TIAGO BEST IN THE WEST?

Taking advantage of an enterprising Mike Smith ride, the Jerry and Ann Moss homebred Tiago (Pleasant Tap) staked his claim as the top three-year-old on the West Coast with a convincing win in yesterday's GII Swaps Breeders' Cup S. at Hollywood Park.

Trained by John Shirreffs, Tiago was a lightly regarded 29-1 shot when he upset the GI Santa Anita Derby Apr. 7. He failed to threaten in the GI Kentucky Derby four weeks later, coming on to be a solid seventh nonetheless, and ran with credit when third to Rags to Riches and Curlin in the GI Belmont S. June 9. Backed as the even-money chalk in his return to the Golden State, Tiago settled in fifth before rallying wide three furlongs out. Smith, taking a chance that a seem would appear, angled the colt back to the inside in upper stretch and, once daylight finally emerged, the pair surged through to take it by 2 1/2 lengths. "Normally, I would have chosen the overland route, but a horse like this absolutely loves the fence," Smith explained. "He'll run through anything, so I wasn't worried." Racing in Britain and Ireland has been plagued by downpour after downpour over the past weeks and today's G1 Darley Irish Oaks will be staged on some of the heaviest ground witnessed for the Curragh Classic in recent times. Despite that prospect, connections of Europe's top middle-distance fillies have not been deterred from making up one of the race's strongest renewals. As usual, the G1 Epsom Oaks heroine is here and the Niarchos Family's Light Shift (Kingmambo) is putting her newly obtained crown on the line in what Dermot Weld has hailed the "one-and-a-half mile fillies' championship of Europe." In line for the title are Peeping Fawn (Danehill), All My Loving (Ire) (Sadler's Wells) and Four Sins (Ger) (Sinndar {Ire}), who were second, third and fourth, respectively, at Epsom June 1. The former has subsequently taken the G1 Pretty Polly S. here 15 days ago. Irish Oaks Preview cont. p6

DRAMA ON THE BOIS DE BOULOGNE

Khalid Abdullah's Zambezi Sun (GB) (Dansili {GB}) captured an eventful renewal of Longchamp's G1 Juddmonte Grand Prix de Paris, in which Eagle Mountain (GB) (Rock of Gibraltar {Ire}) almost came down in the early stages pitching Kieren Fallon to the turf. Connections of the homebred faced a nervous wait as the stewards examined his part in the incident, having raced alongside the Ballydoyle raider as he stumbled, but his five-length success was confirmed. Grand Prix de Paris cont. p2

Also Ran: Airmail Special (Ire), Ashkazar (Fr), Prinz (Ger). DNF: Eagle Mountain (GB) - unseated rider.

Scratched: My Quentin (Fr).

Bary has taken the softly-softly approach with Zambezi Sun, who made his debut in a 10-furlong contest at this venue in which he beat the allowance-ridden Airmail Special (Ire) (Peintre Celebre) by a head Apr. 5. Returning here to best Shamdinan (Fr) by two lengths in a conditions event Apr. 29, he was built up to the June 3 Chantilly Classic, but suffered a blow before the contest got underway when handed a wide stall. Despite an eye-catching effort to overcome that disadvantage, his late rally only earned him fourth spot, a place behind Shamdinan who he had previously brushed aside with ease.

Settled in fourth early by Stephane Pasquier as Axxos cut out the running here, he was always traveling like the winner after the mishap of his chief rival Eagle Mountain and swooped at the quarter pole before stretching clear in impressive fashion. "Zambezi Sun

showed great class tonight and I'm looking forward to the future with him," commented his rider. The sentiment was echoed by the trainer, who is planning a return for the Oct. 7 G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe, won last year by this race's hero Rail Link (GB). "He finished so well from a bad draw in the Jockey-Club and had improved a lot since," Bary explained. "He proved his class today and will have a break now before coming back for the [Sept. 16] G2 Prix Niel with the Arc in mind."

Fallon Recovering...

Kieren Fallon was recovering last night from what could have been a serious accident. Eagle Mountain, the G1 Epsom Derby runner-up, appeared to clip heels with a rival in front when alongside Zambezi Sun after the first half-mile, throwing Fallon to the ground. After being examined by the racecourse doctor, Fallon was stretchered to the ambulance in a neck brace and taken to hospital, but was believed to be none the worse for the fall. He is due to partner Peeping Fawn in today's G1 Darley Irish Oaks at The Curragh. Zambezi Sun's jockey, Stephane Pasquier, escaped blame for the incident and received no riding suspension. "These things happen in racing and I don't think I made any mistake," Pasquier commented. "It's just a question of millimetres between horses and I'm sorry for Kieren and relieved he is in good health."

