“STUDENT” MAKES THE HONOR ROLE

His biggest previous performance was a victory in the Jan. 27 Maxxam Gold Cup at Sam Houston and he was let go at 23-1, but Student Council (Kingmambo) moved to the head of the class after posting the upset in the GI Pacific Classic S. at Del Mar yesterday. The five-year-old took on Brass Hat in his latest appearance, an optional claimer at Churchill Downs July 8, and was sent off the 2-1 chalk, but couldn't quite handle that rival and finished second by a head. Impressed by the effort, sheets maker Jerry Brown advised Millennium Farms' Ro Parra to purchase Student Council privately, and the move paid instant dividends. Carrying new colors in his first try at the Grade I level, he rated off the modest early fractions. The bay raced four wide around the final bend, rallied past Hello Sunday (Fr) (Poliglote {GB}) and Lava Man (Slew City Slew) in the stretch and held off the late surge of 10-1 Awesome Gem (Awesome Again) for a half-length score. "This horse was just so professional and classy today," jockey Richie Migliore said. "You couldn't ask more from a horse." Pacific Classic cont. p2

The word is out about Myboycharlie (Ire) (Danetime {Ire}). Susan Magnier's unbeaten colt earned a world of support yesterday, dropping from an opening 14-1 to 6-4 favoritism, and justified those odds with a twolength score in the G1 Prix Morny. Even the Deauville faithful jumped on the bandwagon, deserting their darling Natagora (Fr) (Divine Light {Jpn}). That filly had the target on her back early as a confident Kieren Fallon bided his time. Myboycharlie was asked to stretch approaching the furlong marker and the race was soon over. "I thought it was a decent race, as I had ridden against Natagora before and knew how good she was," Fallon commented. "My horse is a top-of-the-ground horse, but he's now won twice on soft, and I can't wait to see what he's like on decent ground." Peter Chapple-Hyam scratched the G2 Norfolk S. and G2 July S. winner Winker Watson (GB) (Piccolo {GB}) as a result of the rain-softened ground. Click for the brisnet.com catalogue-style pedigree or for the Racing Post chart.

Late Bloomer...

Three-for-10 last year, Student Council opened 2007 with an optional-claiming score at Fair Grounds before earning his first stakes victory in Houston. Second to Magna Graduate in the GIII Razorback H. at Oaklawn Mar. 9, he then shipped to Keeneland and was fourth in an all-weather allowance Apr. 6. He improved to be third in the May 4 GIII Alysheba S. at Churchill before his narrow loss to the talented Brass Hat last time. According to trainer Vladimir Cerin, Student Council could go next in the Sept. 29 GII Goodwood BC H., or train up to the Oct. 27 GI Breeders' Cup Classic. Click for the brisnet.com chart or the free brisnet.com catalogue-style pedigree. No Repeat for Lava Man...

Looking to defend his title in the $1,000,000 Pacific Classic, Lava Man was sent off the 6-5 favorite, but it was not to be. The gallant Cal-bred pressed the pace and went after the lead at the quarter pole, but faded down the lane to be sixth. "He tried hard, but he was struggling a bit out there," jockey Corey Nakatani said. "He wasn't really getting the track."

A smart debut winner over a solid field at The Curragh June 30, Myboycharlie added to his growing reputation when defying testing conditions to take the July 15 G3 Anglesey S. by seven lengths. That effort caught the attention of Susan Magnier, who made a rare purchase last week, and the colt gave an instant and dramatic return to that investment here. Always traveling easily on the tail of Natagora against the stands' rail, he had every move covered and picked up to roll by the grey with a furlong remaining. With just two strokes of Kieren Fallon's whip, he asserted for a comfortable score. Tommy Stack's son and assistant Fozzy was overwhelmed afterwards. "My father is watching on TV and I haven't spoken to him, but I'm so thrilled--it's our first Group 1 win for nine years," he said. "From day one, he has shown a lot of ability and has improved with every run. It has just so happened that his runs have come on soft and he can do well on that, but maybe he'll be better when it's good. The plan is to give him one more run this year in either the [Oct. 5] G1 Middle Park S. or [Oct. 20] G1 Dewhurst S. at Newmarket, but he probably won't run in both."

