SANFORD WON BY HIS SON

He wasn't quite as impressive as his sire, who won the 1999 GII Sanford S. by nearly 10 lengths, but Jim Scatuerchio's Ready's Image (More Than Ready) was dominating enough, taking yesterday's Saratoga feature

Ready's Image
Adam Coglianese

by four convincing lengths from Tale of Ekati (Tale of the Cat). Wheeled back on 13 days' rest off a debut victory Apr. 20, Ready's Image was third as the 7-5 chalk in the GIII Kentucky BC S. at Churchill May 3. The blinkers went on for the July 1 Tremont S. at Belmont and the dark bay charged home a 7 3/4-length winner. Odds-on to add a graded stakes here, Ready's Image was close up in third and made his move at the quarter pole. He took over from pacesetter Fed Watcher (Songandaprayer) in upper stretch and leveled off to score impressively. The winner is likely to return for the GI Hopeful S. Sept. 3. FULL BOAT FOR WHITNEY

So competitive is Saturday's GI Whitney H. that Brass Hat (Prized), a Grade I winner and good enough to cross the line second in the world's richest horse race in 2006, is pegged at 20-1 on Eric Donovan's morning line. A full field of 12 handicap horses has been assembled for the $750,000 feature and, while trainer Kiaran McLaughlin was stripped of his chance to win back-to-back runnings with the retirement of Invasor (Arg), he has a capable replacement with West Point Thoroughbred's Flashy Bull (Holy Bull). The four-year-old comes into the Whitney off a narrow defeat of Magna Graduate (Honor Grades) and Diamond Stripes (Notebook) in the GI Stephen Foster H. June 16, but the conditioner knows that tomorrow's race is anything but a walkover. "He's doing great and he'll run well," McLaughlin said of Flashy Bull. "But it's not like we're beaming with 'let's go get our picture taken. We used to do that with Invasor.'" Trainer Todd Pletcher sends out a quarter of the field, as GII Oaklawn H. hero Lawyer Ron (Langfuhr) and Fairbanks (Giant's Causeway) join Magna Graduate. "I would think that Todd Pletcher's the horse to beat," McLaughlin deadpanned. Whitney field p2....Chullo a Beauty of a Buy p2-4

DOUBTING THOMAS

Aidan O'Brien is concerned that testing ground could be the achilles heel of Susan Magnier and Michael Tabor's Dylan Thomas (Ire) (Danehill) in tomorrow's G1 King George VI and Queen Elizabeth S. at Ascot. Despite confirming the four-year-old, who heads a select field of seven older horses in the mile-and-a-half championship event, the Ballydoyle conditioner warned that "soft ground would have to be seen as a negative." BIG PAPI

Papi Chullo (Comeonmom) flashed plenty of potential during his three and four-year-old seasons, but has really come of age since joining Gary Contessa's barn this past spring. Following disappointing performances in the Sunshine Millions Classic at Gulfstream Jan. 27 and the GI Oaklawn H. Apr. 7, the gray was acquired privately by Winning Move Stable, Team Stallion Racing, et al. Papi Chullo made quite a first impression on his new owners, running off to a 7 1/4-length win in a $75,000 optional claimer at Belmont May 4 (video) and was equally impressive annexing the Birdstone S. on the GI Belmont S. undercard June 9 (video). In the nine-furlong Birdstone, Papi Chullo missed the break, but wasn't fazed by the early mishap one bit, rambling home to a five-length victory in a snappy 1:47 1/5. Plans for the GI Suburban H. were scrapped after it was found that Papi Chullo grabbed a quarter in the Birdstone. "It was nothing, but it was enough for us to skip the Suburban," trainer Gary Contessa said. "I couldn't bring him back that quickly without perfection and that thing made me baby him for about a week or so." Papi Chullo has posted six workouts since the Birdstone, including a three-furlong blowout in :37.43 at Saratoga Thursday. "I feel really quietly confident in this horse," Contessa added. "I really think he's trained well and he looks good and he's happy. This is the acid test. Hope springs eternal. You get a horse like this, you hope you can win the Whitney and you hope that they hand you a trophy on stage and the end of the year." According to Contessa, the purchase price of Papi Chullo was in the low six-figures, between $100,000 to $200,000.

