TAGG SWEEPS SATURDAY'S GRADED STAKES

A day after announcing that stable star Nobiz Like Shobiz will be heading to California for the GI Hollywood Derby, trainer Barclay Tagg swept the graded stakes action in the U.S. Less than an hour after saddling Dave (Ends Well) to a 14-1 upset in the GII Red Smith H. at Aqueduct (see page 3), Tagg added the GII Mrs. Revere S. at Churchill Downs with Bit of Whimsy (Distorted Humor). Favored at 8-5, Bit of Whimsy stayed close to the leaders while sixth through fractions of :47.99 and 1:12.36. With jockey Javier Castellano in the irons, she rallied to gain a short lead in the stretch and dug down deep to outkick Ciao (Lear Fan) for a half-length decision. "She had to run a little harder this time, than she did last time [in the GI Queen Elizabeth II Challenge Cup S. at Keeneland Oct. 13], but she pulled it off," Tagg said of the QEII victress. "It looked like they were going to run by her right there at the eighth pole and she dug in again and kept right on running. I loved that. She is going to Florida for the winter and I am not going to let her get too far away from me. I have a tentative plan for what I want to do next year and I will see how Florida fits into it, but I am not going to go crazy about Florida." Cont. p2

CURTAIN CLOSER AT SAINT-CLOUD

In the wake of last term's stellar renewal--which Passage of Time (GB) outgunned Soldier of Fortune (Ire)--Europe's pattern-race season draws to a close today with the G1 Criterium de Saint-Cloud. The race has escaped France on five occasions since its upgrade to Group 1 status in 1980, and Ballydoyle incumbent Aidan O'Brien, responsible for two of those victories with Ballingarry (Ire) in 2001 and Alberto Giacometti (Ire) the following year, leads the foreign invasion once again. He relies on Tale of Two Cities (Ire) (Sadler's Wells), a full brother to High Chaparral (Ire) who finished third at Cork in his only start Oct. 20; and New Zealand (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}), who remains a maiden after four attempts. Cont. p8

SLY LIKE A BUTTERFLY

The drone of the auctioneering had lulled the Keeneland sale pavilion into a case of the autumn doldrums, but Sly Butterfly (Pulpit), selling in the final hour of yesterday's action, helped inject some life into the proceedings by sparking a bidding duel that included at least four separate parties intent on landing the young stakes producer. Stonerside Stable's racing and bloodstock manager John Adger, sitting an ulna's length away from the bidspotter in the front of the pavilion, saw off all challengers to eventually land the mare for $410,000. Sly Butterfly is the dam of the two-year-old stakes winner Wind in My Wings and was consigned by Hidden Brook, agent for Adena Springs. She is carrying a foal by freshman sire Macho Uno, the Adena stallion who has been represented this year by a pair of stakes winners, including GI Lane's End Breeders' Futurity victor Wicked Style. Cont. p9

Keeneland Slows a Bit on Saturday...

After a strong five-day run to open the Keeneland November sale, action slowed during yesterday's sixth session with double-digit declines in both average and median. At the end of trading Saturday, the session average had dipped 10.2 percent to $67,881, while the session median was down 11.7 percent to $53,000. "It was weaker than I thought it would be today, but a horse that still ticks all the boxes, to quote John Ferguson, like Sly Butterfly, will still sell very well," said Keeneland's Director of Sales Geoffrey Russell, who added, "You're starting to see a changeover over buyers as the sale gets into the first weekend. There were quite a few people from South America. I'm guessing that Point Determined [who was purchased for $100,000 by agent Dr. Oscar Benavides], for instance, will go south of the border." Despite a less-than-stellar day, the November Sale is still enjoying a 10-percent gain on cumulative average from 2006 figures; 1,372 horses have sold so far for an average of $210,266. The cumulative median is down 9.1 percent, however.

behind the ill-fated Alexander Tango (Ire) in the GI Garden City S. Sept. 8. Sent off at 6-1 in the QEII Cup, the chestnut defeated champion Dreaming of Anna by 2 1/4 lengths. Castellano has been aboard Bit of Whimsy in her last three starts. "I had a beautiful, perfect trip," Castellano said yesterday. "It was the dream trip to have. There was not much speed in the race and she settled in right behind the leaders going into the first turn. I was saving ground going down the backside, all the way along the rail, and when I asked her, I swung around the leaders and she went on by. The other horse [Ciao] was coming after me very strong, and I give her a lot of credit, but my filly, is a nice filly and she fought all the way to the finish. She is getting better and better; she is a more mature filly and I think she is improving a lot each race."

