A CONVINCING CLOSING ARGUMENT

Lawyer Ron (Langfuhr) didn't threaten the track record of 1:46 3/5 he set in the July 28 GI Whitney H., but he easily handled the seven foes sent against him in the GI Woodward S. yesterday. Carrying 126 pounds, eight more than last time, the chestnut pressed Wanderin Boy (Seeking the Gold) through a half in :46.42. He took over after six panels in 1:10.45 and was all alone down the lane, scoring by 8 1/4 lengths over his hot and dirty rivals. "He was picking up a lot of weight on a track that wasn't as fast as on Whitney day," trainer Todd Pletcher said, defending the final time of 1:48 3/5. "I thought he was every bit as good today." With the win, Lawyer Ron raised his batting average to .500, with 12 wins from 24 starts. "I think he has established himself as the top older horse in training," Pletcher said. "Now we have to see how he matches up against the three-year-olds." Cont. p2

MIDNIGHT RUN

He was making his first start in 4 1/2 months, but Midnight Lute (Real Quiet) looked anything but rusty in the GI Forego S. at Saratoga yesterday. Bet down to 2-1, the four-year-old tracked High Finance (Talk Is Money) and Attila's Storm (Forest Wildcat) through an opening half in :45.24. He powered to the lead as they rolled out of the turn, opened up by five at midstretch and had no trouble holding a determined Benny The Bull (Lucky Lionel) at bay for a 2 1/4-length score. Jockey Edgar Prado injured an ankle when he was thrown galloping out after the seventh race, but Shaun Bridgmohan proved an able substitute. "You don't have as much time to study the race," said Bridgmohan. "I just went out there and did what [trainer Bob Baffert] asked me to do." As for what's next, Baffert said, "I don't think he's a [Breeders' Cup] Sprint horse. Three-quarters might be too short for him." Cont. p3

AUSSIE STALLION QUARANTINE EXTENDED

The 43 stallions at the Eastern Creek facility in Sydney, including top sires Encosta de Lago (Aus) and Elusive Quality, will remain in quarantine indefinitely in the wake of news that two more of the population have tested positive for equine influenza. A third stallion is classified as suspect. There are now seven stallions in quarantine with EI, according to a statement issued by Thoroughbred Breeders' Australia Saturday. The stallions were originally due at stud farms about Aug. 23.

Solid Sophomore Blossoms at Four...

Lawyer Ron looked to be a Triple Crown threat last spring, reeling off victories in the Southwest S.,

Adam Coglianese

GIII Rebel S. and GII Arkansas Derby. Owner/breeder James T. Hines Jr. passed away in the run-up to the GI Kentucky Derby, but the colt went to the gate on the first Saturday in May, only to finish 12th. He headed to the shelf after that experience, returning to take Aug. 26 St. Louis Derby. Connections opted to turn the colt over to

Todd Pletcher after a second-place finish in the Sept. 23 GII Super Derby. The move did not look promising after a ninth-place finish in the GI Breeders' Cup Classic, but Lawyer Ron has been on the improve this season. He followed up on wins in a Gulfstream allowance test in February and the GII Oaklawn H. in April with a third in the May 28 GI Met Mile H. The four-year-old was beaten a neck by the surprising Gottcha Gold in the June 23 GIII Salvator Mile S., but came to life at the Spa in his last two appearances. Pletcher is looking at one more start before this year's edition of the Classic at Monmouth Park Oct. 27. "There is a chance he'll meet some of those [three-year-olds] in the [GI Jockey Club Gold Cup at Belmont Park Sept. 30], if we decided to go there," he said. The "El" You Say...

