AFTER-BURNERS

Favored After Market (Storm Cat) displayed a powerful late kick to blow by Out of Control (Brz) (Vettori {Ire}) at midstretch and surged clear to take the GI Eddie Read H. by 1 1/2 lengths at Del Mar yesterday. The four-year-old opened his career with four straight triumphs, including wins in the Gill Lexington S. and Gill National Museum and Hall of Fame S. for trainer Bill Mott, but seemed to lose his way with four straight off-the-board efforts. Shipped west to the barn of John Shirreffs, After Market was sixth in the Mar. 3 GI Frank Kilroe Mile and fifth in a Mar. 31 Santa Anita allowance before getting back on track with wins in the Apr. 28 Gill Inglewood H. and June 9 GI Charles Whittingham Memorial H. Looking to earn his second straight Grade I triumph, After Market shadowed pacesetter Rob Roy (Lear Fan) and Out of Control while under a snug hold. Jockey Alex Solis had to ask his charge for run turning for home as Out of Control skirted clear, but once straightened for home After Market inhaled the leader and pulled clear an easy winner. "The pace wasn't that fast, but I was sitting right behind in a good spot," explained Solis. "Michael [Baze on Out of Control] made a good move cutting the corner turning for home and got a good jump on us. But my horse is special. Very special. He'll do what you ask of him. I knew we were going to run him down. You can have that kind of confidence when you sit on a horse like this." Shirreffs added, "He just has a big kick and Alex can ask for it when he needs it. He's just a big, lazy colt and when you ask him to run, he takes off." Click for the brisnet.com chart or the free brisnet.com catalogue-style pedigree. RAGS TO RICHES PULLED UP FROM WORK

GI Belmont S. winner Rags to Riches (A.P. Indy) was pulled up shortly after starting a scheduled five-furlong work at Belmont Park yesterday when exercise rider

Horsephotos the veterinarian check her over [today]

BARY COMPLETES PAPIN HAT-TRICK

Trainer Pascal Bary garnered a first win in the G2 Prix Robert Papin with Much Faster (Ire) in 2003 and doubled-up when saddling Divine Proportions to success a year later. The Chantilly-based conditioner continued his fine record in the prestigious juvenile contest and completed the hat-trick at Maisons-Laffitte yesterday when leading French juvenile Natagora (Fr) (Divine Light {Jpn}) accounted for Magritte (Ity) (Modigliani) by 3/4-lengths as fillies dominated for a sixth straight year. Natagora, who took her record to four-for-five, will now point for the G1 Prix Morny at Deauville Aug. 19.

Natagora has benefitted from a gentle education, stepping up from a second-place finish at Saint-Cloud May 1 to bag a maiden score at Chantilly 18 days later. Emerging victorious from a stakes debut in the June 14 Prix La Fleche at Longchamp next time, she took out the G3 Prix du Bois at this track July 1 and posted a career high by wiring an international field in this. Out swiftly to bag the rail and the lead, Natagora was under pressure as the field thundered towards the final furlong and, despite the ominous attention of Magritte, she maintained control in the latter stages for another competent win. "She was very professional and resisted till the end," Bary told PA Sport. "She will now go for the Prix Morny at Deauville. I am loathe to compare her with Divine Proportions as the two fillies are of a different generation." Click for the Racing Post chart or the free brisnet.com catalogue-style pedigree.

Schiaparelli may have been a victim of the altered program last year when asked to tackle his elders in this race at the end of June, but he acquitted himself with credit to be second before taking the G1 Deutsches Derby four weeks later. Back amongst his own peers in the Hamburg Classic, he recorded a 3/4-length success before returning in September to be a disappointing sixth in the G1 Grosser Preis von Baden. Signing off with success in the G3 Deutsches St Leger the following month, he was eighth in the Apr. 22 G2 Gerling-Preis at Cologne before improving on that effort to be third in the G2 Grosser Mercedes-Benz-Preis May 20. Back on the scoresheet in the G2 Hansa-Preis last time June 24, he faced the new Classic generation this time and drew on all his battle experience to prevail over Conillon after a thrilling duel. Tracking that rival until taking over with just under a mile to race, the chestnut needed all of Andrasch Starke's strength to stay in front in the final quarter, but had done enough as Conillon drove into his advantage with every stride late on. Sky Conqueror, winner of this race last year, nosed out Brilliant to take the May 5 GI Woodford Reserve Turf Classic, but he was on the other side of that nose margin when runner-up in the July 2 GII King Edward Breeders' Cup S. last time out. Settled near the back of the pack early, the chestnut swept to the outside at the top of the lane and hurdled to the lead at midstretch before drawing clear to the wire. "I was a very lucky passenger all the way around," admitted winning jockey Edgar Prado. "He broke running out of the gate and I saw a couple of horses go on early, so I just let him do his own thing. He was very happy at the back of the pack. But every time I asked him for something, he responded right away. That gave me a great feeling. I kind of showed him the stick at the top of the stretch and he just took off. I would love to stay on him as long as I can." Trainer Darwin Banach was not ready to commit to a next race for Sky Conqueror, mentioning the GI Arlington Million or GI Sword Dancer, both Aug. 11, or the Aug. 26 GII Nijinsky S. at Woodbine as possible targets. "We're not going to put our cards on the table until it's time, though," Banach said. Click for the brisnet.com chart or the free brisnet.com catalogue-style pedigree. Margins: NO, NK, 1 1/4. Odds: 2.20, 13.55, 9.00. Also Ran: Scarlet Butterfly, Essential Edge, Arravale.

