

JAMBALAYA OVERCOMES THE TIN MAN

Defending champion The Tin Man (Affirmed) had the lead at the eighth pole, but another gelding, five-year-old Jambalaya (Langfuhr), switched out for running room to deny the popular nine-year-old in the GI Arlington Million yesterday. The race lost some of its luster when expected favorite After Market (Storm Cat) was scratched due to soft ground issues in the morning. Winning trainer Catherine Day Phillips had her concerns as well. "[Friday] we walked the turf and put our hands into it and they went right into it," she said. "It was definitely bottomless. Today, we went out there again and it seemed a lot better. It had really dried up a lot and they had also cut the grass, so we were a lot happier. We figured he would be sitting right off the pace, very similar to the races he ran at Gulfstream sitting on the inside just off the pace. He ran when it was time to." Cont. p2

ROYAL HIGHNESS NOSES OUT IRRIDESCENCE

Talk about international. Monceaux Stable's Royal Highness (Ger) (Monsun {Ger}), trained in New York by Christophe Clement, pinned her ears back and caught Team Valor and Green Lantern's overseas-based Irridescence (SAf) (Caesour) to land the $750,000 GI Beverly D. S. at Arlington yesterday. "Turning for home, I knew I had a big chance," said the locally based rider Rene Douglas, who was winning his first Festival race. "When I got to the other horse, she would not give up, but I had to finish really, really hard." Cont. p3

SECRETARIAT GOES TO SHAMDINAN

Making his first start on these shores, Shamdinan (Fr) (Dr Fong) needed every inch of the stretch to run down Red Giant (Giant's Causeway) in winning the $400,000 GI Secretariat S. at Arlington yesterday. "The jockey who rode him in France told me don't let him drop the bit," said winning rider Julien Leparoux. "He was very relaxed for me today and took the bit, and I thought he won pretty easy." Cont. p3

LAW MAKER

Today's €600,000 G1 Prix Jaques le Marois at Deauville pits the country's best sophomore Lawman (Fr) (Invincible Spirit {Ire}) and finest older horse Manduro (Ger) (Monsun {Ger}). The youngster has already tallied the June 3 G1 Prix du Jockey-Club and July 8 G1 Prix Jean Prat at Chantilly, and trainer Jean-Marie Beguigne hopes the colt can become the sixth of his age to conquer this prize since 1999. "All has gone well with him since the Prix Jean Prat, and I am delighted with the colt," Beguigne commented. Cont. p6

Darley

Sometimes it pays to have friends. Back in 2003, Canadian trainers Mark Casse and Catherine Day Phillips both found themselves bidding on hip 3133, a bay Langfuhr colt bred by Gustav Schickedanz in Ontario. Casse wound up having the final winning bid of $2,500, but offered the yearling to Day Phillips, who signed for him in the name of her family's Kingfield Racing Stable. While it took Jambalaya four tries to break his maiden, he did so with aplomb in his turf bow and promptly rattled off four straight victories, including an eight-length triumph in the Breeder's S. at Woodbine and the GIII Saranac S. at Saratoga. The gelding won just once in his next eight starts, the Singspiel S. at Woodbine last June, but ran Better Talk Now to a head in the GII Sky Classic H. over the same course Sept. 24 before closing out 2006 with a ninth in the GI Canadian International Oct. 22. After finishing third in the GIII Canadian Turf H. Feb. 3 at Gulfstream, Jambalaya gave Day Phillips her first Grade I win as a trainer when he outfinished Honey Ryder and Einstein (Brz) in the Gulfstream Park BC H. Feb. 24, then added the GIII Pan American H. over that course Mar. 31. Given a well-deserved vacation, the five-year-old was beaten 3/4 of a length when third in the GII King Edward BC H. at Woodbine July 2 and, 20 days later, filled the same spot in the GII Northern Dancer S. at the Toronto oval.

Breaking from the rail, Jambalaya saved ground in fourth as Sunriver (Saint Ballado) led from The Tin Man through splits of :26.34, :50.88 and 1:16.15, which were far slower than the other Festival races. The Tin Man made his move turning for home and looked as though he would reward his backers, but Robby Albarado remained patient aboard Jambalaya, angled him off the rail in midstretch and wore down the valiant favorite to earn an automatic spot in the GI Breeders' Cup Turf Oct. 27.