The solid New York-bred Dave had won only two of of 13 starts the past two seasons, but stepped up with a big one in his graded-stakes debut here. Dave finished seventh behind Sunriver as the 5-2 favorite in a $75,000 optional claimer at Belmont in June, then faced state-breds in his next four attempts. He placed a good second in the Naskra's Breeze S. July 12 and followed with a fourth-place finish in the West Point H. Aug. 12. He annexed the Ashley T. Cole H. by a nose Sept. 16, but failed to duplicate that effort when fifth in the Mohawk H. last time Oct. 20. Overlooked by the Big A faithful, he raced toward the back of the pack over the boggy going through pedestrian early fractions of :24.65, :50.28 and 1:16.80. With Joe Bravo aboard, Dave was checked on the turn for home, but kicked it into top gear once clear to win going away. "He's a pretty classy old horse," Bravo said. "Barclay [Tagg] and Robin [Smullen] made my job easy. They know the horse like the backs of their hands. They told me step by step what they wanted. At the top of the lane, I had plenty of horse. I had ridden him a year ago at the Meadowlands and just missed. Today, the turf course was a lot better than I expected."

Tashelka bettered a first stakes success in the Listed Prix Mme Jean Couturie at Vichy July 15 by taking the Aug. 19 G3 Prix de la Nonette at Deauville, but dropped to eighth in the G1 Prix Vermeille at Longchamp next time Sept. 16. Though she was off the board again in the G3 Prix de Flore at Saint-Cloud last out Oct. 25, she rebounded in style here, leading home a Sheikh Mohammed-owned trifecta in France's penultimate group race of the year. The grey filly was urged along after a tardy start and moved up to second passing the judge for the first time. Urged to the front off the home turn, she refused to relinquish her advantage thereafter and was ridden out inside the final furlong to win in cozy fashion. A daughter of Danzig's G1 Dewhurst S. hero Mujahid, Tashelka was produced by a half-sister to SW & G1SP Tashkandi (Ire) (Polish Precedent). She was picked up for €17,000 at Deauville last February.

San Siro specialist Icelandic, second in the G2 Emilio Turati at this track June 3, hit the board in the Listed Premio del Giubileo on the same course two weeks later. He claimed a course-and-distance conditions score next time Sept. 26, and continued with a runner-up effort in a local six-furlong conditions event last time Oct. 28. Racing off the pace after a tardy exit here, he was last with a quarter mile remaining, but surged past every rival on the outside to wrap up a snug victory inside the final 100 meters for a career high.

Tears I Cry led home a trifecta of outsiders in one of the biggest upsets in the history of the Melbourne Cup carnival. Fourth in a 1400-meter race on Tuesday's Melbourne Cup undercard, Tears I Cry was scorned in the wagering, but 21-year-old jockey Nikita Beriman--having her first ride in a Group 1--had every faith in her mount, as did 26-year-old provincial trainer Ciaron Maher, who seasoned the gelding with old-fashioned hillside work at Warrnambool. The bay was settled in sixth and, as the well-fancied front-runners began to flail, was brought four wide to deliver his challenge. He swept down the outside and won with 3/4 of a length to spare from 90-1 shot Bird Dancer, with 80-1 chance Shinzig a further length back in third. In NSW, the trifecta paid A$105,205.80. "I said to Ciaron, I really think this horse is over the odds; he deserves more credit than he gets, he is a smart horse and he has proved that today," said Beriman. "I am so excited I can hardly speak."

