HEADLINE NEWS

SCINTILLATING DAY FOR MOORE

White Beech Farm's Scintillo (GB) (Fantastic Light) added to the enviable tally of British-trained raiders in the prestigious G1 Gran Criterium at Milan yesterday while providing jockey Ryan Moore with a memorable group-race double. Seventh in Royal Ascot's Listed Chesham S. June 23, the chestnut opened his account at Sandown July 6 before finishing fourth in Goodwood's G2 Vintage S. Aug. 1 and third in the Aug. 18 Listed Washington Singer S. 17 days later. Only beaten a head when second to the subsequent G2 Champagne S. winner McCartney (Ger) in the Listed Stonehenge S. at Salisbury Aug. 31, he again produced his best when 3/4 of a length back in third in the G2 Royal Lodge S. at Ascot last time Sept. 29. Breaking well here, Scintillo was reined back off the strong early pace set by Frankie Dettori on Gladiatorus (Silic {Fr}) and eventually settled in mid-division. Making his move early in the straight, he swept by the long-time leader passing the quarter pole and had settled the result by the time that rival found his second wind. Moore also collected the G3 Premio Sergio Cumani on the card. Click for the Racing Post chart or the free brisnet.com catalogue-style pedigree.

BREEDERS' CUP BULLETIN

PURIM HEADED TO BC MILE

Trainer Tom Proctor was non-committal about sending Purim (Dynaformer) to the G1 Breeders' Cup Mile after the five-year-old's upset victory in the Oct. 6 G1 Shadwell Turf Mile, but yesterday confirmed that Purim will indeed be entered in the $2-million race. Purim earned an automatic berth in the Mile with his tally in the Shadwell Mile, a Breeders' Cup "Win and You're In" event. Proctor, who saddled One Dreamer to a $96.20 mutuel upset in the 1994 Distaff, added that Purim has been doing well since the Shadwell and will ship to Monmouth early next week.

STUDENT COUNCIL TO SKIP CLASSIC; CUP NEXT

Millennium Farms' Ro Parra yesterday confirmed that the streaking Student Council (Kingmambo) will bypass the $5-million GI Breeders' Cup Classic at Monmouth in favor of the $2.3-million, 1 1/4-mile G1 Japan Cup Dirt at Tokyo Racecourse Nov. 24. The five-year-old Student Council was purchased privately by Millennium Farms in August and subsequently annexed the GI Pacific Classic and GII Hawthorne Gold Cup in his most recent. The win in the Pacific Classic makes Student Council eligible for a bonus of $833,300 should he also take the Japan Cup Dirt. He is currently training at Keeneland with Steve Asmussen, who took over for Vladimir Cerin after the Pacific Classic. However, once he arrives in California on Oct. 19 to prepare for his trip to Japan, Vladimir Cerin will take over and be the trainer of record for the Japan Cup Dirt. Student Council's regular jockey, Richard Migliore, will ride him in Japan. "The Japan Cup Dirt is a prestigious international race, and we believe we can compete and win the race," Parra said. "Student Council has an affinity for deeper tracks, and we have been informed that the track in Tokyo is similar to the tracks that he has already won over. We have a great deal of respect for the field assembling for the Breeders' Cup, but the bonus is a significant factor, and with his terrific pedigree and great sire potential, an international Group 1 victory would add to his value as a stallion prospect."

BORDONARO EYES SPRINT...WITH BLINKERS

Trainer Bill Spawr said yesterday that Bordonaro (Memo {Chi}), fourth after setting the pace in the GI Ancient Title S. at Santa Anita Oct. 6, is being pointed for the GI Breeders' Cup Sprint and will wear blinkers for the first time in the race. "We're planning on running," Spawr said Sunday morning. "We're going to try blinkers because he hasn't showed his usual zip leaving the gate, and we would hope they get him more focused." Bordonaro, who has never raced in blinkers in 19 lifetime starts, ran fourth to Thor's Echo in last year's Sprint.

