KETTLEONEUPS THE FALLS CITY

Calvin Borel sustained a broken hand early on last Thanksgiving's card and watched his mount, Ermine, take the GII Falls City H. at Churchill Downs. There were no mishaps this time, however, as Borel gave Kettleoneup (Victory Gallop) his patented rail-skimming ride in yesterday's renewal. "I'd had a wonderful year, but when I fell and got hurt and broke my arm and [Ermine] won, it was kind of hard watching her win [while] in the hospital," Borel said. "This year, this filly just paid it off. I can't complain--I've had the year of my life." Borel earned his first Breeders' Cup score in 2006 courtesy of Street Sense, and that colt carried him to victory in this year's Run for the Roses. Kettleoneup broke alertly from her inside post, but settled into her usual unhurried rhythm. The chestnut picked up the pace turning for home, came through the wide open space along the rail and powered clear late. "[They] just have such great chemistry," said winning trainer Mike Tomlinson. "This is it for the year. She will be looking at the series of...races right into the Apple Blossom at Oaklawn." Cont. p2

ISTAN HOPES TO BULLY CLARK RIVALS

Today's $500,000 GII Clark H. will be the swan song for Istan (Gone West), who stretches out to a mile and an eighth for the first time. The bay has been a revelation this season at five, making 10 of his 20 career starts. He comes off a sensational tally in the GIII Ack Ack H. Nov. 3 going a one-turn mile over this track, scoring by 8 3/4 lengths while stopping the clock in 1:34 under a hand ride. That effort caught the attention of Breton Jones, who secured the son of Gone West for his Airdrie Stud in 2008.

Equi-Sport

While Jones and trainer Bill Mott pondered sending Istan to Aqueduct for Saturday's GI Hill 'n' Dale Cigar Mile, they opted to keep him in sight of the Twin Spires. "He's run so well over that track, we decided the wisest move was just to keep him there and run him in the Clark," Mott told Daily Racing Form. "The time and figures from the Ack Ack are very, very good. He's already proven as an extremely good miler and, hopefully, he'll get the extra eighth of a mile in an important race and enhance his popularity at stud." Clark cont. p3

TRAFFIC CITATION

Zann (Dynaformer) could be the one in today's $400,000 GI Citation H. at Hollywood. The progressive four-year-old came up a nose short last out in the GII Oak Tree Mile Oct. 7, and trainer Mike Machowsky thinks additional ground might do the trick. "A mile was a little short for him," he said. "A mile and a sixteenth should hit him right between the eyes." Citation cont. p3

Kettleoneup, in the money in eight of nine previous outings this season, landed the GIII Sixty Sails H. at Hawthorne Apr. 21 and had four additional graded-stakes placings, including a third in the GII Fleur de Lis H. over track and trip June 16. She came into the Falls City off a rallying score in the Autumn Leaves H. at Mountaineer Oct. 16.

The weather conditions could not have been more different than when Massive Drama captured his debut at Monmouth Park Oct. 26, but guess what, the result remained the same in sunny California. The dark bay posted a pair of bullet works since his victory in the slop, and went postward here as the 2-1 second choice to Into Mischief. After breaking a beat slowly, the Zayat colorbearer came up to put his head in front through a quarter in :22.11. He turned for home with the lead and, faced with a stern challenge from Into Mischief, dug in gamely and edged away from that colt nearing the wire. "He's got...that lovely, lengthy stride," said winning rider Kent Desormeaux. "He goes fast easy. His demeanor is unreal. He drags his feet to the gate, but when that door opens he launches out of there."

