HALF OURS RETIRED TO TAYLOR MADE

Half Ours (Unbridled's Song--Zing, by Storm Cat) has been retired and will join the stallion roster at Taylor Made Stallions, Inc., in Nicholasville, Kentucky. The four-year-old will stand as the property of Aaron and Marie Jones. "We're excited to have Half Ours join the stallion roster at Taylor Made," said Ben Taylor, the farm's vice president. "He'll be the first son of Unbridled's Song to stand at the farm. Like his sire, he is a great-looking horse who established a new record in the sales ring. He was an outstanding undefeated two-year-old with brilliant speed who was bred for the classics." After debuting with a 10 3/4-length victory at Keeneland in 2005, Half Ours, racing for the Joneses and Barry K. Schwartz, won the Three Chimneys Juvenile S. at Churchill in stakes-record time. The Joneses purchased the colt outright for $6.1 million at the 2006 Keeneland November Breeding Stock Sale--the highest price ever paid for a horse in training sold at Keeneland. Half Ours returned in 2007 to win the GII Richter Scale Breeders' Cup Sprint Championship H. at Gulfstream. On the board in six of seven starts, he retires with five wins and earnings of $319,680. "Half Ours was a really special horse, he just did everything so effortlessly," commented trainer Todd Pletcher. "He has all that you would look for in a successful stallion: speed, precocity, class, great looks, commercial appeal and pedigree. We have his full brother and we have high hopes that he can carry on the family name." Half Ours will be available for inspection during the Keeneland September Sale. A stud fee has not yet been announced.

RAHY COLT TOPS DBS DAY TWO

Solid trade continued throughout the second day of DBS' St Leger Yearling sale at Doncaster yesterday as another nine lots broke through the six-figure barrier, taking the tally two beyond last year's sale total of 14. Top-lot honors went to Grove Stud's hip 205, a Rahy colt who was knocked down to bloodstock agent Richard O'Gorman for 175,000 guineas. The price represented a significant pinhooking profit on the $70,000 outlay at last year's Keeneland November Sale. Cont. p5

Harrison One Kool Cat

Three years ago, when longtime owner Michael Harrison was asked by his friend Joseph Trunfio why Harrison wanted him as a partner to buy a few race horses, Harrison replied, "Because you've got the one thing I don't have: good luck."

On the eve of the GI Spinaway S. at Saratoga, Harrison's acknowledgment of his own deficiencies, and the subsequent remedy in the form of the neophyte Trunfio, seems to have paid dividends.

On Sunday, Koolmen Racing Stables, the nom de course of Harrison and Trunfio's operation, will be represented in this year's most important race for two-year-old fillies at the Saratoga meet by A to the Croft (Menifee), a Ken McPeck-trained filly who will be one of the favorites for the seven-furlong Spinaway. A to the Croft, a 3/4-length maiden winner at 21-1 odds at Churchill July 8, indicated that she could mix it up with the best in her division with a very good runner-up effort in the GII Adirondack S. at the Spa Aug. 15, where she was beaten 3/4 of a length by More Happy (Vindication).

Harrison, 58, has been involved in racing for the better part of two decades now, and has enjoyed mostly modest success with a handful of minor stakes winners running in his name, or in the name of a partnership, Alien Farm, that he operates with another friend. A win in the Spinaway would be a significant achievement for the attorney from New Jersey and, he says, he's already loving what's been an admittedly brief ride with his promising young filly.

BACK-TO-BACK STAKES WINNERS FOR STORMY ATLANTIC

On August 25th, MGSW & Course Record-Setter QUITE A BRIDE boosts her earnings to over half a million dollars with her win in the $100,000 Ellis Park BC Turf.

Later that day, 2YO MAYA'S STORM runs 6F in 1:09 1/5 while dominating the Iowa Cradle S. by 7 1/2 lengths, for his 2nd Stakes win in 4 lifetime starts.

For his partner Joe Trunfio, the head of Atlantic Health Systems in New Jersey, it's a little different.

"I'm not sure Joe fully understands just how difficult it is to get a horse to this level," Harrison laughed. "I've been in the horse business for quite a while and have had lots and lots of horses. I think I've had two horses run in Grade III's and do nothing in them, so obviously it's very special to have a horse running in a Grade I, especially one that, hopefully, is going to be a contender."

A to the Croft is actually just the third horse that Koolmen Racing has raced. Its first, Blazing Bliss, a daughter of Honour and Glory out of a half to five stakes winners, was claimed for $15,000 out of her debut.

"She was claimed because she had a pretty nice pedigree and they wanted her for a broodmare," Harrison explained. "She never ran again."

The second Koolmen runner was Purr Three, a well-named Tale of the Cat--Par Three filly who cost $75,000 and who failed to get to the winner's circle in five career starts.