Australian speed queens Miss Andretti and Gold Edition provided a fitting finale to the Melbourne Cup carnival, with the former narrowly prevailing in a spine-tingling duel for her fifth Group 1 victory. Gold Edition's trainer Ron Maund instructed jockey Stathi Katsidis to place her mount in the center in the early stages and to keep away from the favorite. However, the plan unraveled when jockey Craig Newitt glued Miss Andretti to the grey speedster and followed her every move. The bay collared Gold Edition with 350 meters remaining and forged ahead for her 10th victory in her last 11 starts. She has now beaten the four-year-old in each of their three clashes. Winning trainer Lee Freedman has his sights set on the G1 Hong Kong International Sprint at Sha Tin Dec. 9. In autumn, Miss Andretti secured a Group 1 treble of the Lightning S. Feb. 2 at Moonee Valley, the Australia S. a fortnight later and the Newmarket H. Mar. 10 at Flemington. Three months later, the athletic mare resurfaced at Royal Ascot to snare the G2 King's Stand S. June 19, but four days later at the same venue, failed to place in the G1 Golden Jubilee S. when soft ground blunted her razor-sharp ability to quicken. She resumed her career Oct. 27, denying Gold Edition in the G2 Schweppes S.

Peter and Philip Vela's homebred Insouciant didn't make it to the races until Sept. 14 when she announced herself with a six-length victory in record time at Taupo. Four starts later, she notched a dominant win here. Insouciant took the lead after 200 meters, and jockey Michael Walker steadied the tempo before asking his mount to extend at the top of the straight. Insouciant opened a two-length lead and scored comfortably. Lovetrista raced in fourth, but drifted in when making her challenge. Though she crossed the line second, she was relegated to third. Keepa Cruisin was moved up to provide a Group 1 exacta for sophomore sire Keeper, a son of Danehill who stands at Cambridge Stud.

Lightly raced Eyeofthetiger posted an upset here. After pairing up victories at San Isidro in May and July, the dark bay ran third over that course in the G1 GP Dos Mil Guineas Aug. 4, and mirrored that effort at Palermo in the G1 GP Polla de Potrillos Sept. 15. He came into this contest off a sixth in the 2000-meter G1 GP Jockey Club at San Isidro Oct. 13. Unhurried early behind leisurely early splits set by longshot Arandano En Boca, Eyeofthetiger ranged up to challenge on the outside after 2000 meters in 2:04.35 and kept finding more to deny the persistent Puchet.

Palermo sensation Lady Sprinter maintained her unbeaten record in style with this first Group 1 tally. The Kentucky-bred had captured her first five outings, all over this surface, including the G3 Clasico Mexico Aug. 26 and the G3 Clasico Loteria Nacional Oct. 12 last out. Favored here against her elders, the dark bay was forwardly placed from the start, took over from Pampero Moon midway through the straight course and made it to the wire safely in front of the wide-challenging Knock. Click for the video replay.

Like O'Brien, Criquette Head-Maarek also has two previous trophies in this contest, and she too has a pair of candidates this time around. Juddmonte colorbearer Putney Bridge took three attempts to break through and did so at Clairefontaine Aug. 25. The bay colt followed up in impressive fashion at Deauville last time Oct. 22. Full of Gold, who races in the all-red silks of Alec Head, was supplemented at a cost of €15,000. He returns after a smashing maiden win at this track Oct. 26. David Smaga saddles dual winner Hannouma, second in the G3 Prix de Conde at Longchamp last time Oct. 21. The bay holds the call over Putney Bridge, having defeated that rival at Clairefontaine Aug. 3. Sole British representative Siberian Tiger is the lone previous stakes winner in the line-up. Successful in the Listed Silver Tankard S. at Pontefract Oct. 22, he bids to improve on trainer Mick Channon's best effort in the contest, which came courtesy of Top Seed (Ire)'s fourth in 2003.

Bullet With Butterfly Wings...

