A narrow winner first-time up in a June 3 maiden at Hollywood, the bay nosed out Leonides (Richter Scale) in the GIII Hollywood Juvenile Championship July 4 and added Del Mar's 6 1/2-furlong GII Best Pal S. Aug. 12. Trainer Richard Mandella holds a pair of aces in this year's edition of the race, including B. Wayne Hughes's Kanan Dume (Malibu Moon). The colt kicked off his career the right way, winning a 5 1/2-furlong maiden over this track July 18. The chestnut will renew his partnership with Victor Espinoza, who currently ranks third for the meet. Mandella will also saddle Dixie Chatter (Dixie Union), who failed to fire with a seventh-place finish at Hollywood June 10, but rebounded to score over the Cushion Track July 7. Georgie Boy (Tribal Rule), runner-up to Salute the Sarge in the Best Pal, showed an affinity for the surface in his third start with a professional three-length victory in the Graduation S. against state-breds July 25. With blinkers off here, the dark bay will be ridden for the first time by Garrett Gomez. Del Mar Futurity field p4

GEORGE SET FOR LONGCHAMP

Susan Magnier, Michael Tabor and Derrick Smith's George Washington (Ire) (Danehill) will run in Sunday's G1 Qatar Prix du Moulin de Longchamp, for which 19 remained at yesterday's stage. Last year's G1 2000 Guineas and G1 Queen Elizabeth II S. winner is also engaged in the previous day's G1 Tattersalls Millions Irish Champion S. at Leopardstown, but trainer Aidan O'Brien revealed to the Racing Post that the four-year-old is set to tackle the mile contest. cont. p2

SPITZER RECOMMENDS NYRA KEEP FRANCHISE; NYRA BOARD APPROVE MOU

New York Governor Eliot Spitzer will recommend that the New York Racing Association receives a 30-year extension of its franchise to operate Aqueduct, Belmont Park and Saratoga Racecourse, it was announced yesterday. Spitzer will also recommend that a separate franchise run the gaming operation, which will have up to 4,500 video-lottery terminals at Aqueduct. Spitzer's recommendations must be approved by the state legislature.

"Following my investigations a few years ago, a new leadership team at NYRA has turned the organization around to the point where it is demonstrating real results and true transparency," Spitzer said in a statement. "The strong performance of racing this season is a testament to how far NYRA has come in the last few years, and this agreement ensures that racing in New York State will be operated by experienced management. After careful consideration, I concluded that a reconstituted NYRA is the best entity to operate Thoroughbred racing in New York State. The state, in consultation with NYRA, will choose an experienced gaming operator to operate the VLT franchise at Aqueduct. This will ensure that we have the best possible operator for both the racing and the gaming franchise."

NYRA President Charles Hayward was pleased with yesterday's developments. "This isn't the New York Racing Association winning, this is I believe very strongly, the whole industry winning," Hayward said on a conference call yesterday. "This is going to be the best outcome for the next 30 years here in the state for owners, trainers, jocks, and, most importantly, the fans. We're excited about this. We know the horses have plodded across the wire, but it's still not official. We don't minimize the significance of that, and we want to do whatever we can to work with the Legislature and Assembly and Senate to move the ball. We are optimistic that we are going to get this done and we look forward to moving forward."

Senate Majority Leader Joseph Bruno has recently said that he's opposed to having the NYRA franchise split into two, but NYRA Chairman Steven Duncker was optimistic of the future after a phone conversation with Bruno yesterday. "I spoke with Joe Bruno [Tuesday] and Joe and I had a very good conversation," Duncker offered. "The one thing about Joe that's absolutely front and center is that he's a racing fan and wants what's best for racing, and I know Joe will embrace what's best for racing. He certainly didn't commit his support to this, but all he's looking for is what's best for racing, and I know he'll be a positive force as this process goes forward."

