Hines Racing's Lawyer Ron (Langfuhr) had come up short in his last two outings, but put those memories behind him with a track-record setting performance in the $750,000 GI Whitney H. at Saratoga yesterday. "He's been kind of unlucky not to win his last two starts," said winning trainer Todd Pletcher, who previously saddled the ill-fated Left Bank to win the Whitney in 2002. "Yet, his figures were very impressive." Pletcher's main concern was that the handsome chestnut would break from post 11, with a short run to the first turn. "We were able to get to the first turn and get position, and that was the real key to the race," Pletcher added. "Not only to win it, but to win it the way he did and set a new track record, it was pretty awesome. The Whitney, historically, is such a great race." Pacesetter Wanderin Boy (Seeking the Gold) stayed on gamely for second over the rallying second-choice Diamond Stripes (Notebook). Cont. p2

KING FOR A DAY

Talk of this year's G1 King George VI and Queen Elizabeth Diamond S. being a substandard renewal proved misguided as Susan Magnier and Michael Tabor's Dylan Thomas (Ire) (Danehill) lit up Ascot with a powerhouse performance in the midsummer jewel. The 5-4 pick, given the green light by Johnny Murtagh passing the quarter pole, opened up in an instant and had four lengths to spare over Youmzain (Ire) (Sinndar {Ire}) at the line. "You can compare every year and say it was perhaps a shame the Derby winner wasn't here, but he can only beat what he's up against," Tabor said. "It was still a very good race in my opinion, and he showed what a good horse he is." Cont. p3

JIM DANDY MAKES SENSE

Unbeaten Tiz Wonderful (Tiznow) hasn't faced the starter since November, and meets the likes of Street Sense (Street Cry {Ire}) in today's GI Jim Dandy S. at Saratoga. But trainer Steve Asmussen is eager to see where his colt fits. "We feel that if he has any shot in the [GI] Travers [Aug. 25], which his ability warrants, this is the only prep to put him in position," he said. Cont. p11

A multiple graded-stakes winner for trainer Bob Holthus last spring, Lawyer Ron was turned over to Todd Pletcher at the end of 2006. He opened 2007 with a win at Gulfstream Feb. 11 and followed that with a scintillating score in the GII Oaklawn H. Apr. 7, an effort which stamped him as one of the top older horses in the country. However, he finished third as the favorite in the GI Metropolitan H. May 28, and came up a neck short as the 1-10 chalk in the GIII Salvator Mile at Monmouth June 23. Pletcher said there were excuses for both. "I really felt like this horse should be undefeated this year," Pletcher said. "He was unlucky in the Met Mile and drew the one-hole going a mile. He was stuck down inside and had to make a wide move on a track that may not have been to his liking. At Monmouth last time, the track was just so crazy speed-biased, he ran a great race."

Despite breaking from post 11, Lawyer Ron came over and raced three wide in third as Wanderin Boy showed the way through honest splits of :23.86, :47.37 and 1:10.28. He drew closer on the far turn, took aim on the pacesetter approaching the eighth pole and spurted clear to an authoritative score. The future Stonewall stallion now has an automatic spot in the GI Breeders' Cup Classic since the Whitney is part of the "Win and You're In Challenge," but Pletcher has yet to decide how the colt will get to Monmouth. "We'll look at the [GI] Woodward [Sept. 1 at Saratoga] if he bounces out of this well," Pletcher said. "Obviously, we want to go to the Breeders' Cup Classic, and we want to figure out the best way to do it." Pletcher also saddled Fairbanks (Giant's Causeway) and favored Magna Graduate (Honor Grades) yesterday; they finished fourth and sixth, respectively. "I thought Fairbanks hung in there fairly gamely," said the Eclipse Award-winning conditioner. "Magna Graduate got stuck in between horses down the lane, and he's done his best running when he's been able to get in the clear. There wasn't a bad effort by either of the other two." Flashy Bull (Holy Bull) had a four-race winning streak coming into the Whitney, but the GI Stephen Foster H. hero looked uncomfortable on the rail on the far turn and wound up seventh.

