing work at the Equine Drug Research Institute laboratory in Los Angeles.

SOLDIER HEADS LEGER LIST Susan Magnier, Derrick Smith & Michael Tabor's G1 Irish Derby hero Soldier of Fortune (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) yesterday headed the list of 40 entries for the G1 Ladbrokes St Leger. Sunday's impressive nine-length winner has a range of options open to him, but trainer Aidan O'Brien was refusing to rule out a trip to Doncaster for Sept. 15 Classic. "Soldier Of Fortune seems to be fine after the Irish Derby," he commented. "We thought there was a change in him from Epsom to the Curragh and were delighted with his performance on Sunday. He's a definite possible for the Ladbrokes St Leger. We consider the St Leger a very important and prestigious race." Among the other 14 engaged from Ballydoyle is the G3 Queen's Vase scorer Mahler (GB) (Galileo {Ire}); G1 Epsom Oaks third All My Loving (Ire) (Sadler's Wells); and Alexander of Hales (Daneshill) and Eagle Mountain (GB) (Rock of Gibraltar {Ire}), second and third respectively behind Soldier of Fortune in the Irish Derby. "We were delighted also with Mahler at Royal Ascot," he added. "We think the Leger would really suit him. All My Loving will run in the Irish Oaks and she looks a filly who is crying out to go further, so she is definitely another candidate. Eagle Mountain looks like a horse who would not have any problem stepping up in trip or dropping down in distance. I don't think it will worry him which way we go. He has just run and we are going to leave him a week or so before we decide, but you definitely could not rule him out of the Leger." Sheikh Hamdan bin Rashid Al Maktoum's G1 Epsom Derby third Aqaleem (GB) (Sinndar {Ire}) is the sole entry from the Marcus Tregoning stable, while Mark Johnston has entered Sheikh Mohammed bin Rashid Al Maktoum's G2 King Edward VII S. winner and Irish Derby fourth Boscobel (GB) (Halling). Godolphin has entered a quintet headed by last year's G1 Criterium de Saint-Cloud third Empire Day (UAE) (Lomitas {GB}), while Sir Michael Stoute will be seeking his first renewal with a sole entry in Khalid Abdullah's G3 Chester Vase runner-up Arabian Gulf (GB) (Sadler's Wells). The Niarchos Family's Sagara (Sadler's Wells), who was seventh in the G1 Prix du Jockey-Club (French Derby) at Chantilly last month, is the sole French entry and could represent the Jonathan Pease stable.

Returning off unplaced efforts in both the May 13 G1 Poule d'Essai des Poulains (French 2000 Guineas) and June 3 G1 Prix du Jockey Club (French Derby), he exhibited determination in this to secure a third stakes victory under a penalty. Newbury, 6.50, Mdn, £10,000, 2yo, 6f 8ydsT, 1:18.90, sf.

LEGAL EAGLE (IRE) (c, 2, Invincible Spirit {Ire}--Lupulina, by Saratoga Six) was third in a decent course-and-distance maiden on debut June 14, and showed early speed to take up the running. Extending his advantage passing the quarter pole, the €38,000 GOFNOV weanling and €300,000 GOFORB yearling required only hand riding to record a facile two-length success from Binfield (Ire) (Officer) as the 4-5 crowd's choice. Lifetime Record: 2-1-0-1, £7,343.

+ SHAKER (IRE) (f, 2, Key of Luck--Gravieres {Fr} {GISW-US, MSW & MGSP-Fr, $410,320}, by Saint Estephe {Fr}), a €155,000 GOFORB yearling, was tardy from the gate and remained in rear until making smooth progress from halfway. Accelerating to the fore with 1 1/2 furlongs to go, the 7-2 joint-favourite was ridden out thereafter to safely hold the late rush of Gone Fast (Gone West) by a half-length. The winner is a half-sister to Coliseum (Ire) (Sadler's Wells), G1SP-Ire, SP-Eng. Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, £3,562.

WEATHER WATCH FOR SILKWOOD

Connections of Sheikh Mohammed bin Rashid Al Maktoum's Silkwood (GB) (Singspiel {Ire}) yesterday announced that she remains on course for a tilt at the G1 Darley Irish Oaks, weather permitting. Trainer Michael Jarvis will be keeping an eye to the skies as the impressive G2 Ribblesdale S. winner prepares for the July 15 Curragh Classic. "We dearly wish to run her in the Irish Oaks, but the ground would certainly have to dry out," he said. "It's a week and a half away and if the weather changes and the ground dries up, I think Sheikh Mohammed would be quite pleased to supplement her. She was confirmed at the five-day entry for the Epsom Oaks, but it rained quite heavily and it was certainly on the soft side on Oaks day. It was a big call for us to withdraw her then, but we just felt she's not at her best when the ground is soft."

Bellewstown, 7.20, Mdn, €13,000, 3yo, 1mT, 1:46.36, sf.

HUM THE TUNE (GB) (c, 3, Beat Hollow {GB}--Waki Music {GSP-Eng, SP-US}, by Miswaki), fifth on his sophomore bow in a decent Gowran Park maiden last time Apr. 29, was hammered into 8-13 and grabbed the early advantage. Headed mid-race, the homebred regained the lead passing the three-furlong marker before drawing away to beat Duck Scary (Ire) (Tagula {Ire}) by four lengths. Lifetime Record: 3-1-1-0, €11,363.
 O-Khalid Abdullah; B-Juddmonte Farms Ltd; T-D Weld.

Leopardstown, 8.30, Mdn, €12,000, 3yo/up, 1 1/2mT, 2:42.22, yl/sf.

WESTLAKE (GB) (c, 3, Sadler's Wells--Rainbow Lake {GB}, by Rainbow Quest), a full brother to Powerscourt (GB), Co. Hwt 3yo-Ire at 14f+, G1SW-Ire & US, MG1SP-Eng, G1SP-Ger, $1,912,272, came out second best against subsequent Listed scorer Honolulu (Ire) over course and distance last time June 13 and was hammered down to 1-3 to make the most of this easier task. Breaking well from his outside post to dispute the early lead, the homebred took command before the quarter pole before veering right and then left across the path of Farmer Brown (Ire) (Bob Back) in the final 100 yards. After a stewards' enquiry, Westlake was allowed to keep the race, which he officially won by 1 1/2 lengths. Lifetime Record: 4-1-1-2, €14,730.
 O-Khalid Abdullah; B-Juddmonte Farms Ltd; T-Dermot Weld.