Lawyer Ron's dam, Donation, was purchased by James Hines Jr. for $11,000 at the 1996 KESEP sale. She did little on the track, placing twice in four starts for earnings of just $8,155. Her first foal, Christamon (Tremolino), won just once in 16 starts, and her second, Stetter Jr (Tejano Run) ended his career as a $5,000 claimer, but did earn $238,728. Lawyer Ron came along in 2003, and Hines sent the mare back through the ring at the FTKDEC sale later that year, but she RNA'd at $1,000. He held on to her and sent her to his own stallion, the Shadwell homebred Elhayq (Ire) (Nashwan), who had captured the 2000 GII Bowling Green H. Donation produced a filly, the unraced two-year-old Ron's Lady, who was purchased by High Point Stables for $20,000 at last year's FTKJUL sale. The mare went back to Elhayq in 2005 and foaled another half-sister to Lawyer Ron last spring. The bay was bred to Smarty Jones in 2006, then headed to the Keeneland November sale, where she was bought by Cecil Seaman, agent, for $250,000. The resulting foal was a colt.

Midnight Lute won three of his first four starts, taking an allowance test at Del Mar last August before shipping to Keeneland to win the Oct. 13 GIII Perryville S. The dark bay capped the season with a third in the Dec. 26 GI Malibu S., then stretched out to 1 1/16 miles for the Jan. 13 GII San Fernando BC S. and was second by a nose to Awesome Gem. Fourth in the Feb. 3 GII Strub S. at nine panels, he filled the same spot when dropped back to seven-eighths for the Apr. 14 GII Commonwealth BC S. in Lexington, and had not been seen since. The colt underwent two surgeries to correct breathing problems after his last start and they appeared to do the job. The final time for the Forego was three ticks off the track record. "This horse is very deserving of a Grade I," trainer Bob Baffert said. "He's been a great horse from Day 1. It has been unfortunate that he's had the breathing issues. I've been waiting for a race like this. He needed to show off, and he did it at the right place--Saratoga." Click for the brisnet.com chart or the free brisnet.com catalogue-style pedigree. Precious Kitten joined the ranks of millionaires with this score. First or second in her last eight starts, the dark bay filly earned her first win of 2007 in the May 19 GIII Gallorette S. at Pimlico. Second after setting the early pace in the July 6 GII CashCall Mile, she shadowed the leader in the Aug. 4 GI John C. Mabee H. at Del Mar before driving home a 1 1/2-length victress. The four-year-old was sent off the 1-2 chalk to repeat. Jockey Julien Leparoux sent Precious Kitten right to the lead through fractions of :47.28 and 1:11.06. The pair had a length on the field as they turned into the stretch, but had to pull out all the stops to beat the late-running Black Mamba to the wire. "She broke very sharply...but she was relaxed and I just let her go along," Leparoux said. "I had some pressure, but I never felt like I was not in control. I trusted her all the way." It was a close one, but Nobiz Like Shobiz ran his turf record to two-for-two in this head-bobbing finish. The winner of the GII Remsen S. at two and the GI Wood Memorial S. and GIII Holy Bull S. earlier this year, the bay weakened to be 10th in the May 5 GI Kentucky Derby. He stepped off the Triple Crown trail at that point and took a short break, returning to be second behind Any Given Saturday in the July 4 GII Dwyer S. It was a solid enough performance, but trainer Barclay Tagg decided a change was in order. Nobiz made his next appearance in the Aug. 6 GII Hall of Fame S. on the Saratoga lawn and outfinished Marcavelly for a half-length score. Favored to make it two in a row, he stalked soft fractions of :49.85 and 1:14.17 before taking jockey Javier Castellano to the lead as they raced out of the turn. Elizabeth Valando's homebred put away Strike a Deal at the sixteenth pole, but had to dig in as Twilight Meteor came at him in the waning yards. Wicked Style scored by 1 1/2 lengths going six furlongs in his debut over this course July 21 and was thrown right to the wolves here. With Robby Albarado aboard, he vied for the lead through fractions of :23.58, :46.78 and 1:11.36 and dug down deep to outgame Riley Tucker to the wire. The winner was hard to handle in the post parade. "He finally relaxed for me the last couple of minutes [of the post parade]," Albarado said. "Circumstances forced me to keep him closer than I wanted early. He's a nice colt." Click for the brisnet.com chart. Video, sponsored by Taylor Made.