Dylan Thomas, who stormed to an impressive success in the G1 Irish Derby at The Curragh last July, overturned Ouija Board (GB) in the G1 Irish Champion S. at Leopardstown in September before faltering on the dirt at Belmont Park in New York. After a smooth warm-up in the Listed Alleged S. at The Curragh Apr. 15, he took Longchamp's G1 Prix Ganay a fortnight later before losing out by a head to Notnowcato (GB) in the G1 Tattersalls Gold Cup back at the Kildare venue May 27. Manduro (Ger)'s finishing burst proved too strong for him in the June 20 G1 Prince of Wales's, but the bay was back in command here, waited with out the back off the sound fractions carved out by his barnmate Scorpion (Montjeu {Ire}). Full of run at the top of the stretch, he quickened to inhale Maraahel with 1 1/2 furlongs remaining before pulling away from the closing Youmzain. "We've always thought he was a serious horse," Aidan O'Brien told PA Sport. "He wants a fast-run mile and a quarter or mile and a half, and he's such a brilliant mover that there is no doubt he prefers faster ground. Mick [Kinane] said he was happy to go on if nothing else did as Scorpion does stay. Dylan Thomas likes to be dropped in and take his time, so the race worked out perfectly. All options are open to him, and we'll consider all the big races over a mile and a quarter and a mile and a half." Youmzain's trainer Mick Channon was delighted with the runner-up's performance. "He's run some terrific races now and he will go for the G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe [at Longchamp Oct. 7] as far as I'm concerned," he told PA Sport. "He's got the world in front of him and we can also think about Hong Kong and the Breeders' Cup." Click for the Racing Post chart or the free brisnet.com catalogue-style pedigree. My Typhoon could have been retired at the end of 2006 with three graded-stakes victories to her credit. Sportingly kept in training this year, the regally bred chestnut became a millionaire in the GII Just a Game S. June 9 at Belmont, and earned a coveted Grade I score yesterday. Sent off as the second choice, the five-year-old cruised along in second in the early stages, but made her move on the far turn and held sway through the lane as Argentina made a bold rush up the hedge. It was the third straight Diana score for trainer Bill Mott, who turns 54 today. "She's in good form right now, and hopefully, that will continue for the rest of the year," Mott said. "This was the race that we wanted to win; everything else from here is gravy. I'm going to look at the calendar and see what's available for her." As part of the "Win and You're In Challenge," My Typhoon has earned an automatic berth in the GI Breeders' Cup F/M Turf Oct. 27 at Monmouth Park. Ginger Punch's late kick came up a neck short when she was the runner-up to Take D'Tour in the GI Ogden Phipps H. at Belmont June 16, but she rebounded with a rousing five-length score in the GII First Flight H. going seven panels at the same track July 8. An additional quarter-mile here proved no impediment as the chestnut became a rare favorite to win on yesterday's card. When the gates opened, Teammate set out in front with Ginger Punch in pursuit through fractions of :24.51, :48.83 and 1:12.86. The Stronach colorbearer assumed command on the far turn and kicked away smartly down the lane en route to her first Grade I tally. "She was always good, but we had to stop on her for what they call 'chondroma,' which are little pimples on her throat," explained winning trainer Bobby Frankel, "and we had to laser them off, or eventually they'd block her airway." Frankel will keep an eye on the GI Breeders' Cup Distaff Oct. 27, for which Ginger Punch earned an automatic berth by virtue of her Go for Wand tally. "The Breeders' Cup is a long way away," he added. "You have to keep them sound; strawberries today, jam tomorrow. Hopefully, I can keep her the way she is now and I'm sure she'll run in the Breeders' Cup." Frankel added that Ginger Punch would likely make her next start in the GI Ruffian H. at Belmont Sept. 8. Diabolical closed out his sophomore season with a 3/4-length second to champion Thor's Echo in the GI Frank J. DeFrancis Memorial Dash Nov. 25. A close third in the GII Richter Scale Breeders' Cup H. at Gulfstream Mar. 3, the chestnut finished second in the GI Carter H. Apr. 7 at Aqueduct before breaking through in the GIII Maryland Sprint H. May 19 at Pimlico. He was the slight favorite here and rewarded his backers. Racing in third as Attila's Storm alternated with Commentator (Distorted Humor), Diabolical ranged up on the outside turning for home and, after a prolonged battle, edged away late. "Diabolical is so versatile, he can sit any trip the rider pleases," said winning trainer Steve Klesaris. "This was a good group of sprinters here." The versatile Lewis Michael had been knocking at the door at three, posting runner-up efforts in both the nine-furlong GII Peter Pan S. at Belmont and the seven-furlong GII Perryville S. at Keeneland. After failing to threaten in the GI Breeders' Cup Sprint Nov. 4, the bay returned from a winter break to take a one-mile allowance on the turf at Gulfstream Mar. 15 before finishing second in the GII Commonwealth BC S. at Keeneland Apr. 14. He filled the same spot in the GIII Hanshin Cup H. going a mile over this surface May 26 and was freshened up. The Calabrese homebred resumed with a seven-length score in a local optional claimer July 15 and was widely expected to make it two straight despite the added distance. Breaking from post two, the odds-on choice settled in second as Throng (Silver Deputy) led through six furlongs in 1:12.60. Lewis Michael took over entering the stretch and kicked away smartly for his first graded victory.

