NOTHING NEW

In scenes reminiscent of 12 months ago, New Approach (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) emulated last year's stable star Teofilo (Ire) by battling his way to success in the G1 Darley Dewhurst S. at Newmarket, ensuring the title of leading two-year-old in the process. Through seven compelling furlongs, the 6-4 pick saw off his main market foes and then a determined challenge from Fast Company (Ire) (Danehill Dancer {Ire}) to prevail by a half-length under Kevin Manning. Cont. p2

YOUTH SERVED IN CHAMPION

Trainer Jean-Claude Rouget finally gained the major British success his career demanded as three-year-old Literato (Fr) (Kendor {Fr}) battled to a short-head success over fellow sophomore Eagle Mountain (GB) (Rock of Gibraltar {Ire}) in yesterday's G1 Emirates Airlines Champion S. at Newmarket. Aimed at this contest since his runner-up effort in the June 3 G1 Prix du Jockey-Club at Chantilly, Herve Morin's colorbearer cut down the Ballydoyle raider inside the final furlong and bravely withstood his rally to emerge triumphant as the 7-2 second choice. "He's small, but he's great," jockey Christophe-Patrice Lemaire commented. "He traveled very well all the way and I know he's a fighter, but Eagle Mountain is a tough horse, and he had to give his best today." Cont. p2-3

INTERNATIONAL LIVES UP TO ITS NAME

This afternoon's running of the GI Pattison Canadian International S. at Toronto's Woodbine Race Track has attracted a full field of turf horses from the world over. Germany's Quijano (Ger) (Acatenango {Ger}), winner of 12 of his 15 career trips to the post, is fresh off a victory in the G1 Grosser Preis von Baden Sept. 2 and is the 3-1 morning-line choice. "We didn't expect to be favoured, but he's got good form and somebody has to be the favourite," said Gisela Schiergen, wife of trainer Peter Schiergen. Canadian International cont. p8

CAULFIELD CUP FAVS SCRATCHED AT START

Maldivian (NZ) (Zabeel {NZ}), the shortest-priced favorite since 1966, was withdrawn at the start of yesterday's G1 Caulfield Cup after he reared up in the stalls and suffered a severe gash behind his right ear. Maldivian became agitated when second choice Eskimo Queen (NZ) (Shinko King {Ire}) acted up in the gate and threw herself to the ground; she, too, was withdrawn. Master O'Reilly (NZ) (O'Reilly {NZ}) took advantage of the situation, closing from midfield to take the race by 2 1/4 lengths. Cont. p13

Like the 2006 champion, ✪ "TDN Rising Star" ✪ New Approach came into the Dewhurst S. unbeaten, most recently taking the G1 National S. at The Curragh. Jim Bolger and Sheikh Mohammed bin Rashid Al Maktoum's imposing chestnut had probably done enough in that Sept. 16 contest to ensure prime position in the rankings, but the promise of this stellar line-up drew him across the Irish Sea. While the opposition seemed certain to ensure more industry from New Approach, there was the distinct feeling after the race that it was the colt's lack of fizz that had made life difficult. "He ran very lazy today, but he'd been working a bit that way at home," jockey Kevin Manning said. After missing the kick and turning in a lacklustre first half-mile, New Approach was shoved up to challenge the smooth-traveling Raven's Pass before the quarter pole, but it was not until the final 200 yards that he mastered that rival. He was then threatened out wide by Fast Company and was able to pull out an extra surge to hold that rival at bay. "This fellow is very talented and tough and hardy," Bolger commented. "We overdid the settling on him today and it nearly cost us the race, but I have had Derbies in mind when training him over the past couple of weeks, and all his work has just been lobbing and loitering. I knew yesterday when he lobbed up the gallop here that he might just be a little bit tardy, but we'll be able to solve that problem and rev him up for the 2000 Guineas." Remarking on the run of Fast Company, trainer Brian Meehan said, "Maybe a little lack of experience told going into the dip. He looks to me like a serious 2000 Guineas contender. If he's not in the first two betting-wise after that, then I'll be very surprised. It's been an absolute pleasure to have him." Raven's Pass appeared to be undone by the conditions having traveled strongly to lead at the quarter pole. "I was pleased with his run," John Gosden told PA Sport. "He came to win his race, but he couldn't produce his form on the ground. He's a Guineas horse, and that will be the target next year."

Campaigned mainly in the provinces last year, Literato enjoyed an unbeaten juvenile campaign, and it was not until his biggest test on his sophomore bow that he tasted defeat. The grey was runner-up in the Listed Prix Omnium II Mar. 23 at Saint-Cloud, but returned to his winning ways in Longchamp's G3 Prix La Force next time Apr. 15.

Getty Images

He earned a short rest after running 1 1/2 lengths behind Lawman (Fr) in the G1 French Derby. Back in his usual spot after Deauville's G2 Prix Guillaume d'Ornano Aug. 18, he was firmly on the Champion track following an easy score in the G3 Prix du Prince d'Orange back at Longchamp last time out Sept. 22. Settled in mid-division early while trapped behind horses, he needed the gaps as the pace increased, but his natural pace helped him though the crowd, and there was only Eagle Mountain and Johnny Murtagh to handle approaching the quarter pole. Literato was under his own power as he reeled in that rival running into the dip, and his momentum held sway as those two drew clear of the remainder. "This is a marvelous day," commented Herve Morin, taking a day off from being France's Minster of Defence. "He is a very courageous horse and likes the struggle--when he strikes, he wins. We would have liked to have run in the Arc, but Jean-Claude [Rouget] said no, that he would win the Champion S." Eagle Mountain's trainer Aidan O'Brien told PA Sport, "He ran a stormer. He's a horse that improves for a break, and I imagine there will be more improvement to come. However, I understand that Mike de Kock has bought him, and he might be leaving us after today." Trainer Richard Gibson added that third-placed Doctor Dino, who had been supplemented this week, would contest the G1 Hong Kong Cup at Sha Tin Dec. 9.