The Tin Man Still Has a Heart...

The Tin Man gave it his all, but was second-best. "I'm proud; as proud as I can be," said trainer Richard Mandella. "The only little bit of disappointment is I like to think he could make history, but there's no disappointing days with The Tin Man. He did the best he could--looked like he had it won, and one ran him down. I thought he had it at the eighth pole." Jockey Victor Espinoza added, "The last 20 yards, he was feeling it! If the turf had been a little more firm, I think he could have won it."

After Market Scratched...

Morning-line favorite After Market (Storm Cat) was withdrawn yesterday morning due to a less-than-firm turf course. "Unfortunately, the weather in Chicago the previous week was so rainy, the turf course hasn't completely dried out yet," explained trainer John Shirreffs. "The horse is doing great--he's just fantastic, but [owner] Mr. [Martin] Wygod recommended that we don't run him on soft ground. I've been out on the course every day since I've been here. It's drying out, but it's not quite fast enough yet." A multiple Grade I winner this season, After Market had the worst performance of his career last September over a soft Delaware turf course.

Purchased as a yearling in Germany, Royal Highness began her career in France for trainer Pascal Bary, capturing the G2 Prix de Malleret in June of her three-year-old season before concluding 2005 with a 3/4-length second in the G1 Prix Vermeille. Second in the G1 Prix Ganay in her 2006 opener, the bay was unplaced in her next two outings before finishing third in the Prix Vermeille in her final French start. She filled the same spot to English Channel in her U.S. bow, the GI Joe Hirsch Turf Classic Invitational at Belmont Oct. 7, then missed by a half-length as the 3-5 choice in the GII Long Island H. Nov. 4. Royal Highness had her picture taken Feb. 25 in the GIII The Very One H. at Gulfstream, but didn't face the starter again until July 14, when she wound up second by a neck in the Robert G. Dick Memorial H. at Delaware July 14. Jockey Rene Douglas allowed the five-year-old to settle in midpack as local hopeful Jennie R. (Awesome Again) tried to take it all the way. Irridescence assumed command at the top of the stretch, but Royal Highness summoned up her reserves and outfinished the South African mare in the final strides. While the German-bred isn't currently nominated to the Breeders' Cup, she'll have a spot in the gate of the F/M Turf should her owners pay the supplementary fee.

Bred by the Aga Khan, Shamdinan missed by a neck in his lone outing last year, finishing second in a Fontainebleau maiden Nov. 27 over heavy ground. The chestnut was a narrow graduate of his seasonal opener at Saint-Cloud Apr. 9 before finishing second to Zambezi Sun (GB) in a Longchamp conditions race 20 days later. A close third to Lawman (Fr) in the G1 Prix du Jockey-Club June 3 at Chantilly, Shamdinan's wheels came off when he wound up a distant ninth in the G1 Irish Derby contested over a bog at The Curragh July 1, and the grandson of Kris S. was sold privately to Triple B Farms. Treated with Lasix, the co-fourth choice settled in eighth while saving ground under Julien Leparoux as Pleasant Strike (Smart Strike) showed the way under a course termed good, but one that clearly had some give. After six furlongs in 1:14.64, Shamdinan angled out for running room on the far turn, took aim on Red Giant and wore down the second choice for his first stakes success. Favored Admiralofthefleet (Danehill), a bit eager early, raced in fourth throughout. By virtue of this win, Shamdinan has secured a spot in the GI Breeders' Cup Turf as part of the Win and You're In Challenge. He was nominated as a foal to the Breeders' Cup program.