Fifth at Leicester in his only juvenile start last October, Harland took out a Newcastle maiden at the end of March on his seasonal return, but failed to land a blow when eighth in the June 22 G2 King Edward VII S. at Royal Ascot. Earning a first stakes rosette in the July 6 Listed Gala S. at Sandown last time, he added luster to his portfolio with a last-gasp lunge for a career high in a thrilling renewal of this prestigious contest. The bay homebred occupied fifth after the opening exchanges here and made wide progress approaching the final quarter mile. Challenging along with all six opponents at the distance, he was driven out to deny fellow British raider Regime in the bobber after a pulsating duel.

Stage Gift successfully stepped out of handicap company for Sir Michael Stoute last October when he took the G3 Darley S. at Newmarket, but was off the board in his first two starts for his new connections at Nad Al Sheba this spring. Back to form on his first European outing this term when wiring Longchamp's G3 La Coupe last time June 14, he settled in the rear half of the field this time. Traveling conspicuously easily at the three-furlong marker, he found the split soon after and worked his way through to hit the front at the eighth pole. Jamie Spencer hand-rode him thereafter and eased off the gas late with the purse secured in stylish fashion. "He won well today and is a horse who is improving all the time," Saeed bin Suroor commented. "We will look for a Group 1 for him--the [Aug. 21] G1 Juddmonte International at York would be a possibility, but it all depends on how he comes out of his race today and we will look at all options." Spencer added, "Stage Gift idled when he hit the front. He is a real classy horse and I am sure he can step up to Group 1 company. This heavy going is not his ground and he was not comfortable on it when I let him down. He's got a lovely attitude and always wants to do his best for you. He has got every chance to improve again."

Teofilo (Ire) is still convalescing in his box at Coolcullen, but the Bolgers may have a ready-made replacement in the shape of the ☆ "TDN Rising Star" ☆ New Approach. The easy winner of the Curragh maiden also taken by his year-older stablemate on debut July 15, the chestnut was sent straight to the front here and set a sound pace. Eyeballed by Brazilian Star as they turned for home, he knuckled down to shake off that challenge by the eighth pole before asserting under hand riding. "He's a proper horse and will probably go for the G2 Futurity S. [at The Curragh Aug. 25] next and after that we'll see," his trainer commented. Jockey Kevin Manning added, "He did it well and won as he liked, but I think he'll be a better horse on better ground. I was concerned about the heavy ground at The Curragh last time, but he's probably just a good horse and goes through anything. It's very difficult to compare horses of different generations, but he's really nice and has done nothing wrong." Click for the Racing Post chart. Video, courtesy attheraces.

Fracas is a grinder, and his endeavors paid dividends again here as he gave another honest display. Successful in the G3 Sandown Classic Trial and G2 Derrinstown Stud Derby Trial here and fourth in the G1 Epsom Derby two years ago, he was also second in the G1 Rheinland-Pokal at Cologne last August. This term, his consistency earned him an honorable fifth in the May 27 G1 Tattersalls Gold Cup and a deserved win in the June 9 Listed Silver S. back at The Curragh. Settled in third off the moderate early pace, he challenged out wide and lead passing the quarter pole before turning down the persistent threat of Red Rock Canyon.

Darjina bids to follow in stable companion Mandesha (Fr)'s hoofprints and provide her owner/breeder Princess Zahra Aga Khan and trainer Alain de Royer-Dupre with back-to-back renewals. Stepping up from a smooth success in the G3 Prix de la Grotte at Longchamp Apr. 15, she returned to that track and trip to deny Finsceal Beo (Ire) and capture the May 13 G1 Poule d'Essai des Pouliches.