Barry Hills saddled 20-1 shots Last Resort (GB) and Munir (GB) to win this in 2000 and 2001, and the Lambourn conditioner repeated the dose yesterday with the sole filly in this line-up, Miss Lucifer. Runner-up on five of her first six starts this term, she missed by a half-length at Salisbury and a short head at Doncaster in handicaps within the space of a week at the start of last month. Finally earning a success in the Listed October S. at Ascot Sept. 29, the bay faced a leap in class here, but connections showed their faith with a supplementary entry Monday. Settled behind the leading group racing against the stands' side rail, she picked up to join the front-running Toylsome at the eighth pole and, despite rolling to the left across Al Qasi's path there, was firmly in command on the climb to the line. "She is in the form of her life and is very tough--that was a top-class field," jockey Michael Hills said. "I think that's it now, as she's off to Dubai now." Click for the Racing Post chart or the free brisnet.com catalogue-style pedigree.

Kitty Matcham had yet to break her maiden when she ran a disappointing ninth in the G3 CL Weld Park S. at The Curragh Sept. 30. Dropped back to six furlongs last time, she held on from stable companion Psalm (Ire) to capture a Naas maiden test, and she shipped here just six days after that confidence booster. Held up in mid-division early, the bay was sent in pursuit of Missit and took over with 150 yards remaining before shrugging off her rally and that of Royal Confidence on either side. "We always thought she was very nice, but mentally she has been immature, being a late foal," trainer Aidan O'Brien said. "She's tough and travels and...with these Rock of Gibraltars, the more you throw at them, the better they get. We had to back up for a few runs with her, so I would imagine that would be it for this season, but she's one to look forward to." Click for the Racing Post chart or the free brisnet.com catalogue-style pedigree.

Scratched from Friday's GIII Valley View S., Jibboom proved that decision a fruitful one with an upset victory in the Raven Run. A 3/4-length debut winner sprinting on the Fair Grounds turf Jan. 14, the gray was runner-up in a grassy route in New Orleans Feb. 15 before going to the shelf. A good runner-up in a Belmont turf sprint Sept. 15, the homebred was lightly regarded in this full field. Last away from the gate, Jibboom worked her way into a midfield position and advanced on the turn. She split rivals three wide into the stretch and drew clear as much the best. "She got up for position within herself at the three-eighths pole and instilled a lot of confidence in me," said Albarado, who was winning his third race Saturday. "I was just hoping to get through there at some point, and she did." Favored West Coast Swing ran on well late for second.

Third behind stable companion Coastal Path (GB) in both the Sept. 7 G3 Prix de Lutece and Oct. 6 G2 Prix Chaudenay back at Longchamp, the bay enjoyed the limelight here with a resolute display of galloping. Always second as Invasian (Ire) (Desert Prince {Ire}) was ignored on a long lead, he picked up that rival with minimal encouragement 2 1/2 furlongs out and pulled out more when pressed by Balkan Knight on the rise to the line. Click for the Racing Post chart.

Following a spell of winter racing in Dubai, Greek Renaissance reappeared only last month when recording a successful comeback in a conditions event at Yarmouth Sept. 18. He had hinted during the Carnival that he could be this calibre, winning the Shadwell Farm Trophy H. at Nad Al Sheba Feb. 9, but was passed over by the betting public--as he had been by jockey Frankie Dettori--here. Racing in the midst of the largest of the two groups in the centre of the track through the opening exchanges, the bay was shaken up at the quarter pole and swept to the front a furlong later for a resounding victory. "We're really pleased with him," Racing Manager Simon Crisford commented. "It was a nice race for him to win, and we'll put him away for the winter. He likes to get his toe in so he won't race in Dubai this winter, but he'll be a nice horse for next year." Click for the Racing Post chart.

Also Ran: Prince Flori (Ger), Pont des Arts (Fr), Poseidon Adventure (Ire), White Lightning (Ger), Equip Hill (Swe), Art Attack (Ger).

Successful in the G3 Grand Prix Aufgalopp at Cologne on seasonal return Apr. 1, Egerton dropped to fifth in the G1 Prix Ganay at Longchamp Apr. 29, but regained his form to run second in the G1 Grosser Mercedes-Benz-Preis over course and distance May 20. Back down to fifth for the G1 Deutschlandpreis at Dusseldorf July 22, he occupied the same berth in the G1 Rheinland-Pokal at Cologne Aug. 12 before hitting the board in the G1 Grosser Preis von Baden Sept. 2. The veteran ran fifth once more in the G1 Preis von Europa back at Cologne last time Sept. 23. Egerton, well backed here, broke smartly from an outside box and settled off the clear leaders in third until inching closer once beyond halfway. Making continued progress rounding the home turn, he took control in early stretch and was ridden out in the closing stages to comfortably hold the vain bid of Belmundo for a third pattern score. Click for the Racing Post chart.

Qui Oui...