"And here we are with this horse," Harrison said. "She's the only one we have racing right now. We do have a few more, a yearling and broodmare and one other, but she's the only one at the track."

Harrison's involvement in racing dates back to the early 1970's, when he fell love with the sport after watching Secretariat become the first Triple Crown winner since Citation with his 31-length romp in the Belmont S. But it took a while before he had the resources to jump into the ownership game.

"Once I did, though, I got right in," Harrison said. That was in the early 1990's.

Today, Harrison owns about 20 horses, both alone and in partnership. That lot includes broodmares, weanlings and yearlings. Moreover, four years ago, having served on its board, Harrison was elected president of the Thoroughbred Breeders' Association of New Jersey "I do a little bit of everything," he said.

As a booster of the New Jersey breeding program, Harrison two weeks ago happily watched the juvenile filly Sammy Van Ammy (Van Nistelrooy), whom he bred in the Garden State under Alien Farm and sold as a two-year-old for $33,000 at FTMMAY, run a very good second in the Junior Champion S. at Monmouth. A New Jersey-bred half-sister to Sammy Van Ammy, by Defrere, is slated to sell at Keeneland September as hip 5441.

Probably Harrison's best runner before A to the Croft was Alien Strike, the first he purchased with Allen Furst, the other half of Alien Farm, about 15 years ago.

"We bought her off a friend, and she developed into a stakes winner," Harrison related. "That's probably the worst thing that can ever happen to you, because you believe the business is easy--and it's not. But it was a lot of fun having a stakes winner as Alien's first horse.

"The next stakes horse I had after that was in 2000, 2001, and I haven't had one since."

If A to the Croft's effort in the Adirondack is anything to go by, it won't be long before Harrison is enjoying another stakes win. For that he thanks--in addition to the good luck of Trunfio--trainer Ken McPeek.

"Kenny made the recommendation on this horse and asked me if I wanted to buy her," Harrison explained. "He sent me a photo of her and I really liked the horse--there's really nothing not to like. She's a really nice-looking horse with good conformation. And Kenny sold her to me for pretty much what he bought her at."

A $45,000 Keeneland November weanling in 2005, A to the Croft was knocked down to McPeek for $55,000 out of the September sale a year later.

Harrison, who has had a lengthy relationship with Philly Park-based trainer Freddy Velazquez, added McPeek as a trainer about two years ago.

"I'm extremely happy with Kenny," said Harrison. "He's got a combination of things that you really need in a trainer. Number one is that he's a very good horseman and cares very much about the horses. He's got a great farm for them to train at, with paddocks they can be let out in, so when they're not at the track the horses aren't in stalls 23 hours a day. Number two, he communicates very well with the owners, and he doesn't have too many horses. Cont. p3

"You take the big trainers who have stables all over, I can't believe that they know what each horse is doing, and basically you have an assistant training for you, and that's not what I wanted," Harrison continued. "Kenny knows what they're all doing and is on top of it. That's really big. I've been very lucky with him and Freddy as trainers, but not so much with the horses I've bought. Hopefully this filly can make up for some of that."

Perhaps what's most exciting for Harrison is the possibility of having a runner in the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies, which is being contested in his backyard this year at Monmouth Park.

"The timing would just be unbelievable that, if we were lucky to have a Breeders' Cup horse, it's a Monmouth this year," said Harrison. "That would be very special."

A good effort Sunday would likely stamp A to the Croft's ticket the Breeders' Cup, which for Harrison and Trunfio would be, well, pretty kool.

Oh, and when asked about the name of their moniker via email, the self-deprecating Harrison responded, "Koolmen is the result of two very korny guys looking for a kool name for their stable."

SARATOGA SCENE

Maimonides Preps for Hopeful

Zayat Stables's Maimonides (Vindication), impressive 11-length winner of his Aug. 8 debut at Saratoga, worked four furlongs over the main track yesterday in :46 3/5. The drill was the best of 41 at the distance. The Bob Baffert trainee is aiming for Monday's GI Hopeful S. "He went very well," Baffert said yesterday. "He stepped it up today. He broke off behind a horse, took some dirt, zipped around there and galloped out strong." Also aiming for the Hopeful, GI Sanford S. winner Ready's Image (More Than Ready) breezed furlongs Monday in 1:01 3/5. "Ready's Image has been training very well and I expect him to run well," trainer Todd Pletcher said.

Rags to Riches Back to Normal

GI Belmont S. winner Rags to Riches (A.P. Indy), who missed a work Monday with an elevated temperature, appears to have recovered and is expected to return to the track this morning at Saratoga. "Her temperature is normal, her blood work is normal, she rode under tack this morning and she will go back to the track tomorrow," confirmed trainer Todd Pletcher. "She'll probably breeze on Saturday or Sunday and then I'll make a decision on whether that's going have her ready for the [Sept. 8 GI] Ruffian, or if I need one more work, to have her ready for the [Sept. 15 GI] Gazelle."