The day's session topper, the eight-year-old Sly Butterfly, is a daughter of the durable MSW Wild Lightning (Wild Again), a 16-time winner of nearly $400,000, and is a half-sister to SW Saintliness (Holy Bull). The foal Sly Butterfly's currently carrying, then, will be bred along the same line as Saintliness, as Macho Uno is a son of Holy Bull. As a racehorse, Sly Butterfly was a stakes winner of $78,472 and has gotten off to a good start at stud, Adger reports. "She's got a nice Congaree [yearling filly] and a nice El Prado (Ire) [weanling colt], and I believe [Adena Springs] is going to keep and race those," he explained. Sly Butterfly's first foal, meanwhile, the juvenile filly Wind in My Wings (Sligo Bay {Ire}), made $100,000 at this year's Adena Springs two-year-old sale. She broke her maiden at Woodbine in her route debut Sept. 21, then came back to become the first stakes winner for her freshman sire by taking Keeneland's own Jessamine S. Oct. 11. Given that Sly Butterfly's first foal is already a stakes winner, Adger wasn't surprised by the price. "Mares that look like they are on the verge of being good producers, they're going to bring plenty, whether they sell on Saturday or on one of the first days of the sale," he commented. "You're not going to hide too much in this sale." He added, "I don't know if I would have spent any more than that, but that was about right. We'll see if we get lucky." Adger said that breeding plans for the mare were undecided.

TDN CRITERIA

The races covered in the TDN are as follows:

- Stakes - purses of $45,000/up
- Allowance Races - purses of $20,000/up
- Optional Claiming Races - purses of $20,000/up and a minimum claiming price of $25,000
- Maiden Special Weight Races - purses of $18,000/up
- Maiden Claiming Races - purses of $18,000/up and a minimum claiming price of $40,000

Quick Start to the Day...

Saturday's sixth session got off to a good start when Votsi, a four-year-old broodmare by A.P. Indy, was knocked down for $310,000, the second-highest price for a mare yesterday. Domino Stud of Lexington purchased Votsi from the draft of Brookdale Sales, agent. "We were expecting about 75 percent of the price she made, so we were very happy," said Brookdale's Joe Seitz, who was offering the filly on behalf of a client. Votsi sold in foal to Cherokee Run, meaning the resulting foal will represent the same cross that produced this year's GII Indiana Derby winner Zanjero. The nicely bred Votsi is a half-sister to group winner Divine Task (Irish River {Fr}). She was produced by Set In Motion (Mr. Prospector), a winning half-sister to champion grass mare Hatoof and to Grade I winner Irish Prize. Racing for Darley this spring, Votsi broke her maiden in her sixth trip to the post on the grass at Santa Anita Feb. 9, then made her final start when seventh in an allowance race Mar. 1.

A Topper is Crowned...

It's safe to say that when Larry W. Baker, Jr. purchased Cannons Crown as a two-year-old for the bargain-basement price of $1,000 at the Fasig-Tipton Kentucky Winter Mixed sale in 2004, he likely had modest expectations for the Ohio-bred. Maybe she'd turn into a good allowance horse, maybe she'd even take a state-bred stakes or two. That, however, didn't happen, and so it was that Baker, a trainer, sent out Cannons Crown to a seven-length victory in a $3,500 maiden claimer at Thistledown in August of 2005 in her third career start. Cannons Crown faced the starter just once more, running third in another inexpensive claimer, before being retired. Baker had a feeling about the mare, though, and opted to keep Cannons Crown as a broodmare. The following spring he agreed to a foal share with Darley to breed her to then unproven Street Cry (Ire). That was some seven months before Street Sense ensured his sire would top the freshman sire list with a smashing victory in the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile. Meanwhile, the success of Street Sense in the GI Kentucky Derby, as well as Street Cry's eight additional stakes winners this year, ensured that the result of that mating, a well-built weanling colt selling yesterday as hip 1894, would get plenty of looks. That was confirmed when a number of bidders vied for the colt, who eventually was knocked down to Peter O'Callaghan for $270,000. It was the highest price paid for a weanling yesterday. Hip 1894 was consigned by John Stuart and Peter Bance's Bluegrass Thoroughbred Services, Inc., and was prepped for the sale at Sean Curtin's Moonestone Farm. "He had been at Mr. Baker's farm before coming to me," said Curtin, who went on to explain why Baker decided to breed Cannons Crown. "She had a knee problem, but Mr. Baker thought she had a lot of potential and liked her," he said. When she produced a colt this spring, it seemed like Baker had made the right decision, and the way he progressed did nothing to take away from that assumption. "The colt wasn't very big for his age, but he was very good-looking and he had a great walk," Curtin explained.

