battles, but the reigning champion three-year-old filly atoned for those defeats with an authoritative victory in yesterday's GII Ballston Spa H. at Saratoga. "I was glad to have that good move back at the end," said winning rider Garrett Gomez. "Today it was nice to have what I expect

G1 Coolmore Nunthorpe S. Despite not having the obvious credentials of that flying filly--who upstaged the sprinting veterans here in 1992--the maiden had shown the necessary class when runner-up in the Listed Windsor Castle S. at Royal Ascot June 19 and Goodwood's G3

Molecomb S. July 31. Not without support at 12-1, the bay showed early speed to track the fractions before domineering the final furlong under Jimmy Quinn and stretching to a 1 3/4-length success from Desert Lord (GB) (Green Desert). "He's some horse," trainer John Best commented. "I wouldn't have run in the Windsor Castle first time if I didn't think he was a cracking colt and he's come out and beat the older horses now." Nunthorpe S. cont. p3

Top Performance a While in the Making...

Fourth as the 2-1 second choice in last year's GI Breeders' Cup Filly and Mare Turf, Wait a While defeated Precious Kitten in the GIII Honey Fox H. at Gulfstream Mar. 4, but she never looked comfortable in the GII Jenny Wiley S. at Keeneland Apr. 14, finishing fifth to My Typhoon in an event rained onto the Polytrack. She had a chance to even the score with that rival in the GII Just a Game S. on the Belmont S. undercard, but the Bill Mott trainee got away with a pedestrian pace and left Wait a While 3 3/4 lengths behind at the finish. Sent to California for the GII CashCall Mile, Wait a While took ill on the eve of the race and was returned to Pletcher's Churchill base. She was not ready in time for the GI Beverly D. S. Aug. 12 and landed in this spot. Settled in fifth as Pommes Frites (Dynaformer) took them along, Wait a While commenced her rally on the turn and came four wide into the Saratoga stretch. She swept to the front approaching the final furlong and drew off as much the best. My Typhoon bid on the turn, but bobbed at the quarter pole and gave way to be sixth. "She slipped a little bit on the back and on the turn, but that's it. No excuses," said her rider Eddie Castro.

Handel brings broad experience to the New York Racing Association. The 60-year-old held leadership roles at Monmouth Park and the Meadowlands for 12 years, serving the New Jersey tracks as general manager from 1986 to 1991 and as executive vice president and chief operating officer from 1991 to 1998. During his tenure, he oversaw the transition of Monmouth from a public company to a state-owned facility operated by the New Jersey Sports and Exposition Authority. Prior to that, Handel was a member of the New Jersey Racing Commission, serving first as counsel, then deputy director and finally executive director from 1983 to 1986. In addition to those executive roles, the Rutgers University graduate was formerly a trustee of the American Horse Council, chairman of the Thoroughbred Racing Protective Bureau and director of the Harness Tracks of America. He has also been a director of the Thoroughbred Racing Association since 1986, including a two-year term as president of that organization. Added Charles Hayward, NYRA president and CEO, "I have known Hal Handel for more than 20 years and consider him one of the very best racing executives in the country. Hal brings to NYRA a broad portfolio of experience including account wagering, off-track betting, horsemen's relations and strong leadership skills. He will be a huge addition to the NYRA management team."