☆ NEWS TODAY ☆

EI OUTBREAK SPREADS IN AUSTRALIA The worst possible scenario has occurred in Australia, with a Thoroughbred in work testing positive for equine influenza (EI) virus overnight, thwarting all encouraging movements in Australia. Racing in NSW is completely crippled and the breeding season is set to collapse as well. Following the positive case, racing in New South Wales has been suspended indefinitely, with no expectations that racing in the premier state will be conducted for several weeks. Horses at Randwick are again confined to their boxes and there is no movement from their stables whatsoever. A second sample from the working Thoroughbred has been sent to an independent source for another reading. The horse, a four-year-old gelding, came from the Anthony Cummings' Randwick stable. Ray Murrihy, the Chief Steward of RacingNSW, is puzzled, however, and has offered a word of encouragement. "This is a strong horse and he is on the improve and his behaviour is not consistent with that of the other horses that have returned positives to date. So I am hopeful the second tests will be negative," he said. Cummings' horse had displayed signs of high temperatures earlier this week so blood tests were taken on Tuesday evening with the samples being tested at the State Government's Elizabeth Macarthur facility at Camden. All movement of horses at Randwick racecourse and stabling has been locked down and trackwork has been banned for an indefinite period also. The upbeat mood everyone experienced yesterday when it looked like in-house racing was set to reinvigorate the sport, has been scuttled as well. Sydney's spring carnival is in major doubt and it is unlikely any NSW horses will be permitted to compete interstate for some time.

Richard O’Gorman outlasted Dermot Farrington for the January-foaled chestnut, who is out of a full sister to Listed Montrose Fillies’ S. victress Silver Colours from the family of Personal Ensign and Personal Flag. Hot freshman sire Acclamation (GB), responsible for the opening session’s topper, continued to attract strong interest, with Raven House Stables’ hip 205 his most sought-after offering of the day. The first of three lots to make 130,000 guineas, he was secured by Angus Gold acting on behalf of Sheikh Hamdan bin Rashid Al Maktoum’s Shadwell Estates. The bay colt was another pinhooking success, having cost a mere 14,000 guineas at last year’s Tattersalls December Foal Sale. The second-highest price of the day was matched by Blandford Bloodstock for hip 325, an April-foaled daughter of Invincible Spirit (Ire). Offered by Jamie Railton, she was the session’s top-priced filly and will join Simon Callaghan, who is due to take over the reins of father Neville’s Newmarket barn at the end of the season. The trio of 130,000-guineas purchases was rounded out by Edward Lynam, acting on behalf of Lady O’Reilly, for hip 335. Consigned by John Deer’s Oakgrove Stud, the bay son of Kyllachy (GB) and the speedy multiple stakes winner Palacegate Episode (Ire) had the added benefit of dual Group 1 winner Dutch Art (GB) on the page. Although not as spectacular as last year’s corresponding session, overall returns inched ahead, with aggregate up almost 3 percent to 11,005,100 guineas. The cumulative average and median experienced similar improvement, with the former advancing 3.5 percent and the latter 3.7 percent. Today’s final session commences at the earlier time of 11 a.m. Catalogues and results may be viewed at www.dbsauctions.com.

NEW ZEALAND REACTING TO AUSTRALIAN EI SITUATION

In response to concerns about the Equine Influenza discovered in Australia, New Zealand Thoroughbred Racing announced yesterday that Australian riders and stable employees would not be permitted to ride or work in New Zealand until further notice. According to a statement issued by NZTR, the decision "has been taken on account of the Equine Influenza (EI) outbreak in Australia, specifically the increase in the number of confirmed cases in New South Wales and Queensland and the extension to the ban on the conduct of race meetings in those two states. NZTR is consulting with MAF [Ministry of Agriculture and Farming] and the relevant authorities in Australia to ensure all appropriate measures are in place to prevent a possible incursion of EI to New Zealand through any racing industry employers or employees, including freelance riders, and that Risk Assessors at all borders are fully briefed on appropriate border measures and responses. All equipment associated with horses coming from Japan and Australia must be treated. Examples of equipment include saddles, bridles, bits, reins, covers, grooming accessories, veterinary equipment and horse floats."

Criminologist hinted at some serious ability when she defeated subsequent GSW Makderah (Ire) by five lengths over the Keeneland turf course Apr. 27, but followed with a sixth in the Foresta S. at Belmont Park June 9. Pointed for an allowance at this meet, the homebred came from just off the pace to post a head success Aug. 9. With regular rider Edgar Prado opting off Amansara, Criminologist saved ground as Miss Belga Bound (Boundary) set a swift pace. Angled out while gaining on the turn, Criminologist struck the front approaching the eighth pole and pulled away as Amansara turned in a mild late run.