Grand Couturier surprised odds-on English Channel in giving trainer Bobby Ribaud his first Grade I victory. The bay started his career in France for trainer Jean-Claude Rouget, winning his first three starts before finishing third by a neck in the G2 Prix Noailles. He took the Listed Prix du Midi next out before finishing up his tenure overseas with a fourth in Rail Link (GB)'s G1 Grand Prix de Paris triumph last July. Grand Couturier was an enterprising third in last year's Sword Dancer, then ran fourth--to Jambalay's third--in the GII Sky Classic H. Sept. 24. Out of action until Apr. 29, when he ran third by a length in the GIII Fort Marcy H. at Aqueduct, he finished sixth with first-time Lasix and front bandages in the one-mile Bob Harding H. at Monmouth July 14 and wasn't given much respect here. Last of all early, the handsome colt got a patented Calvin Bo-rail ride, scraping the paint in the stretch and outfinishing English Channel in the final sixteenth. "He's had some issues, nothing serious, but we had to deal with them," Ribaud said. "He didn't adjust to our ways right away." Medici Code was unplaced in three outings as a juvenile for trainer Henry Morrison in England, but turned the corner after being gelded. The chestnut rattled off three straight victories in nine days on all-weather surfaces, at Southwell Jan. 23, Wolverhampton Jan. 28 and Southwell Feb. 1. Sent to Darrell Vienna, he made up a bit of ground to finish sixth in the GI Santa Anita Derby Apr. 7, and was given some time to regroup. He missed by a head in a division of the Oceanside S. on the turf on Del Mar's opening day and was fourth choice here. Never too far from the front as Latin Rhythms showed the way, Medici Code was given his cue by Martin Pedroza at the head of the lane and shifted gears smartly. The gelding took the lead and held his challengers at bay for his first stakes success.

Halicarnassus caused an upset when swooping late to annex the G2 Superlative S. at Newmarket last July, but needed four more runs to get his picture taken again. Finding that extra final surge again in Goodwood's Listed Cocked Hat S. May 24, he defied a five-pound penalty there before three off-the-board efforts, most recently in a Goodwood handicap nine days ago. Held up in rear early this time, the bay got rolling in the stretch as Formal Decree and Zaham battled it out up front and swept by those rivals, despite hanging left, with 150 yards remaining. "He likes to travel in his races and the quick ground was a factor," jockey Tadhg O'Shea commented. "When you get going on him you find it hard to stop and he just lugged a bit left before getting there and then idled. He won with plenty in hand and is a lovely horse."

Clive Brittain has kept it no secret that Albabilia compares favorably with one of the best to have passed through his hands in Sayyedati (GB), and the bay took another step towards justifying that comparison here. Fourth on debut behind Laureldean Gale over six furlongs at this track July 13, she built on that experience to best the subsequent winner Naomh Geileis at Ascot a fortnight later. Kept close to the steady early pace set by Kay Es Jay, Albabilia was niggled at halfway and responded to oust that rival before the quarter pole. Despite hanging right in the closing stages, she had done enough as Don't Forget Faith unleashed her late rally. "I thought she was a progressive filly, and she has a heart as big as herself," Brittain said. "I would think the G1 Fillies' Mile will be her target, but it wouldn't be the biggest punt to go over and take them on in the G1 Moyglare Stud S." Click for the Racing Post chart.

All carry 130 pounds bar Lawman & Holocene, 123.

Baron Georg von Ullmann's Manduro has turned his fortunes around since a 2006 campaign that frustrated connections with a string of placings, including a close second to Librettist in this contest. Looking a different proposition when routing a decent field in Newmarket's G3 Earl of Sefton S. Apr. 19, he confirmed that impression with a faultless display in the May 21 G1 Prix d'Ispahan at Lonchamp, where Berend van Daltsen's Turtle Bowl and Ecurie Mister Ess AS's Stormy River were five and 10 lengths behind, respectively. Saving his best for Royal Ascot, Manduro handed subsequent G1 King George VI and Queen Elizabeth S. winner Dylan Thomas (Ire) a 1 1/4-length defeat in the June 20 G1 Prince of Wales's S., where the top-class duo of Notnowcato (GB) and Red Rocks (Ire) failed to land a serious blow. Connections are confident he can provide trainer Andre Fabre with his fifth renewal since Polish Precedent got the ball rolling in 1989. "He has obviously proved himself and deserves to be the top-rated horse in Europe at the moment," the owner's Racing Manager Paul Harley told PA Sport. "He's very versatile, and the mile should not be a problem for him. He's oozing with confidence and is where he deserves to be. He's well, Monsieur Fabre is happy with him, which is the most important thing and we have been pleased with his preparation." Last year's G1 Prix Jean Prat winner Stormy River may not have stayed the trip in the Prix d'Ispahan, but he showed in the interim that he retains ability when winning the G3 Prix Messidor over Maisons-Laffitte's straight mile July 22. He was fourth here 12 months ago, but had Manduro back in third when runner-up in the G1 Prix du Moulin de Longchamp the following month.