As a newcomer in the line-up for the Windsor Castle, Kingsgate Native excelled when a head second to Drawnfromthepast (Ire) in that five-furlong dash. He proved that effort was no fluke when going down by a neck to Fleeting Spirit (Ire) in the Molecomb. That form was upheld an hour earlier by the winner's placing in the G2 Lowther S., after the third-place finisher Captain Gerrard (Ire) blitzed his rivals in Wednesday's Listed Roses S. Always close to the early pace amongst the stands side group, he made his move passing the quarter pole and grabbed the overall advantage from the long-time leader Desert Lord approaching the final eighth. In no danger thereafter, he was driven out to assert as that rival and the 9-4 favorite Dandy Man (Ire) stayed on at the one pace in his wake. "He's a fair horse and he was getting a lot of weight and had the form to win this," Jimmy Quinn commented. "John [Best] said to just get him covered up, but I was on his back end for the first half furlong to get a lead as he was quite keen. He doesn't ride like a two-year-old--he's a huge, powerful horse, a giant." Connections are pin-pointing another raid on the older brigade in the Oct. 7 G1 Prix de l'Abbaye de Longchamp, the race which Desert Lord conquered last term. That seven-year-old's trainer Kevin Ryan revealed that he will head directly to Paris to defend his crown now. "His Group 1 penalty has been something of a burden, but we were delighted with that and he will go straight for the Prix de l'Abbaye again now," he told PA Sport. Mick Channon holds the key to this contest, having won with Bint Allayl (GB), Queen's Logic (Ire) and Flashy Wings (GB) since 1998 and the man from West Ilsley was at it again here with the maiden Nahoodh. Pitching her in at the deep end in Newmarket's G2 Cherry Hinton S. on debut was evidence of his high regard for the grey and although she finished toward the back, she was not disgraced when beaten under six lengths in that July 11 contest. Third behind the subsequent G3 Sweet Solera S. heroine Albabilia (Ire) in an above-average Ascot maiden last time July 27, she made major strides to upset the hot favorite Visit here. Rank in rear from the outset, she was patiently ridden by Jamie Spencer, who was looking for a way through before the quarter pole. Taking the simple route around the pack towards the centre of the track, she rolled by Fleeting Spirit passing the furlong marker and was safely clear as Ryan Moore reached top gear aboard Visit. "She's got talent and it's up to her how far she goes up the ladder, as she was a little bit keen today and didn't settle," Spencer explained. "I went a bit sooner than I wanted to, but I could see Ryan [Moore] locked up on the inside and I wanted to pinch a length. I got a lucky run and he didn't and that made the difference." Channon may stick to six furlongs with Nahoodh for the rest of the season. "We have always thought a lot of her and ran her in the Cherry Hinton because the ground was so bad everywhere and just wanted to run her on some decent ground," he said. "Then she got beat at Ascot learning to settle, but Jaber [Abdullah] is not worried about maidens and she's got an awful lot of ability so we came here. I would have thought we'll stay at six furlongs for now and the G1 Cheveley Park S. [at Newmarket Oct. 5] is a possibility." Connections of Visit also revealed that the homebred will head to that Newmarket contest. Click for the Racing Post chart or the free brisnet.com catalogue-style pedigree.

Trainer Todd Pletcher is double-barreled as he shoots for a second consecutive success in the Personal Ensign to go along with Fleet Indian's victory last year.

Team Valor's Unbridled Belle, an overmatched fourth in her lone previous stakes appearance at the Spa--the 2006 GI Alabama S.--figures to give a much better account of herself this time around. The dark bay returned from a nine-month hiatus to finish second in the June 16 Obeah H. at Delaware Park, a race that set her up perfectly for the GII Delaware H. July 15. A forward factor in that 10-furlong affair, she drew off impressively to defeat Lila Paige by 7 3/4 lengths. "The Delaware H. was a real breakthrough race for her," Pletcher said of Unbridled Belle. "We're hoping she can reproduce that form. She has been training well since coming here." Indian Vale started the Del 'Cap as the 9-10 favorite off her victory in the GII Fleur de Lis H. June 16, but gave way to be fifth after disputing the early pace. "She has tactical speed," Pletcher added. "I think Indian Vale is tactical enough where she's not going to let anyone walk the dog in front of her." Stronach Stables' Sugar Shake is the field's lone Grade I winner, having taken the Santa Maria H. in March at Santa Anita. The homebred has just one start since, a runner-up effort to Teammate in the GII Shuvee H. at Belmont Park May 19.

Campaigned by the Lyon Stables, the attractive four-year-old filly can boast horse-for-the-course status, as she is perfect in a pair of stakes tries. She comes off a facile win in the July 6 Miss Liberty S. Runner-up by a head to India in the GIII Azeri Breeders' Cup S. at Oaklawn Mar. 10, Kettleoneup rolled to an easy win in the GIII Sixty Sails H. Apr. 21, but was third in her last two, including to Indian Vale in the GII Fleur de Lis H. June 16. She has been freshened since. "She's doing really well," said D.W. Pitts Enjoys First Travers Starter

Only two years into her training career, Helen Pitts will saddle her first starter in the historic GI Travers S. Saturday at Saratoga. And the 33-year-old Kentucky native is enjoying the experience.

“For me, at this stage of my career, to run in a race like this, it means the world to me,” Pitts confirmed.