Plenty of Frequent Flyer Miles...

He's only faced the starter 19 times, but Papi Chullo has covered plenty of ground throughout his career, competing at 13 different racetracks. Papi Chullo held his own against stakes company at three before exiting the maiden ranks at Belmont Park in his sixth start. He was second-best in the 2005 Sham S. at Santa Anita and also finished a good fourth behind High Fly in that season's GI Fountain of Youth S. at Gulfstream Park. From eight starts at four, Papi Chullo posted a pair of optional claiming victories at Hollywood and Aqueduct and also crossed the line second in a pair of graded stakes---the GI Longacres Mile H. at Emerald Downs in August and the GI Queens County H. at the Big A in December. He also finished a solid fourth behind Premium Tap in last year's GI Woodward S. at the Spa. "Just look at the names of the horses he's been beaten by--four lengths in the Woodward to arguably some of the best handicap horses in the world," Contessa said. "The Woodward was a key race. I think it showed how much he liked the track." Big Papi cont. p3

On the Winning Path...

Steve Sigler's Winning Move Stable sat atop the owner standings in New York in 2006, posting 43 wins from 234 starters. Even with the immediate success in the stable's first full year of operation, Sigler remains very down to earth. "In order to be a successful owner, you have to be a good loser," Sigler offered. "You can't have knee-jerk reactions and blame the trainer, jockey, etc. You have to go on with a good perspective to be a successful owner. What rejuvenates that interest is having your family involved with you, which I do. We love the horses. They are beautiful animals. They have different personalities, emotions, etc. I'm very appreciative of the work that goes on behind the scenes--the grooms, hot walkers, exercise riders. Everyone is so dedicated to keeping the horses comfortable and healthy. It's not just about winning. The winning doesn't drive me. Seeing the joy and the exhilaration shared not just by me, but by the whole barn is what keeps me going." Sigler was quick to pull the trigger on the acquisition of Papi Chullo. "I had extreme confidence when I purchased him," he continued. "If you look at his lines, the things that he was put up against are unprecedented--how he was rushed along to run in stakes races as a maiden and how last year when he ran six races in a short period of time from coast-to-coast. He lost by only four lengths in the Woodward after flying back from Washington. I think all these things were very intriguing to me and made the purchase extremely exciting because he had a significant upside and getting him to Gary, hopefully, would produce that. His first two races for us are two of the most exciting races that I've experienced as an owner." Sigler is confident that his charge belongs at this level. "There's no doubt that we're stepping up in class," Sigler said. "I was extremely confident that he would win the Birdstone--I said so before the race on TVG. I don't think I'd be so brash this time.

I think that our horse will be competitive. We might not win, but I think he'll give it a very good try and a try that we'll be proud of, win or lose." Sigler stays very busy with 60 horses in training, but considers his primary business as the Mens Senior Baseball League, which he serves as founder and president.

Welcome to the Big Leagues...

Team Stallion Racing, founded in the fall of 2004 by brothers Jeffrey and Dave Massaro, makes its Grade I stakes debut in the Whitney. "Owning a horse like Papi Chullo is the reason you want to be in this game," Team Stallion President Jeff Massaro commented. "Nothing beats purchasing a horse who goes on to win his next two starts against impressive company such as A. P. Arrow and Hesanoltsalt, who ran second to Invasor this year. A few weeks ago, Dave purchased the Daily Racing Form, and saw that our horse was nationally ranked in the top 10 on the inside cover. That is an amazing feeling. Team Stallion has entered and ran in other graded stakes, but never a Grade I, and never with a horse as powerful and striking as Papi Chullo. Having a horse in the Whitney is a feeling unparalleled to any others we have had so far. The way Gary has improved Papi Chullo, and after his amazing performance in the Birdstone S., we are entering the Whitney as serious contenders."

LIKE FATHER, LIKE SON

ALYDAR, who collected a Whitney victory in 1978, sired 1989 winner EASY GOER, who in turn was responsible for 1997 winner WILL'S WAY.