Bar one blip when down the field in last year's G1 Grosser Preis von Baden, Schiaparelli has proved himself a model of consistency and he delivered another rock-solid performance on this first foray overseas. His last three starts had seen him garner the G2 Hansa-Preis at Hamburg June 24, G1 Deutschlandpreis at Dusseldorf July 22 and Sept. 23 G1 Preis von Europa at Cologne. Last year's G1 Deutsches Derby hero continued his winning trend with a game front-running effort under an enterprising Andrasche Starke. Soon in command, the chestnut applied the pressure approaching the final quarter which appeared to crack most rivals bar the smooth-traveling Laverock. As that rival tried in vain to bridge the gap, it was Champs Elysees who emerged best, but Schiaparelli was already beyond recall. Sir Gallovic had to settle for third in the nine-furlong GIII BC Derby over this strip Sept. 23, but earned his first graded score here with the addition of two panels. The three-year-old has flourished since breaking his maiden for a $60,000 tag at Belmont in June for Michael Miceli. Moved to Troy Taylor's barn at Hastings following that win, he romped by 7 1/2 lengths in an allowance race in his Canadian debut Aug. 5 and added a seven-length win in the Richmond Derby Trial H. Sept. 2. Third as the favorite in the BC Derby, he was sent off the second choice here. Settled off the quick pace of Newton John, Sir Gallovic moved to challenge on the turn and gamely fended off favored True Metropolitan late.

EUROSILVER COLT TOPS NYBSC MIXED SALE

The New York Breeders' Sales Company held its third-annual Fall Mixed Sale yesterday in Saratoga Springs, New York, and enjoyed across-the-board gains over the 2006 renewal. The sale began with a weanling session of select New York-breds that saw a 150-percent increase in gross and an almost 50-percent increase in average from a year ago, according to sale officials. Topping the session, and the sale, was hip 6, a weanling colt from the first crop of Grade II winner Eurosilver (Unbridled's Song) who elicited a bid of $85,000. Juvenile pinhooker Niall Brennan signed the ticket as Saratoga Oaks. The colt was consigned by Moonestone Sales LLC, agent, and was produced by Shot Gun Frances (Commemorate). The 16-year-old mare is also the dam of stakes winner and graded stakes-placed Shot Gun Favorite (Eltish) and three other stakes horses. "We were delighted with the results of the select weanling session," said board member Chester Broman. "Our board members believed that if we lined up enough good horses, prepped them right and promoted them properly, that the buyers would come and pay a premium. They did. When Niall Brennan, Linda Rice, Terry Finley, Becky Thomas, Murray Smith and Ron Fein show up, you know you have a real sale."

Dromoland Farm's Eurosilver
stallionregister.com

Hall of Fame trainer John Nerud, also a shareholder added, "You'd have to be happy with the sale overall. This is a new sales company which sees the dawn of a new era in racing in New York. With the money that will be available to New York-breds, thanks to the eventual introduction of the VLTs, we may be entering an era in New York where it actually makes dollars and cents to race a horse. It's about time." The highest-priced filly on the day, also selling during the select weanling session, was a filly from the initial crop of Grade I winner Cuvee (Carson City). Consigned by Rhapsody Farm Bloodstock, the bay, cataloged as hip 19, was knocked down to trainer Linda Rice, agent, for $77,000. The filly topper is a daughter of the 13-year-old Wigwam (Iron Courage), herself a daughter of MGSW Bungalow (Lord Avie) from the immediate family of Grade I winner Western Playboy. In total, the sale concluded with a gross of $1,776,900 and an average of $10,330. Final statistics had not been posted as of last night. Inca King was allowed to set pedestrian fractions en route to a win in the June 16 GII Jefferson Cup at Churchill, but was a well-beaten ninth in both the July 21 GII Virginia Derby and the Sept. 3 Edward DeBartolo Sr. Memorial Breeders' Cup H. The dark bay gelding contested the early splits, surged to the lead in upper stretch and sailed home an easy winner. "He relaxed pretty good down the backside," jockey Shaun Bridgmohan said of the winner. "He got a little aggressive going into the first turn. I managed to keep him a little bit off the rail and he settled pretty nicely. When I asked him to pick it up at the top of the stretch, he went ahead and punched on home." INDESCRIBABLE (f, 3, Pleasant Tap--Catnip {MSW, $123,224}, by Flying Paster), third over this all-weather track last April, returned from a freshening to run a close-up third over a muddy Saratoga strip in August and was coming off an authoritative six-length maiden win at Presque Isle Downs Sept. 12. The 7-2 second choice recovered from a troubled start to stalk the pace while racing four wide. The chestnut filly darted to the lead nearing the stretch and stormed clear to an 8 1/2-length victory. Favored Gulchic (Gulch) was second. Lifetime Record: 8-2-1-2, $83,702.