Helen Pitts
B Straus

But Pitts does have some experience running horses in the Midsummer Derby. She was a long-time assistant to trainer Ken McPeck and took over that stable when McPeck decided to become a bloodstock agent in July of 2005.

“We ran Repent in the [2002] Travers with Kenny, that was the last time I was involved with it,” Pitts continued. “He was second that year to Medaglia d’Oro, but I haven’t run anything on my own in there.”

Pitts has already had plenty of success in her young career. She trained 2005 GI Queen Elizabeth II S. winner Sweet Talker and conditions last year’s GI Gulfstream Park Breeders’ Cup Turf S. hero Einstein (Brz).

When Pitts saddles For You Reppo (El Corredor) in this year’s Travers, though, she’ll be going up against veteran conditioners and previous Travers winners Shug McGaughey, Carl Nafzger and Nick Zito. She recognizes it’s an uphill battle, but she thinks her charge is ready for a big effort.

“He’s doing really well,” Pitts said of For You Reppo. “He’s been up [at Saratoga]. He had his last work up there [five furlongs in 1:01.3] on Sunday and he’s been doing super.”

For You Reppo, a maiden winner at Gulfstream in February, thrust himself onto the Triple Crown trail with a runner-up effort behind Chelokee in a Mar. 3 Gulfstream. He finished ahead of fellow Travers hopeful Sightseeing (Pulpit) that day, before running fourth behind Hard Spun in the Mar. 24 GI Lane’s End S.

The dark bay colt was aiming for the GI Arkansas Derby, but was forced to miss that race and the rest of the spring.

“He popped an abscess the day before the Arkansas Derby, so we were fighting some feet issues with him this winter,” Pitts explained. “He was doing super this winter, he ran with Chelokee and Sightseeing and did real well. And he was doing well going into the Arkansas Derby, but it was just an unfortunate thing. It was very bad timing unfortunately, but things happen for a reason.”

For You Reppo continued to suffer problems with his feet and was away from the races for four months.

“He had a lot of feet issues,” his trainer said. “Once they start, it takes a while to get everything sorted out, but once we did, he’s been going back in the right direction. Actually he’s back as good now as he was this winter. We never stopped on him, we were just fighting feet issues and had to back off him a little bit, but I never actually missed training. I just missed a lot of works and just wanted to get him right before he went the wrong way on me.”

When For You Reppo finally made it back to the track, it was over the Arlington turf for a third-place effort in a July 25 allowance.

Explaining the decision to start the sophomore on the turf, Pitts said, “Number one, timing-wise it worked out, and, number two, I didn’t think it would hurt to try him on it. It never hurts to try them on it, with his breeding, being by El Corredor. And he actually liked it. He ran very well on it. James Graham rode him beautifully and said he loved the grass. And it was going to open up some options if we didn’t run in the Travers. We had some other options to take a grass route if we wanted.”

Pitts acknowledges For You Reppo, who is 20-1 on the Travers morning line, faces a tough task Saturday.

“It’s very ambitious, but it’s a small field and it’s always worth taking a shot at it and he’s doing real well,” she said. “It’s worth taking a shot and seeing where you stand. He’s doing real well and that’s about all you can say.”

For You Reppo will be running against even more than his Travers foes. The colt has some big shoes to fill in the Pitts barn, which was home to future GI Preakness S. winner Curlin when he broke his maiden at Gulfstream in February.

“Those two were working together in Florida this winter and it’s nice to have another top horse in the barn,” Pitts commented. “It’s not Curlin,” she admitted, “but he’s close to him.”

☆ NEWS TODAY ☆

SHUTTLE STALLIONS HELD IN QUARANTINE

More than 30 of the world's leading shuttle stallions will be held in quarantine for up to one month after a suspected case of equine influenza (EI) was discovered in Sydney. The shuttle stallions are among a group of 52 horses quarantined at Eastern Creek in Sydney's west, while another 27 horses are in quarantine at Spotswood in Victoria. "While it's too early to be certain, we suspect this to be one of the horses from Japan, given there has been an outbreak of EI in that country," Peter McGauran, the federal minister for agriculture, fisheries and forestry, said in a release. "EI is an extremely serious matter and I will not take any risks with this disease getting into Australia." He continues, "The extended quarantining of a number of Australia's top stallions will have a serious effect on the horse breeding industry as the breeding season was due to start on Sept. 1. Some of these stallions attract more than $100,000 per service and given they can service up to five mares a day, it will be a heavy financial loss for their studs. Regrettably, there is no way to facilitate their release from quarantine, which may stretch beyond the predicted 30 days if another horse displays symptoms consistent with EI."