CITATION H.-GI, $400,000, 3yo/up, 1 1/16mT

PP	HORSE	SIRE	TRAINER	ODDS
1	Palace Episode	Machiavellian	bin Suroor	4-1
2	Independent George	Cozzene	Motion	15-1
3	Lang Field	Langfuhr	Sherman	12-1
4	Visa Parade (Arg)	Parade Marshal	Sadler	20-1
5	Willow O Wisp	Misnomer	Cerin	6-1
6	Silent Name (Jpn)	Sunday Silence	Frankel	6-1
7	Zann	Dynaformer	Machowsky	5-2
8	Proudinsky (Ger)	Silvano (Ger)	Frankel	3-1
9	Crested (GB)	Fantastic Light	W Dollase	12-1

Mike Machowsky, based at Santa Anita, considered sending Zann across the Pacific, but opted for a cross-town van instead. "We were on the fence about going to Hong Kong [in December for the G1 Mile at Sha Tin], but we'd rather stay and take our best shot here," said Machowsky. Zann was supplemented to the Citation for $8,000. Among the opponents here is Silent Name, who will bid to end his career on a high note before entering stud next year at Adena Springs. An impressive winner of the GII Commonwealth BC S. on the Keeneland Polytrack in April, the big bay was transferred to Bobby Frankel from Gary Mandella following a seventh in the GI Triple Bend H. July 7. He's had just one outing since, fading to 12th in the GI Breeders' Cup Mile at Monmouth Oct. 27, but can be forgiven that effort over a bog coming off a 3 1/2-month break. Godolphin, victorious last year with Ashkal Way (Ire), hope Palace Episode can follow in his hoofprints. Hero of the G1 Racing Post Trophy in 2005, the dark bay made just one start last year. He finished third in the GI Kelso H. Sept. 29 before running seventh over soft ground in the GIII Knickerbocker H. Oct. 28.

7	Fairbanks	Giant's Causeway	Pletcher	8-1
8	Istan	Gone West	Mott	5-2
9	Going Ballistic	Lite the Fuse	Von Hemel	10-1

The consistent Diamond Stripes was off the board for the first time in his career in the GI Breeders' Cup Classic Oct. 27 at Monmouth, but should bounce back to form with today's shorter distance and less salty foes. Third by a half-length in the GI Stephen Foster H. over track and trip in June, the grey defeated Magna Graduate in the GII Meadowlands Cup Oct. 5 prior to his Monmouth effort.

6	Cindy's Mom	A.P. Indy	H Jerkens	15-1
7	Pool Land	Silver Deputy	Albertrani	5-2
8	Lost Etiquette	Lost Soldier	Reynolds	12-1

Pool Land, seven for 10 lifetime, won the GI Ruffian H. last year for Todd Pletcher before a ninth in the GI Breeders' Cup Distaff. Now with trainer Tom Albertrani, she returned from a 9 1/2-month hiatus to wire the field in the Beautiful Pleasure S. at Belmont Sept. 26 and should love this one-turn mile. Darley's Golden Velvet, a daughter of MGSW Caress and a half to GISW Sky Mesa made an eye-catching U.S. bow Oct. 18 at Belmont, drawing off to a 6 1/2-length allowance tally. She has trained smartly since and is eligible to improve.

The Kentucky Jockey Club S., named for the original holding company of Churchill Downs, was run at the distance of one mile before being changed to the current distance in 1980. Established in 1920 as the track's main steppingstone to the GI Kentucky Derby, it is the fourth oldest stakes on the fall schedule behind Clark H., the Falls City H and the Golden Rod S. The event produced three subsequent winners of the Run for the Roses in the span of four years from 1927 to 1930: Mrs. John Hertz's Reigh Count, H.P. Gardner's Clyde Van Dusen and Greentree Stable's Twenty Grand. The last horse to win the Kentucky Jockey Club S. and the Derby was John Olin's Cannonade in 1973. In recent years, Real Quiet was third in the 1997 renewal of the Kentucky Jockey Club before going on to his success on the first Saturday in May. Wild Gale, victorious in the 1992 running, returned to Louisville the following spring to be third to Sea Hero. Editor's Note, runner-up to Ide in the 1994 renewal, was sixth in the Derby before going on to victory in the 1995 GI Belmont S. Among trainers, D. Wayne Lukas has saddled four winners of the race, most recently Cape Town in 1997. He also sent out Time Limit to complete the exacta that year. Team Lukas is represented in this year's running by Mythical Pegasus (Fusaichi Pegasus). Three other trainers with horses in this year's race have previously visited the Kentucky Jockey Club winner's circle. Ken McPeck, victorious with Repent in 2001, has the impressive maiden winner Racecar Rhapsody (Tale of the Cat) this time. Tony Reinstedler, who won in 1993 with War Deputy, has Real Appeal (Successful Appeal) this year, and Nick Zito saddles Cool Coal Man (Mineshaft) and Anak Nakal (Victory Gallop). The Cliff's Edge won the 2003 Kentucky Jockey Club S. for Zito and Robert LaPenta, owner of Cool Coal Man and likely Eclipse Award winner War Pass.