Icy Atlantic looked like a candidate for the Oct. 27 GI Breeders' Cup Mile as he set a new course record of 1:32.42, but trainer Todd Pletcher may not take that route. Assistant Anthony Sciametta Jr., who handles the string at Monmouth, speculated that the Breeders' Cup might be asking too much. "I'm not sure where he'll go next," Sciametta said. "Todd knows it all. But I don't know if he'd do that to this horse." Purchased by owner Jim Scatuorchio as a rabbit for Englsih Channel, Icy Atlantic tried his luck in the GI Breeders' Cup Turf last year, but tired badly and was beaten more than 40 lengths. The bay was on his own this year, and made the most of his chances. Second in the Jan. 27 Sunshine Millions Turf, he took a Santa Anita allowance Mar. 3 and made it two in a row in the Apr. 7 GII Arcadia H. He could do no better than eighth when raised up to Grade I company for the May 5 Woodford Reserve Turf Classic, but improved to be second in the June 2 Opening Verse S. at Churchill and was coming off a troubled fourth in the Aug. 5 GIII Oceanport S. Bet down to 4-5, Icy Atlantic trailed early, but finished well to catch Touched By Madness. Click for the brisnet.com chart. Video, sponsored by Taylor Made.

Raven's Pass made giant strides following a debut success at 20-1 at Yarmouth July 17 to capture the Listed Winkfield S. by five lengths at Ascot 11 days later. Moving up to group company here, the homebred lowered the juvenile track record without being touched by the whip. Trapped wide on the heels of the early leaders, the chestnut eased stylishly to the head of affairs passing the quarter pole before opening up in impressive fashion. "He has progressed from race to race," jockey Jimmy Fortune said. "We had planned to make the running, but he was so relaxed I was happy to get a lead. He's very genuine--he's like a three-year-old against two-year-olds." Trainer John Gosden added, "We've always liked this horse and I was very excited by his work on Tuesday. He made all at Ascot, but sat off the pace today and picked up in great style to win in a good time. He's an exciting horse and we'll look forward to either the G1 Dewhurst S. [at Newmarket Oct. 20] or G1 Prix Jean-Luc Lagardere [at Longchamp Oct. 7]. He hasn't had any hard races yet and he's a lovely big, strapping horse with a good attitude." Defending her title in this Group 1 event, Seachange sat at midfield early before unleashing a powerhouse finish to win easily. "Have a good look at her, she's the wonder mare of New Zealand," said the course commentator as she raced clear to win by over a length. The favourite for the race, she pushed her earnings past NZ$1,100,000 and is now on target to clash with Miss Finland (Aus) in the A$3.5-million G1 W.S. Cox Plate in late October.

TRAVEL BAN LIFTED IN TIME FOR "FINLAND"

An 11th-hour decision by both the South Australian and Victorian governments Friday afternoon that lifted the travel ban in those states allowed champion Miss Finland (Aus) (Redoute's Choice {Aus}) to leave her home base in South Australia Friday night and ship to Caulfield to contest yesterday's star-studded G2 Memsies S. The seven-furlong test boasted nine Group 1 winners in the 13-horse field. The eight-hour trip proved no obstacle for four-year-old Miss Finland, who came with a strong late run to catch Haradasun (Aus) (Fusaichi Pegasus) near the line for the victory. The win was Miss Finland's 11th from 18 starts, and she now has earned A$4,240,000. "She's a champion, no doubt now," said co-owner John Messara, who is considering the prospect of racing the filly in the U.S. next year.

Miss Finland www.stallions.com.au

Selling Point...