Despite her dislike of the rain-softened conditions in the G1 Coronation S. at Royal Ascot last time June 22, she acquitted herself with credit to be third in that contest. Mi Emma looks to be the best German filly in recent years. After lording it over the domestic contingent with a nine-length romp in the G2 German 1000 Guineas at Dusseldorf Apr. 29, she was runner-up in the Coronation on her first overseas foray. Trainer Andreas Wohler is hoping Mi Emma can confirm the placings with Darjina. "Everything has gone perfect since Ascot and we are really happy with her, so hopefully the ground will stay fine for her and not be too soft," he told PA Sport. "She ran a great race at Ascot because before we couldn't compare our standards with the other very good fillies, but we were really happy with her effort." Jeremy Noseda sends across the G1 Falmouth S. heroine Simply Perfect, who gets the Fallon treatment. Last year's G1 Fillies' Mile winner was third in the G1 1000 Guineas on her sophomore bow at Newmarket May 6 and followed a sixth in the June 1 G1 Epsom Oaks with a pillar-to-post success from Irridescence (SAf) in the July 11 Newmarket contest. All is Vanity warrants respect on her victory in the G2 Prix de Sandringham at Chantilly June 3, while Andre Fabre saddles Utrecht, who booked her upgrade to first class with a decisive score in the G3 Prix Chloe at Maisons-Laffitte last time July 1.

Seven-year-old Battle Won adds blinkers in an effort to get him his first victory since 2005. The dark bay has hit the board in some of the nation's most prestigious sprints, including a second in the 2005 GI Forego H., a runner-up effort in the 2006 GI Triple Bend H. and a half-length loss when third in last year's renewal of this race.

Second by a nose in the off-the-turf GIII San Simeon H. Apr. 21 at Santa Anita, he comes here off a third in this year's Triple Bend July 7, contested over Hollywood's Cushion Track. Trainer Mike Mitchell has confidence in his charge. "I love the [outside] post," Mitchell said. "He can come out of the gate and [jockey] Michael [Baze] can sit out there and survey the situation." Mitchell added, "The horse blew out really nice over this track, and six furlongs might be his best distance." Unbeaten E Z Warrior has picked a tough spot for his return from a seven-month hiatus. The three-year-old laughed his way home in the San Miguel S. Jan. 7, but hasn't faced the starter since. He has a series of strong works in preparation for his first test against elders as well as his all-weather debut. If Polytrack plays similar to turf, then In Summation is in with a big chance. The Florida-bred has accrued plenty of frequent flier miles chasing North America's turf sprints over the last 12 months. Second in both Woodbine's GII Nearctic H. Oct. 22 and the GIII Hollywood Turf Express H. Nov. 25, the dark bay comes here off a rallying win in the Sneakbox S. at Monmouth June 23.

8	6	Sommersturm (Ger)	Tiger Hill (Ire)	Hirschberger	120
9	1	Dominante (Ger)	Monsun (Ger)	Wohler	116

Soldier Hollow is almost certain to break the €1 million here as he bids to confirm his status as top of Germany's tree. His 11 career victories have included the 2005 renewal of this contest, two editions of the G1 Premio Roma in 2004 and 2005 and last year's G2 Prix Dollar at Longchamp in September, when his nearest pursuer was no less than Manduro (Ger). Also on his resume is a third in last year's G1 Arlington Million and he proved he is as strong as ever with a convincing success in the G3 Grosser Preis der Wirtschaft at Dortmund on his latest start June 17. Godolphin put forward a major threat in Formal Decree, who slipped on the home turn and fell during the June 14 G3 La Coupe at Longchamp. Last year's Cambridgeshire H. winner had already proven himself in stakes company at Nad Al Sheba when winning the Feb. 1 G3 Dubai Al Rashidiya and finishing second in the Mar. 1 G2 Jebel Hatta. "It was unfortunate what happened to Formal Decree last time, but he is sound and there have been no problems since," Saeed bin Suroor said. "He is a big horse and very strong and this is a good race for him. I think he can go well." Arcadio was runner-up to Soldier Hollow here two years ago but was last of the five runners in 2006 and needs to arrest a period of subsequent decline, while Hattan may still be progressing judged on his latest second in the June 17 G1 Gran Premio di Milano at San Siro.