John Messara, president of Thoroughbred Breeders Australia (TBA), said an extended quarantine period would have a serious effect on next year's foal crop, he said. "It will cut the season short by about a quarter," Messara said. "If they are out in 30 days it won't be too bad but there are a lot of horses with big books and it will congest the breeding season into the last couple of months. It will be very disruptive to the industry, particularly for horses with very large books of mares. The owners of mares who are due to be served early will have to look elsewhere." The shuttle stallions were due to be released over the next few days with stallions due to start serving mares from Sept. 1, but were quarantined on Wednesday when three horses had to be treated for mild temperatures. McGauran said testing of all the horses would continue over the next few days. EXTREME SUPREME (c, 4, Deputy Minister--Low Tolerance {GSW, $353,995}, by Proud Truth) was a close-up second in her seasonal debut going seven panels over the Keeneland Polytrack Apr. 20. An easy winner at Churchill in a nine-furlong allowance May 23, the bay showed little in his latest, coming home fifth in a $50,000 optional claimer over this track and trip July 30. Settled in a tracking third early, the 5-2 shot took over nearing the furlong marker and had enough to hold off Deputy Indy (A.P. Indy) by 3/4 of a length at the wire. The $100,000 KEESEP yearling and $130,000 OBSFEB juvenile is a half to Sazarac Jazz (Dixieland Band), MSW & MGSP, $298,837; and Cat and the Hat (Storm Cat), GSP, $159,640. Jockey Club Establishes Jack Goodman Scholarship:

The Jockey Club will honor Jack Goodman's numerous contributions to the Thoroughbred industry by establishing The Jockey Club Jack Goodman Scholarship at the University of Arizona's Race Track Industry Program in Tucson. Goodman is one of the three founders of the Race Track Industry Program. He has been a member of The Jockey Club for the past 20 years and served as Arizona Racing Commissioner from 1965 through 1985 and as chairman of the National Association of State Racing Commissioners in 1979-1980. "Jack Goodman has served this industry well in a variety of roles over the last 50 years and we feel like this is an appropriate way to publicly acknowledge those contributions and, at the same time, provide assistance to young men and women seeking to pursue a career in the Thoroughbred industry," explained Ogden Mills Phipps, chairman of The Jockey Club. The scholarship will be awarded annually to students based on academic achievement, their proposed career path in the Thoroughbred racing industry and previous industry involvement.

Duff, who was fourth behind George Washington (Ire) in the G1 Phoenix S. at The Curragh in September 2005, has been lightly raced since and showed he retained ability when fourth in the G3 Ballycorus S. at Leopardstown June 13. Third behind Jumbajukiba (GB) and the subsequent G3 Desmond S. winner She's Our Mark (GB) in Cork's Listed Platinum S. 17 days ago, the bay was up to lead from the outset here and gritted it out in between horses to deny the late assault of Advanced and Racer Forever.

Following a handicap success at Newmarket May 5, Wannabe Posh finished second in Haydock's Listed Pinnacle S. three weeks later before finishing third in the June 17 G3 Noblesse S. at Cork. She put up another characteristically game effort when runner-up in Goodwood's G3 Lillie Langtry Fillies' S. last time Aug. 2 and gained her reward for that consistency with an overdue first stakes rosette here. Never far away from the early fractions carved out by Brisk Breeze, her rally carried her past that industrious rival with 150 yards remaining and into the clear in the run to the line. Connections of the winner are targeting the G2 Park Hill S., or Fillies' St Leger at Doncaster Sept. 13.

Dark Angel broke his maiden at Chester May 9 before disappointing when down the field in the June 19 Listed Windsor Castle S. at Royal Ascot. Rebounding with a fourth behind Winker Watson (GB) in the G2 July S. at Newmarket July 12, the grey rewarded the support of the Knavesmire crowd with a convincing success in this valuable prize. Always prominent racing towards the far side, he was clear second by halfway before being committed soon after. Leading at the quarter pole, he was always holding the chasing pack in the run to the line, where Gypsy Baby had emerged to fill the runner's-up spot. "He's a good, strong galloper and has made up for the defeat of Prime Defender (GB) in this last year," trainer Barry Hills told PA Sport. "He's had a problem with a foot, which has been sore. We were 'tubbing' it all night with a poultice on his foot and the plate only went back on this morning. It was a worrying thing, as you always show concern when a horse has a pulse in his foot."