Quijano lost his career debut, then rattled off 10 straight wins, including a 1 1/4-length score over Oracle West (SAf) (Western Winter) in the G3 Dubai City of Gold S. Mar. 1. His streak was snapped when he finished a close seventh in the G1 Dubai Sheema Classic Mar. 31, but he was never a factor in a 10th-place effort in the G3 Grand Prix de Vichy July 18. Quijano has since righted the ship, taking a Cologne listed event Aug. 5 prior to a neck success in front of the home crowd in the G1 Grosser Preis von Baden Sept. 2. The form of that test was franked when fourth-place finisher Youmzain (Ire) returned to just miss in the G1 Arc de Triomphe. Sky Conqueror (Sky Classic) is arguably Canada's best turf horse, having bested Marsh Side in the GII Northern Dancer BC S. July 22 before finishing a close third, a head behind Cloudy's Knight (Lord Avie) in the Aug. 26 GII Nijinsky II S. He prepped with an eighth in the GI Woodbine Mile Sept. 16, but will prove more effective at this trip. English form is represented by Ask (GB) (Sadler's Wells), winner of a pair of Group 3 events this term; and Honolulu (Ire) (Montjeu {Ire}), third in the G1 St Leger S. Sept. 15 and when beating Ask in the G3 Cumberland Lodge S. Sept. 30.

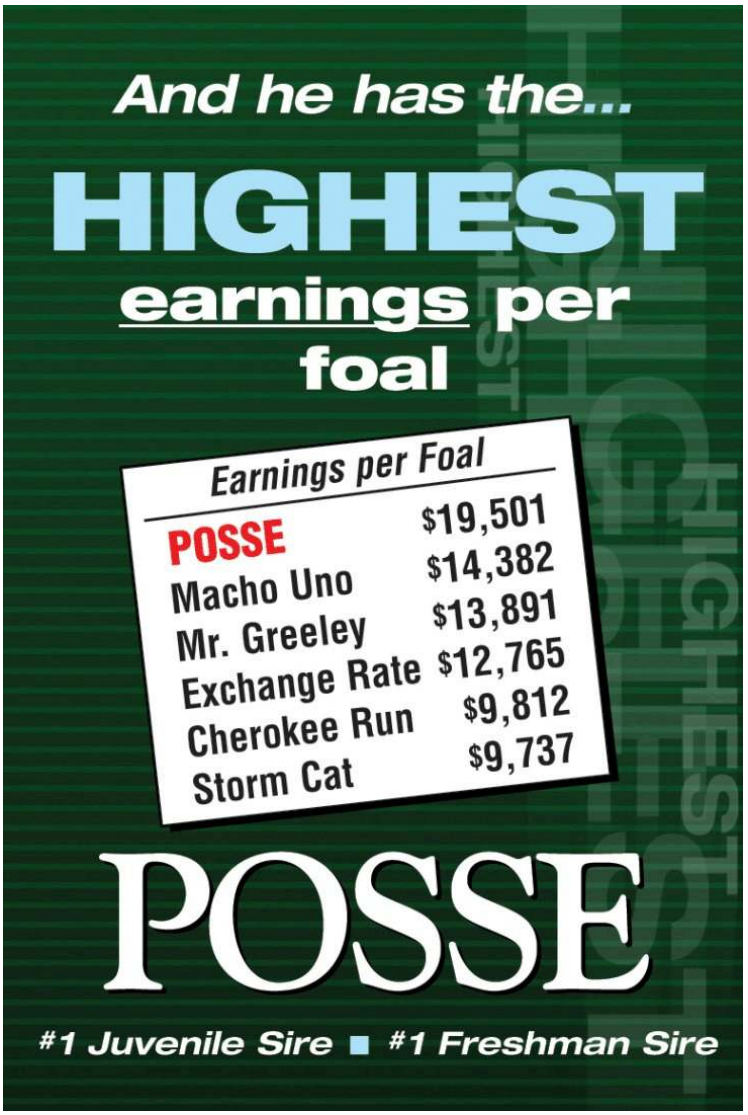
E. P. TAYLOR S.-GI, C$1,000,000, 3yo/up, f/m, 1 1/4mT

PP	HORSE	SIRE	TRAINER	ODDS
1	Elle Runaway	El Prado (Ire)	Pierce	20-1
2	The Niagara Queen	Langfuhr	Doyle	30-1
3	Sealy Hill	Point Given	Casse	6-1
4	Mrs. Lindsay	Theatrical (Ire)	Rohaut	2-1
5	Four Sins (Ger)	Sinndar (Ire)	Oxx	4-1
6	Sans Souci Island	Chester House	Attfield	30-1
7	Safari Queen (Arg)	Lode	Pletcher	9-2
8	Essential Edge	Storm Cat	Coatrieux	15-1
9	Hostess	Chester House	Bond	12-1
10	Barancella (Fr)	Acatenango (Ger)	Frankel	6-1

Sealy Hill was a dominant winner of the June 10 Woodbine Oaks over the Polytrack and tacked on a disputed victory in the July 1 Bison City S., a race from which she was originally disqualified, only to have that decision reversed on appeal. She transitioned nicely to the turf, rolling to a 2 1/4-length success in the Wonder Where S. over course and distance July 28. The Melnyk homebred tried older fillies and mares in her latest and acquitted herself well, rallying to finish second by a neck to Essential Edge in the GII Canadian S. Sept. 16. "I was quite proud of her," said trainer Mark Casse about her effort in that mile and one-eighth event. "Even though we didn't win, I thought she proved how good she is, running with a bunch of good older mares."



North American-based runners have taken the last four renewals, but Mrs. Lindsay stands the best chance to take the trophy back to Europe this year. A homebred for Bettina Jenney, the sophomore filly led through the opening nine furlongs of the G1 Prix de Diane June 10 before holding on for second to West Wind. Sixth in the G3 Prix Minerve at Deauville Aug. 16, she bounced back to take the G1 Prix Vermeille, defeating her French Oaks conqueror in the process. Four Sins, fourth in the G1 English Oaks and seventh in the Irish equivalent July 15, rebounded to take the G2 Blandford S. at The Curragh Sept. 14. Safari Queen came from off the pace to defeat Barancella by two lengths in the GIII Bewitch S. at Keeneland this past spring and followed with a runner-up effort to stable-mate Honey Ryder in the GII Sheepshead Bay H. May 26. Fourth in the Robert G. Dick Memorial BC H. at Delaware July 14, the Argentinian-bred was most recently fifth in the GIII Glens Falls H. at Saratoga Sept. 3.

