SOLDIER TO MISS KING GEORGE

Saturday's G1 King George VI and Queen Elizabeth S. could be without three-year-old representation for the second year in succession after Aidan O'Brien withdrew Soldier of Fortune (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) from the Ascot feature. Susan Magnier, Derrick Smith and Michael Tabor's G1 Irish Derby hero joined the G1 Epsom Derby winner Authorized (Ire) in being taken out of the mile-and-a-half contest, which attracted only eight at yesterday's five-day stage.

Soldier of Fortune RTEsport

Only Yellowstone (Ire) (Rock of Gibraltar {Ire}) remains as a sophomore presence. But he is one of three Ballydoyle contenders, alongside last year's G1 Irish Derby and this year's G1 Prix Ganay winner Dylan Thomas (Ire) (Danehill) and recent G1 Coronation Cup scorer Scorpion (Ire) (Montjeu {Ire}). "It's looking like we will run the two older horses, Dylan Thomas and Scorpion," Aidan O'Brien told the Racing Post. "We know Dylan Thomas doesn't like it soft, but the plan is that both horses will run unless we get very testing ground. We're going to wait with Soldier of Fortune. He's on a short break. We're looking at possible targets later in the season, including the G1 St Leger [at Doncaster Sept. 15] and G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe [at Longchamp Oct. 7]." Completing the list for Saturday are Sheikh Hamdan bin Rashid Al Maktoum's dual G2 Hardwicke S. winner Maraahel (Ire) (Alzao), Godolphin's 2006 G1 Prix d'Ispahan and G1 Gran Premio del Jockey Club scorer Laverock (Ire) (Octagonal {NZ}), Jaber Adullah's Youmzain (Ire) (Sinndar {Ire}), successful in last year's G1 Preis von Europa, Terry Cooper's veteran stayer Sergeant Cecil (GB) (King's Signet), hero of last year's G1 Prix du Cadran and Stall Reni's 2006 G1 Grosser Preis von Baden scorer Prince Flori (Ger) (Lando {Ger}).

RAGS TO RICHES REPORTEDLY SOUND

Rags To Riches (A.P. Indy), winner of the G1 Belmont S. June 9, appears to be sound and in good condition after being examined by Dr. Steve Allday at Belmont Park yesterday morning. The three-year-old filly, who was being aimed at the G1 Alabama at Saratoga Aug. 18, was pulled up on the track Sunday morning at the start of a five-furlong workout when exercise rider Lauren Robson felt that something wasn't right. "We're not sure if she stepped on something or she stumbled, but she seemed fine afterwards," said trainer Todd Pletcher. Under Dr. Allday's recommendation the filly will be sent to New Bolton for a complete physical. "Although everything seems to be fine, in order to be thorough, she will have a complete physical done," said Pletcher. "Though her race plans will be made after the exam, she remains under consideration for the Alabama." Rags to Riches was the first filly to win the Belmont in 102 years. She has five wins from five starts in 2007, including the G1 Kentucky Oaks at Churchill Downs May 4 and the G1 Santa Anita Oaks Mar. 11. She is sired by 1992 Belmont S. winner, A.P. Indy and is a half-sister to 2006 Belmont S. winner Jazil.

RAMONTI HEADS TO SUSSEX

Godolphin yesterday confirmed Ramonti (Fr) (Martino Alonso {Ire}) will start next in the Aug. 1 G1 Sussex S. at Goodwood. "He goes for the Sussex S. and is on target for next week," Racing Manager Simon Crisford confirmed to PA Sport. The one-mile contest will be Ramonti's first start since winning the June 19 G1 Queen Anne S. The five-year-old also won last year's G1 Premio Vittorio di Capua and G2 Premio Ribot.

WEST POINT T'BREDS: NO PIPE DREAM

Sixteen years ago, Terry Finley started West Point Thoroughbreds with just one partner--a pipefitter from Philadelphia. The pipefitter is no longer a member of the team, but there are now nearly 400 partners and about 70 horses in training. The company has offices in New Jersey, New York, California and Kentucky, and celebrated its first Grade I victory when Flashy Bull (Holy Bull) captured the June 16 GI Stephen Foster H. by a head. Not to be outdone, stablemate Dream Rush followed with a win in the July 7 GI Prioress S., and Flashy Bull could end the month with yet another elite success as he bids for his fifth straight in the GI Whitney H.

Finley expects to be surrounded by quite a crowd in the Saratoga paddock.

"There are 17 partners in Flashy Bull, and they will be bringing their friends and family," he said. "I think we will have about 50 or 60 people up for the Whitney, and they will be coming from far and wide. They're coming from California, from St. Louis, from Boston, from Philadelphia--it will be a good group."