Training to Resume at Santa Anita:

Santa Anita, which has been closed for training during installation of its new Cushion Track, will reopen on Sept. 4. "We are very excited to welcome our horsemen back," said Santa Anita President Ron Charles. "This has been a major undertaking and we are very confident that this new Cushion Track surface is going to satisfy everyone's needs and expectations. The project has gone according to plan and I think our fans are going to love it. We expect that the surface will be safe, fair and consistent, day in and day out. This truly is the dawn of a new day in horse racing here in Southern California." The Santa Anita stable area, closed since July 5, will reopen on Sept. 1 and the sand-based training track will open Sept. 2. Racing returns to Arcadia Sept. 26 with the opening of the 39th annual Oak Tree meeting.

Williamson, Zamarripa Join Oak Tree Board:

Warren Williamson and Robert Zamarripa, Sr have joined the Oak Tree Racing Association's Board of Directors. "Our board is extremely pleased to fill the vacancies created in recent months by the untimely passing of Trudy McCaffery and Bob Lewis with a pair of horsemen who display the same passion for our sport and who long have worked to improve the lifestyle of residents in the Santa Anita area through efforts in charitable and community projects." Williamson became involved in Thoroughbred racing as an owner in the late 1960s and he currently owns the unbeaten filly Nashoba's Key. Zamarripa is part-owner of multiple stakes winner Jungle Prince, third in last year's GI Ancient Title Breeders' Cup H. at Oak Tree last fall.

NTRA REPORT FROM Capitol Hill

Congress Returns Next Tuesday

Congress returns from its August recess to a full slate of legislative business. One of the most controversial issues will be the Administration's anticipated request for an additional $50 billion for the war in Iraq.

Numerous appropriations bills also await passage as current government funding expires on September 30. With Democrats in control of the House and the Senate, continued clashes are expected between the Congress and the President over spending levels and funding priorities.

A protracted fight looms over continuation of a popular children's health insurance program (S-CHIP). The House and Senate have passed very different bills and the Administration intends to veto any expansion of the program, a key aim of Democrats.

The House has passed its reauthorization of agricultural programs in a comprehensive Farm Bill. The Senate will take up the bill in the near future. Controversy has enveloped the bill as parochial interests compete for federal dollars.

TREEKO (IRE) (Alhaarth {Ire}) represents the Joseph Joyce-David Wachman combination responsible for half-brother He's A Decoy (Ire), who hit the board in this term's G1 Irish 2000 Guineas at The Curragh. Making his first start here, the half-brother to G1 July Cup third and sire Danetime (Ire) faces a choicely bred cast. It includes Listed Ad Valorem S. runner-up Achill Island (Ire) (Sadler's Wells), who hails from the family of Royal Academy and Storm Cat; and Final Flashback (Ire) (Singspiel {Ire}), who is out of a sister to Twilight Agenda.

ST LEGER UPDATE Aidan O'Brien's Ballydoyle juggernaut is responsible for half the field of 14 remaining possibles for the Sept. 15 G1 St Leger after the latest forfeits were unveiled yesterday. Soldier of Fortune (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}), the nine-length winner of the G1 Irish Derby; and Ebor H. runner up Honolulu (Ire) (Montjeu {Ire}) head the trainer's team of seven for the world's oldest Classic. However, Sheikh Hamdan bin Rashid Al Maktoum's G1 Derby S. third Aqaleem (GB) (Sinndar {Ire}) is a doubtful participant after trainer Marcus Tregoney revealed he had met with a training setback. "I'm not sure exactly what the problem is, but it appears that he has pulled muscles in his hindquarters during some routine work and he will undergo tests," Tregoney told PA Sport. "It is very unfortunate, but these things happen in racing."

MILK IT MICK TO STAND IN NEWMARKET Milk it Mick (GB) (Millkom {GB}--Lunar Music {GB}, by Komaite), a winner at the highest level on both sides of the Atlantic, will stand at Lone Oak Stud in Newmarket next year, according to Racing Post. The fledgling operation is owned by former Plantation Stud manager David Scott and veterinarian Sarah Stoneham. "We're delighted to be standing Milk it Mick, he's a very attractive horse and he's tough," Scott told the trade daily. "He was a very good two-year-old and he came back from injury to win a Grade I, beating both Cacique (Ire) and Aragorn (Ire), which demonstrates his toughness and durability." A shock 33-1 winner of the 2003 G1 Dewhurst S. at the end of a 12-race juvenile campaign, Milk it Mick was transferred from trainer Jamie Osborne to embark on a Stateside career under the supervision of Jim Cassidy. He remained in the ownership of Paul Dixon and added to his portfolio when garnering last term's G1 Frank E Kilroe H. at Santa Anita, but was retired earlier this year after suffering a recurrence of an old leg injury.