$75,000 seems to be a lucky number for trainer Tim Ritchey and CJZ Racing Stable. That's what Ritchey, on behalf of CJZ, paid for eventual dual Classic winner Afleet Alex, and yesterday, another $75,000 buy, Moon Catcher, gave them a new graded winner. Unraced as a two-year-old, Moon Catcher began her career at Oaklawn this winter, breaking her maiden in February before adding allowance wins in March and April. After steadying early, she made a belated late run in her stakes debut, getting up to be fourth in the GII Black-Eyed Susan S. at Pimlico May 18. She achieved her initial black-type win in the Susan's Girl Breeders' Cup S. at this track June 16 and was returning to graded company here.

her win in the June 9 GI Acorn S. A rank Bear Now was allowed to go up and press Moon Catcher through three-quarters in 1:11, but began to fade as Winning Point mounted her rally. The latter was gaining with every stride late, but Moon Catcher dug in resolutely. "When I asked her, she kicked," said winning rider Carlos Marquez Jr. "She was just waiting for horses, because that is what she does in the morning. She just likes to loaf a little bit, but she showed her class today." Cotton Blossom came home a well-beaten third, and her jockey, John Velazquez, offered no excuses. "She just did not have it today," he said. "She ran okay, but she was not herself today."

Bussoni made every yard of the running here to strike for the German contingent on this special Bastille Day card. He had come here 12 months ago only to finish fifth in a strong renewal and was racing for the first time since when third behind Egerton (Ger) in the Apr. 1 G3 Grand Prix Aufgalopp at Cologne. Runner-up to subsequent G2 Grand Prix de Chantilly winner Saddex (GB) in the G2 Gerling-Preis back at that track three weeks later, he was back to his best last time when collecting his second consecutive edition of the G3 Betty Barclay-Rennen at Baden-Baden May 20. Controlling the fractions under Christophe Soumillon, he had first run on Champs Elysees and dug in as that rival narrowed the margin with every stride in the final drive. "He's a lovely horse who stays well," his jockey said. "At one stage I was cruising and thought I'd win easily, but then I thought I was beat in the closing stages and he showed a lot of heart." Also Ran: Echo of Light (GB), Dunelight (Ire), Banknote (GB), Racer (Fr), Charlie Cool (GB), Dark Islander (Ire).

Cesare's emergence into a top-class miler has come late in his career, but his performance in this competitive affair suggested he is still improving. Highly effective at this track, he followed a success in last year's Royal Hunt Cup with a first stakes success in the May 2 Listed Paradise S. That facile win tempted connections to supplement him for the G1 Queen Anne S. at Royal Ascot June 19 and, despite finishing fifth there, he was closing on the blanket finishers to finish 1 1/4 lengths adrift of the victorious Ramonti (Fr) after chasing a steady pace. Anchored in last by a confident Jamie Spencer, the bay needed luck as he was angled towards the rail at the top of the straight and got that when the long-time leader Echo of Light (GB) (Dubai Millennium {GB}) began to veer left. Bothered by Royal Oath at the furlong marker, he was switched around that rival and picked him up in a matter of strides to wrap up an ultimately cozy success. Connections are looking at the Aug. 25 G2 Celebration Mile at Goodwood for the winner. Click for the Racing Post chart or the free brisnet.com catalogue-style pedigree. Art Master helped contribute to a brilliant day for Juddmonte Farms, whose homebreds Zambezi Sun (GB) and First Defence won the GI Grand Prix de Paris and the Longbranch BC S., respectively. Hailing from one of the operation's best families, Art Master, half-sibling to graded winner Indian Flare and last year's GI Malibu S. hero Latent Heat, has raced sparingly through a career that includes a pair of 2005 French Group 3 victories. Moved to the States last term, Art Master was third in the GII Kelso BC H. at Belmont in September before being shelved after running seventh in the GIII River City H. at Churchill in November. Tried on the main track in a Belmont optional claiming in his seasonal debut May 24, Art Master ran a credible second to Harlington, but proved here that his home is likely on the turf. Confidently handled by jockey Garrett Gomez, the six-year-old saved ground, moved very wide for the stretch drive and was full of run late. "I wanted to be in behind the two speed horses," said Gomez. "I got shuffled back, but it didn't faze him. I was able to give him a breather and sit on him a bit. I cranked him up turning for home, and he went right on by. I just wanted to get him going off the turn and give him some confidence so he would go on." Click for the brisnet.com chart.