NYRA's Board of Directors approved a Memorandum of Understanding (click here) with New York State yesterday. According to the MOU, the State will provide up to $75 million to help NYRA out of bankruptcy as well as:

- The NYRA Board will be downsized from its current makeup of 28 authorized members to 19, and include the direct appointment of two members by the Governor, one by the Assembly Speaker, one by the Senate Majority Leader, one each by organizations representing Thoroughbred breeders and horsemen.
- Funds derived from VLTs be dedicated to: improving racing facilities at Aqueduct Racetrack, Belmont Park, and Saratoga Race Course; funding deficits from ongoing track operations; increasing racing purses at the three racing facilities and to create a fund for New York breeders.
- Thoroughbred racing will continue at Aqueduct along with a VLT facility; the historic character of Saratoga Race Course will be preserved; and any future development at Belmont Park will be required to be consistent with its status as one of the premier Thoroughbred racing venues in the world.
- NYRA relinquishes any claims it may have to ownership rights of the tracks and facilities.

BEATRIX ON RECOVERY MISSION William Durkan's Miss Beatrix (Ire) (Danehill Dancer {Ire}) is being aimed at Saturday's G1 Haydock Sprint Cup, trainer Kevin Prendergast announced yesterday. Last year's G1 Moyglare Stud S. and Goffs Million heroine has been out of action since finishing down the field in the G1 1000 Guineas at Newmarket May 6, and her conditioner is hoping the homebred can get back on course. "Miss Beatrix could head for the Sprint Cup," Durkan said. "She'll do a piece of work and then, depending on how she goes, I'll speak to the owners, and we'll make a decision on whether she heads to Haydock. She came back very flat and very sick after the 1000 Guineas and we had to start off again, but she seems to have come back to herself now."

JAZIL RETIRED TO SHADWELL Classic winner Jazil (Seeking the Gold--Better Than Honour, by Deputy Minister) has been retired from racing and will enter stud next year at Shadwell Farm in Lexington, Kentucky. A stud fee for the four-year-old will be announced at a later date. Rick Nichols, Shadwell's vice president and general manager, said, "After discussion with Sheikh Hamdan, we felt it in the best interest of the horse to retire him, not risking further injuries." A son of graded-stakes winner Better Than Honour, the bay was purchased by Shadwell for $725,000 at the 2004 Keeneland September Sale and dubbed Jazil, "abundance" in Arabic. He broke his maiden in his third start at two for trainer Kiaran McLaughlin and, three starts later, rallied for the runner-up spot in the GI Wood Memorial S. After dead-heating for fourth in Barbaro's GI Kentucky Derby, the neatly made colt put in his customary late run to claim the GI Belmont S. \(video\) However, he was diagnosed with a bruised cannon shortly thereafter and missed the rest of 2006. Jazil returned to action Jan. 5 at Aqueduct in an optional claimer, but couldn't catch a loose-on-the-lead Take the Bluff and wound up second. Shipped to Gulfstream, the Shadwell colorbearer settled for the same spot behind Corinthian in a Feb. 8 optional claimer. The regally-bred colt tried the turf in the GIII Elkhorn S. Apr. 27, but didn't handle the soft going that day and never threatened. He was sidelined once again afterwards, and the decision was made to retire him; his record stands at 11-2-5-0 with earnings of $890,532. Jazil's three-year-old half-sister is Rags to Riches (A.P. Indy), a $1.9-million yearling who followed her score in the GI Kentucky Oaks with a scintillating, historic score in the Belmont. His two-year-old half-brother by Mineshaft, Casino Drive, brought $950,000 from Nobutaka Tada at the 2006 Keeneland September Sale, and Better Than Honour has two colts by Giant's Causeway to follow. A daughter of MGISW Blush With Pride, Better Than Honour's half-sister Maryinsky (Ire) is the dam of this year's top European sophomore filly Peeping Fawn. The third dam, Broodmare of the Year Best in Show, numbers the likes of top-flight performers Aldebaran, Chimes of Freedom, El Gran Senor, Spinning World, Try My Best and Xaar (GB) among her descendants.