7	5	Miles Gloriosus	Repriced	Salvioni

All carry 125 pounds bar Dubai's Touch & Golden Titus, 122.

Echo of Light looks to rebound from an uncharacteristically disappointing effort when off the board in the Oct. 6 G2 Prix Wildenstein at Longchamp. The Godolphin colorbearer looked better than ever when successful in Deauville's G3 Prix Gontaut-Biron Aug. 15 and York's G3 Strensall S. for a second time Sept. 5, and bids to give his owner a fourth victory in this race since 1999. "We were disappointed with Echo of Light's run last time, but there is nothing wrong with him," trainer Saeed bin Suroor said. "He has come out of his last piece of work in good shape and I hope that this time he will run well. The key is to keep him relaxed and settled throughout the race." Last year's G2 Goldene Peitsche winner Linngari returned at five to capture the Feb. 22 G2 Al Fahidi Fort at Nad Al Sheba before finishing runner-up to Admire Moon (Jpn) in the G1 Dubai Duty Free S. at that venue Mar. 31. He was off the board in his three subsequent starts, but was one of many who failed to get involved in the G1 Prix de la Foret at Longchamp last time Oct. 6 and deserves another chance. Apollo Star has developed into one of Germany's top milers with wins in the G2 Premio Emilio Turati over this track and trip June 3 and Hannover's G2 ICT-Eslam-Cup Aug. 5. He failed by a short head to give Konig Turf (Ger) three pounds in the G2 Europa Meile at Cologne Sept. 23 and warrants respect.

Smart Enough has experience over this turf course, having taken the GIII Scotts Highlander S. over Heros Reward June 24. The chestnut could not negotiate the stretchout back to two turns when eighth in the GIII Oceanport S. at Monmouth Aug. 5, but has since rebounded to take the five-furlong Sept. 3 Turf Monster H. at Philly Park and the Oct. 6 Thomas Edison S. at The Meadowlands. Dead Red took a June 30 optional claimer over the Calder turf before going on to a 70-1 upset of Mach Ride in the Aug. 11 Turf Sprint Championship H. at the Miami oval. The chestnut was most recently a well-beaten 12th in the GI Woodbine Mile S. Sept. 16, but has remained in Canada since that effort and is training well. Trainer Andrew Balding has tasted success over this turf course, having sent out Vanderlin (GB) to win the GII Play the King H. in 2005. He is represented this afternoon by Dark Missile, the lone filly in the field. She enters the Nearctic off a pair of runner-up efforts--in the Aug. 11 Shergar Cup Distaff H. at Ascot and the G2 Diadem S. Sept. 30, when she missed by a nose.

Andre Fabre has won this four times since 1994 and it may be significant that he has supplemented Kocab to join G2 Prix Guillaume d'Ornano fourth El Comodin here. Kocab was third in the G3 Prix Gontaut-Biron at Deauville Aug. 15 before taking the Sept. 2 Listed Grand Prix du Sud-Ouest at Bordeaux-le-Bouscat. He was runner-up to subsequent G2 Prix Dollar heroine Musical Way (Fr) in the Sept. 25 G3 La Coupe de Maisons-Laffitte last time. Montare returns to her favorite track, where she collected this prize two years ago and took the G2 Prix de Royallieu and G1 Prix Royal-Oak last fall. Only sixth in the G1 Prix Vermeille last time Sept. 16, she needs to rediscover her best.

CLIFFORD BARRY

Elizabeth & Clifford Barry

Accomplishment: Pin Oak's Clifford Barry was honored by his peers as the 2007 Kentucky Thoroughbred Farm Managers' Club's farm manager of the year. Barry has successfully managed the careers of such Pin Oak stallions as Broken Vow, Sky Classic, and the recently deceased Maria's Mon, sire of Kentucky Derby hero Monarchos and 2006 champion Wait a While.

Birthdate: Dec. 3, 1967 Birthplace: Kildare, Ireland

Education: St. Brigids, Athy, Co. Kildare

Family: Wife, Elizabeth, daughters, Audrey 9 and Emily 7.

What is your biggest accomplishment since you've been involved in the business? I'd have to say that my accomplishment is measured by being surrounded by top-class horses each and every day and working for Ms. Abercrombie (Josephine, Pin Oak owner), a super horsewoman and lady, and employees who have become great friends.

Who's been your favorite horse to be around in terms of personality? Maria's Mon--he was in a class of his own.

What's your ideal meal? A glass of good wine and good food at Bistro La Belle in Midway with my wife, Elizabeth.

Favorite vacation spot? Botswana, South Africa

Favorite music? I'm a country music fan.

Last good book you've read? Can't remember. Most books I read are industry related. I just don't have the time or patience to sit down and read a good novel or mystery.

What are your hobbies outside of racing? Bird Hunting with my two English Setters.

Favorite movie? I'm not a movie goer, unless it's a Disney movie with my girls. But on TV, outside of the racing channels, I really enjoy "American Idol," as I'm a big Carrie Underwood fan.

Favorite sports team(s)? Favorite athlete? The Hawks and the Diamonds, my girls' soccer teams. And of course, my favorite athletes are Audrey and Emily. I love watching them--they have such an enthusiasm for the sport.