After being nosed out of the GI Preakness S. May 19, Street Sense opted out of a rubber match with Curlin, and was given some time to grow into himself. "He's really enjoyed the last couple of months," said trainer Carl Nafzger. "The thing was the timing. We felt he had done everything we wanted him to do. If we ran him in the Belmont, that might have thrown us off on what we'd like to achieve, like winning the Travers." Though Street Sense will be odds-on in this contest, Nafzger knows anything can happen, especially at the "Graveyard of Favorites." "The Jim Dandy is like every race," he said. "It's important, and we have to execute." Sightseeing used a third in the GI Wood Memorial Apr. 7 as a springboard to success in the May 20 GII Peter Pan S. Equipped with blinkers for his latest, the Phipps homebred finished a distant third in the GII Dwyer S. July 4 at Belmont. Trainer Shug McGaughey is eager to see him run at the Spa. "I'm looking forward to this," he said. "He shipped up here well and he worked well here. We've been looking for two turns and we're going to get it. I think he's more mature now than he was the last time he went two turns [in the Wood]."

African Appeal caused an upset here to go one better than when second in this contest 12 months ago. Despite not visiting the winner's enclosure subsequently, the bay had proved he retain his ability when third in the Jan. 27 G1 J&B Met at Kenilworth. Shortened up for his next five outings, he failed to make an impact and was only sixth in an allowance plate here 13 days ago. Settled in rear early by Jeff Lloyd, he was sent in pursuit of Kildonan as that rival stretched into a clear advantage inside the final quarter and inhaled him with a powerful late surge in the final strides.

Argonaut justified heavy support to establish himself as the new rising star in the firmament here. Runner-up in the G1 Gold Reef Resorts Medallion at Scottsville May 27, he delivered on that promise when taking the G1 Golden Horseshoe at Greyville last time July 7 and made light work of this next step. Grabbing the early advantage, he was asked to lengthen clear of his overmatched rivals and coast to a facile success by a confident Mark Khan.

First Defence to King's Bishop:

First Defence (Unbridled's Song), an impressive winner of Monmouth Park's Long Branch Breeders' Cup S. July 14, will make his next start in the GI King's Bishop S. Aug. 25, according to Daily Racing Form. The Long Branch has been a traditional prep for Monmouth's GI Haskell Invitational, but trainer Bobby Frankel preferred to cut his charge back in distance for the seven-furlong King's Bishop. "I think a mile and an eighth is too far for him," Frankel told DRF. "I thought he got a little weak the last sixteenth [of the Long Branch]." Teuflesberg (Johannesburg), last seen finishing second in the GII Carry Back S. July 7, will also make his next start in the King's Bishop. "We're trying to give him more time between the last race and the King's Bishop," trainer and part-owner Jamie Sanders told DRF. "We've been pointing to it for a while, doing the best we can. It's tough to maintain him that long."

Fleet Indian Day Wednesday:

Paul Saylor's Fleet Indian, last year's champion older mare, will be honored at Saratoga Wednesday with an $80,000 overnight stakes race for New York-bred fillies and mares named in her honor. Following Fleet Indian's retirement, Saylor established the Fleet Indian Scholarship, which goes to a New York state resident who is interested in pursuing a career in Thoroughbred racing. Along with that $24,000 award, a drawing will be held for two additional scholarships of $1,000 each Wednesday. "This is an opportunity to show my appreciation for what Fleet Indian did and have a good story about New York racing," Saylor commented. "We got a lot of great cooperation and we hope this will generate more New York applicants for all the Race of Education scholarships."

Dreaming of the Test:

West Point Stable's Dream Rush (Wild Rush), winner of the GI Prioress S. last out, covered four furlongs in :49 4/5 yesterday at Saratoga in preparation for the GI Darley Test S. next Saturday.

"It was just a nice, straight-forward, maintenance work," commented trainer Rick Violette Jr. "We had a major breeze last week, a kind of fast work, and she just needed to blow off some steam today." The bay has compiled an enviable record of 7-5-2-0. "Her only blemish in New York so far is her second against Cotton Blossom [in the one-mile GI Acorn June 9] and she ran a gangbuster race there," Violette added. "She is a serious filly. She is very fast. The horses that hook her early get chewed up a little bit and, certainly, if everybody leaves her alone on the lead, everybody is in trouble, too."