Beaten just once in his career, Crossing the Line ran his winning streak to five with this fast-closing score. The dark bay gelding was beaten a half-length in his debut, but followed up with a pair of wins in his native country. he made his U.S. bow in an optional claimer going six panels at Hollywood May 31, rallying to take it by 2 1/4 lengths, and was up in the final jumps to succeed going a mile July 4. Making his stakes debut here, he was at the back of the pack for three-quarters, but wheeled to the outside in the stretch and hit the gas to keep the streak alive. "When I saw the early fractions, I felt good because I knew he had a good kick," trainer John Sadler said. "I started looking for some slots where Garrett [Gomez] could get through. He found one and came home really nice. This horse has a wonderful personality. He's very quiet. Nothing bothers him." The winner of the GI Bing Crosby H. in 2005, Greg's Gold suffered a bowed tendon after that start, and it took stem-cell surgery to get him back to the track. The surgery, which involved harvesting stem cells from the horse's body fat and injecting them into the tendon, was a success, and the six-year-old returned to win an allowance race at Santa Anita in February. He added a victory in the Apr. 29 Tiznow S. two starts later and, after shipping to Churchill for the June 2 GIII Aristides S. and running fourth, he came back to be second by a nose in the 2007 edition of the Bing Crosby July 29. The second choice here, he pressed Bordonaro (Memo {Chi}) through a half in :47.25, took over in the stretch and held off the determined challenge of Surf Cat. "I'm so glad this horse came back," jockey Victor Espinoza said. "I love to ride ones like him. He has a big heart and really wants to win." The winner goes next in either the Oct. 6 GIII Phoenix BC S. at Keeneland or the Oct. 7 GI Ancient Title BC S. at Oak Tree. Successful in this contest last year, Satwa Queen had failed to add to that career high in a globetrotting campaign that included a second in the G1 Prix de l'Opera at Longchamp in October and off-the-board efforts in the GI Breeders' F/M Turf and G1 Hong Kong Cup. Returning this term to finish second in the May 2 G3 Prix Allez France at Chantilly, she occupied the same berth in the June 20 G2 Windsor Forest S. at Royal Ascot last time and secured a fourth group-race win with a last-gasp effort here. Thierry Thulliez settled Satwa Queen off the pace in a share of fifth from the outset and eased his mount into contention upon turning for home. Joining the front rank at the distance, she was unrelenting in the drive and ousted Bahia Breeze on the line. "What a lovely mare she is, she has never let us down and was all guts again to win this race for the second year in a row," enthused winning handler Jean de Roualle. Revealing similar plans to last term, he continued, "As we did last year, we will now go for the G1 Prix de l'Opera [at Longchamp Oct. 7] and hope she can go one better this time." After posting a brace of conditions wins last year, ★ "TDN Rising Star" ★ Getaway earned a first stakes success in the Listed Prix Michel Houyvet over course and distance last August and followed up in the G3 Prix de Lutece at Longchamp the following month. Closing his 2006 campaign with a third in the G2 Prix de Chaudenay at Longchamp at the end of September, he overcame ring rustiness to record a personal best in this belated seasonal return. Finding cover in a midfield sixth until the final turn, Getaway came under pressure to close on the leaders at the top of the straight. He rolled by his rivals to lead on the inside with 150 meters remaining and stayed on doggedly for whipless encouragement to stave off last year's winner Lord du Sud. "It took time to get him back to the races, but he's a talented stayer and proved today that he runs very well fresh," trainer Andre Fabre said. "So, we'll wait for the G1 Prix du Cadran [at Longchamp Oct. 7] for his next race." Improving off a debut third at Maisons-Laffitte Apr. 3, Tashelka broke through at Saint-Cloud next time May 14 and garnered a first stakes win in the Prix Madame Jean Couturie at Vichy in her only other start July 15. Rated off the pace in fourth for most of this group-race debut, she made progress in the straight to challenge wide under a drive at the eighth pole and was pushed out from there to assert in comfortable fashion. "She's a nice filly who takes time to warm to her task, but once she finds her stride she can really quicken," explained trainer Andre Fabre. "She ought to stay further, so she will go for the G1 Prix Vermeille [at Longchamp Sept. 16]." Click for the Racing Post chart.