RUTHERIENNE TAKES ON THE HOME TEAM

Earlier this spring, Payson Stud's Rutherie (Pulpit) gave every indication that she would be a force to be reckoned with later in the season following a pair of impressive scores on the East coast. Winner of Belmont's Sugar Plum Time S. May 12, the three-year-old added a score in that track's GIII Sands Point S. June 2. Second across the wire behind Red Burkin in Monmouth's GIII Boiling Springs S. June 30, the dark bay was moved up to first following that foe's disqualification. "She'll do what you want her to do," said Jane Turner, assistant to Clement who also brought In Summation west for a victory in the GI Bing Crosby H. July 29. "She's a filly with an attitude. She's a little package of dynamite and she lets you know she's boss." Back in the winner's circle for the GIII Lake George S., the homebred made it five-in-a-row in her cross-country sojourn. Despite plenty of lucrative races to shoot for over the summer in New York, trainer Christophe Clement opted to ship the diminutive filly across the country, and she proved equally effective on the road, powering to an impressive victory in the GI Del Mar Oaks Aug. 18. "She came out of the race in California in very good order," Clement said. "Everything is good for the Garden City." Rutherie will remain in her own backyard for Saturday's GI Garden City BC H. She will face an international cast, including GII Lake Placid S. winner Sharp Susan; Alexander Tango (Ire), a Group 3 winner in her native Ireland; and Missvinski (Stravinsky), a half-length behind winner Darjina in her latest start in Deauville's G1 Prix d'Astarte July 29.

No Stranger to Success...

Virginia Kraft Payson became involved with Thoroughbreds after marrying Charles Shipman Payson, a widower whose first wife was a partner with her brother, Jock Whitney, in Greentree Stud. Following her husband's death in 1985, Payson, who purchased her first yearling in 1977, remained a regular on the racing scene. Owner of a 300-plus acre tract of land near Lexington, Kentucky, named Payson Stud, Payson also owns the 750-acre Payson Park Thoroughbred Training Center Inc., located near Indiantown, Florida. With over 25 stakes winners to her credit, including 1984 GI Travers S. winner Carr de Naska, Payson also bred graded stakes winners Uptown Swell, Milesius and Vindication. Arguably the greatest success for Payson proved to be Northern Sunset, who she purchased with her late husband for $105,000 at the 1982 Keeneland January sale. Northern Sunset produced four stakes winners for Payson Stud; Salem Drive; Lac Ouimet; European Horse of the Year St. Jovite; and L'Carriere. Northern Sunset, the 1995 Kentucky broodmare of the year, is the third dam of GI Kentucky Oaks heroine and champion sophomore filly Farda Amiga.

SCIPION RETIRED Graded-stakes winner Scipion (A.P. Indy--Strawberry Reason, by Strawberry Road {Aus}) has been retired from racing. Stud plans have not yet been finalized, but the five-year-old is available for inspection at William Hardigan's Miacomet Farm in Georgetown, Kentucky. Bred by Payson Stud, the dark bay is a son of graded-stakes winner Strawberry Reason, whose third foal was Vindication (Seattle Slew), a $2.15-million FTSAUG yearling who swept through an unbeaten campaign in 2002 on his way to Eclipse Award honors as champion juvenile and is now one of the nation's leading freshman sires. Scipion sold for $1.9 million to trainer Patrick Biancone at the same venue in 2003, but wound up racing in the colors of Virginia Kraft Payson. The handsome dark bay rallied to capture his debut the following summer at Saratoga before finishing third in Bellamy Road's Gill MGD Cradle S. He took the Gill Risen Star S. in his second start at three in 2005, but sustained an injury when sixth in the GII Louisiana Derby and failed to recapture his earlier form when he returned to action. Scipion, a half-brother to the Japanese stakes-placed True Reason (Silver Deputy), retires with a record of 17-2-2-4 and earnings of $194,056.

CHANGE OF DATE FOR F-T CALDER Fasig-Tipton announced yesterday that the Fasig-Tipton Calder Selected Sale will be moved up one week to Tuesday, Feb. 26. The under-tack show for the sale will be held Feb. 22. "Our Calder sale has always taken place around the end of February, the beginning of March," said Fasig-Tipton President Walt Robertson. "So, with our new single, under-tack show format, going one week earlier, the sale in 2008 changes little for buyers, but makes life much easier for consignors. We value input and hope this will ease the concerns we have been hearing from quite a number of our customers."