A Wonderful KJC in '06...

The Steve Asmussen barn, absent from this year's running, is responsible for the last two winners of the Kentucky Jockey Club, Private Vow in 2005; and Tiz Wonderful, who established a new stakes record of 1:42.84 last year. It proved to be a race of the highest quality, given the 2007 performances of the also-rans. Though Tiz Wonderful's campaign was shortened by injury, last year's runner-up Any Given Saturday took this year's GI Haskell Invitational, while third-place finisher Dominican bested Street Sense in the GI Toyota Blue Grass S. Going Ballistic, fourth last year, upset Grassshopper in the GII Super Derby S. and will take his chance against older rivals in today's GII Clark H. Joe Got Even, fifth to Tiz Wonderful, was a stakes winner and was third in the GII Lane's End S., while sixth-placed Starbase was second in the GII Coolmore Lexington S. and third in the GII Amsterdam S.

GALILEO GALA AT GOFFS Galileo (Ire) was a champion on the racetrack and is now one of Europe's best young sires, can do no wrong, and Coolmore's heir apparent to Sadler's Wells was firmly in the spotlight again during yesterday's final foal session of the Goffs

November Sale. Hip 1248, a half-brother to the 2005 G3 Gallinule S. winner Im Spartacus (GB), created waves when selling to Kennycourt Stud for €280,000 late in the day. From the high-class family of El Gran Senor and Try My Best, the April-foaled colt from the draft of the Irish National Stud was the apple of Eugene McDermott's eye, and the owner of the County Kildare operation was not to be denied. Galileo also provided the joint top-priced filly of the sale when M.V. Magnier paid €240,000 for River Downs Stud's hip 1154, a half-sister to the group-placed duo of Rabi (Ire) and Kawagino (Ire). "She's a lovely filly," Magnier said of the granddaughter of the 1983 G1 Prix Vermeille winner Sharaya. "She's a really athletic, good-walking sort from a good pedigree and by an exceptional sire. She'll be kept to race." Another Coolmore heavyweight, Montjeu (Ire), was responsible for the other star filly when Felipe Hinojosa's Spanish operation Yeguada de Milagro matched that sum for hip 1227, a daughter of the 2005 G3 Prix Fille de l'Air heroine Antioquia (GB). She is a descendant of the excellent producer Riverqueen (Fr). Galileo's dominance of the session was completed by BBA Ireland's purchase of Barnane Stud's hip 1190, a half-sister to the multiple group winner Tropical Lady (Ire) for €190,000; and Paul Shanahan paying €175,000 for Milltown House Stud's colt consigned as hip 1064. Of the former, BBA Ireland's Eamon Reilly said, "I've bought her on behalf of a client to race and then breed from; she will not be coming up for resale. She's a very good-looking filly by a top sire and there was a lot to like about her. The half-sister was a very high-class filly." Hip 1064's granddam is the 1986 G2 Criterium de Maisons-Laffitte winner Grecian Urn (Ire), who also produced the Group 1-placed Dark Shell (Ire). The first crop by Oratorio (Ire) (Danehill) was born this year, and Timmy Hyde was a fan of Coolnahay Stud's hip 1129, a colt from the immediate family of a trio of smart Italian stakes performers. "He is a really good foal, probably as good a one as you'll see all week," Hyde said of his €180,000 purchase. "He's by an exceptionally tough and wonderful racehorse. We all know what Oratorio did, and he's getting good-looking stock."