CONGRATULATIONS! from Fasig-Tipton's Own Graded Stakes-Winning Stars of the Week:

STEVE'S DOUBLE - GIII Perryville S. at Keeneland 10/13
SOLDIER DANCER - GIII Calder Derby at Calder 10/13
SIR GALLOVIC - GIII BC Premiers H. at Hastings 10/14

Congratulations to all their connections!

Master O'Reilly raced his way into G1 Melbourne Cup contention with a commanding performance yesterday. Stablemate Douro Valley tried to pinch the race, dashing three lengths clear after straightening into the stretch, but Master O'Reilly came from midfield with a superb turn of foot to take the lead late, pulling away to a handy success. Danny O'Brien became the first trainer since 1982 to saddle the first two finishers in the prestigious race. "This is a dream come true," O'Brien told au.sport.yahoo.com. The connections of the ante-post favorite were understandably shaken. A devastated Mark Kavanagh, trainer of Maldivian, told au.sports.yahoo.com, "It's been stitched up and is not career threatening, but at this stage he's out for the spring. Racing is a cruel game. The last few weeks have been pretty good, but this is a tough one to swallow. Racing is very ruthless, I can tell you."

BREEDERS' CUP BULLETIN

KELLY'S LANDING SHARP IN SPRINT PREP

Summerplace Farm's Kelly's Landing (Patton) turned in his final work ahead of next weekend's GI TVG Breeders' Cup Sprint, covering five furlongs over the Keeneland Polytrack in :59 flat. It was the second fastest of 32 works at the distance. "He worked super," said trainer Eddie Kenneally. "He's ready to run. He hasn't run since March, but he's a horse that runs very well fresh, so we're happy." Indeed, Kelly's Landing will be making his first trip to the post since taking the G1 Dubai Golden Shaheen at Nad Al Sheba Mar. 31. But Kenneally admits that wasn't completely by design. "We had hoped to give him a fall race, one race before the Breeders' Cup as a prep," he said. "We had a couple of minor setbacks so we ran out of time and didn't have an opportunity to get a prep race into him. He won the [GIII] Phoenix [BC S.] at Keeneland last October, prepping for the Breeders' Cup, and we were pointing toward the Phoenix this year, but we kind of lost some ground and had to play catch up, so we decided just to forget about it and go right into the Breeders' Cup." Kelly's Landing was 10th in last year's Sprint at Churchill Downs. The six-year-old, who will fly to Monmouth Park Wednesday, will be ridden by Frankie Dettori, who was aboard for the Golden Shaheen success.

MACH RIDE DECLARED FROM SPRINT

Rustlewood Farm Inc.'s Mach Ride (Pentelicus), who upset a field including Smokey Stover (Put It Back) and Fabulous Strike in the GII Smile Sprint H. at Calder July 13, has been declared from the GI Breeders' Cup Sprint due to a popped abscess.

WICKED CONTINUES TO PROGRESS IN STYLE

Wicked Style (Macho Uno), the undefeated winner of the GI Lane's End Breeders' Futurity at Keeneland Oct. 6, geared up for his run in the GI Bessemer Trust Breeders' Cup Juvenile by drilling five furlongs in 1:00.80 yesterday at Keeneland. "I wanted him to go in 1:01, so that's about as close as you can get," said trainer Rusty Arnold with a chuckle. Wicked Style is due at Monmouth Wednesday.

MCPEEK TIGHTENS THE SCREWS

Trainer Ken McPeek sent out his two Breeders' Cup hopefuls for five-furlong works yesterday morning. A to the Croft (Menifee), bound for the GI Grey Goose Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies, and Old Man Buck (Hold That Tiger), who was entered for both the GI Bessemer Trust Breeders' Cup Juvenile and Juvenile Turf, were each awarded a final clocking of :59.80. "They both worked good," McPeek commented. "It was a nice, solid maintenance work." The stablemates were scheduled to work at Churchill Downs, but were shipped to Keeneland to avoid a wet main track in Louisville.

TATTERSALLS OCTOBER CONCLUDES The third and final book of the Tattersalls October Yearling Sale ended yesterday with a session that lasted less than two hours. The finale featured a top price of only 15,000gns and a clearance rate of 39 percent. Newmarket trainer Paul D'Arcy bought the session topper, lot 2018, a Namid (GB) half-sister to his winning juvenile Suzi's Decision (GB) (Act One {GB}). "I think the half-sister is a nice progressive filly for next year and the half-brother Pippa Greene (GB) is rated 99, so this was the snip of the sale," said D'Arcy. Despite a rise in numbers, turnover at Part Three fell by 23 percent to 5,697,400gns, the average of 15,524gns was down 16 percent and the median of 11,000gns dropped by 25 percent. The overall clearance rate was 64 percent, compared to 84 percent in 2006. At the conclusion of the sale, Tattersalls Chairman Edmond Mahony commented, "Books 2 and 3 of the 2007 Tattersalls October Yearling Sale have produced record turnover, a fraction below 30,000,000 guineas. If one considers that the turnover for this week last year rose a phenomenal 63 percent and has more than doubled since 2004, it puts the overall strength of this week in perspective." Mahony added, "Book 2 in particular was massive, driven by a very strong Book 1. There were 55 six-figure lots in Book 2, compared with 38 in 2006, and demand was little short of amazing at times. The last couple of sessions of Book 3 have, however, served as a reminder of the impact of the huge foal crops we are currently handling.