STAGE LUCK (Unbridled's Song), a $1.6-million KEESEP purchase, adds blinkers in her second start for trainer Tom Albertrani and Darley. The daughter of MGISW Golden Ballet made a nice middle move before settling for third in her Aug. 15 debut over this surface. brisnet.com pps
- 1:40p HRTV 2nd-LRL, $28K, Msw, 2yo, f, 6f
INITIATION (Deputy Minister) debuts for trainer Graham Motion after a series of good works at Fair Hill. A $350K KEESEP purchase by Augustin Stable, the chestnut is out of SP Proposal (Mt. Livermore), a full sister to MGSW Multiple Choice. brisnet.com pps
- 2:33p HRTV 5th-DEL, $40K, Msw, 2yo, f, 1mT
TIGER AT NITE (Hold That Tiger) has the edge, facing softer foes here. The chestnut, who descends from the blue hen mare Soaring, missed a three-way photo for place when fourth in her debut, the Junior Champion S. at Monmouth Aug. 19, and shows a bullet work since. Rose Bouquet (Awesome Again), a Stronach homebred who is the first foal from SW A.P. Andie (Star de Naskra), kicks off her career for trainer John Servis. brisnet.com pps
- 7:10p TVG 5th-PID, $42K, Alw, 2yo, f, 6f
RUMARI (Dixie Union), one of two Steve Asmussen trainees in this contest, ran third as the favorite to the highly regarded A to the Croft at Churchill July 8. The Winchell homebred, produced by a full sister to MSW Jena Jena, rallied to graduate over Arlington's Polytrack July 27. The 1/2 to GSP Sentry will be accompanied by stablemate Capricious (Tiznow), a Padua homebred who led every step in capturing her career opener July 8 at Churchill. Also in the field is Sumwhrovtherainbw (Full Mandate), who missed second by a nose in the Junior Champion S. on the Monmouth lawn Aug. 19. brisnet.com pps
- 8:05p TVG CERF H. (7th-DMR), $85K, 3yo/up, f/m, 6f (AWT)
JUMP ON IN (Jump Start) and Quick Little Miss (Freud), the one-two finishers in the GII Santa Ynez S. Jan. 15 at Santa Anita, have both been out of action since running eighth and sixth, respectively, to Rags to Riches in the GI Las Virgenes S. Feb. 10. The sophomores will have to deal with six-year-old Selvatica (Forestry), who breaks from the rail. She won the Desert Stormer H. over Hollywood's Cushion Track May 19 before finishing sixth in the GI Princess Rooney H. at Calder July 7. brisnet.com pps

COSTA RISING (c, 4, Royal Strand {Ire}--Gal's List, by List), fourth to Strong Contender and Lawyer Ron in last year's GII Super Derby, rebounded to take three straight against Louisiana-breds and was given some time off following a 5 1/4-length tally in the Louisiana Premier Championship S. Feb. 3 at Delta Downs. The dark bay gave bridge jumpers heart palpitations when third at 1-2 June 30 in the P. Benoit Memorial H. June 30 over this surface, but rebounded next out. The grandson of Royal Academy romped by 12 1/4 lengths over Super Frolic and Watchem Smokey in the Evangeline Mile H. Aug. 11, earning a 114 Beyer Speed Figure, and was bet down to 1-10 this time. Costa Rising cruised along in second, assumed command approaching the quarter pole and left his rivals in the dust with a 17 1/2-length score. Lifetime Record: MSW, 19-12-1-3, $709,866.