November Sale. Hip 1248, a half-brother to the 2005 G3 Gallinule S. winner Im Spartacus (GB), created waves when selling to Kennycourt Stud for €280,000 late in the day. From the high-class family of El Gran Senor and Try My Best, the April-foaled colt from the draft of the Irish National Stud was the apple of Eugene McDermott's eye, and the owner of the County Kildare operation was not to be denied. Galileo also provided the joint top-priced filly of the sale when M.V. Magnier paid €240,000 for River Downs Stud's hip 1154, a half-sister to the group-placed duo of Rabi (Ire) and Kawagino (Ire). "She's a lovely filly," Magnier said of the granddaughter of the 1983 G1 Prix Vermeille winner Sharaya. "She's a really athletic, good-walking sort from a good pedigree and by an exceptional sire. She'll be kept to race." Another Coolmore heavyweight, Montjeu (Ire), was responsible for the other star filly when Felipe Hinojosa's Spanish operation Yeguada de Milagro matched that sum for hip 1227, a daughter of the 2005 G3 Prix Fille de l'Air heroine Antioquia (GB). She is a descendant of the excellent producer Riverqueen (Fr). Goffs Chief Executive Henry Beeby said, "Over the last five days we have experienced every emotion possible in bloodstock terms, with some excellent highs and a few lows. Among the highs was the huge demand for commercial foals. The start of the week witnessed the reality of the lower end of the yearling market materialise, and many have felt the effects of over-production hit home this week." Selling at Goffs continues today with the first of three days of fillies and broodmares; bidding starts at 10 a.m. Full results can be found on www.goffs.com.

GOFFS NOVEMBER SALE -FRIDAY - MARES

1424, Midnight Angel (GB), m, 13, Machiavellian--Night At Sea (GB), by Night Shift

Consigned by Knockatrina House

Until this year, the listed-winning Midnight Angel had produced multiple winners, but no fireworks. That all changed this year due to the exploits of her latest runner Dark Angel (Ire), who captured the G1 Middle Park S. and G2 Mill Reef S. before being sent to stud. She is in foal to Coolmore's freshman Aussie Rules (Danehill).

1441, Willowbridge (Ire), m, 8, Entrepreneur (GB)--Fruition (Ire), by Rheingold (Ire)

Consigned by Swettenham Stud

Part of the Sangster Family's dispersal, this full-sister to hip 1442 is a 3/4-sister to champion Northern Spur (Ire) and group winners Great Marquess (GB) and Kneller (GB), as well as the dams of Sundrop (Jpn) and Glyndebourne (Ire). This is the outstanding family of Marju (Ire) and Salsabil (Ire) and, like her full sibling, she is in foal to Holy Roman Emperor (Ire) (Danehill).

1449, Wow the Critics (Ire), m, 6, Danehill--Trusted Partner, by Affirmed

Consigned by Moyglare Stud Farm

As a result of the downsizing of Walter Haefner's Moyglare operation, buyers have been presented with the golden opportunity of obtaining this full sister to the top-class distaffer Dress to Thrill (Ire). Her dam is the 1988 G1 Irish 1000 Guineas heroine Trusted Partner, and she is carrying a foal from the first crop of Hurricane Run (Ire) (Montjeu {Ire}).