“He had a lot of Europeans looking at him--the under-bidders were Europeans--and they love a huge walk in their horses.” Still, did they come to the sale expecting to be the session topper? “No, not at all,” said Curtin. “I was thinking he’d sell for $50,000, maybe $60,000.” O’Callaghan, who operates Woods Edge Farm, signed the ticket under the name Walnut Hill Stables. “He’s a handsome horse by a good sire,” said O’Callaghan when asked about the colt’s appeal. The Irishman said his purchase would likely be pinhooked back at a yearling auction. “He was very expensive, but hopefully it’ll work out,” he said.

1994 colt Sky Mesa Gata Secreta 110,000
B-Needham-Betz Thoroughbreds, Inc, Corner Woods & Gainesway (Ky)

Consigned by Gainesway, Agent XXXVI
 Purchased by PHS Racing LLC

Gainesway purchased Gata Secreta, in foal to Flatter, for just $50,000 at the 2005 KEEJAN sale. That Flatter filly sold for $6,000 at the following November sale, but this colt by Sky Mesa made the investment profitable.

Fair Settlement? You Could Say That...

When Tim Thornton and Gov. Brereton Jones purchased Fair Settlement for $190,000 at the 2003 Keeneland November Sale while in foal to Elusive Quality, they were sure of one thing: she produced good-looking foals. Prior to that, a weanling colt out of the mare had made $275,000 at auction, and another made $260,000 as a yearling. Thornton and Jones's confidence that Fair Settlement would keep on producing attractive foals has been richly rewarded, as evidence in part by the sale of a weanling colt by Proud Citizen yesterday for $100,000. Consigned by Jones's Airdrie Stud as hip 1972, the bay colt was hammered down to Train Winners Bloodstock. The unraced Fair Settlement, by Easy Goer, is a daughter of MGSW Duty Dance and a half-sister to GSW Party Manners. "She's been very good to us," Jones confirmed yesterday. "She has wonderful-looking foals. And, of course, the Proud Citizens have been very hot. He's the second-leading freshman sire right now." But the success Thornton and Jones have enjoyed with Fair Settlement stretches well beyond yesterday's sale. The foal she was carrying when they bought her, named He's My Best, was sold for $625,000 as a yearling. Chiefswood Stables went to $250,000 for a Harlan's Holiday yearling filly now named Harlan Express at the 2006 September Sale, while a Forest Camp filly sold for $260,000 at this year's September renewal to Greg McDonald. That means Fair Settlement has produced $1,235,000 in sale horses since being purchased by Jones and Thornton, the farm manager at Airdrie. Fair Settlement? You bet.

What They're Saying At The Sales...

Gov. Brereton C. Jones, commented on the sale:

"It's like the sale's been the last few years; if you bring something up that people are looking for, you're going to get more for it than you thought you would get for it. But if it's not exactly right, it might fall through the cracks and you're going to leave disappointed. It's a hit or miss situation."

Your Flame in Me won her first three starts by daylight, ending her juvenile campaign with a 4 1/2-length tally in the Gin Talking S. at Laurel Sept. 16 and returning after a 7 1/2-month layoff to gallop home nine lengths to the good in the Apr. 28 Xtra Heat S. at Pimlico. The dark bay filly was the even-money chalk in the May 19 Gill Miss Preakness S., but tired to be fifth and was again sidelined. Making her comeback here, she went right to the lead, reeled off a half in :45.22 and drew away from the field for another easy score.

compete in the stakes ranks. He was looking to win this event for the third straight year. Freshened after finishing second in a Tampa Bay Downs stakes in May, the gelding returned to fill the runner-up spot in the July 21 GIII Arlington H. and followed up with a victory in the John's Call S. at Saratoga. The Live Oak homebred was unruly at the start of the Sept. 23 GII Sky Classic S. at Woodbine, first breaking through the gate, then rearing when the doors opened, and ended up sixth. Better behaved this time, Revved Up tracked the pace while tucked in at the rail early. He was angled out on the far turn, got to the front inside the eighth pole and held off fellow gray Soldier's Dancer in a game effort.