The winner of two races this term, She's Our Mark had fallen agonisingly short when stepped up to stakes company, characterized by her runner-up spot in the G3 Brownstown S. here July 4 and continuing with a second-place finish in the Listed Platinum S. at Cork last time Aug. 6. Content to race at the tail of the field through the opening exchanges, she took closer order going well on the home turn. Driven into the lead at the furlong marker, the eventual winner ran on well thereafter to reward her admirable consistency. "She's a fantastic filly and I said a long time ago that she's the best filliy I've trained," conditioner Pat Flynn commented. Six-for-14 at this track coming into the Longacres Mile, The Great Face wired the field in an optional claimer at Emerald Downs July 8 and came back to make it two in a row in the Mt. Rainier H. three weeks later. The bay was looking to carry that form into graded-stakes company as a 5-1 shot. Doing what he does best, he went right to the front and was pressured by longshot Diligent Prospect (Diligence) through six furlongs in 1:10.20. Favored Raise The Bluff, coming off a fourth-place finish behind Sun Boat (GB) in the July 21 GII San Diego H. at Del Mar, drove between horses to take up the chase in the stretch, but The Great Face wouldn't back down despite drifting out in the final furlong. The hometown winner and the Southern California-based runner-up are both owned by Ron Crockett, the track president at Emerald. Crockett formed the Northwest Racing Associates Limited Partnership after Longacres closed in 1992, and brought Thoroughbred racing back to Washington when opening Emerald in 1996. A mechanical engineer who ran an aerospace servicing and repair company until selling the business to BF Goodrich in 1988, he got into racing in 1974 when he claimed a horse for $4,000. He kept adding to the stable and now has more than 40 horses. The best he has raced was the talented Vaudeville, winner of the GI Secretariat S. and GII American Derby in 1994. Click for the brisnet.com chart.

Mores Wells looked a Classic contender when taking out the G3 Ballysax S. here Apr. 22, and he confirmed that promise to a degree with a fifth in the G1 Irish Derby in his penultimate start July 1. A troubled trip cost the sophomore dearly when he finished seventh in the G3 Gordon S. at Goodwood last time July 31. The bay raced keenly in third through the modest early fractions yesterday. Eased to the front inside the quarter pole, he was strongly ridden by Declan McDonogh inside the final furlong to fend off Fracas and Arch Rebel. "He likes better ground than this, and good ground would be ideal," trainer Kevin Prendergast said. "He'll go for the [Sept. 15] G1 Irish Leger next at the Curragh--on pedigree, the trip shouldn't be a problem, and he'll run a big race." Click for the Racing Post chart.

RAGS TO RICHES WORKS AT THE SPA Top three-year-old filly Rags to Riches (A.P. Indy) breezed a sharp five furlongs in 1:00 2/5 on the Saratoga main track yesterday morning.

Adam Coglianesse

After the move, trainer Todd Pletcher was pondering the possibility of sending the blaze-faced chestnut against colts in Saturday's GI Travers S. Pletcher admitted the scenario is a longshot. "She could be ready to run in it, but it's highly unlikely," Pletcher said. "I don't know if she's ready to run against Street Sense. She might be ready for the rest of them." Rags to Riches, who has been pointing for the Sept. 8 GI Ruffian S., had Hall of Famer Angel Cordero Jr. in the saddle yesterday, and worked in company with MGSW Magna Graduate. "She was very good," Cordero said. "The boss [Pletcher] told me to go in a minute, and that's what we did. We started out a little behind Magna Graduate and we finished with him, but she had something left. When I asked her to gallop out, she left him." It was the third time Cordero had been aboard the superstar. "She's a good mover and she covers a lot of ground," he said. "She does it very easily--she seems like she's not even running. When you want her to catch up, you just move your hands and she goes. You don't have to chirp to her or anything." Rags to Riches made her last start in the June 9 GI Belmont S., handing Curlin a head defeat. She missed a couple of workouts in July and was sent to Pennsylvania's New Bolton Center for a thorough examination, but was given a clean bill of health. Yesterday's move was her third since she returned to training.