Filling that same spot most recently going a mile on the turf here Sept. 28, the gelding was given a 6-1 chance to get the monkey off his back. Taken back sharply at the break which left him far off the pace early, Deputiformer moved in along the rail before swinging wide for the stretch drive. Finding a seam between horses in the final sixteenth, he was all out to best Cryptonite Kid at the wire.

Roving Angel, winner of the Belle Mahone S. last term, finished second in this year's edition of that race Aug. 19 after a trio of off-the-board efforts through the summer. Fifth most recently in the seven-furlong GIII Seaway S. Sept. 8, the dark bay was content to linger near the back of the pack through a solid opening half mile in :44.74. Making headway while angling out on the turn, she split foes at the top of the stretch and forged to the front late to record her first victory of the season.

Steve's Double to Tackle Two Turns Next Out:

Oxbow Racing's Steve's Double (Stephen Got Even) will likely stretch out after his upset win in Saturday's Gll Perryville S. at Keeneland. "At this point, I would like to see about getting two turns with him and see how he fares there," said trainer Ronny Werner. "I want to give him enough time. That was a tough race. He fought hard [Saturday]. It would be over a month. Most of the races [at Churchill Downs in November] that would be for him are early in the meet, and it would be too quick back. We are probably looking for something in New Orleans at the Fair Grounds."

Cal Cup Raffle to Benefit Injured Exercise Girl:

The Oak Tree Racing Association and the California Thoroughbred Breeders will host the California Cup XVIII draw breakfast and raffle on Wednesday, Oct. 31, 10 a.m. at Clockers' Corner. Breakfast will be served at 10 a.m., followed by the post position draw at 10:45 and the raffle at 11. The raffle benefits Jenny Jonsson, exercise rider for trainer Marcelo Polanco who was injured in a training mishap at Del Mar. "A horse flipped on the way to the track and she went down head first," Polanco said. "She's been treated by a neurologist and is doing OK now, but going through a lot of rehab. She's been with me since I began training for Everest Stables, about five years." Raffle tickets are $5 each, or five for $20, and are available now in Oak Tree's racing office and at Clockers' Corner. Grand prize is a free Racing Form and program for one year. Participants must be present to win.

PASS WITH FLYING COLORS

Stonerside Stables' Raven's Pass (Elusive Quality) geared up for Saturday's G1 Darley Dewhurst S. with a workout at Newmarket racecourse yesterday. Connections of the impressive G3 Solario S. winner were satisfied with his six-furlong spin on the Rowley Mile, after which jockey Jimmy Fortune said, "The boss [John Gosden] decided to give him a racecourse gallop, because he's a horse who does not overdo himself at home and is laid-back. It's hard to know whether you've done enough with them when they are like that, but he worked nicely this morning and you want to get enough into them without leaving the race at home. He's a very nice horse, and although he has beaten Grop 3 horses very comfortably, he hasn't met a Group 1 horse yet. He's a solid horse and he's well-matured for his age. He couldn't do any more than he's done so far, but Saturday is going to be a big test."