A Shift in Conditions...

The Niarchos Family's Racing Manager Alan Cooper is hopeful Light Shift can handle the likely deep conditions. "It is an unknown factor, but we know that Shiva, Limnos and Northern Trick enjoyed soft and heavy ground," he said. "It's very possible she could improve for it, as some of the ground in her homework has been on the soft side and she has handled it very well." Whether the rain will aid Peeping Fawn in reversing a half-length deficit with the Oaks winner is uncertain, but she coped with soft when accounting for Speciosa (Ire) and the G1 Prix de Diane (French Oaks) scorer West Wind (GB) in the G1 Pretty Polly S. over 10 furlongs here June 30. Her stable companions All My Loving, who was subsequently second in Royal Ascot's G2 Ribblesdale S. June 21 and Michael Ryan's Uimhir A Haon, sixth in the June 22 Listed Martin Molony S. at Limerick, will enjoy the testing ground which may see them close the gap on the main contenders. Alongside Four Sins, John Oxx also relies on Joe Higgins' Martin Molony runner-up Athenian Way and Timarwa in bidding for his third renewal. The latter was having only her third outing when fourth in the Pretty Polly and is bred to improve, being a daughter of the same connections' past luminary Timarida (Ire). Dermot Weld captured this contest in 1981 with Blue Wind (Ire) and Dance Design (Ire) in 1996 and puts forward the Moyglare Stud Farm's impressive Naas maiden winner Profound Beauty.

Take Three in Rich Delaware H.

Asi Siempre and Indian Vale renew their budding rivalry in today's lucrative $1-million GII Delaware H. The presence of the talented pair did little to scare off

Indian Vale A Coglianese

the competition, with a full field of a nine lining up for the mile-and-a-quarter event. It's been a bit of a stop-start career for Indian Vale, but the impeccably bred daughter of Grade I heroine Marley Vale seems to be over her ills. After making just one start in 2006, a well-beaten fifth in Belmont's GII Shuvee H., the five-year-old opened 2007 with an eye-catching 5 1/2-length romp in the GIII Next Move H. at Aqueduct Mar. 31. Perhaps the sloppy track was to blame when the chestnut failed as the favorite when fourth in the GII Louisville BC S. May 4--a race that saw Asi Siempre just miss the win with a narrow defeat to Fiery Pursuit. Indian Vale got the better of Asi Siempre next time, though, going near wire-to-wire in the GII Fleur de Lis H. at Churchill June 16. Asi Siempre, meanwhile, has joined the elite distaffers in the country since making the switch from the lawn last fall. Winner of the GI Spinster S. on Keeneland's Polytrack and disqualified from second to fourth in the GI Breeders' Cup Distaff, Asi Siempre made a successful return to the races with a smart victory in the GIII Doubledogdare S. at Keeneland Apr. 18 and tries to reach the winner's circle once again after settling for the place spot in her last two.

Can She Do It Her Way?

Looking to play the spoiler is Peak Maria's Way, a Delaware-loving gray who has won five of her seven starts over this surface. Trainer Michael Gorham has saddled his charge to three wins in her last four, including a two-length victory in the local Obeah H. going nine furlongs June 16. "The last race was impressive to me," said Gorham. "They really weren't getting too her late and she seemed strong at the finish. So I'm convinced that she'll be able to handle the mile and a quarter." Promenade Girl has made just one start at Delaware, but that was a winning effort that came way back in August of 2005. Last August, she won the biggest race of her career in the GII Molly Pitcher Breeders' Cup H. at Monmouth, and enters this off a well-beaten third in the GI Ogden Phipps H. at Belmont June 16.