EQUINE INFLUENZA POSITIVES CANCEL MORE JAPANESE RACE MEETS Six Japanese tracks have now had to cancel racing due to an outbreak of equine influenza in the country. No less than 29 of 163 horses tested at Japanese Racing Association facilities last week were found to be positive, and the JRA meetings set for Aug. 18-19 at Kokura, Niigata and Sapporo were cancelled. One horse tested positive at the NAR's Asahikawa, forcing that track to call off racing Aug. 21, 22 and 23. Kanazawa cancelled its cards yesterday and today after screening revealed three positives. Ohi's Aug. 18 meeting was also abandoned when a horse at the track exhibited potential symptoms of the disease, but that horse subsequently tested negative. The last time an equine influenza outbreak led to racing cancellations in Japan was 1971, when 1,800 horses were affected.

TRAVERS HOPEFULS ON SARATOGA WORK

TAB Sightseeing (Pulpit), third in the July 29 GII Jim Dandy S. at Saratoga, worked five furlongs in a bullet 1:00.88 on the Oklahoma training track yesterday. The Phipps Stable's homebred will go after Jim Dandy winner Street Sense once again in the Aug. 25 GI Travers S. "He breezed nicely," trainer Shug McGaughey said. "For three-quarters, I had him out in 1:13 4/5. If everything goes as well as it has been going, he should make a good account of himself. Whether that is good enough or not, I don't know." Also on the work tab was Grasshopper (Dixie Union), who comes off a Saratoga allowance score over older horses July 30. The William S. Farish colorbearer went six furlongs in 1:13.86 on the main track, and trainer Neil Howard is taking a good hard look at the 10-furlong Travers. "His work this morning was solid," Howard said. "We were pleased with his last race. I've been training him with [the Travers] as a good possibility. We're looking at the races strictly excluding Street Sense; there's no sense in paying attention to him. I guess we're leaning towards running, but these are always hard decisions to make. There are some plusses; it'll be a short field and he's got a nice race over the track." For You Reppo (El Corredor) is 50-50 for the "Midsummer Derby" after working five furlongs in 1:01.69 on the main track.

HARD SPUN ON TRACK FOR KING'S BISHOP

Hard Spun (Danzig), coming off a second-place finish in the Aug. 5 GI Haskell Invitational S. at Monmouth Park, worked a half in :47 at Delaware Park yesterday morning. The colt will shorten up to seven furlongs for his next start, the Aug. 25 GI King's Bishop S. "Everything is a go for the King's Bishop," trainer Larry Jones said. "Usually, we work him longer before the race. Because he's running shorter, we wanted to tune up his speed. He looked really sharp out there by himself." Hard Spun is scheduled to ship to Saratoga this morning. Also prepping for the King's Bishop, First Defence (Unbridled's Song) went five furlongs in :59.83 at Saratoga.

Vente de Yearlings
du 17 au 20 Août à Deauville

HAWK WING FILLY TOPS DAY THREE

Coolmore's first-season sire Hawk Wing (Woodman) provided the top-priced yearling of yesterday's third session of Arqana's Deauville Yearling Sale, which remained solidly on course for a potential record gross. Offered by Haras de la Reboursiere et de Montaigu, hip 319 is a daughter of the high-class sprinter Don't Worry Me (Ire) (Dancing Dissident), winner of the G2 King's Stand S. in 1997. She has already produced the useful Bits of Paradise (Fr) and two other winners. The session topper was knocked down to Laurent Benoit's Broadhurst Agency for €230,000, adding to the success story that the this auction has represented for Aliette Forien's operation. Benoit revealed that the filly may end up at Andre Fabre's Chantilly haven. "It has been really difficult to buy yearlings and I have been beaten quite a few times on expensive ones," he explained. "Today, I saw a little bit of daylight and I bought this filly and also hip 249, a Royal Applause (GB) colt, for an Australian client who has horses in training with Andre Fabre. I was looking for some precocity and speed, and she looks like her mother, who had plenty of speed. We will campaign her at two and three in France, and decide in due time what to do with her." Marc de Chambure's Haras d'Etream enjoyed the limelight again yesterday when consigning the colt topper, a son of Montjeu (Ire) that brought €190,000 from Gerard Larrieu of the Chantilly Bloodstock Agency. Out of a German Group 3 winner, he will be trained by Pascal Bary for three-time G1 Prix du Jockey-Club winner Jean-Louis Bouchard.