Involving as many people as possible in the sport was the concept behind West Point. Finley was introduced to racing by his dad, a New Jersey schoolteacher.

"I was the youngest of seven kids, and none of my brothers or sisters were interested in horses, but I spent a lot of great days at the track with my old man," he explained. "He was a $2 bettor, and after some of the kids grew up and he had a little more money from his teacher's salary, he was in a little partnership.

Terry Finley, 3rd from right Horsephotos

"He had cheap horses and he didn't have a lot of luck, but I always remember how pumped up he would get and how much excitement he got out of it. It meant a lot to my father, and that was burned into my mind."

A graduate of West Point, Finley earned a Master of Science in Business Administration from Boston University. After an eight-year stint in the Army, he tried his hand at selling life insurance. It was not a good fit.

"I wasn't very good at it, because I just didn't like it," he remarked. "I'd always told myself when I was younger that I would do my best to find a field I was passionate about, and the racing business kept coming up. I have always been drawn to the excitement and the color and the characters that draw everyone who loves the business."

Finley had worked at the track as a teenager, walking hots and rubbing horses for trainers like Steve DiMauro and Danny Lopez, and he had started putting together racing partnerships in his free time from peddling life insurance. He decided to make that his full-time focus.

"When I walked out of the insurance office the last time, I vowed I was going to make this work," he said. "I was going to burn my bridges and do it without a safety net. I wasn't going to look back."

Finley and his wife, Debbie, created West Point Thoroughbreds, and they haven't had cause to look back. The company has syndicated more than 250 horses for in excess of $20 million. But it is not just the financial success that drives Team West Point.

"It sounds corny, but it is great to be in the position to see the delight and excitement on people's faces when they are at the races, or to hear it when we talk to them on the telephone," Finley said. "As we all know, the world is not always a nice place, and the racing industry provides an outlet to a lot of people. Our company is very blessed to be able to provide that kind of joy to people."

Try making a prediction from the following facts:

A colt by a multiple champion sire of juveniles makes three starts as a two-year-old and wins all three, including a Group 1 event. He is officially rated inferior to only one juvenile in Europe.

The colt eventually goes to stud and promptly takes the title of leading freshman sire. An unbeaten colt--one of three two-year-old group winners from his first crop--is officially recognized as Europe's best juvenile. His second crop produces a youngster who ranks second among the colts on the Experimental Free Handicap and a filly who ranks equal fourth.

So what does the future hold for this stallion?

If your prediction was for him to make his name primarily as a sire of quick-maturing two-year-olds, I'm afraid you would have been wrong--at least so far.

The stallion I am referring to, of course, is that remarkable racehorse Giant's Causeway. His third crop of 110 named foals failed to produce a single juvenile stakes winner in 2006 and, at this comparatively early stage of the 2007 season, he has no two-year-old winners listed on TDN's invaluable Progeny Past Performance pages.

Yet Giant's Causeway is enjoying an excellent year, with progeny earnings which place him third behind A.P. Indy and Smart Strike on the general sires' list. He has been represented by as many as eight graded winners, with these eight being made up of four five-year-olds from his first crop (Charm the Giant, Giant Wrecker, My Typhoon and Naissance Royale); three four-year-olds (Bridge Game, Drilling for Oil and Fairbanks); and the three-year-old Red Giant, who lowered the track record in snatching victory in Saturday's GII Virginia Derby. Giant's Causeway's current batch of three-year-olds also includes Mike Fox, winner of Canada's prestigious Queen's Plate.

The obvious conclusion to be drawn from Giant's Causeway's large team of 2007 graded winners is that he is a dependable source of tough, durable performers, with plenty of his best winners appreciating distances of nine furlongs or more.

If this seems somewhat at odds with our earlier impression of Giant's Causeway as a sire of precocious stars, it isn't at odds with his own background.

The so-called Iron Horse achieved his three highest Racing Post Ratings over 1 1/4 miles, when he won the Coral-Eclipse and Juddmonte International and finished a tremendous second in the Breeders' Cup Classic on his dirt debut. All three of these efforts were considered marginally superior to his excellent performances over a mile. Interestingly, he achieved his highest figure on the last of his 13 starts, so the possibility exists that Giant's Causeway would have been even more difficult to beat had he been kept in training at four.