Weekly Sales Ticker

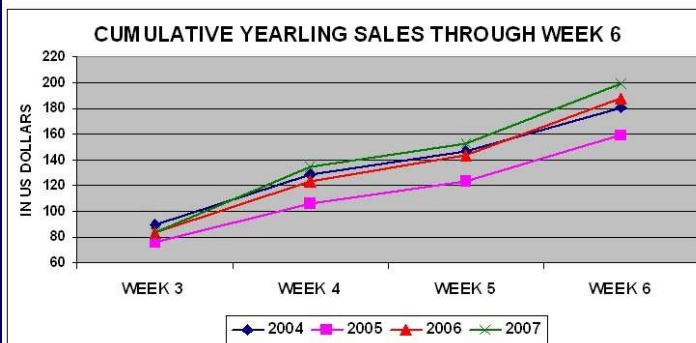

by BILL OPPENHEIM

Sponsored by Bradley Thoroughbred Brokerage

"After six weeks, the combined yearling market is up 6% in gross and average both. But all the growth has been in Europe: the three sales there are up 15% in gross and 18% in average from last year, and up 46% in gross from 2005. The North American yearling sales so far are off just one-half of 1% on turnover of $106-million; the NA average so far is $56,685, less than $100 (or two-tenths of 1%) below last year's corresponding average." -- Bill Oppenheim

Black Seventeen (Is It True), winner of the GII Carry Back S. at Calder July 7, will miss an intended date in the GI Breeders' Cup Sprint at Monmouth Park in October because of an ankle injury, trainer Brian Koriner told Daily Racing Form. Black Seventeen, who missed training in August because of a sore foot, was diagnosed following a three-furlong work at Del Mar in :36.3 Aug. 23. "We can't find anything major, but he's got a tender ankle," Koriner told DRF. "He's going to the ranch. He'll probably get 60 to 90 days off." A winner of four of six starts, the three-year-old has earned $285,360 to date.

VADSALINA (IRE) (Sagacity {Fr}) was third at the first try at Deauville last month, and Alain de Royer-Dupre adopts his customary patient approach with His Highness the Aga Khan's homebred half-sister to Vadawina (Ire) and Vadapolina (Ire). She meets Khalid Abdullah's Modern Look (GB) (Zamindar), a David Smaga-trained daughter of the 1993 G1 Cheveley Park S. winner Prophecy (Ire).

GROUND FEARS FOR CHAPPLE-HYAM PAIR

Peter Chapple-Hyam is hoping for rain for his two challengers Dutch Art (GB) (Medicean {GB}) and Al Qasi (Ire) (Elnadim) ahead of Saturday's G1 Haydock Sprint Cup. Susan Roy and Cheveley Park Stud's G1 July Cup runner-up Dutch Art and Ziad Galadari's Al Qasi were confirmed yesterday on course for the six-furlong contest. "I'm looking for a big run from Dutch Art," said Chapple-Hyam. "He's been consistent his whole career and hasn't ever run a bad race. We could do with a bit of rain because that's all he needs, to just get his toe in. He's been a bit unlucky on that score." Al Qasi has shown his best form on soft turf and his conditioner is praying for some wet weather for the G3 Phoenix Sprint S. winner. "Al Qasi has been racing well and is improving, so I'm very hopeful of a big run from him too," Chapple-Hyam added. "The Group 1 is unknown territory, really. We tried it once before, but he seems to have improved since then and we're looking for a nice run. He would want a bit of rain too, but if we don't get it, then it is just bad luck."

DANEHILL DANCER FILLY TOPS DAY ONE

Tattersalls Ireland's September Yearling Sale kicked off yesterday, and it was a daughter of Danehill Dancer (Ire) who topped the bill late in the session. Consigned by Joe Foley's Ballyhane Stud, hip 269 is a half-sister to His Highness the Aga Khan's G3 Amethyst S. winner Danak (Ire), who was an unlucky sixth in last month's G1 Arlington Million. It was Edward Daly's name on the docket after having the final say at €150,000. "I've bought her for a new client and she will stay in Ireland to be trained," Daly commented. "She's a lovely filly with a good page, which is so important. Her half-brother is a Group 1 performer, and I'm told that the two-year-old with Michael Halford is meant to be useful." Earlier in the session, Robin O'Ryan paid €110,000 for a Montjeu (Ire) filly from the draft of Brendan Hayes's Knocktoran Stud. Consigned as hip 231, she is out of the listed winner Almond Mousse (Fr), who was also third in the 2003 G2 Sun Chariot S. and she was purchased for Stephen Hillen and trainer Kevin Ryan. "She's a lovely filly," O'Ryan said. "There's plenty to like about her, she's out of a good racemare and she'll be going into training with Kevin." Top-priced colt honors were shared by hip 258, a son of Pivotal (GB) offered by Liam Cashman's Rathbarry Stud; and Mountain View Stud's hip 284, a colt by the current first-season sire Catcher in the Rye (Ire), both of whom fetched €90,000. After Con Marnane had secured the former, who is out of a close relative to the sire Dark Nile from the excellent family of Lyphard, Flower Alley and Ashkal Way (Ire), agent Bobby O'Ryan matched it for the colt out of a half to the dual listed scorer and G2 Premio Lydia Tesio third Nenna (Ire), from the high-class Juddmonte family of Daring Miss (GB) and Spanish Sun.