Lando Hope and Glory...

Janet Leve-Ostermann's Lando (Ger), who famously won the G1 Japan Cup in 1995, has proved himself more than capable of getting runners of similar international importance in Paolini (Ger), Epalo (Ger) and Touch of Land (Fr). Top-class performers such as last year's G1 Grosser Preis von Baden winner Prince Flori (Ger) have kept him on the map, and he was responsible for the second and third-highest priced colts yesterday. Haras du Camp Benard's hip 232, named Hello My Dream (Fr), is a half-sibling to Hello Sunday (Fr), who was third in the G1 Pacific Classic last night. Herve Barjot's Pegasus Farms operation signed the docket after a bid of €165,000. Haras d'Ellon's hip 256, who is out of a sister to last year's GII Las Palmas H. heroine Beautyandthebeast (GB) from the family of Vallee Enchantee (Ire), was another of the Gestut Ittlingen resident's offerings to make waves when selling to agent Guy Armengol for €130,000.

Mez-merising...

Charles-Henri de Moussac's Haras du Mezeray was responsible for the next three best-selling fillies yesterday, headed by hip 244, a daughter of Zamindar. That sire is enjoying a renaissance this year due to the exploits of G1 Poule d'Essai des Pouliches and G1 Prix d'Astarte winner Darjina (Fr) and G1 Prix Saint-Alary scorer Coquerelle (Ire). The latter features prominently in this family, alongside the high-class trio of Roi Normand, Luth Dancer and Trampoli. It was Michel Zerolo of Oceanic Bloodstock who paid €210,000 on behalf of an undisclosed American interest. "I have bought this lovely filly for a new American client who has never had horses in France before," Zerolo said. "The idea is to campaign her until the end of her three-year-old year and then send her to the States. She is a strong, well-balanced filly and seems to have a lot of quality." Chantilly Bloodstock secured Mezeray's hip 255, a daughter of Selkirk out of a half to Sequoyah (Ire), from the family of Ballydoyle's Henrythenavigator and Listen (Ire). Gerard Larrieu, who made the final bid of €150,000, revealed that the filly will head to the Pascal Bary stable to race for Eric Simeon. Later in the session, de Moussac's organisation enjoyed the icing on the cake when selling hip 309 to Peter Doyle, who was active on day two. By Monsun (Ger), she is out of a sister to the dual group scorer Leporello (Ire) and listed scorer Poppy Carew (Ire), and brought €125,000.

What They're Saying At The Sales...

Gerard Larrieu, Chantilly Bloodstock

"I have bought seven horses so far, but I have been beaten on many occasions on horses in the €300,000 to €500,000 price range. When you see major investors like Sheikh Mohammed and his brother Hamdan being beaten in the bidding, then you realize that it is a strong market. On Thursday evening, on the eve of the first day, with the losses of the stock market and a difficult economic situation, you could not imagine that the sale would produce such results."

BREED A GRADE 1 WINNER, GET A GRADE 1 RIDE.

Marching On...