It would suit my argument to be able to say that Giant's Causeway's dam Mariah's Storm was a late developer, but that wouldn't be true, as her juvenile efforts earned her a weight of 116 on the 1993 Experimental. On the other hand, it would be true to say that Mariah's Storm's earnings of $725,000 divided into $105,000 at two, $250,000 at three and then to nearly $370,000 at four. A mile and an eighth was her most rewarding distance, and she was rated 121 on the International Classifications at four. In other words, Giant's Causeway and his progeny have every right to be much more than just very smart juveniles.

Now 8 individual GSW's in 2007. No other sire in the USA has more!

On the topic of two-year-olds, it is worth pointing out that his current crop was sired in 2004 in his third season in the USA, and his fourth in all. His fee that year was “only” $75,000, down from the previous year’s $125,000, after his first yearlings had met with mixed reactions at the 2003 yearling sales. It is going to be interesting to see how this fourth crop compares to its predecessors. The youngsters generally fared well at the yearling sales, with two selling for such good prices as $2.6 million and $1.9 million, so it shouldn’t be long before they start making their mark.

Red Giant was a $350,000 Keeneland yearling purchase. His record suggests that he is much more at home on turf than on the main track and this is pretty much in line with his pedigree. His dam, the extremely well-related Beyond the Sun, earned most of her prize-money on turf, notably finishing second in the Calder Oaks over a mile and an eighth. Beyond the Sun had cost $110,000 as a yearling, which was inexpensive for a filly of her outstanding bloodlines.

Beyond The Sun’s dam Carnet Solaire travelled from France to win the Outstandingly S. on the dirt at Aqueduct as a juvenile, but later performed creditably on the turf in France. Carnet Solaire had the distinction of being a half-sister to the high-class European sprinters Proskona and Keos, and to Korveya, who changed hands for $7 million in 1998, having already produced the Classic winners Hector Protector, Shanghai and Bosra Sham. Korveya and Proskona ranked among four daughters of the Damascus mare Konafa to have produced either Group 1 or Group 2 winners.

This is the famous Royal Statute family which has also produced such stars as Snow Bride, Lammtarra, Awaasif and Act One in Europe.

Significantly, Red Giant’s dam is by Kingmambo, who is also the broodmare sire of Giant’s Causeway’s G1 Coronation S. winner Maids Causeway. As these high-class performers come from this cross’s first four foals, it is very much a nick to keep in mind, especially as another Kingmambo mare produced the Grade III turf winner Woodlander to Forestry, another son of Storm Cat.

DAM OF FARDA AMIGA EUTHANIZED Fly North (Pleasant Colony--Dry North, by Temperence Hill), dam of champion three-year-old filly Farda Amiga, was humanely euthanized July 11 because of complications from arthritis in her left front stifle. Owned and bred by Virginia Kraft Payson, the 14-year-old mare was a granddaughter of Payson Stud’s foundation mare Northern Sunset (Ire). Fly North, who has a Fusaichi Pegasus yearling and a Giant’s Causeway weanling, was back in foal to the 2000 Kentucky Derby winner. Trained by Roger Attfield, she won three of eight starts, including the Ontario Debutante before retiring with $114,027 in earnings. Northern Sunset, dam of European Horse of the Year St. Jovite and graded stakes winners L’Carriere, Salem Drive, and Lac Ouimet, earned Broodmare of the Year honors in 1995. Farda Amiga, the second foal from Fly North and by Broad Brush, was a runaway winner in Eclipse Award balloting for three-year-old filly of 2002. Racing for the Old Friends partnership, the filly won the GI Kentucky Oaks and GI Alabama S. and ran second to subsequent Horse of the Year Azeri in the GI Breeders’ Cup Distaff. Eight-year-old Farda Amiga has produced four foals, including a Storm Cat filly this spring. Foaled Apr. 7, the filly was bred in the name of Old Friends, Winner Silk, and Ashford Stud.

HORSEMEN: FIX ACCOUNT WAGERING MESS NOW

by Tom LaMarra Courtesy of Blood-Horse
They drew "post positions" to see which one would get the inside track. But after a race that lasted two hours and 45 minutes, the inquiry sign was posted. This one might not be official for a long time.

In by far the most enlightening panel discussion the industry has seen on account wagering, representatives of four entities discussed their business models July 20 at the National Horsemen's Benevolent and Protective Association summer convention in Colonial Williamsburg, Va. In the end, there was no resolution to ongoing conflicts over exclusivity and the sharing of content, but they did get a clear message: Horsemen want the system fixed.

"The fragmentation of this industry is not more present right here, right now," said Sean Alfortish, president of the Louisiana HBPA. "I'd weld these doors shut if you guys would come up with a solution. We've got a great opportunity on our hands. I'd work all night to get it done. This is the single-most important issue for the industry today."