Shakis has found a new lease on his racing life after being moved to the States earlier this year. The seven-year-old veteran, who was plying his trade in Dubai with mixed results prior to joining Kiaran McLaughlin's barn, earned a 105 BRIS fig when winning a nine-furlong turf optional claimer in his first U.S. effort May 25. Taking a steep jump in class into Belmont's June 9 GI Manhattan H., Shakis nearly walked away with the prize in a thrilling blanket finish that saw him finish third, just a head behind Better Talk Now and English Channel. A repeat of that effort makes him very tough here. Sunriver will attract attention off a visually impressive allowance tally over Belmont's lawn June 7, his first start on the grass. Ashado's younger brother, winner of last year's GII Peter Pan S., will get the services of jockey Garrett Gomez for the first time. Fishy Advice is a admirably consistent sort who has missed the board only once in his last 13 starts.

The appropriately named Sunset caps the Hollywood spring/summer meet, and Stormin Away hopes to live up to his moniker, too. The five-year-old gelding has captured three of his last four, including a driving victory in the 1 3/4-mile Round Table H. over this surface June 16. Second that day was Spring House, who just failed to last after setting slow fractions, with Runaway Dancer back in third. The latter, still competitive at age eight, is looking for his first win since taking a restricted stakes at Del Mar last August.

Prior to the Aidan O'Brien era, this race had already established its reputation as a launchpad for the careers of some of racing's most revered names in Nijinsky, Roberto, Storm Bird, Caerleon, Woodman and St Jovite. During O'Brien's spell at Ballydoyle, seven representatives have found the winner's spot, including Johannesburg, One Cool Cat and Oratorio (Ire). Kieren Fallon has chosen South Dakota, who was runner-up to Lizard Island on similar ground in the G2 Railway S. here last time July 1, over One Great Cat, third in a maiden at this track on debut June 30. He is out of a full sister to GI Kentucky Derby winner Fusaichi Pegasus. Jim Bolger was successful three times between 1990 and 1992 and it may be significant that he fields two newcomers in Chun Tosaigh, a colt from the immediate family of First Samurai and Suantrai, a half-sister to Asset (Ire).

BREEDERS' CUP BOARD DISCUSSES OUT OF COMPETITION EPO TESTING Courtesy bloodhorse.com

Members of the Breeders' Cup Members and Trustees and the Board of Directors discussed a proposal before the state of New Jersey, home to Monmouth Park, site of the 2007 Breeders' Cup World Championships, to conduct out of competition testing for erythropoietin (EPO). In addition, the board, during a July 13 meeting in Lexington, also discussed heightened backstretch procedures for the week of the event, and received a planning update for the two-day races scheduled for Oct. 26-27. The Members and Trustees elected six individuals to the Breeders' Cup Board of Directors. Each director will serve a two-year term. Elected were: Reynolds Bell Jr., Donald Disney, Tracy Farmer, B. Wayne Hughes, G. Watts Humphrey Jr., and Robert Manfuso. The board also received reports on 2007 television and marketing programs, including preparations for the inaugural Breeders' Cup Challenge series, which will debut in Saratoga July 28. The appointment of Pamela Newman as treasurer and chief financial officer of the corporation was also confirmed by the board.

SECRET MAY WAIT FOR HAYDOCK Bridget Swire's G1 July Cup hero Sakhee's Secret (GB) (Sakhee) looks likely to sidestep York's G1 Nunthorpe S. and remain at six furlongs for his next start, connections announced yesterday. Having defeated Dutch Art (GB) by a half-length in Friday's contest at Newmarket, trainer Hughie Morrison is in favor of missing a drop back to five furlongs for the Aug. 23 event to give the sophomore a break before the Sept. 8 G1 Haydock Sprint Cup. "The Nunthorpe is a possibility but, I suspect, only a minor possibility," he told the Racing Post. "I'm not gung ho about going to York, as it's a very fast five furlongs and the ground there can get very firm in the summer. We'll see how he is in the next few weeks, but Haydock may fit in better--going there gives us a bit longer and we also know how good he is over six furlongs. After Haydock, I'd imagine we'd end our season [in the Oct. 7 G1 Prix de l'Abbaye] at Longchamp, as I have no real desire to go to the Breeders' Cup."

Located in Western Kentucky (very mild winters) this is an equestrian lovers dream home and equine facility, with a beautiful view from every window. This country manor has approximately 6,000 square feet living space, a large foyer with an exposed winding staircase, four bedrooms, four and a half baths, three extraordinary fireplaces, two fully equipped kitchens, great-room with a marble window seat overlooking the green rolling hills (plus a historic high relief Grinling Gibbons mantel), large formal dining room and music room, living room with cherry raised panel wood, 24 foot vaulted tongue and groove ceiling in the den (150 year-old hand hewed beams with huge stone fireplace and bookcases), office with a large palladium window overlooking the Game Reserve, sun-room, wine cellar, large heated three car garage and an inviting back yard with a lazy "L" swimming pool.