With one day left, the gross of €31,259,000 has already surpassed last year's figure of €29,772,000. Despite the median dropping on last year's equivalent day, the cumulative average is up almost a quarter on 2006, while the total median is up by over 21 percent. Arqana's Executive President Eric Hoyeau was in now-familiar high spirits yesterday. "We have already bettered last year's total aggregate by almost €2,000,000 and we still have to sell on Monday," he said. "If we anticipate the same fourth day's gross as last year, we will reach €36 million and that will be an all-time record for an August yearling sale in Deauville. We had operated a system to sell fewer horses and better ones on Friday and another good selection for the Saturday, while Sunday is a transition day between a very international market and probably a more domestic one on the Monday. Again, there was good foreign activity on this Sunday, but it will probably be different on the last day. More satisfaction is generated by the fact that the smaller farms, who have been regular consignors at Deauville without selling their horses at expensive prices, have broken the €100,000 barrier on many occasions, and that is a sign of the hard work they have put to permanently try to increase the quality of their stock." Today's final session gets underway at 2 p.m. Full results are available on www.arqana.com.

This week's accomplishment: Capestro saddled River's Prayer (Devon Lane) to victory in Friday night's GIII Rancho Bernando H. over Del Mar's Polytrack. The four-year-old gray, who was coming off a victory in the GI Princess Rooney H. at Calder in July, is now being targeted toward the Breeders' Cup. Capestro also co-owns the filly with Bantry Farms and Martin Racing Stables.

Birthdate: Mar. 12, 1952

Birthplace: Yuma, AZ Current residence: Rancho Santa Fe, CA

Given her performance in her last two, River's Prayer would be one of the favorites in the inaugural Breeders' Cup F/M Sprint.

Would you consider running her against the boys in the GI Sprint?

There's been some talk about running against the boys. Probably I'll stick with the fillies--they'll be tough enough. With the boys, there's more money, and there's a chance she's good enough to beat them. But you don't really want to run second; you want to go and win. We'll look at both races. Regardless, we have to supplement; she's not Breeders' Cup eligible. Luckily, we've got partners in the filly who are willing to do that.

Where would you like to go on vacation that you've never been?

My ideal vacation would be to go and visit tracks in foreign countries--Ireland, France--I'd love to do that.

Favorite type of music? I like some stuff that's pretty out there-- Sinead O'Connor, Pink Floyd. I like some Country and Western--modern stuff, not the whiney, twangy stuff.

Seen any good movies recently? I saw the new Harry Potter film

(Order of the Phoenix), and I thought that was pretty good. I've read all the books. And I thought The Italian Job was very good. I like movies like that--action, but with a good sense of humor.

Who in the business do you respect? There are several. I think Doug O'Neill has about the most wonderful personality I've known for dealing with clients and people and horses. I have complete and total admiration and respect for Bobby Frankel and his crew. And I have a lot of respect for some of the old timers, like Jack Van Berg. He's taught me a lot of little secrets that a lot of people don't know.

Last purchase? Sunday's Daily Racing Form.

Hip 327, f, Medicean (GB)--Gazar (GB), by Kris (GB)

Consigned by Haras du Mezeray

By the sire of Dutch Art (GB) and Nannina (GB), this filly's second dam is a sister to Baratheia (Ire) and Gosamer (GB), and offers a rare avenue into the great bloodstock of the late Gerald Leigh.

Hip 407, f, Marju (Ire)--Reve d'Iman (Fr), by Highest Honor (Fr)

Consigned by Haras d'Etreham

From the family of hip 157, who sold for €140,000 on Saturday, this filly by the sire of Soviet Song (Ire) and other high-class distaffers is out of a sister to the 2000 G1 Prix Saint-Alary heroine Reve d'Oscar (Fr), last year's G2 Prix Hocquart scorer Numide (Fr) and listed winner Sir Eric (Fr).

Hip 456, c, Starborough (GB)--Aerde (Fr), by Highest Honor (Fr)

Consigned by Haras de la Reboursiere et de Montaigu

By the late Starborough (GB), sire of the talented Whortleberry (Fr) and Star Valley (Fr), this colt's boasts the top-class stayer Geordieland (Fr) as his half-brother. He took the 2005 G2 Grand Prix de Chantilly before his metamorphosis into established marathoner and was runner-up in this year's G1 Ascot Gold Cup.

Hip 467, c, Anabaa--Baino Bluff (Ire), by Be My Guest

Consigned by Haras du Quesnay

This is a half-brother to the sire Take Risks (Fr) and the dam of the 2004 G3 Prix Miesque winner Stella Blue (Fr) from the family of Until Sundown, who has two yearlings catalogued here.