Represented by his first crop at the New Sire Showcase at the Fasig-Tipton Kentucky July Yearlings sale, the Coolmore stallion accounted for the top three lots, and four of the top 10.

Massaro was confident that Contessa would bring out the best in Papi Chullo. "When Steve [Sigler] called me about the potential purchase, Papi Chullo's last two races were less than stellar," Massaro admitted. "Still though, we knew that Papi Chullo was a quality racehorse, and we felt that Gary could improve him. That is a great attribute of Gary Contessa. He is so hands-on that he can find a way to improve every horse in his barn. When you give a horse to Gary as talented as Papi Chullo, great things can happen. So far they have."

IEAH Joins the Fray...

New York-based IEAH Stables has also come on board in team Papi Chullo, buying a 25-percent interest in the five-year-old following the Birdstone. "We'd watched his recent races and he was clearly impressive to the point that he looked like he at least deserved a chance with the best in the handicap division," IEAH Stables Co-President Michael Iavarone said. "He'll get that chance in the Whitney--and the race will be a tough one--and we're looking forward to the opportunity." IEAH Stables kicked off the Saratoga meeting in style, winning the GIII Schuylerville S. on opening day in thrilling fashion with Subtle Aly. "Winning any race, let alone a stakes, is a thrill at Saratoga," Iavarone continued. "To get it done with a new acquisition on opening day--and on my birthday--makes it that much nicer." Earlier this month, IEAH Corporation broke ground on a $15-million equine medical facility at Belmont Park, which is slated to open in January 2008.

Last year's G1 Nunthorpe S. and G1 Haydock Sprint Cup winner Reverence warms up for a repeat bid in the former contest at York Aug. 23. Fifth in the July 7 G3 Sandown Sprint S. on his seasonal bow, the six-year-old is in good health according to trainer Eric Alston. "He's great and in super form," Alston told Sportinglife.com. "We were pleased with his run at Sandown, he just ran too keen really. He's almost too well in himself at the moment." He meets Al Qasi, who takes a class drop after disappointing when trailing in Royal Ascot's G1 Golden Jubilee S. June 23. "He should be pretty competitive, dropping down to a Group 3, especially if the ground is on the soft side," his conditioner Peter Chapple-Hyam said.

As expected, O'Brien scratched Yellowstone (GB) (Rock of Gibraltar {Ire}), who instead heads to Goodwood for Tuesday's G3 Gordon S., and while he intends to saddle the pair of Dylan Thomas and Scorpion (Ire) (Montjeu {Ire}), the likely soft surface will not help the former. His career-best efforts, when winning last year's G1 Irish Derby and G1 Irish Champion S. and this year's G1 Prix Ganay, have come on ground no softer than good and he was a disappointing fourth on his only encounter with easy conditions when fourth in last year's G1 Juddmonte International S. at York. "Obviously, we have to be worried about the possibility of testing ground for Dylan Thomas," O'Brien told the Racing Post. "It's the intention to run both horses, but everyone knows Dylan Thomas is much more effective on quick ground and that he isn't the same horse on soft. We'll just have to wait and see what the weather brings over the next few days." Trainer Sascha Smrczek was looking head to his greatest challenge yesterday with Stall Reni's German challenger Prince Flori (Ger) (Lando {Ger}). Last year's G1 Grosser Preis von Baden hero was successful in the G2 Grosser Mercedes-Benz-Preis at Baden Baden May 20 before finishing third in the June 24 G1 Grand Prix de Saint-Cloud. "His form is very good and I am very happy with him," Smrczek told PA Sport. "I was happy with him in Saint-Cloud, as he did not stop over that distance and finished behind two very good horses. The ground is of no concern. He has won on soft before and even if it is super soft, I think it will be okay for him."