7	4	The Loan Express (Ire)	Choisir (Aus)	Stack	124

Every edition of this contest has gone to a Coolmore representative since 1998, and only the 2004 heroine Damson (Ire) has been trained outside of Ballydoyle in that period. Twelve months ago, Holy Roman Emperor (Ire) made it win number eight for Aidan O'Brien in a race he has used to further the education of Fasliyev, Johannesburg, One Cool Cat and George Washington (Ire). Henrythenavigator holds strong claims of extending the stranglehold for connections and he is joined by two very able barnmates in Warsaw and South Dakota. Having put up an impressive debut performance when making virtually all to win a seven-furlong Gowran Park maiden by seven lengths May 6, Henrythenavigator showed he could battle when dropped back a panel while accounting for Swiss Franc (GB) in Royal Ascot's G2 Coventry S. June 19.

The May 7 Listed Coolmore S. winner Warsaw was also shipped to the Royal meeting, but the outcome was less satisfying, as he could only finish 10th in the June 21 G2 Norfolk S. South Dakota, who was ninth in the Coventry, may be better than his two subsequent showings on testing ground at this track, when runner-up to Lizard Island in the July 1 G2 Railway S. and fourth behind Myboycharlie (Ire) in the G3 Anglesey S. a fortnight later. Elletelle captured the G2 Queen Mary S. at Royal Ascot June 20 and ran with great credit when a fast-finishing third after a slow start under a penalty in Newmarket's G2 Cherry Hinton S. last time July 11. Trainer Ger Lyons admits he is up against it taking on the Coolmore might, but has faith in his filly. "Henrythenavigator is the best two-year-old I've seen and he is going to take some whacking, but if I'm only placed, at worst I'm Group 1-placed," Lyons told PA Sport. "Racing is not about convention, it is about what is right for the horse. It's a Group 1 and I've never had a runner in a Group 1 before, but in my opinion she has earned the right to run in one."

Godolphin's Laverock bids to provide the operation with a second consecutive renewal following the exploits of Cherry Mix (Fr) 12 months ago. Fourth in the July 28 G1 King George VI & Queen Elizabeth S. at Ascot on his latest start, he chases his third success at this level, having collected Longchamp's G1 Prix d'Ispahan last May and G1 Gran Premio del Jockey Club Italiano at the San Siro in October. "Laverock ran a big race in the King George and I'm very happy with him," trainer Saeed bin Suroor said. "This is another chance for him in Group 1 company and we are hopeful."

Saddex looks to be the pick of the home team, having beaten subsequent G2 Prix Maurice de Nieuil winner Bussoni and Prince Flori (Ger) in the G2 Gerling-Preis over this track and trip Apr. 22. Most recently he accounted for Vison Celebre (Ire) and subsequent G1 Grand Prix de Saint-Cloud hero Mountain High (Ire) in the June 3 G2 Grand Prix de Chantilly.

Salute the Sarge won at first asking June 3 at Hollywood, defeating Slam Slew, an impressive winner next time out. The bay colt came from just off the pace in the GIII Hollywood Juvenile Championship S. July 4 and found the wire a nose in front of the rallying Leonides (video). His quest to remain unbeaten became a bit easier when Slam Slew was withdrawn after coming up with a temperature Thursday, but he'll have to overcome his inside draw. "I drew the rail and that's not my favorite," said trainer Eric Guillot, who is keeping an eye on the GI Del Mar Futurity Sept. 5. "But the horse is ready to go. I hope he doesn't have to overextend himself in this race, because the Futurity comes up very quickly." Leonides could exact his revenge here. "He's trained quite well and he seems to be improving," said trainer Vladimir Cerin. "He was a little unlucky in the Hollywood race. He went behind horses at a critical time, but I think he's a little more mature now and will run a little straighter."

Following Jim Bolger's decision not to declare Finsceal Beo (Ire) on account of the easy ground, Eagle Mountain appears to have found an ideal opportunity to get his picture taken. Last year's G2 Beresford S. winner started his sophomore season in encouraging fashion when a fast-finishing fifth in the May 5 G1 2000 Guineas at Newmarket before ending the June 2 G1 Epsom Derby with the same surge to fill the runner-up spot. Only third when favored by Kieren Fallon over the eventual winner Soldier of Fortune (Ire) in the Irish equivalent at The Curragh July 1, he was reported to have struggled in the testing conditions before losing Fallon mid-race in the G1 Grand Prix de Paris at Longchamp July 14. Second in the G2 York S. a fortnight later, he needs to shed his unlucky tag here.