Hip 472, f, Dansili (GB)--Blue Harvest (Fr), by Kendor (Fr)

Consigned by Haras de la Reboursiere et de Montaigu

Dansili's yearlings have proved a revelation here and, although this filly lacks black-type close up, she has the likes of the multiple Group-1 winning stayer and champion Westerner (GB) and high-class Voix du Nord (Fr) on her page.

OBS AUGUST GETS UNDERWAY The Ocala Breeders' Sales Company August Yearling Sale begins today at 11 a.m. with a select session of 248 yearlings at the OBS Sales Complex in Ocala, Florida. After today's select session, the auction will continue with four open sessions; a total of 1508 yearlings will be offered over five days. Last year's sale has already produced graded stakes winners Kodiak Kowboy (Posse) and Tasha's Miracle (Harlan's Holiday). A half-sister to the latter, hip 19, will be offered by Martin Stables South; she is from the first crop of Spanish Steps--an unraced full brother to Unbridled's Song--out of the Relaunch mare Ms. Cuvee

Napa. Martin Stables South consigned last year's top-per, a $300,000 son of Smart Strike--Cent Nouvelles who was purchased by Kenny McPeek as agent. Among the proven sires represented this year are Cherokee Run, Exchange Rate, Forest Wildcat, Grand Slam, Honour and Glory, Johannesburg, Malibu Moon, Meadowlake, Montbrook, More Than Ready, Northern Afleet, Officer, Orientate, Pulpit, Silver Deputy, Smoke Glacken, Songandaprayer, Stormy Atlantic, Tale of the Cat, Touch Gold, Trippi, War Chant, Yes It's True and Yonaguska. This year's leading freshman sires Harlan's Holiday, Kafwain, Macho Uno, Posse, Proud Citizen and Vindication all have youngsters slated to sell. A host of sires with their first yearlings are represented, including Action This Day, Candy Ride (Arg), Chapel Royal, During, Even the Score, Omega Code, Peace Rules, Read the Footnotes, Saarland, Seattle Fitz (Arg), Soto, Speightstown, Tapit, Ten Most Wanted and Toccet. ACCOUNT WAGERING DISCUSSION LEADS TJC ROUND TABLE CONFERENCE A panel entitled "Advance Deposit Wagering and the Economics of Racing" was the focus of The Jockey Club's 55th annual Round Table Conference, held yesterday at the Gideon Putnam Hotel in Saratoga Springs, New York. The discussion was led by Churchill Downs Inc. President and CEO Robert Evans, TVG Vice President and General Manager David Nathanson and National Horsemen's Benevolent and Protective Association President Joe Santanna. CDI ended its association with TVG earlier this year after buying a 50-percent share in HRTV, which now holds TV distribution rights for its tracks, and also is co-owner of TrackNet Media, which manages the simulcast signals for CDI and Magna Entertainment Corp., among others. The debate surrounded TVG's business model, which insists on exclusivity contracts with its racetrack partners. Evans's contention was that the policy isn't in the best interest of the industry and doesn't return enough revenue to the tracks and the horsemen, and that the model is too costly for what it provides. He also championed the cause of new technology. Nathanson countered that TVG reaches millions of households, and that partner tracks have realized substantial gains in total handle. The Jockey Club added its voice to the issue, calling for a consensus that will benefit everyone in the industry. Also on the agenda were the topics of equine health, and drug testing and medication. A full transcript of the Round Table Conference will be available at www.jockeyclub.com later this week.