STREET SENSE GETS TASTE OF SPA GI Kentucky Derby winner Street Sense (Street Cry {Ire}) turned in his final prep ahead of his probable start in Sunday's GII Jim Dandy S., breezing an easy half-mile in :51.59 over the Saratoga main track. The move was faster than just two others to travel the four-furlong distance, but was nonetheless visually impressive. Jockey Calvin Borel stood straight up in the irons down the backstretch, before allowing Street Sense to settle into little more than a high gallop at the half-mile pole. The colt swapped his leads on cue and was not asked for much until the sixteenth pole, when Borel lowered his hands and the acceleration was immediate. He allowed Street Sense to gallop out strongly around the clubhouse turn before finally being able to pull him up on the backstretch.

CABLE BOY GETS HASKELL WORK Unbeaten Cable Boy (Jump Start) continued preparations for the Aug. 5 GI Haskell Invitational S. with an easy one-mile drill at Monmouth Park yesterday in 1:44. "It was perfect," trainer Pat McBurney said of the move. "A nice, easy mile, and he did it just the way you want." With assistant trainer Gus Duarte in the irons, Cable Boy went the first half-mile in :57 before picking up the tempo to complete the second half-mile in :47. The dark bay colt set the Monmouth track record for a mile and 70 yards while winning a May 26 allowance in just his second start and returned to take the June 24 Coronado's Quest S. last time out. McBurney said that Cable Boy is expected to have one more work before the Haskell. "He'll work five-eighths either Tuesday or Wednesday," the trainer said. "We'll let the weather decide the day."

KEENELAND CATALOGS RECORD NUMBER FOR SEPTEMBER SALE Officials at Keeneland have announced that a record 5,553 yearlings--2,898 colts, 2,653 fillies and two geldings--will be offered at the company's September Yearling Sale in Lexington. That number eclipses the previous record of 5,161, set during last year's sale. The auction will take place over 15 sessions this year, from Monday, September 10 through Tuesday, September 25. There will be no bidding on Friday, September 14. "This sale continues to bring together the finest selection of quality yearlings and the world's most important buyers, making Keeneland September, without question, the most influential yearling market in the world," said Geoffrey Russell, Keeneland's director of sales. "The remarkable popularity of the Keeneland September Sale has resulted in unprecedented catalog strength from beginning to end. In fact, those additional yearlings we have cataloged are solid middle-market horses." The world's best and most influential stallions are represented in the catalogue, including A.P. Indy, Distorted Humor, Forestry, Fusaichi Pegasus, Giant's Causeway, Gone West, Kingmambo, Mr. Greeley, Sadler's Wells, Seeking the Gold, Smart Strike, Storm Cat, Street Cry (Ire) and Unbridled's Song, among many others. Freshman sires with yearlings on offer include Canadian Frontier, Candy Ride (Arg), Cuvee, Friends Lake, Lion Heart, Medaglia d'Oro, Perfect Soul (Ire), Smarty Jones, Speightstown, Strong Hope, Tapit and Toccet, to name a few. Added Russell, "Our consignors have done another outstanding job of bringing top-quality individuals at every level of the market. Buyers know they can find the cream of the Thoroughbred yearling crop at one stop."

$1-MILLION CHALLENGE FOR SUPER DERBY

Officials at Louisiana Downs in Bossier City will double the purse of the GII Super Derby if any of the winners of this year's Triple Crown races participate in the Sept. 22 event. "We are actively pursuing all three horses," confirmed Louisiana Downs racing secretary Doug Bredar. "Their connections indicate they are interested and open to the idea. This race provides an opportunity for the Derby, Preakness and Belmont winners to meet and decide the three-year-old championship on a neutral site that has a tremendous track record for producing future Breeders' Cup Classic winners." Of the seven three-year-olds to win the Classic, four raced in the Super Derby: Sunday Silence (1989) and Tiznow (2000) won the Super Derby, while Unbridled (1990) and Concern (1994) were second in the race before winning in the Breeders' Cup. In addition, four Super Derby winners finished second in the Classic and three won the Classic in their four-year-old season. "The history of the race speaks for itself," said Mark Midland, Vice President of Racing Operations. "This increase provides the ideal timing and purse for a historical match-up of Triple Crown winners five weeks before the Breeders' Cup." Early bird nominations for the Super Derby close Aug. 4.