Decado represents the Kevin Prendergast barn, which was successful with Mustameet 12 months ago, and has a shot on his defeat of Cougar Bay in the G3 International S. here July 15 before his sixth in Goodwood's G1 Sussex S. last time Aug. 1.

She got off to a perfect start when besting Tuscan Evening in the Listed Saoire S. over six furlongs June 29 and is bred to relish this extra distance. Triskel may pose the biggest threat, having opened her account in the Listed Silver Flash S. at Leopardstown July 18 and is joined by stable companion Ariege, who created a striking impression on her only outing when winning by seven lengths at Killarney July 16. John Oxx saddles Sharleez, who recorded a fluent success over a panel shorter on debut at Fairyhouse July 22, and is another bred to flourish with a step up in trip.

LAVA MAN READIES FOR PACIFIC CLASSIC

Defending champion Lava Man (Slew City Slew) had his final major prep for Sunday's G1 Pacific Classic, breezing six furlongs in 1:14.95 before the first race at Del Mar Saturday. "I loved it, said trainer Doug O'Neill. "He did it nice and easy, which was the idea. And, he finished up strong and galloped out strong. It was a typical work for him." Breaking off at the five-furlong pole under regular exercise rider Tony Romero, the gelding was under strong restraint as he carved out opening splits of :26.62 and :51.44. The six-year-old picked up the pace for the next eighth--:11.16-- before completing five furlongs in 1:02.60. The popular Calbred, who completed the final furlong in :12.35, was timed galloping out seven panels in 1:28.03. "That'll work," said O'Neill. "I'd call it impressive. I wanted him to get a feel for this track in the afternoon and the people here at Del Mar were good enough to allow me to do it. I'm nothing but happy with what I saw. He did what we wanted him to do."

POSSE COLT TOPS FASIG-TIPTON PREFERRED YEARLINGS OPENER

A colt by hot freshman sire Posse (Silver Deputy) brought a $200,000 final bid to top the opening session of the Fasig-Tipton New York-bred Preferred Yearlings Sale in Saratoga Friday night. Offered by Craig and Holly Bandoroff's Denali Stud, agent, the bay was purchased by McMahon Bloodstock, agent. Bred by Edition Farm, he is out of the 17-year-old mare Reverse the Call (Phone Trick), dam of two New York-bred stakes performers: two-time stakes winner Long Distance and stakes-placed Love On Hold. Gross increased slightly, from $2,642,500 last year to $3,006,000, while average rose to $52,737 from $50,817. Median increased 8.8 percent to $37,000, up from $34,000 in 2006. Through hip 469, the topper at the second and final day of the Preferred sale was hip 445, a filly from the first crop by Medaglia d'Oro (El Prado {Ire}) out of Adorahy (Rahy). Consigned by Denali Stud, agent for Gallagher's Stud, she was purchased by John Confort and Albert Weis for $265,000. Complete results will appear in Monday's TDN.

Naughty New Yorker came into this race batting .500 at the Spa, and he raised his average at the track to .600 with the easy score. The bay captured the Noble Nashua S. at Saratoga last August, but was an over-matched ninth in the Sept. 2 GI Woodward S. He rebounded to take the Gen. Douglas MacArthur H. at Belmont 11 days later, ran a troubled sixth in the Oct. 21 Empire Classic, then sandwiched wins in the off-the-turf Nov. 11 Gill Red Smith H. and Dec. 31 Alex M. Robb H. between off-the-board efforts. Winless in six previous outings this term, Naughty New Yorker was third in the Jan. 20 Gill Aqueduct H. and second in the Apr. 7 Gill Excelsior BC H. before finishing out of the money in three straight, including a sixth-place effort in the July 22 Evan Shipman H. last time out. Up to press a pedestrian early half in :49.48, he was head-and-head with Building New Era after six panels in 1:13.90 and left that rival in his wake down the lane.