Sent off as a 14-1 longshot in this competitive affair, the Zayat colorbearer drafted in the slipstream of the pacesetter, rallied to a clear lead in the lane and staved off the rally of Codeword (Ire) (Dansili {GB}) to win by a neck. Lantana Mob had run into a couple of top horses in his young career, which help set the stage for this initial black-type win. The son of leading freshman sire Posse never threatened the filly One Hot Wish when that one set a world record when taking a 4 1/2 furlong maiden special weight at Keeneland in :48 4/5 in mid-April. Lantana Mob returned to break his maiden by daylight at Churchill June 9, but ran into Ready's Image in the Tremont S. at Belmont

July 1 and could do no better than a well-beaten fourth to the eventual GII Sanford S. winner. Sent off the pick here with those names in his running lines, Lantana Mob had to fight every step, vying for the lead between rivals through four furlongs before inching away late. "Right out of the gate, the horse was sitting pretty comfortable," said winning jockey Stewart Elliot. "He was following along very easily and, when I asked him just a little bit, he grabbed on. Once he got into the bit, I knew we were good from there." Video, sponsored by Taylor Made.

All pre-race attention focused on trainer Todd Pletcher's Sea Chanter (War Chant), who entered the gate as the 1-5 favorite, but it was the maiden Sales Tax who wound up in the spotlight after posting the 18-1 upset. Sales Tax put in a mild rally to be fourth at 20-1 in her July 15 debut over Delaware's main track July 15 and was ambitiously placed here in her first turf try. Rewarding the confidence of her connections, she stalked the pace of My Little Josie and forged past in the lane to win by daylight. Sea Chanter raced near the back of the pack and could offer up only a mild rally, finishing fourth. ROCKET MAN S. cont.

It's been seven years since Caller One captured the Carry Back S. over a sloppy Calder track, but the venerable veteran showed he still can handle the off-going here with his first stakes victory since taking the G1

Dubai Golden Shaheen in 2002. After missing the entire 2003 season, he returned to make just one start in both 2004 and 2005, finishing third and then second in the Rocket Man in those years. Fifth in last year's renewal, Caller One continued on to make five more starts in 2006, his best effort a second in a Saratoga optional claimer in August.

Caller One (#4)

On the bench since last October, Caller One took his customary spot in the gate for the Rocket Man, this time as a 3-1 shot. Hooking up with Rain Song from the start, he outdueled that foe to the wire to notch the well-earn victory. Trainer James Chapman said things fell in place for his charge. "He finally got a break today," he said. "He's run good enough to win it before, but either stumbled or got bumped around. We hope to keep him going, but we'll let him tell us where and when he might run next."

She got her head down on the line first in the Gill Bourbonette Breeders' Cup S. at Turfway Mar. 24, but failed to make an impact in the GI Kentucky Oaks, reporting home 12th. She got back on track with a 4 1/4-length tally in the Labatt Woodbine Oaks June 10, then was DQ'd from first and placed third in the Bison City S. last time July 1. Favored by the Woodbine faithful, she was settled in sixth through fractions of :47.86 and 1:12.30 and came thundering down the center of the course to win going away while racing erratically. According to trainer Mark Casse, Sealy Hill will be pointed toward Keeneland's GI Queen Elizabeth II Challenge Cup Oct. 13. "We've been waiting for a long time to get her on the grass," Casse said. "That's [Queen Elizabeth] probably where we're going to go. If she were to be able to handle those, we might even think about Monmouth and the Breeders' Cup [Oct. 27]. If we could just get her to run straight it would make me a lot happier."

More Time Off For Ketchikan:

Ketchikan (Mr. Greeley), off since a second-place finish in the GII Louisiana Derby Mar. 10, has been placed on the shelf again. The handsome chestnut most recently worked four furlongs in :48 4/5 at Churchill July 3. "I stopped on him after the Louisiana Derby because of a bone bruise, brought him back to training this summer, gave him a couple of works, and then stopped on him again when I wasn't happy with the way he was getting over the ground," trainer Al Stall told Daily Racing Form. "He's never had any specific problems other than the bone bruise. He just seems to be experiencing growing pains. He's currently turned out at Spendthrift. I hope to start him back in training Oct. 1, then bring him with me to the Fair Grounds next winter."