★ "TDN Rising Star" ★ High Resolve remained unbeaten with this impressive score. The gray filly led every step in two Bay Meadows victories, breaking her maiden by nine lengths Sept. 14 and adding a seven-length tally over optional claimers Oct. 18. Putting that speed on display once again here, she rattled off a half in :45.90 and, after jockey Russell Baze took a quick look back, kept on going. "When Russell looks in the rear-view mirror like that, then it's shame on the rest of them," said trainer Greg Gilchrist. "She conquered another battle today." As for what's next, he added, "We'll look at the Sunshine Millions [$250,000 SM Oaks at Gulfstream Jan. 26]. I don't know if she'll have a race between now and then or not."

A maiden winner at Calder in his third outing Sept. 6, He's Eze could do no better than sixth in his stakes bow, the Sept. 22 Foolish Pleasure S. at Calder, but turned the tables on odds-on Wise Answer here. A rank outsider at 30-1, he cut out fractions of :22.84, :46.24 and 1:11.17 and maintained his advantage in the final furlong. Wise Answer raced evenly to be third. "I'm definitely surprised he won the race, although he had trained superbly coming up to it," winning trainer Terry Oliver said, adding, "He's always been a nice colt, but he bled in the Foolish Pleasure. He had never bled before, but he appears to be over that now." He's Eze was purchased privately by Earl Silver and Michael Eiserman from breeder Brylynn Farm for $75,000 after his second start. CHAMPAGNE COOLIE (f, 2, Zavata--Love Tunnel, by Mining), a $65,000 KEESEP yearling, became the 12th winner for her freshman sire (by Phone Trick) with this 3/4-length score. The dark bay filly kicked off her career with an even fourth-place finish in the Monmouth mud on the first day of Breeders' Cup racing. Bet down to 7-5 in her second start, she went right to the front, had four lengths on the field at midstretch and just held off Jayeff B Stables' My Goodness (Storm Cat) at the wire. The runner-up, a $475,000 KEESEP yearling, is the first foal out of champion and GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies winner Caressing. Lifetime Record: 2-1-0-0, $22,900.

Calder Cuts Purses & Cancels a Pair of Stakes:

Calder Race Course will reduce its daily purses by approximately $10,000 beginning Thursday, Nov. 15. It was also announced that the Kris S S. and the Cherokee Frolic S. have been canceled. Originally scheduled for Dec. 8, the two turf stakes for juveniles carried purses of $100,000. According to Calder President Ken Dunn, the purse decreases are a result of lower-than-expected business levels due to poor weather conditions during the first part of the Tropical Meet.

Miss Missile has had a busy juvenile campaign, winning five races while visiting no less than seven different tracks. She captured her first two starts at Lone Star Park, then was fourth in the TTA Sales Futurity June 9. Off the board at Churchill and Canterbury, she rebounded with a stakes score at Assiniboia Downs in Western Canada Aug. 6. The bay made an unsuccessful turf debut at Louisiana Downs 12 days later, but came back to take a Retama allowance on the grass Sept. 28. She was coming off a 10th-place effort in Retama's La Senorita S. Oct. 27. Back on the dirt at double-digit odds, Miss Missile grabbed the lead after a half and romped home an easy winner.

Like a Gem was a little over her head when sixth in the Sept. 16 GII Canadian S., rebounding with an optional-claiming victory Oct. 12. She followed up with a 1 1/4-length success in the one-mile River Memories S. Oct. 27, but was a slight outsider switching to the all-weather and stretching out to 10 panels here. Proving she could handle the added distance, the gray pressed the pace, went after the lead at the quarter pole and fought it out with I'm in Love down the lane before prevailing at the wire.