Freshened following the Champagne, he resurfaced to complete the superfecta in Calder's What A Pleasure S. Dec. 2, then was given another vacation. The chestnut has only made one start since, finishing third in a seven-furlong Churchill allowance June 30, and was backed at 5-1 here. With the red-hot Kent Desormeaux aboard, the $47,000 KEESEP yearling raced toward the back through fractions of :22.67 and :45.59, and overcame some traffic woes on the turn for home to sweep to a neck victory over the pacesetter Greater Fool (Exploit) by a neck. Sixth on the Keeneland all-weather last time out Apr. 6, the $145,000 ADNMAR juvenile returned to the lawn as a 42-1 outsider. In heavy traffic during the early running, he kicked it into gear while between horses on the far turn and had to find another seam at the three-sixteenths pole, but prevailed in a blanket finish to win it by a neck. Grand Strike (Seeking the Gold) was second, a nose in front of Open Sleigh (Touch Gold). Lifetime Record: 8-1-1-1, $50,180.

Papi Chullo Breezes:

Papi Chullo (Comeonmom), ninth in the GI Whitney S. July 28, breezed five furlongs in 1:03.20 over the Oklahoma training track Saturday. "His work [yesterday] was better than one of his pre-Whitney works," said trainer Gary Contessa. "The training track's a deep surface and 1:03 is a great work." According to Contessa, Papi Chullo may make his next start in the GIII Iselin H. at Monmouth Park Aug. 18. "I called up Monmouth Park's racing office and they told me Barcola [two-time stakes winner in his last two starts] looks like he'll be favored," Contessa said. "If Barcola's going to be the favorite, I think I have to go. [Papi Chullo] didn't handle the track in the Whitney, so I'm not thrilled with running him back in the Woodward." Papi Chullo won both starts prior to the Whitney, including Belmont's Birdstone S. June 9.

Silver Wagon Out for the Year:

Silver Wagon (Wagon Limit), sixth in his most recent start in the GI Met Mile May 28, will miss the remainder of the 2007 season due to a cracked shin, according to the Daily Racing Form. Campaigned by Four Roses Thoroughbreds, the grey is currently recuperating in Ocala and it is hoped that the six-year-old will return in 2008. "He must have done it before the Met Mile, because he ran terrible in that race and he's always run good for us," trainer Richard Dutrow Jr. told DRF. "We're letting him heal up." Dutrow indicated that Silver Wagon will winter in New York before attempting to repeat in the GII General George BC H. in February. Encountering a roadblock of his own is Diamond Stripes (Notebook), third in the GI Whitney H. July 28. The four-year-old exited the nine-furlong test with muscle tears in his hind end, which may force him to miss the GI Woodward H. Sept. 1. "He hasn't trained good since he's run, and Edgar [Prado] said [Diamond Stripes] felt terrible in the race," Dutrow told DRF. "Maybe something happened a few days before the race and I wasn't aware of it." The grey is in light training at Aqueduct, and Dutrow hopes to breeze the Florida-bred in two weeks. If the GIII Pegasus S. winner fails to make the Woodward, he will instead be pointed toward the Sept. 22 GI Brooklyn H. or Sept. 30 GI Jockey Club Gold Cup.

Sun King and Wanderin Boy to Woodward:

Wanderin Boy (Seeking the Gold) and Sun King (Charismatic), second and 10th, respectively, in the GI Whitney H. July 28, are both expected to make their next start in the GI Woodward H. Sept. 1, according to trainer Nick Zito. Sun King covered a half mile in an easy :52.06 over the Oklahoma track Friday, while Wanderin Boy negotiated the same distance in :49.88 Thursday. "Sun King looked like a two-year-old," Zito told DRF yesterday.

Silk Ridge was a maiden winner at second asking June 24, but had trouble with a sloppy Calder strip in the July 7 JJs Dream S. and ended up fifth. Given little chance to rebound on a fast track, she tracked a moderate pace from fourth after being checked early. The bay accelerated to the front at the eighth pole and edged clear. "She had a shin bothering her in her last race," trainer Gordon Potter revealed. "We kind of expected more last time, but she made up for it today." Silk Ridge will be pointed for the Sept. 1 Susan's Girl S.

Big City Man followed a second-place finish in his May 27 career opener with a 10 3/4-length maiden victory June 16. The chestnut came back to make it two in a row in the July 7 Criterium S. and was the heavy favorite to keep the streak alive. Allowed to settle off the early fractions, he went after the leaders on the far turn, took to the outside for the final drive and was opening up in the final sixteenth. "He's such a nice horse to be around," trainer Jose Pinchin said. "He'll do anything you want him to." The winner goes next in the Sept. 1 Affirmed S. going seven panels.