FRIEL'S FOR REAL DIES Friel's For Real (Sword Dance {Ire}--Beaties For Real, by Unreal Zeal), winner of the 2004 GIII Pimlico Breeders' Cup Distaff H., died July 18 at Overbrook Farm, according to published reports. The seven-year-old mare, a 13-time winner of $674,544, was purchased by Overbrook for $550,000 at last year's Keeneland November Breeding Stock sale and made one start for the Young family, finishing eighth in the Sunshine Millions Distaff at Santa Anita. She was in foal to Street Cry (Ire) at the time of her death, an exact cause for which is as yet unknown.

Team Valor Buys Interest in Tasha's Miracle:

Barry Irwin's Team Valor has acquired a 50-percent interest in Tasha's Miracle (Harlan's Holiday) and will race the filly in partnership with the Budget Stable of Sydney Belzberg of British Columbia, Canada. She will remain under the tutelage of trainer John Sadler and will be pointed for a start in the GIII Sorrento S. at Del Mar Aug. 8. Runner-up in a June 2 maiden at Hollywood Park, Tasha's Miracle graduated by 2 1/2 lengths over the Cushion Track July 1. "She was the most impressive maiden winner at Hollywood Park," Irwin said. "She ran fast--an 8 1/2 on the Ragozin Sheets and a 90 Beyer. But there are a lot of fast fillies out there and there will be more. What separates this one from the crowd is her temperament. She's got the mind of a racehorse and she looks like she'll run around two turns. We think of her as a viable Breeders' Cup candidate."

RMTC Receives Funds From NYRA, USTA

The Racing Medication and Testing Consortium (RMTC) announced yesterday that it has received donations in the amount of $100,000 from the New York Racing Association and United States Trotting Association and $50,000 contributions from the Delaware Thoroughbred Horsemen's Association and the Hambletonian Society. "We believe in the mission of the RMTC and we will do whatever it takes to ensure the integrity of our races," said Charles E. Hayward, president and CEO of the New York Racing Association. "I think our $100,000 contribution to the RMTC is proof of that." Added Tom Charters, the president and CEO of the Hambletonian Society who also serves as the RMTC's treasurer, "With the many challenges facing horse racing, the Standardbred industry recognizes that there is no issue more important, especially to owners and breeders, than a comprehensive and nationally uniform medication program for testing, rules and penalties. The RMTC is an opportunity to meet that challenge and deserves the support of all horsemen, tracks and industry organizations, large and small."

YATHREB (Kingmambo) is a half-brother to Sakhee, Sheikh Hamdan bin Rashid Al Maktoum's stellar performer who started out in the hands of John Dunlop before going on to collect the 2001 G1 Juddmonte International S. and G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe in the Godolphin silks. This unraced homebred colt also represents Dunlop's Arundel base in a race packed with potential top-class prospects, including Saeed Suhail's Majestic Marauder (War Chant), the half-brother to Bourbonnais (Ire) who missed his intended debut for Sir Michael Stoute after the abandonment of Newbury last week.

3.20 Compiegne, Debutantes, €21,000, 3yo, 1 1/8mT

PEINTRE DU ROI (EL Prado {Ire}) starts out late in the day for Ecurie Wildenstein and trainer Elie Lellouche, but the half-brother to the operation's great Peintre Celebre still has time on his side. He encounters George Strawbridge's homebred Specializing (Kingmambo), a Jonathan Pease-trained colt whose dam is Selkirk's half-sister Seebe, runner-up in the 1997 G1 Poule d'Essai des Pouliches (French 1000 Guineas).

GLEAM IS CUP BOUND Saeed Suhail's Arabian Gleam (GB) (Kyllachy {GB}) will head to Goodwood for Tuesday's G2 Betfair Cup, connections announced yesterday. Third on only his third lifetime start in Royal Ascot's G3 Jersey S. last time June 20, the Jeremy Nosedo-trained sophomore will renew rivalry with the winner Tariq (GB) (Kyllachy) in the seven-furlong contest. "We were delighted with his run in the Jersey and he has come out of the race in very good shape," the owner's Racing Manager Bruce Raymond said yesterday. "We toyed with the idea of running him in handicapped company, but decided he should stick to group races. He looks like he has improved from his Royal Ascot run and he is working very well now."