STORMELLO TO STAY AT MONMOUTH TIL BREEDERS' CUP

Stormello (Stormy Atlantic), who had to be scratched from the Aug. 5 GI Haskell Invitational S. at Monmouth Park after developing a case of colic, is still stabled at Monmouth and will remain at the Jersey Shore oval until the Breeders' Cup, according to trainer and co-owner/breeder Bill Currin. Off since finishing third in the June 9 GII Woody Stephens BC S. at Belmont Park, the flashy chestnut will be pointed for the GI Breeders' Cup Sprint. He will not be ready for the Aug. 25 GI King's Bishop S. at Saratoga, but could have one start before the main event Oct. 17. "He may get a prep at The Meadowlands," Currin said. Stormello won the GI Hollywood Futurity and GII Norfolk BC S. at two, and opened his sophomore campaign with a nose second in the GII Fountain of Youth S. Fourth in the GI Florida and 19th in the GI Kentucky Derby, he was beaten 2 3/4 lengths by Teuflesburg in the Woody Stephens.

Lawyer Ron Preps for Woodward:

Lawyer Ron (Langfuhr), who set a new track record in winning the July 28 GI Whitney S., worked five-eighths in an easy 1:02.12 on the Saratoga main track yesterday. The chestnut will make his next appearance in the Sept. 1 GI Woodward S. "We tried to slow him down a little bit today," trainer Todd Pletcher said. "He was hard held throughout. He continues to please us with his training." GI Met Mile hero Corinthian (Pulpit), also pointing for the Woodward, went seven furlongs in 1:28.31. "It was a slow work," trainer Jimmy Jerkens said. "We need to pick it up next week, that's for sure, to get him fit for the race." He added, "He'll work once or twice more, it all depends. Everything seems to be going good, though."

It was a fitting win. John's Call, who became the oldest horse to win a Grade I race at Saratoga when he collected the GI Sword Dancer Invitational at nine in 2000, was on hand yesterday to lead the field to the post, and nine-year-old Revved Up showed his heels to some younger rivals here. The Live Oak homebred, a resident of Christophe Clement's barn for seven years, enjoyed a successful 2006 campaign, winning five of six starts, including the GIII Sycamore Breeders' Cup S. at Keeneland Oct. 6. It took him some time to find his best form this year, but he was the runner-up in each of his last two starts and came into this race off a solid effort in the GIII Arlington H. July 21. Favored to have his picture taken for the first time in 2007, the nearly white gelding cruised along comfortably in midpack, went five wide for running room in the lane and came home enthusiastically for his 12th career stakes victory. "He's really a fun horse to be around," said Clement. "He's been with us for seven years. He's got three screws in his right-front leg, and his will to win is still right there." Owner Charlotte Weber was on hand to congratulate her gallant warrior. "We tried to turn him out and retire him," she explained, "but every time we do, after he has a couple of weeks, he comes to the gate and wants to go back to work. He's in great shape and likes what he's doing. We certainly want to take care of him--he'll tell us when he wants to retire."

Financingavailable earned a Sovereign Award as Canada's champion older mare in 2006, when she tallied five stakes wins and three seconds from eight outings. The grey set a track record last July at Woodbine in winning the Sweet Briar Too S., covering seven furlongs in 1:20 2/5, and finished up the year with a score in the Bessarabian S. Nov. 26. Freshened up for another campaign, the six-year-old returned to take the Ballade S. June 23 on Polytrack and followed that with a victory in a local turf allowance July 15. Her winning streak came to an end when she ran second by 3/4 of a length in the Gill Royal North H. Aug. 6 on the lawn, but she was heavily favored in this return to the all-weather as she looked to defend her title. After stalking the pace from second, Financingavailable made her move turning for home, led past the eighth pole and came home a popular winner.

DOMESTIC FUND (IRE) (c, 2, Sadler's Wells--Market Slide {GSP-US, $127,519}, by Gulch), who just failed to make all in a Galway maiden last time July 30, soon raced in a close-up third here. Hitting the front under a drive at the quarter pole, the even-money favorite ran on well to prevail by a head from the fast-finishing Houston Dynamo (Ire) (Rock of Gibraltar {Ire}). Domestic Fund is a half brother to Media Puzzle (Theatrical {Ire}, G1SW-Aus, MSW & GSP-Ire, $1,636,382) and a full to Refuse to Bend (Ire) (Hwt. 3yo-Ire at 7-9.5f, MG1SW-Ire & Eng, $1,348,609). Lifetime Record: 3-1-1-0, €17,820.