Wildcat Bettie B was five-for-eight last season, winning the GI Prioress S., Gill Miss Preakness S. and Gill Victory Ride S., but has not had quite the same level of success this year. She capped off her 2006 campaign with a close-up second-place finish in the Oct. 21 Gill Safely Kept BC S. at Laurel, and returned to be third in the Mar. 31 Carousel S. at Oaklawn. The chestnut tired to be 10th in the May 5 GI Humana Distaff S., but handled much softer company in her next outing, taking the May 30 Dashing Beauty S. over this track and trip by a nose. Freshened after that effort, she was a distant third behind Coli Bear in an optional claimer at Delaware July 24, but turned the tables here. Last early while no more than a couple of lengths off the lead, Wildcat Bettie B edged closer while saving ground on the far turn and fought her way through traffic to get up for a neck score.

3rd-MTH, $38,000, Alw, NW1X, 3yo/up, 6f, 1:10, gd. APPEALING SPRING (g, 3, Successful Appeal--Pretty Springs, by Wekiva Springs), a $62,000 KEENOV weanling and a $130,000 KEESEP yearling, easily handled $30,000 maiden claimers at Belmont in his third start June 14 and made it two in a row for a $40,000 tag at Monmouth July 14. Haltered after that half-length tally, he was a 3-1 chance to make it three straight. The bay trailed the tightly bunched field through the opening quarter after an awkward break, but closed ground on the turn and finished well to get up for a neck victory over Trying Brian (Tiger Ridge). Mademoiselle S. cont.

Unbeaten since running second in Hastings Park stakes in May of 2006, Monashee ran her winning streak to eight with this handy success. The grey mare disappeared after making it four in a row over this track and trip last August, returning to add yet another Hastings event to her resume May 6. After following up with a pair of easy victories at that track May 26 and June 23, she took a short break, but was odds-on to pick up where she left off here. Monashee rated just off the leaders early and found herself caught in traffic on the final bend, but eased to the outside and hit the gas to win going away.

MINTED (FR) (c, 2, Clodovil {Ire}--Mintly Fresh {SP-US}, by Rubiano) earned a "TDN Rising Star" tag when bolting up in a debutantes affair at Chantilly July 23 and started at the prohibitive odds of 2-5 to follow up under a penalty. Quickly to the front, the grey's acceleration proved decisive as Ziking (Fr) (Kingsalsa) struggled to make any inroads and was flattered by his 2 1/2-length deficit at the line. The victor is a half to Minatlya (Fr) (Linamix {Fr}), GSW-Fr. Lifetime Record: 2 starts, €24,500.

REST OF THE WORLD PREVAIL

Yesterday's Dubai Duty Free Shergar Cup went down to the wire, but it was Australian rider Hugh Bowman who stole the show with a sixth-race success on Benandonner to win the competition for his "Rest of the World" Team. In steering the four-year-old to a head success in the finale, the visiting Antipodean also secured the "Silver Saddle" for the day's top individual rider, ousting Great Britain's Hayley Turner, who had opened the meeting with success on Relative Order (GB) in the Juvenile. For Bowman's team, the end result appeared in doubt by halfway as Ireland had stolen a healthy advantage, but Yutaka Take's win on Leg Spinner (Ire) in the Stayers contest started a notable comeback and they ended the fixture with 86 points, 22 ahead of those rivals. Bowman is due to fly back to his native country Tuesday, but vowed to return to Britain in 2008 after a three-month spell riding mainly for Mick Channon. He later paid tribute to the British crowds. "I'd just like to say thanks to everyone who turned up and one of the things I've noticed since being in Britain is how much people have an interest in racing, from Brighton to Ripon to Ayr," he commented. "The crowds are always enthusiastic and these big days are really part of the British culture. I feel privileged to have been a part of it for the last three months." Nick Smith, Ascot's Head of PR, was pleased by the day's events, which drew a crowd of nearly 30,000. "The four-team format worked and we feel we have got that right, so we are really pleased," Smith said. "We got the result we wanted in that everything was decided on the last race, both the team challenge and the silver saddle for the leading rider. Everyone has had a great day and I genuinely think that the Dubai Duty Free Shergar Cup is now firmly established. Everybody knows what it is and what it isn't. It is a great bit of fun in the middle of summer, which is what we have always wanted it to be."