Mystery Giver Retired:

Mystery Giver (Dynaformer-loya, by Naskra), one of the leading Illinois-bred turf runners of all time, has been retired from racing at the age of nine. Bred and raced by David and Patricia Block and trained by their son Chris, Mystery Giver was a stakes winner at ages three and four and posted the first of his two graded-stakes victories in the GIII R.F. Carey Memorial H. at Hawthorne in 2003. He annexed the GIII Mervin Muniz Jr. Memorial H. in the spring of 2004 and was placed in the GIII Arlington H. and GI Woodford Reserve Turf Classic, but suffered a near career-ending injury when eighth in that year's GI Arlington Million. The Blocks tried to retire Mystery Giver in early 2006, but the gelding would not have any part of it and made it back to the races, winning twice from six starts. He faced the starter four times this season, most recently finishing eighth in a May 19 optional claimer at Arlington. "It would be hard for any horse of ours to achieve what Mystery Giver has achieved," said Chris Block. "We're certainly going to miss him. It was a long, fun ride, but it was time to stop. The funny thing is--he doesn't want to--but I don't want to see him try to run and hurt himself." Mystery Giver heads into retirement with a record of 43-13-8-3 and earnings of $1,244,715.

American Prize was a first-out winner sprinting over Arlington Park's Polytrack June 1, then was a game second in the slop in the Princess S. at Louisiana Downs July 14. Back off two weeks' rest for this one, American Prize stalked in fourth as Dill or No Dill showed the way through rapid fractions. Finding room to advance along the inside on the turn, American Prize squeezed through an opening in upper stretch, moved out in the final furlong and was up to deny the favorite by a head.

Katerbug began her career with two straight victories, then finished fifth in Keeneland's Jessamine S. in October. Following a seventh-place finish in the Nov. 25 Caressing H. at Churchill, she was given some time off. Katerburg resurfaced from the bench recharged, finishing second beneath the Twin Spires June 17 and was sent off as the slight favorite here. Allowed to settle toward the back, she was taken off the rail in the stretch and powered clear late to take it by a measured length.

Mini Sermon graduated in her third career attempt over the Keeneland Polytrack Apr. 14 and hasn't tasted defeat since. She cleared her first-level allowance condition at Belmont May 10, then added that track's Marking Time S. last time June 22. Favored to keep the streak alive here, she stalked Early Vintage from second, took over in the stretch and had enough left in the tank to hold Marquee Delivery safe. EXCESSIVEOBSESSION (m, 5, In Excess {Ire}--Letthemoondancerap {SP, $130,446}, by Golden Act) returned from an 18-month hiatus to rattle off three straight victories, including a state-bred optional claimer at Del Mar a year ago. The grey made one more start, finishing second in an open-company allowance Aug. 20, before heading to the sidelines once again. She showed some speed in her return June 30 over Hollywood's Cushion Track before tiring late to be fourth and was the 4-1 second choice this time. The Legacy homebred stalked the pace, moved to the front in midstretch and held sway by a diminishing neck over Time Tosay Goodbye (Gilded Time). Lifetime Record: 8-4-1-0, $130,156.

STRAIGHT RUN (g, 4, Straight Man--Forever Full, by Full Out) broke his maiden on Santa Anita's lawn back in October of 2005, preceding a 18-month absence from afternoon racing. He was seventh in his return sprinting at Hollywood in April, but improved stretching to a mile in his next two, filling the place spot May 26 and July 7 facing similar competition. The 5-2 second choice to improve while adding three panels here, Straight Run bounded out to set uncontested fractions and had plenty left for the drive, finishing 1 1/4 lengths to the good of favored Blue Torpedo (Rahy). After taking this race last year, Becrux went on to post a career-best effort in the GI Woodbine Mile in September, where he beat Rebel Rebel (Ire) and Ad Valorem. He failed to hit the board in his next four, but ran with credit to be fourth, beaten a length, in The Tin Man's GI Shoemaker BC Mile May 28, as well as the GII American Invitational H. at Hollywood June 30. Returning to Del Mar, where he was two-for-three coming into this, Becrux sat in fifth as Lang Field set :22 1/5 and

:45 4/5 splits. Lang Field was still in front through a wicked three-quarters in 1:08 4/5 and seven panels in 1:20 4/5, but the hot pace took its toll and the rallying Becrux and Zann swept past in the final strides. It was the eighth stakes winner on the year for Team Valor, which co-owns Becrux with Gary Barber. Team Valor's president, Barry Irwin, said a change in surface could be in the cards for Becrux. "He'll breeze on the Polytrack twice and, if he likes it, will contest the GI Pacific Classic [at Del Mar Aug. 19]," Irwin revealed.

Wing Collar had been off the track for more than a year before making an encouraging reappearance when second in a 12-furlong Ripon handicap on his latest outing July 21. Sitting at the tail of the field off the modest early fractions this time, he was pushed along as the pace-setting Macorville kicked at the top of the stretch. Staying on under pressure to pick up that rival at the furlong pole, the bay proved slightly stronger to record his first stakes score.