Hucking Hot ended her British tenure with a maiden win at Beverly in June of 2006, and opened her U.S. account with a victory in the Hidden Lite S. at last year's Oak Tree meeting. A rallying fifth in the Gill Miesque S. last November, she capped off the campaign with a solid fourth-place performance when trying the Cushion in the Dec. 17 GI Hollywood Starlet S. The bay had been out just once since, missing by a head when second in the Mar. 3 China Doll S. at Santa Anita. The slight choice despite the extended absence, Hucking Hot was eager as she raced just off a moderate early pace. She split horses in the stretch and was clear as Lavender Sky came on for second. With the win, Garrett Gomez tied Jerry Bailey's 2003 record of 70 stakes wins in a year. "At first, when people kept telling me about it and telling me about it, I was just going like, 'yeah, yeah, yeah,'" Gomez said. "But now that I'm there, it's a nice feeling to be able to put my name up there with a guy like that."

Bushwacker ended 2006 with a second-place finish in a Hollywood allowance test in November, but had been out of the money in his three previous appearances this term. The five-year-old came back after a three-month layoff and faded to fifth in an optional claimer at Oak Tree Oct. 8. Tighter off that effort, he led the field through a half in :44.23 and held on to the wire for the surprise score.

Zetterberg (El Corredor), second in that test, was even-money as they loaded into the gate, but reared before the doors opened and injured himself, necessitating a late scratch. Sent away as the 5-2 second choice after that defecation, Wind's Legacy pressed the pace, grabbed the lead in the stretch and pulled away to beat Chop House George (Untutable) by two lengths. SANDERS AND SPENCER SHARE CHAMPIONSHIP

Following a thrilling finale to Britain's jockeys' championship, Seb Sanders and Jamie Spencer shared year-end honors after yesterday's closing meet of the turf flat season at Doncaster. Sanders led by one at the start of the day, and increased his advantage with a fortuitous victory aboard Incomparable (GB) in an incident-packed first division of the juvenile maiden. He looked booked for second behind Godolphin's Omnicat when that rival swerved and unseated Eddie Ahern nearing the line, and was lucky not to be brought down as the riderless horse veered into his path in the final strides. Spencer reduced arrears with the success of Generous Thought (GB) in the nursery handicap, and the Irishman could not have scripted a better climax to the campaign when booting home Inchnadamph (GB) in the last race on the card to join his rival with 190 winners. "I'm absolutely over the moon, as I've had a few shots at the title before only to fall short in the last month," said Sanders. "This year has been totally different, and I can't believe the amount of winners I've ridden in the last couple of weeks." The title had been shared just twice before--between George Fordham and Charlie Maidment in 1871, and Steve Donoghue and Charlie Elliott in 1923--and a third such occasion met with approval from Spencer. "It's the best result...but it's been so mentally draining over the last month," he said. "I admire Seb Sanders so much because he's the toughest rival you could ever meet. It's a draw and it's a straight draw as we didn't give up four or five days ago when we were level."

Galeota, winner of the 2004 G2 Mill Reef S. and second by a head in the G1 Golden Jubilee S. the following year, was gelded and returned to training after proving infertile at Rathasker Stud. The bay came back on the stakes scene with a victory in the Listed Scarborough S. at this track Sept. 12 and running second in the Listed Starlit S. at Goodwood three days later. He finished 16th in the Sept. 30 G2 Diadem S. at Ascot. Lining up here off a third in the G3 Bentinck S. at Newmarket Oct. 20, he raced up with the pace throughout and was driven out from the eighth pole to deny Borderlescott on the nod. "This fellow tries so hard and is one of the most honest horses I've ridden," said winning jockey Ryan Moore. "It's a shame he had to end his stud career. His legs are made of glass, and the boss [trainer Richard Hannon] has worked a miracle to get him back and win three races this year. If he hadn't had any injuries, he'd have been a proper horse."