We have catalogued nearly 200 more yearlings than last year in Books 1 to 3, and it was not easy towards the end. This is an area of the market which can only improve as and when the numbers diminish and prize money in Britain improves." The chairman concluded, "We were a little concerned going into Book 3 that the amount of European money spent in the USA owing to the favourable exchange rate would at some point have an impact, and it seemed to be felt towards the end of the sale. Overall, though, we can look back on Books 1, 2 and 3 of the 2007 October Yearling Sales in a positive frame of mind. Very nearly €100,000,000 has been spent on yearlings here over the last two weeks, with new faces from throughout the world and strong British and Irish demand all paying tribute to the enduring reputation of the Tattersalls October Yearling Sales." Dr. V's Magic followed in his big brother's hoofprints pulling off the upset in this rich event. The bay posted a win over this course in the New York Stallion Spectacular Bid S. June 3 and followed with a third-place finish in the Mike Lee S. June 24. He could only manage a seventh-place finish in the New York Derby at Finger Lakes July 14, but bounced back well with a runner-up effort in Saratoga's Albany S. Aug. 22. Favored at even-money in a $30,000 optional claimer against state breds Sept. 20, Dr. V's Magic crossed the line a disappointing third. Overlooked in this return to stakes company, the Majesty Stud homebred raced in fifth after stumbling at the start. Given his cue on the turn for home by Kent Desormeaux, he began to rally on the outside and got the better of a game runner-up. "I got stone left in his last three starts," Desormeaux said. "I finally figured out what he was doing last time; he literally tries to get into a fight with the starter at the starting gate. In communication with the starter, we decided we weren't going to have a man in there. He broke in front, and I had to rein him in. That was the difference; I had so much horse. When the horse inside made a move on him, I thought I was beat. He then re-broke and bore down for the wire."

Al Basha cleared his first state-bred allowance condition June 1, then finished second, beaten a neck, at the next level July 8. He annexed a $30,000 optional claimer at Saratoga Aug. 17 and entered off a nose defeat in the Ashley T. Cole H. Sept. 16. Allowed to trail the field through slow fractions of :25.95 and :51.82, Al Basha rallied on the outside in the stretch and was along in time. “I was betting my life that the race would have come off the turf [Friday],” trainer Angel Penna, Jr. said. “But I walked the course this morning, and it was not bad at all. This is a very good horse. He’s never been off the board, and he just got beat a nose by one of the best New York-breds [Dave in the Ashley T. Cole]. I’ll probably give him a little break and bring him back in Florida.”

Rewrite took her career batting record to .500 with this game effort. Winner of the Dinner Diamond S. at Saratoga July 27, the chestnut came up a half-length short to Factual Contender last out in the Dynamic Lisa S. going a mile at Belmont Sept. 29. The Amherst homebred saved ground early near the back of the pack, took to the outside to deliver her challenge and outfinished her rivals to prevail in a photo finish.

The chestnut never factored when fourth last out in the Floral Park S. for New York-breds Sept. 27 over track and trip, and wasn't given much of a chance here. The four-year-old set out in front and put up fractions of :22.98 and :46.23. She dug in gamely when headed by fellow longshot Mama Theresa and went on to key a $565 exacta.

Ferocious Fires entered this with a perfect five-for-five record, but needed a little help from the stewards to keep it in tact. The chestnut posted a $75,000 optional claimer victory over this course against open company last September and was last seen notching the Mr. Leader S. at the Big A Nov. 11. Away slowly here, he was seventh in the early stages as favored Stormin Normandy dictated the early pace. With Ramon Dominguez aboard, Ferocious Fires began to rally in the stretch, but couldn't get by Stormin Normandy, who drifted out repeatedly throughout the stretch. Stormin Normandy held on to take it by a neck, but was DQ'd and placed second. "Officially, he's still undefeated," trainer Tony Dutrow said. "He had a hind ankle problem that needed time. But obviously, he came back real strong. It's a little unfortunate that you ever have to win by disqualification, especially when you add my brother into the mix. I don't want to take anything away from either horse. My horse ran super coming back off the layoff, and Ricky's horse [Stormin Normandy] ran great against older horses for the first time." Video, sponsored by Taylor Made.

Expect the End was haltered for $30,000 out of a winning debut at Churchill Downs May 16 and finished second in her first start for her new connections in the Colleen S. at Monmouth July 29. The dark bay rolled by 13 1/2 lengths against state breds in the Jena Jena S. at Saratoga Aug. 27 and dug in gamely to defeat Meriwether Jessica by a nose in the Joseph A Gimma S. last out Sept. 23. Trying an extra furlong here, the IEAH Stables' colorbearer had plenty of company on the lead through fractions of :23.65 and :47.58, but had plenty left in the reserves, and drew away smartly in the stretch to win her third straight. "This horse always breaks really fast," jockey Rafael Bejarano said. "I just wanted to see how she would break, and with the first couple of jumps, she made the lead pretty easy. After that, I was playing with my horse and she was fine. I had plenty of horse and at around the three-eighths pole, I asked her and she finished up good." Video, sponsored by Taylor Made.

Giant Moon dueled his way clear to record a five-furlong maiden win at first asking Sept. 12 and entered the starting gate as the second choice here. Forwardly placed by Kent Desormeaux, the Albert Fried, Jr. homebred dueled throughout, began to edge clear in the stretch, but had to dig down deep to hold off the rapidly closing Coastal Drive. "I was surprised when he won first time out because he just didn't train that precociously," trainer Rick Schosberg commented. "I told [owner] Mr. [Albert] Fried to not even bother to come out for the maiden race. After that race, I told him, `I'm glad you're mad at me.' The only reasons I considered him for this race were his pedigree and the fact that he never trains that good. It's not that he doesn't do anything right in the mornings; he's just a loafer. I tried to get some bottom into him to get the mile, but he really only wants to work in :49 and change. His pedigree came out today and his class came out today. I think we're going to have a real nice three-year-old on our hands. We might run once more thins year." Heavily favored Big Truck had no excuses while third. Video, sponsored by Taylor Made.