Alfortish's comments were directed to Charles Champion, president and chief executive officer of Youbet.com; Scott Daruty, president of TrackNet Media Group; and David Nathanson, senior vice president and general manager of TVG. Steven Mitchell, senior vice president and chief financial officer for Woodbine Entertainment Group, also was on the panel to discuss the Canadian model in which there are no third-party account wagering providers.

EARTH PLANET (c, 3, Distant View--Razyana, by His Majesty), a last-out third at Compiègne June 27, was positioned in a handy third through the early fractions, but was shuffled back one place at the top of the stretch. Pushed along with 350 meters remaining, the 39-10 chance was driven out inside the closing panel to deny stablemate Skagerrak (Dynaformer) by a short head in the bobber. Minted's reputation preceded him to the extent that punters hammered the Andre Fabre trainee into favoritism at the kiosks and he did not disappoint his many supporters by producing a debut performance of sheer class to give hope for higher tasks to come. Breaking smartly from a wide box to settle in the wake of the leading pair, the grey eased outside in readiness for his challenge upon passing the quarter-mile marker. Settling the contest in a matter of strides when quickening by rivals to lead approaching the final furlong, the 4-5 selection was pushed clear with the minimum of fuss to account for Un Rendez Vous (Fr) (Priolo) by an impressive five lengths. Minted, the sixth winner for his freshman sire (by Danehill), is a half brother to Minatyla (Fr) (Linamix {Fr}, GSW-Fr). Click for the Racing Post race chart. LION HUNTER SETS RECORD The late Oaklands Stud sire Lion Hunter (Aus) (Danehill--Pure of Heart {Ire}, by Godswalk) broke the world record for the number of progeny wins in a racing season in one country when his Clever Cat (Aus) won at Alice Springs Sunday. Lion Hunter was euthanized at Oaklands Stud in February 2004 due to injuries sustained in a paddock accident. Clever Cat was his 240th winner of the 2006-2007 season, besting the 239 wins set by Celestial Dancer (Aus) in 1995-96. From six crops of racing age, Lion Hunter has 12 stakes winners from 454 runners and 296 individual winners. He has been represented by Group 1 winner Gold Edition (Aus), who is set to resume in the G3 Ian McEwen Trophy Aug. 28 ahead of a tilt at the G1 Manikato S. Sept. 15.

GROUP RACES UPGRADED Several group races have been upgraded following an Australian Racing Board meeting in Darwin on Friday. The MRC Autumn S., a key lead-up to the G1 Australian Guineas and G1 Derby in Sydney, will be elevated from Group 3 to Group 2 status. The VRC Baguette S. also goes from Group 3 to Group 2. The A$250,000 open and set weight penalty sprint race run on Turnbull S. day has become a high-class sprint in the Melbourne Spring and was the highest-rated Group 3 race in the past season. Another elevated from Group 3 to Group 2 status is the AJC Breeders Classic. The Shorts, Group 3 to Group 2, a handicap event which is run on Metropolitan/Epsom day, provides a pivotal programming option for Sydney sprinters before tackling the major part of the Melbourne Sprint Carnival. The Gold Coast Guineas will be promoted to Group 3 after two years of Listed status. The race is a major springboard to higher category races during the Brisbane Carnival. The STC Run to the Roses has also gone from Listed to Group 3, while the VRC ANZAC Day H., MRC Blue Sapphire Classic, VRC Super Impose Plate, VRC The Bart Cummings, WRC Warrnambool Cup, and BTC Princess S. have all gone from unlisted to Listed. In 2007-2006 there will be 67 Group 1 races, 82 Group 2 races, 112 Group 3 races and 292 Listed races, ensuring a total of 553 black-type events.

ANDRETTI, TAKEOVER TO CLASH AGAIN Globetrotting sprinters Miss Andretti (Aus) (Ihtiram {Ire}) and Takeover Target (Aus) (Celtic Swing {GB}) are likely to clash in the new Group 1 weight-for-age sprint The Age Classic on the final day of the Flemington spring carnival in November. The pair returned to Melbourne late on Sunday after a successful foray into England and will spend two weeks in quarantine at Sandown. Trainer Lee Freedman said Miss Andretti, winner of Royal Ascot's G2 Kings Stand S., was likely to have two starts over the spring carnival before heading to Hong Kong for the International Sprint at Sha Tin in December, in what may be her final race. She is widely expected to be named champion Australian sprinter for the season 2006-2007. After his two weeks in quarantine, Takeover Target will be sent to owner-trainer Joe Janiak's Coffs Harbour on the NSW central coast for a spell. The eight-year-old was second in the G1 Golden Jubilee.