SPENCER KEEPS ART RIDE Jamie Spencer will be reunited with Susan Magnier, Michael Tabor, Derrick Smith and Matthew Green's Excellent Art (GB) (Pivotal {GB}) in Wednesday's G1 Sussex S. at Goodwood. Trainer Aidan O'Brien told the Racing Post that the partnership, which was successful in Royal Ascot's G1 St James's Palace S., will be in force again for the mile contest. O'Brien also declared Archipenko (Kingmambo) and Trinity College (Giant's Causeway) for the Sussex. "It looks as if Jamie will again be on Excellent Art, having ridden him to win at Royal Ascot and when he ran fourth in the French Guineas," O'Brien told the Post. "It's possible that either Archipenko or Trinity College will also run." Godolphin's Ramonti (Fr) (Martino Alonso {Ire}) and Betty Moran's Jeremy (Daneshill Dancer {Ire}), first and second respectively in the G1 Queen Anne S. at Royal Ascot, are set to renew rivalry, while Sheikh Mohammed bin Khalifa Al Maktoum's G2 UAE Derby winner Asiatic Boy (Arg) (Not for Sale {Arg}) will represent South Africa. Trainer Mike de Kock yesterday expressed himself pleased with the four-year-old's build-up to his European debut. "Preparations are going along well and he's due for next Wednesday," de Kock told PA Sport. "He's settled in pretty well, but the only thing I'm not really sure about with him is the turf, especially if it is really soft turf. He's never been right-handed in his life, even when he was in Argentina and he's also never run on softer ground, so it's just absolutely uncharted waters for us."

GOFFS DONCASTER SPONSOR THE PARK HILL

The Goffs Doncaster Bloodstock Sales Group have made their first move into race sponsorship with the news that this year's G2 Park Hill S. will carry the new company's name. The race over an extended mile and three quarters is held during Doncaster's St Leger Festival Sept. 13 and is known as the "fillies' St Leger." The Sales Company's Group Chief Executive Henry Beeby commented, "Our sponsorship of the Park Hill S. illustrates the ongoing commitment of Goffs and Doncaster Bloodstock Sales to British racing and in particular to Doncaster racecourse. DBS have enjoyed a long association with the racecourse and we have been looking for some time for a suitable contest to underline this excellent relationship. Sponsoring this Group 2 event at one of Britain's most progressive and historic tracks demonstrates the Group's commitment to racing and race-horse owners."

RECORD FIXTURES FOR 2008

Following the British Horseracing Board's publishing of the 2008 Fixture List, British racing will witness a record number of meetings next year. Up 89 on this season's total, the figure exceeds 1,500 for the first time, while evening racing is markedly up along with the news that there will be racing on every Sunday. "The 2008 Fixture List, while presenting several new exciting challenges, should be viewed against the backdrop of the major review which the British Horseracing Authority will be undertaking and on which work has already commenced," BHB Racing Director Ruth Quinn said yesterday. "The review will aim to identify, with the help of as many contributors as possible, the optimal size and shape of the Fixture List for British Racing, for 2009 onwards."

Impressive after a slow start when powering to a five-length success in a Newbury maiden on debut June 26, Muthabara continued her upward progression with another eye-catching display on her stakes bow. Handing her rivals a start again here, the bay was in rear with a lot of ground to make up approaching the final quarter mile, but picked up in style when asked the question by Richard Hills. Inhaling her rivals in a matter of strides towards the stands' rail, she rolled by Lady Deauville with 100 yards to race before asserting for a snug success. "She ran a bit green and I thought two out we were in trouble for a while, but Richard [Hills] said he was always happy," trainer John Dunlop commented. "She's a nice filly and very straightforward--she didn't seem to mind the ground at all."

A # will distinguish first-time stakes-winners, a @ will indicate first-time graded stakes-winners, a ▲ will denote a first-time Grade/Group 1 winner, a + will indicate first-time starters, an (S) will be used for state-bred races, a (C) will be used for maiden-claiming races and an (R) will be used for other restricted races.