Sahm Story...

Kevin Prendergast has had success with sons of Sahm, including multiple group winner and stable stalwart Mustameet and last weekend's Listed Ballycullen S. scorer Red Moloney, and it was a colt by the Shadwell stallion who attracted his attention yesterday. From Bill Dwan's Castlebridge Consignment, hip 97 boasts the 1986 G1 Yorkshire Oaks heroine Untold (GB) as his third dam and was sold for €85,000 to agent Kevin Ross on the trainer's behalf. "He's a nice horse by a sire that Kevin [Prendergast] has had plenty of luck with," commented agent Frank Barry, who was doing most of the bidding for the trainer. "He's had plenty of luck out of this sale in the past." Earlier, Barry and Prendergast paid €70,000 for Ashley Guest's hip 63, a daughter of Refuse to Bend (Ire) from the family of Bold Arrangement (GB), who topped the "New Sires' Showcase" section. Cont. p6

Paul Mason also paid €85,000 for Rathbarry's hip 110, a Johannesburg filly out of the 2000 G2 German 1000 Guineas runner-up Margay (Ire). "She's a lovely, good-walking filly by a sire who is on fire, and you don't get too many chances to buy them over here," Mason commented. "She's got plenty of bulk and power, and has some presence about her." Sakhee is another stallion in the spotlight, thanks to his son Sakhee's Secret (GB). His colt offered by John Osborne was in demand later on. Hip 246, who is from the family of the group winners Desert Shot (GB) and Mojave (GB), was knocked down to trainer Ger Lyons for €85,000. After the thrills of Deauville, Doncaster and Baden-Baden, the opener of this sale witnessed a come-down, with an 80-percent clearance rate. The average, €29,898, dropped by 10 percent from 2006 and the median, €21,000, was down 12.5 percent from its equivalent 12 months ago. Selling resumes today at 10:30 a.m. Full results are available on www.tattersalls.ie.

TATTERSALLS IRELAND YEARLINGS - WEDNESDAY

Hip 309, f, Fantastic Light--Golden Opinion, by Slew o'Gold

Consigned by Castledillon Stud, agent

While it is disappointing that the 1988 G1 Coronation S. heroine Golden Opinion has not produced anything to match her quality, she is the second dam of this year's G1 Poule d'Essai des Pouliches third Rahiyah. This page also received a notable update in June when Nijoom Dubai (GB) captured the G3 Albany S. at Royal Ascot.

Hip 319, f, Alhaarth (Ire)--Harmonist, by Hennessy
Consigned by the Castlebridge Consignment

This filly is out of a smart half-sister to Country Store from the immediate family of Democratic Deficit (Ire). Another scion from this family is Haafhd (GB), probably the finest produce of Alhaarth to have raced so far.

Hip 364, c, Captain Rio (GB)--Lafleur (Ire),
by Grand Lodge

Consigned by Rathbarry Stud

This colt is a half to Charlie Farnsbarns (Ire), who finished runner-up to Authorized (Ire) in last year's G1 Racing Post Trophy. The dam is a half to the 1997 G1 Epsom Oaks and G1 Yorkshire Oaks third Crown of Light (GB).

Hip 447, f, Verglas (Ire)--Penny Rouge (Ire),
by Pennekamp

Consigned by Rossmore House Stables

Out of a half to this year's dual group winner Redstone Dancer (Ire), this filly derives from the excellent Juddmonte family of Rainbow Quest and superdam Slightly Dangerous.