The farm has an outdoor riding arena and round pen, it also has five barns. Barn (1) is heated and fully equipped with ten stalls and tack room, video-monitored foaling stalls, complete lab, breeding and palpation chutes, commercial laundry equipment, two baths, a fully furnished guest or manager's apartment on second level and lovely office with surrounding bookcase. Barn (2) is a halogen lighted indoor riding and exercise arena with nine additional stalls. Barn (3) is a five bay equipment barn. Barn (4) is a large hay and equipment barn. Barn (5) is a two bay multi-purpose barn. The farm location is just two minutes away from a 5,000 acre wooded wildlife game reserve, five minutes from shopping, ten minutes from a private airport, twenty-five minutes from Churchill's Ellis Park Thoroughbred Race Track, forty-five minutes away from a commercial airport. Call for an appointment to see the rolling green acres and surrounding white fence on this beautiful Kentucky farm. Training track available 20 minutes away.

Chief's Lake is now two-thirds of the way towards the Big Apple Triple after being awarded this victory by the stewards. The dark bay closed his freshman campaign on a three-race winning skein, capping that run with a four-length score in the one-mile Sleepy Hollow S. at Belmont Park Oct. 21. He returned from a six-month vacation to finish third in the May 9 Screenland S. downstate and was coming into this off a mild upset in the June 24 Mike Lee S. in Elmont. Trying two turns for the first time, Chief's Lake stalked the pace just outside Berry Bound and the duo had the race to settle between them turning for home. Berry Bound bore out and bumped several times with Chief's Lake, who lost the photo, but was justifiably handed the final decision.

Seven-year-old Silver Tree opened the season with a win in the Mar. 4 GIII Appleton H. at Gulfstream. Off the board against graded foes in his next two starts, he rebounded with an optional-claiming score at Belmont June 20. The millionaire drops back off that 10-panel affair. Ballast, winner of the Dec. 2 GIII Tropical Turf H. at Calder, went to the bench after a sixth in the Jan. 6 Ft. Lauderdale S. at Gulfstream. He returned to be second in an allowance test over course and distance June 2.

A maiden winner in Britain, Rosinka posted a Keeneland allowance score in her U.S. bow last October. The bay took some time off after that effort, returning to be fourth in a Gulfstream allowance Feb. 17. Runner-up going 12 furlongs on that course Mar. 1, she followed up with an off-the-turf Keeneland allowance tally Apr. 14 and, after a short break, made it two in a row in the Rooney Memorial S. with a front-running tally going nine panels on the Delaware turf June 2. Rosinka was sent right to the front again yesterday. She set glacial fractions of :52.39 and 1:17.41 and had enough left to hold off the determined late surge of favored Royal Highness.

Get Serious closed ground to be second. "I thought we would be second early, but my horse was so sharp," winning jockey Javier Castellano said. "When the gate opened, he got a good jump and when I opened my eyes he was on the lead. I didn't want to fight with him, so I just let him go." The winner of the Long Branch automatically earns a ticket to the Aug. 5 GI Haskell Invitational S., but it has not yet been decided if First Defence will give the $1 million event a try. "He is a good horse," Castellano said. "I really liked him at the beginning, and I always had a lot of confidence in him. But the Haskell is up to Bobby--he calls the shots."

Silent Pleasure reeled off four straight victories through March and April, taking the Fifth Season S. at Oaklawn Park Apr. 12 followed by the GIII Texas Mile S. at Lone Star Park Apr. 28. Runner-up in his latest start in the nine-furlong GII Cornhusker H. at Prairie Meadows June 30, the dark bay was favored to get the job done here. Settled in a stalking second early, the colt assumed command on the final turn and drew clear to secure the victory.

Shipped north after that effort, she made her U.S. bow in an allowance on the turf at Hollywood June 20 and, caught in traffic in deep stretch, had to settle for a close-up third. Even-money to get her picture taken this time, she went for the lead at the start, opened a little daylight through six panels in 1:09.51 and held on gamely to best Purrfectly Fitting (Iron Cat) by a head.