Masseuse looked to be on the fast track to success in the summer of 2005, winning back-to-back outings at Belmont before missing by just a neck to My Typhoon (Ire) in the Virginia Oaks. Off for nearly a year after that effort, she made only two starts last season and was vanned off the track after the Aug. 6 GIII Matchmaker at Monmouth. She returned from a seven-month layoff to be third in the Mar. 17 GIII Hillsborough H. before winning the Apr. 28 GIII Beaugay H. and was coming off a runner-up effort in the June 23 GII New York H. Masseuse moved to lead in upper stretch, appeared beaten when joined late by May Night and Elle Runaway, but battled back to win a three-way battle to the wire. The win impressed trainer James Toner. "[Especially] if you'd seen what she looked like last year, as compared to what she looks like now," Toner said. "To have her come back at the same level shows you what kind of horse she is. She fights and lays it on the line for you." Click for brisnet.com chart or brisnet.com catalogue-style pedigree. Video, sponsored by Taylor Made.

Having hit the board in last term's G1 Poule d'Essai des Poulains, Stormy River did so again in the G1 St James's Palace S. at Royal Ascot before recording a landmark success in July's G1 Prix Jean Prat at Chantilly. Minor prizes were picked up in three subsequent sophomore starts when he finished fourth in the G1 Prix Jacques le Marois at Deauville, second in the G1 Prix du Moulin at Longchamp and fourth in the G1 Prix de la Foret back in the shadow of the Bois de Boulogne. The grey finished off the radar in the Mar. 31 G1 Dubai Duty Free on seasonal return at Nad Al Sheba and was a stubborn third in the May 20 G1 Prix d'Ispahan last time. With sheepskin cheekpieces applied in an attempt to maintain concentration in a hot renewal of this step down, he displayed his old enthusiasm to claim a decisive victory. Settled in rear after a tardy exit, Stormy River made smooth progress on the outside approaching the closing panel and dominated his rivals inside the final 150 meters to get back on track. Click for the Racing Post chart.

Shuffling Maddnes kicked off the year with a well-beaten fourth-place finish in the Gill Aqueduct H. Jan. 20, then posted his first career stakes victory against state-breds in the Champagneforashley S. Feb. 16. Freshened following that effort, he resurfaced at Belmont with a distant fifth behind Memphis Mon in a $50,000 optional claimer July 6. Not given much respect by the Belmont faithful here on getaway day, he trailed the field through six furlongs in 1:10.13 and came rallying down the center of the track to reel in the heavy favorite. "I've got to give the owners credit, I didn't want to run because I thought it was too tough," conceded winning trainer Del Carroll. "Cornelio [Velasquez] rode the horse with a lot of confidence. Once I saw him get outside, I realized he had a lot of horse. He ran a big race." According to Carroll, the four-year-old will make his next start during the Saratoga meet, which begins Wednesday.

Pictavia, Group 1 placed at two, finished second in the G2 Blandford S. and third in the G1 Vodafone Oaks the following season. Last year, the chestnut took the Listed EBF Hoppings S. and Listed Upavon S. before adding the 10-furlong G3 Select S. at Goodwood in September. Off the board when fifth in her European finale in the G1 Premio Lydia Tesio, the Irish-bred placed third behind Vacare and Aunt Henny in her U.S. debut in the 1 1/16-mile Magna Distaff S. at Gulfstream Apr. 1. Back at arguably her best distance in the 1 1/4-mile Destiny Dance S. over this course May 3, the five-year-old stayed on to be third, beaten two lengths. Well backed for this return, Pictavia settled in a comfortable fourth through an opening half mile in :50.11 and three quarters in 1:14.93, advanced three wide on the second turn, gained the advantage over a furlong from home and drew clear under a drive. El Sultry Sun, sent off at 5-1, was content to stalk the early pace, made his move while racing three wide turning into the stretch and drew clear late to score by a comfortable 4 1/4-length margin over Nor'easterner (Fusaichi Pegasus). The winner is a half to Solar Splendor (Majestic Light), MGISW, $1,386,468; Sultry Song (Cox's Ridge), MGISW, $1,616,276; and Strategic Mission (Mr. Prospector), GSW, $414,320. DOUBLE MARKS FALLON RETURN

Kieren Fallon was back in the saddle with a vengeance when recording a double at Fairyhouse yesterday, eight days after his fall in Paris. Having suffered bruising and stiffness after tumbling from Eagle Mountain (GB) in the G1 Grand Prix de Paris at Longchamp last Saturday, Coolmore's retained rider steered One Great Cat to success in the Irish Stallion Farms EBF Maiden and followed up with Trinity College in the Rackenstown Race.

Fourth in the G1 Dewurst S. in his second career start in October, Haatef attracted support for the G1 2000 Guineas, but was no match for Cockney Rebel (Ire) and company and finished 10th. A comfortable winner of a seven-furlongs Naas conditions event June 27, the homebred followed up here for a first stakes success. Reserved off the fast early pace, the bay traveled strongly on the outer, quickened to lead with 1 1/2 furlongs remaining and held Moone Cross safe in the closing stages. Connections are looking at either the July 31 G2 Lennox S. or Aug. 1 G1 Sussex S. at Glorious Goodwood for Haatef.