The last two winners of the GI Spinaway S. were graduates of the Fasig-Tipton February Sale. Appealing Zophie brought $150,000 from Heiligbrodt Racing in 2006, and Adieu sold for $300,000 to the Coolmore conglomerate in 2005. Representing that auction this year is the $1-million baby More Happy (Vindication). A $725,000 KEESEP RNA, the daughter of Canadian champion sprinter Apelia (Cool Victor) worked an eighth in :10 1/5 (video) for agent Eddie Woods at the under-tack show to attract the seven-figure bid from Hill N Dale Bloodstock. She broke her maiden by a neck at Del Mar in July and, after trainer Bob Baffert moved a string of horses to Saratoga, made it two-for-two in the Aug. 15 GII Adirondack S. (video). A to the Croft (Menifee) closed to within 3/4 of a length in that test, but Baffert explained the margin was deceiving, “[Rafael Bejarano] asked her away from the gate, and I told him to just sit on her from there,” he said.

Where There’s Smoke...

Irish Smoke (Smoke Glacken) is also a product of the two-year-old sales, going for $285,000 at OBS March after breezing a quarter in :21 2/5 (video) for Scanlon Training Center, agent. She made her first start going five panels at the Spa Aug. 2 and was hand-ridden to a 2 1/4-length success (video). The gray stretches out to seven furlongs, but trainer Patrick Biancone said, “I’m cautiously optimistic. [It’s] a big jump, but she was able to relax in her first race. Some horses are professional from the day you get them in the barn.” From the family of graded winners Added Elegance, Added Asset and Added Gold, Irish Smoke worked a half in :47 Monday.

Looking for the Three-Peat...

Heiligbrodt Racing won the Spinaway with homebred Cashier’s Dream in 2001 and with Appealing Zophie last year. They rely on homebred Blitzing (Montbrook) this time. The bay broke her maiden in her debut at Churchill Downs June 17 and just missed in the July 25 GIII Schuylerville S. at Saratoga, finishing third by a neck. Heiligbrodt also bred Predate (Pure Precision), but had that filly claimed for $50,000 after a second-place finish at Churchill June 8. Now handled by trainer Rick Dutrow Jr., she bested $75,000 maiden claimers by 4 1/4 lengths Aug. 3, earning a solid 84 Beyer.

Clive Brittain, who saddled Sayyedati (GB) to win this in 1992, ships in the filly he recently compared to that stellar performer, Albabilia. She graduated in a strong Ascot maiden July 27 and enters this test off a victory in Newmarket's G3 Sweet Solera Aug. 11. "Nobody should be surprised at the progress she has made and I think she goes there with every chance," Brittain told PA Sport. "It's a Group 1 race and it looks like there is a very solid favourite, but I think our filly has improved again." Ennistown Stud's Saoirse Abu, trained by Jim Bolger, upset Henrythenavigator in the G1 Phoenix S. going six furlongs three weeks ago. Blinkers helped bring about a dramatic improvement on the form of her previous three starts, which included a disappointing fifth behind Listen in the Saoire.

Moyglare Stud's Mad About You will carry the sponsors' silks for the Dermot Weld stable. She beat Solas Na Greine on debut at Leopardstown June 13 before splitting Triskel (GB) and Saoirse Abu when runner-up in the Listed Silver Flash S. back there last time July 18. "She's a nice filly, but it's a big challenge as always, so we'll just have to see how she gets on," Weld told PA Sport.

8	2	Axxos (Ger)	Monsun (Ger)	Schiergen	121
9	8	First Stream (Ger)	Lomitas (GB)	Hofer	121

Last year's hero Prince Flori returns after an unsuccessful tilt at Ascot's G1 King George VI & Queen Elizabeth S. July 28, in which he failed to beat a rival behind the impressive Dylan Thomas (Ire). He previously finished third behind Mountain High in the June 24 G1 Grand Prix de Saint-Cloud following another win at this track in the May 20 G2 Grosser Mercedes-Benz-Preis. Mountain High holds strong claims on his 1 1/2-length defeat of Mandesha (Fr) in the Saint-Cloud feature. That represented a career-best and proved his need for a left-handed circuit, having thrown away a winning chance when veering right and finishing third in the June 3 G2 Grand Prix de Chantilly. Last year's G1 Preis von Europa and G2 Great Voltigeur S. winner Youmzain returned to finish third in the G1 Tattersalls Gold Cup at The Curragh May 27 before finishing fifth in the Grand Prix de Saint-Cloud.