Runner-up in her first two starts, Cute Cognac graduated July 8 going nine panels over Belmont's sod. The bay didn't face the starter again until Sept. 16, when she defeated state-breds over the same course and distance, and was the third choice here in her stakes debut. Unhurried early, the Parting Glass flagbearer kicked into gear turning for home and drew clear late for her first stakes success.

+Z FORTUNE (c, 2, Siphon {Brz}--Fortunate Faith {GSW, $251,635}, by Fortunate Prospect), debuting with Lasix, argued the pace from the git-go, and turned it on in the stretch to win by 6 1/2 lengths over Dixieland Star (Hook and Ladder). The victor, an $80,000 FTKJUL yearling, was sent off at odds of 5-1. Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, $27,600.

Sargent Seattle makes his first start since being tabbed as a ✪ "TDN Rising Star" ✪ for his debut score July 25 at Saratoga, earning a 93 Beyer Speed Figure. The dark bay scored by 6 1/2 lengths that day (video) and looked to become a major force in his division, but was forced to miss the GII Futurity S. in September with a cough. The son of MSW Sweet Nanette has been training smartly for his return. Smoke'n Coal, a full brother to millionaire Smoke'n Frolic, gets Lasix after a sharp first-out score at Belmont Sept. 22.

This race is shaping up as a consolation prize for a trio of colts that didn't draw into Friday's inaugural $1-million Breeders' Cup Juvenile Turf at Monmouth; Moral Compass, Why Tonto and Cannonball were all left standing on the sidelines when pre-entries were announced last Wednesday. Moral Compass, fifth to Maimonides in his Aug. 8 opener at the Spa, finished second to Juvenile Turf hopeful Gio Ponti when switched to the grass Sept. 7 at Belmont. He graduated impressively last out over this course Oct. 6 and has trained smartly since. Why Tonto turned his form around in his turf bow Sept. 8 at the Meadowlands and promptly added the World Appeal S. over the same sod Sept. 28.

Kiss the Kid has held his own versus graded stakes company on the lawn throughout the season, and had no problem annexing this off-the-turf event. The dark bay notched a $50,000 optional claimer in the Monmouth mud July 5, then finished a good second at 26-1 in the GIII Oceanport S. Aug. 5. Given a breather following that effort, he finished fourth, beaten 5 1/4 lengths to English Channel in the GI Joe Hirsch Turf Classic Invitational S. last out Sept. 30. Sent off as the chalk against this field of four, he pressed Pass Play from second, took over in the stretch and drew away to take it convincingly. Woodlander (Forestry), the 9-5 second choice, was eased.

Mrs. Began debuted with a third-place finish at 27-1 in the Shady Wells S. July 15 and mirrored that effort on the grass behind Lickety Lemon Aug. 4. The bay flattened out to be fourth in the Muskoka S. going seven panels over this surface Sept. 3, and was the third choice here while stretching out for the first time. After shadowing odds-on Victory Romance from the start on the inside, the Zayat colorbearer regrouped in deep stretch and forged ahead of the favorite to break her maiden in opportune style. "[Victory Romance] looked like she was loping along comfortably on the lead, so I didn't want to leave this filly too much to do," said winning rider Jim McAleney. "I had more than enough horse to get there. This filly has some great attributes, and I always thought she should be this good. I guess it just took two turns to get it done. She's a big, strong filly." Trainer Reade Baker added, " thought she could have won sprinting today. She'd had an entrapped epiglottis the last time when she ran. She just needed some time to mature. I was optimistic she could go this far."

Black Type Designators for North American Racing

A Graded Race is defined as a non-restricted race with added money or guaranteed purse value of $50,000 or more which has been run at least twice under similar conditions and on the same surface and has been assigned graded stakes status for the year contested by the American Graded Stakes Committee of the Thoroughbred Owners and Breeders Association (TOBA) for the United States, or The Jockey Club of Canada for Canada.

Woodbine Opts Out of Empire Racing:

As Churchill Downs and Magna before them, the Woodbine Entertainment Group has officially announced its withdrawl from the Empire Racing bid to take over the New York racing franchise. "An economically viable horse racing industry in New York is not only important to the State, it is a critical component of the overall health of the industry across North America," said David Willmot, chairman and chief executive officer of Woodbine Entertainment Group. "The bidding and decision making process governing the New York thoroughbred racing franchise has changed dramatically since the commencement of the process. We no longer feel that Woodbine can contribute under current conditions. When initially asked, Woodbine agreed to participate in the bid process out of a genuine interest in the continued excellence of New York racing. It remains Woodbine's hope that a solution will be achieved that will ensure this outcome," said Willmot.

Alumni Hall to Norse Ridge:

Alumni Hall (A.P. Indy--Private Status, by Alydar), a dual Grade III winner and a full brother to GI Kentucky Oaks winner Secret Status, will enter stud in 2008 at Norse Ridge Farm in King, Ontario. Racing in the colors of William S. Farish and partners, Alumni Hall celebrated his most productive season in 2005, with five wins from 10 starts, including Keeneland's two main handicap events, the GIII Ben Ali S. in the spring and the GIII Fayette S. during the fall meet. The following season he finished runner-up in the Ben Ali and in the GIII Eclipse S. at Woodbine. He retires with nine wins and eight minor placings from 29 starts and earnings of $747,756. He will stand for a fee of $5,000, live foal guaranteed.