Gower Song, who closed last season with a career-best second in the G3 Princess Royal S. at Ascot in September, came back to finish third in a May 6 Salisbury handicap. The bay didn't face the starter again until Nov. 1, when she posted a sixth in the Nov. 1 Listed EBF River Eden Fillies' S. at Lingfield. Settled at the back of the peloton for most of this contest, she made headway into third at the quarter-mile marker and was unrelenting under a final-furlong drive to oust last year's winner Lake Toya in the bobber for a first stakes score. "There's a fair old headwind down the straight and I thought the runner-up carried me a bit to the right near the finish," explained jockey Richard Quinn. "She's game and she stuck on well."

Making smooth headway on the outside once into the straight, the 5-1 second choice swooped for the lead just before the two pole and was ridden out from there to comfortably hold Sanbuch (GB) (Tobougg {Ire}) by 1 1/2 lengths. "I had a good position early, but I got hampered and was shuffled to the back," explained winning rider Ryan Moore. "When I gave him a dig in the belly he picked up and got to the front too soon, but he did it really well." The winner failed to find a buyer at $42,000 as a weanling at KEENOV, but sold the following autumn for 38,000gns at DONSEP. Lifetime Record: 10-4-1-2, £74,691. KISSING (GB) (f, 3, Grand Lodge--Love Divine {GB} {G1SW-GB, $431,558}, by Diesis {GB}), fifth at Nottingham July 18, broke smartly and assumed control passing the post first time around. Coaxed clear rounding the home turn, the 5-2 joint favorite was ridden out by recently crowned champion Seb Sanders from the eighth pole to easily hold market rival Demisemiquaver (GB) (Singspiel {Ire}) by 2 1/2 lengths. Kissing, the third foal from 2000 G1 Oaks winner Love Divine, is a half-sister to last year's G1 St. Leger S. hero Sixties Icon (GB) (Galileo {Ire}), Hwt. 3yo-GB at 14 + f, G1SW-GB, $707,660. Lifetime Record: 3-1-0-0, £2,969. O/B-Lordship Stud; T-Sir Mark Prescott.

MELBOURNE CUP CARNIVAL CONCLUDES

The four-day Melbourne Cup carnival at Flemington climaxed yesterday with a total attendance of 397,417, just 20,000 fewer than the record 418,069 that attended last year's affair. A record Emirates S. day crowd of 84,067 arrived yesterday to watch Miss Andretti (Aus) dispose of archrival Gold Edition (Aus) for the third time, while rank outsider Tears I Cry (Aus) won the Emirates S. itself. Some 115,705 flocked to Derby Day Nov. 3, while 102,411 attended Melbourne Cup day Nov. 6, and 95,230 came through the turnstiles on Crown Oaks day Nov. 8. The Victoria Racing Club's chief executive officer Dale Monteith said the strategy of pre-selling tickets for the first time had worked, despite the first three days of the Melbourne Cup carnival all being down on numbers. "It's something new and probably a bold decision to make the change from what we've done in the past, to just roll up at the gates and purchase an admission ticket," Monteith explained. "We're entirely happy with the final result. There is no doubt the EI [equine influenza] outbreak had an impact in reducing our attendance from what was a record high last year." Monteith added, "But numbers aren't everything--it's the experience of the event. We think last year there were days that were less than desirable." Monteith said about 600 people on Cup Day turned up at the gate without a ticket, but most of them were from overseas and were not aware of the pre-sale strategy. "We managed to accommodate them," Monteith said.

‘HUSSLER GETTING A VACATION

Hussler (Aus) (Hussonet) became a headliner during a carnival ravaged by equine influenza and the absence of horses from Sydney and Brisbane, but the gelding faltered as the favourite in the G1 Emirates S. at Flemington yesterday and will now be rested up. He finished 4 1/2 lengths back in 10th after racing close up early. The three-year-old won the G1 Caulfield Guineas and G1 Ascot Vale S. among five straight victories this season. "He was a shade disappointing," rider Danny Nikolic told AAP Racing and Sports. "He might have just had enough...He was perfect before the race, on his toes, but that's it now."