He was most recently second, beaten four lengths in the King George. "He's been working exceptionally well and I think he's certainly in front of Sir Michael Stoute's horse," Bruce Raymond, racing manager to owner Jaber Abdullah, told PA Sport. "If he runs like he did in the King George, you would have to be pretty confident he would win, and he certainly should be sent off favourite." Of the sophomores, Adlerflug represents the Classic form, having won the G1 Deutsches Derby by an impressive seven lengths in Hamburg's mud July 1. Axxos will provide a pointer to the Arc claims of Zambezi Sun (GB), who beat him by a comprehensive five-length margin in Longchamp's G1 Grand Prix de Paris last time July 14.

Worldly rallied to win his stateside bow, a Santa Anita allowance Apr. 6, and made it two in a row in the May 19 GIII Will Rogers S. at Hollywood. The gray gelding continued his streak with a game victory in the June 23 GIII Cinema BC H, but fell 1 1/4 lengths short when second behind Medici Code in the Aug. 11 GII La Jolla H. He could turn the tables at equal weights and with an extra sixteenth of a mile here.

Medici Code was perfect in three starts on the all-weather in Britain last winter, but showed little when making his U.S. bow in the Apr. 7 GI Santa Anita Derby. A lackluster sixth behind Tiago, the chestnut gelding returned after a 3 1/2-month layoff to be second behind Knockout Artist in a division of the Ocean-side S. going a mile at Del Mar July 18. He was getting six pounds from Worldly last time out. Knockout Artist is perfect in two turf starts and should appreciate the added furlong.

EVER A FRIEND (g, 4, Crafty Friend--Never Is a Promise, by Capote) rolled a pair of fours, first in a five-furlong event over the Delaware turf July 8 and then in a six-furlong test at Belmont Park, but was coming into this off a tough-luck runner-up effort over course and distance Aug. 9. Drawn in the 10 hole, the $35,000 FTKJUL yearling purchase was angled to the inside to save ground. He remained at the rail into the stretch, was pulled out leaving the eighth pole and ran down favored Southern Prince (Hennessy) to win by 2 1/4 lengths. Lifetime Record: 13-3-2-1, $135,948. OWNERS MANUAL (c, 3, Belong to Me--Mamaison Miss {SW & GSP, $144,544}, by Mamaison), fourth to Cowtown Cat in a Jan. 14 Gulfstream allowance test, returned from a six-month absence to post a good-looking 3 1/2-length victory at Belmont Park July 7. Switched to the turf for his latest, the dark bay was a respectable fourth in the restricted one-mile Glow S. Aug. 4. Back to a main-track sprint for this, the $14,000 FTKOCT yearling acquisition was outpaced for the opening half-mile, edged out four wide for the stretch drive and found the line a half-length to the good. Vitruvius (E Dubai), favored at 2-1, ran what can only be called a curious race. Erratic down the backstretch, he appeared to throw in the towel when asked in the stretch, but re-rallied and closed well to just miss. Lifetime Record: 5-3-0-0, $111,991. EQUITABLE (c, 3, A.P. Indy--Equilibrate, by Gone West) lost his first two starts by a combined margin of 3/4 of a length. The chestnut debuted with a second-place finish over the Belmont lawn July 7, then finished fourth at the Spa Aug. 11. Favored at 6-5 to break through here, he was settled in third, rallied to gain a short lead in the stretch and outfought 20-1 shot Stalingrad (Glitterman) to win it by a nose. Godolphin Buys AccountfortheGold:

Looking for a horse to race at the International Racing Carnival at Nad Al Sheba next year, Godolphin have purchased New York-bred AccountfortheGold (Successful Appeal--Accountess, by Private Account) for an undisclosed sum. "The idea was he'd be a horse that would run in the Carnival," Darley USA President Jimmy Bell told Daily Racing Form. "If he was good enough, he could compete at the end of the meet as well." The five-year-old captured the GIII Stuyvesant H. last year and added wins in the Gander S. and Kings Point H. this season. He was runner-up in the July 22 Evan Shipman H. at Belmont Park last time out. Most recently owned by Winning Move Stable and Harold Lerner and trained by Gary Contessa, AccountfortheGold compiled a record of 21-7-6-4 and earned $532,467. Smokey Stover has risen to the top of the sprint division this year and now has a victory at the host site of this year's Breeders' Cup. The dark bay celebrated his coming-out party in the Sunshine Millions Sprint at Santa Anita Jan. 27, winning by 3 1/4 lengths, and followed with a workmanlike success in the GIII Bay Meadows BC Sprint H. Mar. 11. He bested top California sprinter Greg's Gold by 4 1/2 lengths in the GII Portrero Grande BC H. at Santa Anita Apr. 7, but was most recently a non-threatening third in the GII Smile Sprint H. at Calder July 7. Smokey Stover dueled heads apart with Cougar Cat early on as Park Avenue Ball stalked a relatively moderate pace three wide. The odds-on chalk got clear into the stretch and edged clear. "He finished well and I was happy to see that," commented winning trainer Greg Gilchrist. "I usually give it 48 hours before making plans, but the Breeders' Cup is the plan right now." The conditioner added that the winner could have one more prep prior to the Oct. 27 GI TVG Breeders' Cup Sprint.

Fourth in the Denise Rhudy Memorial S. over the Delaware turf course June 30, Lemon Drop Mom was third in a July 17 optional tagger over the main track, but put it all together in her latest with a 4 1/4-length allowance victory. Narrowly favored over Coy Coyote, Lemon Drop Mom stalked the pace from the inside for six furlongs, as favored Greenstreet (Street Cry {Ire}) set the pace. Angled off the rail to go after the leader into the stretch, the homebred took command a furlong out and was just able to hold Coy Coyote at the finish.

Honey Honey Honey, a debut winner over this track in May, was third behind Big City Man in the July 7 Criterium S. before returning to the winner's circle with a front-running allowance victory July 20. Up close to quick early fractions, the bay colt tired badly to run 10th in the Aug. 11 Dr. Fager S. won by Big City Man. Honey Honey Honey set a pressured pace, pulled clear in upper stretch and then held off the dramatic late rush of Ed the Boxer for his first stakes win. "He was game," admitted winning trainer Stanley Gold. "He showed that in his early races. Last time [in the Dr Fager], he got into that duel early, 21 and 3, and that cooked him. After the race, we found he had a lung infection." Winning jockey Juan Leyva, riding Honey Honey Honey for the first time, planned his ride perfectly. "I was worried about Ed the Boxer because I know how well he can close in the stretch, so I slowed the pace down as much as I could early and it worked out that we had plenty left to hold that one off," Leyva explained.

Asi Asi earned her diploma going five furlongs against $32,000 maiden claimers last time Aug. 10. Stretching out in distance for her stakes debut, she stalked the leader through fractions of :24.07 and :48.76, gained command on the turn for home and held the runner-up safe. "I've always liked her," trainer Henry Collazo said. "I was able to buy her that inexpensively because she was not very mature at the time and kind of walked like a giraffe. After buying her in March, we waited for her to grow into herself. As time has gone on, she has straightened out. To me, anybody can pick a good-looking, expensive horse, but I have a busman's budget with Ferrari tastes. What's next? I'll play it by ear."