Red Smith Award Winners Announced:

First-time winners Eric Crawford of the Louisville Courier-Journal and John Scheinman of the Washington Post along with multiple winners Steve Haskin and William Nack are the winners of the 2007 Red Smith Kentucky Derby Writing Contest. Crawford earned his award for his piece entitled "Bo-rail Actually Took the Long Route", a profile of Kentucky Derby winning rider Calvin Borel. Scheinman's entry profiled trainer Carl Nafzger and his relaxed approach to the Kentucky Derby. Haskin posted a record fifth win in the "Monday Wrap-Up" category, while Nack won his award for "Derby Feature," a profile of four-time Kentucky Derby winner and Hall of Famer D. Wayne Lukas. Each of the winners will receive an engraved crystal vase to be presented during the National Turf Writers Association's Awards Dinner Wednesday night on a chartered yacht cruise.

Golden Doc A kicked off her career with a fifth in Cal-bred maiden company July 8 at Hollywood, but picked a good spot to break through next out, the Generous Portion S. at Del Mar Aug. 29. Fourth versus colts in the I'm Smokin S. over the same oval Sept. 3, the big chestnut never fired going two turns in the GI Oak Leaf S. over this surface, finishing ninth. Cutting back to sprint here, the California-bred was unhurried in the early stages, but made a sweeping move on the turn to reach contention entering the stretch. She hooked up with Foxy Danseur and narrowly prevailed after a long battle.

California Closer to Opening Up ADW:

Hollywood Park has reached an agreement to open its fall meeting to all of the licensed advanced deposit wagering (ADW) providers in the state, subject to approval from the Thoroughbred Owners of California (TOC). The California Horse Racing Board (CHRB) has in the past been critical of contracts which allow for exclusive coverage rights to a given track. "We may be on the precipice of truly being able to open up wagering in California," said CHRB Chairman Richard B. Shapiro, who thanked officials at Hollywood Park for "working 24/7 with the ADW companies to try to bring about a global solution" to exclusivity. Jack Liebau, president of Hollywood Park, said that subject to TOC and CHRB approval, the ADW agreements could extend to the Santa Anita, Bay Meadows, Golden Gate and Hollywood spring meets into next summer. Drew Couto, president of the TOC, said his organization was not party to the negotiations and had not had sufficient time to analyze the economic impact of such a decision. He indicated that the TOC Board of Directors would make a decision prior to the Nov. 7 opening of Hollywood Park. "We need to make certain any financial burden does not fall primarily on horsemen," he commented. David Nathanson, senior vice president and general manager of the Television Games Network (TVG) said the new model should be viewed "as an opportunity to explore what is in fact in the best interests of horse racing. We can determine the value of non-exclusivity in terms of participation and handle."

PROSSER HAILS SUCCESS

Newmarket Director of Racing and Clerk of the Course Michael Prosser was thrilled with yesterday's renewal of Champions' Day. At the close of the seven-race card, which produced the championship decider in the G1 Darley Dewhurst S. that everybody had hoped for, Prosser commented, "It has been a totally pulsating day's racing. The Darley Dewhurst S. lived up to expectations, the [G1] Emirates Airline Champion S. was won by a good, improving horse, while the £2.5 Million totescoop6 Cesarewitch as usual captured the public's imagination. Today our big races were won by representatives from Ireland and France, and the level of international competition generated with the best horses coming to Newmarket has made the meeting particularly special. That in a nutshell is exactly what the Home of Racing is striving for--a level of international competition that is second to none." Champions' Day also marked the final major meeting presided over by Managing Director Lisa Hancock after a seven-season spell. "It's the racedays that have made my job," Hancock said. "That's what it's all about. The completion of the July Course re-build is something I'm very proud of and honoured to have been involved with, because it's something that is going to be there for a long, long time. It's been a fantastic seven years and I really have enjoyed my time."

Leg Spinner, whose presence at the races is rare, warmed up for this marathon by beating one home in a Listowel hurdle race Sept. 23. The bay won a two-mile Ascot handicap at the Shergar Cup meet on his previous outing Aug. 11, but was let go an outsider here. Buried in midfield initially, the gelding was eased to within a few lengths of the leaders at the half-mile pole. Shaken up with a quarter mile remaining, he took it up soon after and was ridden out in the final eighth to secure the purse for his shrewd handler. "I couldn't have been happier during the race, and he had a wonderful jockey who knows the horse," trainer Tony Martin said. "I got excited three furlongs out, but luckily Johnny didn't and he kept hold of him. This has always been the plan since he came back from injury and, in the last 10 days, I knew that he was definitely on track and he's really been telling us. Everything was on his side today, including the ground drying up. As for the future, he won't go on soft ground and we will have to be very careful what we do. He's won his few hurdles and I'm definitely not against going jumping with him. He's a bit small for fences, although he does jump very well, but we'll leave him to hurdles for the time being."

AUTUMN SALE ENJOYS UPTURN

BBAG's Autumn Mixed Sale registered slight increases in both median and average after the third and final session yesterday. SARO Ltd brought home the day's topper, going to €100,000 for a daughter of Samum (Ger). From the immediate family of the previous session's top-priced yearling, which was later declared as a buy-back, Peter Battel's hip 418 is out of a full-sister to the group scorers Pepperstorm (Ger), Peppercorn (Ger) and Peppershot (Ger). Baron Helmut von Finck paid €95,000 for a foal filly by Selkirk consigned by Gerd Sindermann. Hip 391 is the first produce of the smart Koonunga Hill (Ger), who is a close relative to leading sprinters Key To Pleasure (Ger) and Kaka (Ger). Later in the session, Jurgen Albrecht paid the same amount for Gestut Auenquelle's hip 484, a yearling son of Big Shuffle who is a full brother to the unbeaten juvenile champion filly Glady Beauty (Ger). Full results are available on www.bbag-sales.de.