THE ILLIES (IRE) (c, 3, Fasliyev--Velvet Appeal {Ire}, by Petorius {Ire}), who captured a valuable Ascot handicap on King George day last time July 28, was sent off the 5-1 favorite and stayed in rear off the strong early pace, having broken awkwardly. Making smooth progress in the straight, the 36,000gns TATDEC weanling and 70,000gns TATOCT yearling grabbed the lead passing the furlong marker and asserted to best Docofthebay (Ire) (Docksider) by 1 1/2 lengths, despite a slipped saddle. "He couldn't really go with them early on, so I just left him alone and let him get into the race," jockey William Buick commented. "Turning into the straight, he picked up and traveled so strongly I could just pick my horse to follow." Lifetime Record: 12-4-0-0, £78,091.

SPEED GIFTED (GB) (c, 3, Montjeu {Ire}--Good Standing, by Distant View) impressed in his debut at Folkestone June 17 before disappointing when only fifth in a handicap on Ripon's heavy ground July 21. Settled in rear early, the 95,000gns TATOCT yearling crept closer at the top of the stretch and needed a seam approaching the final quarter. Seizing a gap soon after, 4-1 pick of the Knavesmire faithful quickened into the clear before holding Celestial Halo (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) by a comfortable two-length margin. "He's a typical Montjeu and has an amazing turn of foot, with a massive amount of ability but a lot of temperament to go with it," jockey Jamie Spencer said. "He's a big horse and the faster the ground the better for him--he'll make a smashing four-year-old next year." Lifetime Record: 3-2-0-0, £21,793.

Ridden with vigour off the home turn, the 2-1 second choice overturned a two-length deficit with Thinking Positive (GB) (Rainbow Quest) inside the final furlong and denied that rival by a half length in the dying strides. CALLAGHAN TO RETIRE

Newmarket-based Neville Callaghan has announced that he will hand over his stable to son and assistant Simon in the beginning of February 2008. Having trained since 1970, the 61-year-old revealed the news to the Racing Post on Wednesday and explained, "Simon has been my assistant for the last few years and we're just going to reverse the roles. It will be the same, except the licence will be in his name instead of mine. It's probably time, and I think that racing is a young man's game now. Hopefully he might attract some new, young owners." Callaghan trained Danehill Dancer (Ire) to win the 1995 G1 Phoenix S. and G1 National S. at The Curragh and Danetime (Ire) to be third in the 1998 G1 July Cup in the colors of long-standing patron Michael Tabor, who paid tribute. "Neville has been a very loyal trainer to me," he told the Post. "He trained my first winner, Tornado Prince, as well as Royal Derbi, who won the Irish Champion Hurdle and was runner-up in the English Champion Hurdle. We also landed many a good gamble over the years. I am looking forward to Simon taking over. I am sure he will be a success. He shows a dedication for training horses, and I'll continue to have horses with him." In recent years, Callaghan also trained Magistretti to win the G2 Dante S. and finish runner-up in the G1 Juddmonte International in 2003 before he was sent to the States. He also saddled Excellent Art (GB) to win the G2 Mill Reef S. last September. Simon Callaghan added, "I am looking forward to the challenge and feel the time is right for me to take over the reins from my father. Michael Tabor and Matthew Green have given me their full backing and I am also hoping that as well as attracting new owners, the long established patrons in the yard will continue with their support."

PRINCESS HAYA BUYS MILITARY POWER

Princess Haya of Jordan has purchased the maiden Military Power (GB) (Dubai Destination) for an undisclosed sum, the Racing Post revealed yesterday. John Hills will keep the two-year-old colt, who was third behind the smart Campanologist in a Sandown maiden in his sole start Aug. 2. He hails from the family of the 1999 G1 February S. hero Meisei Opera (Jpn). "I'm thrilled that the colt will stay with us for the remainder of this season," Hills told the Post. "I've always thought a lot of him and he ran a very nice race at Sandown, where he may have been a little unlucky not to win. I am in no hurry with him because he is still maturing. I'll try to find a nice maiden."