Speak Wisely graduated by 3/4 of a length in her first career start June 23, but faltered to be third as the favorite in an two-turn entry-level allowance test July 21. Returned to a sprint for her latest, the Sam-Son runner was a determined runner-up to the classy Bear Now in the Aug. 11 Duchess S. Trying the turf for the first time, Speak Wisely raced close to the early pace, struck the front in upper stretch and came home a confident winner. "This filly was very sharp in the post parade today," said winning jockey Todd Kabel. "I expected her to show speed and she did that. I was able to set her off the pace and when I asked her to run she gave me a big effort. I felt her action was totally different on turf [versus Polytrack]. I think she really moves up on the turf."

Latin Rhythms remained perfect in three tries over synthetic surfaces with a convincing first stakes success in track-record time. Second in an Apr. 15 down-the-hiller at Santa Anita, he graduated at second asking sprinting over Hollywood's Cushion Track May 28. The bay added a two-turn allowance by a nose in Inglewood July 8 and was most recently a pacesetter third in the Gil LaJolla H. over the local turf Aug. 11. Latin Rhythms was caught five wide into the first turn as longshot Bad Boy led the way. Asked to go three wide on the turn, he took aim on that long-time leader past the midstretch marker and drew clear late. "I went a little wide with him, but I thought I was on much the best horse, so I rode him that way," said winning jockey Jose Valdivia Jr. "Ran down the stretch on his wrong lead and still broke the track record. That tells you how good a horse he is." Favored Noble Court (Doneraile Court) raced three wide into the stretch, but failed to mount a serious bid, finishing fifth, beaten nearly six lengths. Looking to go one better here, the even-money favorite was seventh through a half mile in :47.11, waited for racing room on the turn for home and rallied once clear to a one-length decision over 6-1 Powerofvoodoo (Unusual Heat). LAURELDEAN GALE JOINS GODOLPHIN

Laureldean Gale (Grand Slam) has been purchased by Godolphin for an undisclosed sum. Runner-up to Proviso (GB) in the Aug. 18 G3 Prix du Calvados at Deauville after winning on debut at Newmarket July 13, the juvenile filly has left Peter Chapple-Hyam's stable. "She looks a good filly, is lightly raced and may well run in our blue colours this season," Godolphin Racing Manager Simon Crisford told the Daily Mail.

Off the board in the June 10 G1 Prix de Diane Hermes at Chantilly, she was fifth in the G1 Falmouth S. back at Newmarket July 11 and fourth in Goodwood's G1 Nassau S. Aug. 4. Coming here off a sixth-place finish in the G3 Prix de la Nonette at Deauville Aug. 19, the bay raced wide tracking the early pace, made it to the front with 1 1/2 furlongs remaining and held Heaven Sent safely at bay despite veering left. "It was a lonely time out in front in the last furlong, but to be fair to her, when they came at her she pulled out more," jockey Tadgh O'Shea commented. "She's a very good filly and deserved that, as she has had solid form all year."

He settled in second off the clear leader into the straight and eased closer under pressure inside the final quarter-mile. The €31,000 TATIRE yearling kept on well to overhaul pacesetter Flight to Quality (GB) (Where or When {Ire}) in the dying strides for a half-length success. He becomes the sixth winner for his freshman sire (by Kingmambo). Lifetime Record: 2-1-1-0, £3,265. O-Mrs J Porter; B-J McElroy; T-Alan Swinbank.

Fourth on her stakes debut in the G3 Prix Chloe at Maisons-Laffitte July 1, Hapsburg occupied the same berth in the July 31 G3 Prix de Psyche at Deauville last time and seized control of this in the straight to earn a first black-type rosette. Positioned third until pushed to the front at the quarter-mile marker, she quickened clear of the chasing pack approaching the final eighth and was driven out to hold the late flourish of Mahara. "She's a progressive filly who was a little unlucky last time," said winning trainer Eric Libaud. "She has learned to settle and takes her racing very well. She's in the G1 Prix de l'Opera [at Longchamp Oct. 7], but that might be too tough for a three-year-old filly and, considering we want to keep her in training, we will decide in time where to go next."