DANSILI DANCER (GB) (g, 5, Dansili {GB}--Magic Slipper {GB} {SP-Eng}, by Habitat) holds smart handicap form, but had lost his way this term and was down the field in a competitive handicap at the Glorious Goodwood meeting 11 days ago. Sent off at 15-2 for this Old Newton Cup--which has been won in recent years by Collier Hill (GB) and Alkaased--he traveled strongly in behind the early pace before grinding his way to the front with 150 yards remaining. Eased in the final strides, the 35,000gns TATOCT yearling had a half length to spare over Futun (GB) (In the Wings {GB}) at the line. "He's very tough and, although there was a question about the trip, he galloped all the way to the line," jockey Paul Mulrennan commented. Lifetime Record: 17-5-2-0, £144,630.

RELATIVE ORDER (GB) (c, 2, Diktat {GB}--Aunt Ruby, by Rubiano), fourth in a conditions race at Folkestone last time July 19, was settled towards the rear without cover in the early stages before being asked to take closer order at halfway. Sweeping to the front at the eighth pole, the 29,000gns DONSEP yearling belied his odds of 33-1 to beat Gypsy Baby (Ire) (Modigliani) by 3/4 of a length and provide Great Britain rider Hayley Turner with the maximum points. Lifetime Record: 4-1-0-0, £17,522.

OUR FAYE (GB) (f, 4, College Chapel {GB}--Tamara {Ire}, by Marju {Ire}) had shown marked progression this term and rattled off her third straight win at Salisbury last time July 28. Held up early by Team Ireland jockey Jimmy Fortune, the 9-2 joint-favorite was galvanised to cut down Dark Missile (GB) (Night Shift) in the final 50 yards and assert for a 3/4-of-a-length success. Lifetime Record: 11-5-0-2, £38,941.

O/B-J B J Richards; T-Sylvester Kirk.

GENKI (IRE) (g, 3, Shinko Forest {Ire}--Emma's Star {Ity}, by Darshaan {GB}), runner-up at Pontefract last time July 29, was hammered down to 6-4. Jockey Kevin Manning restrained the 55,000gns TATOCT yearling off the solid early tempo. Answering every call, he wore down Lipocco (GB) (Piccolo {GB}) with 150 yards remaining before asserting for a two-length success. Lifetime Record: 7-3-3-0, £50,296.

Anchored in last by a confident Yutaka Take, the 25,000gns TATOCT yearling and 60,000gns TATHIT purchase looped the entire field in the stretch to lead at the eighth pole and record a 1 1/4-length success from Caracciola (Ger) (Lando {Ger}), justifying 5-2 favoritism and beginning the Rest of the World team's late surge in the process. Lifetime Record: 11-5-0-2, £65,985.

Older Horse-Eng & Ity at 11-14f, G1SP-Jpn, GSW & G1SP-Eng, G1SW-Ire, GSW-Fr, G1SW-Ity, $1,202,892, ran up a sequence last term which was halted at York in September and was making his first start since unplaced at Goodwood 11 days ago. Trapped wide throughout the early stages, the 11-8 pick lengthened to grab the lead with a furlong remaining and responded to Frankie Dettori's urgings to repel John Terry (Ire) (Grand Lodge) by a head and earn a first win for the Europe team. Lifetime Record: 12-4-1-1, £82,438.

O-Ben & Sir Martyn Arbib; B-Arbib Bloodstock Partnership; T-Paul Cole.

Ascot, 4.05, Hcp, £35,000, 4yo/up, 1mT, 1:40.99, gd/fm.

BENANDONNER (g, 4, Giant's Causeway--Cape Verdi {Ire} {G1SW-Eng, $321,618}, by Caerleon) failed to live up to his illustrious pedigree so far and came here off a third-place finish at Musselburgh July 24. Backed as the 5-1 second favorite, the 35,000gns TATHIT purchase settled against the fence stalking the early pace, was freed from his hole by the Rest of the World captain Hugh Bowman inside the final quarter and reeled in Ace of Hearts (GB) (Magic Ring {Ire}) with 150 yards to race before asserting for a half-length score. Lifetime Record: 16-2-5-5, £37,224.