1534, Saga Celebre (Fr), f, 3, Peintre Celebre--Saga d'Ouilly (Fr), by Linamix (Fr)

Consigned by His Highness the Aga Khan's Studs

This filly, fourth in the Listed Finale S. at The Curragh last month, emanates from one of the Late Jean-Luc Lagardere's greatest families. It's produced the dam's full-brother Sagamix (Fr), hero of the 1998 G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe; and half-sibling Sagacity (Fr), winner of the 2000 G1 Criterium de Saint-Cloud. This pedigree received a boost this term when the talented sophomore Sageburg (Ire) captured the Listed Prix Ridgway and was fourth in the G2 Prix Niel and G2 Prix Dollar.

Also Ran: Park Avenue Ball, Debussy, Bishop Court Hill, Around the Cape.

Grand Champion didn't make the races until February of this year, but the four-year-old has rewarded his connections' patience. Never worse than third in nine previous outings, the bay came here off a hard-fought score in the Maryland Million Sprint H. at Laurel Oct. 13. The crowd's choice came away cleanly and settled in third as Bishop Court Hill (Holy Bull) and Debussy (Concerto) dueled through splits of :21.92 and :45.12. Grand Champion and Joey P. moved in tandem to take over in the lane, with Joey P. looking like a winner, but the Maryland-bred fought back on the inside and won in the shadow of the wire. City Attraction, who closed strongly on the outside to just miss in a blanket finish, has been entered for Saturday's GI Hill 'n' Dale Cigar Mile. Video, sponsored by Taylor Made.

FRENCH TRANSITION (c, 3, Giant's Causeway--French Manicure, by Hawkster), entered as main-track only, cleared his state-bred conditions with a 6 1/4-length score at Saratoga Sept. 2. Second in the Sherpa Guide S. at Belmont Sept. 2, the dark bay never factored when ninth in the Empire Classic Oct. 20 at Big Sandy, but was the 5-2 second choice in this softer spot. Prominent from the front, French Transition headed favored Teide (Mt. Livermore)--making his first start since February--on the turn and got the better of that colt late to score by 1 1/2 lengths. SILVER SOURCE (c, 3, Honour and Glory--Southern Letters, by Capote), winner of an optional claimer at the Spa Aug. 4, came back to run Les Grands Trois to a neck in a similar contest at Belmont Sept. 22. He failed to fire in the slop at Monmouth Oct. 27, finishing eighth in the Select S., but was favored at 2-1 to get back on track here. In the thick of things from the start, the bay took command in the lane and came home a 1 1/2-length winner. Second-choice Premium Wine (Prime Timber) completed the exacta. Lifetime Record: SP, 10-3-2-1, $125,560. O-Four Roses Thoroughbreds. B-Buckram Oak Farm (KY). T-Richard E Dutrow Jr.

6th-AQU, $52,000, Msw, 2yo, 6f, 1:10, gd.
ACCREDIT (c, 2, E Dubai--Pocketbrook, by Montbrook), a $32,000 OBSOCT weanling and $160,000 KEESEP yearling, failed to lift a hoof in his Sept. 15 opener at Belmont and wound up eighth, beaten 25 lengths. Dismissed at 34-1 in his first start back, the Florida-bred was hustled away from his rail post by Rajiv Maragh to hold a short lead after an opening :21.49 quarter. He was shadowed by 1-2 Tiz It (Tiznow) on the turn and passed by that colt midstretch, but dug in very gamely and edged ahead late to graduate by 1 1/4 lengths. Tiz It had been second by 3/4 of a length to Massive Drama in his Oct. 26 debut at Monmouth. Video, sponsored by Taylor Made. Lifetime Record: 2-1-0-0, $31,546. O-Darley Stable. Stormin Baghdad was transferred from Helen Pitts after a wide-trip seventh in the GIII Hirsch Jacobs S. at Pimlico May 19. The bay didn't make his first start for Steve Asmussen until Sept. 29, when he ran third by a neck in the GIII Kentucky Cup Sprint at Turfway. He came back to take an optional claimer at Churchill Nov. 1 and was the second choice while facing stakes-class elders here. He battled for the lead with Going Wild through splits of :22.02 and :44.86 and outgamed that rival in the final furlong for his first stakes score.