MONSUN MANIA

Day two of Baden-Baden's Yearling Sale confirmed the status of Monsun (Ger) as one of the hottest sires on the planet when two of his three offerings sold for a combined €1.14 million. Roger Alles' IVA was celebrating after outlasting Jurgen Albrecht for the sale's topper consigned by Gestut Brummerhof as hip 173. Out of the dual listed scorer North America (Ger), the outstanding individual is from the family of the 1999 G1 Oaks d'Italia scorer Nagoya (Ger) and achieved a sale record price of €710,000. Like Shirocco (Ger) and Manduro (Ger), the most talented sons of Monsun to race, the colt will carry the colors of Baron Georg von Ullmann. Brummerhof consigned the top four colts yesterday and sold the only other progeny of the famed Gestut Schlenderhan resident for €430,000. Hip 185, a full-brother to the 2004 G3 Preis der Winterkonigin winner Sorrent (Ger), who traces back to the foundation mare Schwarzgold (Ger), will race in Sheikh Hamdan bin Rashid Al Maktoum's blue-and-white after his organization outbid trainer Samuel Sokol.

Formidable Families...

Gaining a foothold in some of Germany's best bloodstock was a priority yesterday and of the blue-blooded fillies, Union-Gestut's hip 251 could hardly have more to recommend her. By Ballylinch Stud's freshman Bachelor Duke, she is out of the 1988 G3 Killavullan S. winner Sedulous (Ire), who went on to produce So Sedulous, the dam of the mighty Shirocco (Ger) and high-class duo Subiaco (Ger) and Storm Trooper (Ger). Dr. Christoph Berglar was the name on the docket after a final bid of €280,000. Before he had secured the Monsun topper, leading buyer Alles paid €240,000 for Graf and Grafin von Stauffenberg's hip 148, a Bering (GB) full-sister to the top-class Hong Kong performer Bahamian Dancer (Ire). Her dam is a sibling of the group scorer Germano (GB), from the excellent family of Pilsudski (Ire), Fine Motion (Ire) and the high-class duo Youmzain (Ire) and Creachadoir (Ire). Hip 154, a daughter of Singspiel (Ire) out of a half to the champion Hollywood Dream (Ger), will be an asset to the Darley broodmare band after Sheikh Mohammed bin Rashid Al Maktoum's operation paid €140,000 for Gestut Hof Ittlingen's offering.

Brummerhof Blitz...

Gregor and Julia Baum's operation, which is based near Hannover, ended the sale as the clear leading vendor with nearly €1.7 million in sales. Among the contributors to that figure was hip 164, a son of Johannesburg out of a half to the 1998 G1 Champagne S. victor and sire The Groom Is Red. Blandford Bloodstock secured the colt, whose page includes the 2002 G1 Queen Elizabeth II S. winner and sire Where or When (Ire), for €160,000. Twelve lots later, Shadwell's first-season sire Nayef was in the spotlight as his colt from an esteemed Meon Valley dynasty was knocked down to Dirk Eisele's BBA Germany for €150,000. Out of a half to the very smart Ballydoyle filly Mona Lisa (GB) and Italian champion Croeso Cariad (GB), his third dam is Egon Weinfeld's incredible Reprocolor (GB).

Figures Up Across the Board...

Over two days, 14 lots were sold for €100,000 or more and the gross of €8,001,000 exceeded last year's record of €7,893,500. The average rose fractionally to €39,609, while the median of €36,440 underwent an increase of eight percent. "We are overjoyed about such a great result," BBAG's Managing Director Verena Gang said. "We did not dare hope to surpass last year's figures, especially as we had much less horses here. We would like to thank the entire team, as well as all breeders for sending us such high-quality individuals." For the company's President Karl-Dieter Ellerbracke, the focus is on improving the lot of domestic breeders and ensuring that Monsun's phenomenal success is not the whole story. "It has always been our aim, in good and bad times, to provide the German breeder with the opportunity of gaining a positive return on their investment," he concluded.