Raven's Pass gave an early indication that he might be a hard rival to pass in the closing stages of his debut outing at Yarmouth 11 days previously and he turned the reluctance of his peers to make a genuine pace against them here when leading at every step. Keen in front in the hands of Jimmy Fortune early, the chestnut was settled into a rhythm by halfway before winding up the tempo inside the final quarter. Stretching clear in the run to the line, he was untroubled while recording an authoritative success. Connections are considering a tilt at Doncaster's G2 Champagne S. Sept. 15. The winner is out of a full sister to Words of War, dam of E Dubai. Video, courtesy attheraces.

 Lightly raced when entering his first major test in Royal Ascot's Buckingham Palace S. June 22, Third Set was undone by the heavy rain that preceded that seven-furlong contest and was left trailing. Back on good-to-firm at Newmarket July 11, the imposing bay found the winner's spot and made it into this prestigious race after a raft of withdrawals of those above him in the list. Bustled up out of the gates by Jimmy Quinn, he soon took a keen hold and had traveled strongly into contention by halfway. Shaken up before the final quarter, he grabbed the lead with 1 1/2 furlongs remaining and the damage had been wrought by the time Racer Forever emerged fast and late. "Mr. Charlton sais he has to have it fast and he had been disappointing only because the ground had been too soft for him," his rider explained. "He's a lovely big horse and I felt like I was half-pacing--I couldn't believe how well I was traveling and when he got to the front he was just idling with the noise of the crowds." Connections may back up the gelding in Friday's Totesport Mile at Goodwood.

 Fledgling talent William Buick enjoyed another spell in the limelight here as he guided The Illies to a career high here. Without a win since taking a nursery at Yarmouth in September, the bay had shown glimpses of ability when fourth behind Al Khaleej in a handicap at Newmarket last Saturday and was getting a handy pull with that rival at these weights. Reserved in the rear early off the generous pace, he found top stride and ate into the leaders' advantage to wear down his Newmarket conqueror with a furlong remaining. Lengthening clear from there, he was beyond recall as Ea made late progress. "He's an improving horse and traveled really well before showing a tremendous turn of foot today," his rider commented. "They went a very good gallop, which suited him, as Mr. Hills had said beforehand he will probably stay a mile and a quarter."

Grinding her way to the front with 150 yards remaining, the homebred 3/4-sister to Green Line (GB) (Green Desert), MSP-US, $247,728, was determined and hung on for a neck verdict over World's Heroine (Ire) (Spinning World). Menadha, third in a decent six-furlong maiden at Wolverhampton last time June 25, was sent off the 5-2 crowd's choice and raced keenly whilst setting a strong early pace. Autocue, who started at 5-1, was never far away in midfield and the debutante was shaken up at the quarter pole as the $55,000 KEENOV weanling and $150,000 FTKJUL yearling Menadha continued to travel strongly on the front end. Hooking up at the furlong marker, the pair dug in under a drive and neither could be separated at the line.

FRANCESCA D'GORGIO (f, 2, Proud Citizen--Betty's Solutions, by Eltish), was not far away in fifth in the G2 Cherry Hinton S. at this track on her last outing July 11 and raced keenly in second early. Leading on the approach to the quarter pole, the $250,000 KESEP yearling and $530,000 FTFEB two-year-old sprinted away from her field despite hanging left and onto a three-length success from Major Willy (GB) (Xaar {GB}) as the 10-11 pick. She is the fourth winner for her freshman sire (by Gone West). Lifetime Record: 4-1-0-0, £9,528. O-Sir Robert Ogden; B-Lavin Bloodstock & Brereton C Jones; T-Jeremy Nosedá.

Evening Time looked to have a bright future when forging through the testing conditions and recording a five-length success in the six-furlong Listed Flame of Tara S. at The Curragh in October, but was off the track until the G3 Minstrel S. back there 13 days ago. Running with credit over a panel further to finish third in that contest, the grey justified a quick return with a highly impressive success here. Settled in third early off the solid fractions, she quickened in style at the quarter pole and shook loose soon after to leave her rivals trailing in her wake. "I'd say she'll stay a mile and she loves that ground, but the owner isn't keen to travel her so we'll have to see where we go," trainer Kevin Prendergast said.
